مبادئ أساسية لفهم القرآن

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الحمد لله رب العالمين ، القائل في كتابه الكريم : ﴿ قد جاءكم من الله نور وكتاب مبين ﴾ ، والصلاة والسلام على خاتم النبيين سيدنا محمد وعلى آله وصحبه أجمعين : وبعد ،

أسلوب الوحي وأسلوب البشر في الكتابة ،

إن الكتب التي ندرسها عامة نجد أن جميع ما فيها من معلومات وأفكار ودلائل يدور حول موضوع بعينه ، بأسلوب تأليفى وبصورة منسجمة . ولأجل ذلك فالدارس الذي ليس له عهد بالقرآن ، إذا أراد أن يدرسه أول مرة في حياته فإنما يتناوله وهو على ظن أنه باعتباره « كتاباً » سيكون على غرار عامة الكتب التي تعود قراءتها ، قد حدد موضوعه المنشود ، ثم قسم هذا الموضوع إلى أبواب وفصول . وكذلك يظن هذا الكتاب قد تناول كل شعبة من شعب الحياة الإنسانية على وجه الاستقلال بالبحث والعرض ليسرد ما يتعلق بها من أحكام وتعاليم بترتيب متسلسل . إلا أن الدارس إذا بدأ يتصفح هذا الكتاب يفاجأ بعكس ما كان يتوقعه ، فيجد أسلوباً لم يألفه من قبل ، إذ أنه يرى فيه المسائل العقائدية والتعاليم الخلقية ، والأحكام الشرعية ، والدعوة والنصيحة ، والموعظة والنقد ، والزجر والتخويف والترغيب ، والحجج والشواهد ، والقصص التاريخية ، والإشارات إلى آيات الله في الكون . كل ذلك يتكرر بيانه بين حين وحين ، ويبدأ ويعاد بوجوه متباينة وأساليب متنوعة ، كما أنه بينما يطرق موضوعاً فإذا به يولي وجهه شطر موضوع ثان وثالث ، بل يكون الأمر أغرب من ذلك ، حين يبتدىء موضوعاً ثم يتخلله موضوع آخر بفترة ، كما يتبدل المخاطب والمتكلم بين حين وآخر ، وتتجه وجهة المحاوراة إلى جهات مختلفة مرة بعد أخرى .

إن الدارس إذا وجد هذا وأمثاله على غير ما ألفه من أساليب الكتابة وأنماط البيان ، وعكس ما تعودته من مناهج التعبير تأخذه الدهشة ويبدأ يستشعر أن هذا الكتاب ينقصه الترتيب ويموزه التنسيق ، ويشكل من أوله إلى آخره مجموعة من شذور متناثرة وقطع مبعثرة 'جمعت في عبارات متسلسلة وحلقات متسكة .

فمرة ينمض نظره عن المطالب خلال دراسته ، وأخرى يطمئن قلبه بتفسيرات عديدة لانعدام التناسق الظاهري .

وثالثة يأتي بنتائج غريبة لمحاولته إيجاد وجوه للتناسق ، وذلك باجتهاد شخصي متكلف .

ورابعة يستسلم لفكرة ' شذور متناثرة ' فتصبح كل آية من آياته معزولة عن السياق العام ، وتعود مسرحاً لابتكار المعاني التي تخالف ما يريده العزيز الحكيم .

معلومات أولية ضرورية :

ولكي تتحقق دراسة جديدة لكتاب من الكتب ، من الضروري جداً أن يكون الدارس قبل كل شيء على معرفة بموضوع الكتاب ، وعلى علم مسبق بمقاصده وغايته

المتوخاة والبحث الرئيسي فيه ، وعلى اطلاع بطرائق أسلوبه ، وعلى خبرة بمصطلحات لغته ونمطه الخاص في التعبير وأن لا يغيب عن نظره الأوضاع والملابس التي تكن وراء ألفاظه ونصوصه .

أصل القرآن :

ويمكن أن يتضح أصل القرآن في النقاط الآتية :

٢ - وحينما عهد الله تعالى إلى الإنسان بهذا المنصب الخطير ، أثبت في قرارة نفسه هذه المعاني : إني أنا ربك وربّ هذا العالم ، وإلهك وإله هذا العالم ، وحاكمك وحاكم

موضوع القرآن وبحثه الرئيسي وهدفه :

والآن وقد عرف القارىء « أصل » القرآن ، يمكنه أن يفهم ما هو موضوع هذا الكتاب ، وما هو بحثه الرئيسي ، وما هو هدفه المنشود :

والذي يدرس القرآن واضعاً هذه النقاط الثلاث الأساسية أمام عينيه يتبين له بدون ما غموض ، أن هذا الكتاب لم يجد عن موضوعه وبحثه الرئيسي وهدفه المنشود ، حق ولا قيد شعرة . وتجد مباحثه المتنوعة تلتئم مع بحثه الرئيسي التثام الدور الملونة الصغيرة والكبيرة في سمط القلادة السندسي . إنه يتحدث عن السماء كيف صنعت ، وعن الإنسان كيف خلق ، وعن المشاهدات في آثار الكون ، وعن الأمم الخالية وقصصها . إنه ينتقد أعمال مختلف الأمم وسلوكها وعقائدها . إنه يوضح الشؤون والمسائل التي هي وراء الطبيعة . إنه يتناول أموراً كثيرة غير ما ذكرنا ، لا يدرس الإنسان علوم الطبيعة أو التاريخ أو الفلسفة أو أي فن من الفنون أو أدب من الآداب ، بل لكي يزيل ما عليه الناس من خطأ وسوء فهم عن الحق ، ويقرر في أذهانهم الحقيقة الواقعية ، ويشعرهم بما يؤدي إليه المنهج الذي يخالف الحق من مصير بئيس وعاقبة وخيمة ، ويدعوهم إلى المنهج الذي يلائم الحق ويأخذهم إلى حسن المآب . ولهذا السبب نفسه هو لا يتحدث عن كل هذه الأمور إلا في أسلوب يتناسب مع هدفه ، وإلى حد يلزم له . ومن دأبه أنه يذكر هذه الأمور بقدر الحاجة ثم يعود إلى بيان هدفه وبحثه الرئيسي

غير أنه من الصعب على الإنسان أن يفهم الأسلوب البياني للقرآن وترتيبه وأكثر مباحثه ما دام لا يعرف كيفية نزوله .

مراحل نزول القرآن :

المرحلة الأولى :

وقصته أن الله تعالى قد اصطفى عبداً من عباده في مكة - إحدى مدن جزيرة العرب - لرسالته ، وأمره أن يبدأ بدعوته في مدينته وفي عشيرته ( قريش ) ، وقد لقنه التعاليم التي لا بد منها للشروع في هذه المهمة ، وهذه التعاليم الابتدائية كانت في معظمها تحتوي على ثلاث نواح :

أولاً : تعليم الرسول كيف يعد نفسه لتحقيق هذا الأمر الجليل وعلى أي طراز يسمى سعيه .

ثانياً : المعلومات الأولية عن الحق ، والرد الإجمالي على ما كان في أذهان الناس الذين يعيشون حوله من مغالطات وأخطاء عن الحق جعلت منهمجهم في الحياة في عَمى وضلال .

ثالثاً : دعوة الناس إلى المنهج الصحيح ، وإيضاح مبادئ الأخلاق الرئيسية التي يحتضنها الهدى الإلهي والتي في اتباعها نجاح الإنسان وسعادته .

كانت هذه المعاني الأولية تحتوي على شذور موجزة تناسب مرحلة انطلاق الدعوة في لغتها الرفيعة ، وفي معانيها السامية ، وفي حلاوتها المتناهية ، وفي تأثيرها البالغ وهي في أعلى درجات الذوق الأدبي الذي كان يسير مستوى ذوق المخاطب لتنطبع هذه الشذور

الزمردية من النغم الإلهي في قلوب القوم انطباع السهم في الصدور ، ولتميل إليها الآذان مستجيبة لترنمها الساحر ، ولتجري الألسن بترويدها لما فيها من جمال التناسب وحلاوة التنسيق .

استغرقت هذه المرحلة الابتدائية من الدعوة حوالي أربع أو خمس سنوات ، ورد الفعل الذي ظهر في هذه المرحلة من دعوة النبي ﷺ كان يتجلى في ثلاثة أشكال :

١ - آمن جماعة من خيار الناس بهذه الدعوة الكريمة واستعدوا ليكونوا أمة مسلمة .

٢ - نهض العدد الكبير من الناس يناوئون هذه الدعوة ، إما لجهلهم أو انجرافهم وراء الأهواء والأغراض أو ولوعهم بما وجدوا عليه آباءهم .

٣ - بدأت هذه الدعوة الجديدة تتعدى حدود مكة وأهلها من قريش وتنتشر في نطاق أوسع نسبياً .

المرحلة الثانية :

هذا في جانب المؤمنين ، وفي الجانب الآخر أُنذر الذين كفروا بالله وتمردوا على رسوله ، وحاربوا دعوته وأعرضوا عن الحق ، بما صارت إليه الأمم التي خلت من قبلهم

المرحلة الثالثة :

انقلب الوضع في هذه المرحلة رأساً على عقب ، فالأمة المسلمة تمكنت من تأسيس

دولة مستقلة ، وبدأ النضال المسلح من أصحاب الجاهلية القديمة ، وبدأت الدعوة تواجه أمم الأنبياء السالفة - أي الأمة اليهودية والأمة المسيحية - ، كما بدأت تتخلص كذلك من المنافقين الذين تسربوا إلى الكيان الداخلي للأمة الإسلامية ، وبعد مقاساة الصراع العنيف والكفاح المديد عشر سنوات بلغت الحركة الإسلامية في نهاية المطاف من القوة والسلطان درجة أصبح معها العرب كلهم خاضعين مستسلمين ، وانفتحت أمامها أبواب بث الدعوة على الصعيد العالمي ، والقيام بحركة إصلاحية عبر الحدود ، وقد اشتملت هذه المرحلة أيضاً على عدة مراحل جزئية واجهت الدعوة في كل مرحلة منها حاجات تختص بها ، وتحقيقاً لهذه الحاجات أنزل الله على نبيه ﷺ من الكلمات ( الآيات ) ما كان أسلوبها يتنوع بتنوع الحاجة ، فمرة كان أسلوبها أسلوب الخطاب المجلجل الرنان المتأجج بنار المشاعر ، وأخرى أسلوب الأوامر والمراسيم الملكية ، وثالثة أسلوب دروس المعلم ، ورابعة أسلوب تذكير المصلح الناصح ، وجاء فيها كيف ينشأ المجتمع وتؤسس الدولة وتبنى المدنية الصالحة . وعلى أي المبادئ والأنظمة تقام مختلف نواحي الحياة ، وبأي طريق يتعامل مع المنافقين ومع أهل الذمة من الكافرين ، وعلى أي لون توطد العلاقات مع أهل الكتاب ، وماذا يختار من السلوك مع الأعداء المحاربين والأقوام المعاهدين . وكيف تعد هذه الجماعة المؤمنة المنظمة نفسها للقيام بمهمة خلافة الله في الأرض .

القرآن كتاب دعوة ومنهج حركة :

ويتضح مما ذكرنا آنفاً أن القرآن كان نزوله مقترناً بالدعوة وتطورها وسيرها ، فنزلت منه قطع مختلفة ، نجماً نجماً ، وفق حاجات الدعوة المتجددة ومقتضاها الواقعي في كل مراحلها ومنازلها منذ بدايتها حتى اكتمالها ، وذلك في فترة استغرقت ثلاثة وعشرين عاماً كاملاً . ومن البديهي إذن أن مثل هذا الكتاب يعوزه الترتيب التأليفي من النوع الذي يختاره الطالب في إعداد البحث لأجل الحصول على شهادة الدكتوراه ، كما أن القطع المختلفة الأحجام التي كانت نزلت منسجمة مع تطور الدعوة ، ما كانت تنشر في رسائل وكتيبات ، بل كانت تلقى في خطاب من رسول الله ثم تتناقل مشافهة وتبلغ من فرد لفرد . لذلك ما كانت تصاغ على أسلوب التأليف ، بل كانت تعرض في الأسلوب الخطابي الذي لا ينسج على منسوال محاضرات الأستاذ في الجامعة ، بل كان يشابه خطبة الداعية الذي عليه أن يستهدف إثارة العواطف بجانب مناشدته العقول ، وعليه أن يواجه كل نوع من أنواع العقليات ، وعليه أن يعمل لما تقتضيه دعوته وحركته في ظروف متباينة وأوضاع متضاربة . فمن إقرار الدعوة في سويداء القلوب إلى مخاطبة العقول بمختلف النظريات إلى استشارة الفيض من المشاعر ، إلى كسر شوكة المعارضة ، إلى تربية الأتباع وإصلاحهم ، إلى نفخ الحماس في نفوسهم ، إلى تحويل الأعداء أصدقاء أوفياء ، إلى إرغام المنكرين على الإقرار ، إلى دحض حجة الجاحدين وقطع دابر نفوذهم الأدبي ، وما إلى ذلك من الأمور التي يجب على رائد الدعوة وقائد الحركة أن يقوم بها على أكمل وجه وأوفق منهج .

ونظراً لكل ذلك ، فإن الكلمات ( الآيات والسور ) التي أنزلها الله على رسوله ﷺ فيما يتعلق بمهمته الجليلة كانت في أسلوب خطابها على نفس الأسلوب الذي يلائم ظروف الدعوة ويناسب واقعها الذي تعيش فيه ؛ ومن هنا لا يحسن بنا أن نطلب منه الأسلوب الذي يخص محاضرات الجامعة ودروسها .

سر التكرار في القرآن :

ومن هنا يتضح وضوح الشمس في رابعة النار ، سرّ تردد بيانات القرآن بكثرة ، إذ مما تقتضيه طبيعة الدعوة أن لا تحدث إلا بما يناسب المرحلة التي تعيش فيها ؛ وما دامت تعيش فيها لا تتمرص لحديث يخص المراحل المقبلة ، بل تظل تردد حديثها عن

المرحلة التي هي فيها ولو استغرقت الشهور أو السنين ، وقد تتضجر الطبائع وتسام الأذن لو بقيت العبارة بعينها تتكرر ، وفي صياغة واحدة تتردد ، لذلك فإن المباحث التي تخص مرحلة من المراحل وتمس الحاجة إلى عرضها مرة بعد أخرى كان يجب أن تصاغ في كل مرة في ألفاظ مبتكرة وأساليب ناضرة ومحاسن بيانية غضة طريفة ، تشتهيها الأنفس وتتلقيها القلوب ، وبذلك تصبح كل مرحلة من المراحل متينة القواعد ، محكمة الدعائم ، مستقيمة البناء . ويجب فوق ذلك أن لا يعزب عن البال تلك المبادئ العامة والقواعد التي تعتمد عليها الدعوة في كل حين من الأحيان وفي كل وضع من الأوضاع منذ الخطوة الأولى حتى تمامها وكما لها ، بل لا بد من أن تلفت إليها الأنظار في جميع مراحل الدعوة مهما كان الحال ، وهذا هو السر في شمول جميع سور القرآن على موضوعات ثابتة ، ولكن في ألفاظ متجددة وأساليب متنوعة .

كيف رتبت آيات القرآن :

وإذا سبرت غور ما سبق قوله لتوصلت إلى جواب مقنع على ما يدور في خلدك من من سؤال : لماذا لم يجمع النبي ﷺ القرآن حسب ترتيب نزوله عليه ؟

إن للقرآن كان ينزل وفق الترتيب الذي سارت عليه الدعوة منذ بدئها حتى بلغت أوج الكمال ، ويتضح من ذلك أنه لم يكن من الحكمة في شيء أن يختار لتدوين الأجزاء المنزلة نفس الترتيب الذي كان ملتصقاً مع سير الدعوة وتطورها ، بل الأمر كان بحاجة إلى ترتيب جديد يكون أكثر انسجاماً وأشدّ تجانساً وأدقّ ارتباطاً منسجماً مع الواقع الآتي بعد اكتمال الدعوة وتمام النعمة ، لأن المخاطبين الأولين لهذه الدعوة في بداية أمرها كانوا ممن يجهلون الإسلام بالكلية ، فلذلك غشام الوحي بأوليات التعليم وبتدريجات الإيمان ، ثم لما اكتملت الدعوة وبلغت ما شاء الله أن تبلغه أصبح مخاطبوها الأولون من الذين آمنوا بها

وما لا يختلف فيه اثنان أن الذين يعترضون على الترتيب الحالي للقرآن يظنون عن سوء فهم أن هذا الكتاب قد أنزل إلى طلبة علم التاريخ وعلم الاجتماع .

وفيما يتعلق بترتيب القرآن يجب أن يعرف الدارس كذلك أن الترتيب الحالي ما قام به الذين جاءوا بعد النبي ﷺ ، بل هو توقيفي وضعه النبي ﷺ نفسه بتوقيف من

تدوين القرآن :

ولما ظهرت فتنة الردّة بعد وفاة النبي ﷺ قام الصحابة رضوان الله عليهم بمعارك دامية لقمعها وقطع دابرها ، فاستشهد فيها جماعة كبيرة من قراء الصحابة الذين كانوا يحفظون القرآن كله ، الأمر الذي بعث عمر رضي الله عنه على القول بأنه لا ينبغي الاعتماد على صورة واحدة في باب المحافظة على الذكر الحكيم ، بل يجب الإهتمام بحفظه في قراطيس الصحف مع حفظه في طيات الصدور ، فذكر عمر - رضي الله عنه - ضرورة هذا الأمر

(٢) العصب - بضم فسكون وبضمتين أيضاً - جمع عصب ، وهو جريدة النخل ، كانوا يكشطون الخوص ويكتبون في الطرف العريض . والأدم - بضم تين وبفتحتين أيضاً - جمع أديم ، وهو الجلد المدهوخ . والأكتاف جمع كتف ، وهو عظم عريض يكون في أصل كتف الحيوان .

وللرتاب أن يرتاب في كون القرآن منزلاً من الله تعالى إن شاء. أما كون ما بأيدينا اليوم من القرآن هو عين القرآن بنصه وفصته الذي أنزل على محمد ﷺ وأقرأه الناس فهذه ظاهرة تاريخية لا مجال للشك والإرتياب فيها . لا تجد شيئاً مما توارثته الدنيا في التاريخ البشري الطويل يكون على ما عليه القرآن من الثبوت القطعي المحتوم . ومن يشك في صحته فقد يشك أيضاً في ظهور الإمبراطورية الرومانية على الأرض المعمورة في عصر من عصور التاريخ ، أو في الحكم المفلوي في الهند قبل قرون ، أو في وجود شخصية «نابليون» وإبداء الشك في ظواهر تاريخية كهذه ليس من خصائص العلم والمعرفة وإنما هو من أمارات الجهالة والغباوة .

منهج لدراسة القرآن

يجب كخطوة أولى - على كل من يريد فهم القرآن ، سواء آمن به أو لم يؤمن أن

منهج الدراسة التفصيلية الكاملة :

ثم إنّ الذي لا يريد من القرآن إلا معرفة إجمالية فعسى أن يكفيه دراسته مرة أو مرتين . أما الذي يريد أن يغوص في أعماقه ، ويدرك أسرارها فلا يكفيه أن يدرسه أربع أو خمس مرات ، وعليه أن يفزع إليه تكررراً ومراراً ، ويُقبل على دراسته إقبالاً لا ملل فيه ولا كلال ، وأن يدرسه كل مرة من وجهة جديدة ، وأن يأخذ معه — كطالب من الطلبة — الأدوات اللازمة من الدفاتر والقلم ليسجل مسامعاً له من نقاط هامة خلال الدراسة . والذين يرغبون في دراسته على نهج قويم كما قلنا ، عليهم أن يستوعبوا قراءته في ختمتين لمجرّد أن يلح أمامهم نظامه المعقّدة ومنهجه العام الذي يفاضل الدنيا عليه ، كما عليهم أن يحاولوا خلال الدراسة الأولية تحقيق النظرة الإجمالية في مشاهد القرآن العامة ويتبيّنوا التصورات الأصلية التي يقدرها للناس ومعالم نظام الحياة التي يبيّنها على أساس هذه التصورات . وفي خلال هذه الرحلة الممتعة إذا خطر في ذهنهم سؤال فلا يستعجلون البتّ في شأنه بل يقيّدونه في مذكرة ، ويواصلون مطالعتهم ملتزمين بجانب الصبر والجدّ ، فهم سوف يعثرون غالباً على الجواب فيما يقبل من الصفحات . وإذا عثروا عليه قيّدوه كذلك في المذكرة أمام السؤال . وإذا لم يظفروا بالجواب خلال الدراسة الأولية يستأنفون دراسته كجولة ثانية ويكون الصبر حليفهم والتأني دثارهم . وأقول بناء على تجاربي: لا يكون من سؤال إلا وتجدون جوابه ، وما من معضلة إلا وتبلغون حلّها في دراستكم العميقة الثانية . اللهم إلا في الندرة النادرة التي تتقاصر عنها أفهام الرجال .

هذا ، وبعد تحقّق النظر الإجمالي الشامل في القرآن على ما أشرنا ، على الدارس ، أن يبدأ بدراسة تفصيلية للقرآن . وفي هذا الصدد يجب عليه أن يثبت في قرارة ذهنه كل ناحية من تعاليم القرآن التي يمرّ بها أثناء الدراسة ، فيحاول — مثلاً — أن يعرف ما هو

منهج دراسة مسألة بعينها :

شروط أساسية لدارس القرآن :

ومها يتخذ الإنسان من التدابير ويستخدم من الوسائل لفهم القرآن فإنه لا يصل إلى جوهر القرآن وروحه كما ينبغي ، ما دام هو لا يعمل وفق ما جاء به القرآن .

القرآن كتاب هداية للبشرية كافة ،

وكل رجل شريفاً كان أو وضيعاً يعلم أن القرآن أعلن أنه جاء لهداية النوع البشري بأكمله ، ولكن إذا تناوله أحد ليدرسه يرى أنه لا يخاطب إلا من وجد من العرب حين نزوله ، وإذا كان يدير وجهه أحياناً إلى كافة الناس ، فإن معظم ما يقول يرجع إلى ما يختص بذوق العرب وخدمهم ويثبتهم وخدمهم وتعاليدهم وخدمهم . والإنسان حين يرى ذلك يبدأ يتساءل : إن كان الكتاب الذي أنزل لهداية كافة البشر لماذا يعنى عناية كبيرة بعناصر وقتية ومحلية وقومية ؟ بل يقع بعض الذين يجهلون حقيقة الأمر في شك ويقولون : ربما نزل هذا الكتاب لاستصلاح من يعاصره من العرب ثم حل فسيا بعد ما لا يحتمله من دعوة عالمية وهداية لكافة الناس إلى الأبد .

نفس الدلائل والحجج التي جاء بها القرآن ؟ ألا يجوز أن نستعمل أسلوب القرآن فيما يستدل به على إثبات التوحيد في كل زمان ومكان بعد تعديل يسير ؟

هذا النوع من التجريد لا يمكن أن يوجد في عالم النظريات ، وإن افترضنا وجوده فإن النظرية التي تعرض على هذه الصورة من التجريد لا تعدو حسبراً على الورق ويستحيل أن تنساب في حياة الناس وتتحول إلى نظام عملي .

فهل من دارس للقرآن يدرسه واضعاً أمام عينيه الخصائص المشار إليها، ثم يستطيع أن يحده لنا مأخذ يبني عليها ظنه في كون النظام المعروض في كتاب الله نظاماً وقتياً وقومياً؟

القرآن كتاب مبادئ عامة :

ومن الدارسين لهذا الكتاب من قد ألقى في سمعه كذلك أن هذا الكتاب عبارة عن « مرشديات للتوجيهات التفصيلية » و « دليل للدستور » . ثم إذا انصرف إلى قراءته لا يجد فيه أحكاماً وأنظمة تفصيلية عن الاجتماع والمدنية والسياسة والإقتصاد وما إلى ذلك ، بل إن الواجبات الهامة كالصلاة والزكاة التي يعيد الكتاب ذكرها ويؤكد عليها بشدة لم يدون لها أحكام تفصيلية ، ومثل هذا الأمر يشوش ذهنه ويدفعه إلى التساؤل : ما هو المراد من كونه مرشداً للتعالم الإلهية ؟

حول الخلاف في تفسير القرآن ،

وكان من مهمة النبي ﷺ تكييف الحياة الإسلامية في ضوء هذه التعاليم ، ولم يبعث ﷺ إلا ليحقق نموذجاً من السلوك الفردي ومن المجتمع والدولة يكون ترجمة حية تتمثل فيها المبادئ التي قررها القرآن .

وهنا سؤال آخر يخالج أذهان الناس : القرآن أنحي باللائمة على الذين اختلفوا بعد أن جاءهم الهدى من الله تعالى ، وتفرقوا في الدين . هذا في جانب ، وفي الجانب الآخر توجد خلافات في تفسير أحكام القرآن وتأويلها لا بين المتأخرين فحسب ، بل بين التابعين ومن تبعهم حتى بين الصحابة أنفسهم ، إلى درجة أنك لا تجد آية من آيات القرآن اتفق المفسرون على قول واحد في تفسيرها ، أليس هؤلاء الناس يستحقون نفس اللوم الذي ورد في القرآن ؟ إذا كان الجواب لا ، فأي اختلاف وأي فرقة تلك التي ينكرها القرآن وينحي باللائمة على أصحابها ؟

هذه قضية متشعبة كثيرة الجوانب لا يحسد ر بنا في هذا المقام أن نتناولها بالبحث المبسط ، وحلها لما يساور ذهن عامة الناس من التعقيد يكفي الإشارة إلى أن القرآن لا يمنع الخلاف النزيه البناء الذي يقع بين القائمين على تفسير الأحكام والقوانين ، بناء على دراساتهم الجديّة المخلصة ، بينما هم يلتقون فيما يرجع إلى أصل الدين ويتفقون فيما يتعلق بنظام الجماعة الإسلامية ، أما الخلاف الذي يذمه القرآن فهو الذي نشأ من نفوس ذات هوى وعقول معوجة ، وانتهى به المطاف إلى التكتل والطائفية المعقوفة والنزاع الداخلي ، وهذان الخلافان لا يتجانسان في أصلها ولا يتشابهان في نتائجها فكيف لحكم عليها بحكم واحد . أما الخلاف من النوع الأول فهو جوهر الرقي والتطور ومصدر الحياة ونضارتها ، ولا بد من أن يوجد في كل مجتمع مكون من أهل الرأي والفكر ، ووجوده دليل الحياة والحيوية ، ولا يخسار منه إلا مجتمع يتكون من أناس لا يتمتعون برجاحة العقل ووفرة الذكاء ، بل هم تماثيل خشبية ودمى لا حياة فيها . وأما الخلاف من النوع الثاني فيعلم جميع أهل الأرض أنه ما ظهر في كتلة بشرية إلا ومزقها شر ممزق وحطمها أشنع تحطيم ، فظهوره من أمارات المرض لا من بشارات الصحة ، ولم تكسب أمة من الأمم منه إلا نتائج وخيمة وعواقب مؤلمة .

في الصورة الأولى : 'يجمع جميع الناس على طاعة الله ورسوله ، ويعتقدون في الكتاب

L'ENVOI.

Cowper wrote : " Oars alone can ne'er prevail To reach the distant coast ;
The breath of heaven must swell the sail, Or all the toil is lost." I praise and glorify the name of God that He has enabled His humble servant to complete in manuscript the work of Interpretation at which he has systematically and unceasingly laboured for the last three years. My manuscript was completed in Lahore on the fourth of April 1937, my sixty-fifth birthday according to the solar calendar. My inner history during these three years has been one of joyful and concentrated exploration, undisturbed by the storms that vexed my outer life. I had not imagined that so much human jealousy, misunderstanding, and painful misrepresentation should pursue one who seeks no worldly gain and pretends to no dogmatic authority. But I have been much consoled by numerous appreciative letters from distant readers. I thank them and wish them to feel that they and I are fellow-riders (Arabic, Zamīl) on a steed of research in a field that is unlimited in scope and sublime compared to all ordinary knowledge. Such relationship is closer in spirit than ties of blood, or country, or any other joint enterprise whatsoever.

The printer and publisher hope now to bring out the whole completed volumes within two months. I have appended a short Index, which yet is fuller than is to be found in most Quranic Translations. A complete analytical Index, covering the text, notes, and commentary, such as I contemplated in my Preface, will take time to prepare, and will, if there is a demand, be issued as a separate volume at some future time.

And so I take leave of thee, Gentle Reader, and pray for thy spiritual advancement, as I wish thee to pray for mine.

WIMBLEDON: }

'ABDULLĀH YŪSUF 'ALĪ

- C. 398.—There's still with us much sorrow and sin,
 Injustice, oppression, wrong, and hate.
 Still does Arrogance deaden Conscience,
 Rob struggling souls of e'en the crumbs
 Of Pity, and make, of loathsome flesh
 And crumbling dust, fair-seeming Idols
 For worship. Still does Ignorance blow
 A mighty Horn and try to shame
 True Wisdom. Still do men drive Slaves,—
 Protesting smoothly the end of Slavery !
 Still does Greed devour the substance
 Of helpless ones within her power.
 Nay, more,—the fine Individual Voice
 Is smothered in the raucous din
 Of Groups and Crowds that madly shout
 What they call Slogans New,—
 Old Falsehoods long discredited
- C. 299.—What can we do to make God's Light
 Shine forth through the Darkness around us ?
 We must first let it shine in our own true Selves
 With that Light in the niche of our inmost hearts
 We can walk with steps both firm and sure :
 We can humbly visit the comfortless
 And guide their steps. Not we, but the Light
 Will guide ! But oh ! the joy of being found
 Worthy to bear the Torch, and to say
 To our brethren : " I too was in Darkness,
 Comfortless, and behold, I have found
 Comfort and Joy in the Grace Divine !"
- C. 300.—Thus should we pay the dues of Brotherhood,—
 By walking humbly, side by side,
 In the Ways of the Lord,
 With mutual aid and comfort,
 And heartfelt prayer,
 Backed by action,
 That God's good Purpose
 May be accomplished
 In us all together !

CONCLUSION

C. 295.—Thus spake, inspired, our holy Prophet,
 Muḥammad, on whom we invoke God's blessings
 For ever and ever ;—we who are heirs
 To his teaching, his exemplary life,
 And the golden thread which he inwove
 Into the web of human history.
 In pious retreats he prayed ; much thought
 He gave to Life's most obstinate tangles ;
 'Gainst odds he strove with might and main ;
 Wisely he led ; gently he counselled ;
 And firmly he subdued Evil.

C. 296.—Mantle-clad, <sup>6311</sup> he solved the most baffling
 Mysteries. His soul would scale
 The heights of Heaven, yet showered its love
 On the weak and lowly of this earth.
 Like a cloud that catches the glory of the Sun,
 He threw his protecting shade on all.
 The widow's cry, and the orphan's, found
 An answer in his heart, as did
 The cry of Penury and Need.
 He searched out those who felt no need,
 Being by pride or ignorance blinded,
 And he fulfilled their real wants.
 His last great charge summed up the rule
 Of spiritual life in linking Faith
 With one universal Brotherhood.
 Ah ! ne'er shall we see such life again !

C. 297.—But his clarion voice still speaks his message.
 His love and wisdom still pour forth
 Without stint the inexhaustible Treasures
 Of God, for whosoe'er will bring
 A purified heart to receive them.
 And ne'er did the world, impoverished
 By its own wayward lusts and greed,
 Need those Treasures more than now !

6311. An epithet of mystic meaning, applied to the Prophet in the Qur-ān. See lxxiv. 1, n.
 5778. I have in my mind a reminiscence of an Urdu Na't, or Song in praise of the holy Prophet.

Sura CXIV.

Nas, or Mankind.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Say: I seek refuge<sup>6307</sup>
With the Lord
And Cherisher of Mankind,<sup>6308</sup>

2. The King (or Ruler)
Of Mankind,

3. The God (or Judge)
Of Mankind,—

4. From the mischief
Of the Whisperer<sup>6309</sup>
(Of Evil), who withdraws
(After his whisper),—

5. (The same) who whispers
Into the hearts of Mankind,—

6. Among Jinns
And among Men.<sup>6310</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ

② مَلِكِ النَّاسِ

③ إِلَهِ النَّاسِ

④ مِنْ شَرِّ الْوَسْوَاسِ الْخَنَّاسِ

⑤ الَّذِي يُوسْوِسُ فِي صُدُورِ النَّاسِ

⑥ مِنَ الْجِنَّةِ وَالنَّاسِ

6307. The previous Sura pointed to the necessity of seeking God's protection against external factors which might affect an individual. Here the need of protection from internal factors, mankind being viewed as a whole, is pointed out. For this reason the threefold relation in which man stands to God is mentioned, as explained in the next note.

6308. Man's relation to God may be viewed in three aspects : (1) God is his Lord, Maker, and Cherisher ; God sustains him and cares for him ; He provides him with all the means for his growth and development, and for his protection against evil ; (2) God is his king or ruler ; more than any earthly king, God has authority to guide man's conduct, and lead him to ways which will make for his welfare ; and He has given him laws ; and (3) God is He to Whom mankind must return, to give an account of all their deeds in this life (ii. 156) ; God will be the Judge ; He is the goal of the Hereafter, and the only Being entitled to man's worship at any time. From all these aspects man could and should seek God's protection against evil.

6309. Evil insinuates itself in all sorts of insidious ways from within so as to sap man's will, which was given to man by God. 'This power of evil may be Satan or his host of evil ones, or evil men or the evil inclinations within man's own will : for there are "evil ones among men and Jinns, inspiring each other with flowery discourses by way of deception" (vi. 112). They secretly whisper evil and then withdraw, to make their net the more subtle and alluring.

6310. This last clause amplifies the description of the sources from which the whisper of evil may emanate : they may be men whom you may see or invisible spirits of evil working within. See last note. So long as we put ourselves in God's protection, and trust in God, evil cannot really touch us in our essential and inner life.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CXIV (Nās).

This early Meccan Sūra is a pendant to the last Sūra, and concludes the Holy Qur-ān, with an appeal to us to trust in God, rather than man, as our sure shield and protection. It warns us specially against the secret whispers of evil within our own hearts.

C. 294. — Insidious Evil lies in wait

(cxiv 1-6.) For man, and loves to whisper and withdraw,
Thus testing his will. But man can make
God his sure shield ; for God doth care
For him and cherishes him : God is
The heavenly King who gives him laws :
And God is the Goal to which he will Return and be judged. Let man but place
Himself in God's hands, and never can Evil
Touch him in his essential and inner life.

Sûra CXIII.

*Falaq, or The Dawn.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*1. Say: I seek refuge <sup>6301</sup>
With the Lord of the Dawn, <sup>6302</sup>2. From the mischief
Of created things; <sup>6303</sup>3. From the mischief
Of Darkness as it overspreads; <sup>6304</sup>4. From the mischief
Of those who practise
Secret Arts <sup>6305</sup>;5. And from the mischief
Of the envious one
As he practises envy. <sup>6306</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ

② مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ

③ وَمِنْ شَرِّ غَاسِقٍ إِذَا وَقَبَ

④ وَمِنْ شَرِّ النَّفَّاثَاتِ فِي الْعُقَدِ

⑤ وَمِنْ شَرِّ حَاسِدٍ إِذَا حَسَدَ

6302. Falaq is the Dawn or Daybreak, the cleaving of darkness and the manifestation of light. This may be understood in various senses: (1) literally, when the darkness of the night is at its worst, rays of light pierce through and produce the dawn; (2) when the darkness of ignorance is at its worst, the light of God pierces through the soul and gives it enlightenment: xxiv. 35; (3) non-existence is darkness, and life and activity may be typified by light. The author and source of all true light is God, and if we seek Him, we are free from ignorance, superstition, fear, and every kind of evil.

6303. See n. 6301 above. Our trust in God is the refuge from every kind of fear and superstition, every kind of danger and evil. Three special kinds of mischief are specified in the next three verses, against which our best guard is our trust in God, the Light of the heavens and the earth. They are: (1) physical dangers, typified by darkness, (2) psychical dangers within us, typified by Secret Arts, and (3) psychical dangers from without us, resulting from a perverted will, which seeks to destroy any good that we enjoy.

6304. The darkness of the night, physical darkness, is a good type of physical dangers and difficulties. Many people are afraid of physical darkness, and all are afraid of physical injuries, accidents, and calamities. We should not fear, but having taken reasonable precautions, trust in God.

6305. Those who practise Secret Arts: literally, 'those (feminine) who blow on knots', this having been a favourite form of witchcraft, practised by perverted women. Such secret arts cause psychological terror. They may be what is called black magic, or secret plottings, or the display of false and seductive charms (iii. 14), or the spreading of false and secret rumours or slanders to frighten men or deter them from right action. There is fraud in such things, but men are swayed by it. They should cast off fear and do their duty.

6306. Malignant envy, translated into action, seeks to destroy the happiness or the material or spiritual good enjoyed by other people. The best guard against it is trust in God with purity of heart.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CXIII (Falaq).

This early Meccan Sūra provides the antidote to superstition and fear by teaching us to seek refuge in God from every kind of ill arising from outer nature and from dark and evil plottings and envy on the part of others.

C. 293.—It is God Who brings forth light from darkness,
:cxiii. 1 5) Life and activity from death, spiritual
Enlightenment from ignorance and superstition.
Banish fear, and trust His Providence.
No danger, then, from the outer world,
No secret plottings from perverted wills,
No disturbance of your happiness or good,
Can affect the fortress of your inmost soul.

Sura CXII.

*Ikhlas, or Purity (of Faith).In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. Say : He is God,<sup>6296</sup>
The One and Only ;<sup>6297</sup>2. God, the Eternal, Absolute ;<sup>6298</sup>3. He begetteth not,
Nor is He begotten ;<sup>6299</sup>4. And there is none
Like unto Him.<sup>6300</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ

② اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ

③ لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ

④ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ

6296. The nature of God is here indicated to us in a few words, such as we can understand. The qualities of God are described in numerous places elsewhere, e.g., in lix. 22-24, lxii. 1, and ii. 255. Here we are specially taught to avoid the pitfalls into which men and nations have fallen at various times in trying to understand God. The first thing we have to note is that His nature is so sublime, so far beyond our limited conceptions, that the best way in which we can realise Him is to feel that He is a Personality, "He", and not a mere abstract conception of philosophy. He is near us; He cares for us; we owe our existence to Him. Secondly, He is the One and Only God, the Only One to Whom worship is due; all other things or beings that we can think of are His creatures and in no way comparable to Him. Thirdly, He is Eternal, without beginning or end, Absolute, not limited by time or place or circumstance, the Reality before which all other things or places are mere shadows or reflections. Fourthly, we must not think of Him as having a son or a father, for that would be to import animal qualities into our conception of Him. Fifthly, He is not like any other person or thing that we know or can imagine: His qualities and nature are unique.

6298. Samad is difficult to translate by one word. I have used two, "Eternal" and "Absolute". The latter implies: (1) that absolute existence can only be predicated of Him; all other existence is temporal or conditional; (2) that He is dependent on no person or things, but all persons or things are dependent on Him, thus negating the idea of gods and goddesses who ate and drank, wrangled and plotted, depended on the gifts of worshippers, etc.

6299. This is to negative the Christian idea of the godhead, "the Father", "the only-begotten Son" etc.

6300. This sums up the whole argument and warns us specially against Anthropomorphism, the tendency to conceive of God after our own pattern, an insidious tendency that creeps in at all times and among all peoples.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA CXII (Ikhāṣ).

This early Meccan Sūra sums up in a few terse words the Unity of the Godhead—often professed, but frequently mixed up in the popular mind with debasing superstitions.

C. 292.—Keep Faith all pure and undefiled.
(cxii. 1-4.) There is God, the One and Only ;
Eternal, Free of all needs ; on Whom
Depend, to Whom go back, all things ;
He hath no son nor father nor partner.
There is no person like unto Him.

Sura CXI.

Lahab, or (the Father of) Flame.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Perish the hands
Of the Father of Flame! <sup>6294</sup>
Perish he!

2. No profit to him
From all his wealth,
And all his gains!

3. Burnt soon will he be
In a Fire
Of blazing Flame!

4. His wife shall carry
The (crackling) wood —
As fuel! — <sup>6295</sup>

5. A twisted rope
Of palm-leaf fibre
Round her (own) neck!

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ

② مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُ مَالُهُ وَمَا كَسَبَ

③ سَيَصْلَىٰ نَارًا ذَاكَ لَهَبٌ

⑤ فِي جِيدِهَا حَبْلٌ مِّن مَّسَدٍ

6294. Abū Lahab, "Father of Flame", was the nick-name of an uncle of the holy Prophet, from his fiery hot temper and his ruddy complexion. He was one of the most inveterate enemies of early Islam. When the holy Prophet called together the Quraish and his own kith and kin to come and listen to his preaching and his warning against the sins of his people, the "Father of Flame" flared up and cursed the holy Prophet, saying "Perdition to thee!" According to the English saying, "the causeless curse will not come". His words were futile, but his power and strength were equally futile. The star of Islam rose higher and higher every day, and its persecutors dwindled in strength and power. Many of the leaders of persecution perished at Badr, and Abū Lahab himself perished a week after Badr, consumed with grief and his own fiery passions. Verse 3 was prophetic of his end in this very life, though it also refers to the Hereafter.

6295. Abū Lahab's wife was a woman of equally passionate spite and cruelty against the sacred person of the holy Prophet. She used to tie bundles of thorns with ropes of twisted palm-leaf fibre and carry them and strew them about on dark nights in the paths which the Prophet was expected to take, in order to cause him bodily injury. "To carry firewood" may also be symbolical for carrying tales between people to embroil them. This was also one of her vices. But she was laying up for herself another kind of Fire and another kind of Rope, the Fire of Punishment, and the Rope of Slavery to Evil. Thus does Evil prepare its own fate. This is the general lesson of sustained craft and cruel wrong-doing recoiling on the wrong doer's head. See also Introduction to this Sura.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA CXI (Lahab).

This very early Meccan Sūra, though it referred in the first instance to a particular incident in a cruel and relentless persecution, carries the general lesson that cruelty ultimately ruins itself. The man who rages against holy things is burnt up in his own rage. His hands, which are the instruments of his action, perish, and he perishes himself. No boasted wealth or position will save him. The women, who are made for nobler emotions, may, if they go wrong, feed unholy rage with fiercer fuel—to their own loss. For they may twist the torturing rope round their own neck. It is a common experience that people perish by the very means by which they seek to destroy others.

C. 291.—The Chosen One of God, in his earnest
 (cxi. 1-5.) Desire to proclaim the Message, gathered
 His kin together to hear and judge
 With open minds between error and truth.
 Behold, the fiery " Father of Flame "
 Blazed up with foul abuse and curses,
 And said to the holy one : " Perish thou ! "
 With his hands he took stones and cast them
 At the holy one's head. Purse-proud he headed Relentless persecution. His wife
 Laid snares, tied thorns with twisted ropes
 Of prickly palm-leaf fibre, and strewed them
 In the holy one's path on darkest nights,
 For cruel sport ! But lo ! the curses,
 Insults, spite, harmed not the Innocent,
 But hit the wrong-doers themselves
 And branded them with eternal infamy !

Sūra CX.

Naṣr, or Help.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~When~~ When comes the Help
Of God. and Victory,
2. And thou dost see
The People enter God's Religion
In crowds,<sup>6292</sup>
3. Celebrate the Praises
Of thy Lord, and pray
For His Forgiveness:<sup>6293</sup>
For He is Oft-Returning
(In Grace and Mercy).

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِذَا جَاءَ نَصْرُ اللَّهِ وَالْفَتْحُ

② وَرَأَيْتَ النَّاسَ يَدْخُلُونَ فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ
أَفْوَاجًا③ فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُ إِنَّهُ كَانَ
تَوَّابًا

6293. Every man should humble himself before God, confess his human frailties, and seek God's grace;—attributing any success that he gets in his work, not to his own merits, but to the goodness and mercy of God. But the Prophet of God had also another duty and privilege,—to pray for grace and forgiveness for his people in case any of them had exulted in their victory or done anything that they should not have done.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA CX (Nahr).

This beautiful Sūra was the last of the Sūras to be revealed as a whole, though the portion of the verse v. 4, " This day have I perfected your religion for you " etc., contains probably the last words of the Qur-ān to be revealed.

The date of this Sūra was only a few months before the passing away of the holy Prophet from this world, Rabi' I, A.H. 11. The place was either the precincts of Mecca at his Farewell Pilgrimage, Zulhijja, A.H. 10, or Medina after his return from the Farewell Pilgrimage.

Victory is the crown of service, not an occasion for exultation. All victory comes from the help of God.

C. 290.— For that which is right the help of God.

(cx. 1-3). Is ever nigh, and victory !

When the spirit of men is stirred, they come

To the flag of faith in troops and battalions.

They are to be welcomed : but Praise and Glory

Belong to God : to Him we humbly

Turn and pray for Grace : for He Is Oft-Returning in Grace and Mercy.

Sūra CIX.

Kāfirūn, or Those who reject Faith.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*1. Say : O ye
That reject Faith ! <sup>6289</sup>2. I worship not that
Which ye worship,3. Nor will ye worship
That which I worship. <sup>6290</sup>4. And I will not worship
That which ye have been
Wont to worship,5. Nor will ye worship
That which I worship.6. To you be your Way,
And to me mine. <sup>6291</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ

② لَا أَعْبُدُ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ

③ وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ

④ وَلَا أَنَا عَابِدٌ مَا عَبَدْتُمْ

⑤ وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ

⑥ لَكُمْ دِينُكُمْ وَلِيَ دِينِ

6290. Verses 2-3 describe the conditions as they were at the time when this Sūra was revealed, and may be freely paraphrased : ' I am a worshipper of the One True God, the Lord of all, of you as well as of myself ; but you on account of your vested interests have not the will to give up your false worship, of idols and self '. Verses 4-5 describe the psychological reasons : ' I, being a prophet of God, do not and cannot possibly desire to follow your false ancestral ways ; and you, as custodians of the false worship, have not the will to give up your ways of worship, which are wrong '. The " will " in the translation represents less the future tense than the will, the desire, the psychological possibility : it tries to reproduce the Arabic noun-agent.

6291. ' I, having been given the Truth, cannot come to your false ways ; you, having your vested interests, will not give them up. For your ways the responsibility is yours : I have shown you the Truth. For my ways the responsibility is mine : you have no right to ask me to abandon the Truth. Your persecutions will be vain : the Truth must prevail in the end '. This was the attitude of Faith then : but it is true for all time. Hold fast to Truth, " in scorn of consequence ".

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA CIX (Kāfirūn).

This is another early Meccan Sūra. It defines the right attitude to those who reject Faith : in matters of Truth we can make no compromise, but there is no need to persecute or abuse anyone for his faith or belief.

C. 289.—The man of Faith holds fast to his faith,
(CIX. 1-6.) Because he knows it is true. The man
Of the world, rejecting Faith, clings hard
To worldly interests. Let him mind
His worldly interests, but let him not Force his interests on men sincere
And true, by favour, force, or fraud.

Sûra CVIII.

Kauthar, or Abundance.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~Allo~~ thee have We
Granted the Fount
(of Abundance).<sup>6286</sup>

2. Therefore to thy Lord
Turn in Prayer
And Sacrifice.<sup>6287</sup>

3. For he who hateth thee,—<sup>6288</sup>
He will be cut off
(From Future Hope).

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِنَّا أَعْطَيْنَاكَ الْكَوْثَرَ

② فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَأَنْحَرْ

③ إِنَّ شَانِئَكَ هُوَ الْأَبْتَرُ

6286. Kauthar: the heavenly Fountain of unbounded grace and knowledge, mercy and goodness, truth and wisdom, spiritual power and insight, which was granted to the holy Prophet, the man of God, and in some degree or other, to all men and women who are sincere devotees of God. That Fountain quenches the highest spiritual thirst of man: it confers overflowing benefits of all kinds. Cf. ii. 269: "And he to whom wisdom is granted receiveth indeed a benefit overflowing" Such a person wants for nothing: worldly pomp and wealth are as dust beneath his feet.

6287. He who grants these blessings is God, and to God alone must we turn in adoration and thanksgiving, and in sacrifice. Nahr = sacrifice: in a restricted ritual sense, the sacrifice of camels: see n. 2813 to xxii. 36. But the ritual is a mere Symbol. Behind it is a deep spiritual meaning: the meat slaughtered feeds the poor, and the slaughter is a symbol of the self-sacrifice in our hearts. "It is not their meat nor their blood, that reaches God: it is your piety that reaches Him" (xxii. 37).

6288. Hatred and spite are not constructive contributions to the work of this world, but its opposites. Abū Jahl and his Pagan confederates vented their personal spite and venom against the holy Prophet by taunting him with the loss of his two infant sons by Khadija, but where were these venomous detractors a few years afterwards, when the divine Light shone more brilliantly than ever? It was these that were cut off from all future hope, in this world and the next.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA CVIII (Kauthar).

This very brief early Meccan Sūra sums up in the single mystic word Kauthar (Abundance) the doctrine of spiritual Riches through devotion and sacrifice. The converse also follows: indulgence in hatred means the cutting off of all hope of this life and the Hereafter.

C. 288.—To the man of God, rich in divine
(cviii. 1-3) Blessings, is granted a Fountain unfailing,
That will quench the spiritual thirst of millions.
Turn, then, in devotion and sacrifice to God,
Nor heed the venom of Hatred, which destroys
Its own hopes, alas. of the present and the future !

*Ma'un. or Neighbourly Needs.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

1. Seeest thou one
Who denies the Judgment<sup>6281</sup>
(To come) ?

2. Then such is the (man)
Who repulses the orphan
(With harshness),

3. And encourages not<sup>6282</sup>
The feeding of the indigent.

4. So woe to the worshippers

5. Who are neglectful
Of their Prayers,<sup>6283</sup>

6. Those who (want but)
To be seen (of men),<sup>6284</sup>

7. But refuse (to supply)
(Even) neighbourly needs.<sup>6285</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① أَرَيْتَ الَّذِي يُكَذِّبُ بِالْذِّينِ

② فَذَلِكَ الَّذِي يَدْعُ الْيَتِيمَ

③ وَلَا يَحْضُ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمَسْكِينِ

④ فَوَيْلٌ لِلْمُصَلِّينَ

⑤ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنْ صَلَاتِهِمْ سَاهُونَ

⑥ الَّذِينَ هُمْ يُرَاءُونَ

⑦ وَيَتَعَوَّنَ الْمَاعُونَ

6281. Dir may mean either (1) the Judgment to come, the responsibility in the moral and spiritual world, for all actions done by men, or (2) Faith, Religion, the principles of right and wrong in spiritual matters, which often conflict with selfish desires or predilections. It is men who deny Faith or future responsibility, that treat the helpless with contempt and lead arrogant selfish lives.

6282 The Charity or Love which feeds the indigent at the expense of Self is a noble form of virtue, which is beyond the reach of men who are so callous as even to discourage or forbid or look down upon the virtue of charity or kindness in others.

6283. True worship does not consist in the mere form of prayer, without the heart and mind being earnestly applied to seek the realisation of the presence of God, and to understand and do His holy Will.

6284. Cf. iv 142: "When they stand up to prayer, they stand without earnestness, to be seen of men, but little do they hold God in remembrance"

6285. Hypocrites make a great show of hollow acts of goodness, devotion, and charity. But they fail signally if you test them by little acts of neighbourly help or charity, the thousand little courtesies and kindnesses of daily life, the supply of needs which cost little but mean much.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CVII (Mā'ūn).

This Sūra—at least the first half of it—belongs to the early Meccan period. The subject-matter is the meaning of true worship, which requires Faith, the practical and helpful love of those in need, and sincerity rather than show in devotion and charity.

C. 287.—What remains if you deny all Faith
 (CVII 17) And personal Responsibility? Why then
 Help the helpless or teach others
 Deeds of Charity? Vain were worship
 Without heart and soul. What think ye of men
 Who make great show, but fail to meet
 The simple needs of daily life?

Sura CVI.

Quraish or The Quraish, (Custodians of the Ka'ba).

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

1. For the covenants
(Of security and safeguard Enjoyed) by the Quraish,<sup>6276</sup>
2. Their covenants (covering) journeys
By winter and summer,—<sup>6277</sup>
3. Let them adore the Lord
Of this House,<sup>6278</sup>
4. Who provides them
With food against hunger,<sup>6279</sup>
And with security
Against fear (of danger).<sup>6280</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① لِإِيْلَافٍ قُرَيْشٍ

② إِيْلَافِهِمْ رِحْلَةَ الشِّتَاءِ وَالصَّيْفِ

③ فَلْيَعْبُدُوا رَبَّ هَذَا الْبَيْتِ

④ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَهُمْ مِنْ جُوعٍ وَآمَنَهُمْ مِنْ خَوْفٍ

6276. The Quraish were the noblest tribe of Arabia, the tribe to which belonged the holy Prophet himself. They had the custody of the Ka'ba, the central shrine of Arabia, and their possession of Mecca gave them a triple advantage: (1) they had a commanding influence over other tribes; (2) their central position facilitated trade and intercourse, which gave them both honour and profit; and (3) the Mecca territory being by Arabian custom inviolable from the ravages of war and private feuds, they had a secure position, free from fear of danger. This honour and advantage they owed to their position as servants of the sacred shrine of the Ka'ba. They owed it to God. Was it not therefore right and fitting that they should adore the One True God, and listen to His Message of Unity and Purity, brought by His Prophet?

In those days of general insecurity, their prestige as custodians of Mecca enabled them to obtain Covenants of security and safeguard from the rulers of neighbouring countries on all sides—Syria, Persia, Yaman, and Abyssinia—protecting their trade journeys in all seasons.

6277. See last note, especially section (2). On account of their trade journeys to the warmth of Yaman in the winter and the cooler regions of Syria and the north in the summer, the Quraish became practised travellers and merchants, acquired much knowledge of the world and many arts, and perfected their language as a polished medium of literary expression.

6278. The Ka'ba

6279. Their trade caravans enriched them, and drew people from distant parts to visit Mecca and bring their merchandise and gifts thither.

6280. Their territory being inviolable, they did not suffer from the dangers of constant warfare nor from private feuds of vengeance or breaches of the peace in their secure homes.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SURA CVI (Quraish).

This Meccan Sūra may well be considered as a pendant to the last. If the Quraish were fond of Mecca and proud of it, if they profited, by its central position and its guaranteed security, from their caravans of trade and commerce, let them be grateful, adore the One True God, and accept His Message.

C. 286.—Who gave the Quraish their talents for the arts
(cvi 1-4) Of peace, for trade and commerce, and for journeys
South and north at proper seasons,
And made their home inviolable in Mecca?
Surely they, if any, should adore their Lord
And listen to His Message of Unity and Truth.

Sura CV.

*Fil, or The Elephant.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Seest<sup>6270</sup> thou not
How thy Lord dealt
With the Companions
Of the Elephant?<sup>6271</sup>

① أَلَمْ نَرَكَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِأَصْحَابِ الْفِيلِ

2. Did He not make
Their treacherous plan
Go astray?

② أَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ كَيْدَهُمْ فِي تَضْلِيلٍ

3. And He sent against them
Flights of Birds,<sup>6272</sup>

③ وَأَرْسَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ طَيْرًا أَبَابِيلَ

4. Striking them with stones<sup>6273</sup>
Of baked clay.

④ تَرْمِيهِمْ بِحِجَارَةٍ مِّن سِجِّيلٍ

5. Then did He make them
Like an empty field<sup>6274</sup>
Of stalks and straw,
(Of which the corn)
Has been eaten up.<sup>6275</sup>

⑤ فَجَعَلَهُمْ كَعَصْفٍ مَّأْكُولٍ

6270. Seest thou not?—i.e., with thy mental vision. The incident happened in the very year of the holy Prophet's birth, barely two months before it.

6271. These were the troops of Abraha the Abyssinian, who invaded Mecca with a large army, in which were some elephants. See Introduction to this Sura.

6272. The miracle consisted in the birds coming in large flights and flinging stones at the army which caused a great pestilence to arise and destroy the whole of Abraha's army.

6273. Sijjil: see n. 1579 to xl. 82. The word also occurs at xv. 74. Stones of baked clay, or hard as baked clay, are part of the miracle in the story.

6274. A field, from which all the corn has been eaten up and only straw with stalks or stubble is left, is a field dead and useless. And such was the army of Abraha.—dead and useless. Another possible rendering would be: "like eaten straw and stubble found in the dung of animals". The meaning would be the same, but much more emphatic.

6275. The lesson to be drawn is twofold. For the Pagan Quraish of Mecca it was: 'God will protect His own; if you persecute the holy Prophet, he is greater than the mere building of the Ka'ba: will not God protect him?' For men in all ages it is: 'a man intoxicated with power can prepare armies and material resources against God's holy Plan; but such a man's plan will be his own undoing; he cannot prevail against God'.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CV (FII).

This early Meccan Sūra refers to an event that happened in the year of the birth of our holy Prophet, say about 570 A.D. Yaman was then under the rule of the Abyssinians (Christians), who had driven out the Jewish Himyar rulers. Abraha Ashram was the Abyssinian governor or viceroy. Intoxicated with power and fired by religious fanaticism, he led a big expedition against Mecca, intending to destroy the Ka'ba. He had an elephant or elephants in his train. But his sacrilegious intentions were defeated by a miracle. No defence was offered by the custodians of the Ka'ba as the army was too strong for them, but it was believed that a shower of stones, thrown by flocks of birds, destroyed the invading army almost to a man. The stones produced sores and pustules on the skin, which spread like a pestilence.

C. 285.—Let not man be intoxicated with power
 (cv. 1-5) Or material resources : they cannot defeat
 The purpose of God. So Abraha Ashram
 Found to his cost. His sacrilegious attack
 On the holy Fane of God brought about
 His own undoing : what seemed but frail
 Destroyed his mighty hosts in a day !

8. It shall be made
Into a vault over them,

① إِنَّهَا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّوَصَّدَةٌ

9. In columns outstretched.<sup>6269</sup>

① فِي عَمَدٍ مُمَدَّدَةٍ

---

6269. Those guilty of these vices will be choked and suffocated, for this Vault of Fire will cover them all over, and its scorching columns will extend over a far wider area than they imagine.

Sura CIV.

*Humaza, or the Scandal-monger.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~W~~oe to every (Kind of) scandal-monger
And backbiter,<sup>6266</sup>

2. Who pileth up wealth
And layeth it by,

3. Thinking that his wealth
Would make him last
For ever !

4. By no means ! He will
Be sure to be thrown into
That which Breaks to Pieces.<sup>6267</sup>

5. And what will explain
To thee That which Breaks
To Pieces ?

6. (It is) the Fire
Of (the Wrath of) God
Kindled (to a blaze),

7. The which doth mount
(Right) to the Hearts :<sup>6268</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ

② الَّذِي جَمَعَ مَالًا وَعَدَّدَهُ

③ يَحْسَبُ أَنَّ مَالَهُ أَخْلَدَهُ

④ كَلَّا لَيُنْبَذَت فِي الْحُطَمَةِ

⑤ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحُطَمَةُ

⑥ نَارُ اللَّهِ الْمَوْقَدَةُ

⑦ الَّتِي تَطْلُعُ عَلَى الْأَفْئِدَةِ

6266 Three vices are here condemned in the strongest terms : (1) scandal-mongering, talking or suggesting evil of men or women by word or innuendo, or behaviour, or mimicry, or sarcasm, or insult ; (2) detracting from their character behind their backs, even if the things suggested are true, where the motive is evil ; (3) piling up wealth, not for use and service to those who need it, but in miserly hoards, as if such hoards can prolong the miser's life or give him immortality : miserliness is itself a kind of scandal.

6267. Humaza : that which smashes or breaks to pieces : an apt description of the three anti-social vices condemned. For scandal-mongering and backbiting make any sort of cohesion or mutual confidence impossible ; and the miser's hoards block up the channels of economic service and charity, and the circulation of good-will among men.

6268. This Fire of Punishment mounts right up to the hearts and minds of such men, and shuts them out of the love of their fellows. " Heart " in Arabic means not only the seat of affection, pity, charity, etc., but also of understanding and intelligent appreciation of things.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA CIV (Humaza).

This Meccan Sūra condemns all sorts of scandal, backbiting, and selfish hoarding of wealth, as destroying the hearts and affections of men.

C. 284.—Woe to the man or woman who deals in scandal, in word or act, or by insults
Or suggestions. Woe to the backbiter, e'en
If his tale is true, for the taint is in his motive.
Woe to the miser who blocks up the channels
Of use and service and dams up his wealth.
As if he could remain in possession
For all time ! The Fire of Wrath will envelop them
And wither up their hearts and minds, and consume
That largeness of life which is the portion of mankind.

14. The great mystic Symbols introduced by the adverb " when " (izā) do not in form belong to the category of Adjurations, but their mystic meaning and imagery bring them within this category. They refer to the end of the present order of things, and the inauguration of the new world of perfect spiritual values, but they need not necessarily be understood in a definite sequence of time such as we know it, for the spiritual world overlaps the material : —

- lxxvii. 8-11 ... " When the Stars become dim " etc.
 lxxxi. 1-13 ... " When the Sun is folded up " etc.
 lxxxii. 1-4 .. " When the Sky is cleft asunder " etc.
 lxxxiv. 1-5 ... " When the Sky is rent asunder " etc.
 xcix. 1-3 ... " When the Earth is shaken " etc.

15. Every Symbol is connected with the argument of the passage concerned, by way of metaphor or illustration. See n. 5798 to lxxiv. 32. The appropriate meaning suggested is explained in the notes to each passage as it occurs.

- xlili. 2 ... " By the Book that Makes (to show that Revelation is reason-things clear " able and conformable to truth).
xliv. 2 Do. Do.
l. 1 ... " By the Glorious Qur-an " (to quell the wonder of the ignorant).

11. Now we come to the great mystic passages in the Meccan Sūras, in which men are adjured to turn to the wonders of the spiritual world by striking phrases full of sublimity, full of mystery, full of symbolism, and using the wonders of the heavens and the earth by way of illustration. They are the despair of the translator, because the words used are widely comprehensive, with little that is precise in them. There are layers upon layers of meaning, and only the profoundest spiritual experience can probe their depths. An attempt has been made in the notes to analyse and explain some of their meanings. All that we can do here is to bring them together into juxtaposition, to help the earnest student. They may be divided into three categories: (1) those introduced by the words "Lā uqsimu" (I do swear or I do call to witness), (2) those introduced by the particle wā, which is the general form of adjuration, and (3) those, mainly concerned with the Judgment to come, which are introduced by the adverb "izā" (when).

12. Lā Uqsimu (with the first person singular) implies that special attention is drawn to something by a personal and beneficent God, and an appeal is made to His creatures :—

- |         |       |                                                              |                                                                       |

| lvi.    | 75    | " The setting of the stars."                                 | Other glories may set, but not the glory of Revelation.               |
| lxi.    | 36    | ... " What ye see and what ye see not."                      | Revelation is good for both outer and inner life.                     |
| lxx.    | 40    | ... " The Lord of all points in the East and the West."      | God's Kingdom extends everywhere.                                     |
| lxxv.   | 1-2   | ... " The Resurrection Day and the self-reproaching spirit." | Evil should be eschewed.                                              |
| lxxxi.  | 15-18 | ... " Planets, Night, and Dawn."                             | Nature may vary, but God's Light is ever the same.                    |
| lxxxiv. | 16-18 | ... " The ruddy glow of sunset, the Night, the Moon."        | Man must travel from stage to stage.                                  |
| xc.     | 1-3   | ... " This City (of Mecca) and mystic ties."                 | Man is created for toil and struggle, but God has given him guidance. |

13. The great mystic Symbols or Signs, introduced by the particle wā, by which man is adjured to turn to the higher life, are rich in suggestive imagery, which loses part of its charm by any attempt at precise definition :—

- xxxvii. 1 ... " By those who range themselves in ranks "
li. 1-4 ... " By the (Winds) that scatter broadcast " etc.
li. 7 ... " By the heaven with its numerous Paths " etc.
lii. 1-6 ... " By the Mount (of Revelation) " etc.

oaths by God " that they would be with the Muslims, but treachery was in their hearts (v. 55-56). See also xxiv. 53. On the other hand, the oath of Joseph's wicked brethren, " By God ! ", in speaking to their father, (xii. 85), seems to be a mere expletive, used lightly, and therefore worthy of condemnation.

8. In passages like the following, the oath seems to be emphatic and solemn as in a court of law : —

- xii. 66 . By Joseph's brethren, at Jacob's request.
- xii. 73 .. By Joseph's brethren, to the Egyptians.
- xxi. 57 . By Abraham, to the Polytheists.
- xxvi. 97 . By the denizens of Hell, when they realise their wrong.
- xxxvii. 56 ... By the righteous one in heaven, when he realises the great danger he escaped in life.
- xxxviii. 82 ... By the Power of Evil, who solemnly swears by the power of God.
- xlvi. 34 .. By the denizens of Hell, when they realise the Truth.

9. In the following passages addressed by God to men, an appeal is made to man's realisation of God's own greatness, goodness, and glory, or God's special relationship to man as Creator, Cherisher, and Protector, to teach him the lesson of truth and right conduct. In English phrase it might be rendered : " As I am thy Lord God, believe in Me and follow My Word."

- iv. 65 .. " By thy Lord " (they can have no real faith until...).
- xv. 92 ... " By thy Lord " (We will call them to account).
- xvi. 56 ... " By God " (ye shall be called to account).
- xvi. 63 ... " By God " (We sent apostles).
- xix. 68 ... " By thy Lord " (We shall gather them together).
- xxxiv. 3 ... " By my Lord " (said by the Prophet to assure men of the coming of the Hour of Judgment)
- lxiv. 7 ... Do. Do.
- li. 23 ... " By the Lord of heaven and earth " (this is the very Truth).
See also lxx. 40 (paragraph 12 below).

10. Another way in which an appeal is made to men is by the evidence of the life of the holy Prophet, whose truth and purity were known to them, or by the holy Qur-ān, whose wonderful power over men's hearts was a miracle which they witnessed before their eyes :—

- xv. 72 ... " By thy life " (to enforce the lesson of the unspeakable crime of Lot's people).
- xxxvi. 2 .. " By the Qur-ān,
Full of Wisdom " (to show the Prophet's inspiration).
- xxxviii. 1 ... " By the Qur-ān,
Full of admonition " (to show the error of the Unbelievers).

APPENDIX XIV.

Oaths and Adjurations in the Qur-ān.

1. An oath is an invocation of the name of God or of some person or object held sacred by the person using the invocation, to witness the truth of a solemn affirmation and to emphasize that affirmation.

2. An adjuration is a solemn appeal to a person or persons to do some act or to believe some important statement by the evidence of something great or sublime or remarkable or out of the ordinary.

3. On these subjects as thus defined, let us review the teaching of the holy Qur-ān.

4. Among the Pagan Arabs the use of oaths became so common that it almost ceased to have any solemn meaning. On the other hand, when they wanted to suppress the rights of women or do some unjust acts, they would resort to an oath to do so, and then plead that they were bound by their oath when pressure was brought to bear on them to desist from their injustice. Thus, they doubly dishonoured oaths : they took the name of God lightly, and on the other hand, they made an oath an excuse for not doing what was right and just. It is much to be feared that our own contemporaries are not free from such forms of disrespect to God.

5. Such practices are condemned in the strongest terms in the Qur-ān. "Make not God's name an excuse in your oaths against doing good, or acting rightly, or making peace between persons" (ii. 224). Perjury is condemned as deception which hurts both the deceiver and the deceived. "Take not your oaths to practise deception between yourselves, with the result that someone's foot may slip after it was firmly planted, and ye may have to taste the evil consequences of having hindered men from the Path of God, and a mighty Wrath descend on you" (xvi. 94). See also iii. 77. You must not only fulfil your oaths, but you must fulfil all covenants, express or implied, and all your obligations of every kind, without reference to an oath : v. 1, n. 682.

6. Considering the harm caused by thoughtless oaths, in which there was no intention to deceive or to do wrong, it is provided that they may be expiated for. "God will not call you to account for what is futile in your oaths, but He will call you to account for your deliberate oaths : for expiation feed ten indigent persons...or clothe them, or give a slave his freedom. If that is beyond your means, fast for three days. That is the expiation for the oaths ye have sworn. But keep to your oaths" (v. 92). See also ii. 225 and lxvi. 2.

7. Some examples may be cited of the false oaths which were used for deception. The Hypocrites, "in whose hearts is a disease", "swore their strongest

'Aṣr, or Time through the Ages.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. By (the Token of)
Time (through the Ages),<sup>6262</sup>2. Verily Man
Is in loss,<sup>6263</sup>3. Except such as have Faith,
And do righteous deeds,<sup>6264</sup>
And (join together)<sup>6265</sup>
In the mutual teaching
Of Truth, and of Patience and Constancy.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالْعَصْرِ

② إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَنَ خَاسِرٌ

③ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالْحَقِّ وَتَوَاصَوْا
بِالصَّبْرِ

6262 'Aṣr may mean: (1) Time through the Ages, or long periods, in which case it comes near to the abstract idea of Time, Dahr, which was sometimes deified by the Pagan Arabs (see Introduction to S. lxxvi.); (2) or the late afternoon, from which the 'Aṣr canonical prayer takes its name (see n. 271 to ii. 238). A mystic use of both these ideas is understood here. An appeal is made to Time as one of the creations of God, of which everyone knows something but of which no one can fully explain the exact significance. Time searches out and destroys everything material. No one in secular literature has expressed the tyranny of "never-resting Time" better than Shakespeare in his Sonnets. For example, see Sonnets 5 ("never resting Time"), 12 ("Nothing 'gainst Time's scythe can make defence"), and 64 ("When I have seen by Time's fell hand defaced The rich proud cost of outworn buried age") If we merely run a race against Time, we shall lose. It is the spiritual part of us that conquers Time. See verse 3 below. For the "afternoon" idea see next note.

6263 If life be considered under the metaphor of a business bargain, man, by merely attending to his material gains, will lose. When he makes up his day's account in the afternoon, it will show a loss. It will only show profit if he has Faith, leads a good life, and contributes to social welfare by directing and encouraging other people on the Path of Truth and Constancy.

6264 Faith is his armour, which wards off the wounds of the material world; and his righteous life is his positive contribution to spiritual ascent.

6265. If he lived only for himself, he would not fulfil his whole duty. Whatever good he has, especially in moral and spiritual life, he must spread among his brethren, so that they may see the Truth and stand by it in patient hope and unshaken constancy amidst all the storm and stress of outer life. For he and they will then have attained Peace within.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CIII ('Aṭṭ).

This early Meccan Sūra refers to the testimony of Time through the Ages. All history shows that Evil came to an evil end. But Time is always in favour of those who have Faith, live clean and pure lives, and know how to wait, in patience and constancy. Cf. the theme of S. xcv.

C. 283.—Waste not, nor misuse, your life. Time
(ciii 1-3.) Through the Ages bears witness that nothing remains
But Faith and Good Deeds, and the teaching of Truth
And the teaching of Patience and Constancy.
But for these, Man against Time is in loss!

8. Then, shall ye be Questioned that Day
About the joy <sup>6261</sup>
(Ye indulged in !)

⑧ ثُمَّ لَسْتُمْ عَنْ يَوْمَئِذٍ غَافِقُونَ

6261. We shall be questioned, i.e. we shall be held responsible for every kind of joy we indulge in—whether it was false pride or delight in things of no value, or things evil, or the enjoyment of thing legitimate,—the last, to see whether we kept this within reasonable bounds.

Takathur or Piling Up.

الْيَقِينِ

⑥ لَتَرَوُنَّ الْجَحِيمَ

⑦ ثُمَّ لَتَرَوُنَّهَا عَيْنَ الْيَقِينِ

6257. Acquisitiveness, that is, the passion for seeking an increase in wealth, position, the number of adherents or followers or supporters, mass production and mass organisation, may affect an individual as such, or it may affect whole societies or nations. Other people's example or rivalry in such things may aggravate the situation. Up to a certain point it may be good and necessary. But when it becomes inordinate and monopolises attention, it leaves no time for higher things in life, and a clear warning is here sounded from a spiritual point of view. Man may be engrossed in these things till death approaches, and he looks back on a wasted life, as far as the higher things are concerned.

6258. That is, until the time comes when you must lie down in the graves and leave the pomp and circumstance of an empty life. The true Reality will then appear before you. Why not try to strive for a little understanding of that Reality in this very life ?

6259. Three kinds of yaqin (certainty of knowledge) are described in n. 5673 to lxix. 51. The first is certainty of mind or inference mentioned here : we hear from someone, or we infer from something we know : this refers to our own state of mind. If we instruct our minds in this way, we should value the deeper things of life better, and not waste all our time in ephemeral things. But if we do not use our reasoning faculties now, we shall yet see with our own eyes the Penalty for our sins. It will be certainty of sight. We shall see Hell. See next verse. But the absolute certainty of assured Truth is that described in lxix. 51. That is not liable to any human error or psychological defect.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CII (Takāthur).

This probably early Meccan Sūra gives a warning against acquisitiveness, i.e. the passion for piling up quantities or numbers, whether in the good things of this world, or in man-power or in other forms of megalomania, which leave no time or opportunity for pursuing the higher things of life.

C. 282.—Be not engrossed in things ephemeral,
(cii 1-8) To the neglect of higher things in life.
Life is but short, and Death will soon claim you.
Oh that men would only learn,
Before it is too late, the serious
Issues of the higher life! They must
Taste the consequences of their neglect.
For every good enjoyed they must
In the Hereafter give a strict account.

7. Will be in a Life
Of good pleasure and satisfaction.<sup>6255</sup>

8. But he whose
Balance (of good deeds)
Will be (found) light,—

9. Will have his home
In a (bottomless) Pit.<sup>6256</sup>

10. And what will explain
To thee what this is?

11. (It is) a Fire
Blazing fiercely !

⑦ فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَاضِيَةٍ

⑧ وَأَمَّا مَنْ خَفَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ

⑨ فَأُمُّهُ هَاوِيَةٌ

⑩ وَمَا أَذْرَكَ مَا هِيَ

⑪ نَارٌ حَامِيَةٌ

6255. Cf. xevin 8, and n 6233, but perhaps the Bliss is not of the same grade for all men. In every case it is bliss, but bliss suited to the particular nature of the individual concerned.

6256. Just as grades of bliss are indicated for the righteous, so apparently we are to understand grades of punishment suited to the sins of the individual sinners concerned.

Sura CI.

Al-Qari'a, or The Day of Noise and Clamour.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. The (Day) of Noise and Clamour :<sup>6251</sup>

2. What is the (Day)
Of Noise and Clamour ?

3. And what will explain
To thee what the (Day)
Of Noise and Clamour is ?

4 (It is) a Day whereon
Men will be like moths
Scattered about,<sup>6252</sup>

5. And the mountains
Will be like carded wool.<sup>6253</sup>

6 Then, he whose
Balance (of good deeds) <sup>6254</sup>
Will be (found) heavy,

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① الْقَارِعَةُ

② مَا الْقَارِعَةُ

③ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْقَارِعَةُ

④ يَوْمَ يَكُونُ النَّاسُ

كَالْفَرَاشِ الْمَبْثُوثِ

⑤ وَتَكُونُ الْجِبَالُ

كَالْعِيقِ الْمَنْفُوشِ

⑥ فَأَمَّا مَنْ ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ

6251. The Day of Noise and Clamour is the Day of Judgment, when the whole of the present order of things will be overthrown with a tremendous convulsion. Cf. n. 6235 to xcix. 1, and n. 6096 to lxxxviii. All our present landmarks will be lost. It will be a stunning experience to begin with, but it will inaugurate a new world of true and permanent values, in which every human deed will have its true and just consequences, as if weighed in the balance. See verses 6-11 below.

6252. Moths are frail light things. To see them scattered about in a violent storm gives some idea of the confusion, distress, and helplessness in which men will be at first overwhelmed on the Day of Account. Old memories will be like a book almost blotted out. New hopes will be vague in a new world just rising on the horizon. But it will be a perfectly just world, and no good action will be lost and no evil one but will have its compensating value estimated.

6253. Cf. n. 5682 to lxx. 9. The mountains are solid things, which seem as if nothing could move them. But in that tremendous cataclysm they will be scattered about like flakes of teased or carded wool. This is a metaphor to show that what we consider very substantial in this life will be as an airy nothing in the spiritual world.

6254. The Balance is of course figurative. The Good Deeds will be weighed and appraised. This appraisement will be of the nicest and justest kind : for it will take into account motives, temptations, provocations, surrounding conditions, antecedents, subsequent amends, and all possible connected circumstances. Against them, presumably, will be deeds of the opposite kind, appraised in the same way. If the good predominates, the judgment will be in the man's favour, and he will be ushered into a life of good pleasure and satisfaction. This will of course be on another plane.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA CI (Al-Qāri'a).

This Meccan Sūra describes the Judgment Day as the Day of Clamour, when men will be distracted and the landmarks of this world will be lost, but every deed will be weighed in a just balance, and find its real value and setting.

C. 281.—How will the senses of man stand the Noise
(ci 1-11.) And Clamour of the great Day of Account,
Whereon this life's old landmarks will vanish,
And men will be helpless like scattered moths?
Nay, but a Balance of Justice will weigh
And appraise all Deeds: and those whose good
Will show substance and weight will achieve a Life
Of good pleasure and satisfaction, while those Whose good will be light will find themselves,
Alas, in a blazing Pit of Punishment.

6. Truly Man is,
To his Lord,<sup>6246</sup>
Ungrateful ;

7. And to that (fact)
He bears witness
(By his deeds) ;<sup>6247</sup>

8. And violent is he
In his love of wealth.<sup>6248</sup>

9. Does he not know,—
When that which is
In the graves is Scattered abroad<sup>6249</sup>

10. And that which is (Locked up) in (human) breasts
Is made manifest—

11. That their Lord had been
Well-acquainted with them,
(Even to) that Day?<sup>6250</sup>

① إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَنُودٌ

② وَمَا تَدْرُ عَلَىٰ ذَٰلِكَ لِشَهِيدٌ

③ وَإِنَّهُ يُحِبُّ الْخَيْرَ لَشَدِيدٌ

④ أَفَلَا يَعْلَمُ إِذَا بُعْثِرَ مَا فِي الْقُبُورِ

⑤ وَحُصِّلَ مَا فِي الصُّدُورِ

⑥ إِنَّ رَبَّهُمْ بِهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَبِيرٌ

6246. Man, i.e., unregenerate man, in contrast to those who receive guidance and wage unceasing war with Evil, is ungrateful to his Lord and Cherisher, Him Who created him and sustains him, and sends His blessings and favours at all times. The ingratitude may be shown by thoughts, words, and deeds,—by forgetting or denying God and His goodness, by misusing His gifts, or by injustice to His creatures. He is in this respect worse than the war-horse that risks his life in the service of his master.

6247. Man himself, by his conduct, proves the charge of treason against himself.

6248. What an evil choice he makes in committing treason against his own Benefactor by going after the petty baubles of this world's wealth of fleeting gains?

6249. Dead bodies, secret plots, evil thoughts and imaginings, long since buried, will yet stand forth before the Judgment-seat of God. Instead of being closely hidden or blotted out—as they will have been from the consciousness of mankind,—they will stand out as from the consciousness of God, which is all-embracing and never suffers from sleep or fatigue.

6250. God's knowledge is full and vigilant at all times. But on that day it will reveal to men secrets which they had long forgotten; for the Book of their Deeds will be made manifest at Judgment.

Sūra C.

'Ādiyāt, or Those that run.

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. By the (Steeds) <sup>6241</sup>
That run, with panting (breath),

2 And strike sparks of fire, <sup>6242</sup>

3. And push home the charge
In the morning, <sup>6243</sup>

4. And raise the dust
In clouds the while, <sup>6244</sup>

5. And penetrate forthwith
Into the midst (of the foe)
En masse; — <sup>6245</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالْعَادِيَاتِ ضَبْحًا

② فَالْمُورِيَاتِ قَدْحًا

③ فَالْمُغِيرَاتِ صُبْحًا

④ فَأَثَرْنَ بِهِ نَقْعًا

⑤ فَوَسَطْنَ بِهِ جَمْعًا

6241. The substantive proposition is in verses 6-8 below, and the metaphors and symbols enforcing the lesson are in verses 1-5 here. These symbols have at least three layers of mystic meaning: (1) Look at the chargers (mares or swift camels) panting for war on behalf of their masters. Off they go, striking fire with their hoofs by night at the behest of their riders; they push home the charge in the morning, chivalrously giving the enemy the benefit of daylight; and regardless of flashing steel or the weapons of their enemies they boldly penetrate into the midst of their foe, risking their lives for the Cause. Does unregenerate man show that fidelity to his Lord God? On the contrary he is ungrateful to God; he shows that by his deeds; he is violently in love with wealth and gain and things that perish. (2) By the figure of metonymy the brave fidelity of the war-horse may stand for that of the brave men and true who rally to the standard of God and carry it to victory, contrasted with the poltroonery and pettiness of unregenerate man. (3) The whole conflict, fighting, and victory, may be applied to spiritual warfare against those who are caught and overwhelmed in the camp of Evil.

6242. With their hoofs. If we suppose the march to be in the dead of night, the sparks of fire would be still more conspicuous.

6244. The clouds of dust typify the ignorance and confusion in the minds of those who oppose Truth.

6245. The forces of evil mass themselves for strength, but their massing itself may become a means of their speedy undoing.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY . SŪRA C ('Āḍiyāt).

This is one of the earlier Meccan Sūras. In the depth of its mystery and the rhythm and sublimity of its language and symbolism, it may be compared with S. lxxix. Its subject-matter is the irresistible nature of spiritual power and knowledge, contrasted with unregenerate man's ingratitude, pettiness, helplessness, and ignorance.

C. 280.—There are those that fight, with eager charge,
 (c 1-11) The hosts of evil, and storm its citadel.
 But unregenerate Man shows less
 Than gratitude for God's most gracious
 Bounties : his life bears witness to his treason
 And his greed. God's knowledge is all-embracing
 All things hidden will be laid bare at Judgment.

To be shown the Deeds
That they (had done).

لِيُرَوْا أَعْمَالَهُمْ

7. Then shall anyone who Has done an atom's weight <sup>6240</sup>
Of good, see it !

⑦ فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ

8. And anyone who
Has done an atom's weight
Of evil, shall see it.

⑧ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ

6240. Zarrāt : the weight of an ant, the smallest living weight an ordinary man can think of. Figuratively the subtlest form of good and evil will then be brought to account, and it will be done openly and convincingly : he "shall see it".

Sûra XCIX.

Zilzal, or The Convulsion.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. When the Earth is Shaken to her (utmost) convulsion,<sup>6235</sup>

2. And the Earth throws up
Her burdens (from within),<sup>6236</sup>

3. And man cries (distressed):
'What is the matter with her?'—<sup>6237</sup>

4. On that Day will she Declare her tidings:

5. For that thy Lord will
Have given her inspiration.<sup>6238</sup>

6. On that Day will men
Proceed in companies sorted out,<sup>6239</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ زِلْزَالَهَا

② وَأَخْرَجَتِ الْأَرْضُ أَثْقَالَهَا

③ وَقَالَ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا لَهَا

④ يَوْمَئِذٍ تُخَدِّثُ أَخْبَارَهَا

⑤ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ أَوْحَىٰ لَهَا

⑥ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا

6236. An earthquake, if accompanied by a volcanic eruption, throws up enormous boulders and lava from beneath the crust of the earth. They are thrown up as if they were a burden to the Earth personified. They may be all kinds of minerals, or treasures buried for secrecy. So in the great and final Convulsion, the dead who had been buried and forgotten will rise; matters and motives which had been secretly hidden and metaphorically buried will be brought to the light of day, and justice will be done in the full glare of absolute Truth.

6238. The present order may be personified as the earth. It will pass away, but the Deeds done therein, even the most secret, will be brought to the full light of day. And this will be because God will give the Command, the inspiration or Word, by which alone all events do proceed. The "inspiration" is the Command or direction conveyed by instruction breathed into the Earth personified; she is directed to tell the whole story of what she knows. Cf. xvi, 68, n. 2097.

6239. In this world good and evil are mixed together. But then they will be sorted out, and each grade of good and evil will be sorted out. So they will proceed in companies to receive judgment. And they will be shown the exact import of everything that they had thought, said, or done, in this life of probation, however they may have concealed or misinterpreted it in this life. Everything will be considered in taking the account, and the account will convince the persons concerned themselves.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XCIX (Zilzāl).

This Sūra is close in date to the last : it is generally referred to the early Medina period, though it may possibly be of the late Meccan period.

It refers to the tremendous convulsion and uprooting which will take place when the present order of the world is dissolved and the new spiritual world of Justice and Truth takes its place. The symbol used is that of an earthquake which will shake our present material and phenomenal world to its very foundations. The mystic words in which the earthquake is described are remarkable for both power and graphic aptness. With that shaking all hidden mysteries will be brought to light.

C. 279.—The Hour of Judgment must needs be heralded
 (xcix. 1-8) By a mighty Convulsion : the Earth will give up
 Her secrets and tell her tale of all
 Man's doings : men will march in companies
 And clearly see the inwardness
 Of all their Deeds : not an atom of Good
 Or Evil done, but will be shown
 In the final Account of men convinced.

8. Their reward is with God :
 Gardens of Eternity,
 Beneath which rivers flow;
 They will dwell therein
 For ever; God well pleased
 With them, and they with Him : <sup>6233</sup>
 All this for such as
 Fear their Lord and Cherisher. <sup>6234</sup>

① جَزَاؤُهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ

 عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ خَشِيَ رَبَّهُ

6233. The Good Pleasure of God is the final Bliss of Salvation, The good pleasure is mutual; the truly saved is he whose will has become completely identified with God's universal will. See Appendix XII, on the Muslim Heaven. Cf. lxxxix. 27-30.

6234. The fear of God is the fear to offend against His holy law, the fear to do anything which is against His holy Will. Such fear is akin to love; for with it dawns the consciousness of God's loving-care for all His creatures.

Make schisms,<sup>6227</sup>
Until after there came
To them Clear Evidence.

5. And they have been commanded
No more than this :<sup>6228</sup>
To worship God,
Offering Him sincere devotion,
Being True (in faith);<sup>6229</sup>
To establish regular Prayer;
And to practise regular Charity;
And that is the Religion
Right and Straight.<sup>6230</sup>

6. Those who reject (Truth),
Among the People of the Book
And among the Polytheists,
Will be in hell-fire,
To dwell therein (for aye).
They are the worst

الدِّينَ حُفَافًا وَيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُوا الزَّكَاةَ
وَذَلِكَ دِينُ الْقَيِّمَةِ

⑥ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ
وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
أُولَئِكَ هُمْ شَرُّ الْبَرِيَّةِ

⑦ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَئِكَ
هُمْ خَيْرُ الْبَرِيَّةِ

6227. The responsibility of the People of the Book is greater than that of Pagans, because the People of the Book had been prepared for the standard and straight Religion by the revelations which they had already received. Yet, when the clear evidence came in Islam, they resisted it, And what is this standard and straight Religion, free of all ambiguity, and free of all casual rights and ceremonies? They are summed up in three eternal principles, as explained in the next verse and the next note.

6228. The three eternal principles of Religion are : (1) sincere devotion to God ; (2) Prayer and Praise as drawing man nearer to God and to the spiritual world ; and (3) the service of God's creatures by deeds of practical charity.

6229. Hanif : see n. 134 to ii. 135.

6221 The People of the Book immediately referred to are the Jews and the Christians, who had received scriptures in the same line of prophecy in which came our holy Prophet. Their scriptures should have prepared them for the advent of the greatest and last of the Prophets. For the Jewish scriptures promised to the Jews, cousins or brethren to the Arabs, a prophet like Moses : " The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me ; unto him ye shall hearken " (Deut. xviii. 15). And Christ promised a Comforter (John, xiv. 16 ; xv. 26 ; and xvi. 7 ; see my n. 5438 to lxi. 6) almost by name. The People of the Book fell from the true, straight, and standard religion, into devious ways, and would not come to the true Path until (they said) they were convinced by the arrival of the promised Prophet. But when the promised Prophet came in the person of Muḥammad, they rejected him, because they really did not seek for Truth but only followed their own fancies and desires.

6222. The Polytheists, the Pagans, had not previously believed in any scriptures. But yet, when clear evidence came to them, they should have believed. Yet they rejected the holy Prophet because they were not really searching for Truth, but were only following their own fancies and desires

6223. The Clear Evidence was the holy Prophet himself, his life, his personality, and his teaching.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XCVIII (Ba'yina).

This Sūra was probably an early Medina Sūra, or possibly a late Meccan Sūra.

In subject-matter it carries forward the argument of the last Sūra. The mystic night of revelation is indeed blessed : but those who reject Truth are impervious to God's Message, however clear may be the evidence in support of it.

C. 278.—But those who reject the light of Truth xcviij. 1-8.) Are obstinate. Why should they persist
In evil ways when the Clear Evidence
Has come before them ? The straight Religion
Is simple : to adore with a pure heart
The God of Truth, to draw nigh to Him
In Prayer sincere, and to serve
Our fellow-creatures in charity and love.
To do aught else is to fall from Grace.
But Faith and Good Life lead straight to the Goal,—
The beauteous Gardens of Bliss Eternal,
And the mutual good pleasure of the Soul in her Lord.

Sūra XCVII.

Qadr, or The Night of Power (or Honour).

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. We have indeed revealed
This (Message)
In the Night of Power: <sup>6217</sup>

2. And what will explain
To thee what the Night
Of Power is?

3. The Night of Power
Is better than
A thousand Months. <sup>6218</sup>

4. Therein come down
The angels and the Spirit <sup>6219</sup>
By God's permission,
On every errand:

5. Peace! . . . This Until the rise of Morn! <sup>6220</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ

② وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ

③ لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ

④ نَزَّلَ الْمَلَكُ وَالرُّوحُ فِيهَا
بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ مِنْ كُلِّ أَمْرٍ

⑤ سَلَامٌ هِيَ حَتَّى مَطْلَعِ الْفَجْرِ

6217. Cf. xlv. 3 and n. 4690. Literalists refer to some particular night in the calendar, but there is no agreement as to which it is. The 23rd, 25th or 27th night of Ramadhān, as well as other nights, have been suggested. See, however, the Introduction to this Sūra. It is best to take this in the mystic sense, which also accords with verse 3 below, which says that the Night of Power is better than a thousand Months. It transcends Time: for it is God's Power dispelling the Darkness of Ignorance, by his Revelation, in every kind of affair.

6218. "A thousand" must be taken in an indefinite sense, as denoting a very long period of time. Cf. notes 3632 and 3634 to xxxii. 4-5, and n. 5678 to lxx. 4. This does not refer to our ideas of time, but to "timeless Time". One moment of enlightenment under God's Light is better than thousands of months or years of animal life, and such a moment converts the night of darkness into a period of spiritual glory.

6220. When the Night of spiritual darkness is dissipated by the glory of God, a wonderful Peace and a sense of Security arise in the soul. And this lasts on until this life closes, and the glorious Day of the new spiritual world dawns, when everything will be on a different plane, and the chequered nights and days of this world will be even less than a dream.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XCVII (Qadr).

The chronology of this Sūra has no significance. It is probably Meccan, though some hold that it was revealed in Medina.

The subject-matter is the mystic Night of Power (or Honour), in which Revelation comes down to a benighted world,—it may be to the wonderful Cosmos of an individual—and transforms the conflict of wrong-doing into Peace and Harmony—through the agency of the angelic host, representing the spiritual powers of the Mercy of God.

C. 277,—Blessed indeed is the Night of Power!—
(xcvii. 1-5.) When the Mercy of God's Revelation breaks through
The darkness of the human soul!
All the Powers, of the world divine,
Speed on their mystic Message of Mercy,
By God's command, and bless every nook
And corner of the heart! All jars
Are stilled in the reign supreme of Peace,
Until this mortal night gives place
To the glorious day of an immortal world!

13. Seest thou if he<sup>6212</sup>
Denies (Truth) and turns away ?

١٣ أَرَأَيْتَ إِن كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى

14. Knoweth he not
That God doth see ?

١٤ أَلَمْ يَعْلَمِ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَرَى

15. Let him beware ! If he Desist not, We will
Drag him by the forelock,—<sup>6213</sup>

١٥ كَلَّا لَئِن لَّمْ يَنْتَهِ كَنُصِفْهُ بِالْأَنَاصِيفِ

16. A lying, sinful forelock !

١٦ نَاصِيفٍ كَذِبٍ خَاطِفَةٍ

17. Then, let him call
(For help) to his council<sup>6214</sup>
(Of comrades) :

١٧ فَلْيَدْعُ نَادِيَهُ

18. We will call
On the angels of punishment
(To deal with him) !<sup>6215</sup>

١٨ سَنَدْعُ الزَّانِبِينَ

19. Nay, heed him not :
But bow down in adoration,
And bring thyself
The closer (to God) !<sup>6216</sup>

١٩ كَلَّا لَا تَطِيعُ وَاسْجُدْ وَاقْتَرِبْ

6212. The usual trick of the ungodly is to refuse to face Truth. If they are placed in a corner, they deny what is obvious to reasonable men, and turn their backs.

6214. The Pagan Quraish, who formed an oppressive junta or council to manage the Ka'ba were in sympathy with Abū Jahl, though they did not go to the unbridled lengths to which Abū Jahl went. But they could not, all combined, resist the onward march of the divine mission, though they did all they could to check it.

6216. The righteous man has no fear. He can disregard all the forces of evil that are brought against him. But he must learn humility : that is his defence. He will bow down in adoration to God. He must have the will to bring himself closer to God. For God is always close to him,—closer to him than his life blood in the jugular vein (l. 16). Man's humility and adoration remove him from being an insolent rebel on the one hand and, on the other, prepare his will to realise his nearness to God.

5. Taught man that
Which he knew not.<sup>6207</sup>

6. Qay, but man doth
Transgress all bounds,<sup>6208</sup>

7. In that he looketh
Upon himself as self-sufficient.

8. Verily, to thy Lord
Is the return (of all).<sup>6209</sup>

9. Seeest thou one
Who forbids—<sup>6210</sup>

10. A votary when he (Turns) to pray ?

11. Seest thou if <sup>6211</sup>
He is on (the road
Of) Guidance ?—

12. Or enjoins Righteousness ?

⑤ عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ

⑥ كَلَّا إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَافٍ

⑦ أَنْ رَأَاهُ اسْتَفْتَى

⑧ إِنَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ الرُّجْعَىٰ

⑨ أَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي يَنْهَىٰ

⑩ عَبْدًا إِذَا صَلَّىٰ

⑪ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَانَ عَلَىٰ الْهُدَىٰ

⑫ أَوْ أَمَرَ بِالتَّقْوَىٰ

6208. All our knowledge and capacities come as gifts from God. But man, in his inordinate vanity and insolence, mistakes God's gifts for his own achievements. The gifts may be strength or beauty, wealth, position, or power, or the more subtle gifts of knowledge or talents in individuals,—or Science, or Art, or Government, or Organisation for mankind in general.

6210. The words may be applied generally to perverse humanity, which seeks not only to rebel against God's Law, but also to prevent others from following it. There may however be a reference here to Abū Jahl, an inveterate enemy of Islam, who used in its early days to insult and persecute the holy Prophet and those who followed his teaching. He used, in particular, to use shameful methods to prevent the Prophet from going to the Ka'ba for devotions, and forbid any who came under his influence, from offering prayers or performing devotions. He was arrogant and purse-proud, and met his end in the battle of Badī.

6211. Man's insolence leads to two results: (1) self-destruction through self-misleading; (2) a false example or false guidance to others. The righteous man must therefore test human example or human guidance by the question, "Is there God's guidance behind it?" And visible light would be thrown on it by the question, "Does it lead to righteousness?" A flouting of God and God's Truth answers the first question in the negative, and conduct which turns back from the eternal principles of Right answers the second.

Iqraa, or Read ! or Proclaim !

Or 'Alaq, or The Clot of Congealed
Blood.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Proclaim ! (or Read !) <sup>6203</sup>
In the name <sup>6204</sup>
Of thy Lord and Cherisher,
Who created—

① اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ

2. Created man, out of
A (mere) clot
Of congealed blood ; <sup>6205</sup>

② خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ

3. Proclaim ! And thy Lord
Is Most Bountiful,—

③ أَفْهَلْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ

4. He Who taught
(The use of) the Pen,—<sup>6206</sup>

④ الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ

6204. The declaration or proclamation was to be in the name of God the Creator. It was not for any personal benefit to the Prophet: to him there was to come bitter persecution, sorrow, and suffering. It was the call of God for the benefit of erring humanity. God is mentioned by his title of "thy Lord and Cherisher", to establish a direct nexus between the source of the Message and the one addressed. The Message was not merely an abstract proposition of philosophy, but the direct concrete message of a personal God to the creatures whom He loves and cherishes. "Thy" addressed to the Prophet is appropriate in two ways: (1) he was in direct contact with the divine Messenger (Gabriel) and Him Who sent the Messenger; (2) he represented the whole of humanity, in a fuller sense than that in which Christ Jesus is the "Son of Man".

6206. The symbol of a permanent revelation is the mystic Pen and the mystic Record. See n. 5593 to lxviii 1.

The Arabic words for "teach" and "knowledge" are from the same root. It is impossible to produce in a Translation the complete orchestral harmony of the words for "read", "teach", "pen" (which implies reading, writing, books, study, research), "knowledge" (including science, self knowledge, spiritual understanding), and "proclaim", an alternative meaning of the word for "to read". This proclaiming or reading implies not only the duty of blazoning forth God's message, as going with the prophetic office, but also the duty of promulgation and wide dissemination of the Truth by all who read and understand it. The comprehensive meaning of iqraa refers not only to a particular person and occasion but also gives a universal direction. And this kind of comprehensive meaning, as we have seen, runs throughout the Qur-ān—for those who will understand.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XCVI (Iqrāa, or 'Alaq).

Verses 1-5 of this Sūra were the first direct Revelation to the holy Prophet. The circumstances, material and psychical, in which they came, are described in C. 28-30, which should be referred to.

After that there was an interval or break (Fatra), extending over some months or perhaps over a year. S. lxxviii. is usually considered to have been the next revelation in point of time. But the remainder of this Sūra (xcvi. 6-19) came soon after the Fatra, and that portion is joined on to the first five verses containing the command to preach, because it explains the chief obstacle to the delivery of the message to man, viz. : man's own obstinacy, vanity, and insolence.

C. 276.—Noble is the mission of the Prophet, selected
 (xcvi. 1-19) To proclaim the Message of God, the Lord
 And Cherisher of all His Creation, Whose measureless
 Bounties include the instruction of man
 In new and ever new knowledge. But alas
 For man ! he fancies himself self-sufficient,
 Turns away from the Path, and misleads others.
 But nothing is hidden from God. He will bring
 All untruth and sin and rebellion to Judgment,
 And subdue all evil. The righteous bow
 In adoration to God, and draw closer to Him.

4. We have indeed created man
In the best of moulds,<sup>6199</sup>

④ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي أَحْسَنِ تَقْوِيمٍ

5. Then do We abase him
(To be) the lowest
Of the low, —<sup>6200</sup>

⑤ ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَاهُ أَسْفَلَ سَافِلِينَ

6. Except such as believe
And do righteous deeds :
For they shall have
A reward unfailing.

⑥ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
فَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ

7. Then what can,
After this, contradict thee,<sup>6201</sup>
As to the Judgment
(To come) ?

⑦ فَمَا يُكَذِّبُكَ بَعْدُ بِالذِّكْرِ

8. Is not God
The wisest of Judges ?<sup>6202</sup>

6199. Taqwīm . mould, symmetry, form, nature, constitution. There is no fault in God's creation. To man God gave the purest and best nature, and man's duty is to preserve the pattern on which God has made him : xxx. 30. But by making him His vicegerent, God exalted him in posse even higher than the angels, for the angels had to make obeisance to him (ii. 30-34, and n. 48). But man's position as vicegerent also gives him will and discretion, and if he uses them wrongly he falls even lower than the beasts. See next note.

6200 This verse should be read with the next, If man rebels against God, and follows after evil, he will be abased to the lowest possible position. For Judgment is sure. Those who use their faculties aright, and follow God's Law will reach the high and noble destiny intended for them. Their reward will not be temporary, but unfailing.

6201. Thae . may refer to the holy Prophet, or to man collectively. After this : i.e. when it is clearly shown to you that God created man true and pure, that He guides him, and that those who rebel and break His law will be punished and brought down in the Hereafter, who can doubt this, or contradict the Prophet when he gives warning ?

6202. God is wise and just. Therefore the righteous have nothing to fear but the evil ones can not escape a punishment.

Sura XCV.

Tin, or The Fig.

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. By the Fig<sup>6194</sup>
And the Olive,<sup>6195</sup>

2. And the Mount
Of Sinai,<sup>6196</sup>

3. And this City<sup>6197</sup>
Of security, —<sup>6198</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالَّتَيْنِ وَالزَّيْتُونِ

② وَطُورِ سَيْنَاءَ

③ وَهَذَا الْبَلَدِ الْأَمِينِ

6194. The substantive proposition is in verses 4-8, and it is clinched by an appeal to four sacred symbols, viz., the Fig, the Olive, Mount Sinai, and the sacred City of Mecca. About the precise interpretation of the first two symbols, and especially of the symbol of the Fig, there is much difference of opinion. If we take the Fig literally to refer to the fruit or the tree, it can stand as a symbol of man's destiny in many ways. Under cultivation it can be one of the finest, most delicious, and most wholesome fruits in existence; in its wild state, it is nothing but tiny seeds, and is insinid, and often full of worms and maggots. So man at his best has a noble destiny: at his worst, he is "the lowest of the low". Christ is said to have cursed a fig tree for having only leaves, and not producing fruit (Matt. xxi. 18-20), enforcing the same lesson. There is also a parable of the fig tree in Matt. xxiv. 32-35. See also the parable of the good and evil figs in Jeremiah, xxiv. 1-10. But see n. 6198 below.

6195. For the sacred symbolism of the Olive, see n. 2880 to xxiii. 20, and notes 3000-3002 to xxiv. 35, where the parable of God's Light includes a reference to the Olive. But it is possible that the Olive here refers to the Mount of Olives, just outside the walls of the City of Jerusalem (see n. 5038 to lii. 2), for this is the scene in the Gospel story (Matt. xxiv. 3-4) of Christ's description of the Judgment to come.

6196. This was the Mountain on which the Law was given to Moses. See xix. 52, and n. 2504. The Law was given, and the glory of God was made visible. But did Israel faithfully obey the Law thereafter?

6197. "This City of security" is undoubtedly Mecca. Even in Pagan times its sacred character was respected, and no fighting was allowed in its territory. But the same City, with all its sacred associations, persecuted the greatest of the Prophets and gave itself up for a time to idolatry and sin, thus presenting the contrast of the best and the worst.

6198. Having discussed the four symbols in detail, let us consider them together. It is clear that they refer to God's Light or Revelation, which offers man the highest destiny if he will follow the Way. Mecca stands for Islam, Sinai for Israel, and the Mount of Olives for Christ's original and pure Message. It has been suggested that the Fig stands for the Ficus Indica, the Bo-tree, under which Gautama Buddha obtained Nirvana. I hesitate to adopt the suggestion, but if accepted it would cover pristine Buddhism and the ancient Vedic religions from which it was an offshoot. In this way all the great religions of the world would be indicated. But even if we refer the Fig and the Olive to the symbolism in their fruit, and not to any particular religion, the contrast of Best and Worst in man's destiny remains, and that is the main thing.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XCV (Tin).

This is also a very early Sūra. It appeals to the most sacred symbols to show that God created man in the best of moulds, but that man is capable of the utmost degradation unless he has Faith and leads a good life. In subject-matter this Sūra closely resembles S. ciii.

C. 275.—Nature and history and the Light of Revelation,
 (xcv 1-8) Through the ages, show that man,
           Created by God in the best of moulds,
           Can yet fall to the lowest depths, unless
           He lives a life of faith and righteousness.
           Then will he reach his goal : if not,
           He must stand his Judgment—none can doubt—
           Before the wisest and justest of Judges.

7. Therefore, when thou art
Free (from thine immediate task),
Still labour hard,<sup>6192</sup>

⑦ فَإِذَا قَرَعْتَ فَأَنْصَبْ

8. And to thy Lord
Turn (all) thy attention.<sup>6193</sup>

⑧ وَلِلَّهِ رَبِّكَ فَأَرْغَبْ

6192. When thou art free : or when thou art relieved. The words understood may be : from thy immediate task, that of preaching to men, denouncing sin, and encouraging righteousness ; or, from the difficulties that confronted thee. When that happens, that does not finish the labours of the man of God. It is only one step to them. He has constantly and insistently to go on. When there is rest from the task of instructing the world, the contact with the spiritual kingdom continues, and indeed it becomes more intimate and concentrated.

6193. The kingdom of God is everything. Other things are incidental, and really do not matter. Worldly greatness or success may be a means to an end, but it may also be a hindrance to true spiritual greatness. God is the goal of the righteous man's whole attention and desire.

(In which) thou (art held)?<sup>6190</sup>5. So, verily,
With every difficulty,
There is relief;<sup>6191</sup>6. Verily, with every difficulty
There is relief.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① أَلَمْ نَشْرَحْ لَكَ صَدْرَكَ

② وَوَضَعْنَا عَنْكَ وِزْرَكَ

③ الَّذِي أَنْقَضَ ظَهْرَكَ

④ وَرَفَعْنَا لَكَ ذِكْرَكَ

⑤ فَإِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا

⑥ إِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا

6188. Cf. the prayer of Moses in xx. 25. The breast is symbolically the seat of knowledge and the highest feelings of love and affection, the treasure-house in which are stored the jewels of that quality of human character which approaches nearest to the divine. The holy Prophet's human nature had been purified, expanded, and elevated, so that he became a Mercy to all Creation. Such a nature could afford to ignore the lower motives of ordinary humanity which caused shameful attacks to be made on him. Its strength and courage could also bear the burden of the galling work which it had to do in denouncing sin, subduing it, and protecting God's creatures from its oppression.

6189. See last note. It is indeed a grievous and galling burden for a man to fight single-handed against sin. But God sends His grace and aid, and that burden is removed, or converted into joy and triumph in the service of the One True God.

6190. The Prophet's virtues, the magnanimity of his character, and his love for mankind were fully recognised even in his lifetime, and his name stands highest among the heroic leaders of mankind. The phrase used here is more comprehensive in meaning than that used for various prophets in xxxvii. 119 etc.: "We left this blessing for them among generations to come in later times".

6191. This verse is repeated for extra emphasis. Whatever difficulties or troubles are encountered by men, God always provides a solution, a way out, a relief, a way to lead to ease and happiness, if we only follow His Path and show our Faith by patience and well-doing. The solution or relief does not merely come after the Difficulty: it is provided with it. I understand the definite article in al 'usr in a generic sense, and translate: "every difficulty". In xcli. 7, I have translated Yusr as Bliss, and in xcii. 10, 'Usr as Misery.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY SŪRA XCIV. (Inshirāh).

This short Sūra gives a message of hope and encouragement in a time of darkness and difficulty. It was revealed to the holy Prophet soon after the last Sūra (Dhuhā), whose argument it supplements.

C. 274.—The Prophet's mind and heart had indeed
(xciv. 1-8.) Been expanded and purified ; the burden
Which pressed on his soul had been removed ;
And his name exalted in this world and the next.
For the righteous man there is no trouble
But is linked with ease and joy : he must strive
At every stage, and look to God
Alone as the goal of all his hopes.

9. Therefore, treat not <sup>6185</sup>
The orphan with harshness,

① فَأَمَّا الْيَتِيمَ فَلَا تَقْهَرْ

10. Nor repulse the petitioner
(Unheard); <sup>6186</sup>

② وَأَمَّا السَّائِلَ فَلَا تَنْهَرْ

11. But the Bounty
Of thy Lord—
Rehearse and proclaim! <sup>6187</sup>

③ وَأَمَّا بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ فَحَدِّثْ

6186. Then there are the people who come with petitions,—who have to ask for something. They may be genuine beggars asking for financial help, or ignorant people asking for knowledge, or timid people asking for some lead or encouragement. The common attitude is to scorn them or repulse them. The scorn may be shown even when alms or assistance is given to them. Such an attitude is wrong. Charity is of no moral value without sympathy and love. Nor is it charity to give to idle sturdy professional beggars, for show or to get rid of them. They are mere parasites on society. Every petition should be examined and judged on its merits.

6187. Besides the petitioners, who ask for help, there is the case of those who do not ask but are nevertheless poor—poor but contented in worldly goods, or poor in knowledge or resources and not even knowing that they are poor. If you are bountifully endowed by God, your duty is to make that Bounty spread far and wide. Proclaim it and share it, as the holy Prophet always did. Spiritually we all belong to one of these three classes in one sense or another,—orphans, petitioners, and victims of poverty. We all receive God's grace and guidance in some degree or other. We all owe it as a duty to our fellow-men to be kind and helpful to those less endowed in any respect than ourselves.

5. And soon will thy
Guardian-Lord give thee
(That wherewith) thou
Shalt be well-pleased.<sup>6180</sup>

٥ وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ فَتَرْضَىٰ

6. Did He not find thee<sup>6181</sup>
An orphan and give thee
Shelter (and care)?<sup>6182</sup>

٦ أَلَمْ يَجِدْكَ يَتِيمًا فَآوَىٰ

7. And He found thee
Wandering, and He gave
Thee guidance.<sup>6183</sup>

٧ وَوَجَدَكَ ضَالًّا فَهَدَىٰ

8. And He found thee
In need, and made
Thee independent.<sup>6184</sup>

٨ وَوَجَدَكَ عَائِلًا فَأَغْنَىٰ

6180. God's good pleasure is sure when we serve Him. But we are assured that even our feelings of doubt and suffering will vanish, and we shall have a sense of complete satisfaction, contentment,<sup>1</sup> and active pleasure when our will is identified with the Will of God.

6181. Judge the future from the past. God has been good to you in your past experience: trust to His goodness in the future also. Again, there is a particular and a general meaning. Three facts are taken from the holy Prophet's outer life by way of illustration. Metaphorically they also apply to us. And further, the outer facts are themselves types for the spiritual life. See notes below.

6182. (1) There is the case of the orphan, literally and figuratively. Our holy Prophet was himself an orphan. His father 'Abdullah died young before the child was born, leaving no property. The Prophet's mother Amina was in ailing health, and he was chiefly brought up by his nurse Halima. His mother herself died when he was only six years old. His aged grandfather 'Abdul Muttalib treated him as his own son, but died two years later. Thereafter his uncle Abū Tālib treated him as his own son. He was thus an orphan in more senses than one, and yet the love he received from each one of these persons was greater than ordinary parental love. Each one of us is an orphan in some sense or another, and yet someone's love and shelter come to us by the grace of God. In the spiritual world there is no father or mother: our very first sustenance and shelter must come from the grace of God.

6183. (2) The holy Prophet was born in the midst of the idolatry and polytheism of Mecca, in a family which was the custodian of this false worship. He wandered in quest of Unity and found it by the guidance of God. There is no implication whatever of sin or error on his part. But we may err and find ourselves wandering in mazes of error, in thought, motive, or understanding: we must pray for God's grace ever to give us guidance.

The Arabic root dhalla has various shades of meaning. In i. 7, I have translated it by the verb "stray". In liii. 2 the Prophet is defended from the charge of being "astray" or straying in mind. In xli. 8 and xii. 95 Jacob's sons use the word for their aged father, to suggest that he was senile and wandering in mind. In xxxii. 10 it is used of the dead, and I have translated "hidden and lost" (in the earth).

6184. (3) The holy Prophet inherited no wealth and was poor. The true, pure, and sincere love of Khadija not only raised him above want, but made him independent of worldly needs in his later life, enabling him to devote his whole time to the service of God. So do we all find ourselves in some want or another, which, if we work whole-heartedly and sincerely, is supplied to us by the grace of God. When we have found the Way, it is a laborious task to climb up in our poverty of spiritual equipment: God will give us spiritual riches in love and knowledge.

Sūra XCIII.

Dhuḥā, or The Glorious Morning
Light.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Glorious
Morning Light,<sup>6175</sup>

2. And by the Night<sup>6176</sup>
When it is still,—

3. Thy Guardian-Lord
Hath not forsaken thee,<sup>6177</sup>
Nor is He displeased.<sup>6178</sup>

4. And verily the hereafter
Will be better for thee
Than the present.<sup>6179</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالضُّحَى

② وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا سَجَى

③ مَا وَدَّعَكَ رَبُّكَ وَمَا قَلَى

④ وَلَلْآخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ مِنَ الْأُولَى

6175. The full morning light of the sun, when his splendour shines forth in contrast with the night which has passed. Cf. xci. 1. The growing hours of morning light, from sunrise to noon, are the true type of the growth of spiritual life and work, while the stillness of the night is, to those who know, only a preparation for it. We are not to imagine that the stillness or quiescence of the night is wasted, or means stagnation in our spiritual life. The stillness may seem lonely, but we are not alone, nor forsaken by God. Nor is such preparation, without immediate visible results, a sign of God's displeasure.

6176. Cf. xcii. 1-2. There Night is mentioned first, and Day second, to enforce the lesson of contrasts: the veil of the night naturally comes first before the splendour of daylight is revealed. Here the argument is different: the growing hours of morning light are the main thing and are mentioned first; while the hours of preparation and quiescence, which are subordinate, come second.

6177. As usual, there is the particular assurance to the holy Prophet, and the general assurance to mankind: see the Introduction to this Sūra. The early years of the Prophet's ministry might well have seemed blank. After inspiration there were days and periods of waiting. A sense of loneliness might well have weighed on his mind. His own tribe of the Quraish jeered at him, taunted and threatened him, and slandered and persecuted him as well as those who believed in him. But his faith was never shaken, not even to the extent of that cry of agony of Jesus: "My God! why hast Thou forsaken me?"; (Mark, xvi. 34). Much less did it enter the Prophet's mind to think that God was angry with him, as the taunts of his enemies suggested.

6178. See last note. The more general meaning is similar. To the man who prepares for spiritual work and spiritual growth the chief thing is typified by the growing hours of the morning. He should not be discouraged, nor overcome with a sense of loneliness in his early struggles or difficulties. The end will crown his work. God's care is always around him. If unsympathetic or hostile critics laugh at him or taunt him with being "mad" or "old-fashioned" or "ploughing his lonely furrow", his steady faith will uphold him. He will never believe that his earnest and sincere devotion to God, whatever be its results in this world, can be anything but pleasing to God.

6179. To the truly devout man, each succeeding moment is better than the one preceding it. In this sense the "hereafter" refers not only to the Future Life after death, but also to "the soul of goodness in things" in this very life. For even though some outward trappings of this shadow-world may be wanting, his soul is filled with more and more satisfaction as he goes on.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA XCIII (Dhuḥā).

This Sūra is close in date to Sūras lxxxix and xcii, and the imagery drawn from the contrast of Night and Day is common to all three. In this Sūra the vicissitudes of human life are referred to, and a message of hope and consolation is given to man's soul from God's past mercies, and he is bidden to pursue the path of goodness and proclaim the bounties of God. This is the general meaning. In particular, the Sūra seems to have been revealed in a dark period in the outer life of the holy Prophet, when a man of less resolute will might have been discouraged. But the Prophet is told to hold the present of less account than the glorious Hereafter which awaited him like the glorious morning after a night of stillness and gloom. The Hereafter was, not only in the Future Life, but in his later life on this earth, full of victory and satisfaction.

C. 273.—What an example we have in the Prophet's life!
 (xciii. 1-11.) When moments of inspiration were still,
 His soul yet felt the power of that stillness,
 Like one who prays by night and waits
 For the dawn, knowing how the light grows brighter
 Every hour till noon, and well content
 That night and morn and the hours succeeding
 Are but steps to the plenary splendour of noon.
 He was content and consoled in the thought that God
 Had bestowed His loving care on him
 In the past, and so the future was sure.
 He followed the Light Divine,—to help
 The helpless, to attend with patience to the call
 Of those in need, and to rehearse and proclaim
 And share the boundless Bounties of God!

20. But only the desire
To seek for the Countenance
Of their Lord Most High;<sup>6174</sup>

⑩ إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِ الْأَعْلَى

21. And soon will they
Attain (complete) satisfaction.

⑪ وَلَسَوْفَ يَرْضَوْنَ

6174. The definition of Righteousness, Charity, or Self-sacrifice, becomes thus highly spiritualised. The Atqā are so completely identified with God's Will that everything else is blotted out to them. What would seem to be sacrifice from other points of view becomes their own highest pleasure and satisfaction—the "heaven" of the enlightened man. Every virtuous man will have his own bliss, for there are degrees in virtue and bliss. This supreme bliss is the portion—not the prize—of supreme virtue.

14. Therefore do I warn you
Of a Fire blazing fiercely.;

⑫ فَأَذَرْتُكُمْ نَارًا تَلَظَّى

15. None shall reach it<sup>6169</sup>
But those most unfortunate ones

⑬ لَا يَصْلَاهَا إِلَّا الْأَشْقَى

16. Who give the lie to Truth
And turn their backs.

⑭ الَّذِي كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى

17. But those most devoted
To God shall be<sup>6170</sup>
Removed far from it,—

⑮ وَسَيُجَنَّبُهَا الْأَتْقَى

18. Those who spend their wealth<sup>6171</sup>
For increase in self-purification,<sup>6172</sup>

⑯ الَّذِي يُؤْتِي مَالَهُ يَتَزَكَّى

19. And have in their minds
No favour from anyone
For which a reward
Is expected in return,<sup>6173</sup>

⑰ وَمَا لِأَحَدٍ عِنْدَهُ مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ تُجْزَى

6169. The Fire of Punishment will not reach any except those who have deliberately sinned against their conscience and rejected God's Truth. The term used for them is "Ashqā" (superlative degree). Cf. lxxxvii. 11. The corresponding idea in Christian theology is expressed in the following sentence. "All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men" (Matt. xii. 31).

"None shall reach it but those.....": the sinners of a lesser degree than the Ashqā, though they may suffer a lighter punishment in Hell, will not suffer from the "Fire blazing fiercely".

6170. "Those most devoted to God": the Atqā, the God-fearing men who live lives of purity, and seek only for the "Face of their Lord Most High". See the verses following.

6171. The spending may be for charity, or for good works, such as advancing the cause of knowledge or science, or supporting ideals, etc. "Wealth" must be understood not only for money or material goods, but also for any advantage or opportunity which a man happens to enjoy, and which he can place at the service of others.

6172. The Arabic root word zakā implies both increase and purification, and both meanings may be understood to be implied here. Wealth (understood both literally and metaphorically) is not for selfish enjoyment or idle show. It is held on trust. It may be a trial in itself, from which a man who emerges successfully is a man all the purer in his life; and even if he was a good man before, his proper use of his wealth increases his position and dignity in the moral and spiritual world.

6173. The good man does not give in charity or do his good deeds with the motive that he is returning someone else's favour and compensating and rewarding someone for some service done to him or expecting some reward in return for his own good deed: the sole motive in his mind is that he desires the Countenance or Good Pleasure of God Most High. This "Countenance" or "Face" (Arabic, Wajh) implies good pleasure or approval; but it implies something more. It also means the Cause,—either the "final cause" or the "efficient cause" of Aristotelian philosophy. For the Atqā would refer everything, backwards in origin and forwards in destiny, to God—God is the source of their goodness, as well as its goal or purpose.

| 9. And gives the lieTo the Best,— <sup>6165</sup>                                           | ⑨ وَكَذَّبَ بِالْحَسَنَى                      |
| 10. We will indeedMake smooth for himThe Path to Misery ;                               | ⑩ فَسَنَيَسِّرُهُ لِلْعُسْرَى                 |
| 11. Nor will his wealthProfit him when heFalls headlong (into the Pit). <sup>6166</sup> | ⑪ وَمَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُ مَالُهُ إِذَا تَرَدَّى |
| 12. Verily We take <sup>6167</sup>Upon Ourselves to guide,                       | ⑫ إِنْ عَلَيْنَا لَلْهُدَى                    |
| 13. And verily unto Us(Belong) the EndAnd the Beginning. <sup>6168</sup>                | ⑬ وَإِنَّ لَنَا لَلْآخِرَةَ وَالْأُولَى       |

6164. So far from there being any hardship in a good life, the righteous will enjoy their life more and more, and God will make their path smoother and smoother until they reach eventual Bliss.

6165. The evil are distinguished here by three signs : (1) selfish greed and denial of other people's rights ; (2) arrogance and self-sufficiency (xcvi. 6-7) ; and (3) knowingly dishonouring Truth out of spite, or seeing ugliness where there is beauty. Such men's downward progress gathers momentum as they go, and their end can be nothing but Misery. Where will be their boasted wealth and possessions, or their self-confidence ?

6166. Wealth amassed in this world will be of no use at the Day of Final Judgment, nor will any material advantages of this life bring profit by themselves in the spiritual world. What will count will be a life of truth and righteousness, and of goodness to all the creatures of God.

6167. God in His infinite mercy has provided full guidance to His creatures. All through His creation there are sign-posts indicating the right way. To man He has given the five senses of perception, with mental and spiritual faculties for co-ordinating his physical perceptions and leading him higher and higher in thought and feeling. He has besides sent inspired men for further teaching and guidance.

6168. In the End man will return to God, and even from the beginning of man's life God's mercies and loving care surround him. In the probationary period of man's life, he has a measure of free-will, and he is expected to use it in such a way as to bring his whole being into harmony with the universal Will and Law. For he will have to answer for the right use of his talents and opportunities. If man's will has any meaning, he has the choice of accepting God's guidance or rejecting it and in the latter case he must take the consequences. Hence the warning of the future "Fire" in the next verse.

Sūra XCII.

*Lail, or The Night.In the name of God. Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Night as it
Conceals (the light) ; <sup>6159</sup>
2. By the Day as it
Appears in glory ;
3. By (the mystery of) <sup>6160</sup>
The creation of male
And female ;—<sup>6161</sup>
4. Verily, (the ends) ye
Strive for are diverse. <sup>6162</sup>
5. So he who gives
(In charity) and fears (God),
6. And (in all sincerity)
Testifies to the Best,—<sup>6163</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَى

② وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا تَجَلَّى

③ وَمَا خَلَقَ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى

④ إِنَّ سَعْيَكُمْ لَشَتَّى

⑤ فَأَمَّا مَنْ أَعْطَى وَاتَّقَى

⑥ وَصَدَّقَ بِالْحُسْنَى

6159. The evidence of three things is invoked, viz. Night, Day, and the mystery of Sex, and the conclusion is stated in verse 4, that men's aims are diverse. But similarly there are contrasts in nature. What contrast can be greater than between Night and Day? When the Night spreads her veil, the sun's light is hidden, but not lost. The sun is in his place all the time, and will come forth in all his glory again in his own good time Cf. xci 3 4, and n. 6149. Man pursuing diverse aims may find, owing to his own position, God's light obscured from him for a time, but he must strive hard to put himself in a position to reach it in all its glory.

6160. Mā maṣḍariya as in xci. 5-7; see there n. 6151.

6161. The mystery of the sexes runs through all life. There is attraction between opposites; each performs its own functions, having special characters, primary and secondary, within limited spheres, and yet both have common characteristics in many other spheres. Each is indispensable to the other. Love in its noblest sense is the type of heavenly love and the highest good; in its debasement it leads to the lowest sins and the worst crimes. Here, then, striving is necessary for the highest good.

6162. There are wide contrasts in the nature and aims of men. These may be broadly divided into two classes, good and evil. As night replaces day on account of certain relative positions, but does not annihilate it, so evil may for a time obscure good, but cannot blot it out. Again, night in certain circumstances (e.g. for rest) is a blessing; so certain things, which may seem evils to us, may be really blessings in disguise. Whatever our aims or positions, we must seek the highest truth from the light of God. Considering these contrasts, do not be surprised or depressed. Men's immediate aims may be different. The duty of all is to seek the one true Light.

6163. The good are distinguished here by three signs: (1) large-hearted sacrifices for God and men: 2) fear of God, which shows itself in righteous conduct, for Taqwā (see n. 26 to ii. 2) includes just action as well as a mental state; and (3) truth and sincerity in ever recognising and supporting all that is morally beautiful, for Husn is the good as well as the beautiful.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XCII (Lail).

This was one of the first Sūras to be revealed,—within the first ten; and may be placed in date close to S. lxxxix and S. xciii. Note that in all these three Sūras the mystery and the contrast as between Night and Day are appealed to for the consolation of man in his spiritual yearning. Here we are told to strive our utmost towards God, and He will give us every help and satisfaction.

C. 272.—When we consider God's wonderful Creation,
 (xcii. 1-21) We see many mysteries—many opposites—
 Many differences; the succession of nights
 And days, the creation of male and female.
 Can we wonder at the differences
 In the nature and objectives of man?
 He is endowed with Will, and he must strive
 For the Right through all his diverse paths.
 For the righteous the way is made the smoother
 For bliss; for the arrogant crooked will,
 The way is the smoother for Misery.
 But God's guidance is always nigh,
 If man will choose it. And what
 Is the goal for those who choose aright?—
 The sight of the Face of God Most High :
 For that indeed is happiness supreme.

A She-camel of God !
And (bar her not
From) having her drink !"

نَاقَةَ اللَّهِ وَسُقْيَاهَا

14. Then they rejected him
(As a false prophet),
And they hamstrung her.<sup>6157</sup>
So their Lord, on account
Of their crime, obliterated
Their traces and made them
Equal (in destruction,
High and low) !

١٤ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَعَقَرُوهَا فَدَمْدَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ
بِذُنُوبِهِمْ فَتَوَّاهَا

15. And for Him<sup>6158</sup>
Is no fear
Of its consequences.

١٥ وَلَا يَخَافُ عُقْبَاهَا

6158. This verse has been variously construed. I follow the general opinion in referring the pronoun "Him" to "their Lord" in the last verse and the pronoun "its" to the Punishment that was meted out to all, high and low, equally. In that case the meaning would be : God decreed the total destruction of the Thamūd ; in the case of creatures any such destruction might cause a loss to them, and they might fear the consequences of such loss or destruction, but God has created and can create at will, and there can be no question of any such apprehension in His case. An alternative view is that "him" refers to the prophet Ṣāliḥ mentioned in verse 13. Then the interpretation would be : Ṣāliḥ had no fear of the consequences for himself ; he had warned the wicked according to his commission ; he was saved by God's mercy as a just and righteous man, and he left them with regrets (vii. 79). Yet another alternative refers "him" to the wicked man (mentioned in verse 12) who hamstrung the she-camel : he feared not the consequences of his deed.

<sup>6152</sup> God makes the soul, and gives it order, proportion, and relative perfection, in order to adapt it for the particular circumstances in which it has to live its life. Cf. xxxii. 9. See also n. 120 to ii. 117. He breathes into it an understanding of what is sin, impiety, wrong-doing and what is piety and right conduct, in the special circumstances in which it may be placed. This is the most precious gift of all to man, the faculty of distinguishing between right and wrong. After the six external evidences mentioned in verses 1-6 above, this internal evidence of God's goodness is mentioned as the greatest of all. By these various tokens man should learn that his success, his prosperity, his salvation depends on himself,—on his keeping his soul pure as God made it; and his failure, his decline, his perdition depends on his soiling his soul by choosing evil.

<sup>6154</sup> The allusion to the story of the Thamūd will be understood by a reference to vii. 73-79; see specially n. 1044. Their prophet was Ṣāliḥ, but he had to deal with an arrogant people, who oppressed the poor and denied them their rights of watering and pasture for their cattle.

<sup>6155</sup> The prophet Ṣāliḥ made a certain she-camel a Sign or Symbol, a test case. "This she-camel of God is a Sign unto you: so leave her to graze in God's earth and let her come to no harm, or ye shall be seized with a grievous punishment" (vii. 73). But they plotted to kill her and sent the most wicked man among them to dare and do that deed of impiety. It was probably when she came to drink at the stream that she was hamstrung and killed. See xxvi. 155, and liv. 27.

Sura XCI.

*Shams, or The Sun.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. By the Sun <sup>6147</sup>
And his (glorious) splendour ;

① وَالشَّمْسِ وَضُحَاهَا

2. By the Moon <sup>6148</sup>
As she follows him ;

② وَالْقَمَرِ إِذَا تَلَاهَا

3. By the Day as it <sup>6149</sup>
Shows up (the Sun's) glory ;

③ وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا جَلَلَاهَا

4. By the Night as it
Conceals it ;

④ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَاهَا

5. By the Firmament <sup>6150</sup>
And its (wonderful) structure ; <sup>6151</sup>

6147. Six types are taken in three pairs, from God's mighty works in nature, as tokens or evidence of God's providence and the contrasts in His sublime creation, which yet conduce to cosmic harmony (verses 1-6). Then (verses 7-8) the soul of man, with internal order and proportion in its capacities and faculties, as made by God, is appealed to as having been endowed with the power of discriminating between right and wrong. Then the conclusion is stated in verses 9-10, that man's success or failure, prosperity or bankruptcy, would depend upon his keeping that soul pure or his corrupting it.

6148. The first pair is the glorious sun, the source of our light and physical life, and the moon which follows or acts as second to the sun for illuminating our world. The moon, when she is in the sky with the sun, is pale and inconspicuous ; in the sun's absence she shines with reflected light and may metaphorically be called the sun's viceroy. So with Revelation and the great Prophets who brought it ; and the minor Teachers who derive their light reflected, or perhaps doubly reflected, from the original source.

6149. The next contrasted pair consists, not of luminaries, but conditions, or periods of time, Day and Night. The Day reveals the sun's glory and the Night conceals it from our sight. So there may be contrasts in our subjective reception of divine light, but it is there, working all the time, and must reappear in its own good time.

6150. The next contrasted pair is the wonderful firmament on high, and the earth below our feet, stretching away to our wide horizons. The sky gives us rain, and the earth gives us food. Yet both work together : for the rain is moisture sucked up from the earth, and the food cannot grow without the heat and warmth of the sun. There are many other contrasts under this head ; yet they all point to unity.

6151. The mā maḥḍarīya in Arabic, in this and the subsequent clauses, is best translated in English by nouns. Thus what would literally be "and the (wonderful) making or construction of it" or "the fact of its (wonderful) construction" is, idiomatically, "its (wonderful) structure." "The (wide) spreading out" of the earth is rendered "its (wide) expanse," and so on.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA XCI (Shams);

This is one of the early Meccan revelations. Beginning with a fine nature passage, and leading up to man's need of realising his spiritual responsibility, it ends with a warning of the terrible consequences for those who fear not the Hereafter.

C. 271 — All nature around us and her pageants,
 (xc) 1 15) And the soul of man within, proclaim
 The goodness of God. God gave the soul
 The power of choice and the sense of Right
 And Wrong. 'Let man keep it pure and attain
 Salvation,—soil it with sin and reach
 Perdition. Inordinate wrong-doing ruined
 The Thamūd. They defied God's sacred Law
 And His prophet, and went to Destruction for their crime.

19. But those who reject
Our Signs, they are
The (unhappy) Companions
Of the Left Hand.<sup>6146</sup>

① وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِنَا هُمْ أَصْحَابُ
الْمَشْأَمَةِ

20. On them will be Fire
Vaulted over (all round).

② عَلَيْهِمْ نَارٌ مُّؤَصَّدَةٌ

6146 Cf. lvi. 41-56, also n. 5223. They will be the unfortunate ones enveloped in the Fire of lasting Penalty, heaped over them and all round them. "

13. (It is : ) freeing the bondman ; <sup>6140</sup>

⑬ فَلَنْ رَقَبَةٍ

14. Or the giving of food
In a day of privation <sup>6141</sup>

⑭ أَوْ إِطْعَامٌ فِي يَوْمٍ ذِي مَسْغَبَةٍ

15. To the orphan
With claims of relationship, <sup>6142</sup>

⑮ يَتِيمًا ذَا مَقْرَبَةٍ

16. Or to the indigent
(Down) in the dust. <sup>6143</sup>

⑯ أَوْ مِسْكِينًا ذَا مَتْرَبَةٍ

17. When will he be <sup>6144</sup>
Of those who believe,
And enjoin patience, (constancy,
And self-restraint), and enjoin
Deeds of kindness and compassion.

⑰ ثُمَّ كَانَ مِنَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا
وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالصَّبْرِ وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالْمَرْحَةِ

18. Such are the Companions
Of the Right Hand. <sup>6145</sup>

⑱ أُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ

6140. The difficult path of virtue is defined as the path of charity or unselfish love, and three specific instances are given for our understanding ; viz. (1) freeing the bondman, (2) feeding the orphan, and (3) feeding the indigent down in the dust. As regards the bondman, we are to understand not only a reference to legal slavery, which happily is extinct in all civilised lands, but many other kinds of slavery which flourish especially in advanced societies. There is political slavery, industrial slavery, and social slavery. There is the slavery of conventions, of ignorance, and of superstition. There is slavery to wealth or passions or power. The good man tries to liberate men and women from all kinds of slavery, often at great danger to himself. But he begins by first liberating himself

6141. Feed those who need it, both literally and figuratively ; but do so especially when there is privation or famine, literal or figurative, i.e., when or where the sources of sustenance, physical, moral, or spiritual, are cut off.

6142. All orphans should be fed and helped. But ordinary orphans will come under the indigent in verse 16 below. The orphans related to us have a special claim on us. They should be near and dear to us, and if charity begins at home, they have the first claim on us.

6143. Persons down in the dust can only be helped from motives of pure charity, because nothing can be expected of them—neither praise nor advertisement nor any other advantage to the helper. Such help is help indeed. But there may be various degrees, and the help will be suited to the needs

6144. Such practical charity and love will be the acid test of Faith and the teaching of all virtues. The virtues are summed up under the names of Patience (the Arabic word includes constancy and self-restraint) and compassionate kindness. Not only will they be the test by which the sincerity of their Faith will be judged : they will be the fruit which their Faith will constantly produce.

6145. Cf. lvi. 27-40, also n. 5223. They will be those who achieve salvation.

6. He may say (boastfully) :
Wealth have I squandered
In abundance ! " 6135
7. Thinketh he that none
Beholdeth him ? 6136
8. ~~Have~~ We not made
For him a pair of eyes?—
9. And a tongue, 6137
And a pair of lips?—
10. And shown him
The two highways ? 6138
11. But he hath made no haste
On the path that is steep. 6139
12. And what will explain
To thee the path that is steep?—

① يَقُولُ أَهْلَكْتُ مَا لَا بَدَأَ

② أَيْحَسِبُ أَنْ لَمْ يَرَهُ أَحَدٌ

③ أَلَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُ عَيْنَيْنِ

④ وَلِسَانًا وَشَفَتَيْنِ

⑤ وَهَدَيْنَاهُ النَّجْدَيْنِ

⑥ فَلَا أَفْخَمَ الْعَقَبَةَ

⑦ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْعَقَبَةُ

6135. The man who feels no responsibility and thinks that he can do what he likes in life forgets his responsibility to God. He boasts of his wealth and scatters it about, thinking that he can thus purchase the support of the world. For a time he may. But a rude awakening must come soon, for he bases his hopes on unsubstantial things. Or if he spends his substance on self-indulgence, he is weakening himself and putting himself into snares that must destroy him.

6136. God watches him, and sees all his acts and motives, and all the secret springs of his follies. But lest he should think the higher spiritual forces too remote for him, let him look within himself and use the faculties which God has given him. See the next verses following.

6137. The eyes give us the faculty of seeing, and may be taken in both the literal and the metaphorical sense. In the same way the tongue gives us the faculty of tasting in both senses. Along with the lips, it also enables us to speak, to ask for information and seek guidance, and to celebrate the praises of God.

6138. The two highways of life are : (1) the steep and difficult path of virtue, which is further described in the verses following, and (2) the easy path of vice and the rejection of God, referred to in verses 19-20 below. God has given us not only the faculties implied in the eyes, the tongue, and the lips, but also given us the judgment by which we can choose our way ; and He has sent us Teachers and Guides, with Revelation, to show us the right and difficult way.

6139. In spite of the faculties with which God has endowed man and the guidance which He has given him, man has been remiss. By no means has he been eager to follow the steep and difficult path which is for his own spiritual good. Cf. Matt. vii. 14 : " Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it".

Sūra XC.

Balad, or The City.

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. I do call to witness<sup>6130</sup>
This City;—

① لَا أَقْسِمُ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ

2. And thou art a freeman<sup>6131</sup>
Of this City;—

② وَأَنْتَ حَلٌّ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ

3. And (the mystic ties of) Parent and Child;—<sup>6132</sup>

③ وَالْأَبِ وَالْوَلَدِ وَمَا وَلاَ

4. Verily We have created
Man into toil and struggle.<sup>6133</sup>

④ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي كَبَدٍ

5. Thinketh he, that none
Hath power over him?<sup>6134</sup>

⑤ أَيْحَسِبُ أَنْ لَنْ يَفْعَلَ عَلَيْهِ أَحَدٌ

6132. A parent loves a child ordinarily: the father is proud and the mother, in spite of her birth-pains, experiences supreme joy when the child is born. But in abnormal circumstances there may be misunderstandings, even hatred between parent and child. So Mecca cast out her most glorious son, but it was only for a time. Mecca was sound at heart; only her power had been usurped by an ignorant autocracy which passed away, and Mecca was to receive back her glory at the hands of the son whom she had rejected but whom she welcomed back later. And Mecca retains for all time her sacred character as the centre of Islam.

6133. Cf. "Man is born unto trouble as the sparks fly upward" (Job, v. 7); "For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief" (Ecclesiastes, ii, 23). Man's life is full of sorrow and vexation; but our text has a different shade of meaning: man is born to strive and struggle; and if he suffers from hardships, he must exercise patience, for God will make his way smooth for him (lxv. 7; xciv. 5-6). On the other hand no man should boast of worldly goods or worldly prosperity (see verses 5, 7 below).

6134. See the end of last note. If a man has wealth, influence, or power, he should not behave as if it is to last for ever, or as if he has no responsibility for his acts and can do what he likes. All his gifts and advantages are given to him for trial. God, Who bestowed them on him, can take them away, and will do so if man fails in his trial.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA XC (Balad).

This is an early Meccan revelation, and refers to the mystic relation (by divine sanction) of the holy Prophet with the city of Mecca. He was born in that City, which had already been sacred for ages before. He was nurtured in that City and had (to use a modern phrase) the freedom of that City, belonging, as he did, to the noble family which held the government of its sacred precincts in its hands. But he was an orphan, and orphans in his day had a poor time. But his mind was turned to things divine. He protested against the prevailing idolatry and sin, and his parent City persecuted him and cast him out. He made another City, Yathrib, his own : it became the Madīnat-un-Nabī, the City of the Prophet, and it has ever since been called Madīna. We can speak of Madīna as the Prophet's child. But the Prophet ever cherished in his heart the love of his parent City of Mecca, and in the fulness of time was received in triumph there. He purified it from all idols and abominations, re-established the worship of the One True God, overthrew the purse-proud selfish autocracy, restored the sway of the righteous (people of the Right Hand), the liberty of the slave, and the rights of the poor and downtrodden. What a wonderful career centring round a City ? It becomes a symbol of the world's spiritual history.

C. 270.—The Prophet's own City persecuted him.

(xc. 1-20.) Honoured by his nativity, it sought to slay him :
 Yet he loved it and purged it of all that was wrong.
 What toil and struggle did it not involve ?
 Man is made for toil and struggle :
 Let him not boast of ease and wealth.
 He will be called to account for all his doings.
 Let him use his God-given faculties, and tread
 The steep path that leads to Heaven's Heights :
 The steps thereto are Love, unselfish Love,
 Given freely to God's creatures—all those
 In need—and Faith in God, and Patience
 Joined with self-restraint and kindness.
 Thus only can we reach the ranks
 Of the blest Companions of the Right Hand !

Such as none (else)
Can inflict,<sup>6126</sup>

عَذَابُهُ أَحَدٌ

26. And His bonds
Will be such as
None (other) can bind.

﴿٣٦﴾ وَلَا يُوقِفُ وَثَاقَهُ أَحَدٌ

27. (To the righteous soul
Will be said :)
" O (thou) soul,<sup>6127</sup>
In (complete) rest
And satisfaction !

﴿٣٧﴾ تَبَايُنَهَا النَّفْسُ الطَّيِّبَةُ

28. " Come back thou
To thy Lord, —<sup>6128</sup>
Well pleased (thyself),
And well-pleasing
Unto Him !

﴿٣٨﴾ أَرْجِعِي إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ رَاضِيَةً مَرْضِيَّةً

29. " Enter thou, then,
Among my Devotees !

﴿٣٩﴾ فَأَدْخُلِي فِي عِبَادِي

30. " Yea, enter thou
My Heaven !<sup>6129</sup>

﴿٤٠﴾ وَأَدْخُلِي جَنَّاتِي

6126 "Chastisement" in this verse and the "binding in bonds" in the next verse are two distinct phases of the Penalty. "Chastisement" involves pain and agony, such as cannot be imagined anywhere else, or from any other source, for it touches our inmost soul and cannot be compared with anything our bodies may suffer or others may inflict. "Bonds" imply confinement, want of freedom, the closing of a door which was once open but which we deliberately passed by. We see that others accepted in faith and entered that door. This shutting out of what might have been is worse than any other bonds or confinement we can imagine, and may be worse than actual chastisement.

6127. The righteous enter into their inheritance and receive their welcome with a title that suggests freedom from all pain, sorrow, doubt, struggle, disappointment, passion, and even further desire : at rest, in peace ; in a state of complete satisfaction.

In Muslim theology, this stage of the soul is the final stage of bliss. The unregenerate human soul, that seeks its satisfaction in the lower earthly desires, is the Immāru (xii. 53). The self-reproaching soul that feels conscious of sin and resists it is the Larra āma (lxxv. 2, and n. 5810).

6128. Note that Evil finds itself isolated, and cries out in lonely agony (verse 24), while Good receives a warm welcome from the Lord of Goodness Himself,—also that it is the soul which enters heaven, and not the gross body which perishes.

6129. The climax of the whole is : "Enter My Heaven !" Men may have imagined all kinds of heaven before, and many types and symbols are used in the sacred Word itself : see Appendix XII, after S. liv. But nothing can express the reality itself better than "My Heaven"—God's own Heaven ! May we reach it through God's grace !

18. Nor do ye encourage
One another<sup>6122</sup>
To feed the poor!—

19. And ye devour Inheritance—<sup>6123</sup>
All with greed,

20. And ye love wealth
With inordinate love!

21. Day! When the earth
Is pounded to powder,<sup>6124</sup>

22. And thy Lord cometh,
And His angels,
Rank upon rank,

23. And Hell, that Day,<sup>6125</sup>
Is brought (face to face),—
On that Day will man
Remember, but how will
That remembrance profit him?

24. He will say: "Ah!
Would that I had Sent forth (Good Deeds)
For (this) my (Future) Life!"

25. For, that Day,
His Chastisement will be

① وَلَا تَحْضُونْ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمِسْكِينِ

② وَأَكُلُونَ الْوَرَاثَ أَكْلًا لَمًّا

③ وَتُحِبُّونَ الْمَالَ حُبَّ جَمًّا

④ كَلَّا إِذَا دُكِّيَ الْأَرْضُ دُكًّا

⑤ وَجَاءَ رَبُّكَ وَالْمَلَكُ صَفًّا صَفًّا

⑥ وَيَا أَيُّهَا يَوْمَئِذٍ بِجَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَتَذَكَّرُ
الْإِنْسَانُ وَأَنَّى لَهُ الذِّكْرَى

⑦ يَقُولُ يَلَيْتَنِي قَدَّمْتُ لِحَيَاتِي

⑧ فَيَوْمَئِذٍ لَا يُعَذِّبُ

6122. Kindness and generosity set up standards which even worldly men feel bound to follow out of social considerations even if they are not moved by higher motives. But the wicked find plausible excuses for their own hard-heartedness, and by their evil example choke up the springs of charity and kindness in others.

6124. Our attention is now called to the Day of Reckoning. Whether we failed to respect the rights of the helpless here or actually suppressed those rights in our mad love for the good things of this life, we shall have to answer in the realm of Reality. This solid earth, which we imagine to be so real, will crumble to powder like dust before the real Presence, manifested in glory.

6125 The Retribution will at last come, and we shall realise it in our inmost being, all the illusions of this fleeting world having been swept away. Then we shall remember, and wish, too late, that we had repented. Why not repent now? Why not bring forth the fruits of repentance now, as a preparation for the Hereafter?

11. (All) these transgressed
Beyond bounds in the lands.

⑪ الَّذِينَ طَغَوْا فِي الْبِلَادِ

12. And heaped therein
Mischief (on mischief).

⑫ فَأَكْثَرُوا فِيهَا الْفَسَادَ

13. Therefore did thy Lord
Pour on them a scourge
Of diverse chastisements :

⑬ فَصَبَّ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّكَ سَوْطَ عَذَابٍ

14. For thy Lord is
(As a Guardian)
On a watch-tower.<sup>6118</sup>

⑭ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَبِالْمُرْصَادِ

15. Now, as for man,<sup>6119</sup>
When his Lord trieth him,
Giving him honour and gifts,
Then saith he, (puffed up),
" My Lord hath honoured me "

⑮ فَأَمَّا الْإِنْسَانُ إِذَا مَا ابْتَلَاهُ رَبُّهُ
فَأَكْرَمَهُ وَنَعَّمَهُ فَيَقُولُ رَبِّي أَكْرَمَنِ

16. But when he trieth him,
Restricting his subsistence<sup>6120</sup>
For him, then saith he
(In despair), " My Lord
Hath humiliated me ! "

⑯ وَأَمَّا إِذَا مَا ابْتَلَاهُ فَقَدَرَ عَلَيْهِ رِزْقَهُ
فَيَقُولُ رَبِّي أَهَانَنِ

17. Nay, nay! But ye<sup>6121</sup>
Honour not the orphans !

⑰ كَذَّابِلَا يُنْكِرُونَ الْإِنشَاءَ

6119. Contrast with God's justice and watchful care, man's selfishness and pettiness. God tries us both by prosperity and adversity : in the one we should show humility and kindness ; and in the other, patience and faith. On the contrary, we get puffed up in prosperity and depressed in adversity, putting false values on this world's goods.

6120. Subsistence, in both the literal and the figurative sense. God provides for all, but people complain if the provision is measured and restricted to their needs, circumstances, and antecedents, and does not come up to their desires or expectations, or is different from that given to people in quite different circumstances.

6121 Even at our own valuation, if we are favoured with superfluities, do we think of the fatherless children, or the struggling poor? On the contrary, too many men are but ready to embezzle the helpless orphan's inheritance, and to waste their own substance in worthless riot instead of supplying the people's real needs.

5. Is there (not) in these <sup>6112</sup>
An adjuration (or evidence)
For those who understand ?
6. Seest thou not
How thy Lord dealt
With the 'Ād (people),—<sup>6113</sup>
7. Of the (city of) Iram, <sup>6114</sup>
With lofty pillars,
8. The like of which
Were not produced
In (all) the land ? <sup>6115</sup>
9. And with the Thamūd <sup>6116</sup>
(People), who cut out
(Huge) rocks in the valley ?—
10. And with Pharaoh,
Lord of Stakes ? <sup>6117</sup>

⑤ هَلْ فِي ذَلِكَ قَسَمٌ لِّذِي حُجْرٍ

⑥ أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِعَادٍ

⑦ إِرَامَ ذَاتِ الْعِمَادِ

⑧ أَلَيْسَ لَهَا خَلْقٌ مِّثْلُهَا فِي الْبِلَادِ

⑨ وَثَمُودَ الَّذِينَ جَابُوا الصَّخْرَ بِالْوَادِ

⑩ وَفِرْعَوْنَ ذِي الْأَوْتَادِ

6112. All these mystic Symbols draw our attention, like solemn adjurations in speech, to the profoundest mystery of our inner life, viz.: how from utter depths of darkness—ignorance or even degradation—God's wonderful Light or Revelation can lead us by contrast into the most beautiful sunshine of a glorious spiritual Day. But the contrast suggests also the opposite process as a corollary,—how resistance to God's light would destroy us utterly, converting our greatness or glory to perdition as happened with the peoples of Arab antiquity, the 'Ād and the Thamūd, and the type of the powerful but arrogant and godless monarch, the Pharaoh of Egypt. Like a man with a bounded horizon, the average man does not understand these long-range mysteries of life, and we have need to pray that we may be of "those who understand"

6113. For the 'Ād see n. 1040 to vii. 65. They seem to have possessed an ancient civilisation, which succumbed when they persistently broke God's law.

6115. This tract of southern Arabia was once very prosperous (Arabia Felix) and contains ruins and inscriptions. It has always been an object of great interest to the Arabs. In the time of Mu'āwiyā some precious stones were found among the ruins in this locality. Quite recently, a bronze lion's head and a bronze piece of gutter with a Sabæan inscription, found in Najrān, have been described in the British Museum Quarterly, vol. XI, No. 4, Sept. 1937.

6116. For the Thamūd see n. 1043 to vi. 73. Their civilisation shows traces of Egyptian, Syrian, and (later) Greek and Roman influences. They built fine temples, tombs, and buildings cut out of the solid rock. The cult of the goddess Lāt flourished among them.

6117. For "Lord of Stakes", see xxxviii 12, n. 4160. For Pharaoh's arrogance and his fall, see xx. 43, 78-79. The three examples given, the 'Ād, the Thamūd, and Pharaoh, show that neither nations nor individuals, however mighty, prosperous, or firmly established they may be, can live if they transgress the Law of God. The Law of God, which is also the law of the higher nature which He has bestowed on us, made them in the first place great and glorious: when they fell from it and "heaped mischief on mischief", they were swept away.

Sūra LXXXIX.

*Fajr, or The Break of Day.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*1. By the Break of Day ;<sup>6108</sup>2. By the Nights twice five ;<sup>6109</sup>3. By the Even
And Odd (contrasted) ;<sup>6110</sup>4. And by the Night<sup>6111</sup>
When it passeth away ;—

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالْفَجْرِ

② وَلَيَالٍ عَشْرٍ

③ وَالشَّفْعِ وَالْوَتْرِ

④ وَالْبَلَدِ الظَّائِرِ

6108. Four striking contrasts are mentioned, to show God's Power and Justice, and appeal to "those who understand". The first is the glory and mystery of the Break of Day. It just succeeds the deepest dark of the Night, when the first rays of light break through. Few people except those actually in personal touch with nature can feel its compelling power. In respect both of beauty and terror, of hope and inspiration, of suddenness and continuing increase of light and joy, this "holy time" of night may well stand as the type of spiritual awakening from darkness to Faith, from Death to Resurrection.

6109. By the Ten Nights are usually understood the first ten nights of Zul-Hajj, the sacred season of Pilgrimage. From the most ancient times Mecca was the centre of Arab pilgrimage. The story of Abraham is intimately connected with it : see ii. 125-127 and notes, also n. 217 to ii. 197. In times of Paganism various superstitions were introduced, which Islam swept away. Islam also purified the rites and ceremonies, giving them new meaning. The ten days specially devoted to the Hajj introduce a striking contrast in the life of Mecca and of the pilgrims. Mecca, from being a quiet secluded city, is then thronged with thousands of pilgrims from all parts of the world. They discard their ordinary dress—representing every kind of costume—to the simple and ordinary lġrām (n. 217); they refrain from every kind of fighting and quarrel ; they abstain from every kind of luxury and self-indulgence ; they hold all life sacred, however humble, except in the way of symbolical and carefully-regulated sacrifice ; and they spend their nights in prayer and meditation.

6110. The contrast between even and odd forms the subject of learned argument among those who deal with the mystic properties of numbers. In any case, even and odd follow each other in regular succession ; each is independent, and yet neither is self-sufficient. In ultimate analysis every even number is a pair of odd ones. And all things go in pairs : see xxxvi. 36, and n. 3981. In the animal world pairs are but two individuals, and yet each is a complement of the other. Both abstract and concrete things are often understood in contrast with their opposites. Why should we not, in spiritual matters, understand this life better with reference to the Hereafter, and why should we disbelieve in the Hereafter simply because we cannot conceive of anything different from our present life ?

6111. That is, the last part of the night, just before full day-light. Note the gradations in spiritual awakening, and their symbols : first, the turn of the night, when just the first rays of day-light break through ; secondly, the social and institutional rites of religion, like those during the ten nights of Pilgrimage ; thirdly, when the usual contrast between the Here and Hereafter vanishes, and we can see heaven even here ; and lastly, when this world vanishes, the full light of Day arrives, and we see Reality face to face.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXIX (Fajr).

This is one of the earliest of the Sūras to be revealed,—probably within the first ten in chronological order.

Its mystic meaning is suggested by contrasts,—contrasts in nature and in man's long history. Thus does it enforce the lesson of Faith in the Hereafter to "those who understand". Man's history and legendary lore show that greatness does not last and the proudest are brought low. For enforcing moral and spiritual truths, the strictest history is no better than legend. Indeed all artistic history is legend, for it is written from a special point of view.

Man is easily cowed by contrasts in his own fortunes, and yet he does not learn from them the lesson of forbearance and kindness to others, and the final elevation of goodness in the Hereafter. When all the things on which his mind and heart are set on this earth shall be crushed to nothingness, he will see the real glory and power, love and beauty, of God, for these are the light of the Garden of Paradise.

C. 269.—Man is apt to forget the contrasts
 (lxxxix. 1-30.) In nature and life, and all that they mean
           In his spiritual growth. Perchance his mind
           Is so absorbed in what he sees,
           That he doubts the vast Realities
           He does not see. The Present makes Him blind to the Past and to the Future
           Fooled by glory, he fears not a fall ;
           And baulked in disaster, he gives up Hope
           And sometimes Faith. Let him study
           Nature and History, and restore his Faith :
           Realising the Sure Event, the Hereafter,
           Let him find his fullest fulfilment
           In the service and the good-pleasure of God !

18. And at the Sky,<sup>6104</sup>
How it is raised high?—

١٨ وَاللَّيْلِ السَّامَاءِ كَيْفَ رُفِعَتْ

19. And at the Mountains,<sup>6105</sup>
How they are fixed firm?—

١٩ وَاللَّيْلِ الْجِبَالِ كَيْفَ نُصِبَتْ

20. And at the Earth,<sup>6106</sup>
How it is spread out?

٢٠ وَاللَّيْلِ الْأَرْضِ كَيْفَ سُطِحَتْ

21. Therefore do thou give
Admonition, for thou art
One to admonish.

٢١ فَذَكِّرْ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُذَكِّرٌ

22. Thou art not one
To manage (men's) affairs.<sup>6107</sup>

٢٢ لَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ مُصِيطِيرٌ

23. But if any turn away
And reject God,—

٢٣ إِلَّا مَنْ تَوَلَّى وَكَفَرَ

24. God will punish him
With a mighty Punishment.

٢٤ فَعَذَابُ اللَّهِ الْعَذَابُ الْأَكْبَرُ

25. For to Us will be
Their Return;

٢٥ إِنَّ إِلَيْنَا إِيَابَهُمْ

26. Then it will be for Us
To call them to account.

٢٦ ثُمَّ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا حِسَابَهُمْ

6105 From every-day utility and affection in the Caneel, to the utility in grandeur in the heavens above us, we had two instances touching our individual as well as our social lives. In the third instance, in the Mountains, we come to the utility to human kind generally in the services the Mountains perform in storing water, in moderating climate, and in various other ways which it is the business of Physical Geography to investigate and describe.

6106. The fourth and last instance given is that of the Earth as a whole, the habitation of mankind in our present phase of life. The Earth is a globe, and yet how marvellously it seems to be spread out before us in plains, valleys, hills, deserts, seas, etc. Can man, seeing these things, fail to see a Plan and Purpose in his life, or fail to turn to the great Creator before Whom he will have to give an account after this life is done?

6107 The Prophet of God is sent to teach and direct people on the way. He is not sent to force their will, or to punish them, except in so far as he may receive authority to do so. Punishment belongs to God alone. And Punishment is certain in the Hereafter, when true values will be restored.

9. Pleased with their Striving,—<sup>6100</sup>

10. In a Garden on high,<sup>6101</sup>

11. Where they shall hear
No (word) of vanity :

12. Therein will be
A bubbling spring : <sup>6102</sup>

13. Therein will be Thrones
(Of dignity), raised on high,

14. Goblets placed (ready),

15. And Cushions set in rows,

16. And rich carpets
(All) spread out.

17. Do they not look
At the Camels,<sup>6103</sup>
How they are made ?—

⑨ لِسْعِيْهَا رَاضِيَةٌ

⑩ فِي جَنَّةٍ عَالِيَةٍ

⑪ لَا تَسْمَعُ فِيْهَا لَغِيَّةٌ

⑫ فِيْهَا عَيْنٌ جَارِيَةٌ

⑬ فِيْهَا سُرُرٌ مَّرْفُوعَةٌ

⑭ وَأَكْوَابٌ مَّوْضُوعَةٌ

⑮ وَنَمَارِقُ مَصْفُوفَةٌ

⑯ وَزَرَائِبُ مَبْثُوثَةٌ

⑰ أَفَلَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَى الْإِبِلِ كَيْفَ خُلِقَتْ

6100. Notice the parallelism in contrast, between the fate of the Wicked and that of the Righteous. In the one case there was humiliation in their faces ; in the other, there is joy ; where there was labour and weariness in warding off the Fire, there is instead a healthy Striving, which is itself pleasurable,—a Striving which is a pleasant consequence of the spiritual Endeavour in the earthly life, which may have brought trouble or persecution from without, but which brought inward peace and satisfaction

6101. The most important point is their inward state of joy and satisfaction, mentioned in verses 8-9. Now are mentioned metaphors of outer things of bliss, the chief of which is the Garden : see Appendix XII., following S. liv. The Garden is in contrast to the Fire. Its chief beauty will be that they will hear there nothing unbecoming, or foolish, or vain. It will be a Garden on high, in all senses,—fit for the best, highest, and noblest.

6102. Instead of the boiling hot spring (verse 5) there will be a bubbling spring of sparkling water. Instead of the grovelling and grumbling in the place of Wrath, there will be Thrones of Dignity, with all the accompaniments of a brilliant Assembly.

6103 In case men neglect the Hereafter as of no account, they are asked to contemplate four things, which they can see in every-day life, and which are full of meaning, high design, and the goodness of God to man. The first mentioned is the domesticated animal, which for Arab countries is par excellence the Camel. What a wonderful structure has this Ship of the Desert ? He can store water in his stomach for days. He can live on dry and thorny desert shrubs. His limbs are adapted to his life. He can carry men and goods. His flesh can be eaten. Camel's hair can be used in weaving. And withal, he is so gentle ! Who can sing his praises enough ?

Sura LXXXVIII.

Gāshiya, or The Overwhelming
Event.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~Has~~ the story
Reached thee, of
The Overwhelming (Event) ? <sup>6096</sup>

2. Some faces, that Day, <sup>6097</sup>
Will be humiliated,

3. Labouring (hard), weary, -- <sup>6098</sup>

4. The while they enter
The Blazing Fire, —

5. The while they are given,
To drink, of a boiling hot spring,

6. No food will there be
For them but a bitter Dhārī <sup>6099</sup>

7. Which will neither nourish
Nor satisfy hunger.

8. (Other) faces that Day
Will be joyful,

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① قُلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ الْغَاشِيَةِ

② وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَاشِعَةٌ

③ عَامِلَةٌ تَأْسِبَةٌ

④ تَصَلَّى نَارًا حَامِيَةً

⑤ تَسْقَى مِنْ عَيْنٍ ثَابِتَةٍ

⑥ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ طَعَامٌ إِلَّا مِنْ ضَرِيعٍ

⑦ لَا يُسْمِنُ وَلَا يُغْنِي مِنْ جُوعٍ

⑧ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ نَائِمَةٌ

6096. Gāshiya : the thing or event that overshadows or overwhelms, that covers over or makes people lose their senses. In xii. 107, it is described as the "covering veil of the Wrath of God" : where see n. 1790. The Day of Judgment is indicated, as the Event of overwhelming importance, in which all our petty differences of this imperfect world are covered over and overwhelmed in a new world of perfect justice and truth.

6097. Cf. lxxv. 22, 24.

6098. On the faces of the wicked will appear the hard labour and consequent fatigue of the task they will have in battling against the fierce Fire which their own Deeds will have kindled.

6099. The root-meaning implies again the idea of humiliation. Metaphorically, it is understood to be a plant, bitter and thorny, loathsome in smell and appearance, which will neither give fattening nourishment to the body nor in any way satisfy the burning pangs of hunger, — a fit plant for Hell, like Zaqqām (lvi. 52 ; or xvii. 60, n. 2250).

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXVIII (Qāshiyā).

This is a late Sūra of the early Meccan period, perhaps close in date to S. lii. Its subject-matter is the contrast between the destinies of the Good and the Evil in the Hereafter,—on the Day when the true balance will be restored : the Signs of God even in this life should remind us of the Day of Account, for God is good and just, and His creation is for a just Purpose.

C. 268.—Have you heard of that Tremendous Day
(lxxxviii. 1-26.) When the Good from the Evil will be separated ?

There will be Souls that Day will burn
And grovel in the blazing Fire of Wrath !
No Food can fill their Hunger : no Drink,
Alas, can slake their fierce Thirst !

There will be Souls that Day will shout
With Joy to the glory of their Lord !
Their past Endeavour will now be Achievement.
Raised high on Thrones of Dignity they
Will be Guests at the sumptuous Feast of Bliss.

Let man but look at his dominion o'er
The beasts of the field, or his glorious Canopy
Of stars, or the Eternal Hills that feed
His streams, or the wide expanse of Mother
Earth that nurtures him, and he
Will see the ordered Plan of God.
To Him must he return and give account !
Let him, then, learn his Lesson and live !

13. In which they will then
Neither die nor live.<sup>6090</sup>

⑬ كُذِّبُوا فِيهَا وَلَا يَمُوتُونَ

14. But those will prosper<sup>6091</sup>
Who purify themselves,<sup>6092</sup>

⑭ قَدْ أَفْلَحَ مَنْ زَكَّى

15. And glorify the name
Of their Guardian-Lord,
And (lift their hearts)
In Prayer.

⑮ وَذَكَرَ اسْمَ رَبِّهِ فَصَلَّى

16. May (behold), ye prefer
The life of this world ;

⑯ بَلْ تَرْضَوْنَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا

17. But the Hereafter
Is better and more enduring.

⑰ وَالْآخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى

18. And this is
In the Books
Of the earliest (Revelations),—<sup>6093</sup>

⑱ إِنَّ هَذَا لَفِي الصُّحُفِ الْأُولَى

19. The Books of
Abraham<sup>6094</sup> and Moses.<sup>6095</sup>

6091. Prosper : in the highest and spiritual sense ; attain to Bliss or Salvation ; as opposed to "enter the Fire".

6092. The first process in godliness is to cleanse ourselves in body, mind, and soul. Then we shall be in a fit state to see and proclaim the Glory of God. That leads us to our actual absorption in Praise and Prayer.

6093. The law of righteousness and godliness is not a new law, nor are the vanity and short duration of this world preached here for the first time. But spiritual truths have to be renewed and reiterated again and again.

6094. No Book of Abraham has come down to us. But the Old Testament recognises that Abraham was a prophet (Gen. xx. 7). There is a book in Greek, which has been translated by Mr. G. H. Box, called the Testament of Abraham (published by the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, London, 1927). It seems to be a Greek translation of a Hebrew original. The Greek Text was probably written in the second Christian century, in Egypt, but in its present form it probably goes back only to the 9th or 10th Century. It was popular among the Christians. Perhaps the Jewish Midrash also refers to a Testament of Abraham.

6095. The original Revelation of Moses, of which the present Pentateuch is a surviving recension. See Appendix II., p. 282.

The present Gospels do not come under the definition of the "earliest" Books. Nor could they be called "Books of Jesus" : they were written not by him, but about him, and long after his death.

(The Message), so thou
Shalt not forget,<sup>6085</sup>

فَلَا تُنْسَى

7. Except as God wills :<sup>6086</sup>
For He knoweth
What is manifest
And what is hidden.

٧ إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ إِنَّهُ يَعْلَمُ الْجَهْرَ وَمَا يَخْفَى

8. And We will make it
Easy for thee (to follow)
The simple (Path).<sup>6087</sup>

٨ وَنُيَسِّرُكَ لِلْيُسْرَى

9. Therefore give admonition
In case the admonition<sup>6088</sup>
Profits (the hearer).

٩ فَذَكِّرْ إِنْ نَفَعَتِ الذِّكْرَى

10. The admonition will be received
By those who fear (God) :

١٠ سَيَذَكِّرُ مَنْ يَخْشَى

11. But it will be avoided
By those most unfortunate ones,

١١ وَيَتَجَنَّبُهَا الْأَشْقَى

12. Who will enter
The Great Fire,<sup>6089</sup>

١٢ الَّذِي يَصْلَى النَّارَ الْكُبْرَى

6085. The particular occasion was an assurance to the Prophet, that though he was unlettered, the Message given to him would be preserved in his heart and in the hearts of men. The more general sense is that mankind, having once seized great spiritual truths, will hold fast to them, except as qualified in the following verse.

6086. There can be no question of this having any reference to the abrogation of any verses of the Qur-an. For this Sūra is one of the earliest revealed, being placed about eighth according to the most accepted chronological order. While the basic principles of God's Law remain the same, its form, expression, and application have varied from time to time, e.g., from Moses to Jesus, and from Jesus to Muhammad. It is one of the beneficent mercies of God that we should forget some things of the past, lest our minds become confused and our development is retarded. Besides, God knows what is manifest and what is hidden, and His Will and Plan work with supreme wisdom and goodness.

6087. The Path of Islam is simple and easy. It depends on no abstruse mysteries or self-mortifications, but on straight and manly conduct in accordance with the laws of man's nature as implanted in him by God (xxx. 30). On the other hand, spiritual perfection may be most difficult, for it involves complete surrender on our part to God in all our affairs, thoughts, and desires : but after that surrender God's Grace will make our path easy.

6088. This is not so strong as the Biblical phrase, "Cast not pearls before swine" (Matt. vii. 6). The cases where admonition does produce spiritual profit and where it does not, are mentioned below in verses 10 and 11-13 respectively. God's Message should be proclaimed to all ; but particular and personal admonitions are also due to those who attend and in whose hearts is the fear of God ; in the case of those who run away from it and dishonour it, such particular and personal admonition is useless. They are the unfortunate ones who prepare their own ruin.

6089 The Great Fire is the final Penalty or Disaster in the Hereafter, as contrasted with the minor Penalties or Disasters from which all evil suffers from within in this very life.

Sura LXXXVII.

A'la, or The Most High.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious.
Most Merciful.*

1. Elorify the name
Of thy Guardian-Lord <sup>6080</sup>
Most High,
2. Who hath created, <sup>6081</sup>
And further, given
Order and proportion ;
3. Who hath ordained laws. <sup>6082</sup>
And granted guidance ;
4. And Who bringeth out <sup>6083</sup>
The (green and luscious) pasture,
5. And then doth make it
(But) swarthy stubble.
6. By degrees shall We Teach thee to declare <sup>6084</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى

② الَّذِي خَلَقَ فَسَوَّى

③ وَالَّذِي قَدَّرَ فَهَدَى

④ وَالَّذِي أَخْرَجَ الْمَرْعَى

⑤ فَجَعَلَهُ غُثَاءً أَحْوَى

⑥ سَنُقَرِّئُكَ

6080. The word "Lord" by itself is an inadequate rendering here for Rabb. For it implies cherishing, guarding from harm, sustaining, granting all the means and opportunities of development. See. n. 20 to i. 2. For shortness, perhaps "Guardian-Lord" will be sufficient in the Text.

6081. The story of Creation is wonderful and continuous. There are several processes which we contemplate in glorifying God's name. First, He brings us into being. Secondly, He endows us with forms and faculties exactly suited to what is expected of us, and to the environments in which our life will be cast, giving to everything due order and proportion.

6082. Thirdly, He has ordained laws and decrees, by which we can develop ourselves and fit ourselves into His whole scheme of evolution for all His Creation. He has measured exactly the needs of all, and given us instincts and physical and psychical predispositions which fit into His decrees. Fourthly, He gives us guidance, so that we are not the sport of mechanical laws. Our reason and our will are exercised, that we may reach the higher destiny of man.

6083. Fifthly, after maturity comes decay. But even in that decay, as when green pasture turns to stubble, we subserve other ends. In so far as we are animals, we share these processes with other forms of material Creation, animal, vegetable, and even mineral, which all have their appointed laws of growth and decay. But man's higher destiny is referred to in subsequent verses.

6084. The soul, as it reaches the Light of God, makes gradual progress, like a man going from darkness into light. So the Qur'an was revealed by stages. So all revelation from God comes by stages.

As usual, there are two parallel meanings : (1) that connected with the occasion of direct inspiration to the holy Prophet ; and (2) the more general Message to mankind for all time. Everyone who understands the Message must declare it, in words, and still more, in his conduct.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXVII (A'ḷā).

This is one of the earliest of the Meccan Sūras, being usually placed eighth in chronological order, and immediately after S. lxxxi.

The argument is that God has made man capable of progress by ordered steps, and by His Revelation will lead him still higher to purification and perfection.

C. 267.—Wonderful are the ways of God
 (lxxxvii. 1-19.) In creation, and the love with which
 He guides His creatures' destinies,
 Gives them the means by which to strive
 For maturity by ordered steps, and reach
 The end most fitted for their natures.
 His Law is just and easy, and His Grace
 Is ever ready to help: let us look
 To the Eternal Goal, with hearts and souls
 Of Purity, and glorify His name:
 For in this changing, fleeting world,
 His Word is always true, and will remain,
 Through all the ages, ever the same.

15. ~~As~~ <sup>6077</sup> for them, they
Are but plotting a scheme,

⑩ إِنَّهُمْ يَكِيدُونَ كَيْدًا

16. And I am planning
A scheme. <sup>6078</sup>

⑪ وَأَكِيدُ كَيْدًا

17. Therefore grant a delay
To the unbelievers:
Give respite to them
Gently (for awhile). <sup>6079</sup>

⑫ فَمَهِّلَ الْكَافِرِينَ أَمْهِلْهُمْ رُوَيْدًا

6977. Though God in His Mercy has provided a piercing light to penetrate our spiritual darkness, and made our beings responsive to the growth of spiritual understanding, just as the hard earth is responsive to the sprouting of a seed or the gushing of a stream, yet there are evil, unregenerate men who plot and scheme against the beneficent purpose of God. But their plots will be of no avail, and God's Purpose will prevail. It happened so with the Quraish who wanted to thwart the growth of Islam. It will be so in all ages.

6078 Makara is applied both to plotting with an evil purpose and planning with a good purpose. Cf. iii. 54, and n. "And the unbelievers plotted and planned, and God too planned, and the best of planners is God."

6079. Gentle forbearance with Evil shows our trust in God and God's Plan : for it can never be frustrated. This does not mean that we should assist or compromise with evil, or fail to put it down where we have the power. It means patience and humility where we have no visible power to prevent Evil.

8. Surely (God) is able
To bring him back
(To life)! <sup>6072</sup>

① إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ رَجْعِهِ لَقَادِرٌ

9. The Day that
(All) things secret
Will be tested,

② يَوْمَ يُبْلَى السِّرَاطُ

10. (Man) will have
No power,
And no helper. <sup>6073</sup>

③ فَمَالَهُ مِنْ قُوَّةٍ وَلَا نَاصِرٍ

11. By the Firmament <sup>6074</sup>
Which returns (in its round),

④ وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الرَّجْعِ

12. And by the Earth
Which opens out <sup>6075</sup>
(For the gushing of springs
Or the sprouting of vegetation),—

⑤ وَالْأَرْضِ ذَاتِ الصَّدْعِ

13. Behold this is the Word
That distinguishes (Good
From Evil): <sup>6076</sup>

⑥ إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ فَصْلٍ

14. It is not a thing
For amusement.

⑦ وَمَا هُوَ بِلَهْزَلٍ

6073. In that new world, all our actions, motives, thoughts, and imaginings of this life, however secret, will be brought into the open, and tested by the standards of absolute Truth, and not by false standards of custom, prejudice, or partiality. In that severe test, any adventitious advantages of this life will have no strength or force whatever, and cannot help in any way.

6074. The Firmament above is always the same, and yet it performs its diurnal round, smoothly and punctually. So does God's Revelation show forth the Truth, which like a circle is ever true to its centre,—which is ever the same, though it revolves through the changing circumstances of our present life.

6075. The earth seems hard, but springs can gush forth and vegetables sprout through it and make it green and soft. So is Truth: hard perhaps to mortals, but through the fertilising agency of Revelation, it allows our inner personality to sprout and blossom forth.

6076. See the last two notes. Revelation—God's Truth—can pierce through the hardest crusts, and ever lead us back to the centre and goal of our spiritual life: for it separates Good from Evil definitely. It is not mere play or amusement, any more than the Sky or the Earth is. It helps us in the highest issues of our life.

Sura LXXXVI.

*Tariq, or The Night-Visitant.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Sky<sup>6067</sup>
And the Night-Visitant<sup>6068</sup>
(Therein);—
2. And what will explain to thee
What the Night-Visitant is?—
3. (It is) the Star
Of piercing brightness;
4. There is no soul but has
A protector over it.<sup>6069</sup>
5. Now let man but think
From what he is created!
6. He is created from
A drop emitted—<sup>6070</sup>
7. Proceeding from between
The backbone and the ribs:<sup>6071</sup>

- ① وَالسَّمَاءِ وَالطَّارِقِ
- ② وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الطَّارِقُ
- ③ النَّجْمُ الثَّاقِبُ
- ④ إِنَّ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ لَنَا عَلَيْهَا حَافِظٌ
- ⑤ فَلْيَنْظُرِ الْإِنْسَانُ مِمَّ خُلِقَ
- ⑥ خُلِقَ مِنْ مَّاءٍ دَاقٍ
- ⑦ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْنِ الصُّلْبِ وَالتَّرَائِبِ

6067. The appeal here is to a single mystic Symbol, viz : the Sky with its Night-Visitant ; and the substantive proposition is in verse 4 : "There is no soul but has a protector over it". In the last Sura we considered the persecution of God's votaries, and how God protects them. Here the same theme is presented in another aspect. In the darkest sky shines out most brilliantly the light of the most brilliant star. So in the night of spiritual darkness—whether through ignorance or distress—shines the glorious star of God's Revelation. By the same token the man of Faith and Truth has nothing to fear. God will protect His own.

6068. This is explained in verse 3 below. The "Star of piercing brightness" is understood by some to be the Morning Star, by others to be the planet Saturn, by others again to be Sirius, or the Pleiads or shooting stars. I think it is best to take the "Star" in the collective or generic sense, for stars shine on every night in the year, and their piercing brightness is most noticeable on the darkest night.

6069. If man has a true spiritual understanding, he has nothing to be afraid of. He is protected by God in many ways that he does not even know. He may be an insignificant creature as a mere animal, but his soul raises him to a dignity above other creation. And all sorts of divine forces guard and protect him.

6070. See n 5832 to lxxvi. 2. See also last note.

6071. A man's seed is the quintessence of his body. It is therefore said metaphorically to proceed from his loins, i.e., from his back between the hip-bones and his ribs. His back-bone is the source and symbol of his strength and personality. In the spinal cord and in the brain is the directive energy of the central nervous system, and this directs all action, organic and psychic. The spinal cord is continuous with the Medulla Oblongata in the brain.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXVI (Tāriq).

This Sūra also belongs to the early Meccan period, perhaps not far removed from the last Sūra.

Its subject-matter is the protection afforded to every soul in the darkest period of its spiritual history. The physical nature of man may be insignificant, but the soul given to him by God must win a glorious Future in the end.

C. 266.—Through the darkest night comes the penetrating light
 (lxxxvi. 1-17.) Of a glorious Star. Such is the power
 Of Revelation : it protects and guides the erring.
 For what is man? But a creature of flesh
 And bones ! But God by His Power doth raise
 Man's state to a Life Beyond !—when lo !
 All things hidden will be made plain.
 Man's help will then be but the Word
 Of God, which none can thwart. So wait
 With gentle patience—for His Decision.

21. Qay, this is
A Glorious Qur-ān,

﴿٢١﴾ بَلْ هُوَ قُرْآنٌ مَّجِيدٌ

22. (Inscribed) in
A Tablet Preserved! <sup>6066</sup>

﴿٢٢﴾ فِي لَوْحٍ مَّحْفُوظٍ

---

6066. God's Message is not ephemeral. It is eternal. The "Tablet" is not to be understood in a material sense, made of stone or metal. It is "preserved" or guarded from corruption: xv. 9, for God's Message must endure for ever. That Message is the "Mother of the book": see n. 347 to iii. 7.

2. Truly strong is the Grip
(And Power) of thy Lord.
3. It is He Who creates
From the very beginning,<sup>6061</sup>
And He can restore (life).
14. And He is the Oft-Forgiving,
Full of loving-kindness,
15. Lord of the Throne of Glory,
16. Doer (without let)<sup>6062</sup>
Of all that He intends.
17. Was the story
Reached thee,
Of the Forces—<sup>6063</sup>
18. Of Pharaoh
And the Thamūd?
19. And yet the Unbelievers
(Persist) in rejecting
(The Truth)!<sup>6064</sup>
20. But God doth
Encompass them
From behind!<sup>6065</sup>

١٢ إِنَّ بَطْشَ رَبِّكَ لَشَدِيدٌ

١٣ إِنَّهُ هُوَ يُبْدِئُ وَيُعِيدُ

١٤ وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الْودُودُ

١٥ ذُو الْعَرْشِ الْمَجِيدُ

١٦ فَعَالٌ لِّمَا يُرِيدُ

١٧ هَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ الْجُنُودِ

١٨ فِرْعَوْنَ وَثَمُودَ

١٩ بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي تَكْذِيبٍ

٢٠ وَاللَّهُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِمْ مُحِيطٌ

6061. For the various words for "Creation" and the ideas implied in them, see n. 120 to ii. 117.

6062. God's Will is itself the Word and the Deed. There is no interval between them. He does not change His mind. No circumstance whatever can come between His Will and the execution thereof. Such are His Power and His Glory. Compare it with that of men, described in the next two verses.

6063. In contrast to the real, all-embracing, and eternal power of God, what are the forces of man at their best? Two examples are mentioned. (1) Pharaoh was a proud monarch of a powerful kingdom, with resources and organisation, material, moral, and intellectual, as good as any in the world. When he pitted himself against God's Prophet, he and his forces were destroyed. See lxxix. 15-26. (2) The Thamūd were great builders, and had a high standard of material civilization. But they defied the law of God and perished. See vii. 73-79, and n. 1043.

6064. In spite of the great examples of the past, by which human might and skill were shown to have availed nothing when the law of God was broken, the unbelievers persist (in all ages) in defying that law. But God will know how to deal with them.

6065. God encompasses every thing. But the wicked will find themselves defeated not only in conditions that they foresee, but from all sorts of unexpected directions, perhaps from behind them, i.e., from the very people or circumstances which in their blindness they despised or thought of as helping them.

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

6056. The persecutors sat calmly to gloat over the agonies of their victims in the well-fed fire.

6057. It is suggested that the persecutors will richly deserve to be punished in the Fire of Hell. That Punishment will be far more real and lasting than the undeserved cruelty which they inflicted on men for their Faith in the One True God.

6058. If we distinguish the Penalty of Hell from that of the Burning Fire, we should take the latter metaphorically, as the Fire burning in their heart for their sins and ill deeds even in this life, the fire of hatred and greed, the fire of shame and sorrow, even in this life.

6059. The Garden as the type of Felicity is explained in Appendix xii., following S. liv.

6060. Cf. v. 122, n. 833.

Sūra LXXXV.

*Burāj, or The Zodiacal Signs.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. By the Sky, (displaying) <sup>6051</sup>
The Zodiacal Signs; <sup>6052</sup>2. By the promised Day
(Of Judgment); <sup>6053</sup>3. By one that witnesses,
And the subject of the witness; — <sup>6054</sup>4. Woe to the makers
Of the pit (of fire), <sup>6055</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الْبُرُوجِ

② وَالْيَوْمِ الْمَوْعُودِ

③ وَشَهِيدٍ وَمَشْهُودٍ

④ قُلْ أَصْحَابُ الْأُخْدُودِ

6052. See n. 1950 in xv. 16. The Stars of the Zodiac as well as of other Constellations are like the eyes of the Night. It may be that crimes are committed in the darkness of the night (literally or metaphorically), But countless eyes (metaphorically) are watching all the time, and every author of evil will be brought to book.

6053. The Day of Judgment, when the Sinner will have to give an account of every deed, open or hidden, is not merely a matter of speculation. It is definitely promised in revelation, and will inevitably come to pass. Woe then to the Sinners for their crimes.

6054. The literal meaning is clear, but its metaphorical application has been explained in a variety of ways by different Commentators. The words are fairly comprehensive, and should, I think, be understood in connection with Judgment. There the Witnesses may be : (1) the Prophets (iii. 81) ; God Himself (iii. 81, and x. 61) ; the Recording Angels (l. 21) ; the Sinner's own misused limbs (xxiv. 24) ; his record of deeds (xvii. 14) ; or the Sinner himself (xvii. 14). The subject of the witness may be the deed or crime, or the Sinner against whom the testimony cries out. The appeal to these things means that the Sinner cannot possibly escape the consequences of his crime. He should repent, seek God's Mercy, and amend his life.

6055. Who were the makers of the pit of fire in which they burnt people for their Faith? The words are perfectly general, and we need not search for particular names, except by way of illustration. In ancient history, and in Mediaeval Europe, many lives were sacrificed at the stake because the victims did not conform to the established religion. In Arab tradition there is the story of Abraham : Nimrūd tries to burn him to death, but on account of Abraham's Faith, the fire became "a means of safety for Abraham" : xxi. 69, and n. 2725. Another case cited is that of Zu-Nuwās, the last Himyarite King of Yemen, by religion a Jew, who persecuted the Christians of Najrān and is said to have burnt them at the stake. He seems to have lived in the latter half of the sixth Christian century, in the generation immediately preceding the Prophet's birth in 570 A.D. While the words are perfectly general, a reference is suggested to the persecution to which the early Muslims were subjected by the Pagan Quraish. Among other cruelties, they were stripped, and their skins were exposed to the burning rays of the Arabian summer sun.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXV (Burūj).

This is one of the earlier Meccan Sūras, chronologically cognate with S. xci. The subject-matter is the persecution of God's votaries. God watches over His own, and will deal with the enemies of Truth as He dealt with them in the past.

C. 265.—Woe to those who persecute Truth !
(lxxxv. 1-22.) They are being watched by mighty Eyes ;
They will have to answer when the Judgment comes ;
And a clear Record will witness against them.
Are they cruel to men because of their Faith ?
The Fire they use will be turned against them.
For God is strong, and will subdue
The mightiest foes. Be warned, and learn
From His gracious Message, preserved through all Time !

20. ~~What~~ hat then is the matter
With them, that they Believe not ?—<sup>6048</sup>

٢٠ فَمَا لَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ

21. And when the Qur-an
Is read to them, they
Fall not prostrate,<sup>6049</sup>

٢١ وَإِذَا قُرِئَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقُرْآنُ لَا يَسْجُدُونَ

22. But on the contrary
The Unbelievers reject (it).

٢٢ بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَكْذِبُونَ

23. But God has full Knowledge
Of what they secrete
(In their breasts)

٢٣ وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يُوعُونَ

24. So announce to them
A Penalty Grievous,

٢٤ فَبَشِّرْهُم بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

25. Except to those who believe
And work righteous deeds :
For them is a Reward
That will never fail.<sup>6050</sup>

٢٥ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ

6048. Considering man's high destiny, and the fact that this life is but a stage or a sojourn for him, it might be expected that he would eagerly embrace every opportunity of welcoming God's Revelation and ascending by Faith to heights of spiritual wisdom. There is something wrong with his will if he does not do so. Notice the transition from the second person in verse 19, where there is a direct appeal to God's votaries, to the third person in verses 20-21, where men who are rebels against God's Kingdom are spoken of as if they were aliens.

6049. Prostrate : out of respect and humble gratitude to God.

6050 Cf. xli. 8.

14. Truly, did he think
That he would not
Have to return (to Us)!<sup>6042</sup>

⑮ إِنَّهُ ظَنَّ أَنْ لَنْ يَحُورَ

15. Nay, nay I for his Lord
Was (ever) watchful of him!

⑯ بَلَى لَنْ رَبُّكَ كَانَ بِهِ بِصِيرًا

16. So I do call<sup>6043</sup>
To witness the ruddy glow
Of Sunset ;<sup>6044</sup>

⑰ فَلَا أَقِيمُ بِالْشَّفَقِ

17. The Night and its Homing;<sup>6045</sup>

⑱ وَالْأَيْلَ وَمَا وَسَقَ

18. And the Moon
In her Fulness ;<sup>6046</sup>

⑲ وَالْقَمَرَ إِذَا اتَّسَقَ

19. Ye shall surely travel
From stage to stage.<sup>6047</sup>

⑳ لَتَرْكَبُنَّ طَبَقًا عَنْ طَبَقٍ

6042. Most of the Evil in this world is due to the false idea that man is irresponsible, or to a mad and thoughtless indulgence of Self. Man is not irresponsible. He is responsible for every deed, word, and thought of his, to his Maker, to Whom he has to return, to give an account of himself. To remember this and act accordingly is to achieve salvation ; to forget or flout that responsibility is to get into the Fire of self-deception and misery.

6043. The same form of adjuration as in lxix, 37. The substantive statement is in verse 19 below: "Ye shall surely travel from stage to stage". Nothing in this life is fixed, or will last. Three things are mentioned which on the one hand have remained from age to age for as far back as the memory of man can go, and yet each of them is but a short phase, gone as it were in the twinkling of an eye. See the following notes. So our life here is but a fleeting show. Its completion is to be looked for elsewhere.

6044. (1) The sun seems such a great reality that people worshipped him as a divinity. The beautiful glow it leaves when it sets is but momentary : it changes every moment and vanishes with the twilight.

6045. (2) The Night is a phenomenon you see during almost half every twenty-four hours in ordinary latitudes. At nightfall, all the wandering flocks and herds come home. The men scattered abroad for their livelihood return home to rest and sleep. The Night collects them in their homes, and yet this phase of Homing lasts but a little while. Presently all is silent and still. So will it be with our souls when this life is ended with our death. We shall be collected in a newer and larger Homing.

6046. (3) The astronomical Full Moon does not last a moment. The moment the moon is full, she begins to decline, and the moment she is in her "inter-lunar swoon", she begins her career anew as a growing New Moon. So is man's life here below. It is not fixed or permanent, either in its physical phases, or even more strikingly, in its finer phases, intellectual, emotional, or spiritual.

6047. Man travels and ascends stage by stage. In lxvii, 3 the same word in the form ṭibāqan was used of the heavens, as if they were in layers one above another. Man's spiritual life may similarly be compared to an ascent from one heaven to another.

6. ⑥ thou man !
Verily thou art ever
Toiling on towards thy Lord—<sup>6036</sup>
Painfully toiling,—but thou
Shalt meet Him.

⑥ يَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ إِنَّكَ كَادِحٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ
كَدًا مُّكَلِّبًا

7. Then he who is given
His Record in his Right hand,<sup>6037</sup>

⑦ فَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ

8. Soon will his account
Be taken by an easy reckoning,

⑧ فَسَوْفَ يُحَاسَبُ حِسَابًا يَّسِيرًا

9. And he will turn
To his people,<sup>6038</sup> rejoicing !

⑨ وَيَقْلِبُ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِ مَسْرُورًا

10. But he who is given
His Record behind his back,—<sup>6039</sup>

⑩ وَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ وَرَاءَ ظَهْرِهِ

11. Soon will he cry
For Perdition,<sup>6040</sup>

12. And he will enter
A Blazing Fire.

⑫ وَيَصِلُ سَعِيرًا

13. Truly, did he go about
Among his people, rejoicing !<sup>6041</sup>

⑬ إِنَّكَ كَانَتْ فِي أَهْلِهِ مَسْرُورًا

6036. This life is ever full of toil and misery, if looked at as empty of the Eternal Hope which Revelation gives us. Hence the literature of pessimism in poetry and philosophy, which thinking minds have poured forth in all ages, when that Hope was obscured to them. "Our sweetest songs are those that tell of saddest thought." "To each his suffering; all are men condemned alike to groan!" It is the noblest men that have to "scorn delights and live laborious days" in this life. The good suffer on account of their very goodness: the evil on account of their Evil. But the balance will be set right in the end. Those that wept shall be made to rejoice, and those that went about thoughtlessly rejoicing, shall be made to weep for their folly. They will all go to their account with God and meet Him before His Throne of Judgment

6037. Right Hand: Cf. xvii. 71. These will be the fortunate ones, who spent their lives in goodness and truth: for them the account will be made easy; for even after the balancing, they will receive more than their merits deserve, on account of the infinite grace and mercy of God.

6038. His people: should be understood in a large sense, including all righteous persons of his category, (including of course all those nearest and dearest to him), who are spiritually of his family, whether before him or after him in time.

6040. The wicked will cry for death and annihilation: but they will neither live nor die: xx. 74.

6041. The tables are now turned. His self-complacence and self-conceit in his lower life will now give place to weeping and gnashing of teeth! Cf. n. 6036 above,

Sura LXXXIV.

Inshiqāq, or The Rending Asunder.*In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful.*1. When the Sky is Rent asunder,<sup>6031</sup>

① إِذَا السَّمَاءُ أَنْشَقَّتْ

2. And hearkens to<sup>6032</sup>
(The Command of) its Lord,—
And it must needs
(Do so);—

② وَأَذِنَتْ لِرَبِّهَا وَحُقَّتْ

3. And when the Earth
Is flattened out,<sup>6033</sup>

③ وَإِذَا الْأَرْضُ مُدَّتْ

4. And casts forth
What is within it.
And becomes (clean) empty,

④ وَأَلْقَتْ مَا فِيهَا وَتَخَلَّتْ

5. And hearkens to<sup>6034</sup>
(The Command of) its Lord,—
And it must needs
(Do so);—(then will come Home the full Reality).<sup>6035</sup>

⑤ وَأَذِنَتْ لِرَبِّهَا وَحُقَّتْ

6031. The passing away of this world of sense to make way for a new World of Reality is here indicated by two Facts, which are themselves Symbols for a complete revolution in our whole knowledge and experience. At the beginning of S. lxxxii. and S. lxxxi, other Symbols were used, to lead up to the arguments there advanced. Here the two Symbols are: (1) the Sky being rent asunder and giving up its secrets, and (2) the Earth being flattened out from the globe it is, and giving up its secrets. See the following notes.

6032. We may think that the heavens we see above us,—high and sacred, seemingly vast and limitless, eternal and timeless—are not created matter. But they are. And they remain just so long as God wills it so, and not a moment longer. As soon as His Command issues for their dissolution, they will obey and vanish, and all their mystery will be emptied out. And it must necessarily be so; their very nature as created beings requires that they must hearken to the voice of their Creator, even to the extent of their own extinction.

6033. The Earth is a globe, enclosing within it many secrets and mysteries—gold and diamonds in its mines, heat and magnetic forces in its entrails, and the bodies of countless generations of men buried within its soil. At its dissolution all these contents will be disgorged: it will lose its shape as a globe, and cease to exist.

A more mystic meaning lies behind the ordinary meaning of the vanishing of the heavens and the earth as we see them. Our ideas of them—their subjective contents with reference to ourselves will also lose all shape and form and vanish before the eternal verities.

6034. See n. 6032. We think the earth so solid and real. All our perishable things dissolve into the earth. But the earth itself will dissolve into a truer Reality.

6035. The substantive clause, to follow the two conditional clauses preceding, may be filled up from the suggestion contained in lxxxii, 5.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXXXIV (Inshiqāq).

Chronologically this Sūra is closely connected with the last one. In subject-matter it resembles more S. lxxxii. and lxxxi., with which it may be compared.

By a number of mystic metaphors it is shown that the present phenomenal order will not last, and God's full Judgment will certainly be established: man should therefore strive for that World of Eternity and True Values.

C. 264.—All mysteries, fair or shrouded in gloom,
 (lxxxiv. 1-25.) Will vanish when the full Reality
 Stands revealed. If this Life is but Painful
 Toil, there's the Hope of the Meeting with the Lord !
 That will be Bliss indeed for the Righteous,
 But woe to the arrogant dealers in sin !
 Like the sunset Glow or the shades of Night,
 Or the Moon's ever-changing light, man's life
 Never rests here below, but travels ever onwards
 Stage by stage. Grasp then God's Message
 And reach the Heights, to reap a Reward
 That will never fail through all eternity !

31. And when they returned
To their own people,
They would return jesting ;

٣١ وَإِذَا انْقَلَبُوا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ انْقَلَبُوا فَكِهِينَ

32. And whenever they saw them,
They would say, " Behold !
These are the people
Truly astray ! " <sup>6027</sup>

٣٢ وَإِذَا رَأَوْهُمْ قَالُوا إِنَّ هَٰؤُلَاءِ لَضَالُّونَ

33. But they had not been Sent as Keepers over them ! <sup>6028</sup>

٣٣ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حَافِظِينَ

34. But on this Day
The Believers will laugh
At the Unbelievers : <sup>6029</sup>

٣٤ فَأَلْيَوْمَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنَ الْكُفَّارِ يَضْحَكُونَ

35. On Thrones (of Dignity)
They will command (a sight)
(Of all things). <sup>6030</sup>

٣٥ عَلَى الْأَرْشَادِ يَنْظُرُونَ

36. Will not the Unbelievers
Have been paid back
For what they did ?

٣٦ هَلْ تُؤْتَىٰ بِالْكَفَّارِ مَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ

6027. The wicked laugh at the righteous in this world in many ways : (1) They inwardly laugh at their Faith, because they feel themselves so superior. (2) In public places, when the righteous pass, they wink at each other and insult them. (3) In their own houses they run them down. (4) Whenever and wherever they see them, they reproach them with being fools who have lost their way, when the boot is really on the other leg. In the Hereafter all these tricks and falsehoods will be shown for what they are, and the tables will be reversed.

6028. But the wicked critics of the Righteous have no call in any case to sit in judgment over them. Who set them as Keepers or guardians over the Righteous? Let them look to their own condition and future first.

6029. The tables will then be reversed, and he laughs best who laughs last.

6030. A repetition of verse 23 above, but with a different shade of meaning. The Righteous on their Thrones of Dignity will be able to see all the true values restored in their own favour ; but they will also see something else : they will also see the arrogant braggarts brought low, who brought about their own downfall by their own actions.

23. On Thrones (of Dignity) <sup>6022</sup>
Will they command a sight
(Of all things) :

٢٣ عَلَى الْأَرْكَانِ يَنْظُرُونَ

24. Thou wilt recognise
In their Faces <sup>6023</sup>
The beaming brightness of Bliss.

٢٤ تَعْرِفُ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ نَضْرَةَ النَّعِيمِ

25. Their thirst will be slaked
With Pure Wine sealed : <sup>6024</sup>

٢٥ يُسْقَوْنَ مِنْ رَحِيْقٍ مَخْمُومٍ

26. The seal thereof will be
Musk: and for this
Let those aspire,
Who have aspirations : <sup>6025</sup>

٢٦ خِتَمُهُمُ مِنْ مَسْكٍ وَفِي ذَلِكَ فَلْيَتَنَافَسِ
الْمُتَنَفِّسُونَ

27. With it will be (given)
A mixture of Tasnim : <sup>6026</sup>

٢٧ وَمِنْ رَاجِعِهِ مِنْ تَسْنِيمٍ

28. A spring, from (the waters)
Whereof drink
Those Nearest to God.

٢٨ عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُونَ

29. Those in sin used
To laugh at those
Who believed,

٢٩ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ أَجْرَمُوا كَانُوا مِنَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
يَضْحَكُونَ

30. And whenever they passed
By them, used to wink
At each other (in mockery) ;

٣٠ فَإِذَا مَرُّوا بِهِمْ يَتَغَامَزُونَ

6022. Cf. xxxvi. 56.

6023. Cf. lxxv. 22, and lxxvi. 11.

6024. The Wine will be of the utmost purity and flavour, so precious that it will be protected with a seal, and the seal itself will be of the costly material of musk, which is most highly esteemed in the East for its perfume. Perhaps a better interpretation of the "seal" is to take it as implying the final effect of the drink: just as a seal closes a document, so the seal of the drink will be the final effect of the delicious perfume and flavour of musk, heightening the enjoyment and helping in the digestion. The physical effect is metaphorical of the spiritual purity of Bliss.

6025. If you understand true and lasting values, this is the kind of pure Bliss to aspire for, and not the fleeting enjoyments of this world, which always leave a sting behind.

6026. Tasnim literally indicates height, fulness, opulence. Here it is the name of a heavenly Fountain, whose drink is superior to that of the Purest Wine. It is the nectar drunk by Those Nearest to God (n. 5227 to lvi. 11), the highest in spiritual dignity; but a flavour of it will be given to all, according to their spiritual capacity. See Appendix XII, paragraph 13, towards the end; also n. 5835 to lxxvi. 5 (Kāfir fountain), and n. 5849 to lxxvi. 17-18 (Salsabil).

15. Verily, from (the Light Of) their Lord, that Day, Will they be veiled.<sup>6018</sup>

١٥ كَلَّا إِنَّهُمْ عَنْ رَبِّهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَّمَحْجُوبُونَ

16. Further, they will enter The Fire of Hell.

١٦ ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ لَصَالُوا الْجَحِيمِ

17. Further, it will be said To them: " This is The (reality) which ye Rejected as false !

١٧ ثُمَّ يُقَالُ هَذَا الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِدُءٍ تَكْذِبُونَ

18. Nay, verily the Record Of the Righteous is (Preserved) in 'Illiyān.<sup>6019</sup>

١٨ كَلَّا إِنَّ كِتَابَ الْأَبْرَارِ لَفِي عِلِّيِّينَ

19. And what will explain To thee what 'Illiyān is ?

١٩ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا عِلِّيُّونَ

20. (There is) a Register (Fully) inscribed,<sup>6020</sup>

٢٠ كِتَابٌ مَرْفُوعٌ

21. To which bear witness Those Nearest (to God).<sup>6021</sup>

٢١ يَشْهَدُهُ الْمُقَرَّبُونَ

22. Truly the Righteous Will be in Bliss :

٢٢ إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ

6018. The stain of evil deeds on their hearts sullies the mirror of their hearts, so that it does not receive the light. At Judgment the true Light, the Glory of the Lord, the joy of the Righteous, will be hidden by veils from the eyes of the Sinful. Instead, the Fire of Punishment will be to them the only reality which they will perceive.

6020. This repeats verse 9 above, where see n. 6014. But the Register is of the opposite kind, that of the Righteous. It contains every detail of the Righteous. But this is all to be understood in a metaphorical sense.

6021. See lvi. 11, n. 5227 ; also n. 5223. Those Nearest to God will be witnesses to this Righteous Record ; or as it may also be rendered, they will be present at the Record, and watch this Record. Metaphorically, the highest spiritual dignitaries are always helping and assisting at the piling up of the good record of every soul that strives for good, however humble in rank that soul may be.

(Preserved) in Sijjīn.<sup>6013</sup>

8. And what will explain
To thee what Sijjīn is?

9. (There is) a Register
(Fully) inscribed.<sup>6014</sup>

10. Woe, that Day, to those
That deny—

11. Those that deny
The Day of Judgment.<sup>6015</sup>

12. And none can deny it
But the Transgressor
Beyond bounds,
The Sinner!

13. When Our Signs are rehearsed
To him, he says,
"Tales of the Ancients!"<sup>6016</sup>

14. By no means!
But on their hearts
Is the stain of the (ill)
Which they do!<sup>6017</sup>

لَفِي سِجِّينٍ

⑧ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا سِجِّينٌ

⑨ كِتَابٌ مَرْقُومٌ

⑩ وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَافِرِينَ

⑪ الَّذِينَ يُكَذِّبُونَ بَيِّنَاتِ الدِّينِ

⑫ وَمَا يُكْذِّبُ بِهِ إِلَّا كُلُّ مُعْتَدٍ أَثِيمٍ

⑬ إِنَّا تُنَالُ عَلَيْهِ، أَيُّنَا قَالَ أَسْطِيزُ
الْأَوَّلِينَ

⑭ كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

6014. If we take Sijjīn to be the Register itself, and not the place where it is kept, the Register itself is a sort of Prison for those who do wrong. It is inscribed fully: i.e. no one is omitted who ought to be there, and for every entry there is a complete record, so that there is no escape for the sinner. Of course we must not understand a material Register, made up of paper or parchment and written with pen and ink. The whole description is figurative of the inescapable record which sin creates: every detail, of motive, manner, occasion, etc., contributes to the deterioration of the sinner.

6015. The fact of Personal Responsibility for each soul is so undoubted that people who deny it are to be pitied, and will indeed be in a most pitiable condition on the Day of Reckoning, and none but the most abandoned sinner can deny it, and he only denies it by playing with Falsehoods.

6016. Cf. vi. 25; lviii. 15; etc. They scorn Truth and pretend that it is Falsehood.

6017. The heart of man, as created by God, is pure and unsullied. Every time that a man does a ill deed, it marks a stain or rust on his heart. But on repentance and forgiveness, such stain is washed off. If there is no repentance and forgiveness, the stains deepen and spread more and more, until the heart is sealed (ii. 7), and eventually the man dies a spiritual death. It is such stains that stand in the way of his perceiving Truths which are obvious to others. That is why he mocks at Truth and hugs Falsehood to his bosom.

Sura LXXXIII.

*Tatfif, or Dealing in Fraud.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~Woe~~oe to those
That deal in fraud,—<sup>6011</sup>
2. Those who, when they
Have to receive by measure
From men, exact full measure,
3. But when they have
To give by measure
Or weight to men,
Give less than due.
4. Do they not think
That they will be called
To account?—<sup>6012</sup>
5. On a Mighty Day,
6. A Day when (all) mankind
Will stand before
The Lord of the Worlds?
7. ~~May~~ay! Surely the Record
Of the Wicked is

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُتَفَفِّينَ

② الَّذِينَ إِذَا اكْتَالُوا عَلَى النَّاسِ
يَسْتَوْفُونَ

③ وَإِذَا كَالُوهُمْ أَوْ وَزَنُوهُمْ يُخْسِرُونَ

④ أَلَا يَظُنُّ أُولَٰئِكَ أَنَّهُمْ مَبْعُوثُونَ

⑤ لِيَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ

⑥ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ النَّاسُ لِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

⑦ كَلَّا إِنَّ كِتَابَ الْفِتَارِ

6011. "Fraud" must here be taken in a widely general sense. It covers giving short measure or short weight, but it covers much more than that. The next two verses make it clear that it is the spirit of injustice that is condemned,—giving too little and asking too much. This may be shown in commercial dealings, where a man exacts a higher standard in his own favour than he is willing to concede as against him. In domestic or social matters an individual or group may ask for honour, or respect, or services which he or they are not willing to give on their side in similar circumstances. It is worse than one-sided selfishness: for it is double injustice. But it is worst of all in religion or spiritual life: with what face can a man ask for Mercy or Love from God when he is unwilling to give it to his fellow-men? In one aspect this is a statement of the Golden Rule, 'Do as you would be done by'. But it is more completely expressed. You must give in full what is due from you whether you expect or wish to receive full consideration from the other side or not.

6012. Legal and social sanctions against Fraud depend for their efficacy on whether there is a chance of being found out. Moral and religious sanctions are of a different kind. 'Do you wish to degrade your own nature?' 'Do you not consider that there is a Day of Account before a Judge Who knows all, and Who safeguards all interests, for He is the Lord and Cherisher of the Worlds? Whether other people know anything about your wrong or not, you are guilty before God'

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXIII (Taḥfīf).

This Sūra is close in time to the last one and the next one.

It condemns all fraud—in daily dealings, as well as and especially in matters of Religion and the higher spiritual Life.

C. 263.—Shun Fraud in all things : in little (lxxxiii. 1-36.) Things of daily life, but specially
In those subtler forms of higher life,
Which will be exposed to view at Judgment,
However hidden they may be
In this life. Give every one his due
For the Record of ill deeds and good
Is fully kept, and the stains of sin
Corrupt the soul. Reject not the Real
Now, nor mock : for the time will come
When the True will come to its own, and then
The mighty arrogant will be abased !

12. They know (and understand)
All that ye do.

﴿١٢﴾ يَعْلَمُونَ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ

13. As for the Righteous,
They will be in Bliss;

﴿١٣﴾ إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ

14 And the Wicked—
They will be in the Fire,

﴿١٤﴾ وَإِنَّ الْفَجَّارَ لَفِي حَبِيمٍ

15. Which they will enter<sup>6008</sup>
On the Day of Judgment,

﴿١٥﴾ يَصْلَوْنَهَا يَوْمَ الدِّينِ

16. And they will not be
Able to keep away therefrom.

﴿١٦﴾ وَمَاهُمْ عَنْهَا بِغَائِبِينَ

17. And what will explain
To thee what the Day
Of Judgment is?

﴿١٧﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمُ الدِّينِ

18. Again, what will explain
To thee what the Day
Of Judgment is?<sup>6009</sup>

﴿١٨﴾ ثُمَّ مَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمُ الدِّينِ

19. (It will be) the Day
When no soul shall have
Power (to do) aught
For another:<sup>6010</sup>
For the Command, that Day,
..Will be (wholly) with God.

﴿١٩﴾ يَوْمَ لَا تَمْلِكُ نَفْسٌ لِنَفْسٍ شَيْئًا
وَالْأَمْرُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلَّهِ

6008. I understand this relative clause to govern "the Fire", i.e., the Punishment. It will be postponed as long as possible, to give the Sinner every chance of repentance and amendment. But once the period of probation is past, it will be irrevocable. There will be no going back from it. By inference, the Righteous may individually reach some stage of Bliss at once, possibly in this life, possibly after death, though the Final Judgment will be the general and complete cessation of this fleeting world and the creation of the world of Eternity.

6009. From our ordinary experiences of this life, we can form no conception of the Final Judgment. We can speak of Rewards and Punishments, the Fruits of Actions, the Resurrection and the Tribunal, the Restoration of True Values, the Elimination of all Wrong, and a hundred other phrases. They might serve to introduce our minds vaguely to a new World, of which they cannot possibly form any adequate conception under present conditions. The question is repeated in verses 17-18 to emphasize this difficulty, and a simple answer is suggested, as explained in the next note.

6010. The answer is suggested by a negative proposition: 'No soul shall have power to do aught for another'. This is full of meaning. Personal responsibility will be fully enforced. In this world we all depend on one another proximately, though our ultimate dependence is always on God, now and for ever. But here a father helps a son forward; husband and wife influence each other's destinies; human laws and institutions may hold large masses of mankind under their grip; falsehood and evil may seem to flourish for a time, because a certain amount of limited free-will has been granted to man. This period will be all over then. The good and the pure will have been separated from the evil and the rebellious; the latter will have been rendered inert, and the former will have been so perfected that their wills will be in complete consonance with God's Universal Will. The Command, thenceforward, will be wholly with God.

5. (Then) shall each soul know
What it hath sent forward <sup>6002</sup>
And (what it hath) kept back.

6. Q man! what has Seduced thee from
Thy Lord Most Beneficent?—

7. Him Who created thee,
Fashioned thee in due proportion, <sup>6003</sup>
And gave thee a just bias; <sup>6004</sup>

8. In whatever Form <sup>6005</sup> He wills,
Does He put thee together.

9. Say! but ye do
Reject Right and Judgment! <sup>6006</sup>

10. But verily over you
(Are appointed angels) <sup>6007</sup>
To protect you,—

11. Kind and honourable,—
Writing down (your deeds):

٥ عَلَّمَ نَفْسٌ مَّا قَدَّمَتْ وَأَخَّرَتْ

٦ يَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ مَا غَرَّبَكَ بِرَبِّكَ الْكَرِيمِ

٧ الَّذِي خَلَقَكَ فَسَوَّاكَ فَعَدَلَكَ

٨ فِي أَيِّ صُورَةٍ مَّا شَاءَ رَكَّبَكَ

٩ كَلَّا بَلْ تُكَذِّبُونَ بِالذِّينِ

١٠ وَإِنَّ عَلَيْكُمْ لَحَافِظِينَ

١١ كِرَامًا كَاتِبِينَ

6002. Sent Forward and kept back : may mean : the deeds of commission and omission in this life. Or the Arabic words may also be translated : sent forward and left behind ; i.e., the spiritual possibilities which it sent forward for its other life, and the physical things on which it prided itself in this life, but which it had to leave behind in this life. Or else, the things it put first and the things it put last in importance may change places in the new world of Reality. "The first shall be last and the last shall be first".

6003. Cf. xv. 29. God not only created man, but fashioned him in due proportions, giving him extraordinary capacities, and the means wherewith he can fulfil his high destiny.

6004. See n. 834 to vi. 1. Having given a limited free-will, He gave us a just bias through our reason and our spiritual faculties. If we err, it is our will that is at fault.

6005. By "Form" (Ṣūrat) here I understand the general shape of things in which any given personality is placed, including his physical and social environments, his gifts of mind and spirit, and all that goes to make up his outer and inner life. The Grace of God is shown in all these things, for His Will is formed from perfect knowledge, wisdom, and goodness.

6007. Besides the faculties given to man to guide him, and the Form and Personality through which he can rise by stages to the Presence of God, there are spiritual agencies around him to help and protect him, and to note down his Record, so that perfect justice may be done to him at the end. For these Guardian Angels, see L. 17-18, and n. 4954. The Record is of course figurative, for man's own good, so that perfect justice may be done. God's own knowledge is perfect, and independent of Records.

Sura LXXXII.

Infitar, or The Cleaving Asunder.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. ~~When~~<sup>3997</sup> the Sky
Is cleft asunder ;<sup>3998</sup>2. When the Stars
Are scattered ;<sup>3999</sup>3. When the Oceans
Are suffered to burst forth ;<sup>6000</sup>4. And when the Graves
Are turned upside down ;—<sup>6001</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْفَطَرَتْ

② وَمَاذَا الْكَوَاكِبُ انشَثَرَتْ

③ وَإِذَا الْبِحَارُ فُجِّرَتْ

④ وَمَاذَا الْقُبُورُ بُعْثِرَتْ

3997. Cf. the passage lxxxi. 1-14 and notes. For the three parallel interpretations, see the Introduction to this Sura. There are four conditional clauses here, and the substantive clause is in verse 5. In S. lxxxi, there were 12 conditional clauses, and the conclusion was similar, but not expressed in precisely the same terms. See lxxxii. 5, n. 6002 below. The literal interpretation would be that the physical world as we see it now will be destroyed before the final Day of Judgment, establishing the true spiritual Reality. If the four clauses are interpreted metaphorically (see notes 3998-6001), we have a reference to the Lesser Judgment, the individual dawn of the true Reality at Death. If we interpret by the 80ft method, the spiritual crisis may occur to any soul at any moment when these metaphorical events occur.

3999. Cf. lxxxi. 2, where the word for "stars" (Nujūm) is different, and the verb is different. Najm has reference to brightness, and the verb "losing their lustre" was appropriate there, to show the opposite. Kawkab (used here) has more the meaning of a star as fixed in a constellation ; and the opposite of a fixed and definite order is "scattered", the verb used here. In fact, throughout this passage, the dominating idea is the disturbance of order and symmetry. The metaphor behind the scattering of the constellations is that in the present order of things we see many things associated together, e.g. rank with honour, wealth with comfort, etc. In the new Spiritual World this will be seen to have been merely fortuitous.

6000. Cf. lxxxi. 6, "when the oceans boil over with a swell". Here, "are suffered to burst forth" expresses the end of the present order of things. This may be in two ways, interpreted literally : (1) The barrier which keeps within their respective bounds the various streams of salt and fresh water (lv. 20, n. 5165) will be removed ; (2) the Ocean will overwhelm the whole Globe. Figuratively, the different streams of knowledge, great and small, will be levelled down : for only one Knowledge, the Light Divine, will hold the field.

6001. This item is not mentioned in lxxxi. 1-14. Here it is introduced to show that the whole order of things will be so reversed that even Death will not be Death. We think there is tranquillity in Death ; but there will be no tranquillity. Literally, and figuratively, Death will be the beginning of a new Life. What we think to be Death will bring forth Life.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXXII (Infi'ār).

In subject-matter this Sūra is cognate to the last, though the best authorities consider it a good deal later in chronology in the early Meccan Period.

Its argument is subject to the threefold interpretation mentioned in n. 5982 to lxxxi. 13, viz., as referring (1) to the final Day of Judgment, (2) to the Lesser Judgment, on an individual's death, and (3) to the awakening of the Inner Light in the soul at any time, that being considered as Death to the Falsities of this life and a Re-birth to the true spiritual Reality.

C. 262.—How fixed is the order holding together
 (lxxxii. 1-19) This material universe above and below us ?
 Yet it must give way before the vast Unfathomed Truth in which man will see
 His past and his future in true perspective.
 To God he owes his life and all
 Its blessings : will he not see
 That the Future depends on Right and Justice ?
 Righteousness must come to its own,
 And so must Discord and Rebellion.
 The Day must come when Discord
 Must finally cease, and the Peace of God
 And His Command are all-in-all.

23. And without doubt he saw him
In the clear horizon.<sup>5991</sup>

24. Neither doth he withhold
Grudgingly a knowledge
Of the Unseen.<sup>5992</sup>

25. Nor is it the word
Of an evil spirit accursed.<sup>5993</sup>

26. When whither go ye?<sup>5994</sup>

27. Verily this is no less
Than a Message
To (all) the Worlds:<sup>5995</sup>

28. (With profit) to whoever
Among you wills
To go straight:<sup>5996</sup>

29. But ye shall not will Except as God wills,—
The Cherisher of the Worlds.

٢٣ وَلَقَدْ رَآهُ بِالْأَفْقِ الْمُبِينِ

٢٤ وَمَا هُوَ عَلَى الْغَيْبِ بِضَنِينٍ

٢٥ وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلِ شَيْطَانٍ رَجِيمٍ

٢٦ فَأَيْنَ تَذْهَبُونَ

٢٧ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ

٢٨ لِمَنِ شَاءَ مِنْكُمْ أَنْ يَسْقِيَ

٢٩ وَمَا تَشَاءُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ رَبُّ
الْعَالَمِينَ

5991. Read along with this the whole passage in liii. 1-18 and notes there; specially n. 5092, where the two occasions are mentioned when there was a vision of inspiration: "For truly did he see, of the Signs of his Lord, the Greatest" (liii 18).

5992. Such would be the words of a soothsayer, guarded, ambiguous, and misleading. Here everything was clear, sane, true, and under divine inspiration.

5993. Such as evil suggestions of envy, spite, greed, selfishness, or other vices. On the contrary the teaching of the Qur-ān is beneficent, pointing to the Right Way, the Way of God. Rajm: literally, driven away with stones, rejected with complete ignominy. Cf. xv. 17. The rite of throwing stones in the valley of Minā at the close of the Meccan Pilgrimage [see n. 217 (b) to ii, 197] suggests symbolically that the Pilgrim emphatically, definitely, and finally rejects all Evil.

5994. It has been shown that this is no word of a mortal, but that it is full of divine wisdom; that its teaching is not that of a madman, but sane to the core and in accordance with human needs; that it freely and clearly directs you to the right Path and forbids you the Path of evil. Why then hesitate? Accept the divine Grace; repent of your sins; and come to the higher Life.

5995. It is not meant for one class or race; it is universal, and is addressed to all the Worlds. For the meaning of "Worlds", see n. 20 to i. 2.

5996 Cf. lxxiv. 55-56. God is the Cherisher of the Worlds, Lord of Grace and Mercy, and His guidance is open to all who have the will to profit by it. But that will must be exercised in conformity with God's Will (verse 29). Such conformity is Islam. Verse 28 points to human free-will and responsibility; verse 29 to its limitations. Both extremes, viz.: cast-iron Determinism and an idea of Chaotic Free-will, are condemned.

16. Go straight, or hide ;

⑪ الْجَوَارِ الْكُنَّسِ

17. And the Night
As it dissipates ;<sup>5986</sup>

⑫ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا عَسْعَسَ

18. And the Dawn
As it breathes away
The darkness ;—<sup>5987</sup>

⑬ وَالضُّحَىٰ إِذَا تَنَفَّسَ

19. Verily this is the word
Of a most honourable Messenger,<sup>5988</sup>

⑭ إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ رَسُولٍ كَرِيمٍ

20. Endued with Power,
With rank before
The Lord of the Throne,<sup>5989</sup>

⑮ ذِي قُوَّةٍ عِنْدَ ذِي الْعَرْشِ مَكِينٍ

21. ~~With~~ authority there,
(And) faithful to his trust.

⑯ مُطَاعٍ ثَمَّ أَمِينٍ

22. ~~And~~ (O people !)
Your Companion is not
One possessed .<sup>5990</sup>

⑰ وَمَا صَاحِبُكُمْ بِجُنُونٍ

5986. How the Night gradually declines after its height at midnight ! It seems gradually to steal away, and as Dawn approaches, to merge into Day. So a soul in spiritual darkness gradually awakes to its spiritual Dawn through Revelation.

5987. The slow "breathing out" of the darkness by the Dawn, shows us, by beautiful imagery, that these mysterious operations, of which people in their ignorance are frightened if they have to do with darkness, are really beneficent operations of God. They have nothing to do with evil spirits, or witches, or magic. For three questions were actually raised about the holy Prophet's Ministry by the ignorant. (1) Did his wonderful works come from himself and not from God ? (2) Was he possessed of an evil spirit ? In other words, was he mad ? For that was the theory of madness then current. (3) Was he a soothsayer, or necromancer, or magician ? For he had virtues, powers, and eloquence, so extraordinary that they could not understand him.

5989. Not only was the bringer of the Revelation, Gabriel, an honourable Messenger, incapable of deceit, but he had, in the angelic kingdom, rank and authority before God's Throne, and he could convey an authoritative divine Message. He was, like the holy Apostle, faithful to his trust ; and therefore there could be no question of the Message being delivered in any other way than exactly according to the divine Will and Purpose. These epithets could apply to the Prophet himself, but in view of verse 23 below, it is best to understand them of Gabriel.

5990. After describing the credentials of the Archangel Gabriel, the Text now appeals to the people to consider their own " Companion ", the Prophet, who had been born among them and had lived with them, and was known to be an honourable, truthful, and trustworthy man. If Gabriel was the one who brought the Message to him, then there was no question of demoniacal possession. And the Prophet had seen him in his inspired vision " in the clear horizon "

11. When the World on High<sup>5979</sup>
Is unveiled ;

⑪ وَإِذَا السَّمَاءُ كُشِطَتْ

12. When the Blazing Fire<sup>5980</sup>
Is kindled to fierce heat ;

⑫ وَإِذَا النُّجُومُ سُعِّرَتْ

13. And when the Garden<sup>5981</sup>
Is brought near ; —<sup>5982</sup>

⑬ وَإِذَا الْجَنَّةُ أُزْلِفَتْ

14. (Then) shall each soul know
What it has put forward.<sup>5983</sup>

⑭ عَلَيْكَ نَفْسٌ مَّا أَحْضَرْتَ

15. So verily I call<sup>5984</sup>
To witness the Planets —<sup>5985</sup>
That recede,

⑮ فَلَا أُقْسِمُ بِالْخُنُوسِ

5979. The World on High : literally, the Sky, or Heaven as standing for both the Blazing Fire and the Garden, the Home of the Hereafter. (10) The soul's spiritual Sky—the things it held high or sacred—will be stripped of the thin blue that gave rest—and partly illusion—to its spiritual eye in this world of illusions. Just as when an animal is skinned, its real flesh and blood and inner organs become visible, without any outer coating to hold them together, so the inmost state of the spiritual world will then become plain.

5980. (11) Then will burn the inner Hell,—an intense realisation of spiritual anguish, worse than the fiercest fire.

5981. (12) The last of the Metaphors, the Garden of Bliss—the Light of God's Face (xcii, 20)—will come in sight,—not yet attained, but visible, or "brought near". For the scales have fallen from the eyes, and the soul knows itself.

5982. In Eastern literature, especially in religious allegory, there are usually more meanings than one, enfolded in each other. They must be understood, if the reader wishes to get the full sense of the passage. This applies specially to the Qur-ān. The parallel meaning, favoured by the Sūfis, take the first six physical facts (verses 1-6) also as allegorical. (1) As the sun is the centre of the solar system, so our lower self is the centre of our ordinary motives and desires ; the light of that self must be darkened to make room for the Reality. (2) The minor light of the stars is our ordinary human wisdom : this must be dropped before we get spiritual vision. (3) Our worldly ambitions are the mountains, which must vanish similarly. (4) Greed and love of gain are the camels big with young ; that must be left untended. (5) Our passions are the wild animals that must be tamed. (6) The oceans of divine grace must boil over and cover our whole being. All this must occur at any point of time, even to an individual in this life when God's Glory shines on him.

Another interpretation would be to apply it to the Lesser Judgment, when the soul passes out of this physical body, see lxxv. 22, n. 5822 ; lxxviii. 40, n. 5914 ; and lxxix 14, n. 5926.

5983. This is the conclusion. It is only on such conditions that the soul reaches its full realisation. Put forward : cf. "the Deeds which his hands have sent forth." in lxxviii. 40.

5984. Cf. lvi 75, n. 5258, for the witness that the heavenly bodies bear symbolically to the power, beauty, and goodness of God, in sending His Revelation. See n. 5798 to lxxiv. 32, for the significance of an adjuration in the Qur-ān.

5985. The appeal here is made to three things, the Planets, the Night, and the Dawn. (1) The Planets have a retrograde and a forward motion, and, during occultation, hide or disappear behind the sun or moon, or are otherwise invisible or appear stationary. They behave differently from the millions of stars around them. Yet they are not mere erratic bodies, but obey definite laws, and evidence the power and wisdom of God,

|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| (In human habitations) ; <sup>5974</sup>                                                |                                   |
| 6. When the oceans <sup>5975</sup>Boil over with a swell ;                          | ① وَإِذَا الْبَحَارُ سُجِّرَتْ    |
| 7. When the soulsAre sorted out, <sup>5976</sup>(Being joined, like with like); | ② وَإِذَا النُّفُوسُ زُوِّجَتْ    |
| 8. When the female (infant),Buried alive, is questioned—                            | ③ وَإِذَا الْمَوْءُودَةُ سُئِلَتْ |
| 9. For what crimeShe was killed ; <sup>5977</sup>                                   | ④ يَا أَيُّ ذُنُوبِكُمْ           |
| 10. When the ScrollsAre laid open ; <sup>5978</sup>                                 | ⑤ وَإِذَا الصُّحُفُ نُشِرَتْ      |

5974. (5) In the present world, the wild animals fear each other, and they all fear man and normally keep away from human habitations. But when this order passes away, the lion will lie down with the lamb, and there will be scarcely any differentiation between human habitations and the wilds of the forests.

5975. See lii. 6 and n. 5041. (6) The oceans, which now keep their bounds, will surge and boil over, and overwhelm all landmarks. At present the waters seem to have reached their fixed and normal levels, but the whole equilibrium will then be disturbed. Such will be the complete wreck of this transitory world, at the approach of the dawn of the permanent Reality. But these are physical symbols, relating to the outer nature surrounding the physical nature of man. The remaining six, viz. : the 7th to the 12th, describe the ordering of the new spiritual World, from which all present seeming incongruities will be removed.

5978. (9) The Scrolls recording the deeds of men, good or bad, will then be laid open before all. Cf. i. 17-18, n. 4954 ; also lxxii. 11-12. In the present phenomenal world, things may be concealed ; but in the spiritual world of absolute Reality, every secret is opened out, good or bad. The whole tale of acts, omissions, motives, imponderable spiritual hurt, neglect, or help will be laid bare.

Sura LXXXI.

Takwir, or the Folding Up.

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. ~~When~~ When the sun <sup>5969</sup>
(With its spacious light)
Is folded up ; <sup>5970</sup>

① إِذَا الشَّمْسُ كُوِّرَتْ

2. When the stars <sup>5971</sup>
Fall, losing their lustre ;

② وَإِذَا النُّجُومُ انْكَدَرَتْ

3. When the mountains vanish
(Like a mirage) ; <sup>5972</sup>

③ وَإِذَا الْجِبَالُ سُيِّرَتْ

4. When the she-camels,
Ten months with young,
Are left untended ; <sup>5973</sup>

④ وَإِذَا الْعِشَارُ عُطِّلَتْ

5. When the wild beasts
Are herded together

5969. Verses 1 to 13 are conditional clauses, and the substantive clause is in verse 14. The time will come when nature's processes as we know them will cease to function, and the soul will only then know by self conviction the results of its actions. With reference to an individual soul, its resurrection is its supreme crisis : the whole world of sense, and even of imagination and reason, melts away, and its whole spiritual scroll is laid bare before it.

5970. The conditional clauses are twelve, in two groups of six. The first six affect the outer or physical life of man ; the last six, his inmost spiritual life. Let us take them one by one. (1). The biggest factor affecting us in the external physical World is the light, heat, and perhaps electric or magnetic energy of the sun. The sun is the source of all the light, heat, and energy, and indeed the source and support of all the physical life that we know. It is the biggest factor and yet most remote from us in our solar system. Yet the sources of our inner spiritual life will be greater and more lasting, for they will survive it. The sun as the centre of our solar system also stands as a symbol of the present order of things. The physical forces, as defined in Newton's laws of Matter and Attraction, will also break up with the break-up of the sun.

Is folded up : is folded up, or twisted up, like a sheet or a garment.

5971. (2) Next after the sun, we can derive faint lights from the innumerable stars in the firmament. For all the ages of which we have any record, these stars have remained fixed. Nothing can be more fixed ; yet they can and will fail.

5972. C/. lxxviii, 20. (3) On our own earth the mountains—the " eternal hills "—seem the most striking examples of stability ; yet they will be swept away like a mirage, as if they had never existed.

5973. (4) The type of Arab property, as well as the type of the Arab pet, was the camel, and the most precious camel was the she-camel just about to be delivered of her young. She would in normal times be most sedulously cared for. But when all our landmarks of this life vanish, even she would be left untended. Nothing would then be as it is now.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXXXI (Takwīr).

This is quite an early Meccan Sūra, perhaps the sixth or seventh in chronological order. It opens with a series of highly mystical metaphors suggesting the break-up of the world as we know it (verses 1-13) and the enforcement of complete personal responsibility for each soul (verse 14). Then there is a mystical passage showing how the Quranic Revelation was true, and revealed through the angel Gabriel, and not merely a rhapsody from one possessed. Revelation is given for man's spiritual guidance (verses 14-29).

Comparable with this Sūra are the Sūras lxxxii and lxxxiv which may be read with this.

Summary

C. 261.—How can the soul's self-conviction be fitly
(lxxx. 1-29.) Expressed, except by types of tremendous Cataclysms in nature, and still more by tremendous Searchings in the heart of man? These want
Deep pondering. When once the spiritual Dawn
Has "breathed away" the Darkness of the Night,
The Vision Glorious clears all doubts,
And brings us face to face with Truth.
The highest Archangel in heaven is sent
By God to bring these truths to men
Through their Apostle. God's Grace flows freely :
We have but to tune our Will to His,—
The ever-loving Righteous God.

37. Each one of them,
That Day, will have Enough concern (of his own)
To make him indifferent
To the others.<sup>5967</sup>

٢٧ لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ شَأْنٌ
يُغْنِيهِ

38. Some Faces that Day
Will be beaming,

٢٨ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ مُّسْفِرَةٌ

39. Laughing, rejoicing.

٢٩ ضَاحِكَةٌ مُّسْتَبْشِرَةٌ

40. And other faces that Day
Will be dust-stained;<sup>5968</sup>

٣٠ وَوُجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ عَلَيْهَا غَبَرَةٌ

41. Blackness will cover them :

٣١ تَرَاهُمْ قَاظِرَةٌ

42. Such will be
The Rejecters of God,
The Doers of Iniquity.

٣٢ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْكَافِرَةُ الْفَجَرَةُ

5967. Cf. lxx, 10-14. No friend will ask after a friend that Day. On the contrary the sinner will desire to save himself at the expense even of his own family and benefactors.

5968. The dust on the faces of the sinners will be in contrast to the beaming light on the faces of the righteous ; and the blackness in contrast to the "laughing, rejoicing" faces of the righteous. But the dust also suggests that being Rejecters of God, their faces and eyes and faculties were choked in dust, and the blackness suggests that being Doers of Iniquity they had no part or lot in Purity or Light. Another contrast may possibly be deduced : the humble and lowly may be "in the dust" in this life, and the arrogant sinners in sunshine, but the rôles will be reversed at Judgment.

26. And We split the earth
In fragments,<sup>5961</sup>

27. And produce therein<sup>5962</sup> Corn,

28. And Grapes and nutritious Plants,

29. And Olives and Dates,

30. And enclosed Gardens,<sup>5963</sup>
Dense with lofty trees,

31. And Fruits and Fodder,—

32. For use and convenience
To you and your cattle.<sup>5964</sup>

33. At length, when there
Comes the Deafening Noise,—<sup>5965</sup>

34. That Day shall a man
Flee from his own brother,

35. And from his mother
And his father,

36. And from his wife
And his children.<sup>5966</sup>

٢٦ ثُمَّ شَقَقْنَا الْأَرْضَ شَقًّا

٢٧ فَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا حَبًّا

٢٨ وَعِنَبًا وَقَضْبًا

٢٩ وَزَيْتُونًا وَنَخْلًا

٣٠ وَحَدَائِقَ غُلَبًا

٣١ وَفَلَكَمَةً وَأَبَا

٣٢ مَتَاعًا لَّكُمْ وَلِأَنْعَامِكُمْ

٣٣ فَإِذَا جَاءَتِ الصَّاعَةُ

٣٤ يَوْمَ يَفِرُّ الْمَرْءُ مِنْ أَخِيهِ

٣٥ وَأُمِّهِ وَأَبِيهِ

٣٦ وَصَحْبِهِ وَبَنِيهِ

5961. The water comes from the clouds in plentiful abundance; the earth is ploughed, and the soil is broken up in fragments, and yields an abundant harvest of cereals (Corn), trellised fruit (Grapes), and vegetable food (nutritious Plants), as well as fruit that can keep for long periods and serve many uses, like olives and dates.

5962. Therein : i.e. from within the earth or the soil.

5963. We not only get field crops such as were mentioned in n. 5961 above, but we have the more highly cultivated garden crops, both in the way of lofty trees, and in the way of carefully tended fruits like the fig; and then we have grass and all kinds of fodder.

5964. The same verse occurs at lxxix. 33, where n. 5940 explains the wider meaning in that context.

5965 Preliminary to the establishment of the Final Judgment.

5966. Even those who were nearest and dearest in this life will not be able or willing to help each other on that awful Day. On the contrary, if they have to receive a sentence for their sins, they will be anxious to avoid even sharing each other's sorrows or witnessing each other's humiliation; for each will have enough of his own troubles to occupy him. On the other hand, the Righteous will be united with their righteous families: lii. 21; and their faces will be "beaming, laughing, rejoicing" (lxxx. 38-39).

18. From what stuff
Hath He created him?

⑮ مِنْ أَيِّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقَهُ

19. From a sperm-drop: <sup>5957</sup>
He hath created him, and then
Mouldeth him in due proportions;

⑯ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ خَلَقَهُ فَقَدَرَهُ

20. Then doth He make
His path smooth for him;

⑰ ثُمَّ السَّيْلَ يَسِّرُهُ

21. Then He causeth him to die,
And putteth him in his Grave; <sup>5958</sup>

⑱ ثُمَّ أَمَانَهُ فَأَقْبَرَهُ

22. Then, when it is
His Will, He will
Raise him up (again).

⑲ ثُمَّ إِذَا شَاءَ أَنشُرُهُ

23. By no means hath he Fulfilled what God
Hath commanded him. <sup>5959</sup>

⑳ كَلَّا لَمْ يَفْقُضْ مَا أَمَرُهُ

24. ~~Then~~ When let man look
At his Food, <sup>5960</sup>
(And how We provide it):

㉑ فَلْيَنْظُرِ الْإِنْسَانُ إِلَى طَعَامِهِ

25. For that We pour forth
Water in abundance,

㉒ أَنَا صَبَبْنَا الْمَاءَ صَبًّا

5957. Cf. lxxvi. 2, and n. 5832. The origin of man as an animal is lowly indeed. But what further faculties and capacities has not God granted to man? Besides his animal body, in which also he shares in all the blessings which God has bestowed on the rest of His Creation, man has been granted divine gifts which entitle him to be called the Vicegerent of God on earth: ii. 30. He has a will; he has spiritual perception; he is capable of divine love; he can control nature within certain limits, and subject nature's forces to his own use. And he has been given the power of judgment, so that he can avoid excess and defect, and follow the middle path. And that path, as well as all that is necessary for his life in its manifold aspects, has been made easy for him.

5958. Cf. xx. 55. Death is an inevitable event after the brief life on this earth, but it is also in a sense a blessing,—a release from the imperfections of this world, a close of the probationary period, after which will dawn the full Reality. "The Grave" may be understood to be the period between physical death and immortal Life, whatever may be the mode of disposal of the dead body. This intermediate period is the Barzakh or Partition; see n. 2940 to xxiii. 101.

5959. Though all these blessings and stages have been provided by God's Grace for the good of man, yet unregenerate man fails in carrying out the purpose of his creation and life.

5960. After a reference to man's inner history, there is now a reference to just one item in his daily outer life, his food: and it is shown how the forces of heaven and earth unite by God's Command to serve man and his dependants, "for use and convenience to you and your cattle" (verse 32 below). If that is the case with just one item, food, how much more comprehensive is God's beneficence when the whole of man's needs are considered!

8. But as to him who came
To thee striving earnestly,

9. And with fear
(In his heart),<sup>5954</sup>

10. Of him wast thou unmindful.

11. By no means
(Should it be so) !
For it is indeed
A Message of instruction :<sup>5955</sup>

12. Therefore let whoso will,
Keep it in remembrance.

13. (Yet<sup>5956</sup> is) in Books
Held (greatly) in honour,

14. Exalted (in dignity),
Kept pure and holy,

15. (Written) by the hands
Of scribes—

16. Honourable and
Pious and Just.

17. Woe to man !
What hath made him
Reject God ?

① وَأَمَّا مَنْ جَاءَكَ يَسْعَىٰ

② وَهُوَ يَخْشَىٰ

③ فَأَنْتَ عَنْهُ تَلَهَّىٰ

④ كَلَّا إِنَّهَا لَذِكْرٌ

⑤ فَمَنْ شَاءَ ذَكِّرْهُ

⑥ فِي صُحُفٍ مُّكَرَّمَةٍ

⑦ مَرْفُوعَةٍ مُّطَهَّرَةٍ

⑧ بِأَيْدِي سَفَرَةٍ

⑨ كِرَامٍ بَرَرَةٍ

⑩ قُلِ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا أَكْفَرُ

5954. The fear in the blind man's heart may have been two-fold. (1) He was humble and God-fearing, not arrogant and self-sufficient; (2) being poor and blind, he feared to intrude; yet his earnest desire to learn the Qur-ān made him hold, and he came, perhaps unseasonably, but was yet worthy of encouragement, because of the purity of his heart.

5955. God's Message is a universal Message, from which no one is to be excluded,—rich or poor, old or young, great or lowly, learned or ignorant. If anyone had the spiritual craving that needed satisfaction, he was to be given precedence if there was to be any question of precedence at all.

5956. At the time this Sūra was revealed, there were perhaps only about 42 or 45 Sūras in the hands of the Muslims. But it was a sufficient body of Revelation of high spiritual value, to which the description given here could be applied. It was held in the highest honour; its place in the hearts of Muslims was more exalted, than that of anything else; as God's Word, it was pure and sacred; and those who transcribed it were men who were honourable, just and pious. The legend that the early Sūras were not carefully written down and preserved in books is a pure invention. The recensions made later in the time of the first and the third Khalīfah were merely to preserve the purity and safeguard the arrangement of the text, at a time when the expansion of Islam among non-Arabic-speaking peoples made such precautions necessary.

Sūra LXXX.

'Abasa, or He Frowned.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. (The Prophet) frowned
And turned away,<sup>5950</sup>
2. Because there came to him
The blind man (interrupting).
3. But what could tell thee
But that perchance he might
Grow (in spiritual understanding)?—
4. Or that he might receive
Admonition, and the teaching
Might profit him?<sup>5951</sup>
5. As to one who regards
Himself as self-sufficient,<sup>5952</sup>
6. To him dost thou attend;
7. Though it is no blame
To thee if he grow not<sup>5953</sup>
(In spiritual understanding).

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① عَبَسَ وَتَوَلَّى

② أَنْ جَاءَهُ الْأَعْمَى

③ وَمَا يَذْرِيكَ لَعَلَّهُ يَزَكَّى

④ أَوْ يَذْكُرُ فَنُفَعَهُ الذِّكْرَى

⑤ أَتَمَنَّيْتُ أَنْ أَتَمَنَّيْتُ

⑥ فَأَنْتَ لَهُ تَصَدَّى

⑦ وَمَا عَلَيْكَ أَلَّا يَزَكَّى

5950. See the Introduction to this Sūra for the incident to which this refers. The lesson is that neither spiritual worth nor the prospect of effective spiritual guidance is to be measured by a man's position in life. The poor, or the blind, the halt, or the maimed, may be more susceptible to the teaching of God's Word than men who are apparently gifted, but who suffer from arrogance and self-sufficiency.

5951. It may be that the poor blind man might, on account of his will to learn, be more likely to grow in his own spiritual development or to profit by any lessons taught to him even in reproof than a self-sufficient leader. In fact it was so. For the blind man became a true and sincere Muslim and lived to become a governor of Madina.

5952. Such a one would be a Pagan Quraish leader, whom the holy Prophet was anxious to get into his fold, in order that the work of preaching God's Message might be facilitated. But such a Message works first amongst the simple and lowly, the poor and despised folk, and the mighty ones of the earth only come in when the stream rushes in with irresistible force.

5953 God's Message is for all, but if the great ones arrogantly keep back from it, it is no fault of the Preacher, so long as he has proclaimed the Message. He should attend to all, and specially to the humble and lowly.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXXX ('Abasa).

This is an early Meccan Sūra, and is connected with an incident which reflects the highest honour on the Prophet's sincerity in the Revelations that were vouchsafed to him even if they seemed to reprove him for some natural and human zeal that led him to a false step in his mission according to his own high standards.

He was once deeply and earnestly engaged in trying to explain the holy Qur-ān to Pagan Quraish leaders, when he was interrupted by a blind man, 'Abdullāh ibn Umm-i-Maktūm, one who was also poor, so that no one took any notice of him. He wanted to learn the Qur-ān. The holy Prophet naturally disliked the interruption and showed impatience. Perhaps the poor man's feelings were hurt. But he whose gentle heart ever sympathised with the poor and the afflicted, got new Light from above, and without the least hesitation published this revelation, which forms part of the sacred scripture of Islam, as described in verses 13-16. And the Prophet always afterwards held the man in high honour.

The incident was only a passing incident, but after explaining the eternal principles of revelation, the Sūra recapitulates the Mercies of God to man, and the consequences of a good or a wicked life here, as seen in the spiritual world to come, in the Hereafter.

C. 260.—Men not blest with the good things of this life
(lxxx. 1-42.) May yet be earnest seekers of Truth
And Purity, and deserve as much attention as those Who seem to wield some influence, yet who
In their pride are self-sufficient. God's Message
Is universal: all have a right
To hear it. Held high in honour, kept
Pure and holy, it should be writ
By none but good and honourable men.

* * * *

God's Grace is showered on man not less
For his inner growth than in his outward
Life. There must be a final Reckoning,
When each soul must stand on its own past Record:
The faces, then, of the Blest will beam
With Joy and Light, while the Doers of Iniquity
Will hide in Dust and Shame and Darkness.

42. They ask thee<sup>3946</sup>
About the Hour,— 'When
Will be its appointed time ?
43. Wherein art thou (concerned)
With the declaration thereof ?
44. With thy Lord is
The Limit<sup>3947</sup> fixed therefor.
45. Thou art but a Warner
For such as fear it.<sup>3948</sup>
46. The Day they see it,
(It will be) as if they
Had tarried but a single
Evening, or (at most till)
The following morn !<sup>3949</sup>

٤٢ يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ السَّاعَةِ أَيَّانَ مُرْسَاهَا

٤٣ فِيمَ أَنْتَ مِنْ ذِكْرِهَا

٤٤ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ مُنْتَهَاهَا

٤٥ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُنذِرٌ مَّنْ يَخْشَاهَا

٤٦ كَأَنَّهُمْ يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَهَا لَمْ يَلْبِتُوا إِلَّا عَشِيَّةً

أَوْ ضَحَاةً

3946 C/. vii. 187 and n. 1139. Only God can reveal it. But were it known, "heavy were its burden through the heavens and the earth "

3947. Our time has no sort of comparison with the timeless state in the new spiritual World in which the final Judgment will take place. Nor can its limits—how long it will last—be set except in the Will of Almighty God, Lord of Supreme Wisdom, Justice, and Goodness : xi 107-108. But it is near, in the sense explained in n. 5914 to lxxviii. 40.

3948. The warning is only effective for those who believe in God and in the Final Account. Such men immediately turn in repentance to God, and it is to lead such men and help them, that Prophets are sent.

3949. C/. x. 43, where the expression used is : " it will be as if they had tarried but an hour of a day." Here the metaphor used is " a single evening, or, at most, till the following morn ". Death is like sleep, and may be compared to the evening of life. In sleep we do not know how the time passes. When we wake up from the sleep of Death at the Resurrection, we shall not know whether it was the following moment or the following hour after we slept, but we shall feel that it is morning, for we shall be conscious of all that goes on, as one awakened in the morning.

34. Wherefore, when there comes
The great, overwhelming
(Event),—<sup>5941</sup>

٢٤ فَإِذَا جَاءَتِ الطَّامَةُ الْكُبْرَى

35. The Day when Man
Shall remember (all)
That he strove for,<sup>5942</sup>

٢٥ يَوْمَ يَتَذَكَّرُ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا سَعَى

36. And Hell-Fire shall be Placed in full view<sup>5943</sup>
For (all) to see,—

٢٦ وَبُرْزُخِ الْجَحِيمِ لِيَنْبَظَ

37. Then, for such as had
Transgressed all bounds,

٢٧ فَأَمَّا مَنْ طَغَى

38. And had preferred<sup>5944</sup>
The life of this world,

٢٨ وَاتَّارَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا

39. The Abode will be
Hell-Fire ;

٢٩ فَإِنَّ الْجَحِيمَ هِيَ الْمَأْوَى

40. And for such as had
Entertained the fear
Of standing before<sup>5945</sup>
Their Lord's (tribunal)
And had restrained
(Their) soul from lower Desires,

٣٠ وَأَمَّا مَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهِ وَنَهَى النَّفْسَ
عَنِ الْهَوَىٰ

41. Their Abode will be
The Garden.

٣١ فَإِنَّ الْجَنَّةَ هِيَ الْمَأْوَى

5941. The Judgment, the time for sorting out all things according to their true, intrinsic, and eternal values.

5942. The Judgment will be not only for his acts but for his motives, "all he strove for". In this life he may forget his ill-deeds, but in the new conditions he will not only remember them, but the Fire of Punishment will be plainly visible to him, and not only to him, but it will be "for all to see". This will add to the sinner's humiliation.

5943. C/. xxvi. 91.

5944. The abiding Punishment will be for those who had wilfully and persistently rebelled against God, "transgressing all bounds", and had given themselves up to the vanities and lusts of this lower life. This Punishment will not touch those who had repented and been forgiven, nor those guilty, through human frailty, of minor sins, whose deeds will be weighed in the balance against their good deeds : ci. 6-9.

5945. The contrast is complete and parallel : the persistent rebels against God's Law, who preferred the lower life, are to dwell in the Fire of Punishment, while those who humbly feared the punishment of sin and believing in their Lord's warnings, restrained their lower desires, will dwell in the Garden. See last note.

28. On high hath He raised
Its canopy, and He hath
Given it order and perfection.<sup>5935</sup>

٢٨ رَفَعَ سَمَكَهَا فَسَوَّاهَا

29. Its night doth He
Endow with darkness,
And its splendour doth He
Bring out (with light).<sup>5936</sup>

٢٩ وَأَغْطَشَ لَيْلَهَا وَأَخْرَجَ ضُحَاهَا

30. And the earth, moreover,<sup>5937</sup>
Hath He extended
(To a wide expanse);

٣٠ وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهَا

31. He draweth out
Therefrom its moisture
And its pasture ;<sup>5938</sup>

٣١ أَخْرَجَ مِنْهَا مَاءَهَا وَمَرْعَاهَا

32. And the mountains
Hath He firmly fixed ;<sup>5939</sup>

٣٢ وَأَثْبَاتَ أَرَاسِهَا

33. For use and convenience<sup>5940</sup>
To you and your cattle.

5935. Cf. ii. 29. The mystery of the heavens with their countless stars and the planets obeying the laws of motion, and the sun and moon influencing the temperature and climates of the earth from thousands or millions of miles, illustrate the order and perfection which God has given to His Creation. Can man then remain exempt from his responsibility for his deeds, endowed as he is with a will, or deny the Day of Sorting Out, which is the Day of Judgment :

5936. Its of course refers to the starry heaven. Both the Night and the Day have each its own beauty and its utility for man, as has been frequently pointed out in the Qur-ān. The night is a period of darkness, but it has also its splendours of light in the moon, or the planets Jupiter or Venus, or stars like Sirius or the Milky Way. These countless lights of night have their own beauty, and by day there is the splendour of the sun for us, which in Creation as a whole, is just one of countless stars.

5937. Moreover : or, more literally, after that. See n. 4475 to xli. 11.

5938. The underground springs and wells of water as well as rivers and glaciers in northern climates are due to the different levels of highlands and lowlands. They spread the moisture evenly as wanted, and give corn, fruits, and vegetables to man, and pastures and feeding grounds to beasts of the fields. For the wonderful circuit or cycle of water between heaven and earth, see notes 3106 (xxv. 49) and 3111 (xxv. 53).

5939. See n. 2038 to xvi. 15. The "eternal hills" are the main reservoirs for the storage and gradual distribution of water, the very basis for the life of man and beast.

5940. This clause I construe to apply to verses 30, 31, and 32 above. Everything on earth has, by God's bountiful providence, been arranged to subserve the use and convenience of man and the lower life which depends upon him. The intermediary between God's providence and the actual use made of God's other gifts is man's own intelligence and initiative, which are also gifts of God.

20. Then did (Moses) show him
The Great Sign.<sup>5931</sup>

٢٠ فَأَرَاهُ الْآيَةَ الْكُبْرَى

21. But (Pharaoh) rejected it
And disobeyed (guidance);

٢١ فَكَذَّبَ وَعَصَى

22. Further, he turned his back,
Striving hard (against God).

٢٢ ثُمَّ أَدْبَرَ يَسْعَى

23. Then he collected (his men)
And made a proclamation,

٢٣ فَخَشَرَ فَنَادَى

24. Saying, "I am your Lord,
Most High".

٢٤ فَقَالَ أَنَا رَبُّكُمُ الْأَعْلَى

25. But God did punish him,
(And made an) example
Of him,—in the Hereafter,
As in this life.<sup>5932</sup>

٢٥ فَأَخَذَهُ اللَّهُ نَكَالَ الْآخِرَةِ وَالْأُولَى

26. Verily in this is
An instructive warning<sup>5933</sup>
For whosoever feareth (God).

٢٦ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَعِبْرَةً لِمَن يَخْشَى

SECTION 2.

27. ~~What~~ What! Are ye the more
Difficult to create
Or the heaven (above)?<sup>5934</sup>
(God) hath constructed it :

٢٧ أَمْ أَنشَدُ خَلْقًا أَمِ السَّمَاءُ بَنَاهَا

5931. What was the Great Sign? Some Commentators understand by it the "White Shining Hand": see n. 2550 to xx. 22-23. Others think it was the miracle of the rod that became a "snake active in motion": see xx. 20, n. 2549. These were among the Greater Signs: xx. 23. In xvii. 101 there is a reference to nine Clear Signs given to Moses, and these are specified in detail in n. 1091 to vii. 133. The fact is, there were many Signs given, "openly self-explained," but Pharaoh and his men "were steeped in arrogance,—a people given to sin" (vii. 133). The pre-eminently Great Sign was therefore the fact of Moses being sent to Pharaoh, which subsequently converted the magicians and the more learned Egyptians to the true God (xx. 70-73), though Pharaoh and his Chiefs resisted and suffered for their sins. The mystics understand by the "Great Sign" the Power of God as enshrined in His mystic Name, which none may know but the adepts in spiritual lore.

5932. See xx. 78-79, also vii. 135-137.

5933. Cf. xxiv. 44.

5934. If man grows arrogant or forgets his accountability to God, in his ignorance or thoughtlessness, he is reminded that he is only an insignificant speck in God's spacious Creation. All the excellence that man acquires is the gift of God, Who has bestowed on him a high Destiny if he fulfils the purpose of his creation: ii. 30-39. Then follows a nature passage, pointing to the glory of the heavens and the earth, and how they are both made to subserve the life of man.

(Compelling) Cry,<sup>3925</sup>

14. When, behold, they
Will be in the (full)
Awakening (to Judgment).<sup>3926</sup>

15. ~~It~~ Was the story<sup>3927</sup>
Of Moses reached thee ?

16. Behold, thy Lord did call
To him in the sacred valley
Of Tuwā :—<sup>3928</sup>

17. " Go thou to Pharaoh,
For he has indeed
Transgressed all bounds :<sup>3929</sup>

18. " And say to him,
' Wouldst thou that thou
Shouldst be purified
(From sin)?—

19. " ' And that I guide thee
To thy Lord, so thou<sup>3930</sup>
Shouldst fear Him ? ' "

﴿١٤﴾ فَإِذَا هُمْ بِالسَّاهِرَةِ

﴿١٥﴾ مَلَأْنَاكَ حَدِيثَ مُوسَى

﴿١٦﴾ إِذْ نَادَاهُ رَبُّهُ بِالْوَادِ الْمُقَدَّسِ طُوًى

﴿١٧﴾ أَذْهَبَ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّهُ طَغَىٰ

﴿١٨﴾ فَقُلْ هَلْ لَكَ إِلَٰهٌ إِلَّا أَن نُّزَكِّيَ

﴿١٩﴾ وَأَعِدِّيكَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ فَهَعْنَىٰ

3925. Judgment will be inaugurated with a single compelling Cry. Cf. xxxvii 19. See also xxxvi. 29 and 49, where the single mighty Blast seems to refer to the sinners being cut off in this life and plunged into the other world where they will be further judged, and xxxvi. 53, where the final Judgment is referred to.

3926. They will have been more or less dormant before the Great Judgment, as contrasted with the Lesser Judgment (n. 5914 to lxxviii. 40, and n. 5822 to lxxv. 22). When the Resurrection comes, they will come fully into the new world, the old heaven and earth having then completely passed away, not only for them but absolutely.

3927. This is just a reference to the story of Moses told more fully in S. xx. 9-70. The lessons drawn are : (1) That even to an arrogant blasphemer and rebel against God's Law, like Pharaoh, God's grace was offered through a major Prophet Moses; (2) that his rejection brought about his signal downfall even in this world ; and (3) that his humiliation and punishment will be completed in the Hereafter at Judgment.

3928. Cf. xx. 12.

3929. Cf. xx. 24.

5920. The evidence of the wonderful working of the spiritual world having been invoked in the first five verses, the conclusion is now drawn and stated. It is certain that one great Day (to be taken in a spiritual sense as the Day of Account), the whole world as we now see it in our lower life will be in violent revolution. It will be like an earthquake destroying all land-marks. But that will affect only things subject to change : they will suffer violent convulsions as a preliminary to their disappearance. But God and His divine order will not change : His " Face " abideth for ever, full of Majesty, Bounty, and Honour (lv. 27).

5921. The Commotion will be repeated again and again in the transitory world, to make way for the new world that will then come into being.

5922. All hearts will be in agitation : those of the blessed ones to see the beginning of the fulfilment of their Lord's Promise ; those of the Rejecters of God for fear of His just Judgment.

5923. Similarly all eyes will be cast down : those of the blessed ones in humble modesty, and those of the Rejecters of God, in utter humiliation, sorrow, and shame, for their arrogance and insolence in their probationary life

5924. The Unbelievers say now, in their arrogance, insolence, and mocking defiance : " Surely death here is the end of all things ! When we are dead and buried, and our bones are rotten, how can we be restored again ? " They add, " If that were so, then we should indeed be in a turn of dreadful luck ! Instead of gaining by the Resurrection, we should be in terrible loss (with our rotten bones) ! " They mean this in biting mockery. But there will indeed be an Account taken, and they will indeed be in a terrible loss, for they will go to perdition !

Sūra LXXIX.

Nāzi'at, or Those Who Tear Out.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

1. By the (angels)<sup>3916</sup>
Who tear out
(The souls of the wicked)
With violence;<sup>3917</sup>
2. By those who gently
Draw out (the souls
Of the blessed);<sup>3918</sup>
3. And by those who glide
Along (on errands of mercy),<sup>3919</sup>
4. Then press forward
As in a race,
5. Then arrange to do
(The Commands of their Lord),—

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالنَّازِعَاتِ غَرْقًا

② وَالنَّشِيطَاتِ تَشَاطُفًا

③ وَالسَّابِحَاتِ سَبْحًا

④ فَالْمُسَبِّحَاتِ سَبْقًا

⑤ فَالْمُدَبِّرَاتِ أَمْرًا

3916 The beginning of this Sūra may be compared with the beginning of S. lxxvii. A translator's task in such passages is extremely difficult. He has to do with highly mystical symbols expressed in elliptical language suitable for mysticism, and he has to render them in another language with words of precision intelligible to readers. It is therefore necessary for him to put in part of the Commentary in the Translation in such cases.

The evidence of five things is here invoked in verses 1-5, in order to lead to the conclusion in verse 6 and those following. Or, if we treat verses 3-5 as three stages of the same thing, there are three things to be considered in five stages. What are they? And what is the conclusion? See the following notes.

3917. There is much difference of opinion among the Commentators as to the five things or beings mentioned in these verses. I follow the general opinion in my interpretation, which is that angels are referred to as the agency which in their dealings with mankind show clearly God's Justice, Power, and Mercy, which again point to the Judgment to come, as a certainty which none can evade. The first point, referred to in this verse, is that the souls of the wicked are loath to part with their material body at death, but then will not count: their souls will be wrenched out into another world. Who will then deny Resurrection and Judgment?

3918. The second point is that in contrast with the wicked, the souls of the blessed will be drawn out gently to their new life. They will be ready for it. In fact death for them will be a release from the grosser incidents of bodily sense. To them the approach of Judgment will be welcome.

3919. At all times there are errands of mercy and blessing and errands of justice, which the angels are prompt to execute by order of God. There are three features of this, thus giving the third, fourth, and fifth points. (3) Their movement is compared to that of gliding or swimming (sabhan). In xxi. 33 this verb is applied to the motion of the celestial bodies: they all "swim along, each in its rounded course". Cf. Shakespeare, Merchant of Venice: "There's not an orb which thou behold'st, But in his motion like an angel sings, Still quiring to the young-eyed cherubims". (4) In hurrying on their errands the angels press forth as in a race. (5) And thus they promptly execute the orders of their Lord.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXXIX (Nāzi'āt).

This is also an early Meccan Sūra, of about the same date as the last, and deals with the mystic theme of Judgment from the point of view of Pride and its Fall. The parable of Pharaoh occupies a central place in the argument : for he said, "I am your Lord Most High", and perished with his followers.

C. 259.—Never can Evil escape God's order
 (lxxix. 1-46.) And law : His angels are ever present
 To bring the wicked to their bearings
 And they ever strive and press forward to bring Comfort, succour, and God's Mercy to those Who seek it. Then will come the Day
 When the proud shall be humbled, though they Deny the coming Judgment. What happened
 To Pharaoh ? He flouted God's Message specially
 Sent to him, and arrogantly proclaimed :
 "I am your Lord Most High !" He perished
 In this life and will answer for his deeds in the next.

* * *

But can ye not see, O men, the mighty
 Works of God in the heavens and on earth ?—
 The darksome splendour of the Night with its Stars,
 And the daylight splendour of the Sun ?—
 How the earth, with its spacious expanse and its mountains,
 Yields moisture and pasture, and feeds and sustains
 Men and cattle, through God's wise Providence ?
 Ah ! transgress not all bounds and earn not the Fire
 Of Punishment, but fear God and His Judgment,
 And prepare for the Garden of Perpetual Bliss.
 Delay not ! The Judgment is sure, and it's nigh !

38. The Day that
The Spirit<sup>5911</sup> and the angels
Will stand forth in ranks,
None shall speak
Except any who is Permitted by (God) Most Gracious,
And he will say
What is right.<sup>5912</sup>

٧٨ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ الرُّوحُ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ صَفًّا
لَّا يَتَكَلَّمُونَ إِلَّا مَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ
وَقَالَ صَوَابًا

39. That Day will be
The sure Reality :<sup>5913</sup>
Therefore, whoso will, let him
Take a (straight) Return
To his Lord !

٣٩ ذَٰلِكَ الْيَوْمُ الْحَقُّ فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ
مَنَازِلًا

40. Verily, We have warned you
Of a Penalty near,—<sup>5914</sup>
The Day when man will See (the Deeds) which
His hands have sent forth,
And the Unbeliever will say,
" Woe unto me ! Would that I were (mere) dust ! "<sup>5915</sup>

٤٠ إِنَّا أَنذَرْنَكُمْ عَذَابًا قَرِيبًا يَوْمَ
يَنْظُرُ الْمَرْءُ مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاهُ وَيَقُولُ
الْكَافِرُ يَلَيْسَتَنِي كُنْتُ تُرَابًا

5911. The Spirit : see n. 5677 to lxx. 4. Some Commentators understand by " the Spirit " the angel Gabriel as he is charged specially with bringing Messages to human apostles : see xxi. 193, n. 3224. Or perhaps he may be considered the chief of the angels. But it is better to take a wider meaning,—the souls of men collectively as they rise to the Judgment-Seat of God.

5912 See n. 5910 above. No one has the right to speak before the Judgment-Seat ; but certain great Dignitaries may be given permission to plead for mercy for sinners, and they will only so plead if the mercy is not nugatory of God's universal justice.

5913. Cf. lxxix. 1 and n. 5635. Judgment is sure to come, and Truth will then be free from all veils. Why should not man, therefore, now in this life of probation, turn back to God, and understand and do His Will ?

5914. Is Judgment very near ? Yes. There are three stages of Judgment. (1) Many of our sins and wrong-doings find their penalty in this very life. It may not be an open or striking event, but it corrodes the soul and conscience all the time. Let us therefore turn back to God in repentance and ask for forgiveness. (2) Where the Penalty is not actually perceived or is not visible in this life, Death is considered the Lesser Judgment for each individual soul ; see n. 5822 to lxxv. 22. Death may come to anyone at any time, and we must all be ready for it. (3) Then there is the final Judgment, when the whole of the present order passes away, and there is a New World. Time as we know it will not exist. Fifty thousand years as we reckon now will be but as a Day : lxx. 4. According to those standards even this Final Judgment is quite near, and we must prepare for it. For it will be too late then for repentance.

5915. The Unbeliever, the Rejecter of God, will then find himself in a world of absolute Reality, in which there will be no place for him. He will neither live nor die : xx. 74. He will wish that he could be reduced to nothingness, but even that would not be possible.

33. Companions of Equal Age; <sup>5906</sup>

34. And a Cup full
(To the Brim). <sup>5907</sup>

35. No Vanity shall they hear
Therein, nor Untruth;— <sup>5908</sup>

36. Recompense from thy Lord,
A Gift, (amply) sufficient, <sup>5909</sup>—

37. (From) the Lord
Of the heavens
And the earth,
And all between,—
(God), Most Gracious :
None shall have power
To argue with Him. <sup>5910</sup>

﴿ وَكَوَّابٍ أَثْرَابًا ۝﴾

﴿ وَكَأْسًا دِهَاقًا ۝﴾

﴿ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا وَلَا كِذَابًا ۝﴾

﴿ جَزَاءً مِّن رَّبِّكَ عَطَاءً حِسَابًا ۝﴾

﴿ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا الرَّحْمَنُ ۝﴾
﴿ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْهُ خِطَابًا ۝﴾

5906. The second symbol is Companions of Equal Age, Maidens or Virgins, symbols of purity, grace, beauty, innocence, truth, and sympathy. See paragraph 12 of Appendix XII. The feminine itself here symbolises these qualities, and such will be the Companions for those who have been in this world either women or men, for there are no separate heavens for them. The stress here is laid on "Equal Age", for only by that symbol can complete sympathy and understanding be figured. As heaven will be "beyond the flight of Time, beyond the reign of Death", age or youth has no meaning there except as tokens of temperaments, tastes, and feelings, all of which will have their sacred Fulfilment.

5907. The third symbol, the Cup, takes us partly to the Grapes mentioned in verse 32 and partly to the Springs or Rivers mentioned with the Garden in so many places. See paragraphs 10 and 11 of Appendix XII. Full to the Brim brings to our mind the unbounded Bounty of God.

5908. The explanation of the three symbols is made further clear by the two negatives. (1) There will be no talk of vanities, such as are usually associated on this earth with pleasant Gardens, Companions of equal age, or generous Cups flowing in Assemblies. (2) There will be no Untruth or Falsehood, Insincerity or Hollowness there. Everything will be on a plane of absolute Truth and Reality.

5909. The Recompense is not exactly a Reward in proportion to merit, but is rather a Gift or a Bounty from the Merciful,—a Gift most amply sufficient to satisfy all desire on that plane of purity. See paragraphs 3-6 of Appendix XII for a discussion of the doctrine of Rewards and Punishments. "A Gift (amply) sufficient" might almost be translated : a liberal and bountiful gift. Cf. the phrase, A'ā jn aḥsaha—he-gave generously, or bountifully.

5910. No one has the right or the power to argue with God about the Gifts which He may bestow on His devotees beyond their deserts, (verse 36 above) or about the Penalty which His justice may inflict for sin or wrong-doing. He is high above all Creation. But He is also Most Gracious. Therefore He may permit special Dignitaries, of honour in His eyes, to plead for sinners, but they will only plead in truth and righteousness : see verse 38 below. *

26. A fitting recompense
(For them).<sup>5901</sup>

﴿جَزَاءٌ وَفَاءٌ﴾

27. For that they used not
To fear any account
(For their deeds),<sup>5902</sup>

﴿إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا لَا يَرْجُونَ حِسَابًا﴾

28. But they (impudently) treated
Our Signs as false.

﴿وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كِذَابًا﴾

29. And all things have We Preserved on record.

﴿وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ أَنصَيْنَاهُ كِتَابًا﴾

30. "So taste ye (the fruits
Of your deeds);
For no increase<sup>5903</sup>
Shall We grant you,
Except in Punishment."

﴿فَذُوقُوا فَلَنْ نَزِيدَكُمْ إِلَّا عَذَابًا﴾

SECTION 2.

31. Werily for the Righteous
There will be
A fulfilment of
(The Heart's) desires;<sup>5904</sup>

﴿إِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ مَفَازًا﴾

32. Gardens enclosed, and Grapevines;<sup>5905</sup>

﴿حَدَائِقَ وَأَعْنَابًا﴾

5901. Their transgressions go on progressively as they refuse to repent and turn to God. The fire of misery begins to blaze forth more and more fiercely, and there is nothing to cool that blaze; their food and drink themselves are tainted with the disorder of contradictory elements,—boiling hot drink, with intensely cold, murky, and disgusting fluids. These are fitting punishments for their crimes, which are inconsistent with the pure and gentle mould in which God had originally cast their nature.

5902. It was not isolated acts, but a continued course of evil conduct; they repudiated the moral and spiritual responsibility for their lives; and they impudently called Truth itself by false names and disdained God's Signs, which were vouchsafed for their instruction. These are not mere impressions; these are hard facts "preserved on record", so that every deed can have its due weight in making up the account.

5903. Just as there is a progressive deterioration in the sinner's soul when he surrenders himself to evil, so there is a progressive increase in the Penalty which he suffers.

5904. This is true Salvation. It is not only safety and felicity, but the attainment of the final Goal, the supreme Achievement, the Fulfilment of the highest in human nature, the satisfaction of the true and pure desires of the heart,—seeing the "Face of God" See n. 4733 to xlii. 57.

5905. The supreme Achievement, or the Fulfilment of the Heart's Desires, spoken of in the last verse, is now described in three symbols (verses 32-34), as further explained by two negatives (verse 35). The first symbol is the enclosed Fruit-Garden, and the symbol taken for the fruit is the Grape. As shown in paragraphs 8-10 of Appendix XII following S. lii, the Garden in its many aspects is the most frequent symbol adopted for Bliss. Here the symbolism is further particularised. The most carefully-tended Garden is a Fruit-Garden, with walls all round to protect it, and the most characteristic fruit mentioned here is the luscious Grape, both because it is a Fruit, and because it yields wine—the pure Wine of divine Love.

17. Verily the Day
Of Sorting Out<sup>5896</sup>
Is a thing appointed,—

١٧ إِنَّ يَوْمَ الْفَصْلِ كَانَ مِيقَاتًا

18. The Day that the Trumpet<sup>5897</sup>
Shall be sounded, and ye
Shall come forth in crowds;

١٨ يَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّورِ فَتَأْتُونَ أَفْوَاجًا

19. And the heavens
Shall be opened
As if there were doors,<sup>5898</sup>

١٩ وَفُتِحَتِ السَّمَاءُ فَكَانَتْ أَبْوَابًا

20. And the mountains
Shall vanish, as if
They were a mirage.

٢٠ وَسُيِّرَتِ الْجِبَالُ فَكَانَتْ سَرَابًا

21. Aruly Hell is
As a place of ambush,—<sup>5899</sup>

٢١ إِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ كَانَتْ مِرْصَادًا

22. For the transgressors
A place of destination :

٢٢ لِلظَّالِمِينَ مَذَابًا

23. They will dwell therein
For ages.

٢٣ لَيَبِثْنَ فِيهَا لَحْقَابًا

24. Nothing cool shall they taste
Therein, nor any drink,

٢٤ لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا بَرْدًا وَلَا شَرَابًا

25. Save a boiling fluid
And a fluid, dark, murky,
Intensely cold,—<sup>5900</sup>

٢٥ إِلَّا سَمِيمًا وَغَسَّاقًا

5896. Cf. xxxvii. 21, n. 4047, and xxxvi. 59, n. 4005 (end). The Day of Judgment is the Day of Sorting Out, as between Good and Evil.

5898. A sign that the present order of things will have ceased to exist, and a new world will have come into being. Such a figure applies to the heavens in this verse and to the earth in the next verse. The mystery of what is beyond the heavens will have vanished through the doors which will then be opened. The solid mountains, as we suppose them to be, will have vanished like an unsubstantial mirage.

5899. Hell, the embodiment of evil, is lying in wait like an ambush for every one. We should be on our guard. For the transgressors, those who have wilfully rebelled against God, it will be a definite destination, from which there is no return, except, it may be, after ages, i.e. unless God so wills: Cf. vi. 128, and n. 951.

5900. Cf. x. 4, and n. 1390; also xxxviii. 57, and n. 4213.

8. And (have We not) created
You in pairs,
9. And made your sleep
For rest,
10. And made the night
As a covering,<sup>5891</sup>
11. And made the day
As a means of subsistence ?<sup>5892</sup>
12. And (have We not)
Built over you
The seven firmaments,<sup>5893</sup>
13. And placed (therein)
A Light of Splendour ?<sup>5894</sup>
14. And do We not send down
From the clouds water
In abundance,<sup>5895</sup>
15. That We may produce
Therewith corn and vegetables,
16. And gardens of luxurious growth ?

- ⑭ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ الْمُعْصِرَاتِ مَاءً ثَجَّاجًا

5891. 'The darkness of the night is as a covering. Just as a covering protects us from exposure to cold or heat, so this covering gives us spiritual respite from the bullets of the material world, and from the tiring activities of our own inner exertions. 'The rest in sleep (in verse 9) is supplemented by the covering of the night with which we are provided by God.'

5892. "Subsistence" in English only partly covers the idea of ma'ūsh, which includes every kind of life activity. The Day is specially illuminated, so runs the figure of speech, in order that these life-activities of all kinds may be fully exercised.

5893. See n. 5526 to lxxv. 12 and n. 2876 to xxiii. 17, also xxxvii. 6 and notes there.

5894. That is, the sun. (C), xxv. 61; xxxiii. 46 (where it is used metaphorically for the holy Prophet); and lxxi. 16.

5895. Note how the evidences of God and His beneficence are set out in four groups. (1) Look to external nature on the earth around you (verses 6-7); (2) your own nature, physical, mental and spiritual (verses 8-11); (3) the starry heavens, and the glory of the sun (verses 12-13); and (4) the interdependence of earth, air, and sky in the cycle of water, clouds, rain, corn and gardens, all serving in their several ways to further the whole plan of the World as it affects us. Can you not then believe that a Creator who does this will sort out Good and Evil on an appointed Day with real justice and power?

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① عَمَّ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ

② عَنِ النَّبَأِ الْعَظِيمِ

③ الَّذِي هُمْ فِيهِ مُخْتَلِفُونَ

④ كَلَّا سَيَعْلَمُونَ

⑤ ثُمَّ كَلَّا سَيَعْلَمُونَ

⑥ أَلَمْ تَجْعَلِ الْأَرْضَ مِثْدًا

⑦ وَالْجِبَالِ أَوتَادًا

3889. Great News: usually understood to mean the News or Message of the Resurrection or the Hereafter, about which there were various schools of thought among the Jews and Christians and other nations. There is practically nothing about the Resurrection in the Old Testament, and the Jewish sect of Sadducees even in the time of Christ denied the Resurrection altogether. The Pagan ideas of a future life—if any—varied from place to place and from time to time. Even in the early Christian Church, as we learn from Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, there were contentions in that little community (I. Corinthians, i. 11), and some definitely denied the resurrection of the dead (ib., xv. 12).

Great News may also be translated Great Message or a Message Supreme, as I have translated at xxxviii. 67. In that case it would refer to the Qur-ān, or the Message of Revelation, or the Message of the Holy Prophet, about which there was great contention in those days. As this Message also lays great stress on the Day of Judgment and the Resurrection, the practical result by either mode of interpretation amounts to the same.

3890. See n. 2038 to xvi. 15. Cf. also xiii. 3 and xv. 19. The spacious expanse of the earth may be compared to a carpet, to which the mountains may metaphorically be supposed to act as pegs. The Signs of God are thus enumerated: the great panorama of outer nature (verses 6-7); the creation of Man in pairs, with the succession of rest and work fitting in with the succession of night and day (verses 8-11); the firmaments above, with their splendid lights (verses 12-13); and the clouds and rain and abundant harvests, which knit sky and earth and man together (verses 14-16). These point to God, and God's Message points to the Future Life.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXVIII (Naba).

This beautiful Meccan Sūra is not quite so early as the last (S. lxxvii) nor quite so late as S. lxxvi, but nearer in time to the latter.

It sets forth God's loving care in a fine nature-passage, and deduces from it the Promise of the Future, when Evil will be destroyed and Good will come to its own ; and invites all who have the will, to seek refuge with their Lord.

C. 258.—The Great News for man, in his spiritual Destiny,
 (lxxviii. 1-40) Is the Judgment to come, the Day of Sorting Out.
 Do not the Power, the Goodness, and the Justice
 Of God reveal themselves in all nature ?—
 The Panorama around us, the voice in our souls,
 And the harmony between heaven and earth ?
 That Day is sure to arrive at its time
 Appointed, when behold ! the present order
 Will pass away. Then will the Fruits
 Of Evil appear, and the Fruits of Righteousness.
 God's blessings will be more than the merits of men ;
 But who can argue with the Fountain of Grace ?
 And who can prevent the course of Justice ?
 Let us then, before it becomes too late,
 Betake ourselves to our Lord Most Gracious !

49. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

﴿٤٩﴾ وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَافِرِينَ

50. Then what Message,
29 After that,<sup>5888</sup>
30 Will they believe in?

﴿٥٠﴾ فَبِأَيِّ حَدِيثٍ بَعْدَهُ يُؤْمِنُونَ

5888. "That" may refer to verse 48: they were given plain and clear Guidance, and they refuse to accept it: after that what kind of Message will they accept? The Guidance referred to obviously that of Islam or the Qur-ān.

42. And (they shall have)
Fruits,—all they desire.<sup>5884</sup>

﴿٤٢﴾ وَفَوْكَو بِمَا يَشْتَهُونَ

43. "Eat ye and drink ye
To your heart's content :
For that ye worked
(Righteousness).<sup>5885</sup>

﴿٤٣﴾ كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

44. Thus do We certainly
Reward the Doers of Good.

﴿٤٤﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ

45. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth !

﴿٤٥﴾ وَيَلْوِي مِيزَ الْكَذِبِينَ

46. (O ye Unjust !)
Eat ye and enjoy yourselves
(But) a little while,<sup>5886</sup>
For that ye are Sinners.

﴿٤٦﴾ كُلُوا وَتَمَتَّعُوا قَلِيلًا إِنَّكُمْ تُجْرِمُونَ

47. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth !

﴿٤٧﴾ وَيَلْوِي مِيزَ الْكَذِبِينَ

48. And when it is said
To them, "Prostrate yourselves !"
They do not so.<sup>5887</sup>

﴿٤٨﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ ارْكَعُوا لَا يَرْكَعُونَ

5884. Fruits : see n. 4671 to xliii, 73. where the allegorical meaning of "fruit" and "eating" is explained.

5885. The fruits of righteousness are contentment in this life and the supreme Bliss in the next.

5886. "Eat" is of course symbolical of having the good things of life in this world. It may be that they are only given for a trial. Because their minds and wishes run to wrong things, the opportunities for wrong are multiplied, as the impetus for good or for evil increases progressively. They are asked to believe and repent. But if they do not, they are to be pitied, even for the good things of this life, for they will come to an evil End in the Hereafter.

5887. Prostration is a symbol of humility and a desire to get nearer to God by Prayer and a good life. Those who refuse to adopt this Path are to be pitied : how will they fare at Judgment ?

Be able to speak,<sup>5880</sup>

36. Nor will it be Open to them
To put forth pleas.

37. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth !

38. What will be a Day
Of Sorting out ! We shall
Gather you together
And those before (you) !<sup>5881</sup>

39. Now, if ye have
A trick (or plot),
Use it against Me !<sup>5882</sup>

40. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth !

SECTION 2.

41. As to the Righteous,
They shall be amidst
(Cool) shades and springs
(Of water).<sup>5883</sup>

لَا يَنْطِقُونَ

⑦ وَلَا يُؤْذَنُ لَهُمْ فَيَعْبُدُونَ

⑧ وَيَلُوكُمُ الْكَذِبِينَ

⑨ هَذَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ جَمْعَتَكُمْ وَالْأَوَّلِينَ

⑩ فَإِنْ كَانَ لَكُمْ كَيْدٌ فَكِيدُوا

⑪ وَيَلُوكُمُ الْكَذِبِينَ

⑫ إِنَّ الْتَّقِينَ فِي ظِلِّ وَعُيُونٍ

5880. They will be dumbfounded; i.e. (when read with the next verse) they will not be in a position to put forward any valid defence or plea. Facts will speak too plainly against them. They might perversely try to deny false worship: vi. 23: but their own tongues and limbs will bear witness against them: xxiv. 24. Nor does the fighting out or settling of doctrinal disputes in the Hereafter (xxxix 31) amount to putting forward pleas in defence.

5881. We may suppose this as spoken primarily to the Quraish who were plotting against the Prophet. You may use all your wisdom and that of your ancestors, but you will not be able to defeat God or His Plan. See next verse.

5882. The plots against the holy Prophet were plots against God's Truth, and therefore against God. Can any one hope to profit by such plots? Can any one defeat God's Plan and Purpose? Let them try. They will only ruin themselves, as the Pagan leaders did. There can only be pity for such men. What will be their state in the Hereafter? "Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of God's Truth!"

5883. This is in contrast to the triple shade of smoke and sin for the sinners, which neither gives them coolness nor protects them from the Blazing Fire. In mystic lore the Shades and Springs of Heaven are also interpreted allegorically. The Shade, i.e. Covering, of God's Good Pleasure, will be the greatest Boon of all, and the Spring of God's Love will be inexhaustible.

29. (What will be said :)
"Depart ye to that
Which ye used to reject
As false !

٢٩ أَنْطَلِقُوا إِلَى مَا كُنْتُمْ تُكَذِّبُونَ

30. "Depart ye to a Shadow<sup>5877</sup>
(Of smoke ascending)
In three columns,

٣٠ أَنْطَلِقُوا إِلَى الظِّلِّ ذِي ثَلَاثِ شُعَبٍ

31. " (Which yields) no shade
Of coolness, and is
Of no use against
The fierce Blaze.

٣١ لَا ظِلِيلٌ وَلَا يُغْنِي مِنَ النَّارِ

32. "Indeed it throws about
Sparks (huge) as Forts,<sup>5878</sup>

٣٢ إِنَّمَا تَرْمِي بِشَرٍّ كَالْقَصْرِ

33. "As if there were
(A string of) yellow camels
(Marching swiftly)."<sup>5879</sup>

٣٣ كَأَنَّهُ جَلَاتٌ صُفْرٌ

34. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth !

٣٤ وَيْلٌ يَوْمَ ذِٰلِكَ لِلْكَافِرِينَ

35. What will be a Day
When they shall not

٣٥ هَذَا يَوْمٌ

5877. The Sinners, instead of reposing in cool shades, will only see the blazing Fire. The only shadow they will see will be that of Smoke, ascending in three columns, right, left, and above, i.e., completely enveloping them. But it will give no comfort or coolness. On the contrary, it will contain huge sparks. The triple column may be explained in allegory by the black stain they threw on their life by the misuse of their faculties—converting Love into Hate, Understanding into Superstition and Folly, and Spiritual Insight into Worldly Greed. The Blaze of their Sins is cumulative: the columns of smoke show the kinds of sin, as, in the physical fire, different kinds of fuel give different kinds of smoke.

5878 Qasr: Fort, big building, palace. An alternative reading is Qasar, plural of Qasrat (-ات), meaning bundles of wood used for fuel: Ibn 'Abbās and Bukhārī. I almost prefer this latter reading.

5879. The yellow sparks flying swiftly one after another suggest a string of camels marching swiftly, such as the Arabs of Nejd and central Arabia are so proud of. There is a double allegory. It refers not only to the colour and the rapid succession of sparks, but to the vanity of worldly pride, as much as to say: "your fine yellow camels in which you took such pride in the world are but sparks that fly away and even sting you in the Hereafter!" Smoke with sparks may also assume fantastic shapes like long-necked camels.

22. For a period (of gestation),
Determined (according to need)? <sup>5873</sup>

٢٢ إِلَى قَدَرٍ مَّعْلُومٍ

23. For We do determine
(According to need); for We <sup>5874</sup>
Are the Best to determine (things).

٢٣ فَكَدَرْنَا فَعِمْ الْقَدَرُونَ

24. Ah woe, that Day!
To the Rejecters of Truth!

٢٤ وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَذِبِينَ

25. Have We not made
The earth (as a place)
To draw together

٢٥ أَلَمْ نَجْعَلِ الْأَرْضَ كِفَاتًا

26. The living and the dead, <sup>5875</sup>

٢٦ أَحْيَاءٍ وَأَمْوَاتًا

27. And made therein
Mountains standing firm, <sup>5876</sup>
Lofty (in stature);
And provided for you
Water sweet (and wholesome)?

٢٧ وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا رُوسً شَامِخَاتٍ وَأَسْقَيْنَاكُمْ مَاءً
فُرَاتًا

28. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

٢٨ وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَذِبِينَ

5873. The period roughly of nine months and ten days is subject to many adjustments. In fact throughout our pre-natal as well as post-natal life there are wonderful and nicely-balanced adjustments of which we are ourselves unconscious. Should we not turn in love and gratitude to God our Creator?

5874. Perhaps the life in the womb, in relation to the life after birth, is an allegory for our probationary life on earth in relation to the eternal Life to come. Perhaps, also, our state when we are buried in the tomb suggests an allegory to the life in the womb, in relation to the life in the Hereafter.

5875. What a wonderful parable! The earth is a place where death and life, decay and growth and decay, green grass, stubble, and fuel, corruption and purification jostle together,—one often leading to the other. The drama which we see with our own eyes in this world should enable us to appreciate the wonders in the spiritual world where the despised and rejected receive the highest honour, Lazarus rests in Abraham's bosom, and the Pharaoh is led in chains for his arrogance and his sin.

5876. See n. 2038 to xvi. 15. The solid mountains are frequently referred to: c/. xiii. 3. The parable here is that the mountains are of hard, solid rock, and yet they act as sponges to collect, store up, and filter sweet and wholesome water, which on account of their altitude they are able to distribute by gravity to the lower, dry land by means of rivers or springs. Any one who has seen the parched Meccan valleys and the delicious springs in the mountains around, or the Zubaida Canal, which is the main source of Mecca's water-supply, will appreciate the aptness of the metaphor, but it applies to any country, though not to so striking a degree. If the wisdom and power of God can do such things before your eyes, how can you reject His teaching of a still more wonderful future Life?

13. For the Day of Sorting out.<sup>5869</sup>

14. And what will explain
To thee what is
The Day of Sorting out?

15. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

16. Did We not destroy
The men of old<sup>5870</sup>
(For their evil)?

17. So shall We make
Later (generations)
Follow them.

18. Thus do We deal
With men of sin.

19. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

20. Have We not created
You from a fluid
(Held) despicable?—<sup>5871</sup>

21. The which We placed
In a place of rest,
Firmly fixed,<sup>5872</sup>

⑬ لِيَوْمِ الْفَصْلِ

⑭ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ

⑮ وَنَلَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَذِبِينَ

⑯ أَأَرَأَيْتَ الْأَوَّلِينَ

⑰ ثُمَّ نُنْعِمُهُمُ الْآخِرِينَ

⑱ كَذَلِكَ نَفْعَلُ بِالْجَارِينَ

⑲ وَنَلَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَذِبِينَ

⑳ أَلَمْ نَخْلُقْكُمْ مِنْ مَّاءٍ مَّهِينٍ

㉑ فَجَعَلْنَاهُ فِي قَرَارٍ مَكِينٍ

5869. Cf. xxxvii, 21 and n. 4047; also xlv, 40, and n. 4718. That will be the Day of Judgment or Day of Decision. Good will then be completely separated from Evil. And the men who rejected Truth and flourished on Falsehood will find that in the world of Realities they will be absolutely nowhere. Hence the refrain of this Sûra, "Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Truth!" It sounds like a dirge on Sin.

5870. God's Law is always the same. Sin or corruption prepares its own destruction. It was so with the generation of Noah. In Arab tradition it was so with the 'Ad and the Thamûd. In our own day we see relics of prehistoric civilisations, in Egypt, Mesopotamia, the Indus Valley, and the Egean: these were men of wonderful skill and resource, but they went under. If our generations, which pride themselves on their science and skill, desert God's Law, they will be certain to meet the same fate.

5871. Cf. xxxii, 8, n. 3638. Man is ashamed of the process of physical creation, by which he comes into being. Yet he is arrogant in life and neglectful of the Future.

5872. See n. 2873 to xxiii, 13. The silent growth in the mother's womb, and the protection and sustenance which the growing life receives from the life of the mother, are themselves wonders of creation.

5. Then spread abroad
A Message,<sup>5866</sup>

⑤ فَأَلْقَيْتَ ذِكْرًا

6. Whether of Justification
Or of Warning ,

⑥ عَذْرًا أَوْ تَذَرًا

7. Assuredly, what ye are Promised must come to pass.

⑦ إِنَّمَا تُوْعَدُونَ تَوْعِجٌ

8. When when the stars
Become dim ;<sup>5867</sup>

⑧ فَإِذَا الْجُومُ طُمِسَتْ

9. When the heaven
Is cleft asunder ;

⑨ وَإِذَا السَّمَاءُ فُرِجَتْ

10. When the mountains are
Scattered (to the winds) as dust ;

⑩ وَإِذَا الْجِبَالُ سُفِفَتْ

11. And when the apostles
Are (all) appointed a time
(To collect) ;—<sup>5868</sup>

⑪ وَإِذَا الرُّسُلُ أُقِنَتْ

12. For what Day are these
(Portents) deferred ?

⑫ لِأَيِّ يَوْمٍ أُخِّلَتْ

5866. If we understand the reference to Prophets or Messengers of God, or the verses of Revelation which would be particularly appropriate for verses 5-6, we also get a satisfactory solution of the Allegory. (1) The Prophets have followed one another in a series : the verses of the Qur-ān came, one after another as needed ; in both cases it was for man's spiritual profit ; (2) they caused great disturbance in a spiritually decadent world ; they pulled down evil institutions root and branch, and substituted new ones ; (3) they proclaimed their truths far and wide, without fear and without favour ; (4) through them were sorted out men of Faith and rebels against God's Law ; and (5) they gave a Message, through which just men were justified through repentance, and evil men were warned of their sins.

Some Commentators take one or other of these allegories, and some apply one allegory to a few of these verses, and another to another few. In my opinion the Allegory is wide enough to comprehend all the meanings which I have sketched. I wish a translation could do justice to those marvellously terse sentences in the original.

5867. Now, in four verses (8-11), we are told, again allegorically, though we can take them literally if we like, the things that will happen in those last days. The lustre of the stars will become dim ; in fact they will disappear : cf. lxxxii. 2, and lxxxii. 2. The heaven's canopy will be torn asunder : cf. lxxxii. 1, and lxxxiii. 18. The mountains will be uprooted and fly about like dust ; cf. lxxxiii. 14 ; lxxxii. 3 ; etc. All the old landmarks of the physical world as we know it will be swept away.

5868. The Resurrection will be established. In the world which will then have passed away, inspired Prophets had been sent in succession at different times to all nations. Now they will be gathered together in one place before the Judgment-seat to bear witness as to the righteous or the evil ones within their respective spheres of work. Cf. xxxix. 69.

S ra LXXVII.

*Mursalāt, or Those Sent Forth.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. By the (Winds) Sent Forth<sup>5863</sup>
One after another
(To man's profit);<sup>5864</sup>

① وَالْمُرْسَلَاتِ عُزْفًا

2. Which then blow violently
In tempestuous Gusts,<sup>5865</sup>

② فَالْعَصْفَاتِ عَصْفًا

3. And scatter (things)
Far and wide ;

③ وَالنَّشْرِ نَشْرًا

4. Then separate them,
One from another,

④ فَالْفَرَقَاتِ فَرَقًا

5863. This highly mystical Sūra begins with an appeal to five things, as pointing to the substantive statement in verse 7, that the Day of Justice and Judgment is bound to come, and we must prepare for it. It is difficult to translate, but easy to understand, if we remember that a triple thread of allegory runs through this passage (verses 1-7). The five things or phases, which will be presently considered in detail, refer to (a) Winds in the physical world, (b) Angels in the spiritual world, and (c) Prophets in the human world, connecting it with the spiritual world.

5864. Understanding the reference to Winds, we can see that they are powerful factors in the government of the physical world. (1) They come gently as harbingers of the blessings of rain and fertility (xv. 22 ; xxx. 48) ; but (2) they can come as violent tornadoes, uprooting and destroying (ii. 41-42) ; (3) they can scatter seeds far and wide, and (4) they can separate chaff from grain, or clear the air from epidemics ; and (5) they literally carry sound, and therefore Messages, and metaphorically they are instrumental in making God's Revelation accessible to hearers, whether by way of justification or repentance for the Penitent, or warning for unrepentant Sinners. All these things point to the power and goodness of God, and we are asked to believe that His promise of Mercy and Justice in the Hereafter is indeed true.

Cf. this passage with ii. 1-6 (ġāriyāt) with which it has many affinities.

5865. If we understand the reference to be, not to Winds, but to Angels, they are agencies in the spiritual world, which carry out similar functions, changing and revolutionising the face of the world. (1) They come softly, on beneficent errands of Mercy ; (2) they are charged with the mission of punishment and destruction for sin, as in the case of the two angels who came to Lūṭ (xv. 57-66) ; (3) they distribute God's Mercies as the Winds distribute good seeds ; (4) they sort out the good from the evil among men ; and (5) they are the agency through which God's Messages and Revelations are conveyed to the Prophets (see No. 5 in the last note).

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXVII (Mursalāt).

This Sūra belongs to the early Meccan period, somewhere near to S. lxxv. (Qiyāmat). The theme is somewhat similar. It denounces the horrors of the Hereafter, for those who rejected Truth. The refrain, "Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Truth!" which occurs ten times in its fifty verses, or, on an average, once in every five verses, indicates the leitmotif.

C. 257.—The winds in the world of nature are types
 (lxxvii. 1-50.) Of God's Bounty and Power: they gently bring
 The beneficent rain, and when roused to wrath,
 They clean the world and wipe out Infection.
 So works God's Revelation, in sunshine
 And storm. It will root out Evil, and restore
 True values at Judgment. Truly terrible
 Will be that Day for the evil ones.
 It will be a Day of Sorting out:
 Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Truth!
 Will man not learn from his own little story,
 Or from nature around him? The Blazing Fire
 Will be indeed an enveloping Punishment.
 How dreadful the contrast with the Bliss of the Righteous!
 Learn, ye, therefore, Humility, and approach
 God's Throne in Repentance and Earnest Endeavour.

For God is full of Knowledge and Wisdom.

إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا

31. He will admit
To His Mercy Whom He will; <sup>5862</sup>
But the wrong-doers,—
For them has He prepared
A grievous Penalty.

③ يُدْخِلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ وَالظَّالِمِينَ
أَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

---

5862. That is, 'according to His just and wise Plan. If the will is right, it obtains God's Grace and Mercy. If the will of man rejects God, man must suffer the Penalty.

C thy Lord morning
And evening,

رَبِّكَ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا

26. And part of the night,
Prostrate thyself to Him;
And glorify Him <sup>5857</sup>
A long night through.

٢٦ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسُجِّدْ لَهُ وَسَبِّحْهُ لَيْلًا طَوِيلًا

27. As to these, they love
The fleeting life,
And put away behind them <sup>5858</sup>
A Day (that will be) hard.

٢٧ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ يُحِبُّونَ الْعَاجِلَةَ وَيَذُرُونَ
وَرَاءَهُمْ يَوْمًا ثَقِيلًا

28. It is We Who created
Them, and We have made
Their joints strong; <sup>5859</sup>
But, when We will,
We can substitute
The like of them <sup>5860</sup>
By a complete change.

٢٨ لَنَحْنُ خَالِقُهُمْ وَشَدَدْنَا أَسْرَهُمْ
وَإِذَا شِئْنَا بَدَّلْنَا أَمْثَلَهُمْ تَبْدِيلًا

29. This is an admonition:
Whosoever will, let him
Take a (straight) Path
To his Lord.

٢٩ إِنَّ هَذِهِ تَذْكِرَةٌ فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَى
رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا

30. But ye will not,
Except as God wills; <sup>5861</sup>

٣٠ وَمَا تَشَاءُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ

5857. See last note. (2) Humble prostration to God means some visible mode or symbol of dedication. That is best done at night, when the soul, free from worldly occupations, is alone with its God. (3) The weary hours of a long night are no longer weary, but become full of meaning when we join in concert with the whole Creation, which glorifies God: Ivii, 1.

5858. Fleeting life: Cf. lxxv. 20. They: the immediate reference was to the Pagan Quraish; the general reference is to the Unbelievers of all ages. They reject, or at least put away the thought of, a Hereafter, a Day that will be hard, for the easy pleasures of a fleeting life.

5860. If, in spite of God's loving care, any particular men or group of men, misuse their powers or wilfully disobey God's Law, God will set them aside, and substitute others in their place, with like powers. God's gifts are free, but let no one think that he can monopolise them or misuse them without being called to answer for the trust. And the man of God must not be discouraged by the whole world being at some moment completely against him. God can in a moment make a complete change. Either the same men that fought against him will be his zealous adherents, or another generation will spring up, which will carry the flag of Righteousness to victory. God's Will and Plan work in their own good time.

5861. Man in himself is weak; he must seek God's Grace; without it he can do nothing; with it he can do all. For God knows all things, and His wisdom comprehends the good of all.

A Bliss and A Realm Magnificent.

نِعْمًا وَمُلْكًا كَبِيرًا

21. Upon them will be
Green Garments of fine silk
And heavy brocade,
And they will be adorned
With Bracelets of silver ;<sup>5853</sup>
And their Lord will Give to them to drink
Of a Wine
Pure and Holy.<sup>5854</sup>

٢١ عَلَيْهِمْ ثِيَابٌ سُدُسٌ خُضْرٌ وَسُدُسٌ أَبْيَضٌ
وَحُلُوفٌ أُسْوَدَ مِنْ فِضَّةٍ وَسَقَاهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ شَرَابًا
طَهُورًا

22. " Verily this is a Reward
For you, and your Endeavour
Is accepted and recognised."

٢٢ إِنَّ هَذَا كَانَ لَكُمْ جَزَاءً وَكَانَ سَعْيُكُمْ مَشْكُورًا

SECTION 2.

23. It is We Who
Have sent down the Qur-an
To thee by stages.<sup>5855</sup>

٢٣ إِنَّا نَخْزِنُ أَنْزَالَهُ عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ أَنْ نَزِيلًا

24. Therefore be patient
With constancy to the Command
Of thy Lord, and hearken not
To the sinner or the ingrate
Among them.

٢٤ فَاصْبِرْ بِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ وَلَا تُطِعْ مِنْهُمْ آثِمًا
أَوْ كَفُورًا

25. And celebrate the name<sup>5856</sup>

٢٥ وَأَذْكُرْ اسْمَهُ

5853. Cf. xviii. 31. The bracelets are there said to be of gold. But as the whole thing is symbolic to convey the idea of rarity and costliness, either gold or silver serves the purpose of symbolism. See n. 5847 above.

5854. This would seem to be the culmination of the honour which the Blessed receive at the Royal and Divine Banquet. The Wine Pure and Holy is the Sight, metaphorically, in 90th language, of the Face and Eyes of God. The words in the next verse express the sort of speech which will make the Guest a denizen of Heaven.

5855. The Qur-An was being revealed stage by stage as the occasion demanded, and at the date of this Sūra it was still one of the earlier stages. Persecution, abuse, and false charges were being levelled against the man of God, but he is bidden to stand firm and do his duty. In a minor degree this applies to all of us who suffer in the cause of Truth.

5856. Three methods of Prayer and Devotion are mentioned : (1) to remember and celebrate the holy name of God always ; (2) to spend a part of the night in humble prostration ; and (3) to glorify Him in the long hours of a weary night of waiting and watching. As to (1), "morning and evening" means all the waking hours of our life, but in the special hours of morning and evening, the physical world without us, and the inner world within us, combine to make us specially receptive of spiritual influences. "Name" has a mystic meaning. The "name" of God includes His attributes, as a locked golden casket might include priceless jewels. Any one may carry the casket, even though he may not be worthy to handle the jewels. If he carries the casket, he is in potential possession of the jewels, and he hopes some time to get the key which opens the jewels to him. So the tyro, who celebrates the holy name of God, hopes some day to see the "Face" of God and be blessed with the privilege of proximity to His Person. For (2) and (3) see next note.

15. And amongst them will be Passed round vessels of silver<sup>5847</sup>
And goblets of crystal,—

١٥ وَيُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِآنِيَةٍ مِنْ فِضَّةٍ وَأَكْوَابٍ
كَانَتْ قَوَارِيرًا

16. Crystal-clear, made of silver :<sup>5848</sup>
They will determine
The measure thereof
(According to their wishes).

١٦ قَوَارِيرًا مِنْ فِضَّةٍ قَدَّرُوهَا تَقْدِيرًا

17. And they will be given
To drink there of a Cup
(Of Wine) mixed<sup>5849</sup>
With Zanjabil,—

١٧ وَيُسْقَوْنَ فِيهَا كَأْسًا كَانَ مِنْ جِجَارٍ نَجِيًّا

18. A fountain there,
Called Salsabil.<sup>5850</sup>

١٨ عَيْنًا فِيهَا تُسَمَّى سَلْسَبِيلًا

19. And round about them
Will (serve) youths
Of perpetual (freshness) :<sup>5851</sup>
If thou seest them,
Thou wouldst think them
Scattered Pearls.<sup>5852</sup>

١٩ *وَيَطُوفُ عَلَيْهِمْ وِلْدَانٌ مُخَلَّدُونَ إِذَا رَأَيْتَهُمْ
حَسِبْتَهُمْ لُؤْلُؤًا مَنْشُورًا

20. And when thou lookest,
It is there thou wilt see

٢٠ وَإِذَا رَأَيْتَ ثَمَّ رَأَيْتَ

5847. Cf. xliii. 71, where "dishes and goblets of gold" are mentioned. As the whole thing is symbolical, gold or silver, or crystal does not matter. The idea conveyed is that of rarity, preciousness, and spotless splendour.

5848. That is, silver polished and white, and shining like crystal.

5849. Cf. above, lxxvi. 5-6, and n. 5835, where the Cup of Kā'ūr (Camphor) was mentioned for coolness and refreshment to the Righteous, who had just passed the great Event of Judgment. The second stage is symbolised by verses 12-14, when they enter the Garden in Garments of Silk, and find that their former humility in the probationary life is rewarded with high honour in the new world they have entered. The third stage is in verses 15-21, where they settle down in Bliss, with Garments of fine silk and heavy brocades, with Ornaments and Jewels, with an ordered Feast of set service, and the Cup of Zanjabil. This word literally means Ginger. In Eastern medicine Ginger is administered to give warmth to the body and zest to the taste. Metaphorically, this is appropriate for the Royal Feast which is now figured forth.

5850. This fountain Salsabil brings us another metaphorical idea. The word literally means: "Seek the Way". The Way is now open to the presence of the Most High. The Banquet is spread. Get thyself ready. It is a "Realm Magnificent" (verse 20) in a new spiritual world.

5851. Cf. lvi. 17, and n. 5231.

5852. Pearls for beauty and splendour; scattered, because they are moving to and fro all round the Banquet.

9. (Saying), " We feed you
For the sake of God alone ;
No reward do we desire
From you, nor thanks.<sup>5840</sup>

⑩ إِنَّمَا نَطْعِمُكُمْ لَوَجْهِ اللَّهِ لَا نُرِيدُ مِنْكُمْ جَزَاءً
وَلَا شُكْرًا

10. " We only fear a Day
Of distressful Wrath
From the side of our Lord." <sup>5841</sup>

⑪ إِنَّا نَخَافُ مِنْ ذُنُوبِنَا يَُوْمًا عَبَّوسًا قَطَطًا

11. But God will deliver
Them from the evil
Of that Day, and will
Shed over them a Light <sup>5842</sup>
Of Beauty and
A (blissful) Joy.

⑫ فَوَقَّهَهُ اللَّهُ شِرْكَ ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمِ وَلَقَّاهُمْ نَضْرَةً
وَسُرُورًا

12. And because they were
Patient and constant, He will Reward them with a Garden
And (garments of) silk. <sup>5843</sup>

⑬ وَجَزَّاهُمْ بِمَا صَبَرُوا جَنَّةً وَحَرِيرًا

13. Reclining in the (Garden)
On raised thrones, <sup>5844</sup>
They will see there neither
The sun's (excessive heat)
Nor (the moon's) excessive cold. <sup>5845</sup>

⑭ مُتَكِّينَ فِيهَا عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ لَا يَرَوْنَ فِيهَا
شَمْسًا وَلَا زَمْهَرِيرًا

14. And the shades of the (Garden)
Will come low over them
And the bunches (of fruit),
There, will hang low
In humility. <sup>5846</sup>

⑮ وَدَانِيَةً عَلَيْهِمْ ظِلُّهَا وَذُلَّتْ قُطُوفُهَا نِزْلًا

5840. These words need not be actually uttered. They express the true motives of pious and unpretentious Charity.

5841. It is a Day of Wrath for sin and evil. But the truly righteous are not self-righteous. They have the fear of God in their minds: they know they are human, and they fear lest they should be found wanting in the sight of God. But God in His Mercy gives them a bountiful Reward.

5842. Cf. lxxv. 22-23.

5843. Cf. xxii. 23.

5844. Cf. xviii. 31.

5845. The sun and the moon as we know them will be no longer there. It will be a new world on a different plane. But to give us an idea of comfort we recall the excessive heat of the sun especially in tropical climates, and the excessive cold of the moon especially in northern climates, and we negate them both. That is, the temperature metaphorically will be just that delightful one that is most agreeable to our sensations as we know them now. The moon is not mentioned, but Zamharir (excessive cold) is sometimes used for the moon.

5846. Without sun and moon there will of course be no shade in the literal sense of the word. But for full comfort in the metaphor, there will be sheltering shade for rest and change from whatever light there be. But the whole idea in the metaphor here is that of humility. Even the shadows show humility: cf. xiii. 15. So does the fruit in hanging low for man. Man has now reached the height of his dignity.

Chains, Yokes, and
A Blazing Fire,<sup>5834</sup>

5. As to the Righteous,
They shall drink
Of a Cup (of Wine)
Mixed with Kāfūr,—<sup>5835</sup>

6. A Fountain where
The Devotees of God
Do drink, making it
Flow in unstinted abundance.

7. They<sup>5836</sup> perform (their) vows,<sup>5837</sup>
And they fear a Day
Whose evil flies far and wide.<sup>5838</sup>

8. And they feed, for the love
Of God, the indigent,
The orphan, and the captive,—<sup>5839</sup>

سَلْسِلًا وَأَغْلَالًا وَسَعِيرًا

﴿إِنَّا لِلْأَبْرَارِ لَيَشْرَبْنَ مِنْ كَأْسٍ كَانَ مِزَاجُهَا
كَافُورًا﴾

﴿عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا عِبَادُ اللَّهِ يُفَجِّرُونَهَا تَفْجِيرًا﴾

﴿يُوفُونَ بِالنَّذْرِ وَيَخَافُونَ يَوْمًا كَانَ شَرُّهُ
مُسْتَوِيرًا﴾

﴿وَيُطْعِمُونَ الطَّعَامَ عَلَى حُبِّهِ مِسْكِينًا وَيَتِيمًا
وَأَسِيرًا﴾

5834. There is deep mystic symbolism here. All sin or wrong-doing binds the sinner in a chain of causes and effects, in which he loses his native liberty. It puts the yokes of custom, confirmed habits, and superstitions, which lie like a load on his spirit and choke his finer instincts. It lights the fire of passion, hate, spite, envy, and despair, from which it is difficult to escape to the refreshing waters of the Mercy of God. These refreshing waters come naturally to the Righteous: see next note.

5835. Kāfūr is literally Camphor. Symbolically it represents a fountain in the Realms of Bliss. It is a seasoning added to the Cup of pure, beatific Wine, which causes no intoxication (lvi. 18-19), but stands for all that is wholesome, agreeable, and refreshing. Camphor is cool and refreshing, and is given as a soothing tonic in Eastern medicine. In minute doses its odour and flavour are also agreeable.

5836. They: i.e. the Righteous: they are known in the present life by the virtues symbolically described in verses 7-10, and in the life of the Hereafter they will enjoy the Bliss symbolically described in verses 11-22.

5837. Cf. xii. 29. The vows must be vows of spiritual service, which of course includes service to humanity, such as is mentioned in the next verse. They are Devotees of God, and they must perform all vows and contracts (v. 1 and n. 682). Vows of the Pagan sort, savouring of a sort of "bribe" to the Deity, are not approved.

5838. That is, they prepare for the Judgment to come, where the effects of Sin will not be transitory but far-reaching.

5839. The captive: when taken literally, it refers to the old state of things when captives of war had to earn their own food, or their own redemption; even ordinary prisoners in jail for criminal offences often starved unless food was provided for them by private friends or from their own earnings. But there is a further symbolic meaning, which applies to the indigent, the orphans, and the captives, viz., those who are so in a spiritual sense: those who have no mental or moral resources, or have no one to look after them, or are held down in social or moral or economic captivity. They hunger for spiritual food, or perhaps their appetite is deadened, but the Righteous understand and supply their real needs. It has also been held that "captives" include dumb animals who are under subjection to man; they must be properly fed, housed, and looked after; and the righteous man does not forget them.

Sora LXXVI.

Dahr, or Time,
or Insān, or Man.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Was there not been <sup>5830</sup>
Over Man a long period
Of Time, <sup>5831</sup> when he was Nothing—(not even) mentioned?

2. Verily We created
Man from a drop
Of mingled sperm, <sup>5832</sup>
In order to try him :
So We gave him (the gifts).
Of Hearing and Sight.

3. We showed him the Way :
Whether he be grateful
Or ungrateful (rests <sup>5833</sup>
On his will).

4. For the Rejecters
We have prepared

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① هَلْ أَتَى عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ حِينٌ مِّنَ الدَّهْرِ لَمْ يَكُن شَيْئًا
مَّذْكُورًا

② إِنَّا خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ أَمْشَاجٍ مَّتَّكِلَةٍ
فَجَعَلْنَاهُ سَمِيعًا بَصِيرًا

③ إِنَّا هَدَيْنَاهُ السَّبِيلَ إِمَّا شَاكِرًا وَإِمَّا كَافِرًا

④ إِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ

5830. The undoubted fact is mentioned in the form of a question, to get the assent of man. It is certain that the physical world existed long before man was ever heard of or mentioned, as geological records prove. It is also true that the spiritual world existed long before man came on the scene: see li, 30-31. Man is here taken in a generic sense.

5831. Dahr is Time as a whole, or for a long period. Time used to be deified by the Pagan Arabs, as explained in the Introduction to this Sura. An analogy can be found in the Greek ideas connected with Chronos or Kronos, themselves a blend of different myths. Kronos (or Time), they said, was the father of Zeus himself.

5832. Mingled: the female ovum has to be fertilised with the male sperm before a new animal can be born. Man as an animal has this humble origin. But he has been given the gift of certain faculties of receiving instruction (typified by Hearing) and of intellectual and spiritual insight (typified by Sight). His life has therefore a meaning: with a certain amount of free-will, he is to be God's vicegerent on earth (ii, 30). But he must be trained and tried, and that is the whole problem of human life.

5833. Besides the gift of the faculties, Man has been shown the Way by means of Revelation, through men of the highest spiritual standing. If he is grateful, he will accept Guidance, be of the Righteous, and join the company of the Blessed. If not, he rejects his destiny, puts chains round himself, thus losing his freedom yokes round himself, thus burdening himself with sin, and gets into the Blazing Fire of Punishment, which scorches his inmost being. See next verse. His choice rests on his will.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXVI (Dahr).

The revelation of this Sūra was probably in the early Meccan period, with the possible exception of some verses, but its date has no significance.

Its theme is the contrast between the two classes of men, those who choose good and those who choose evil, with special reference to the former.

The title of the Sūra recalls a Pagan Arab idea, which personified Time as existing spontaneously from eternity to eternity and responsible for the misery or the happiness of mankind. In xlv. 24 we read : "They say ..'nothing but Time can destroy us'." This attitude is of course wrong. Time is a created thing : it has its mysteries, but it is no more eternal than matter. It is also relative to our conceptions and not absolute, as Einstein has proved. It is only God Who is Self Subsisting, Eternal from the beginning and Eternal to the end, the absolute Existence and Reality. We must not transfer His attributes to any figments of our imagination.

This deification of Time (Dahr) as against a living personal God has given rise to the term dahrīya, as applied to an atheist or a materialist.

The whole of the Sūra is full of the highest symbolism, as is generally the case with Meccan Sūras, and this should always be remembered in their interpretation.

C. 256.—Man was evolved out of nothing, and through low
(lxxvi. 1-31.) Beginnings; but he was given Insight
And Understanding. God showed him the Way;
And if man doth wilfully reject the Right,
Man but chooses Chains and Yokes and a Blazing Fire within his own soul. Not so
The Devotees of Right: they attain
The Mystic Fountain of Kafūr:
For, purely out of love for God,
They do good to God's Creatures, and serve them.
The Light of Beauty and Joy will be
On them. In full felicity and honour
Will they live in the garden of Delights, and share
In the Banquet—the Presence and Glory Divine!

* * * *

The Righteous are patient in Constant Devotion:
God's Way is open to all: whosoever
Has the Will, may attain to the Perfect Goal.

32. But on the contrary,
He rejected Truth
And turned away!

٣٢ وَلَٰكِن كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّىٰ

33. Then did he stalk
To his family
In full conceit! <sup>5827</sup>

٣٣ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِ يَمْتَطِلُ

34. Woe to thee,
(O man!), yea, woe!

٣٤ أَوَلَيْكَ فَأُولَىٰ

35. Again, woe to thee,
(O man!), yea, woe!

٣٥ ثُمَّ أَوَلَيْكَ فَأُولَىٰ

36. Does Man think
That he will be left
(Uncontrolled, (without purpose)? <sup>5828</sup>

٣٦ أَيْخِسِبُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنْ يُتْرَكَ سُدًى

37. Was he not a drop
Of sperm emitted
(In lowly form)? <sup>5829</sup>

٣٧ أَلَمْ يَكُنْ نُطْفَةً مِّنْ مَّنِيٍّ يُنْفَخِ

38. Then did he become
A leech-like clot;
Then did (God) make
And fashion (him)
In due proportion.

٣٨ ثُمَّ كَانَ عَلَقَةً فَخَلَقَ فَسَوَّىٰ

39. And of him He made
Two sexes, male
And female.

٣٩ فَعَمَلَ مِنْهُ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَىٰ

40. Has not He, (the same),
The power to give life
To the dead?

٤٠ أَلَيْسَ ذَلِكَ بِقَدِيرٍ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يُحْيِيَ الْمَوْتَىٰ

5827. Conceit or arrogance is the root-cause of most Evil. By that cause fell Iblis : see ii. 34.

5828. Sudan : has many implications : (1) uncontrolled, free to do what he likes ; (2) without any moral responsibility ; not accountable for his actions ; (3) without a purpose, useless ; (4) forsaken.

5829. Cf. xxii. 5, where the argument is developed in greater detail. The briefer argument here may be stated thus. His lowly animal origin makes him no higher than a brute ; his foetal development is still that of a brute animal ; then at some stage come human limbs and shape ; the divine spirit is poured into him, and he is fashioned in due proportion for his higher destiny. In spite of that the mystery of sex remains in his nature : we are living souls, yet men and women. God Who creates these wonders,—has He not the power to bring the dead to life at the Resurrection ?

24. And some faces, that Day,
Will be sad and dismal,

① وَوُجُوهُ يُومِذِمٌ بِأَسْرَةٍ

25. In the thought that some Back-breaking calamity was about
To be inflicted on them ;

② تَظُنُّ أَنْ يُفْعَلَ بِهَا فَاقِرَةٌ

26. Yea, when (the soul) <sup>5823</sup>
Reaches to the collar-bone
(In its exit),

③ كَلَّا إِذَا بَلَغَتِ التَّرَاقِي

27. And there will be a cry,
" Who is a magician
(To restore him) ? "

④ وَقِيلَ مَنْ رَاقٍ

28. And he <sup>5824</sup> will conclude
That it was (the Time)
Of Parting ;

⑤ وَظَنَّ أَنَّهُ الْفِرَاقُ

29. And one leg will be <sup>5825</sup>
Joined with another :

⑥ وَالنَّعَبِ السَّاقِ بِالسَّاقِ

30. That Day the Drive
Will be (all) to thy Lord !

⑦ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ السَّاقُ

SECTION 2.

31. So he gave nothing
In charity, nor
Did he pray !—<sup>5826</sup>

⑧ فَلَا صَدَقَ وَلَا صَلَّى

5823. A symbolic picture of the agony of death.

5824. He—the dying man, whose soul is referred to in verse 26 above.

5825. When the soul has departed, the legs of the dead body are placed together in position, in preparation for the rites preliminary to the burial. Sāq (literally, leg) may also be taken metaphorically to mean a calamity : calamity will be joined to calamity for the poor departed sinner's soul, as his life-story in this world is now done. Willy-nilly, he will now have to go before the Throne of Judgment.

5826. His indictment in this and the succeeding verse consists of four counts : (1) he neglected prayer ; (2) he neglected charity ; (3) he rejected Truth ; and (4) he turned away. In lxxiv. 43-46, the four counts are : (1) neglecting prayer ; (2) neglecting charity ; (3) talking vanities ; (4) denying the Day of Judgment ; see n. 5803. Nos. (1) and (2) are identical in both places, and Nos. (3) and (4) are analogous. Rejecting the truth is equivalent to talking vanities and making an alliance with falsehoods. Denying the Day of Judgment means behaving as if no account was to be given of our actions, i.e. turning away from right conduct. An additional touch is found here in verse 33. See next note.

16. Move not thy tongue
Concerning the (Qur-ān)
To make haste therewith.<sup>5820</sup>

⑦ لَا تَجْعَلْ يَدَيْكَ لِسَاقِكَ لَتِيجًا يَوْمَ

17. It is for Us to collect it
And to promulgate it :

⑧ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا جَمْعَهُ وَقُرْآنَهُ

18. But when We have Promulgated it, follow thou
Its recital (as promulgated) :

⑨ فَإِذَا قُرِئَتْ فَاتَّبِعْ قُرْآنَهُ

19. Nay more, it is
For us to explain it
(And make it clear) :

⑩ ثُمَّ إِنَّا عَلَيْنَا يَكَاةٌ

20. Say, (ye men!)
But ye love
The fleeting life,<sup>5821</sup>

⑪ كَذَّابٌ تُحِبُّونَ الْعَاجِلَةَ

21. And leave alone
The Hereafter.

⑫ وَتَذَرُونَ الْآخِرَةَ

22. Some faces, that Day,<sup>5822</sup>
Will beam (in brightness
And beauty) ;—

⑬ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ مُّنِيرَةٌ

23. Looking towards their Lord ;

⑭ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ

5820 Cf. xx. 114, and n. 2639 : " Be not in haste with the Qur-ān before its revelation to thee is completed." S lxxv. is an earlier revelation, and the shade of meaning is slightly different. The immediate meaning was that the holy Prophet was to allow the revelation conveyed to him to sink into his mind and heart and not to be impatient about it ; God would certainly complete it according to His Plan, and see that it was collected and preserved for men, and not lost ; that the inspired one was to follow it and recite it as the inspiration was conveyed to him ; and that it carries its own explanation according to the faculties bestowed by God on man. The general meaning follows the same lines : we must not be impatient about the inspired Word ; we must follow it as made clear to us by the faculties given to us by God.

5822. This passage (especially with reference to verses 26-28) would seem to refer to what our Doctors call the Lesser Judgment (Qiyāmat-ul-ṣ-Ṣuḡrā), which takes place immediately after death, and not to the Greater or General Judgment, which may be supposed to be referred to in such passages as occur in S. lvi. There are other passages referring to the Lesser Judgment immediately after death ; e.g. vii 37. etc If I understand aright, the punishment of sin takes place in three ways : (1) it may take place in this very life, but this may be deferred, to give the sinner respite ; (2) it may be an agony immediately after death, with the Partition or Barzakh (xxiii. 100) separating the sinner from the final Resurrection ; and (3) in the final Resurrection, when the whole of the present order gives place to a wholly new World : xiv. 48.

7. At length, when
The Sight is dazed,<sup>5815</sup>

⑦ فَإِذَا بَرَقَ الْبَصَرُ

8. And the moon is Buried in darkness.<sup>5816</sup>

⑧ وَخَسَفَ الْقَمَرُ

9. And the sun and moon
Are joined together,—<sup>5817</sup>

⑨ وَجُمِعَ الشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ

10. That Day will Man say :
" Where is the refuge ? "

⑩ يَقُولُ الْإِنْسَانُ يَوْمَئِذٍ أَيْنَ الْمَفْزُ

11. By no means !
No place of safety

⑪ كَلَّا لَا وَزَرَ

12. Before thy Lord (alone),
That Day will be
The place of rest.

⑫ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْمُسْتَقَرُّ

13. That Day will Man
Be told (all) that he
Put forward, and all
That he put back.<sup>5818</sup>

⑬ يُنَبِّئُ الْإِنْسَانُ يَوْمَئِذٍ بِمَا قَدَّمَ وَأَخَّرَ

14. Nay, man will be Evidence against himself,<sup>5819</sup>

⑭ بَلِ الْإِنْسَانُ عَلَىٰ نَفْسِهِ بَصِيرَةٌ

15. Even though he were
To put up his excuses.

⑮ وَلَوْ أَنِّي مَعَاذِيرُهُ

5815. At the Hour of Judgment the full light and glory of the Lord will shine, and the effulgence will daze man's eyes. For the world as we knew it will go to pieces and a new World will come into being.

5816 Not only will man's sight be dazed, but the great luminaries themselves will lose their light. The moon with its present reflected light will then cease to shine. All reflected or relative truth or goodness will sink into nothing before the true and only Reality.

5817. To the moon the sun is the original light, but the sun itself is a created light, and it will sink into nothingness along with the moon. Both will be like empty shells " whose lights are fled, whose glories dead ", because the Prototype of all Light now shines in full splendour in a new World. See n. 4344 to xxxix, 69.

5818. All good and bad deeds, positive and negative, i.e. all sins of commission and omission, and all the good that a man did and all the evil that he omitted, all the influence that he radiated before him and all that he left behind him.

5819. Cf. xxiv. 24, and n. 2976 : " On the Day when their tongues, their hands, and their feet will bear witness against them as to their actions. " It is not what a man says about himself, or what others say of him, that determines judgment about him. It is what he is in himself. His own personality betrays him or commends him.

Sūra LXXV.

Qiyāmat, or the Resurrection.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. I do call to witness <sup>5809</sup>
The Resurrection Day ;

① لَا أَقْسِمُ بِيَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ

2. And I do call to witness
The self-reproaching spirit : <sup>5810</sup>
(Eschew Evil).

② وَلَا أَقْسِمُ بِالنَّفْسِ اللَّوَّامَةِ

3. Does man think that We Cannot assemble his bones ? <sup>5811</sup>

③ أَيْحَسِبُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنْ نَجْمَعَ عِظَامَهُ

4. Nay, We are able to put Together in perfect order
The very tips of his fingers. <sup>5812</sup>

④ بَلَىٰ قَادِرِينَ عَلَىٰ أَنْ نُسَوِّيَ بَنَانَهُ

5. But man wishes to do
Wrong (even) in the time
In front of him. <sup>5813</sup>

⑤ بَلْ يُرِيدُ الْإِنْسَانُ لِيَفْجُرَ أَمَامَهُ

6. He questions : " When <sup>5814</sup>
Is the Day of Resurrection ? "

⑥ يَسْأَلُ أَيَّانَ يَوْمُ الْقِيَمَةِ

5809. Cf. lxx. 40, and n. 5700. Here the point to be enforced is understood : I have added it in brackets : " eschew Evil ". The appeal is made to two considerations : (1) That every act has to be accounted for, and evil must have its recompense at the Resurrection ; and (2) that man's own spirit has a conscience which would reproach him for sin, if he did not suppress that inner voice.

5810. Our doctors postulate three states or stages of the development of the human soul ; (1) Ammāra (xii 53), which is prone to evil, and, if not checked and controlled, will lead to perdition ; (2) Lawwāma, as here, which feels conscious of evil, and resists it, asks for God's grace and pardon after repentance and tries to amend ; it hopes to reach salvation ; (3) Muḥammima (lxxxix 27), the highest stage of all, when it achieves full rest and satisfaction. Our second stage may be compared to Conscience, except that in English usage Conscience is a faculty and not a stage in spiritual development.

5811. The Unbelievers' usual cry is : " What ! when we are reduced to bones and dust, how can our personality be called to account ? " (xvii. 49). The answer is : God has said so, and He will do it ; for the death here is not the end of all things.

5812. An idiom for the most delicate parts of his body.

5813. It is bad enough not to repent of past sins. But the evil-doer who rejects a Day of Reckoning and has no conscience wants to go on in his career of sin and jeopardise his future also.

5814. The question is sceptical or derisive. He does not believe that there is any chain of consequences in the Hereafter. He does not believe in a Hereafter.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXXV (Qiyāmat).

This Sūra belongs to the early Meccan period, but comes chronologically a good deal later than the last two Sūras.

Its subject-matter is the Resurrection, viewed from the point of view of Man, especially unregenerate Man, as he is now, and as he will be then,—his inner and psychological history.

C. 255.—Eschew all Evil: for man was not created
(lxxv. 1-40) Without purpose or without responsibility.
The Day of Account will come, and his own
Conscience bears witness that he
Must walk straight; for he must face
That Day's Realities. With patience await
The unfoldment of God's wise Purpose. Keep
The Hereafter ever in view. The faces
Of the Blest will beam with brightness and beauty.
For the others, Death will be a terror,—
For duties neglected and sins committed.
Woe unto man that he thinks not now
Of God's Purpose and the noble Destiny
For which God gave him Life and its Gifts.

51. Fleeing from a lion !

52. Forsooth, each one of them
Wants to be given<sup>5806</sup>
Scrolls (of revelation) spread out !

53. By no means ! But
They fear not the Hereafter.

54. Nay, this surely
Is an admonition :

55. Let any who will,<sup>5807</sup>
Keep it in remembrance !

56. But none will keep it
In remembrance except
As God wills : He<sup>5808</sup>
Is the Lord of Righteousness,
And the Lord of Forgiveness.

٥١ فَرَّكَ مِنْ قِسْوَةٍ

٥٢ بَلْ يُرِيدُ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ يُؤْتَى

صُحُفًا مَنشُورَةً

٥٣ كَذَلِكَ لَا يَتَخَفُونَ الْآخِرَةَ

٥٤ كَذَلِكَ إِنَّهُ يَدْعُوكَ

٥٥ مَنْ شَاءَ ذَكَرْهُ

٥٦ وَمَا يَذْكُرُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ هُوَ أَهْلُ

النُّقْوَى وَهُوَ أَهْلُ الْمَغْفِرَةِ

5806 Cf. xvii. 93 : "Until thou send down to us a book, that we could read." The Unbelievers pretend in ridicule that they would believe if a special message written on open scrolls and addressed to them severally were brought to them by a miracle ! There is a disease in their hearts and understandings. The Teacher's warning is plain, and enough for any reasonable man who has the will to seek God.

5807. The Qur-an itself is the admonition—the latest among the revealed Books of God. If man has the will to learn, he will keep the Message always before Him, and God's grace will help him to carry it out in his conduct.

5808. Righteousness as well as Forgiveness have their source in God's Will. Man's Righteousness has no meaning except in relation to the universal Will. For Taqwā see n. 26 to ii. 2. If we take the word here in the sense of "the fear of God", the translation would be : "He alone is worthy to be feared, and He alone is entitled to grant Forgiveness."

40. (They will be) in Gardens
(Of Delight): they will Question each other,

④ فِي جَنَّاتٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ

41. And (ask) of the Sinners:

⑤ عَنِ الْجَرِيمِينَ

42. "What led you
Into Hell-Fire?"

⑥ مَا سَلَكَكُمْ فِي سَقَرٍ

43. They will say:
"We were not of those
Who prayed;

⑦ قَالُوا لَوْ أَنَّا كُنَّا نَسْتَلِينَ

44. "Nor were we of those
Who fed the indigent;

⑧ وَلَوْ أَنَّا كُنَّا نَغْفِلُ الْيَتَامَى

45. "But we used to talk
Vanities with vain talkers;

⑨ وَكُنَّا نَخُوضُ مَعَ الْخَائِيضِينَ

46. "And we used to deny
The Day of Judgment,

⑩ وَكُنَّا نَكْذِبُ يَوْمَ الدِّينِ

47. "Until there came to us
(The Hour) that is certain." 5804

⑪ حَتَّىٰ آتَانَا الْيَقِينَ

48. Then will no intercession
Of (any) intercessors
Profit them.

⑫ فَانْفَعُهُمْ شَفَاعَةُ الشَّافِعِينَ

49. When what is
The matter with them
That they turn away
From admonition?— 5805

⑬ فَأَلْهَمَهُمُ الْوَيْدَانَ

50. As if they were
Affrighted asses,

⑭ كَأَنَّهُمْ جَرُمُ مُّسْتَنْفِرَةٌ

5804. C/, xv. 99, and n. 2018. The Hour that is Certain is usually taken to be Death. But it has also a more general meaning, referring to a state of mind in spiritual progress. If there is no faith, the light of Truth is shut out, or put off from time to time, until a crisis comes when the Truth becomes only too real, but the time for repentance is past, and there is only room for the agony of regrets.

5805. If the Day of Judgment is inevitable, it is strange that men should not heed a plain warning, but go on as if they were thoughtless and obstinate asses stampeding from a lion. Instead of heeding the warning, they try to avoid it. They are frightened at God's Word.

33. And by the Night<sup>5799</sup>
As it retreateth,

③ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا دُبِّرَ

34. And by the Dawn
As it shineth forth,—

④ وَالضُّحَىٰ إِذَا أَفْجَرُ

35. This is but one<sup>5800</sup>
Of the mighty (portents),

⑤ إِنَّهَا لَإِحْدَى الْكُبَرِ

36. A warning to mankind,—

⑥ نَذِيرٌ لِلْبَشَرِ

37. To any of you that
Chooses to press forward,
Or to follow behind;—<sup>5801</sup>

⑦ لِمَن شَاءَ مِنْكُمْ أَن يَتَقَدَّمَ أَوْ يَتَأَخَّرَ

38. Every soul will be (held)
In pledge for its deeds.<sup>5802</sup>

⑧ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ رَهِينَةٌ

39. Except the Companions
Of the Right Hand.<sup>5803</sup>

⑨ إِلَّا أَصْحَابَ الْيَمِينِ

5799. (2) The Night when it is illuminated by the Moon is light in a sense, but it is really dark and must give place to (3) the Dawn when it comes, as the harbinger of the Sun. So in spiritual matters, when every soul realises its own responsibility, it will look less and less to reflected lights, and through the beauty of a dawn-like awakening, will be prepared more and more for the splendour of the light of God Himself, the goal of the Heaven of our dreams.

5800. "This is but one," etc. There are numerous Signs of God, of which Judgment is one, and one of the mightiest portents. Or the reference may be to the waning of the Moon, the decline of the night, and the glorious sunrise, as tokens or symbols of the world renewed when the present transitory world-passes away.

5801. Three interpretations are possible. (1) Those pressing forward may be the Righteous, and those following behind may be the laggards, the Unbelievers, who reject God's love, care, and mercy. (2) Men of two kinds of temperament may be referred to: those who are always in the van and those who are always in the rear. God's Message is open to both. But there may be a danger to both: in the one case, over-confidence, or hope in wrong things; in the other case, missing great opportunities so that their spiritual lives may be "bound in shallows and in miseries". Extremes should be avoided. (3) Or it may mean that the warning is effective only for those willing to move forwards or backwards, as the case may be, but is lost on the inert or the lethargic. For our moral and spiritual progress, we have in some cases to go forwards, but in some cases we have to retreat from false positions. The hopeless case is that of the obstinate man, whose heart is so dead that he dares not advance to the right or withdraw from the wrong.

5802. Cf. lvi. 21. Man cannot shift his responsibility to vicarious saviours or saints. His redemption depends upon the grace of God, for which he should constantly and whole-heartedly strive by means of right conduct. If he does so he will be redeemed and he will join the Companions of the Right Hand.

5803. Cf. n. 5223 to lvi. 3, and see lvi. 27-38. The Companions of the Right Hand will be the Righteous or the Blessed in the Hereafter. Their grounds of merit will be Prayer, Charity, Earnestness, and Faith in God's just Judgment: all of which are within the reach of the humblest Seeker. They are not separate acts or virtues, but are all inter-connected. At Judgment, the pledge of their soul will be redeemed by God's Grace at the Taking of the Account.

Only as a trial
 For Unbelievers,—in order
 That the People of the Book
 May arrive at certainty,
 And the Believers may increase
 In Faith,—and that no doubts
 May be left for the People
 Of the Book and the Believers,
 And that those in whose hearts
 Is a disease and the Unbelievers
 May say, "What symbol
 Doth God intend by this?" <sup>5796</sup>
 Thus doth God leave to stray
 Whom He pleaseth, and guide
 Whom He pleaseth: and none
 Can know the forces.
 Of thy Lord, except He. <sup>5797</sup>
 And this is no other than
 A warning to mankind.

SECTION 2.

32. Qay, verily:
 By the Moon, <sup>5798</sup>

لِّلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا۟ وَالْيَسِيقِينَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا۟ الْكِتَابَ وَمِزْدَادِ
 الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا۟ إِلَىٰ يَمِينِنَا وَلَا يَرْتَابَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا۟ الْكِتَابَ
 وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَلَيَقُولَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِم مَّرَضٌ
 وَالْكَافِرُونَ مَاذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ بِهَٰذَا مَثَلًا ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ
 يُضِلُّ اللَّهُ مَن يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَن يَشَاءُ ۚ وَمَا يَعْلَمُ جُنُودَ
 رَبِّكَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَمَا هِيَ إِلَّا ذِكْرَىٰ لِلْبَشَرِ

٣٢ كَلَّا وَالْقَمَرِ

5796. There are four classes of people mentioned here. (1) The Muslims will have their faith increased, because they believe that all revelation, symbolic or otherwise, is from God Most Merciful, and all His forces will work in their favour. (2) The People of the Book, those who had received previous revelations of an analogous character, the Jews and Christians, had numerous sects disputing with each other on minute points of doctrine; but they will now, if they believe, find rest from controversies in a broad symbolical understanding of scripture. (3) Those in whose hearts is a disease (see ii. 8-10, notes 33-34), the insincere ones, the hypocrites, will only be mystified, because they believe nothing and have rejected the grace and mercy of God. (4) The Unbelievers have frankly done the same and must suffer similar consequences.

5797. It is a necessary consequence of moral responsibility and freedom of choice in man, that he should be left free to stray if he chooses to do so, in spite of all the warning and the instruction he receives. God's channels of warning and instruction—His spiritual forces—are infinite, as are His powers. No man can know them. But this warning or reminder is addressed to all mankind.

All things are referred to God. But we must not attribute evil to Him. In iv. 79 we are expressly told that the good comes from God, and the evil from ourselves.

5798. An oath in human speech calls in evidence something sacred in the heart of man. In God's Message, also, when delivered in human language, solemn emphasis is indicated by an appeal to something striking among the Signs of God, which will go straight to the human heart which is addressed. In each case the symbol of the appeal has reference to the particular point enforced in the argument. Here we are asked to contemplate three wonderful phenomena, and they lead up to the conclusion in verse 38. (1) The moon, next after the sun, is the most striking luminary to our sight. Its reflected light has for us even a greater mystery than the direct light of the sun, which looks to us like pure fire. The moon was worshipped as a deity in times of darkness. But in reality, though she rules the night, her rays are only reflections, and are wanting in warmth and vitality. So every soul which looks up to a mere creature of God for a sort of vicarious salvation is in spiritual darkness or error; for the true source of spiritual light and life is God, and God alone. For (2) the Night and (3) the Dawn, see the following note.

27. And what will explain
To thee what Hell-Fire is ?

﴿٧﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا سَقَرٌ

28. Naught doth it permit
To endure, and naught <sup>5792</sup>
Doth it leave alone !—

﴿٨﴾ لَا يَنْبُي وَلَا يَنْدَرُ

29. Darkening and changing
The colour of man !

﴿٩﴾ لَوَاحٍ لِلْبَشَرِ

30. Over it are Nineteen, <sup>5793</sup>

﴿١٠﴾ عَلَيْهَا تِسْعَةَ عَشَرَ

31. And We have set none <sup>5794</sup>
But angels as guardians
Of the Fire; and We
Have fixed their number <sup>5795</sup>

﴿١١﴾ وَمَجَعَلْنَا أَصْحَابَ النَّارِ الْأَمَلِكَةَ
وَمَجَعَلْنَا عِدَّتَهُمُ الْآفَنَةَ

5792 He is in a state in which he neither lives nor dies (lxxxvii. 13). Looked at in another way, the things that in a good man are meant to last and grow, are for the sinner destroyed, and no part of his nature is left untouched. The brightness of his very manhood is darkened and extinguished by sin.

5793. Who are the Nineteen? And why this number? The nineteen guardians of the Fire are understood symbolically to be angels or faculties of man. Imām Fakhruddin Rāzī refers to a classification of nineteen faculties or powers in man, which if used properly lead to his spiritual advancement, but if misused, lead to his perdition. These faculties or powers may well be compared to angels, for angels are the powers or instruments of action in the spiritual world. The rebellious angels are types of faculties put to wrong use.

5794. Cf. lxvi 6, and n. 5540

There was a great volume of angelology in the religious literature of the People of the Book (i.e. the Jews and Christians) to whom (among others) an appeal is made in this verse. The Essenes, a Jewish brotherhood with highly spiritual ideas, to which perhaps the prophet Jesus himself belonged, had an extensive literature of angelology. In the Midrash also, which was a Jewish school of exegesis and mystical interpretation, there was much said about angels. The Eastern Christian sects contemporary with the birth of Islam had borrowed and developed many of these ideas, and their mystics owed much to the Gnostics and the Persian apocalyptic systems. In the New Testament the relation of the angels with Fire is referred to more than once. In Rev. ix 11 we have "the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon". In Rev. xiv. 18 there is an "angel which had power over fire", and in Rev. xvi. 8 an angel has "power...given unto him to scorch men with fire". In the Old Testament (Daniel vii. 9-10) the essence of all angels is fire: thousand thousands of them issued as a fiery stream from before the Ancient of Days, whose "throne was like the fiery flame, and His wheels as burning fire".

5795. The mystic significance of numbers is a favourite theme with some writers, but I lay no stress on it. In Christian theology the number of the Beast, 666, in Rev. xiii. 18 has given rise to much controversy, and may refer only to the numerical value of the letters in the name of the Roman Emperor Nero. In our own literature I think that we ought to avoid too much insistence on speculative conjectures. But I will note one suggestion for what it is worth. The number is itself an indivisible number, and may be represented by the formula, twice seven plus five. Now seven is a mystic number: see lxv. 12, and n. 5526; there are seven heavens, seven gates of Hell (xv. 44), and so on. Five is also a mystic number: there are five senses in man, five canonical prayers, and so on. As there are seven heavens and a similar number of layers of the earth (lxv. 12), man's externally perceived world has fourteen layers, and if his subjective world can be counted in five units according to his five senses, the number of stages controlling his conduct may be counted as nineteen.

1. By no means!
For to Our Signs
He has been refractory!

١٦ كَلَّا إِنَّكَ كَانْتَ تَتَّعِنَا

17. Soon will I visit him
With a mount of calamities! <sup>5788</sup>

١٧ سَأُرْهِقُهُ صَعُودًا

18. For he thought
And he plotted;—

١٨ إِنَّهُ مَكَرٌ وَقَدَّرَ

19. And woe to him! <sup>5789</sup>
How he plotted!—

١٩ فَقِيلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ

20. Yea, woe to him:
How he plotted!—

٢٠ تَرَفُّيْلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ

21. Then he looked round;

٢١ ثُمَّ نَظَرَ

22. Then he frowned
And he scowled;

٢٢ ثُمَّ عَبَسَ وَبَسَرَ

23. Then he turned back
And was haughty;

٢٣ ثُمَّ أَدْبَرَ وَاسْتَكْبَرَ

24. Then said he: <sup>5790</sup>
"This is nothing but magic,
Derived from of old;

٢٤ فَقَالَ إِنِّي مَلَأَ لَا يَخْصُرُ تُوتُورًا

25. "This is nothing but
The word of a mortal!"

٢٥ إِنَّ مَلَأَ لَا قَوْلَ الْبَشَرِ

26. Soon will I
Cast him into Hell-Fire! <sup>5791</sup>

٢٦ سَأُضِلُّهُ سَعِيرًا

5788 "A mount of calamities" or disasters: may be understood as a phrase for cumulative disasters in a spiritual sense.

5789. Cf. li 10: "Woe to the falsehood-mongers!"

5790. The Commentators understand the reference to be to Walid ibn Muḡaira, who was a wealthy Sybarite, Pagan to the core, and an inveterate enemy to the holy Prophet. He and Abū Jahl did all they could, from the beginning of the preaching of Islam, to abuse and persecute the Preacher, to run down his doctrine, and to injure those who believed in it. But the meaning for us is much wider. There are Walids in all ages. They cannot understand divine inspiration, and seek to explain its wonderful influence over the lives of men by some such unmeaning formula as "magic". The eternal hope is to them mere human delusion!

5791. The Sinner's perversity can only end in the Fire of Punishment. It enters his very being. See next note.

7. But, for thy Lord's (Cause),<sup>5782</sup>
Be patient and constant!
8. Finally, when the trumpet
Is sounded,
9. That will be—that Day—
A Day of Distress,—<sup>5783</sup>
10. Far from easy
For those without Faith.
11. Leave Me alone, (to deal) <sup>5784</sup>
With the (creature) whom
I created (bare and) alone!—<sup>5785</sup>
12. To whom I granted
Resources in abundance,
13. And sons to be
By his side!—<sup>5786</sup>
14. To whom I made
(Life) smooth and comfortable!
15. Yet is he greedy—
That I should add
(Yet more);—<sup>5787</sup>

٧ وَلِيْلِكَ فَاصْبِرْ

٨ فَإِذَا نَفَخَ فِي النُّفُورِ

٩ فَذَلِكَ يَوْمٌ عَسِيرٌ

١٠ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ عَسِيرٌ

١١ ذُرِّي وَمَنْ خَلَقْتُ وَحِيدًا

١٢ وَجَعَلْتُ لَهُ مَا لَا مَحْدُودًا

١٣ وَبَيْنَ شُهُودًا

١٤ وَمَهَّدْتُ لَهُ تَمْهِيدًا

١٥ ثُمَّ يَطْمَعُ أَنْ أَزِيدَ

5782. Our zeal for God's Cause itself requires that we should not be impatient, and that we should show constancy in our efforts for His Cause. For we have faith, and we know that He is All-Good, All-Wise, and All-Powerful, and everything will ultimately be right.

5783 The Sinner's course is now shown in contrast to the Seeker's. The Sinner may be self-complacent now: but what will be his position when the Reckoning comes? Not easy; indeed a Day of Distress!

5784. The question of Justice and Punishment to men is for God alone. For man at his best can see only one side of truth, and only God is All-Knowing. He alone can judge the limits of Justice and Mercy.

5785 Man's adventitious advantages—wealth, power, position, talents—are not due to his own merits. They are gifts from God, Who created him. In himself he came bare and alone.

5786. The great ones of the earth may have wealth, a large following, sons by their side to defend them and do their bidding, and man-power to help them in their battles. Life may be smooth and agreeable to them. But their responsibility is to God.

5787. The Sinner takes God's gifts as if they were his right. The more he gets, the more is he greedy. Yet to God's Signs and revelations he is wilfully deaf or even openly rebellious. But he is only preparing the way for his own undoing.

Sūra LXXIV.

Muddaththir, or One Wrapped Up.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*1. ① thou wrapped up<sup>5778</sup>
(In a mantle)!

① يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَذْثَرُ

2. Arise and deliver thy warning!

② قُمْ فَأَنْذِرْ

3. And thy Lord
Do thou magnify!

③ وَرَبَّكَ فَكَبِّرْ

4. And thy garments<sup>5779</sup>
Keep free from stain!

④ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ

5. And all abomination shun!<sup>5780</sup>

⑤ وَالْجُرْثُمَ فَاهْجُرْ

6. Nor expect, in giving,
Any increase (for thyself)!<sup>5781</sup>

⑥ وَلَا تَمْنُنْ تَسْكَرُ

5778. As usual, in these wonderful early mystic verses, there is a triple thread of thought: (1) A particular occasion or person is referred to; (2) a general spiritual lesson is taught; and (3) a more profound mystical reverie is suggested. As to (1), the Prophet was now past the stage of personal contemplation, lying down or sitting in his mantle; he was now to go forth boldly to deliver his Message and publicly proclaim the Lord; his heart had always been purified, but now all his outward doings must be dedicated to God, and conventional respect for ancestral customs or worship must be thrown aside; the work of his Apostleship was the most generous gift that could flow from his personality, but no reward or appreciation was to be expected from his people, but quite the contrary; there would be much call on his patience, but his contentment would arise from the good pleasure of God. As to (2), similar stages arise in a minor degree in the life of every good man, for which the Prophet's life is to be a universal pattern. As to (3), the Sufis understand, by the mantle and outward wrappings, the circumstances of our phenomenal existence, which are necessary to our physical comfort up to a certain stage; but we soon outgrow them, and our inner nature should then boldly proclaim itself; not that it brings any credit or reward with men; the very hope or expectation of such would be inconsistent with our higher nature, which should bear all checks and rejoice in the favour of God.

5779. Possibly, in its immediate application, there is a reference to the dirt and filth which the Pagans used to throw at the Prophet to insult and persecute him.

5780. Rujz or Rijz: abomination: usually understood to refer to idolatry. It is even possible that there was an idol called Rujz. But it has a wider signification, as including a mental state opposed to true worship, a state of doubt or indecision.

5781. The legal and commercial formula is that you give in order to receive. And usually you expect to receive what is worth to you a little more than you give. The spiritual consideration is that you give, but expect nothing from the receiver. You serve God and God's creatures.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXXIV (Muddaḥḥir).

This Sūra dates from about the same time as the last one. Its subject-matter is also similar: Prayer and Praise, and the need of patience in a period of great spiritual stress: the unjust who cause sorrow and suffering now will themselves experience agony in the Hereafter.

C. 254.—The Seer, by devotion and contemplation,
 (lxxiv. 1-56.) Prepares himself for the duties of Guide
 And Leader to mankind: but when there comes
 The clear Call, he must stand forth
 And proclaim the Message,—in purity,
 Unselfish devotion, and patience long-suffering;—
 To save men from the Distress of the Final Day.
 For many there be who glory in a life
 Of ease and plenty, arrogant splendour,
 And the applause of men, who scorn God's Truth
 And reject the divine. How will they fare
 When the Judgment comes, and the Penalty?
 Every Fact in Life's grand Pageant
 Is but a Portent for the Future.
 Every soul is in pledge and must
 Redeem itself by Faith and Prayer,
 By Charity and earnest care for the Realities
 Of Life. Bring but the will, and God
 Will guide,—the Lord of Righteousness,
 The Lord of Mercy and Forgiveness!

And whatever good
Ye send forth
For your souls,<sup>5776</sup>
Ye shall find it
In God's Presence,—
Yea, better and
Greater, in Reward.
And seek ye the Grace
Of God: for God is<sup>5777</sup>
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

وَمَا تَقْدِرُوا إِلَّا أَنْفُسُكُمْ مِنْ خَيْرٍ تَجِدُوهُ عِنْدَ
اللَّهِ هُوَ خَيْرٌ وَأَعْظَمُ أَجْرًا وَأَسْتَكْفِرُوا
اللَّهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

5776. Any good that we do raises our own spiritual status and dignity. We must not think that when we speak of God's service or God's Cause, we are doing anything for His benefit: He is independent of all needs whatsoever.

5777. This emphasizes the need of God's Grace. Whatever good we do, our own merits are comparatively small. God's Grace must lift us up and blot out our shortcomings. Even in pleasure there may be an arrogance which may become a sin. We should always seek God's Mercy in humility.

The night, or a third <sup>5771</sup>
 Of the night, and so doth
 A party of those with thee.
 But God doth appoint Night
 And Day in due measure.
 He knoweth that ye are Unable to keep count thereof. <sup>5772</sup>
 So He hath turned to you
 (In mercy) : read ye,
 Therefore, of the Qur-ān <sup>5773</sup>
 As much as may be
 Easy for you. He knoweth
 That there may be (some)
 Among you in ill-health ;
 Others travelling through the land,
 Seeking of God's bounty ;
 Yet others fighting <sup>5774</sup>
 In God's Cause. Read ye,
 Therefore, as much of the Qur-ān
 As may be easy (for you) ;
 And establish regular Prayer
 And give regular Charity ;
 And loan to God
 A Beautiful Loan. <sup>5775</sup>

وَتِلْكَ وَطَافَةٌ مِّنَ الَّذِينَ مَعَكَ وَاللَّهُ يُقَدِّرُ
 اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ عَلِيمٌ أَن لَّنْ تَحْصُوهُ فَنُتَابَ عَلَيْكُمْ
 فَاقْرَءُوا مَا نَيَّسَرْنَا مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ عَلِيمٌ أَن سَيَكُونُ
 مِنكُمْ مَّرْضَىٰ وَآخَرُونَ يَضْرِبُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
 يَبْتَغُونَ مِن فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَآخَرُونَ يُقَاتِلُونَ
 فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَاقْرَءُوا مَا نَيَّسَرْنَا مِنْهُ وَأَقِيمُوا
 الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَأَقْرِضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا
 حَسَنًا

5771. Cf. above, lxxiii. 2-4 The Prophet, and a zealous band of his disciples, were often up, two-thirds of the night, or a half, or a third, rejecting sleep and giving themselves up to Prayer and Praise and the reading of the Qur-ān: They are told that this was too severe a tax on them, especially if their health was affected, or they were on a journey, or they were striving, with might and main, in other ways, for the cause of God. See the lines following.

5772. The usual meaning taken is that the counting of the exact hours of night and day may not be possible for ordinary people, in order to determine exactly the half, or the third, or the two-thirds of a night. The length of the night and the day varies every day of the solar year, and the precise hour of midnight can only be determined by exact observation in clear skies or by chronometers, which is not possible for everyone. But I understand it in a wider meaning. God fixes night and day in due proportions ; for rest and work, and according to seasonal variations. For prayer and praise no meticulous observations of that kind are necessary or possible. God's service can be done in many ways as detailed below. But we must give some time to devotion, as may be most easy and convenient to us, in various circumstances of health, travel, and the performance of various duties.

5773. The reading of the Qur-ān here is almost equivalent to Prayer and religious devotion. This is not to be made into an obsession or a burden. Cf. xx. 2 : "We have not sent down the Qur-ān to thee to be an occasion for thy distress." We must do it whole-mindedly, but not by formal mechanical computations.

5774. This refers to jihād. The better opinion is that this particular verse was revealed in Medina, long after the greater part of the Sūra. The reference, further on, to canonical Prayers and regular Charity (Zakāt), points to the same conclusion.

5775. Cf. ii. 245, and n. 276, where the meaning of "a Beautiful Loan" is explained. See also lvii. 18. The "Beautiful Loan" should be that of our own souls. We should expect no returns in kind, for that is not possible. But the reward we shall find with God will be infinitely greater and nobler. Cf. the biblical phrase, "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven" (Matt. vi. 20).

16. But Pharaoh disobeyed <sup>5768</sup>
The apostle ; so We Seized him with
A heavy Punishment.

١٦ فَعَصَىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ الرَّسُولَ فَأَخَذْنَاهُ أَخْذًا
وَبِيعًا

17. Then how shall ye,
If ye deny (God),
Guard yourselves against
A Day that will make
Children hoary-headed ?—<sup>5769</sup>

١٧ فَكَيْفَ تَنْقُوتَ إِن كُفَرْتُمْ يَوْمًا يَجْعَلُ الْوِلْدَانَ
شِيبًا

18. Whereon the sky will be
Cleft asunder ?
His Promise needs must
Be accomplished.

١٨ السَّمَاءُ مُنْفِطِرٌ بِهِ كَانَ وَعْدُهُ مَفْعُولًا

19. Verily this is an Admonition : <sup>5770</sup>
Therefore, whoso will, let him
Take a (straight) path
To his Lord !

١٩ إِنَّ هَٰذَا هُوَ تَذْكِرَةٌ فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ
رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا

SECTION 2.

20. Why Lord doth know
That thou standest forth
(To prayer) nigh two-thirds
Of the night, or half

٢٠ *إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَعْلَمُ أَنَّكَ تَقُومُ أَدْنَىٰ مِنْ ثُلُثَيِّ اللَّيْلِ وَنُصْفِهِ

5768. Pharaoh the earthly king faces Moses the prophet of God. In earthly eyes it was Moses who disobeyed Pharaoh. In spiritual relations, it was Pharaoh who disobeyed Moses. Pharaoh represented an ancient and mighty kingdom, with a long history behind it, and a pride in its learning and science, art, organisation, and power. Moses led a depressed people, hewers of wood and drawers of water. But the might of God was behind him. What became of the wisdom, power, and armies of Pharaoh? They were rent asunder when the day came, and the terror and surprise must have been the same as if the heavens had been rent asunder, and children's hair had turned grey! But formidable revolutions turn children grey-haired in another way. Nations that were as children became wise before they in their turn decayed, and from similar disobedience to the laws of God. For God's law must stand and be fulfilled when all else is swept away.

5769. If already you deny and disobey God in this life of probation, how can you stand up to the Day of Judgment, the Day of the terrible Reality? That Day is described in two metaphors: (1) It will be a time of such stress that even children will become like hoary-headed men; (2) What we look upon as the eternal sky, ever the same, will be cleft asunder: c/. lxxxii 1. In other words, the shape of things will be completely altered, both within man and in outer nature, and all true values will be restored. For the Promise of God, in this as in all other respects, cannot but be fulfilled.

5770. This is no empty threat. It is an admonition for your good. If you have the will, you can at once come for the Grace and Mercy of God, and obtain it. For Repentance and Amendment are the straight Way to the nearness of God.

(To bind them), and a Fire<sup>5763</sup>
(To burn them),

وَحَيَا

13. And a Food that chokes,<sup>5764</sup>
And a Penalty Grievous.<sup>5765</sup>

١٣ وَطَعَامًا ذَا غُضَبٍ وَعَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

14. One Day the earth
And the mountains
Will be in violent commotion.
And the mountains will be
As a heap of sand
Poured out and flowing down.<sup>5766</sup>

١٤ يَوْمَ تَرْجُفُ الْأَرْضُ وَالْجِبَالُ وَكَانَتِ الْجِبَالُ
كَثِيبًا مَّهِيلًا

15. We have sent to you,
(O men!) an apostle,
To be a witness concerning you,<sup>5767</sup>
Even as We sent
An apostle to Pharaoh.

١٥ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ رَسُولًا شَهِيدًا عَلَيْكَ
كَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَى فِرْعَوْنَ رَسُولًا

5763. Another effect of sin is the fire in his being, the conflagration in his soul. Evil passions seize him; he loses his peace of mind; and the fine talents and capacities in him fall off and are reduced to ashes like timber in a burning house.

5765. In general terms, the Penalty of sin may be described as a Penalty Grievous, an Agony. It may come in this very life; but that in the Hereafter is certain! See next verse.

We can also consider punishments from another aspect. The first object of punishment is to protect the innocent from the depredations of the criminal: we have to bind him. The next object is to produce in his heart the fire of repentance, to consume his evil propensities and to light his conscience. Where that is not enough, a more drastic punishment for the callous is something which causes him pain in things which ordinarily cause him pleasure, such as food, drink, and the satisfaction of physical needs. People in whom the higher spiritual faculties are dead may perchance be awakened through the lower physical features of their life, which appeal to them. Where this also fails, there is finally the complete Agony, a type or symbol too terrible to contemplate.

5766. The Judgment is described as a violent commotion which will change the whole face of nature as we know it. Even the hard rock of mountains will be like loose sand running without any cohesion.

5767. Our holy Apostle has to warn his age, i.e. the present age, reclaim it from sin, and be a witness for the righteous and against evil, as Moses did his office in his age. For Pharaoh, his arrogance, and his punishment, see x. 75-92.

7. True, there is for thee
By day prolonged occupation
With ordinary duties :<sup>5759</sup>

8. But keep in remembrance
The name of thy Lord
And devote thyself
To Him whole-heartedly.

9. (He is) Lord of the East
And the West : there is
No god but He :
Take Him therefore
For (thy) Disposer of Affairs.<sup>5760</sup>

10. And have patience with what
They say, and leave them
With noble (dignity).

11. And leave Me
(Alone to deal with)
Those in possession of
The good things of life,<sup>5761</sup>
Who (yet) deny the Truth ;
And bear with them
For a little while.

12. With Us are Fetters<sup>5762</sup>

٧ إِنَّ لَكَ فِي النَّهَارِ سَبْحًا طَوِيلًا

٨ وَادْكُرْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ وَنَبِّئْ لِلنَّاسِ نَبِيَّكَ

٩ تَبَّ الْمَشْرِقُ وَالْمَغْرِبُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَاتَّخِذْهُ
وَكِيلًا

١٠ وَأَصْبِرْ عَلَى مَا يَقُولُونَ وَأَنْجِرْهُمْ هَجْرًا جَمِيلًا

١١ وَذَرْنِي وَالْمُكَذِّبِينَ أُولِيَ النَّفْسِ وَمَنْ عَمِلْهُمُ
قَلِيلًا

١٢ إِنَّ لَدَيْنَا أَنْكَالًا

5759. A man of God, as a man, a member of a family, or a citizen, has many ordinary duties to perform ; and his work may be made difficult and irksome in protecting those who listen to his preaching and are therefore molested and persecuted by the world. But while discharging all his ordinary duties, he should work as in the presence of God, and in all matters and at all times retain the sense of God's nearness. His work may be on earth, but his heart is in Heaven.

5760. God is all-in-all. He is not in one place, but in all ; and He is Lord of all places. He rules the world. Therefore be not discouraged by the plots or enmity of wicked men. Leave all things to God ; trust Him ; He is just and will do justice. Only turn away from the unjust, but in a worthy and noble way ; i.e. to show them clearly that you do not fear them, but that you leave all affairs in God's hands. If we divide the world into hemispheres from north to south, " East and West " will cover all directions.

5761. Men who enjoy the good things of life have special cause for gratitude to God, Who bestowed them. When they are in the ranks of God's enemies, none but God can adequately deal with them.

5762. The result of sin is the loss of spiritual liberty (" fetters "). The limbs with which a man was intended to move freely about his business in the service of God are tied more and more closely, until they become paralysed, and his will itself becomes degraded.

Sūra LXXIII.

Muzzammil, or Folded in Garments.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ٥ thou folded
In garments ! <sup>5754</sup>
2. Stand (to prayer) by night,
But not all night, — <sup>5755</sup>
3. Half of it, —
Or a little less,
4. Or a little more ;
And recite the Qur-ān <sup>5756</sup>
In slow, measured rhythmic tones.
5. Soon shall We send down
To thee a weighty Message. <sup>5757</sup>
6. Truly the rising by night
Is most potent for governing
(The soul), and most suitable
For (framing) the Word <sup>5758</sup>
(Of Prayer and Praise).

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَزْمِلُ

٢ قُرْآنِكَ لَيْلًا

٣ نِصْفَهُ أَوْ انْقُصْ مِنْهُ قَلِيلًا

٤ أَوْزِدْ عَلَيْهِ وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيلًا

٥ إِنَّا سَنُلْقِي عَلَيْكَ قَوْلًا ثَقِيلًا

٦ إِنَّ نَاشِئَةَ اللَّيْلِ هِيَ أَشَدُّ وَطْأً وَأَقْوَمُ قِيلًا

5755. The Prophet was prone to austerities in the cave of Hira, both before and after he received his mission, spending days and nights in prayer and contemplation. See C. 29. Midnight and after-midnight contemplation and prayers have technically received the name of Tahajjud. See also verse 20 below ; also xvii. 79.

5756. At this time there was only S. xcvi., S. lxxviii., and possibly S. lxxiv., and the opening Sūra (Al-Hamd) ; but the heart of the Apostle had received enlightenment, and that Light was gradually finding expression in the verses of the Qur-ān. For us, now, with the whole of the Qur-ān before us, the injunction is specially necessary. The words of the Qur-ān must not be read hastily, merely to get through so much reading. They must be studied, and their deep meaning pondered over. They are themselves so beautiful that they must be lovingly pronounced in tones of rhythmic music.

5757. The Qur-ān as completed by degrees, after the Fatra (see Introduction to this Sūra).

5758. For contemplation, prayer, and praise, what time can be so suitable as the night, when calm and silence prevail, the voices of the market-place are still, and the silent stars pour forth their eloquence to the discerning soul.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXXIII (Muzzammil).

This is one of the earliest Sūras to have been revealed. The first was S. xcvi. 1-5 (Iqraa), in the fortieth year of the Prophet's life, say about 12 years before the Hijra. Then there was an interruption (Fatra), of which the duration cannot be exactly ascertained, as there was no external history connected with it. The usual estimate puts it at about six months, but it may have been a year or two years. The years were then counted by the luni-solar calendar : see Appendix xi., p. 1077. The second Sūra in chronological order was probably a great portion of S. lxviii. (Qalam), which came after the Fatra was over. About the same time came this Sūra (say third) and S. lxxiv., which follows (say fourth), and the remainder of xcvi. We may roughly put the date of this Sūra at about 11 to 10 years before the Hijra.

The subject-matter is the significance of Prayer and Humility in spiritual life and the terrible fate of those who reject Faith and Revelation.

C. 253.—Devote yourself to the service of God
 (lxxiii. 1 20.) In the stillness of the night, but not
 .All night. In the world's persecution rely
 On God, Who will deal with His enemies fittingly.
 Let not God's service be a matter
 Of difficulty to you : do all your duties
 In whole-hearted remembrance of God,
 And ever seek His bountiful Grace.

And then He makes
A band of watchers <sup>5751</sup>
March before him
And behind him,

فَأَنْفَرِيْسُلْكُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ
رَصَدًا

28. " That he may know
That they have (truly) <sup>5751-A</sup>
Brought and delivered
The Messages of their Lord:
And He surrounds <sup>5752</sup>
(All the mysteries) that are
With them, and takes account
Of every single thing. " <sup>5753</sup>

لِيَعْلَمَ أَنْ قَدْ أَبْلَغُوا رِسَالَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ وَأَحَاطَ
بِمَالَدِيْهِمْ وَأَخَصَّ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ عَدَدًا

5751. There is much mystic doctrine here. Revelation is not a mechanical or material thing. It has to be safeguarded from being distorted or corrupted by ignorance, selfishness, or the powers of evil. How can its precious and subtle worth and the spiritual safeguards against its misuse by human folly or the perversity of evil, be expressed in plain human words? We can imagine a very great treasure, which has to be transmitted. To guard it against evilly-disposed persons, a strong escort is required, to march in front and behind, so as to protect it from all sides. When it reaches its destination, the escort presents its credentials and an Invoice showing the Treasure being transmitted. Then the destined receiver knows that it has come intact and feels satisfied. So about spiritual Revelation. The spiritual man recognises the credentials and checks the contents on the tablets of his own heart and insight. He has then no doubt that it is a true Message from God, and that those who bring it are the true messengers "of their Lord".

5751-A. They: the band of watchers. In "he may know" it is better to construe "he" to refer to the apostle who receives the Message from the "watchers".

5752. Aḥṭa: surrounds, encompasses, encloses, guards on all sides, keeps under his own possession and control, and does not allow to be corrupted or debased. See last note but one.

5753. In the spiritual Kingdom,—as indeed, in all things,—God's knowledge, wisdom, and Plan comprehend all things, great and small. There is nothing which we do, nothing which happens that is outside His account.

24. At length, when they
See (with their own eyes)
That which they are promised,—<sup>5747</sup>
Then will they know
Who it is that is
Weakest in (his) helper
And least important
In point of numbers.

٢٤ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَأَوْا مَا يُوعَدُونَ فَيَسْئَلُونَ مَنْ
أَضْعَفُ نَاصِرًا وَأَقَلُّ عَدَدًا

25. Say : " I know not whether
The (Punishment) which ye
Are promised is near,<sup>5748</sup>
Or whether my Lord
Will appoint for it
A distant term.

٢٥ قُلْ لِمَ أَذْرِي مَا قَرِيبٌ مَّا تُوعَدُونَ أَمْ يَجْعَلُ لَهُمُ
رَبِّي مَتًّا

26. " He (alone) knows the Unseen,
Nor does He make any one
Acquainted with his Mysteries,—<sup>5749</sup>

٢٦ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ فَلَا يُظْهِرُ عَلَىٰ غَيْبِهِ أَحَدًا

27. " Except an apostle<sup>5750</sup>
Whom He has chosen :

٢٧ إِلَّا مَنِ ارْتَضَىٰ مِنْ رَسُولٍ

5747. When the Hereafter arrives, and true values are restored, they will see clearly that the Promise of God was true, and that death on this earth was not the end of all things. Then they will see that those who were accounted weak on this earth will, in the realm of Reality, be the strong ones; those who seemed to have no following here will have, there, all the great and true ones with them, to help them and welcome them to their own ranks.

5748. The coming of Judgment is certain. But the exact time, relatively to our standards on this earth, no one can tell. God alone knows it. Even a Prophet of God, as such, does not know the Mysteries of the Unseen World, except in so far as they have been revealed to him by God's Revelation. Cf. vi. 50, and notes 867-68.

5749. "Mystery", or the Unseen, has two aspects. The relative Unseen is so with reference to a particular person, because of the intervention of Time, Space, or particular circumstances. For example, I cannot see to-day a house which I saw last year, because it has since been pulled down. Or I cannot in Lahore see the "Gateway of India" in Bombay, although any one in Bombay can see it. Or I cannot see the satellites of Jupiter with the naked eye, though I can through a telescope. But the Absolute Unseen, the Absolute Mystery, or God's Mystery, is something which no creature can know or see, except in so far as God reveals it to him. And God reveals such things to the extent that is good for men, through His chosen apostles, among whom the greatest is Muhammad, the personified Light of Unity. The exact time of the Hour of Judgment has not been so shown, because we must not wait for it, but live as if it is to be at this minute. See last note and next note, and the references there.

5750. Cf. iii. 179, and n. 482. See also last note.

19. "Yet when the Devotee<sup>5743</sup>
Of God stands forth
To invoke Him, they<sup>5744</sup> just Make round him a dense crowd."

SECTION 2.

20. Say : "I do
No more than invoke
My Lord, and I join not
With Him any (false god)."

21. Say : "It is not
In my power to cause<sup>5745</sup>
You harm, or to bring
You to right conduct."

22. Say : "No one can Deliver me from God<sup>5746</sup>
(If I were to disobey Him),
Nor should I find refuge
Except in Him,

23. "Unless I proclaim what
I receive from God
And His Messages :
For any that disobey God
And His Apostle,—for them
Is Hell : they shall dwell
Therein for ever."

١٩ وَاتَّبَعُوا مَا قَامَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ يَدْعُوهُ كَادُوا يَكُونُونَ
عَلَيْهِ لَيْدًا

٢٠ قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَدْعُوا رَبِّي وَلَا أَشْرِكُ بِهِ أَحَدًا

٢١ قُلْ إِنِّي لَا أَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا رَشَدًا

٢٢ قُلْ إِنِّي لَنْ يُخْرِجَنِي مِنَ اللَّهِ أَحَدٌ وَلَنْ
أَجِدَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مُلْتَحَدًا

٢٣ إِلَّا بَلَغْتُ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَمَنْ
يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَإِنَّ لَهُ نَارًا
جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدًا فِيهَا أَبَدًا

5743. The Devotee of God : the holy Apostle, Muhammad.

5744. They. The immediate reference was to the Pagan Quraish who were then in possession of the Ka'ba and who put all sorts of obstacles and indignities in the way of the holy Prophet for preaching the One True God and denouncing idol-worship. They used to surround him and mob him and to treat him as if he was guilty of some dreadful crime. But the wider application refers to the habit of the world to make a marked man of any who diverges from the beaten paths of their favourite sins and who pleads earnestly for the cause of Truth and righteousness. They ridicule him; they surround him with jeers and obloquy; and they try to make the physical condition of his life as difficult for him as possible.

5745. 'Do not suppose that I am going to harm you individually or socially; the very opposite is my wish; but I cannot force you to right conduct; that must depend upon the purification of your own faith and will.'

5746. 'My mission is from God. I cannot choose but obey. He has charged me to deliver the Message, and if I were to disobey him, I would myself be worthy of His punishment, and no one can save me. From every kind of trouble and difficulty my only refuge is in Him. I must proclaim His Message : otherwise I am false to the mission He has entrusted to me.'

Sought out (the path)
Of right conduct :

تَحْزَرُوا رَشَدًا

15. ' But those who swerve,—
They are (but) fuel
For Hell-fire '—<sup>5739</sup>

١٥ وَأَمَّا الْقَاسِطُونَ فَكَانُوا لِجَهَنَّمَ حَطَبًا

16. (And God's Message is):
" If they (the Pagans)
Had (only) remained
On the (right) Way,
We should certainly have
Bestowed on them Rain <sup>5740</sup>
In abundance.

١٦ وَالْوَاسْتَقْمُوا عَلَى الطَّرِيقَةِ لَأَسْقِينَهُمْ
مَاءً غَدَقًا

17. " That We might try them
By that (means).
But if any turns away
From the remembrance <sup>5741</sup>
Of his Lord, He will Cause him to undergo
A severe Penalty.

١٧ لَنَنْفِتْنَهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ لَا يَكَارَهُونَ
ذِكْرِي وَتَمَثَّلَ لَهُمْ آيَاتُنَا حَرَابًا

18. " And the places of worship <sup>5742</sup>
Are for God (alone):
So invoke not any one
Along with God ;

١٨ وَإِنَّمَا الْمَسْجِدُ لِلَّهِ فَلَا تَدْعُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ أَحَدًا

5739. An unjust life carries its own condemnation. It does no good to itself or to any one else. It bears no fruit. It becomes merely fuel for the Fire of Punishment.

5740. Rain : literally, water : stands for all kinds of blessings, material, moral, and spiritual. Among the spiritual blessings, is the insight into higher things, which results from our will and endeavour to stand firm on the right Way, the natural, moral, and spiritual Law established by God. All blessings come by way of trial : the more we have, the more is expected of us. A man of gifts, talents, or insight is expected to show a higher standard of love and unselfishness than one less gifted, just as a rich man is expected to give more in charity than a poor man.

5741. To remember God is to realise His presence, acknowledge His Goodness, and accept His guidance. If we fail to do so, by deliberately turning away, He will withdraw His Grace, and that will be a severe Penalty indeed.

5742. This is a Meccan Sūra, and Masjid must be understood, not in the later technical sense of a Mosque, but in the root meaning, of any place, or occasion of worship or humble prostration in the service of God, or any limbs or faculties or accessories used in such worship, e.g. hands and feet, lips and voice, understanding or organisation. A number of meanings therefore follow. (1) No place of worship whatever should be used for the worship of any other but the true God. The Ka'ba was then full of idols, but the idols and their votaries were usurpers. (2) Worship should not be mixed up with vain objects, but should be reserved for the sincere service of God. (3) All our gifts are for God's service, which includes the service of His creatures, and not for our vainglory.

10. 'And we understand not
Whether ill is intended
To those on earth,<sup>5735</sup>
Or whether their Lord
(Really) intends to guide
Them to right conduct.

١٠ وَأَنَّا لَا نَدْرِي أَشَرٌّ أُرِيدَ بِمَن فِي الْأَرْضِ أَمْ أَرَادَ
بِهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ رَشَدًا

11. 'There are among us
Some that are righteous,
And some the contrary;
We follow divergent paths.

١١ وَأَنَّا مِنَّا الصَّالِحُونَ وَمِنَّا دُونَ ذَلِكَ كُنَّا طَرَائِقَ قَدَدًا

12. 'But we think that we
Can by no means frustrate
God throughout the earth,
Nor can we frustrate Him
By flight.<sup>5736</sup>

١٢ وَأَنَّا ظَنَنَّا أَن لَّن نَّقْضِيَ اللَّهَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَن
نُفْضِيَهُ هَهُنَا

13. 'And as for us,
Since we have listened
To the Guidance, we have Accepted it: and any
Who believes in his Lord
Has no fear, either<sup>5737</sup>
Of a short (account)
Or of any injustice.

١٣ وَأَنَّا لَمَّا سَمِعْنَا الْمَدَىٰ أَمَّا يَهُدَىٰ فَمَن يُؤْمِنُ بِرَبِّهِ
فَلَا يَخَافُ بَخْسًا وَلَا رَهَقًا

14. 'Amongst us are some
That submit their wills
(To God), and some
That swerve from justice.
Now those who submit
Their wills—they have<sup>5738</sup>

١٤ وَأَنَّا مِنَّا الْمُسْلِمُونَ وَمِنَّا الْقَاسِطُونَ فَمَن أَسْلَمَ
فَأُولَٰئِكَ

5735. To these spirits this revolutionary gospel is yet new, and appears like a flaming sword which destroys falsehood while it protects Truth. They frankly confess that they do not clearly understand whether on the whole it will be a mercy to mankind or a punishment for mankind forsaking the paths of God. But they rightly feel that it must be a blessing if all seek right Guidance.

5736. See last note. In any case, they know that God's Truth and God's Plan must prevail, and no one can frustrate God's purpose; or escape from it. Why not then bring the human will into conformity with it, and find Peace, as they have found, by the acceptance of Faith?

5737. Possibly, from this world's standards, it may be that a man suffers for his Faith. He may be laughed at, persecuted, and actually hurt, "in mind, body, or estate". But he is not perturbed. He takes it all cheerfully, because he knows that when his full account is made up—real gain against apparent loss,—he is a gainer rather than a loser. And his Faith tells him that God is a just God, and will never allow him to suffer any injustice, or permit the account of his merit to appear one whit shorter than it is.

5738. Any one who responds to true Guidance, and submits his will to God, finds that he makes rapid progress in the path of right conduct and right life. He gets more and more assurance that his destination is the Garden of Bliss.

Should say aught that is Untrue against God.<sup>5731</sup>

عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا

6. 'True, there were persons
Among mankind who took shelter
With persons among the Jinns,
But they increased them
In folly.<sup>5732</sup>

⑥ وَأَنَّهُ كَانَ رِجَالٌ مِنَ الْإِنسِ يَعُوذُونَ
بِرِجَالٍ مِنَ الْجِنِّ فَزَادُوهُمْ رَهَقًا

7. 'And they (came to) think
As ye thought, that God
Would not raise up
Any one (to Judgment).

⑦ وَأَنَّهُمْ ظَنُّوا كَمَا ظَنَنْتُمْ أَن لَّن يَبْعَثَ اللَّهُ أَحَدًا

8. 'And we pried into
The secrets of heaven;
But we found it filled
With stern guards
And flaming fires.<sup>5733</sup>

⑧ وَأَنَّا لَمَسْنَا السَّمَاءَ فَوَجَدْنَاهَا مُلْتَأَمَاتًا
حَرَبًا شَدِيدًا وَشُهَبًا

9. 'We used, indeed, to sit there
In (hidden) stations, to (steal)
A hearing; but any
Who listens now<sup>5734</sup>
Will find a flaming fire
Watching him in ambush.

⑨ وَأَنَّا كُنَّا نَقْعُدُ مِنْهَا مَقْعِدًا لِّلِاسْتِمَاعِ
فَنَسْتَمِعُ الْآنَ يَجْدَلُ بِهِ شُهَبًا بَآرِصَةً

5731. No one ought to entertain false notions about God. For by joining false gods in our ideas of worship, we degrade our conception of ourselves and the duty we owe to our Creator and Cherisher, to Whom we have to give a final account of life and conduct. If we worship idols or heavenly bodies, or human beings, or any creatures, or false fancies born of self or foolish abstractions, or the lusts and desires of our own hearts, we are not only doing violence to Truth, but we are causing discord in the harmony of the world.

5733. See notes 1951, 1953, and 1954 to xv. 17-18. See also n. 5562 to lxvii. 5. The speakers here have repented of sin and evil; but they recognise that there are evil ones among them, who love stealth and prying, but their dark plots will be defeated by vigilant guardians of the Right, whose repulse of the attacks of evil is figured by the shafts of meteoric light in the heavens.

5734. What is the force of "now"? It refers to the early Meccan period of Revelation. It means that whatever excuse there may have been before, for people to try to seek out the hidden truths of the Unseen World through spirits, there was none now, as the perspicuous Qur-ān had restored the Message of Unity and cleared religion of all the cobwebs, mysteries, and falsehoods with which priestcraft and pious fraud had overlaid it. The result is that such seekers after false hidden knowledge will find themselves confronted now by the flaming fire of the Qur-ān, which, like the shafts of meteoric light (see last note), will lie in wait for and nip such priestcraft and black magic in the bud,

Sura LXXII.

*Jinn, or the Spirits.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Say : It has been Revealed <sup>5727</sup> to me that
A company of Jinns <sup>5728</sup>
Listened (to the Qur-an).
They said, ' We have
Really heard a wonderful Recital! <sup>5729</sup>

① قُلْ أُوحِيَ إِلَيَّ أَنَّهُ اسْتَمَعَ نَفَرٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ فَقَالُوا إِنَّا
سَمِعْنَا قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا

2. ' It gives guidance
To the Right,
And we have believed therein :
We shall not join (in worship)
Any (gods) with our Lord.

② هُدًى إِلَى الرُّشْدِ فَآمَنَّا بِهِ وَلَمْ نُشْرِكْ
بِرَبِّنَا أَحَدًا

3. ' And exalted is the Majesty
Of our Lord : He has Taken neither a wife
Nor a son. <sup>5730</sup>

③ وَأَنَّهُ تَعَالَى جَدُّ رَبِّنَا مَا اتَّخَذَ صَاحِبَةً
وَلَا وَلَدًا

4. ' There were some foolish ones
Among us, who used
To utter extravagant lies
Against God ;

④ وَأَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ سَفِيهُنَا عَلَى اللَّهِ شَطَطًا

5. ' But we, do, think
That no man or spirit

⑤ وَأَنَّا ظَنَنَّا أَن لَّنْ نَقُولَ الْإِنسُ وَالْجِنُّ

5727. Revelation may be through various channels, and one of the channels may be a vision, by which the Prophet sees and hears events clearly passing before him. This particular vision may be the same as that referred to more briefly in xlii. 29-32, where see n. 4809. The Jinns had evidently heard of previous revelations, that of Moses (xlii. 30), and the error of Trinitarian Christianity (lxii. 3). The people from whom they come have all sorts of good and bad persons, but they are determined to preach the good Message of Unity which they have heard and believed in.

5728. For Jinns, see n. 929 to vi. 100. We may take these to be spirits ordinarily unseen, or people who were strangers in Arabia, but had in their own private way heard and believed in the Gospel of Islam.

5729. The Holy Qur-an would be to them a wonderful Recital—both in subject-matter and in the circumstance that it had come in Arabia among a pagan and ignorant nation.

5730. They abjure paganism and also the doctrine of a son begotten by God, which would also imply a wife of whom he was begotten. Cf. vi. 101.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXII (Jinn).

This is a late Meccan Sūra, of which we can be tolerably certain of the date. It was two years before the Hijrat, when the Prophet, despised and rejected in his native city of Mecca, went to evangelise the lordly men of Ṭāif. They maltreated him and nearly killed him; what caused him even greater pain was the maltreatment of the humble and lowly men who went with him. Ṭabarī has handed down that memorable Prayer of faith and humility which he offered in the midst of his suffering. On his return journey to Mecca, a glorious vision was revealed to him,—hidden spiritual forces working for him,—people not known to him accepting his mission while his own people were still rejecting him. Within two months some strangers from Medina had privately met him and laid the foundations of that Hijrat which was to change the fate of Arabia and the course of world-history.

C. 252.—Spiritual Truth finds its lodgment

(lxxii. 1-28.) In all sorts of unexpected places, and in all sorts
 Of unexpected ways. The man of God,
 When most depressed by the buffets of a world
 Steeped in selfishness, sees a glorious vision :
 Hidden spiritual forces work for him,
 Make known the truth in marvellous ways,
 And proclaim the Goodness and Judgment of God.
 They reject all Error and lead others to purify
 Their wills and come to God. Behold !
 Every place and time, every gift
 Is meet for the service of God, the One,
 The True, Whose Word the righteous one
 Proclaims and must proclaim at all cost.
 Man's Duty is plain, but in the Kingdom
 Of God, through God's chosen ones,
 We rise to higher and higher Mysteries,
 As may be expedient for us. Yet when
 Or how our End may be, is not given
 To man to know : let him but take
 The Treasures well-guarded, that come to him,
 And praise the Lord of all Knowledge and Wisdom !

11. It may be noted that the five names of deities mentioned here to represent very ancient religious cults are well-chosen. They are not the names of the deities best known in Mecca, but rather those which survived as fragments of very ancient cults among the outlying tribes of Arabia, which were influenced by the cults of Mesopotamia (Noah's country). The Pagan deities best known in the Ka'ba and round about Mecca were Lāt, 'Uzzā, and Manāt. (Manāt was also known round Yathrib, which afterwards became Medina.) See liii. 19-20. They were all female goddesses. Lāt almost certainly represents another wave of sun-worship: the sun being feminine in Arabic and in Semitic languages generally. "Lat" may be the original of the Greek "Leto", the mother of Apollo the sun-god (Encyclopædia of Islam, I, p. 380). If so, the name was brought in prehistoric times from South Arabia by the great Incense Route (n. 3816 to xxxiv. 18) to the Mediterranean. 'Uzzā probably represents the planet Venus. The origin of Manāt is not quite clear, but it would not be surprising if it also turned out to be astral. The 360 idols established by the Pagans in the Ka'ba probably represented the 360 days of an inaccurate solar year. This was the actual "modern" Pagan worship as known to the Quraish contemporary with our Prophet. In sharp contrast to this is mentioned the ancient antediluvian worship under five heads, of which fragments persisted in outlying places, as they still persist in different forms and under different names in all parts of the world where the pure worship of God in unity and truth is not firmly established in the minds and hearts of men.

References: The classical work on Arabian idol-worship is Ibn al-Kalbi's Kitāb-ul-aṣṇām, of the late second century of the Hijra. The book is not easily accessible. Our doctors of religion have evinced no interest in the study of ancient cults, or in comparative religion, and most of them had not before them the results of modern archæology. But a modern school of Egyptian archæologists is arising, which takes a great deal of interest in the antiquities of their own country. For astral worship consult Hastings' Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics, articles on "Sun, Moon, and Stars," as worshipped in different countries. Consult also Sir E. A. Wallis Budge, Gods of the Egyptians, London 1904; A. H. Sayce, Religions of Ancient Egypt and Babylonia, Gifford Lectures, Edinburgh 1902; M. Jastrow, Religion of Babylonia and Assyria, Boston 1898; E. W. Hopkins, Religions of India, London 1896; G. A. Barton, Sketches of Semitic Origins, New York 1902. Any Classical Dictionary would give details of Greek and Roman Mythology. It is curious that the Indus Civilization, which resembles the Second Pre-diluvian Culture of Elam and Mesopotamia, does not clearly disclose any signs of astral worship. But this study is still in its tentative stage. There is tree and animal worship, phallic worship, and the worship of the great Mother-goddess. Animal worship regards strength, courage, virility, or swiftness, as in the Pagan Arabian deities we have been considering. See Sir John Marshall, Mohenjo Daro and the Indus Civilization, 3 vols. London 1931.

Sir J. G. Frazer, in his Adonis, Attis, and Osiris (4th ed., London 1914, Vol. I, pp. 8-9) refers to Allatu or Eresh-Kigal as "the stern queen of the infernal regions" in Babylonian religion: she was the goddess of the nether regions, of darkness and desolation, as her counterpart Ishtar was the chief goddess of the upper regions, of reproduction and fertility, associated with the planet Venus.

and the moon (according to the sex attributed to these divinities), or else either the sun or the moon was the father and Venus the mother (the sexes being inter-changeable in the myths). Of the three outer planets, Jupiter is the most conspicuous: indeed, after the sun and the moon, it is the most conspicuous object in the heavens, and was reputed to be beneficent and to bestow good fortune. The sun and the moon being considered in a class apart, Jupiter was considered the father of the planets, and possibly his worship got occasionally mixed up with that of the sun. Mars and Saturn, as has already been stated, were considered malevolent planets, to be feared for the mischief that they might do; for the Pagan Pantheons worshipped powers both of good and evil.

9. It is remarkable that the days of the week are named after the seven planets of geocentric astronomy, and if we take them in alternate sequence they indicate the order in which their heavens were arranged with reference to proximity to the earth. The following table represents this grouping:—

| Planet | Presiding god or goddess | Day of the week in alternate sequence |
|---------------|---------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| Moon          | Diana                           | Sunday                                       |
| Mercury       | Mercury                         | Tuesday                                      |
| Venus         | Venus                           | Thursday                                     |
| The Sun       | Apollo                          | Saturday                                     |
| Mars          | Mars                            | Monday                                       |
| Jupiter       | Jupiter                         | Wednesday                                    |
| Saturn        | Saturn                          | Friday                                       |

This alternate sequence is carried into a circle, as the total number is seven, itself a mystic number.

10. These cross-currents and mixtures of nature-worship, astral-worship, hero-worship, worship of abstract qualities, etc., resulted in a medley of debasing superstitions which are summed up in the five names, Wadd, Suwā', Yağūth, Ya'ūq, and Nasr, as noted in paragraph 3 above. The time of Noah is taken to be the peak of superstition and false worship, and the most ancient cults may thus be symbolically brought under these heads. If Wadd and Suwā' represented Man and Woman, they might well represent the astral-worship of the moon and the sun, or the sun and the moon, or they might represent human self-glorification, the worship of Self as against God, or they might represent the worship of Manly Power and Female Beauty, or other abstract qualities of that kind. On the other hand, it is possible that the worship of Jupiter and Venus itself got mixed up with the worship of the sun-moon pair. One pair being identified with another pair in a Septet, the number seven was reduced to five, and the five (itself a mystic number) might itself represent the seven planets as then worshipped. Further, it may be that Nasr (the vulture, falcon, hawk, or eagle, the Egyptian Horus) also represents a solar myth, mixed up with the cult of the planets. These cross-currents of astro-mythological mixtures of cults are well-known to students of ancient popular religions. If the five names, from another angle of vision, represent qualities, the Wadd-Suwā' pair (Sun-Moon, Jupiter-Venus) would represent manly power and womanly beauty or mutability respectively, and the three remaining ones (paragraph 3) might represent Brute Strength, like that of a Bull or a Lion; Swiftness like that of a Horse or sharpness (of sight or intelligence) like that of a vulture, hawk, or eagle.

Perseus, whose variations can be perceived by the naked eye in two or three nights, became connected with many legends, myths, and superstitions. It is probably Sirius that is referred to as the fixed star in the Parable of Abraham (vi. 76). With regard to the fixed stars in their myriads, the astronomers turned their fancy to devising Groups or Constellations. But the moving "stars", or planets, each with its own individual laws of motion, stood out to them personified, each with a motion and therefore will or influence of its own. As they knew and understood them, they were seven in number, viz.: (1) and (2) the moon and the sun, the two objects which most closely and indubitably influence the tides, the temperatures, and the life on our planet; (3) and (4) the two inner planets, Mercury and Venus, which are morning and evening stars, and never travel far from the sun; and (5), (6), and (7) Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn, the outer planets, whose elongations from the sun on the ecliptic can be as wide as possible. The number seven became itself a mystic number, as explained in n. 5526 to lxx. 12.

6. It will be noticed that the sun and the moon and the five planets got identified each with a living deity, god or goddess, with characteristics and qualities of its own. The solar myth was a myth of very fruitful vitality, and got mixed up with many other myths and ideas. In late Roman religion it appears in the story of Apollo, the sun-god of light and learning and of manly beauty, twin brother to Diana the moon-goddess. In ancient Egypt it appears in the myth of Horus, the falcon-eyed, or of Ra or Rê, the Eye, which sees all things. Further, the eagle, or falcon, or hawk, became itself identified with the sun, with its piercing light. The sun myth mixes itself up with the myth of the Nile and with the cycle of legends connected with Isis and Osiris, who were subsequently identified with the moon and the sun divinities. In Babylon the name Shamash (Arabic, Shams) proclaims the glory of the sun-god corresponding to the old Sumerian Utu or Babbar, while the hymns to Sūrya (the sun) in the Rig-Veda and the cult of Mithra in Persia proclaim the dominance of sun-worship.

7. Moon-worship was equally popular in various forms. I have already referred to the classical legends of Apollo and Diana, twin brother and sister, representing the sun and the moon. The Egyptian Khonsu, traversing the sky in a boat, referred to the moon, and the moon legends also got mixed up with those about the god of magic, Thoth, and the Ibis. In the Vedic religion of India the moon-god was Soma, the lord of the planets, and the name was also applied to the juice which was the drink of the gods. It may be noted that the moon was a male divinity in ancient India; it was also a male divinity in ancient Semitic religion, and the Arabic word for the moon (qamar) is of the masculine gender. On the other hand, the Arabic word for the sun (shams) is of the feminine gender. The Pagan Arabs evidently looked upon the sun as a goddess and the moon as a god.

8. Of the five planets, perhaps Venus as the evening star and the morning star alternately impressed itself most on the imagination of astro-mythology. This planet was in different places considered both male and female. In the Bible (Isaiah, xiv. 12), the words "How art thou fallen, O Lucifer, son of the morning!" are understood to refer to the Morning Star in the first instance, and by analogy to the King of Babylon. The Fathers of the Christian Church, on the other hand, transferred the name Lucifer to Satan, the power of evil. Mercury is a less conspicuous planet, and was looked upon as a child in the family, the father and mother being the moon and the sun, or the sun has prevailed and still prevails in many primitive areas. In ancient Egyptian mythology the Crocodile (so common in the Nile), the Dog, the Bull, and the Ibis were worshipped both literally and symbolically. See Appendix V, p. 409. (4) But as men's knowledge grows, and they observe the wonderful heavenly bodies and their motions, they begin to feel their sublimity, beauty and mystery, and they transfer their worship to the heavenly bodies. The first great astronomers in the ancient world were the Babylonians and Chaldæans. Among them was Abraham's homeland. The allegory of Abraham (vi. 74-82 and notes) points to the importance of the cult of the worship of heavenly bodies and the fallacy in them. "It is those who believe, and confuse not their beliefs with wrong—that are truly in security, for they are on right guidance" (vi. 82). The Sabæan worship of heavenly bodies in Arabia had probably its source in Chaldæa (see last paragraph of n. 76 to ii. 62). (5) A further refined step in Paganism is to worship abstractions, to treat concrete things as symbols of abstract qualities which they represent. For example, the planet Saturn with its slow motion was treated as phlegmatic and evil. The planet Mars with its fiery red light was treated as betokening war and havoc and evil, and so on. Jupiter, with its magnificent golden light, was treated as lucky and benignant to any who came under its influence. Venus became the symbol and the goddess of carnal love. The Pagan Arabs erected Time (Dahr) into a deity, existing from eternity to eternity, and dispensing good and ill fortune to men. The ancient Ægean religion treated the vital principle in the same way, as spontaneous and eternal, and traces of this are found in many religions, ancient and modern. (6) The next step was to reincarnate as it were these qualities in beings of flesh and blood, with lives, feelings, and passions like those of ordinary men and women, and to fill up a confused Pantheon with gods and goddesses that quarrelled, hated, loved, were jealous, and suffered or enjoyed life like human beings. In such a Pantheon there was room for demi-gods and real human heroes that were worshipped as gods. The Greek poets and artists were past masters in carrying out this process, under cover of which they discussed profound human problems with great power. They made religion dramatic. While they gained in humanism, they lost the purer spiritual conceptions which lift the divine world far above the futilities and crimes of this life. Hierarchical Christianity has suffered from this inheritance of the Greek tradition. (7) Where there was a commingling of peoples and cultures, several of these ideas and processes got mixed up together. Gods and goddesses of different origins were identified one with another, e.g. Artemis, the chaste virgin huntress goddess of the Greek Pantheon, was identified with Diana of the Romans, Diana of the Ephesians (representing the teeming life of nature), and Selene the cold moon-goddess. Similarly Diana was identified with the Egyptian Isis, and Diana's twin-brother Apollo (the sun) with the Egyptian Osiris. Forces of nature, animals, trees, qualities, astronomical bodies, and various other factors got mixed up together, and formed a shapeless medley of superstitions, which are all condemned by Islam.

5. To revert to the worship of the heavenly bodies. The countless fixed stars in the firmament occupied always the same relative positions in the heavens, and did not impress the imagination of the ancients like the objects which stood out vividly with mysterious laws of relative motion. A few individual stars did attract the worshippers' attention; e.g. Sirius the Dog-star, the brightest fixed star in the heavens, with a bluish tinge in its light, and Algol the variable star, being Beta of the constellation

APPENDIX XIII.

Ancient Forms of Pagan Worship ( see lxxi. 23, n. 5721 ).

From prehistoric times man has sought to worship powers of nature, or symbols representing those powers, or idols representing those symbols. In vulgar minds they become debased superstitions, and seem to come into competition with the worship of the one True God.

2. The five names mentioned in lxxi. 23 represent some of the oldest Pagan cults, before the Flood as well as after the Flood, though the names themselves are in the form in which they were worshipped by local Arab tribes. The names of the tribes have been preserved to us by the Commentators, but they are of no more than archæological interest to us now. But the names of the false gods are interesting to us from the point of view of comparative religion, as, under one form or another, such cults still exist in countries which have not accepted the Gospel of Unity, as they have always existed since man turned from his Maker and Sustainer to the worship of created things or invented fancies.

3. The names of the five false gods and the symbols under which they were represented were as follows :—

| Pagan god |     | Shape                         |     | Quality represented |
|------------------|-----|--------------------------------------|-----|----------------------------|
| 1. Wadd          | ... | Man                                  | ... | Manly Power.               |
| 2. Suwa'         | ... | Woman                                | ... | Mutability, Beauty.        |
| 3. Yagūth        | ... | Lion (or Bull)                       | ... | Brute Strength.            |
| 4. Ya'ūq         | ... | Horse                                | ... | Swiftness.                 |
| 5. Nasr          | ... | Eagle, or Vulture, ...or Falcon. | ... | Sharp Sight,Insight.   |

It is not clear whether these names are to be connected with true Arabic verbal roots or are merely Arabicised forms of names derived from foreign cults, such as those of Babylonia or Assyria, the region of Noah's Flood. The latter supposition is probable. Even in the case of Wadd (Affection, Love) and Nasr (Eagle), which are good Arabic words, it is doubtful whether they are not, in this connection, translations or corruptions of words denoting foreign cults.

4. In studying ancient comparative mythologies we must never forget the following facts. (1) Men's ideas of God always tend to be anthropomorphic. The qualities which they admire they transfer to their godhead. (2) But fear in primitive man also leads to the transfer of anything mysterious or imagined to be injurious to the Pantheon. Such things have to be placated in order that they may not injure man. Thus in popular Hinduism the goddess of small-pox, which causes terror over an ignorant countryside, has to be worshipped, placated, or appeased with sacrifice. (3) This leads to the worship of animals noxious to man, such as serpent-worship, which

And believing women : <sup>5725</sup>
 And to the wrong-doers
 Grant Thou no increase
 But in Perdition ! <sup>5726</sup>

وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا تَبَارًا

5725. Indeed he prays for himself, his parents, his guests, and all who in earnest faith turn to God, in all ages and in all places. Praying for their forgiveness is also praying for the destruction of sin.

5726. This is slightly different in form from verse 24 above, where see n. 5722. See also last note.

24. " They have already
Misled many; and
Grant Thou no increase
To the wrong-doers but in
Straying (from their mark)."<sup>5722</sup>

﴿٢٤﴾ وَقَدْ أَضَلُّوا كَثِيرًا وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا
ضَلَالًا

25. Because of their sins
They were drowned
(In the flood),<sup>5723</sup>
And were made to enter
The Fire (of Punishment):
And they found—
In lieu of God—
None to help them.

﴿٢٥﴾ تَمَّا خَطِيئَتِهِمْ أُغْرِقُوا فَأُدْخِلُوا نَارًا فَلَمْ يَجِدُوا
لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَنْصَارًا

26. And Noah said:
"O my Lord! Leave not
Of the Unbelievers,
A single one on earth!"<sup>5724</sup>

﴿٢٦﴾ وَقَالَ نُوحٌ رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ
دَيَّارًا

27. " For, if Thou dost leave
(Any of) them, they will
But mislead Thy devotees,
And they will breed none
But wicked ungrateful ones.

﴿٢٧﴾ إِنَّكَ إِنْ تَذَرَهُمْ يُضِلُّوا عِبَادَكَ وَلَا يَلِدُوا
إِلَّا فَاجِرًا كَفَّارًا

28. "O my Lord! Forgive me,
My parents, all who
Enter my house in Faith,
And (all) believing men

﴿٢٨﴾ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيَّ وَلِمَنْ دَخَلَ بَيْتِي مُؤْمِنًا

5722. Such Pagan superstitions and cults do not add to human knowledge or human well-being. They only increase error and wrong-doing. For example, how much lewdness resulted from the Greek and Roman Saturnalia! And how much lewdness results from ribald Holi songs! This is the natural result, and Noah in his bitterness of spirit prays that God's grace may be cut off from men who hug them to their hearts. They mislead others: let them miss their own mark! See also verse 28 below.

5723. The Punishment of sin seizes the soul from every side and in every form. Water (drowning) indicates death by suffocation, through the nose, ears, eyes, mouth, throat, and lungs. Fire has the opposite effects: it burns the skin, the limbs, the flesh, the brains, the bones, and every part of the body. So the destruction wrought by sin is complete from all points of view. And yet it is not death (xx, 74); for death would be a merciful release from the Penalty, and the soul steeped in sin has closed the gates of God's Mercy on itself. There they will abide, unless and "except as God willeth" (vi, 128). For time and eternity, as we conceive them now, have no meaning in the wholly new world which the soul enters after death or Judgment.

5724. The Flood was sent in order to purge all sin. The prayer of Noah is not vindictive. It simply means, "Cut off all the roots of sin". See next note.

18. " ' And in the End
He will return you
Into the (earth),
And raise you forth
(Again at the Resurrection) ?

⑮ تَرْجِعُهُمْ فِيهَا وَيُخْرِجُهُمْ مَخْرَاجًا

19. " ' And God has made
The earth for you
As a carpet (spread out),<sup>5718</sup>

⑯ وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ بِسَاطًا<sup>٧</sup>

20. " ' That ye may go about
Therein, in spacious roads.' " <sup>5719</sup>

⑰ لَتَسْلُكُوا مِنْهَا سُبُلًا فِجَاجًا

SECTION 2.

21. Noah said : " O my Lord !
They have disobeyed me,
But they follow (men)<sup>5719-A</sup>
Whose wealth and children
Give them no Increase
But only Loss.

⑱ قَالَ نُوحٌ رَبِّ إِنَّهُمْ عَصَوْنِي وَاتَّبَعُوا مَنْ لَمْ
يَزِدْهُ مَالَهُ وَوَلَدَهُ إِلَّا خَسَارًا

22. " And they have devised
A tremendous Plot.<sup>5720</sup>

⑲ وَمَكْرُؤًا مَكَرًا كَبِيرًا

23. " And they have said
(To each other),
' Abandon not your gods : <sup>5721</sup>
Abandon neither Wadd
Nor Suwa', neither
Yagūth nor Ya'ūq,
Nor Nasr' ;—

⑳ وَقَالُوا لَا تَذَرُنَّ آلِهَتَكُمْ وَلَا تَذَرُنَّ وَدًّا
وَلَا سُوَاعًا وَلَا يَغُوثَ وَيَعُوقَ وَنَسْرًا

5718. Cf. xx, 53.

5719. Fijāj implies valley-roads or passes between mountains. Though there are mountain chains on the earth, God's artistry has provided even in such regions, valleys and channels by which men may go about. Mountain roads usually follow the valleys.

5719-A. Sinners always resent it as a reproach that righteous men should speak to them for their own good. They prefer smooth flatterers, and they worship power even though the depositaries of power are selfish men, who neither profit themselves nor profit others by the wealth and man-power that they collect round themselves. They forget that mere material things may be a delusion and a snare unless the moral and spiritual factor behind them sanctifies them.

5720. Having got material resources, the wicked devise plots to get rid of the righteous whose presence is a reproach to them. For a time their plots may seem tremendous and have the appearance of success, but they can never defeat God's Purpose.

5721. For an account of how these Pagan gods and superstitions connected with them originated, and how they became adopted into the Arabian Pagan Pantheon, see Appendix XIII at the end of this Sūra, pp. 1619-1623.

12. "Give you increase
In wealth and sons;
And bestow on you
Gardens and bestow on you
Rivers (of flowing water).<sup>5713</sup>

وَيُمِدُّكُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ وَأَبْنٍ وَيَجْعَلُ لَكُمْ جَنَّاتٍ
وَيَجْعَلُ لَكُمْ أَنْهَارًا

13. "What is the matter
With you, that ye
Place not your hope
For kindness and long-suffering
In God;—

مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَرْجُونَ لِلَّهِ وَقَارًا

14. "Seeing that it is He
That has created you
In diverse stages?<sup>5714</sup>

وَقَدْ خَلَقَكُمْ أَطْوَارًا

15. "See ye not
How God has created
The seven heavens
One above another,<sup>5715</sup>

الَّذِينَ رَأَوْا كَيْفَ خَلَقَ اللَّهُ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ طِبَاقًا

16. "And made the moon
A light in their midst,
And made the sun
As a (Glorious) Lamp?<sup>5716</sup>

وَجَعَلَ الْقَمَرَ فِيهِنَّ نُورًا وَجَعَلَ الشَّمْسَ
سِرَاجًا

17. "And God has produced
You from the earth,
Growing (gradually),<sup>5717</sup>

وَاللَّهُ أَنْبَتَكُمْ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ نَبَاتًا

5713. Each of these blessings—rain and crops, wealth and man-power, flourishing gardens, and perennial streams—are indications of prosperity, and have not only a material but also a spiritual meaning. Note the last point, "rivers of flowing water". The perennial springs make the prosperity as it were permanent: they indicate a settled population, honest and contented, and enjoying their blessings here on earth as the foretaste of the eternal joys of heaven.

5714. Cf. xxii. 5, and notes 2773-2777; also xxiii. 12-17, and notes 2872-2875. The meaning here may be even wider. Man in his various states exhibits various wonderful qualities or capacities, mental and spiritual, that may be compared with the wonderful workings of nature on the earth and in the heavens. Will he not then be grateful for these Mercies and turn to God, Who created all these marvels? *

5715. See n. 5559 to lxvii. 3.

5716. Cf. xxv. 61, where the sun is referred to as the glorious Lamp of the heavens: "Blessed is He Who made the Constellations in the skies, and placed therein a lamp, and a moon giving light."

5717. Cf. iii. 37, where the growth of the child Mary the Mother of Jesus is described by the same word nabāt, ordinarily denoting the growth of plants and trees. The simile is that of a seed sown, that germinates, grows, and dies, and goes back to the earth. In man, there is the further process of the Resurrection. Cf. also xx. 55.

6. "But my call only
Increases (their) flight.
(From the Right).<sup>5709</sup>

⑥ فَلَمْ يَزِدْهُمْ دُعَاؤِي إِلَّا فَرَارًا

7. "And every time I have Called to them, that Thou
Mightest forgive them,
They have (only) thrust
Their fingers into their ears,
Covered themselves up with<sup>5710</sup>
Their garments, grown obstinate,
And given themselves up
To arrogance.

⑦ وَإِنِّي كُلَّمَا دَعَوْتُهُمْ لِتَغْفِرَ لَهُمْ جَعَلُوا أَصْبُعَهُمْ فِي
أُذُنِهِمْ وَاتَّقَعُوا غَبَائِرَهُمْ بِأَفْئِدَتِهِمْ وَأَقْبَرُوا
أَسْنِيَابَهُمْ

8. "So I have called to them
Aloud ;

⑧ ثُمَّ إِنِّي دَعَوْتُهُمْ جَهَارًا

9. "Further I have spoken
To them in public<sup>5711</sup>
And secretly in private,

⑨ ثُمَّ إِنِّي أَغْلَنْتُ لَهُمْ وَأَسْرَرْتُ لَهُمْ إِسْرَارًا

10. "Saying, 'Ask forgiveness
From your Lord ;
For He is Oft-Forgiving;

⑩ فَقُلْتُ اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ غَفَّارًا

11. "' He will send rain<sup>5712</sup>
To you in abundance ;

⑪ يُرْسِلُ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَارًا

5709. When convincing arguments and warnings are placed before sinners, there are two kinds of reactions. Those who are wise receive admonition, repent, and bring forth fruits of repentance, i.e. amend their lives and turn to God. On the other hand, those who are callous to any advice take it up as a reproach, fly farther and farther from righteousness, and shut out more and more the channels through which God's healing Grace can reach them and work for them.

5710. The literal meaning would be that, just as they thrust their fingers into their ears to prevent the voice of the admonisher reaching them, so they covered their bodies with their garments that the light of truth should not penetrate to them, and that they should not even be seen by the Preacher. But there is a further symbolic meaning. "Their garments" are the adornments of vanities, their evil habits, customs, and traditions, and their ephemeral interests and standards. They drew them closer round them to prevent the higher Light reaching them. They grew obstinate and gave themselves up to the grossest form of selfish arrogance.

5712. They had perhaps been suffering from drought or famine. If they had taken the message in the right way, the rain would have been a blessing to them. They took it in the wrong way, and the rain was a curse to them, for it flooded the country and drowned the wicked generation. In the larger Plan, it was a blessing all the same; for it purged the world, and gave it a new start, morally and spiritually.

Sûra LXXI.

Nûh, or Noah.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. We sent Noah<sup>5705</sup>
To his People
(With the Command):
"Do thou warn thy People
Before there comes to them
A grievous Penalty."

2. He said : "O my People!
I am to you
A Warner, clear and open :<sup>5706</sup>

3. "That ye should worship
God, fear Him,
And obey me :<sup>5707</sup>

4. "So He may forgive you
Your sins and give you
Respite for a stated Term :
For when the Term given
By God is accomplished,
It cannot be put forward :<sup>5708</sup>
If ye only knew."

5. He said : "O my 'Lord!
I have called to my People
Night and day :

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ أَنْ أَنْذِرْ قَوْمَكَ مِنْ
قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

② قَالَ يَتُوبُونَ لِي لَكُم نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ

③ أَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ وَأَتَّقُوهُ وَأَطِيعُوا

④ يَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ مِنْ ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُؤَخِّرْكُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
إِنْ أَجَلَ اللَّهِ إِذَا جَاءَ لَا يُؤَخَّرُونَ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ

⑤ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي دَعَوْتُ قَوْمِي لَيْلًا وَنَهَارًا

5705 Noah's mission is referred to in many places. See specially xi. 25-49 and notes. His contemporaries had completely abandoned the moral law. A purge had to be made, and the great Flood made it. This gives a new starting point in history for Noah's People,—i.e. for the remnant saved in the Ark.

5706. His Warning was to be both clear (i.e. unambiguous) and open (i.e. publicly proclaimed). Both these meanings are implied in Mubîn. Cf. lxvii. 26. The meaning of the Warning was obviously that if they had repented, they would have obtained mercy.

5707. Three aspects of man's duty are emphasized: (1) true worship with heart and soul; (2) God-fearing recognition that all evil must lead to self-deterioration and Judgment; (3) hence repentance and amendment of life, and obedience to good men's counsels.

5708. God gives respite freely; but it is for Him to give it. His command is definite and final; neither man nor any other authority can alter or in any way modify it. If we could only realise this to the full in our inmost soul, it would be best for us and lead to our happiness.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXXI (NĀĤ).

This is another early Meccan Sŭra, of which the date has no significance. The theme is that while Good must uphold the standard of Truth and Righteousness, a stage is reached when it must definitely part company with Evil, lest Evil should spread its corruption abroad. This theme is embodied in the prayer of Noah just before the Flood. The story of Noah's agony is almost a Parable for the holy Prophet's persecution in the Meccan period.

C. 251.—The Prophet's Message, as was that of Noah,
(lxxi. 1-28.) Is a warning against sin, and the Good News of Mercy
Through the door of Repentance : for God is loving
And long suffering, and His Signs are within us
And around us. But the sinners are obstinate :
They plot against Righteousness, and place their trust
In futile falsehoods. They will be swept away,
And the earth will be purged of Evil. Let us
Pray for Mercy and Grace for ourselves,
For those nearest and dearest to us,
And for all who turn in faith to God
In all ages and all countries,
And amongst all Peoples.

The Lord of all points
In the East and the West <sup>5701</sup>
That We can certainly—<sup>5702</sup>

41. Substitute for them
Better (men) than they;
And We are not
To be defeated
(In Our Plan).

42. So leave them
To plunge in vain talk
And play about, <sup>5703</sup>
Until they encounter
That Day of theirs which
They have been promised!—

43. The Day whereon
They will issue
From their sepulchres
In sudden haste
As if they were
Rushing to a goal-post
(Fixed for them),—<sup>5704</sup>

44. Their eyes lowered
In dejection,—
Ignominy covering them
(All over) !
Such is the Day
The which they
Are promised !

⑥ يَوْمَ يُخْرِجُونَ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ سَرَّاعًا كَأَنَّهُمْ
إِلَى نَضِيبٍ يُوَفِّضُونَ

⑦ خَشِيعَةً أَبْصَرُهُمْ تَرَ هَقَّهُمْ ذَلَّةٌ ذَلِكَ
الْيَوْمُ الَّذِي كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ

5701. See n. 4034 to xxxvii. 5. If God has such power in the wonderful phenomena of the rising of the sun at varying points, repeated year after year, can you not see that He can easily substitute better men than you Unbelievers and blasphemers ?

5702. The transition from the singular "I" to the plural "We" may be noted. See n. 36 to ii. 38.

5703. Their talk, their scepticism, is vain, because all spiritual evidence is against it ; it is like the foolish play of people who do not think seriously. But the tremendous Day of Judgment and Reality will come, as described in the next two verses.

5704. Now there will be a definite Goal-post or Banner or Standard of Truth fixed, which all must acknowledge. But they will acknowledge it in shame and dejection. For the time for their repentance and amendment will then have passed.

34. And those who guard
(The sacredness) of their worship;—<sup>5697</sup>

﴿وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ﴾

35. Such will be
The honoured ones
In the Gardens (of Bliss).

﴿أُولَٰئِكَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ مُّكْرَّمُونَ﴾

SECTION 2.

36. Now what is
The matter with the Unbelievers
That they rush madly
Before thee—<sup>5698</sup>

﴿قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا قِبَلَكَ مَهْطَعِينَ﴾

37. From the right
And from the left,
In crowds?

﴿عَنِ الْيَمِينِ وَعَنِ الشِّمَالِ عِزِينَ﴾

38. Does every man of them
Long to enter
The Garden of Bliss?

﴿أَيَطْمَعُ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ يُدْخَلَ جَنَّةَ نَعِيمٍ﴾

39. By no means!
For We have created them
Out of the (base matter)
They know! <sup>5699</sup>

﴿كَلَّا إِنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُمْ مِنْ نَارٍ يَعْلَمُونَ﴾

40. Now I do
Call to witness <sup>5700</sup>

﴿فَلَا أُقْسِمُ﴾

5697. Worship or prayer includes honest work, charity, and every good deed. To guard the sacredness of this ideal is to sum up the whole duty of man. We began with "steadfastness in prayer" in verse 23 above, and after a review of various aspects of the good man's life, close with the sacredness of worship, i.e. living as in the sight of God.

5698. Before thee. The Unbelievers did not believe in a Hereafter. When the Bliss of the Hereafter was described, as in the last verse, they ridiculed it and pretended to be running in for it as in a race. They are here rebuked in the same tone of sarcasm.

5699. The animal part of man is nothing to be proud of, and they know it. It is by spiritual effort, and long preparation through a good life, that a man can rise above the mere animal part of him to his high dignity as a spiritual being, and his noble destiny in the Hereafter.

5700. For the form of adjuration, cf. lxxix. 38, n. 5665; also lvi. 75. Here the witness placed before us by God is His own power and glory manifested in the splendour of sunrise and sunset at different points through the solar year.

27. And those who fear<sup>5692</sup>
The displeasure of their Lord,—

﴿٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ مِنْ عَذَابِ رَبِّهِمْ مُتَّقُونَ

28. For their Lord's displeasure
Is the opposite of Peace
And Tranquillity ;—<sup>5693</sup>

﴿٨﴾ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّهِمْ غَيْرُ مَأْمُونٍ

29. And those who guard
Their chastity,

﴿٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِفُرُوجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ

30. Except with their wives
And the (captives) whom<sup>5694</sup>
Their right hands possess,—
For (then) they are not
To be blamed,

﴿١٠﴾ إِلَّا عَلَىٰ أَزْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ
فَإِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُومِينَ

31. But those who trespass
Beyond this are transgressors ;—

﴿١١﴾ فَمَنْ ابْتَغَىٰ وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ
الْعَادُونَ

32. And those who respect
Their trusts and covenants ;<sup>5695</sup>

﴿١٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمْتَانِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُونَ

33. And those who stand firm
In their testimonies ;<sup>5696</sup>

﴿١٣﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِشَهَادَتِهِمْ قَائِمُونَ

5692. A true fear of God is the fear of offending against His holy Will and Law, and is therefore akin to the love of God. It proceeds from the realisation that all true peace and tranquillity comes from attuning our will to the universal Will, and that sin causes discord, disharmony, and displeasure,—another name for the Wrath of God.

5693. Some would construe this verse : " And their Lord's displeasure is one against which there is no security " ; meaning that the punishment of sin may come suddenly at any time, when you least expect it.

5694 Captives of war may be married as such : see iv. 25 ; but their status is inferior to that of free wives until they are free. This institution of the captives of war is now obsolete. Such inferiority of status as there was, was in the status of captivity, not in the status of marriage as such, in which there are no degrees except by local customs, which Islam does not recognise.

5695. For obligations or trusts and covenants, express or implied, see n. 681 to v. 1. They are just as sacred in ordinary everyday life as they are in special spiritual relationships. In addition, our life itself, and such reason and talents as we possess, as well as our wealth and possessions are trusts, of which we must fulfil the duties punctiliously.

5696. If we know any truth of any kind, to that we must bear witness, as affecting the lives or interests of our fellow-beings,—firmly, not half-heartedly, without fear or favour, even if it causes loss or trouble to us, or if it loses us friends or associates.

19. Truly man was created
Very impatient;—<sup>5588</sup>

⑪ * إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ خُلِقَ هَلُوعًا

20. Fretful when evil
Touches him;

⑫ إِذَا مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ جَزُوعًا

21. And niggardly when
Good reaches him;—<sup>5589</sup>

⑬ وَإِذَا مَسَّهُ الْخَيْرُ مَنُوعًا

22. Not so those devoted
To Prayer;—<sup>5590</sup>

⑭ إِلَّا الْمُصَلِّينَ

23. Those who remain steadfast
To their prayer;

⑮ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِمْ دَائِمُونَ

24. And those in whose wealth
Is a recognised right

⑯ وَالَّذِينَ فِي أَمْوَالِهِمْ حَقٌّ مَّعْلُومٌ

25. For the (needy) who asks
And him who is prevented
(For some reason from asking); <sup>5591</sup>

⑰ لِلسَّائِلِ وَالْمَحْسُومِ

26. And those who hold
To the truth of the Day
Of Judgment;

⑱ وَالَّذِينَ يُصَدِّقُونَ بَيِّنَاتِ الدِّينِ

5588. Man, according to the Plan of God, was to be in the best of moulds (xcv. 4). But in order to fulfil his high destiny he was given free-will to a limited extent. The wrong use of this free-will makes his nature weak (iv. 28), or hasty (xvii. 11), or impatient, as here. That becomes his nature by his own act, but he is spoken of as so created because of the capacities given to him in his creation.

5589. In adversity he complains and gets into despair. In prosperity he becomes arrogant and forgets other people's rights and his own shortcomings. C/. xli. 49-50.

5590. The description of those devoted to Prayer is given in a number of clauses that follow, introduced by the words "Those who...". "Devoted to Prayer" is here but another aspect of what is described elsewhere as the Faithful and the Righteous. Devotion to prayer does not mean merely a certain number of formal rites or prostrations. It means a complete surrender of one's being to God. This means an earnest approach to and realisation of God's Presence ("steadfastness in Prayer"); acts of practical and real charity; an attempt to read this life in terms of the Hereafter; the seeking of the Peace of God and avoidance of His displeasure; chastity; probity true and firm witness; and guarding the sacredness of the Presence (verse 34).

5591. See n. 5001 to li. 19. True charity consists in finding out those in real need, whether they ask or not. Most frequently those who ask are idle men who insolently wish to live upon others. But all cases of those who ask should be duly investigated, in case a little timely help may set the erring on the way. But the man with wealth or talent or opportunity has the further responsibility of searching out those in need of his assistance, in order to show that he holds all gifts in trust for the service of his fellow-creatures.

Redeem himself from
The Penalty of that Day<sup>5684</sup>
By (sacrificing) his children,

12. His wife and his brother,

13. His kindred who sheltered him,

14. And all, all that is
On earth,—so it could
Deliver him :<sup>5685</sup>

15. By no means !
For it would be
The Fire of Hell !—

16. Plucking out (his being)
Right to the skull !—<sup>5686</sup>

17. Inviting (all) such
As turn their backs<sup>5687</sup>
And turn away their faces
(From the Right),

18. And collect (wealth)
And hide it (from use) !

لَوْ فَتَدَّى مِنْ عَذَابِ يَوْمِئِذٍ بِبَنِيهِ

⑦ وَصَحْبِهِ وَأَخِيهِ

⑧ وَفَصِيلَتِهِ الَّتِي تُؤْوِيهِ

⑨ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ يُنْجِيهِ

⑩ كَلَّا إِنَّهَا لَأُظْلَى

⑪ نَزَاعَةً لِلنَّوَى

⑫ تَدْعُو مَنْ أَذْبَرَ تَوَلَّى

⑬ وَجَمَعَ فَأَوْعَى

5684. The sinner will offer his children, his family, his kinsmen, who had sheltered and protected him,—in fact everything on earth that he could—as a ransom for himself. Such would be his selfishness and his agony.

5685. What would not the sinner give for his own deliverance ! But nothing could save him. The Fire of Hell would be roaring for him !

5686. It would be a Fire not only burning his body, but reaching right up to his brains and his understanding, and—as is said in civ. 7—his heart and affections also. In other words the Penalty typified by the Fire will burn into his inmost being.

5687. The analysis of sin is given in four master-strokes, of which the first two refer to the will or psychology of the sinner, and the last two to the use he makes of the good things of this life. (1) Sin begins with turning your back to the Right, refusing to face it squarely, running away from it whether from cowardice or indifference. (2) But Conscience and the sense of Right will try to prevent the flight ; the Grace of God will meet the sinner at all corners and try to reclaim him ; the hardened sinner will deliberately turn away his face from it, insult it, and reject it. (3) The result of this psychology will be that he will abandon himself to greed, to the collection of riches, and the acquisition of material advantages to which he is not entitled ; this may involve hypocrisy, fraud, and crime. (4) Having acquired the material advantages, the next step will be to keep others out of them, to prevent hoarded wealth from fructifying by circulation, to conceal it from envy or spite. This is the spiritual Rake's Progress.

5679. The man of God, persecuted and in trouble with the world, should yet hold Patience—not the sort of patience which goes with complaints expressed or suppressed, as in the early history of Job, but the sort of patience that is content with the ordering of God's world, for he believes and knows it to be good, as did the holy Prophet Muhammad. Such a patience is akin to Good Pleasure, for it arises from the purest faith and trust in God.

5680. The men of evil may see the just retribution for their sins so far off that they doubt whether it would ever come. But in God's sight, and on the scale of the Universal Plan, it is quite near; for time as we know it hardly exists in the spiritual world. It may come even in this life; but it is bound to come eventually.

5681. C/. xviii. 29, (where the wrong-doer will have a drink like melted brass in Hell); and xlv. 45, (where his food will be like molten brass). Here the appearance of the sky is compared to molten brass, or, as some understand it, like the dregs of oil. What is conveyed by the metaphor is that the beautiful blue sky will melt away.

5682. C/. ci. 5, where the metaphor of carded wool is used. The mountains which seem so solid will be like flakes of wool driven by the carder's hand.

5683. The world as we know it will have so completely passed away that the landmarks in the heavens and on earth will also have vanished. Not only that, but the human relationships of mind and heart will have been transformed by sin into something ugly and dreadful. The sinners will be so overcome with terror at the realisation of their personal responsibility that they will desert their most intimate friends, and indeed their very sight of each other will add to their agony.

Sura LXX.

Ma'arij, or the Ways of Ascent.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. A questioner asked <sup>5675</sup>
About a Penalty
To befall—

① سَأَلَ سَائِلٌ بِعَذَابٍ وَاقِعٍ

2. The Unbelievers,
The which there is none
To ward off,—

② لِلْكَافِرِينَ لَيْسَ لَهُ دَافِعٌ

3. (A Penalty) from God,
Lord of the Ways
Of Ascent. <sup>5678</sup>

③ مِنَ اللَّهِ ذِي الْمَعَارِجِ

4. The angels and
The Spirit <sup>5677</sup> ascend
Unto Him in a Day <sup>5678</sup>
The measure whereof
Is (as) fifty thousand years :

④ تَمْرُجُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَالرُّوحُ إِلَيْهِ فِي يَوْمٍ كَانَ
مِقْدَارُهُ خَمْسِينَ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ

5675. Any one might ask, When will Judgment come? That question usually implies doubt. The answer is: the mystery of Time is beyond man's comprehension. But there is something which touches him closely and concerns his conduct and his future welfare, and that is explained in four propositions, (1) Judgment is sure to come, and none can ward it off; (2) it will exact a dreadful Penalty from Unbelievers, but the righteous have nothing to fear; (3) it will be a Penalty from God, the Lord of both Justice and Mercy; it will not be merely a blind calamity of fate; and (4) further we are reminded of another title of God, "Lord of the Ways of Ascent"; which means that though He sits high on His Throne of Glory, He is not inaccessible, but in His infinite Mercy has provided ways of ascent to Him; see next note

5676. Ma'arij: stair-ways, ways of ascent. In xliii. 33, the word is used in its literal sense; "silver stair-ways on which to go up". Here there is a profound spiritual meaning. Can we reach up to God Most High? In His infinite grace He gives that privilege to angels and spiritual beings, man being such in his highest aspect. But the way is not easy, nor can it be travelled in a day. See the next two notes.

5677. Rūh: "The Spirit". Cf. lxxviii. 38, "the Spirit and the angels"; and xcvi. 4, "the angels and the Spirit". In xvi. 2, we have translated Rūh by "inspiration". Some Commentators understand the angel Gabriel by "the Spirit". But I think a more general meaning is possible, and fits the context better. Man is gifted with the Spirit of God: xv. 29. In the spiritual kingdom we are all raised to the light of the Countenance of God, and His Glory transforms us.

5678. But such a glorious transformation is not to be attained without the highest spiritual exertion, and if we measure time as we measure it on the plane of this life, it may take thousands of years. In the spiritual plane it may be just a day or a moment. Cf. xxxii. 4-5, and notes 3632 and 3634.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY : SŪRA LXX (Ma'ārij).

This is another eschatological Sūra closely connected in subject-matter with the last one. Patience and the mystery of Time will show the ways that climb to Heaven. Sin and Goodness must each eventually come to its own.

Chronologically it belongs to the late early or early middle Meccan period, possibly soon after S. lxix.

C. 250.—Man can ascend to the Presence of God,
 (lxx. 1-44) But by gradual Ways and in process of Time.
 But what is Time? A Day is as fifty
 Thousand years, on two different planes.
 What seems near is far, and what seems far is near.
 So will be Judgment, when things as we know them
 Will be transformed completely in a world
 All new. Evil will come to its own,
 Whatever its masks in this transitory world,
 And good will surely reach its goal.
 The good life is patient, in prayer
 And well-doing, Faith and the earnest search
 For the Good Pleasure of God, purity and probity.
 These are the paths to the Heights and the Gardens
 Of Bliss. No evil can enter there :
 For the evil are other ways, leading
 By steep descent to dark Ignominy !

45. We should certainly seize him
By his right hand,<sup>5669</sup>

④ لَاخْذَنَا مِنْهُ بِالْيَمِينِ

46. And We should certainly
Then cut off the artery
Of his heart :<sup>5670</sup>

⑤ نَزَقَطْعَانَا مِنْهُ الْوَتِينَ

47. Nor could any of you
Withhold him<sup>5671</sup>
(From Our wrath).

⑥ فَمَا مِنْكُمْ مِنْ أَحَدٍ عَنْهُ حَاجِزِينَ

48. But verily this
Is a Message for
The God-fearing.

⑦ وَإِنَّهُ لَتَذْكُرَةٌ لِلَّتَّاقِينَ

49. And We certainly know
That there are amongst you
Those that reject (it).

⑧ وَإِنَّا لَنَعْلَمُ أَنَّ مِنْكُمْ مُكَذِّبِينَ

50. But truly (Revelation)
Is a cause of sorrow<sup>5672</sup>
For the Unbelievers.

⑨ وَإِنَّهُ لِحَسْرَةٍ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ

51. But verily it is Truth<sup>5673</sup>
Of assured certainty.

⑩ فَإِنَّهُ لَحَقُّ الْيَقِينِ

52. So glorify the name<sup>5674</sup>
Of thy Lord Most High.

⑪ فَسَبِّحْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الْعَظِيمِ

5669. The right hand is the hand of power and action. Any one who is seized by his right hand is prevented from acting as he wishes or carrying out his purpose. The argument is that if an impostor were to arise, he would soon be found out. He could not carry out his fraud indefinitely. But the men of God, however much they are persecuted, gain more and more power every day, as did the holy Prophet, whose truth, earnestness, sincerity, and love for all, were recognised as his life unfolded itself.

5670. This would effectually stop the functioning of his life.

5671. The protection which the men of God enjoy in circumstances of danger and difficulty would not be available for impostors.

5672. The Message of God is glad tidings for those who believe in Him and follow His Law, for it is a message of Mercy and Forgiveness through repentance and amendment. But in the case of the wicked it is a cause of sorrow, for it denounces sin and proclaims the punishment of those who do not turn from evil.

5673. All Truth is in itself certain. But as received by men, and understood with reference to men's psychology, certainty may have certain degrees. There is the probability or certainty resulting from the application of man's power of judgment and his appraisal of evidence. This is 'ilm-ul-yaqīn, certainty by reasoning or inference. Then there is the certainty of seeing something with our own eyes. "Seeing is believing." This is 'ain-ul-yaqīn, certainty by personal inspection. See cil. 5, 7. Then, as here, there is the absolute Truth, with no possibility of error of judgment or error of the eye, (which stands for any instrument of sense-perception and any ancillary aids, such as microscopes, etc.). This absolute Truth is the haqq-ul-yaqīn spoken of here.

5674. As God has given us this absolute Truth through His Revelation, it behoves us to understand it and be grateful to Him. We must celebrate His praises in thought, word and deed,

SECTION 2.

38. So I do
Call to witness <sup>5665</sup>
What ye see
39. And what ye see not,
40. That this is
Verily the word
Of an honoured apostle ; <sup>5666</sup>
41. It is not the word
Of a poet : <sup>5667</sup>
Little it is
Ye believe !
42. Nor is it the word
Of a soothsayer : <sup>5668</sup>
Little admonition it is Ye receive.
43. (This is) a Message
Sent down from the Lord
Of the Worlds.
44. And if the apostle
Were to invent
Any sayings in Our name,

٦٩ فَلَا أَقْسِمُ بِمَا تُبْصِرُونَ

٧٠ وَمَا لَا تُبْصِرُونَ

٧١ إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ رَسُولٍ كَرِيمٍ

٧٢ وَمَاهُوَ بِقَوْلِ شَاعِرٍ قَلِيلًا مَّا تُؤْمِنُونَ

٧٣ وَلَا يَقُولُ كَمَا فُتِنَ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُونَ

٧٤ لَنَزِيلٌ مِّن رَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

٧٥ وَلَوْ تَقَوَّلَ عَلَيْنَا بَعْضُ الْأَقَاوِيلِ

5665. This is an adjuration in the same form as that which occurs in lvi. 75, lxx. 40, xc. 1, and elsewhere. God's Word is the quintessence of Truth. But what if someone doubts whether a particular Message is God's Word communicated through His Apostle, or merely an imaginary tale presented by a poet, or a soothsayer's vain prophecy? Then we have to examine it in the light of our highest spiritual faculties. The witness to that Word is what we know in the visible world, in which falsehood in the long run gives place to truth, and what we know in the invisible world, through our highest spiritual faculties. We are asked to examine and test it in both these ways.

5666. Honoured apostle: one that is worthy of honour on account of the purity of his life, and may be relied upon not to invent things but to give the true inner experiences of his soul in Revelation.

5667. A poet draws upon his imagination, and the subjective factor is so strong that though we may learn much from him, we cannot believe as facts the wonderful tales he has to tell. And the poet who is not a Seer is merely a vulgar votary of exaggerations and falsehoods.

5668. A soothsayer merely pretends to foretell future events of no profound spiritual consequence. Most of his prophecies are frauds, and none of them is meant to teach lessons of real admonition. Such admonition is the work of an honoured apostle.

31. " And burn ye him
In the Blazing Fire.

① ثُمَّ الْجَحِيمَ صَلَوَهُ

32. " Further, make him march
In a chain, whereof<sup>5661</sup>
The length is seventy cubits !

② ثُمَّ فِي سِلْسِلَةٍ ذَرْعُهَا سَبْعُونَ ذِرَاعًا
فَأَسْلَكُوهُ

33. " This was he that
Would not believe<sup>5662</sup>
In God Most High,

③ إِنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ الْعَظِيمِ

34. " And would not encourage<sup>5663</sup>
The feeding of the indigent !

④ وَلَا يَحْضُرُ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمَسْكِينِ

35 " So no friend hath he
Here this Day.

⑤ فَلَيْسَ لَهُ الْيَوْمَ هَاهُنَا حَبِيبٌ

36. " Nor hath he any food
Except the corruption<sup>5664</sup>
From the washing of wounds,

⑥ وَلَا طَعَامٌ إِلَّا مِنْ غِسْلِينٍ

37. " Which none do eat
But those in sin."

⑦ لَا يَأْكُلُهُ إِلَّا الْخَاطِئُونَ

5661. The effects of sin are described in words of glowing imagery. (1) "Seize him": the first step of the sinner is that he loses his spiritual liberty, and becomes a slave to passion, prejudice, envy, hatred, and all the brood of evil. (2) "Bind him": his hands are bound round his neck; all his powers and generous impulses are checked and his sympathies are dried up. (3) "Burn him in the Blazing Fire": he is then consumed in the Flames of Destruction, for which he has made himself fit. (4) "Make him march in a chain": the consequences of sin ramify and extend, and it becomes a long chain, a chain seventy cubits long, that holds him in thrall from not one but many points of view. "Oh! what a tangled web we weave, when first we practise to deceive!" "Seventy" implies an indefinitely large number as in ix. 80.

5662. The grip of sin was fastened on sinners because they forsook God. They ran after their own lusts and worshipped them, or they ran after God's creatures, ignoring Him Who is the cause and source of all good.

5663. Cf. cvii. 3; lxxxix, 18. The practical result of their rebellion against the God of Mercy was that their sympathies dried up. Not only did they not help or feed those in need, but they hindered others from doing so. And they have neither friend nor sympathy (food) in the Hereafter.

5664. They wounded many people by their cruelty and injustice in this life. And the symbol of their reward is that they should feed on the corruption that issues from such wounds. Who but a sinner can contemplate such a thing?

Because of the (good)
That ye sent before you,<sup>5655</sup>
In the days that are gone!"<sup>5656</sup>

بِمَا أَسْلَفْتُمْ فِي الْأَيَّامِ الْخَالِيَةِ

25. And he that will
Be given his Record
In his left hand,<sup>5657</sup>
Will say: "Ah! would
That my record had not
Been given to me!

⑩ وَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ وَشِمَالَهُ فَيَقُولُ يَلَيْتَنِي
لَمْ أُوتِ كِتَابِيْ

26. "And that I had never Realised how
My account (stood)!

⑪ وَلَمْ أَذِرْ مَا حِسَابِيْ

27. "Ah! would that (Death)<sup>5658</sup>
Had made an end of me!

⑫ يَلَيْتَهَا كَانِيَ الْقَاضِيَةَ

28. "Of no profit to me
Has been my wealth!

⑬ مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنِّي مَالِيْ

29. "My power has Perished from me!"...<sup>5659</sup>

⑭ هَلَكَ عَنِّي سُلْطَانِيْ

30. (The stern command will say):
"Seize ye him,
And bind ye him,"<sup>5660</sup>

⑮ خُذُوْهُ فَغُلُوْهُ

5655. Cf. ii. 110: "Whatever good ye send forth for your souls before you, ye shall find it with God: for God sees well all that ye do."

5656. It will be a wholly new world, a new earth and a new heaven, when the blessed might well think with calm relief of "the days that are gone". Cf. xiv. 48, and n 1925. Even Time and Space will be no more, so that any ideas that we may form here will be found to have become wholly obsolete by them.

5657. This is in contrast to the righteous ones who will receive their record in their right hand. Cf. Ixix. 19, n. 5652. The righteous are glad when they remember their past: their memory is itself a precious possession. The unjust are in agony when they remember their past. Their memory is itself a grievous punishment.

5658. The death as from this life was but a transition into a new world. They would wish that that death had been the end of all things, but it will not be.

5659. The intensest agony is when the soul loses power over itself, when the personality tries to realise itself in new conditions and cannot: this is life in death.

5660. Perhaps the word for 'bind' should be construed: 'bind his hands round his neck, to remind him that his hands when they were free were closed to all acts of charity and mercy': Cf. xvii. 29.

And eight will, that Day,
Bear the Throne <sup>5651</sup>
Of thy Lord above them.

18. That Day shall ye be Brought to Judgment:
Not an act of yours
That ye hide will be hidden.

19. Then he that will be Given his Record
In his right hand <sup>5653</sup>
Will say: "Ah here!
Read ye my Record!

20. "I did really understand <sup>5653</sup>
That my Account would
(One Day) reach me!"

21. And he will be
In a life of Bliss,

22. In a Garden on high,

23. The Fruits whereof <sup>5654</sup>
(Will hang in bunches)
Low and near.

24. "Eat ye and drink ye,
With full satisfaction;

وَيَحْمِلُ عَرْشَ رَبِّكَ فَوْقَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ ثَمَنِيَّةٌ

١٨ يَوْمَئِذٍ تُعْرَضُونَ لَا تَخْفَى مِنْكُمْ خَافِيَةٌ

١٩ فَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوْتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ فَيَقُولُ هَؤُلَاءِ
أَقْرَبُ وَكَتَبْتُ

٢٠ إِنِّي ظَنَنْتُ أَنِّي مُلْكٌ حَسْبِيَّةٌ

٢١ فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَاضِيَةٍ

٢٢ فِي جَنَّةٍ عَالِيَةٍ

٢٣ قُطُوفُهَا دَانِيَةٌ

٢٤ كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا

5651. See last note. Angels represent manifestations of divine glory. The number eight has perhaps no special significance, unless it be with reference to the shape of the "Throne". The Oriental Throne is often octagonal, and its bearers would be one at each corner. Or, if it is a square throne, there might be four bearers, and four in relief at any given time, making eight in all. The whole description is symbolical, as representing the majesty of God Most High.

5652. Cf. xvii. 71, where the righteous are described as those who are given their record in their right hand at Judgment. In lvi. 27, 38, and other passages, the righteous are called "Companions of the Right Hand".

5653. The righteous one rejoices that the faith he had during this world's life was fully justified, and is now actually realised before him. He quite understood and believed that good and evil must meet with their due consequences in the Hereafter, however much appearances may have been against it in the life in the lower world, "in the days that are gone."

5654. The symbolism is that of ripe, luscious grapes, hanging low in heavy bunches, so near that they could be gathered and enjoyed in dignified ease, Cf. also lv. 54, lxxvi. 14.

12. That We might
Make it a Message<sup>5646</sup>
Unto you, and that ears
(That should hear the tale
And) retain its memory
Should bear its (lessons)
In remembrance.<sup>5647</sup>
13. When, when one
Blast is sounded<sup>5648</sup>
On the Trumpet,
14. And the earth is moved,
And its mountains,<sup>5649</sup>
And they are crushed to powder
At one stroke,—
15. On that Day
Shall the (Great) Event
Come to pass,
16. And the sky will be
Rent asunder, for it will
That Day be flimsy,
17. And the angels will be
On its sides,<sup>5650</sup>

لِنَعْلَمَ لَكَ تَذَكُّرًا لِّقَوْمٍ أُولِيْ عِلْمٍ

فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ نَفْخَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ

وَحُمِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ وَالْجِبَالُ فَدُكَّتَا دَكَّةً
وَاحِدَةً

فِيَوْمٍ ذِي قَعَبٍ الْوَاقِعَةِ

وَانشَقَّتِ السَّمَاءُ فَهِيَ يَوْمَ ذِي قَعَبٍ وَاحِدَةٍ

وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ عَلَى أَرْجَائِهَا

5646. It was a memorial for all time, to show that evil meets with its punishment, but the good are saved by the mercy of God.

5647. Cf. the biblical phrase, "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear" (Matt. xi. 15). But the phrase used here has a more complicated import. An ear may hear, but for want of will in the hearer the hearer may not wish, for the future or for all time, to retain the memory of the lessons he has heard, even though for the time being he was impressed by it. The penetration of the truth has to be far deeper and subtler, and this is desired here.

5648. We now come to the Inevitable Event, the Day of Judgment, the theme of this Sūra. This is the first Blast referred to in xxxix, 68, n. 4343.

5649. The whole of our visible world, as we now know it, will pass away, and a new world will come into being. The mountains are specially mentioned, because they stand as the type of hardness, size, and durability. They will be "crushed to powder", i.e., lose their form and being at one stroke.

5650. The whole picture is painted in graphic poetical images, to indicate that which cannot be adequately described in words, and which indeed our human faculties with their present limited powers are not ready to comprehend. The heavens will be rent asunder. We imagine the angels to live in the heavens. How shall we picture their state? They will gather round the sides, for the veils which hid the Glory of God will be gone, and that Glory will be the Throne, the symbol of His power and authority, of His justice and truth. Cf. also xxxix. 75.

7. He made it rage
Against them seven nights
And eight days in succession ;
So that thou couldst see
The (whole) people lying
Prostrate in its (path),
As if they had been
Roots of hollow palm-trees <sup>5610</sup>
Tumbled down !

⑦ سَخَّرَهَا عَلَيْهِمْ سَبْعَ لَيَالٍ وَثَمَنِيَةَ أَيَّامٍ
خُسُوفًا فَتَرَى الْقَوْمَ فِيهَا صَرْعَى كَأَنَّهُمْ
أُعْجَازٌ بَايَضَتِ خَاوِيَةً

8. Then seest thou any
Of them left surviving ? <sup>5611</sup>

⑧ فَهَلْ تَرَى لَهُمْ مِنْ بَاقِيَةٍ

9. And Pharaoh, <sup>5612</sup>
And those before him, <sup>5613</sup>
And the Cities Overthrown, <sup>5614</sup>
Committed habitual Sin,

⑨ وَجَاءَ فِرْعَوْنُ وَمَنْ قَبْلَهُ وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَاتُ
بِالْخَاطِئَةِ

10. And disobeyed (each)
The apostle of their Lord ;
So He punished them
With an abundant Penalty.

⑩ فَصَوَّرَ رَسُولَ رَبِّهِمْ فَأَخَذَهُمْ أَخَذَةً
رَآيَةً

11. We, when the water
(Of Noah's Flood) overflowed
Beyond its limits, <sup>5615</sup>
Carried you (mankind),
In the floating (Ark),

⑪ إِنَّا لَنَاطِقُا الْمَاءَ حَمَلِكُمْ فِي الْجَارِيَةِ

5610. A graphic simile. Dead men all lying about like hollow trunks of palm-trees, with their roots exposed ! The 'Ad were reputed to be of a tall stature.

5611. The calamity was thorough. The 'Ad were destroyed, and then the Thamūd, and only the tradition of them was left behind. See the references in n. 5636.

5612. Pharaoh's Apostle was Moses. See the story in vii. 103-137 and the notes there. Pharaoh was inordinately proud, and his fall was proportionately great : it gradually extended to his dynasty and his people. See Appendix V of S. vii, p. 410.

5613. If we follow the sequence of peoples whose sins destroyed them, as mentioned in vii. 59-158, we begin with Noah, then have the 'Ad and the Thamūd, then the Cities of the Plain, then Midian, then the people whose prophet was Moses (who occupies a central place in the canon), and then the Pagan Qurāsh, to whom came the last and greatest of the prophets, our holy Prophet Muhammad. This is the chronological sequence. Here there is no detail, nor even complete mention. But Noah is alluded to last, and the 'Ad and the Thamūd mentioned first, because the latter two belong to Arab tradition, and this is specially addressed to the Pagans of Mecca. Pharaoh is mentioned rather than Moses for the same reason, and any others are "those before Pharaoh".

5614. The Cities Overthrown : Sodom and Gomorrah, Cities of the Plain, to whom Lot preached : see ix. 70, n. 1330 ; and vii. 80-84, n. 1049.

5615. It was a widespread Flood. Cf. vii. 59-64 ; also xi. 25-49. Noah was ridiculed for his preparations for the Flood : see xi. 38, n. 1531. But God had commanded him to build an Ark, in order that mankind in that region should be saved from perishing in the Flood. But only those of Faith got into the Ark and were saved. As the Ark was built to God's command, God "carried you (mankind) in the floating (Ark)".

Sūra LXIX.

Hāqqa, or the Sure Reality.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. The Sure Reality! <sup>5635</sup>

2. What is the Sure Reality?

3. And what will make
Thee realise what
The Sure Reality is?4. The Thamūd <sup>5636</sup>
And the 'Ad people
(Branded) as false
The Stunning Calamity! <sup>5637</sup>5. But the Thamūd,—
They were destroyed
By a terrible Storm <sup>5638</sup>
Of thunder and lightning!6. And the 'Ad,—<sup>5639</sup>
They were destroyed
By a furious Wind,
Exceedingly violent;

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① الْحَاقَّةُ

② مَا الْحَاقَّةُ

③ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحَاقَّةُ

④ كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ وَعَادٌ بِالْقَارِعَةِ

⑤ فَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَأُهْلِكُوا بِالطَّاغِيَةِ

⑥ وَأَمَّا عَادٌ فَأُهْلِكُوا بِرِيحٍ صَرْصَرٍ عَالِيَةٍ

5635. Al-hāqqa: the sure Truth: the Event that must inevitably come to pass; the state in which all falsehood and pretence will vanish, and the absolute Truth will be laid bare. The questions in the three verses raise an air of mystery. The solution is suggested in what happened to the Thamūd and the 'Ad, and other people of antiquity, who disregarded the Truth of God and came to a violent end, even in this life,—symbolically suggesting the great Cataclysm of the Hereafter, the Day of Doom.

5636 For these two peoples of antiquity, see n. 1043 to vii. 73, and n. 1040 to vii. 65.

5637. Another description of the terrible Day of Judgment. This word Qāri'a also occurs as the title of S. ci.

5638. The Thamūd were addicted to class arrogance. They oppressed the poor. The prophet Ṣāliḥ preached to them, and put forward a wonderful she-camel as a symbol of the rights of the poor, but they ham-strung her. See n. 1044 to vii. 73. They were destroyed in a mighty calamity, an earthquake accompanying a terrible thunderstorm.

5639. The 'Ad were an unjust people spoilt by their prosperity. The prophet Hūd preached to them in vain. They were apparently destroyed by a terrible blast of wind. See n. 1040 to vii. 65. See also xli. 15-16, n. 4483, and liv. 19, n. 5144.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXIX (Hāqqā).

This Sūra belongs to the early middle period of Meccan Revelation. The eschatological argument is pressed home: 'the absolute Truth cannot fail; it must prevail; therefore be not lured by false appearances in this life; it is Revelation that points to the sure and certain Reality'.

C. 249.—In this fleeting world few things are what (lxix. 1-52.) They seem. What then is sure Reality?
 Nations and men in the past assumed
 Arrogance and perished because they were unjust,
 But that destruction was but a foretaste
 Of the Doom to come in the Hereafter, when all
 Creation will be on a new plane, and true values
 Will be fully established: to the Righteous
 Will be Bliss, and to Evil, Punishment.
 The Word of Revelation is not a Poet's
 Imagination or a Soothsayer's groping
 Into the future. It is God's own Message,
 Of Mercy to the Righteous, and warning
 To those who reject the Truth. Praise
 And Glory to the name of God Most High!

Cast off on the naked<sup>5630</sup>
Shore, in disgrace.

لَنُذِيبَ الْعَاصِيَ وَهُوَ مَذْمُومٌ

50. Thus did his Lord<sup>5631</sup>
Choose him and make him
Of the company
Of the Righteous.<sup>5632</sup>

٥٠ فَأَجْبَبَهُ رَبُّهُ فَجَعَلَهُ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ

51. And the Unbelievers
Would almost trip thee up<sup>5633</sup>
With their eyes when they Hear the Message; and they Say: "Surely he is possessed!"

٥١ وَإِنْ يَكَادُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَيُزْلِقُونَكَ
بِأَبْصَارِهِمْ لَمَّا سَمِعُوا الذِّكْرَ وَيَقُولُونَ إِنَّهُ لَمَجْنُونٌ

52. But it is nothing less
Than a Message<sup>5634</sup>
To all the worlds.

٥٢ وَمَا هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ

5630. Cf. xxxvii. 145-146, and n. 4126.

5631. Jonah was chosen by God's Grace and Mercy to be God's Apostle to Nineveh. If in his human frailty he lost a little patience, he suffered his punishment, but his true and sincere repentance and recognition of God's goodness and mercy restored him from his physical and mental distress, and from the obscuration of the spiritual Light in him.

5632. Cf. iv. 69, n. 586. In the beautiful Fellowship of the Righteous there is room for all, of every grade of spiritual advancement, from the highest to the most ordinary. But, as in democratic politics every citizen's rights and status have complete recognition, so, in the spiritual Fellowship, the badge of Righteousness is the bond, even though there may be higher degrees of knowledge or experience.

5633. The eyes of evil men look at a good man as if they would "eat him up", or trip him up, or disturb him from his position of stability or firmness. They use all sorts of terms of abuse—"madman" or "one possessed by an evil spirit", and so on. Cf. lxviii. 2 above, and n. 5594. But the good man is unmoved, and takes his even course. The Message of God is true and will endure, and it is a Message to all Creation.

5634. This is the extreme antithesis to madness or demoniacal possession. So far from the holy Prophet uttering words disjointed or likely to harm people, he was bringing the Message of true Reality, which was to be the cure of all evil, evil in every kind of world. For the different kinds of worlds see n. 20 to i. 2.

From directions they perceive not, <sup>5626</sup>

45. A (long) respite will I
Grant them : truly
Powerful is My Plan.

46. Or is it that thou dost
Ask them for a reward, <sup>5627</sup>
So that they are burdened
With a load of debt ?—

47. Or that the Unseen <sup>5628</sup>
Is in their hands, so that
They can write it down ?

48. So wait with patience
For the Command
Of thy Lord, and be not
Like the Companion <sup>5629</sup>
Of the Fish,—when he
Cried out in agony.

49. Had not Grace
From His Lord
Reached him, he
Would indeed have been

تَنْجِثُ لَا يَعْلَوْنَ

⑤ وَأُمْلِي لَهُمْ إِنْ كَيْدِي مَتِينٌ

⑥ أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا فَهُمْ مِنْ مَغْرَمٍ مُثْقَلُونَ

⑦ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ فَهُمْ يَكْتُبُونَ

⑧ فَاصْبِرْ بِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ وَلَا تُكِنُّ وَكَائِبَ الْأُنْحُوتِ
إِذْ نَادَىٰ وَهُوَ مَكْظُومٌ

⑨ لَوْلَا أَنْ نَدَّاكَ رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّهِ

5626. Cf. vii. 182. We must not be impatient if we see the wicked flourish. It may be that the very appearance of flourishing here may be a part of the Punishment. There may be an eventual punishment by a sort of Cataclysm ; but evolutionary punishment is gradual and sure. In any case we cannot see God's Plan, as a whole, and it is not for us to question it.

5627. Cf. iii. 40 n. 5074. It costs the Unbelievers nothing to hear the Preacher, for the Preacher asks for no reward, and indeed suffers for their benefit. The Preacher need not look even for appreciation or conversions. Muṣṭafā is addressed in the first instance, but there is always a universal interpretation. The righteous man asks for no reward for his preaching or example : if he did, the value would be too great for the world to pay for. The Unbelievers behave as if they had the secret of the Unseen, but they are empty triflers, for, if they only tried to formulate spiritual laws, they would fail.

5628. Cf. iii. 41. n. 5075. The Unseen is certainly not within their knowledge or control. If it were, they could clearly write it down for their own guidance or the guidance of others. They should listen to the words of inspiration, sent by the Knower of all things.

5629. This was Zūn-Nūn, or Jonah, for whom see n. 2744 to xxi. 87-88. Cf. also xxxvii. 139-148 and the notes there. Jonah was asked to preach to the people of Nineveh, a wicked city. He met with hostility and persecution, fled from his enemies, and took a boat. He was caught in a storm and thrown into the sea. He was swallowed by a fish or whale, but he repented in his living prison, and was forgiven. But the people of Nineveh were also forgiven, for they, too, repented. Here is a double allegory of God's mercy and forgiveness, and a command to patience, and complete and joyful submission to the Will of God.

40. Ask thou of them,
Which of them will stand
Surety for that !

سَأَلَهُمْ أَيُّهُمْ يَكْفِيكَ ذَنْبَهُ

41. Or have they some
" Partners " (in Godhead) ?<sup>5621</sup>
Then let them produce
Their " partners ",
If they are truthful !

أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ فُلْيَا تَأْتُوا بِشُرَكَائِهِمْ إِنْ كَانُوا
صَادِقِينَ

42. The Day that the Shin<sup>5622</sup>
Shall be laid bare,
And they shall be summoned
To bow in adoration,
But they shall not be able,—

يَوْمَ يُكْشَفُ عَنْ سَاقٍ وَيُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى السُّجُودِ
فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ

43. Their eyes will be<sup>5623</sup>
Cast down,—ignominy will Cover them: seeing that
They had been summoned
Aforetime to bow in adoration,
While they were whole,<sup>5624</sup>
(And had refused).

خَشَعَةً أَبْصَارُهُمْ تَرْمَقُهمْ ذِلَّةٌ وَقَدْ كَانُوا
يُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى السُّجُودِ وَهُمْ سَامُونَ

44. Then leave Me<sup>5625</sup> alone
With such as reject
This Message: by degrees
Shall We punish them

فَذَرْنِي وَمَنْ يُكَذِّبُ بِهَذَا الْحَدِيثِ
سَنَنْصُرُ لَهُم

5621. " Partners " in Godhead; as in the doctrine of the Trinity, or indeed in any form of polytheism. Such a doctrine destroys the cardinal doctrine of the Unity of God.

5622. That is, when all mystery will vanish. The Shin is a Symbol for the most hidden mystery, as it is usually doubly covered, first by the skin, and secondly, by clothing. When it is laid bare, men will be summoned to adoration, not necessarily in words, but by the logic of facts, when the Reality will be fully manifest: the Glory will be too dazzling for the Unbelievers, whose past deliberate refusal, when they had freedom to choose, and yet rejected, will stand in their way.

5623. Their past memories, combined with their present position, will then fill them with a sense of the deepest dismay and humiliation. See last note.

5624. Sālimūn: whole, in full possession of the power of judgment and will; not constrained, as they now will be, by the Punishment staring them full in the face.

5625. Notice the transition between " Me " and " We " in this verse, and again to " I " and " My " in the next verse. The first person plural ordinarily used in the holy Qur-ān as God's Word, is the plural of respect. In Royal decrees the first person plural is similarly used. When the first person singular is used, it marks some special personal relation, either of Mercy or favours (as in ii. 38 or ii. 150) or of punishment, as here. (Cf. n. 56 to ii. 38).

SECTION 2.

34. Verily, for the Righteous,
Are Gardens of Delight,<sup>5617</sup>
In the Presence
Of their Lord.

٢٤) إِنَّ لِلْتَّقِيْنَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنَّاتٍ النَّعِيمِ

35. Shall We then treat
The People of Faith
Like the People of Sin? <sup>5618</sup>

٢٥) أَفَجَعَلُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ كَالْحَاجِرِينَ

36. What is the matter
With you? How judge ye?

٢٦) مَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ

37. Or have ye a Book
Through which ye learn—

٢٧) أَمْ لَكُمْ كِتَابٌ فِيهِ تَدْرُسُونَ

38. That ye shall have,
Through it whatever
Ye choose? <sup>5619</sup>

٢٨) إِنْ لَكُمْ فِيهِ مَا تَخْتَرُونَ

39. Or have ye Covenants
With Us on oath,<sup>5620</sup>
Reaching to the Day
Of Judgment, (providing)
That ye shall have
Whatever ye shall demand?

٢٩) أَمْ لَكُمْ أَيْمَانٌ عَلَيْنَا بَلِغَةٌ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنْ لَكُمْ مَا تَحْكُمُونَ

5617. All symbols of delight, expressed in terms of sense, are spiritualized by their being referred to the presence of God. The Garden is a joy, but the joy of this spiritual Garden is the sense of nearness to God. See also Appendix XII, paragraphs 8 to 10 (following S. liv), pp. 1466-67.

5618. The spiritual arrogance which rejects faith in God is perhaps the worst Sin, because it makes itself impervious to the Mercy of God, as a bed of clay is impervious to the absorption of water. It sets up its own standards and its own will, but how can it measure or bind the Will of God? It sets up its own fetishes,—idols, priests, gods, or godlings. The fetishes may be even God-given gifts or faculties. Intellect or Science, if pushed up to the position of idols. If they are made rivals to God, question them: Will they solve God's mysteries, or even the mysteries of Life and Soul?

5619. It is clearly against both logic and justice that men of righteousness should have the same End as men of sin. Even in this life, man cannot command whatever he chooses, though he is allowed a limited freedom of choice. How can he expect such a thing under a reign of perfect Justice and Truth?

5620. Nor can the Pagans plead that they have any special Covenants with God which give them a favoured position above other mortals. The "Chosen Race" idea of the Jews is also condemned. It is quite true that a certain race or group, on account of special aptitude may be chosen by God to uphold His truth and preach it. But this is conditional on their following God's Law. As soon as they become arrogant and selfish, they lose that position. They cannot have a perpetual and unconditional lease till the Day of Judgment.

30. Then they turned, one
Against another, in reproach.<sup>5614</sup>

٣٠ فَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَلَوْمُونَ

31. They said: "Alas for us!
We have indeed transgressed!

٣١ قَالُوا يَا وَيْلَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا طَاغِينَ

32. "It may be that our Lord
Will give us in exchange
A better (garden) than this:
For we do turn to Him
(In repentance)!"<sup>5615</sup>

٣٢ عَسَىٰ رَبَّنَا أَن يُبَدِّلَ لَنَا خَيْرًا مِنْهَا إِنَّا إِلَىٰ رَبِّنَا رَاغِبُونَ

33. Such is the Punishment
(In this life); but greater
Is the Punishment<sup>5616</sup>
In the Hereafter,—
If only they knew!

٣٣ كَذَٰلِكَ الْعَذَابُ وَلَٰعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ
لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ

C. 248.—To evil and good there can never be the same
(lxviii. 34-52.) End: no authority can the unjust produce
For their false imaginings. In shame
Will they realise this on the Day when all
Illusions will vanish and they find that the time
For repentance is past. The good man should wait
And should never lose patience, even though
Things go dead against him. Jonah suffered
In agony, but his sincere repentance
Brought him the grace of his Lord, and he Joined the company of the Righteous:
For Truth is firm and unshaken, is calm
And works good, through all God's Creation.

5614. When greed or injustice is punished, people are ready to throw the blame on others. In this case, one particular individual may have seen the moral guilt of defying the Will of God and the right of man, but if he shared in the enterprise in the hope of profit, he could not get out of all responsibility.

5615. If the repentance was true, there was hope. For God often turns a great evil to our good. If not true, they only added hypocrisy to their other sins.

The Parable presupposes that the garden came into the possession of selfish men, who were so puffed up with their good fortune that they forgot God. That meant that they also became harsh to their fellow-creatures. In their arrogance they plotted to get up early and defeat the claims of the poor at harvest time. They found their garden destroyed by a storm. Some reproached others, but those who sincerely repented obtained mercy. The "better garden" may have been the same garden, flourishing in a future season under God's gift of abundance.

5616. Even in this life the punishment for heedless or selfish arrogance and sin comes suddenly when we least expect it. But there is always room for God's Mercy if we sincerely repent. If the Punishment in this life seems to us so stupefying, how much worse will it be in the Hereafter, when the Punishment will not be only for a limited time, and the time for repentance will have passed?

If ye would gather
The fruits."

23. So they departed, conversing
In secret low tones, (saying)—

24. "Let not a single indigent<sup>5610</sup>
Person break in upon you
Into the (garden) this day."

25. And they opened the morning,
Strong in an (unjust) resolve.

26. But when they saw
The (garden), they said:
"We have surely lost our way:"<sup>5611</sup>

27. "Indeed we are shut out
(Of the fruits of our labour)!"<sup>5612</sup>

28. Said one of them,
More just (than the rest):<sup>5613</sup>
"Did I not say to you,
'Why not glorify (God)?'"

29. They said: "Glory
To our Lord! Verily we
Have been doing wrong!"

إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

③ فَأَنْطَلِقُوا فِيهِ يَخْفَتُونَ

④ أَنْ لَا يَدْخُلَهَا الْيَوْمَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَسْكِينٌ

⑤ وَعَدُوا عَلَىٰ حَزْمٍ قَدِيرٍ

⑥ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهَا قَالُوا إِنَّا لَضَالُونَ

⑦ بَلْ نَحْنُ بِمَحْرُومُونَ

⑧ قَالَ أَوْسَطُهُمْ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَكُمْ لَوْلَا تُسَبِّحُونَ

⑨ قَالُوا سُبْحَانَ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ

5610. The poor man has a right in the harvest—whether as a gleaner or as an artisan or a menial in an Eastern village. The rich owners of the orchard in the Parable wanted to steal a march at an early hour and defeat this right, but their greed was punished, so that it led to a greater loss to themselves. They wanted to cheat but had not the courage to face those they cheated, and by being in the field before any one was, they wanted to make it appear to the world that they were unconscious of it.

5611. Their fond dreams were dispelled when they found that the garden had been changed out of all recognition. It was as if they had come to some place other than their own smiling garden. Where they had expected to reap a rich harvest, there was only a howling wilderness. They reflected. Their first thought was of their own personal loss, the loss of their labour and the loss of their capital. They had plotted to keep out others from the fruits: now, as it happened, the loss was their own.

5612. Cf. lvi. 67. Also see last note.

5613. This was not necessarily a righteous man, but there are degrees in guilt. He had warned them, but he had joined in their unjust design.

Of the Garden,<sup>5606</sup>
When they resolved to gather
The fruits of the (garden)
In the morning,

الْجَنَّةِ إِذْ أَقْتَمُوا لِيَصْرِمُهَا مُصْبِحِينَ

18. But made no reservation,
("If it be God's Will").<sup>5607</sup>

وَلَا يَسْتَكْنُونَ

19. Then there came
On the (garden)
A visitation from thy Lord,<sup>5608</sup>
(Which swept away) all around,
While they were asleep.

فَطَافَ عَلَيْهَا طَائِفٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ وَهُمْ نَائِمُونَ

20. So the (garden) became,
By the morning, like
A dark and desolate spot,
(Whose fruit had been gathered).

فَأَصْبَحَتْ كَالصَّرِيمِ

21. As the morning broke,
They called out,
One to another,—

فَنَادَوْا مُصْبِحِينَ

22. "Go ye to your tilth
(Betimes) in the morning,"<sup>5609</sup>

أَنِ اغْدُوا عَلَىٰ حَرْثِكُمْ

5606. "Why do the wicked flourish?" is a question asked in all ages. The answer is not simple. It must refer to (1) the choice left to man's will, (2) his moral responsibility, (3) the need of his tuning his will to God's Will, (4) the long-suffering quality of God, which allows the widest possible chance for the operation of (5) His Mercy, and (6) in the last resort, to the nature of spiritual Punishment, which is not a merely abrupt or arbitrary act, but a long, gradual process, in which there is room for repentance at every stage. All these points are illustrated in the remarkable Parable of the People of the Garden, which also illustrates the greed, selfishness, and heedlessness of man, as well as his tendency to throw the blame on others if he can but think of a scapegoat. All these fables are shown, but the Mercy of God is boundless, and even after the worst sins and punishments, there may be hope of an even better orchard than the one lost, if only the repentance is true, and there is complete surrender to God's Will. But if, in spite of all this, there is no surrender of the will, then, indeed, the punishment in the Hereafter is something incomparably greater than the little calamities in the Parable.

5607. We must always remember, in all our plans, that they depend for their success on how far they accord with God's Will and Plan. His universal Will is supreme over all affairs. These foolish men had a secret plan to defraud the poor of their just rights, but they were put into a position where they could not do so. In trying to frustrate others, they were themselves frustrated.

5608. It was a terrible storm that blew down and destroyed the fruits and the trees. The whole place was changed out of all recognition.

5609. Awaking from sleep, they were not aware that the garden had been destroyed by the storm overnight. They were in their own selfish dreams: by going very early, they thought they could cheat the poor of their share. See next note.

11. A slanderer, going about
With calumnies,
12. (Habitually) hindering (all) good,
Transgressing beyond bounds,
Deep in sin,
13. Violent (and cruel),—<sup>5601</sup>
With all that, base-born, —
14. Because <sup>5602</sup> he possesses
Wealth and (numerous) sons.
15. When to him are rehearsed
Our Signs, <sup>5603</sup>
"Tales of the Ancients", <sup>5604</sup>
He cries!
16. Soon shall We brand
(The beast) on the snout! <sup>5605</sup>
17. Werily We have tried them
As We tried the People

⑪ مَنَازِلَ مَسَامِينِهِ

⑫ مَنَاجٍ لِلْخَيْرِ مُعْتَدٍ أَشِيمٍ

⑬ عُنَى بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ زَنِيمٍ

⑭ أَنْ كَانَ ذَا مَالٍ وَبَنِينَ

⑮ إِذَا تُنْشَأُ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا قَالَ أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ

⑯ سَنَسِيحُهُ عَلَى الْخُرْطُومِ

⑰ إِنَّا بَلَوْنَاهُمْ كَمَا بَلَوْنَا أَصْحَابَ

5601. Besides the self-deceiver and the easy-going man, there is a third type, even more degraded. He has no idea of truth or sincerity. He is ready to swear friendship with every one and fidelity to every cause. But at the same moment he will slander and backbite, and cause mischief even between good but credulous persons. Evil seems to be his good, and good his evil. He will not only pursue evil courses himself but prevent other people from doing right. When checked, he resorts to violence. In any case, he will intrude where he has no right, claiming relationship or power or consideration in circles which would gladly disown him. He is vain of his wealth or because he has a large following at his beck and call. Religion is to him merely old-fashioned superstition.

5602 "Because" may connect with "heed not" in verse 10, or with "violent and cruel" in verse 13. In the former case, we construe: 'Pay no attention to despicable men of the character described, simply because they happen to have wealth or influence, or much backing in man-power'. In the latter case, we construe: 'the fellow is violent and cruel, because he is puffed up with his wealth or riches or backing in man-power'. In the eyes of God such a man is in any case branded and marked out as a sinner.

5603. God's Signs, by which He calls us, are everywhere—in nature and in our very heart and soul. In Revelation, every verse is a Sign, for it stands symbolically for far more than it says. "Sign" (Āyat) thus becomes a technical term for a verse of the Qur-ān.

5604. Cf. vi. 25.

5605. Literally, proboscis, the most sensitive limb of the elephant. The sinner makes himself a beast and can only be controlled by his snout.

5. Soon wilt thou see,<sup>5593</sup>
And they will see,

⑤ فَسَنَبْصُرُ وَيُبْصِرُونَ

6. Which of you is
Afflicted with madness.

⑥ بِأَيِّكُمْ الْمَضْنُونُ

7. Verily it is thy Lord
That knoweth best,
Which (among men)
Hath strayed from His Path:
And He knoweth best<sup>5597</sup>
Those who receive
(True) Guidance.

⑦ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ
وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ

8. So hearken not
To those who
Deny (the Truth).<sup>5598</sup>

⑧ فَلَا تُطِيعِ الْكَافِرِينَ

9. Their desire is that
Thou shouldst be pliant:
So would they be pliant.

⑨ وَذُو الْأَوْتَارِ يَدْعُونَ

10. Need not the type
Of despicable man,<sup>5599</sup>
Ready with oaths,<sup>5600</sup>

⑩ وَلَا تُطِيعُ كُلَّ حَالِفٍ مَرِيٍّ

5596. Though Mustafa's nature raised him above the petty spite of his contemporaries, an appeal is made to their reason and to the logic of events. Was it not his accusers that were really mad? What happened to Walid ibn Muḡaira, or Abū Jahl, or Abū Lahab?—and to God's Apostle and those who followed his guidance? The world's history gives the answer. And the appeal is not only to his contemporaries, but for all time.

5597. Men set up false standards of judgment. The right standard is that of God. For His knowledge is complete and all-embracing; He reads hidden motives as well as things that appear before men's sight; and He knows the past history in which the roots of present actions are embedded, as well as the future consequences of present actions.

5598. The enemies of God's truth are sometimes self-deceived. But quite often they have a glimmering of the truth in spite of their desire to shut their eyes. Then they compromise, and they would like the preachers of inconvenient truths to compromise with them. On those terms there would be mutual laudation. This easy path of making the best of both worlds is a real danger or temptation to the best of us, and we must be on our guard against it if we would really enter into the company of the Righteous who submit their wills to the Will of God. Abū Jahl freely offered impossible compromises to the holy Prophet.

5599. The type of each of these hateful qualities is not uncommon, though the combination of all in one man makes him peculiarly despicable, as was Walid ibn Muḡaira, who was a ringleader in calumniating our Prophet and who came to an evil end not long after the battle of Badr, in which he received injuries.

5600. It is only liars who swear on all occasions, small or great, because their ordinary word is not believed in. The true man's word, according to the proverb, is as good as his bond.

Sūra LXVIII.

Qalam, or the Pen, or Nūn
(see n. 5592).

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Nūn.<sup>5592</sup> By the Pen<sup>5593</sup>
And by the (Record)
Which (men) write,—

2. Thou art not,
By the grace of thy Lord,
Mad or possessed.<sup>5594</sup>

3. Nay, verily for thee
Is a Reward unfailing:<sup>5595</sup>

4. And thou (standest)
On an exalted standard
Of character.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١ ن وَالْقَلَمِ وَمَا يَسْطُرُونَ

٢ مَا أَنْتَ بِمَجْنُونٍ

٣ وَإِنَّ لَكَ لَأَجْرًا غَيْرَ مَمْنُونٍ

٤ وَإِنَّكَ لَعَلَى خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ

5592. Nūn is an Abbreviated Letter : see Appendix I at the end of S. ii.

Nūn may mean a fish, or an ink-holder, or it may be just the Arabic letter of the alphabet, N. In the last case, it may refer to either or both of the other meanings. Note also that the Arabic rhyme in this Sūra ends in N. The reference to ink would be an appropriate link with the mystic Pen in verse 1. The reference to the fish would be appropriate with reference to the story of Jonah in verses 48-50. Jonah's title is "the Companion of the Fish", (Zun-Nūn, xxi, 87), as he was, in the story, swallowed by the Fish. The letter N could also symbolically represent Jonah in the Arabic form Yūnus, where the characteristic "Firm Letter" is N.

5593. The mystic Pen and the mystic Record are the symbolical foundations of the Revelation to man. The adjuration by the Pen disposes of the illipant charge that God's Messenger was mad or possessed. For he spoke words of power, not incoherent, but full of meaning, and through the Record of the Pen, that meaning unfolds itself, in innumerable aspects to countless generations. Muhammad was the living Grace and Mercy of God, and his very nature exalted him above abuse and persecution.

5594. People usually call any one mad whose standards are different from their own. And madness is believed by superstitious people to be due to demoniacal possession, an idea distinctly in the minds of the New Testament writers; for Luke speaks of a man from whom the "devils" were cast out, as being then "clothed, and in his right mind" (Luke, viii. 35).

5595. Instead of being out of his right mind, the man of God had been raised to a great spiritual dignity, a reward that was not like an earthly reward that passes away, but one that was in the very core of his being, and would never fail him in any circumstances. He was really granted a nature and character far above the shafts of grief or suffering, slander or persecution.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXVIII (Qalam).

This is a very early Meccan revelation. The general Muslim opinion is that a great part of it was second in order of revelation, the first being S. xcvi. (Iqraa), verses 1-5: see Itqān, Chapter 7.

The last Sūra having defined the true Reality in contrast with the false standards set up by men this illustrates the theme by an actual historical example. Our holy Prophet was the sanest and wisest of men: those who could not understand him called him mad or possessed. So, in every age, it is the habit of the world to call Truth Falsehood and Wisdom Madness, and, on the other hand, to exalt Selfishness as Planning, and Arrogance as Power. The contrast is shown up between the two kinds of men and their real inner worth.

Summary.—Let the good carry on their work, in spite of the abuse of the Companions of Evil: let all remember God, before Whom all men are on trial (lxviii. 1-33, and C. 247).

True Judgment comes from God, and not from the false standards of men (lxviii. 34-52, and C. 248).

C. 247.—The Pen is the symbol of the permanent Record,
(lxviii. 1-33.) The written Decree, the perfect Order
In the government of the world. And by that token,
The man of God comes with a Plan
And Guidance that must win against
All detraction. Truth is high above Slander.
But men must be tried against selfishness
And overweening confidence in themselves
Such as would lead them to forget God
And His providence,—like the brothers who built
Castles in the air about their garden
And found it desolate in one night's storm.
But repentance brought them forgiveness:
Thus work the Wrath and the Mercy of God.

And it will be said
(To them): " This is
(The promise fulfilled),<sup>5588</sup>
Which ye were calling for!"

28. Say: " See ye?—
If God were
To destroy me,
And those with me,<sup>5589</sup>
Or if He bestows
His Mercy on us,—
Yet who can deliver
The Unbelievers from
A grievous Penalty?"

29. Say: " He is (God)
Most Gracious: we have
Believed in Him,
And on Him have we
Put our trust:
So, soon will ye know<sup>5590</sup>
Which (of us) it is
That is in manifest error."

30. Say: " See ye?—
If your stream be
Some morning lost<sup>5591</sup>
(In the underground earth),
Who then can supply you
With clear-flowing water?"

وَقِيلَ هَذَا الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهٖ تَدْعُونَ

۞ قُلْ اَرَأَيْتُمْ اِنْ هَلَكَ نِىْ اَللهُ وَمَنْ مَّعِىْ اَوْ رَحِمْنَا فَمَنْ
يُجِىْرُ الْكَافِرِيْنَ مِنْ عَذَابِ اِلٰهٍ

۞ قُلْ هُوَ الرَّحْمٰنُ اَمْنَابِهٖ وَعَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْنَا فَسَتَعْلَمُوْنَ
مَنْ هُوَ فِىْ ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ

۞ قُلْ اَرَأَيْتُمْ اِنْ اَصْبَحَ مَاؤُكُمْ غَوْرًا فَمَنْ يَّاتِيْكُمْ
بِمَاۤءٍ مُّعِيْنٍ

5588 They had defiantly asked for it. Now that it has come near, and it is too late for repentance, there is "weeping and gnashing of teeth"

5589 The sceptics might say and do say to the righteous: "Ah well! if calamities come, they involve the good with the bad, just as you say that God showers His mercies on both good and evil!" The answer is: "Don't you worry about us; even supposing we are destroyed, with all who believe with us, is that any consolation to you? Your sins must bring on you suffering, and nothing can ward it off. If we get any sorrows or sufferings, we take them as a mere trial to make us better, for we believe in God's goodness and we put our trust in Him." See next verse.

5590. See the end of the last note. "Our Faith tells us that God will deliver us from all harm if we sincerely repent and lead righteous lives. You, Unbelievers, have no such hope. When the real adjustment of values is established, you will soon see whether we were in the wrong or you!"

5591. The Sūra is closed with a parable, taken from a vital fact of our physical life, and leading up to the understanding of our spiritual life. In our daily life, what would happen if we woke up some fine morning to find that the sources and springs of our water-supply had disappeared and gone down into the hollows of the earth? Nothing could save our life. Without water we cannot live, and water cannot rise above its level, but always seeks a lower level. So in spiritual life. Its sources and springs are in the divine wisdom that flows from on high. God is the real source of that life, as He is of all forms of life. We must seek His Grace and Mercy. We cannot find grace or mercy or blessing from anything lower. His Wisdom and Mercy are like fresh clear-flowing spring-water, not like the muddy-murky wisdom and goodness of this lower world which is only relative, and which often hampers life rather than advances it.

23. Say : " It is He Who <sup>5582</sup>
Has created you (and made <sup>5583</sup>
You grow), and made
For you the faculties
Of hearing, seeing,
Feeling and understanding :
Little thanks it is ye give.

﴿قُلْ هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْشَأَكُمْ وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَارَ
وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ ۖ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُونَ﴾

24. Say : " It is He Who
Has multiplied you
Through the earth, <sup>5584</sup>
And to Him shall ye
Be gathered together."

﴿قُلْ هُوَ الَّذِي ذَرَأَكُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ﴾

25. They ask : When will
This promise be (fulfilled)?—
If ye are telling <sup>5585</sup>
The truth.

﴿وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ﴾

26. Say : " As to the knowledge
Of the time, it is
With God alone : <sup>5586</sup>
I am (sent) only
To warn plainly in public."

﴿قُلْ إِنَّمَا الْعِلْمُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَإِنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ﴾

27. At length, when they See it close at hand, <sup>5587</sup>
Grieved will be the faces
Of the Unbelievers,

﴿فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ زُلْفَةً سَيِّئَتْ وُجُوهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا﴾

5582. The Teacher is asked to draw constant attention to God, the source of all growth and development, the Giver of the faculties by which we can judge and attain to higher and higher spiritual dignity. And yet, such is our self-will, we use our faculties for wrong purposes and thus show our ingratitude to God.

5583. For anshaa see n 923 to vi. 98.

5584. Mankind, from one set of parents, has been multiplied and scattered through the earth. Men have not only multiplied in numbers, but they have developed different languages and characteristics, inner and outer. But they will all be gathered together at the End of Things, when the mischief created by the wrong exercise of man's will will be cancelled, and the Truth of God will reign universally.

5585. The Unbelievers are sceptical, but they are answered in the next two verses

5586. The Judgment is certain to come. But when it will exactly come, is known to God alone. The Prophet's duty is to proclaim that fact openly and clearly. It is not for him to punish or to hasten the punishment of evil. Cf. xxii. 47-49.

5587. "It", i.e., the fulfilment of the promise, the Day of Judgment. When it is actually in sight, then the Unbelievers realise that those whom they used to laugh at for their Faith were in the right, and that they themselves, the sceptics, were terribly in the wrong.

Spreading their wings
And folding them in? <sup>5577</sup>
None can uphold them
Except (God) Most Gracious:
Truly it is He
That watches over all things.

صَفَّيْنِ وَيَقْضَيْنِ مَا يُمْسِكُنِ إِلَّا الرَّحْمَنُ إِنَّهُ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ بَصِيرٌ

20. Nay, who is there
That can help you,
(Even as) an army, <sup>5578</sup>
Besides (God) Most Merciful?
In nothing but delusion
Are the Unbelievers.

٢٠ أَمْ هَذَا الَّذِي هُوَ جَدُّ لَكُمْ يَظُنُّكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ
الرَّحْمَنِ إِنَّا الْكَافِرُونَ إِلَّا فِي غُرُورٍ

21. Or who is there
That can provide you <sup>5579</sup>
With Sustenance if He
Were to withhold His provision?
Nay, they obstinately persist
In insolent impiety
And flight (from the Truth).

٢١ أَمْ مَنْ هَذَا الَّذِي رَزَقُكُمْ إِنْ أَمْسَكَ رِزْقَهُ بَلْ
تَجْرَأُ فِي عُتُوٍّ وَنُفُورٍ

22. Is then one who Walks headlong, with his face <sup>5580</sup>
Groveling, better guided,—
Or one who walks <sup>5581</sup>
Evenly on a Straight Way?

٢٢ أَمْ مَنْ يَمْشِي مَكْبَهًا عَلَى وَجْهِهِ أَهْدَىٰ أَمَّنْ يَمْشِي
سَوِيًّا عَلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

5577. In the Arabic, there is an artistic touch which it is not possible to reproduce in the translation. Ṣaffā (spreading their wings) is in the form of the active participle, suggesting the continuous soaring on outspread wings; while yaqbiḥna (folding them in) is in the Aorist form, suggesting the spasmodic flapping of wings.

5578. Not the greatest army that man can muster is of any use against the Wrath of God; while the constant watchful care of God is all-in-all to us, and we can never do without it. If the godless wander about in search for blessings otherwise than in the Mercy and Grace of God, they are wandering in vain delusions.

5579. "Sustenance" here, as elsewhere, (e.g., in xvi. 73, n. 2105), refers to all that is necessary to sustain and develop life in all its phases, spiritual and mental, as well as physical. God Most Gracious is the Source of all our Sustenance, and if we persist in looking to Vanities for our Sustenance, we are pursuing a mirage, and, if we examine the matter, we are only following obstinate impulses of rebellion and impiety.

5580. Cf. xxvii. 90, and n. 3320. The man of probity is the man who walks evenly on a Straight Way, his feet guided by God's Light and his heart sustained by God's Mercy. The man who chooses evil grovels, with his face down, in paths of Darkness, stumbling on the way, and in constant distrust and fear, the fear of Evil. The two kinds of men are poles apart, although they live on the same earth, see the same Signs, and are fed with the same Mercies from God.

5581. Like Abraham trying to guide his unbelieving father; Cf. xix. 43,

For you, so traverse
Ye through its tracts
And enjoy of the Sustenance
Which He furnishes: but
Unto Him is the Resurrection.<sup>5572</sup>

فَامْشُوا فِي مَنَاكِبِهَا وَكُلُوا مِن رِّزْقِهِ وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ

16. Do ye feel secure that
He Who is in Heaven
Will not cause you
To be swallowed up<sup>5573</sup>
By the earth when it
Shakes (as in an earthquake)?

١٦ ءَأَمِنْتُمْ مَّن فِي السَّمَاءِ أَن يَخِفِّ بِكُمُ الْأَرْضَ
فَإِذَا هِيَ تَمُورُ

17. Or do ye feel secure
That He Who is in Heaven
Will not send against you
A violent tornado<sup>5574</sup>
(With showers of stones),
So that ye shall
Know how (terrible)
Was My warning?

١٧ أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ مِّنْ فِي السَّمَاءِ أَن يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ
حَاصِبًا فَسَتَعْلَمُونَ كَيْفَ نَذِيرِ

18. But indeed men before them
Rejected (My warning):
Then how (terrible) was
My rejection (of them)?<sup>5575</sup>

١٨ وَلَقَدْ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ
نَكِيرِ

19. Do they not observe
The birds above them,<sup>5576</sup>

١٩ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الطَّيْرِ فَوْقَهُمْ

5572. In describing God's gifts and mercies and watchful care in this our temporary sojourn on this earth, it is made clear that the ultimate end is the Hereafter. The real Beyond, which is the goal, is the life after the Resurrection.

5573. Cf. xvii. 68, and n. 2263. Also cf. the story of Qārūn in xxviii. 76-82. If we feel safe on land, it is because God has made this earth amenable, manageable and serviceable to us (verse 15 above). But if we defy God and break His Law, have we any security, that even this comparatively unimportant safety in a fleeting world will last? Looking at it from a purely physical point of view, have there not been dreadful earthquakes, typhoons, and tornadoes?

5574. Cf. xvii. 68; and xxix. 40, n. 3462. Such a violent wind destroyed the wicked Cities which defied Lūṭ's warning.

5575. Cf. xxii. 42-44, and n. 2822.

5576. The flight of birds is one of the most beautiful and wonderful things in nature. The make and arrangement of their feathers and bones, and their stream-line shapes, from beak to tail, are instances of purposive adaptation. They soar with outstretched wings; they dart about with folded wings; their motions upwards and downwards, as well as their stabilisation in the air, and when they rest on their feet, have given many ideas to man in the science and art of aeronautics. But who taught or gave to birds this wonderful adaptation? None but God, Whose infinite Mercy provides for every creature just those conditions which are best adapted for its life.

Be among the Companions
Of the Blazing Fire!"

11. They will then confess<sup>5568</sup>
Their sins: but far
Will be (Forgiveness)
From the Companions
Of the Blazing Fire!

12. As for those who Fear their Lord unseen,<sup>5569</sup>
For them is Forgiveness
And a great Reward.

13. And whether ye hide
Your word or publish it,
He certainly has (full) knowledge,
Of the secrets of (all) hearts.

14. Should He not know,—
He that created?<sup>5570</sup>
And He is the One
That understands the finest
Mysteries (and) is
Well-acquainted (with them).

SECTION 2.

15. Yet is He Who has Made the earth manageable<sup>5571</sup>

أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ

١١ فَأَعْتَرَفُوا بِذُنُوبِهِمْ فَنَقَعُوا لَاصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ

١٢ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ لَهُمْ
مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ

١٣ وَأَسِرُوا أَقْوَالَكُمْ أَوْ اجْهَرُوا بِهِ إِنَّهُ
عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

١٤ أَلَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ خَلَقَ وَهُوَ اللَّطِيفُ الْخَبِيرُ

١٥ هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ ذَلُولًا

5568. They will then have passed through the fire of Judgment and will now be in the fire of Punishment. The Reality will not only now be clear to them, but after the questionings of the angels they cannot even pretend to make any excuses. They will freely confess, but that is not repentance, for repentance implies amendment, and the time for repentance and amendment will have long been past.

5569. See n. 3902 to xxxv. 18. Read "unseen" adverbially. To fear the Lord is to love Him so intensely that you fear to do anything which is against His Will, and you do it because you realise Him intensely in your hearts, though you do not see Him with your bodily senses. Nor is it of any consequences whether other people see your love or the consequences that flow from your love, for your good deeds are for the love of God and not for show in the eyes of men. Such intensity of love obtains forgiveness for any past, and is indeed rewarded with God's love, which is immeasurably precious beyond any merits you may possess.

5571. Zulāl is used in ii. 71 for an animal trained and tractable; here it is used to qualify the earth, and I have translated 'manageable'. Man has managed to make paths through deserts and over mountains; through rivers and seas by means of ships; through the air by means of airways; he has made bridges and tunnels and other means of communication. But this he has only been able to do because God has given him the necessary intelligence and has made the earth tractable to that intelligence.

Is the Penalty of Hell:
And evil is (such) destination.

عَذَابُ جَهَنَّمَ وَبُئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ

7. When they are cast therein,
They will hear
The (terrible) drawing in <sup>5564</sup>
Of its breath
Even as it blazes forth,

⑦ إِذَا الْفُؤَادُ فِيهَا سَمِعُوا لَهَا شَهيقًا وَهِيَ تَفُورُ

8. Almost bursting with fury:
Every time a Group
Is cast therein, its Keepers <sup>5565</sup>
Will ask, "Did no Warner
Come to you?"

⑧ تَكَادُ تَمَيِّزُ مِنَ الْغَيْظِ كُلَّمَا أُلِّقِيَ فِيهَا فَوْجٌ سَأَلَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ نَذِيرٌ

9. They will say: "Yes indeed;
A Warner did come to us,
But we rejected him
And said, 'God never
Sent down any (Message):
Ye are innothing but
An egregious delusion!'" <sup>5566</sup>

⑨ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَدْ جَاءَنَا نَذِيرٌ فَكَذَّبْنَا وَقُلْنَا مَا نَزَّلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنْ أَنْشَأْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ كَبِيرٍ

10. They will further say:
"Had we but listened
Or used our intelligence, <sup>5567</sup>
We should not (now)

⑩ وَقَالُوا لَوْ كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ أَوْ نَعْقِلُ مَا كُنَّا فِي

5564. For shakīq see n. 1607 to xi. 106. There shakīq (sobs) was contrasted with za/ir (sighs): in the one case it is the drawing in of breath, and in the other the emission of a deep breath. Here the latter process is represented by the verb fāra, to swell, to blaze forth, to gush forth. In xi. 40, the verb fāra was applied to the gushing forth of the waters of the Flood; here the verb is applied to the blazing forth of the Fire of Punishment. Fire is personified: in its in-take it has a fierce appetite; in the flames which it throws out, it has a fierce aggressiveness. And yet in ultimate result evil meets the same fate, whether typified by water or fire.

5565. Cf. xxxix. 71, n. 4348 "Every time": it may not be the same angels who are guarding the gates of Hell every time new inmates come in. The pure, innocent angel nature does not know the crookedness of human evil, and is surprised at so many human beings coming in for punishment: it wonders if no warning was conveyed to men, whereas in fact men have a warning in Clear Signs during all the period of their probation. The Clear Signs come from Revelation, from their own conscience, and from all nature around them.

5566. God's Signs were not only rejected or defied, but their very existence was denied. Nay, more, even their possibility was denied, and alas! righteous people and spiritual Teachers were persecuted or mocked (xxxvi. 30). They were called fools or madmen, or men under a delusion!

5567. Man has himself the power given to him to distinguish good from evil, and he is further helped by the teachings of the great Apostles or World Teachers. Where such Teachers do not come into personal contact with an individual or a generation, the true meaning of their teaching can be understood by means of the Reason which God has given to every human soul to judge by. It is failure to follow a man's own lights sincerely that leads to his degradation and destruction.

3. He Who created
The seven heavens<sup>5559</sup>
One above another;
No want of proportion
Wilt thou see
In the Creation
Of (God) Most Gracious.
So turn thy vision again:
Seest thou any flaw?

③ الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَاوَاتٍ طِبَاقًا مَا تَرَى فِي
خَلْقِ الرَّحْمَنِ مِنْ تَفَوتٍ فَارْجِعِ الْبَصَرَ هَلْ تَرَى
مِنْ فُتُورٍ

4. Again turn thy vision<sup>5560</sup>
A second time: (thy) vision
Will come back to thee
Dull and discomfited,
In a state worn out.

④ ثُمَّ ارْجِعِ الْبَصَرَ كَرَّتَيْنِ يَنْقَلِبْ إِلَيْكَ
الْبَصَرُ خَائِسًا وَهُوَ حَسِيرٌ

5. And We have,
(From of old),
Adorned the lowest heaven<sup>5561</sup>
With Lamps, and We
Have made such (Lamps)
(As) missiles to drive<sup>5562</sup>
Away the Evil Ones,
And have prepared for them
The Penalty
Of the Blazing Fire.

⑤ وَلَقَدْ زَيَّنَّا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِمَصَابِيحَ
وَجَعَلْنَاهَا رُجُومًا لِلشَّيَاطِينِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا
لَهُمْ عَذَابَ السَّعِيرِ

6. For those who reject
Their Lord (and Cherisher)<sup>5563</sup>

⑥ وَلِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ

5560. Reverting to the symbolism of the external or visible world, we are asked to observe and study it again and again, and as minutely as our powers will allow. However closely we observe it, we shall find no flaw in it. Indeed the region of enquiry is so vast and stretches so far beyond our ken, that our eyes, aided with the most powerful telescopes, will confess themselves defeated in trying to penetrate to the ultimate mysteries. We shall find no defect in God's handiwork: it is our own powers that we shall find fail to go beyond a certain compass.

5561. "Lowest (or nearest) heaven": see n. 4035 to xxxvii. 6.

5562. The symbolic imagery of the shooting stars has been explained in xv. 16-18, notes 1931-54; and in xxxvii. 6-10, and notes thereon. The symbolism here takes us a step further. 'You find in the visible heavens perfection and beauty. The lights and the fires you see are holy and beneficent. But if you make fetishes of them, or hand yourselves to evil superstitions of your own imagination, are you not playing with Blazing Fire? Who can define the limits of your Penalty?'

5563. We have seen how the fire in the stars can suggest the beauty and order of the external world; and yet, when it meets with resistance and disharmony, it can burn and destroy. So in the moral and spiritual world. What can be a greater sign of evil, disharmony, and rebellion than to reject the Cherisher and Sustainer, on Whom our life depends, and from Whom we receive nothing but goodness? The Punishment, then, is Fire in its fiercest intensity, as typified in the next two verses.

Sura LXVII.

Mulk, or Dominion.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Blessed<sup>5551</sup> be He
In Whose hands
Is Dominion;<sup>5555</sup>
And He over all things
Hath Power;—
2. He Who created Death<sup>5556</sup>
And Life, that He
May try which of you
Is best in deed;<sup>5557</sup>
And He is the Exalted<sup>5558</sup>
In Might, Oft-Forgiving;—

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ
شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

② الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْمَوْتَ وَالْحَيَاةَ لِيَبْلُوَكُمْ أَيُّكُمْ
أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ

5554. What do we mean when we bless the name of God, or proclaim (in the optative mood) that the whole Creation should bless the name of the Lord? We mean that we recognise and proclaim His beneficence to us; for all increase and happiness is through Him, "in His hands,"—in the hands of Him Who also holds Dominion or Power. In our human affairs we sometimes see the separation of Dominion or Power from Goodness or Beneficence; in the divine nature we recognise that there is no separation or antithesis.

5555. Mulk: Dominion, Lordship, Sovereignty, the Right to carry out His Will, or to do all that He wills. Power (in the clause following) is the Capacity to carry out His Will, so that nothing can resist or neutralise it. Here is beneficence completely identified with Lordship and Power; and it is exemplified in the verses following. Note that "Mulk" here has a different shade of meaning from Malakūt in xxxvi. 83. Both words are from the same root, and I have translated both by the word "Dominion". But Malakūt refers to Lordship in the Invisible World, while Mulk to Lordship in the Visible World. God is Lord of both.

5556. "Created Death and Life." Death is here put before Life, and it is created. Death is therefore not merely a negative state. In ii. 28 we read: "Seeing that ye were without life (literally, dead), and He gave you life; then will He cause you to die, and will again bring you to life; and again to Him will ye return." In liii. 44, again, Death is put before Life. Death, then, is: (1) the state before life began, which may be non-existence or existence in some other form; (2) the state in which Life as we know it ceases, but existence does not cease; a state of Barzakh (xxiii. 100), or Barrier or Partition, after our visible Death and before Judgment; after that will be the new Life, which we conceive of under the term Eternity.

5557. Creation, therefore, is not in mere sport, or without a purpose with reference to man. The state before our present Life, or the state after, we can scarcely understand. But our present Life is clearly given to enable us to strive by good deeds to reach a nobler state.

5558. All this is possible, because God is so Exalted in Might that He can perfectly carry out His Will and Purpose, and that Purpose is Love, Mercy, and Goodness to His creatures.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRA LXVII (Mulk).

We have now done fourteen-fifteenths of the Qur-an, and have followed step by step the development of its argument establishing the Ummat or Brotherhood of Islam.

There is a logical break here. The remaining fifteenth consists of short spiritual Lyrics, mostly of the Meccan period, dealing mainly with the inner life of man, and in its individual aspects. They may be compared to Hymns or Psalms in other religious literature. But these short Quranic Sūras have a grandeur, a beauty, a mystic meaning, and a force of earnestness under persecution, all their own. With their sources in the sublimest regions of the Empyrean, their light penetrates into the darkest recesses of Life, into the concrete facts which are often mistaken for the whole of Reality, though they are but an insignificant portion and on the surface and fleeting. There is much symbolism in language and thought, in describing the spiritual in terms of the things we see and understand.

It is the contrast between the shadows of Reality here and the eternal Reality, between the surface world and the profound inner World, that is urged on our attention here.

This Sūra of 30 verses belongs to the Middle Meccan period, just before S. lxix. and S. lxx. God is mentioned here by the name Rahmān (Most Gracious), as He is mentioned by the names of Rabb (Lord and Cherisher) and Rahmān (Most Gracious) in S. xix.

C. 246.—Lordship in right and in fact belongs
 (lxvii. 1-30.) To God Most Gracious, Whose Goodness
 And Glory and Power are writ large
 On all His Creation. The beauty and order
 Of the Heavens above us proclaim Him.
 Then who can reject His Call but those
 In pitiful delusion? And who can fail
 To accept, that truly knows himself
 And the mighty Reality behind him?
 The earth and the good things thereof are prepared
 For man by his Gracious Lord, Who guards
 Him from hourly dangers. Who sustains
 The wonderful flight of the Birds in mid-air?
 Above, and below, and in mid-air can we see
 His boundless Signs. We know that His Promise
 Of the Hereafter is true. The spring and source
 Of the goodness of things is in Him, and will Appear triumphant when the Hour is established.

Behold she said :
 " O my Lord ! build
 For me, in nearness <sup>5550</sup>
 To Thee, a mansion
 In the Garden,
 And save me from Pharaoh
 And his doings,
 And save me from
 Those that do wrong " ;

12. And Mary the daughter <sup>5551</sup>
 Of 'Imrān, who guarded
 Her chastity ; and We
 Breathed into (her body) <sup>5552</sup>
 Of Our spirit ; and she Testified to the truth
 Of the words of her Lord
 And of his Revelations,
 28 And was one of the 30 Devout (servants). <sup>5553</sup>

إِذْ قَالَتْ رَبِّ أَنْزِلْ لِي عِنْدَكَ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ
 وَنَجِّنِي مِنَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَعَمَلِهِ وَنَجِّنِي مِنَ الْقَوْمِ
 الظَّالِمِينَ

⑦ وَمَرْيَمَ ابْنَتَ عِمْرَانَ الَّتِي أَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا
 فَنَفَخْنَا فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِنَا وَصَدَّقَ بِكَلِمَاتِ رَبِّهَا
 وَكَتَبَتْهُ وَكَانَتْ مِنَ الْقَانِتِينَ

5550. Her spiritual vision was directed to God, rather than to the worldly grandeur of Pharaoh's court. It is probable that her prayer implies a desire for martyrdom, and it may be that she attained her crown of martyrdom.

5551. 'Imrān was traditionally the name of the father of Mary the mother of Jesus : see n. 375 to iii. 35. She was herself one of the purest of women, though the Jews accused her falsely of unchastity : cf. xix. 27-28.

5552 Cf. xxi. 91. As a virgin she gave birth to Jesus : xix. 16-29. In xxxii. 9, it is said of Adam's progeny, man, that God " fashioned him in due proportion, and breathed into him something of His spirit". In xv. 29, similar words are used with reference to Adam. The virgin birth should not therefore be supposed to imply that God was the father of Jesus in the sense in which Greek mythology makes Zeus the father of Apollo by Latona or of Minos by Europa. And yet that is the doctrine to which the Christian idea of " the only begotten Son of God " leads.

5553 Mary had true faith and testified her faith in the prophet Jesus and in his revelation as well as in the revelations which he came to confirm (and to foreshadow). She was of the company of the Devout of all ages. The fact that Qānīʾin (devout) is not here in the feminine gender implies that the highest spiritual dignity is independent of sex. And so we close the lesson of this Sūra, that while sex is a fact of our physical existence, the sexes should act in harmony and co-operation, for in the highest spiritual matters we are all one. " We made her and her son a Sign for all peoples. Verily this Brotherhood of yours is a single Brotherhood and I am your Lord and Cherisher : therefore serve Me and no other " (xxi. 91-92)

Their abode is Hell,—
An evil refuge (indeed).

10. God sets forth,
For an example
To the Unbelievers,
The wife of Noah <sup>5546</sup>
And the wife of Lût: <sup>5547</sup>
They were (respectively)
Under two of our righteous
Servants, but they were
False to their (husbands), <sup>5548</sup>
And they profited nothing
Before God on their account,
But were told: "Enter ye
The Fire along with (Others) that enter!"

11. And God sets forth,
As an example
To those who believe,
The wife of Pharaoh: <sup>5549</sup>

وَمَا وَهَبَهُ جَهَنَّمَ وَبَشَّ الْمَصِيبُ

⑩ ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا امْرَأَتَ
نُوحٍ وَامْرَأَتَ لُوطٍ كَانَتَا تَحْتَ عَبْدَيْنِ مِنْ
عِبَادِنَا صَالِحِينَ فَانْتَاهَا هُمَا فَلَمْ يَغْنِيَا عَنْهُمَا
مِنْ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَقِيلَ ادْخُلَا النَّارَ مَعَ
الْذَّاهِلِينَ

⑪ وَضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا امْرَأَتَ
فِرْعَوْنَ

5546. Read Noah's story in xi. 36-48. Evidently his contemporary world had got so corrupt that it needed a great Flood to purge it. "None of thy people will believe except those who have believed already. So grieve no longer over their evil deeds." But there were evil ones in his own family. A foolish and undutiful son is mentioned in xi. 42-46. Poor Noah tried to save him and pray for him as one "of his family"; but the answer came: "he is not of thy family; for his conduct is unrighteous". We might expect such a son to have a mother like him, and here we are told that it was so. Noah's wife was also false to the standards of her husband, and perished in this world and in the Hereafter.

5547. The wife of Lût has already been mentioned more than once. See xi. 81, and n. 1577; vii. 83, and n. 1051; etc. The world around her was wicked, and she sympathised with and followed that wicked world, rather than her righteous husband. She suffered the fate of her wicked world.

5548. "False to their husbands": not necessarily in sex, but in the vital spiritual matters of truth and conduct. They had the high privilege of the most intimate relationship with the noblest spirits of their age: but if they failed to rise to the height of their dignity, their relationship did not save them. They could not plead that they were the wives of pious husbands. They had to enter Hell like any other wicked women. There is personal responsibility before God. One soul cannot claim the merits of another, any more than one pure soul can be injured by association with a corrupt soul. The pure one should keep its purity intact. See the next two examples.

5549. Traditionally she is known as 'Āsiya, one of the four perfect women, the other three being Mary the mother of Jesus, Khadija the wife of the holy Prophet, and Fāṭima his daughter. Pharaoh is the type of arrogance, godlessness, and wickedness. For his wife to have preserved her Faith, her humility, and her righteousness was indeed a great spiritual triumph. She was probably the same who saved the life of the infant Moses: xxviii. 9.

But requited for
All that ye did ! ”

SECTION 2.

8. ﴿٢٥﴾ ye who believe !<sup>5542</sup>
Turn to God
With sincere repentance :
In the hope that
Your Lord will remove<sup>5543</sup>
From you your ills
And admit you to Gardens
Beneath which Rivers flow,
The Day that God
Will not permit
To be humiliated
The Prophet and those
Who believe with him.
Their Light will run<sup>5544</sup>
Forward before them
And by their right hands,
While they say, " Our Lord !
Perfect our Light for us,
And grant us Forgiveness :
For Thou hast power
Over all things."

9. ﴿٢٦﴾ Prophet ! Strive hard<sup>5545</sup>
Against the Unbelievers
And the Hypocrites,
And be firm against them.

تُجْزَوْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

﴿٢٥﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا تُوبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ تَوْبَةً
نُصُوحًا عَسَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ أَن يُكَفِّرَ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ
وَيُدْخِلَكُم جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
الْأَنْهَارُ يَوْمَ لَا يُخْزِي اللَّهُ النَّبِيَّ وَالَّذِينَ
ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ نُورُهُمْ يَسْعَىٰ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ
وَيَآئِمُّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا أَتِمِّمْ لَنَا نُورَنَا
وَاغْفِرْ لَنَا إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

﴿٢٦﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ جَاهِدِ الْكُفَّارَ
وَالنَّافِقِينَ وَاغْلُظْ عَلَيْهِمْ

5542. The opposition of sex against sex, individual or concerted, having been condemned, we are now exhorted to turn to the Light, and to realise that the good and righteous can retain their integrity even though their mates, in spite of all their example and precept, remain in evil and sin.

5543. Whatever may have been the faults of the past, unite in good deeds, and abandon petty sectional jealousies, and God will remove your difficulties and distresses, and all the evils from which you suffer. Indeed He will grant you the Bliss of Heaven, and save you from any humiliation which you may have brought on yourselves by your conduct and on the revered Prophet and Teacher whose name you professed to take.

5544. See lvii. 12, and n. 5288. The darkness of evil will be dispelled, and the Light of God will be realised by them more and more. But even so they will not be content : for they will pray for the least taint of evil to be removed from them, and perfection to be granted to them. In that exalted state they will be within reach of perfection,—not by their own merits, but by the infinite Mercy and Power of God.

5545. See ix. 73, where the same words introduce the argument against the Hypocrites. Here they introduce the argument against wickedness, which, though given the privilege of association with goodness and piety, persisted in wicked deeds, and in favour of those noble souls, which, though tied to wickedness, retained their purity and integrity. Two examples of each kind are given,—of women, as this Sūra is mainly concerned with women.

That God will give him
In exchange Consorts
Better than you,—
Who submit (their wills),
Who believe, who are devout,
Who turn to God in repentance,
Who worship (in humility),
Who travel (for Faith) and fast, —<sup>5537</sup>
Previously married or virgins.

أَنْ يُبَدِّلَهُ أَزْوَاجًا خَيْرًا مِنْكَ مَسْلَمَاتٍ مُؤْمِنَاتٍ
قَانِتَاتٍ تَلْبِسْنَ عَمِيصَاتٍ سَبِيحَاتٍ تَبْتِ
وَأَبْكَارًا

6. O ye who believe! <sup>5538</sup>
Save yourselves and your
Families from a Fire
Whose fuel is Men <sup>5539</sup>
And Stones, over which
Are (appointed) angels
Stern (and) severe, <sup>5540</sup>
Who flinch not (from Executing) the Commands
They receive from God,
But do (precisely) what
They are commanded.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ
وَأَهْلِيكُمْ نَارًا وَقُودُهَا النَّاسُ وَالْحِجَارَةُ
عَلَيْهَا مَلَائِكَةٌ غُلَاظٌ شِدَادٌ لَا يَعْصُونَ اللَّهَ
مَا أَمَرَهُمْ وَيَفْعَلُونَ مَا يُؤْمَرُونَ

7. (They will say),
"O ye Unbelievers!
Make no excuses
This Day! Ye are being <sup>5541</sup>

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَعْتَذِرُوا الْيَوْمَ إِنَّمَا

5538. Note how we have been gradually led up in admonition from two Consorts to all consorts, to all women, to all Believers, and to all men and women including Unbelievers. We must carefully guard not only our own conduct, but the conduct of our families, and of all who are near and dear to us. For the issues are most serious, and the consequences of a fall are most terrible.

5539. "A Fire whose fuel is Men and Stones." Cf. ii. 24. This is a terrible Fire: not merely like the physical fire which burns wood or charcoal or substances like that, and consumes them. This spiritual Fire will have for its fuel men who do wrong and are as hard-hearted as stones, or stone Idols as symbolical of all the unbending falsehoods in life.

5540. Cf. lxxiv. 31. We think of the angel nature as gentle and beautiful, but in another aspect perfection includes justice, fidelity, discipline, and the firm execution of duty according to lawful Commands. So, in the attributes of God Himself, Justice and Mercy, Kindness and Correction are not contradictory but complementary. An earthly ruler will be unkind to his loyal subjects if he does not punish evil-doers.

5541. 'This is no hardship or injustice imposed on you. It is all but the fruit of your own deeds; the result of your own deliberate choice.'

To one of his consorts,
And she then divulged it
(To another), and God made it
Known to him, he confirmed<sup>5533</sup>
Part thereof and repudiated
A part. Then when he Told her thereof, she said,
"Who told thee this?"
He said, "He told me
Who knows and is well-acquainted
(With all things) "

4. If ye two turn in repentance<sup>5534</sup>
To Him, your hearts
Are indeed so inclined;
But if ye back up
Each other against him,
Truly God is his Protector,
And Gabriel, and (every)
Righteous one among those
Who believe,—and furthermore,<sup>5535</sup>
The angels—will back (him) up.

5. ~~It~~ may be, if he
Divorced you (all),<sup>5536</sup>

إِلَىٰ بَعْضِ أَزْوَاجِهِ حَدِيثًا فَلَمَّا نَبَّأَتْ
بِهِ وَأَظْهَرَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ عَرَفَ بَعْضَهُ
وَأَعْرَضَ عَنْ بَعْضٍ فَلَمَّا نَبَّأَهَا بِهِ
قَالَتْ مَنْ أَنبَأَكَ هَذَا قَالَ نَبَّأَنِي
الْعَلِيُّ الْخَبِيرُ

④ إِنْ تَوْبَا إِلَى اللَّهِ فَقَدْ صَغَتْ
قُلُوبُكُمَا وَإِنْ تَظَاهَرَا عَلَيْهِ فَإِنَّ
اللَّهَ هُوَ مَوْلَاهُ وَجِبْرِيلُ وَصَالِحُ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ بَعْدَ
ذَلِكَ ظَاهِرُونَ

⑤ عَسَىٰ رَبُّهُ إِنْ طَلَّقَكُنَّ

5533. The moral we have to draw is manifold. (1) If anything is told us in confidence, especially by one at the head of affairs, we must not divulge it to our closest friend. (2) If such divulgence is made in the most secret whispers, God's Plan is such that it will come to light and expose those guilty of breach of confidence. (3) When the whispered version is compared with the true version and the actual facts, it will be found that the whispered version is in great part untrue, due to the misunderstanding and exaggeration inevitable in the circumstances. (4) The breach of confidence must inevitably redound to the shame of the guilty party, whose surprise only covers a sense of humiliation. See next note.

5534. There are further lessons. (5) Both the party betraying confidence and that encouraging the betrayal must purge their conduct by repentance. (6) Frank repentance would be what their hearts and conscience themselves would dictate, and they must not resist such amends on account of selfish obstinacy. (7) If they were to resist frank repentance and amends, they are only abetting each other's wrong, and they cannot prevail against all the spiritual forces which will be ranged on the side of the right.

5535. Do not forget the dual meaning: immediate, in application to the holy Prophet, and general, being the lesson which we ought all to learn. The holy Prophet could not be injured by any persons doing anything against him, even though they might unconsciously put him in great jeopardy: for God, the Angel Gabriel (who was the Messenger to him), and the whole Community, would protect him,—to say nothing of the army of angels or hidden spiritual forces that always guarded him Cf. xxxiii. 56. The general lesson for us is that the good man's protection is that of the spiritual forces around him; it is divine protection, against which human weakness or folly will have no power.

5536. From the case of two in verse 4, we now come to the case of all the Consorts generally, in verse 5 Cf. xxxiii. 28-30. Their duties and responsibilities were higher than those of other women, and therefore their failure would also be more serious. This is only hypothetical, in order to show us the virtues expected of them: faith and devotion, worship and service, readiness for travel or hijrah, whether they were young or old, new to married life or otherwise. From them again the more general application follows—to all women in Islam.

Sura LXVI.

Tahrim, or Holding (something) to be Forbidden.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ① Prophet! Why
Holdest thou to be forbidden
That which God has<sup>5529</sup>
Made lawful to thee?
Thou seekest to please<sup>5530</sup>
Thy consorts. But God
Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

2. God has already ordained<sup>5531</sup>
For you, (O men),
The dissolution of your oaths
(In some cases): and God
Is your Protector, and He
Is Full of Knowledge
And Wisdom.

3. ② When the Prophet disclosed
A matter in confidence<sup>5532</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① يٰٓأَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا أَحَلَّ اللَّهُ لَكَ
تَبَتَّ لِي مَرْضَاكَ أَزْوَاجُكَ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ
رَّحِيمٌ

② قَدْ فَرَضَ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ تَحِلَّةَ أَيْمَانِكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ مَوْلَاكُمْ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ

③ وَلَإِذَا أَسْرَأَ النَّبِيُّ

5529. The Prophet's household was not like other households. The Consorts of Purity were expected to hold a higher standard in behaviour and reticence than ordinary women, as they had higher work to perform. See n. 3706 to xxxiii. 28. But they were human beings after all, and were subject to the weaknesses of their sex, and they sometimes failed. The imprudence of Hadhrat 'Aisha (see n. 2962 to xxiv. 11) once caused serious difficulties: the holy Prophet's mind was sore distressed, and he renounced the society of his wives for some time. This renunciation seems to be referred to here. The situation was none the less difficult for him because she was a daughter of Hadhrat Abū Bakr, one of the truest and most intimate of his Companions and lieutenants. Hadhrat 'Umar's daughter Rafaa was also sometimes apt to presume on her position, and when the two combined in secret counsel, and discussed matters and disclosed secrets to each other, they caused much sorrow to the holy Prophet, whose heart was tender and who treated all his family with exemplary patience and affection.

5530. The tender words of admonition addressed to the Consorts in xxxiii. 28-34 explain the situation far better than any comments can express. If the holy Prophet had been a mere husband in the ordinary sense of the term, he could not have held the balance even between his private feelings and his public duties. But he was not an ordinary husband, and he abandoned his renunciation on his realisation of the higher duties with which he was charged, and which required conciliation with firmness.

5531. Cf. ii. 224. If your vows prevent you from doing good, or acting rightly, or making peace between persons, you should expiate the vow, but not refrain from your good deed.

5532. Who these two consorts were, and what was the matter in confidence which was disclosed, we are not expressly told, but the facts mentioned in n. 5529 above will help us to understand this passage. It is needless to drag in all the petty womanish tittle-tattle which some Commentators have conjecturally collected, or the malicious insinuations of those who have not understood the saintly greatness of the holy Prophet. The sacred words imply that the matter was of great importance as to the principle involved, but that the details were not of sufficient importance for permanent record. For the lessons to be drawn, see the notes following.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXVI (Taḥrīm).

This is the tenth and last of the series of short Medina Sūras which began with S. lvii : see Introduction to that Sūra. The point dealt with here is : how far the turning away from sex or the opposition of one sex against another or a want of harmony between the sexes may injure the higher interests of society.

The date may be taken to be somewhere about A.H. 7.

Summary.—The failings of the weaker sex should not turn away men from normal social life: harmony and mutual confidence should be taught and enforced, and God's blessing will descend on the virtuous even if their lot is cast with the wicked (lxvi. 1-12, and C. 245).

C. 245.—The relations between the sexes are embittered
(lxvi. 1-12) By misunderstandings and conflicts that produce
Unhappiness and misery, personal and social.
Harmony and confidence are due between
The sexes, not disgust or isolation, which may
Please some but cause injustice to others.
Respect each other's confidence, and if
You fail, repent and make amends.
The good man seeks virtue for himself
And his family. If Evil is yoked to Good,
It must take the fruit of its own deeds ;
The worldly tie will profit naught ;
But Good should firmly make a stand
And will be saved, for God doth care
For all His true devoted Servants.

From the depths of Darkness <sup>5525</sup>
 Into Light. And those who Believe in God and work
 Righteousness, He will admit
 To Gardens beneath which rivers
 Flow, to dwell therein
 For ever: God has indeed
 Granted for them
 A most excellent provision.

مَنْ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ وَمَنْ يُؤْمِنَ بِاللَّهِ
 وَيَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا يُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ
 تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا قَدْ
 أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ لَهُ رِزْقًا

12. God is He Who Created seven Firmaments <sup>5526</sup>
 And of the earth
 A similar number. <sup>5527</sup>
 Through the midst
 Of them (all) descends <sup>5528</sup>
 His Command: that ye may Know that God has power
 Over all things, and that
 God comprehends all things
 In (His) Knowledge.

⑦ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَاوَاتٍ وَمِنْ
 الْأَرْضِ مِثْلَهُنَّ يَتَنَزَّلُ الْأَمْرُ بَيْنَهُنَّ
 لَعَلَّكُمْ أَتَى اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ
 قَدْ أَحْبَطَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا

5526. "Seven Firmaments." The literal meaning refers to the seven orbits or firmaments that we see clearly marked in the motions of the heavenly bodies in the space around us: see xxiii. 17. n. 2876. In poetical imagery there are the seven Planetary spheres, which form the lower heaven or heavens, with higher spheres culminating in the Empyrean, or God's Throne of Majesty: see notes 4035-36 to xxxvii. 6. The mystical meaning refers to the various grades in the spiritual or heavenly kingdom, the number seven being itself a mystical symbol, comprising many and yet forming an indivisible integer, the highest indivisible integer of one digit.

5527. See the last note, about the mystic number seven. As there are grades one above the other in the spiritual kingdom, there are similar grades in our life on this earth. If we take the literal meaning,—just as we see the heavenly spheres one above another, over our heads, so we can see that the crust of the earth is built up of geological strata one above another.

5528. But in all spheres of life and Creation, whatever conception we are able to form of them, it is certain that the Command or Law of God runs through them all, for His knowledge and power extend through all things.

SECTION 2.

8. How many populations
That insolently opposed <sup>5521</sup>
The command of their Lord
And of His apostles,
Did We not then
Call to account,—
To severe account?—
And We imposed on them
An exemplary Punishment. <sup>5522</sup>

9. Then did they taste
The evil result of
Their conduct, and the End
Of their conduct
Was Perdition.

10. God has prepared for them
A severe Punishment <sup>5523</sup>
(In the Hereafter).
Therefore fear God,
O ye men of understanding—
Who have believed!—
For God hath indeed
Sent down to you
A Message, — <sup>5524</sup>

11. An Apostle, who rehearses
To you the Signs of God
Containing clear explanations,
That he may lead forth
Those who believe
And do righteous deeds

⑧ وَكَأَيِّن مِّن قَرِيَةٍ عَنَّتْ عَنْ أَمْرِ
رَبِّهَا وَرُسُلِهِ فَحَاسِبْنَهَا حَسَابًا
شَدِيدًا وَعَذِّبْنَهَا عَذَابًا نُكَرًا

⑨ فَذَاقَتْ وَبَالَ أَمْرِهَا وَكَانَ
عَقِبَهُ أَمْرُهَا خُسْرًا

⑩ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ
يَا أَتُوبِي الْآلَيْبِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قَدْ
أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكُمْ ذِكْرًا

⑪ رَسُولًا يَتْلُو عَلَيْكُمْ ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ مُبَيِّنَاتٍ
لِّخُجَّجِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ

5521. Insolent impiety consists not only in the breach of the rites of religion. Even more vital is the defiance of the laws of nature which God has made for us. These laws, for us human beings include those which relate to our fellow-beings in society, to whom kindness and consideration form the basis of our social duties. Our duties to our families and our children in intimate matters such as were spoken of in the last Section, are as important as any in our spiritual life. Peoples who forgot the moral law in marriage or family life perished in this world and will have no future in the Hereafter. The lessons apply not only to individuals but to whole nations or social groups.

5522. This refers to the present life: apparently the Hereafter is implied in verse 10 below.

5523. See last note.

5524. There is no excuse for us to go astray, seeing that God in His infinite Mercy has explained to us His Message by His many Signs around us and clearly by means of the human Teachers and Apostles whom He has sent for our instruction: see next verse.

Style as ye live,
According to your means :
Annoy them not, so as
To restrict them.<sup>5516</sup>
And if they carry (life
In their wombs), then<sup>5517</sup>
Spend (your substance) on them
Until they deliver
Their burden: and if
They suckle your (offspring),
Give them their recompense :
And take mutual counsel
Together, according to
What is just and reasonable.
And if ye find yourselves<sup>5518</sup>
In difficulties, let another
Woman suckle (the child)
On the (father's) behalf.<sup>5519</sup>

7. Let the man of means
Spend according to
His means: and the man
Whose resources are restricted,
Let him spend according
To what God has given him.
God puts no burden
On any person beyond
What He has given him.
After a difficulty, God
Will soon grant relief.<sup>5520</sup>

سَكُنْتُمْ مِنْ وُجْدِكُمْ وَلَا تَضَارُّوهُنَّ
لِئَضْيَقُوا عَلَيْهِنَّ وَإِنْ كُنَّ أُولَاتٍ
حَمْلٍ فَأَنْفِقُوا عَلَيْهِنَّ حَتَّى يَضَعْنَ
حَمْلَهُنَّ فَإِنْ أَرْضَعْنَ لَكُمْ فَآتُوهُنَّ
أُجُورَهُنَّ وَأَتَمُّوا بَيْنَكُمْ
بِمَعْرُوفٍ وَإِنْ تَعَاَسَرْتُمْ فَمَنْ رَضِعْ
لَهُ أُخْرَى

اللَّهُ لَا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا مَا
آتَاهَا سَيَجْعَلُ اللَّهُ بَعْدَ عُسْرٍ يُسْرًا

5516. Cf. n. 5507 above. A selfish man, because he has divorced his wife, may, in the probationary period before the divorce becomes absolute, treat her with contumely, and while giving her residence and maintenance, may so restrict it as to make her life miserable. This is forbidden. She must be provided on the same scale as he is, according to his status in life. There is still hope of reconciliation, and if not, yet the parting must be honourable.

5517. If there is pregnancy, a sacred third life comes on the scene, for which there is added responsibility (perhaps added hope of reconciliation) for both parents. In any case no separation is possible until after the child is born. Even after birth, if no reconciliation between parents is possible, yet for the nursing of the child and for its welfare the care of the mother remains the duty of the father, and there must be mutual counsel between him and the mother in all truth and sincerity.

5518. "If ye find yourselves in difficulties": e.g., if the mother's milk fails, or if her health fails, or if any circumstance arises which bars the natural course of the mother nursing her own child. There may be psychological difficulties also.

5519. That is, the father must stand all expenses, without cutting down the reasonable allowance to which the mother is entitled in the circumstances.

5520. We must trust in God, and do whatever is possible for us in the interests of the young life for which we are responsible. We must not be frightened by difficulties. God will give us relief and provide a solution if we act with honest integrity. Cf. xciv. 5-6.

Surely accomplish His purpose :<sup>5512</sup>
Verily, for all things
Has God appointed
A due proportion.

بَلِّغْ أَمْرَهُ قَدْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدْرًا

4. Such of your women
As have passed the age
Of monthly courses, for them
The prescribed period, if ye
Have any doubts, is
Three months, and for those
Who have no courses
(It is the same):<sup>5513</sup>
For those who carry
(Life within their wombs),
Their period is until
They deliver their burdens:
And for those who
Fear God, He will
Make their path easy.<sup>5514</sup>

④ وَالَّتِي يَبْسُنَ مِنَ الْمَحِيضِ مِنْ
تَسَايُكُمْ إِنْ أَرَبْتُمْ فَعِدَّتُهُنَّ ثَلَاثَةُ
أَشْهُرٍ وَالَّتِي لَمْ يَحِيضْ وَأُولَتْ الْأَحْمَالُ

يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ يُسْرًا

5. That is the Command
Of God, which He
Has sent down to you;
And if any one fears God,
He will remove his ills<sup>5515</sup>
From him, and will enlarge
His reward.

⑤ ذَلِكَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ أَنْزَلَهُ إِلَى كُمْ وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ
يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِ وَيُعْظِمْ لَهُ أَجْرًا

6. Let the women live
(In 'iddat) in the same

⑥ أَكُنَّوهُنَّ مِنْ حَيْثُ

5512. Our anger and our impatience have to be curbed. Our friends and our mates or associates may seem to us ever so weak and unreasonable, and the circumstances may be ever so disheartening; yet we must trust in God. How can we measure our own weakness or perhaps blindness? He knows all. His universal Purpose is always good. His Will must be accomplished, and we should wish for its accomplishment. His ordering of the universe observes a due, just, and perfect proportion.

5513 Cf. ii 228. For normal women, the 'iddat is the three monthly courses after separation; if there are no courses or if the courses are in doubt, it is three calendar months. By that time it will be clear whether there is pregnancy: if there is, the waiting period is till after delivery.

5514 Cf. n. 5511 above. If there is a true and sincere desire to obey the Will of God and do right, the difficulties will vanish, and these delicate matters will be settled for the greatest happiness of all.

5515. God's ordinance is nothing arbitrary. It is to help us, and to lead us on to our highest good, temporal and spiritual. If we obey God, His wisdom will not only solve our difficulties, but it will remove other ills that we may have, subjective and objective. Like a good shepherd, he will lead us on to more and more luscious pastures. With each step higher, our position becomes more and more sure and our reward more and more precious.

Perchance God will
Bring about thereafter
Some new situation.<sup>5508</sup>

2. Thus when they fulfil
Their term appointed,
Either take them back
On equitable terms<sup>5509</sup>
Or part with them
On equitable terms;
And take for witness
Two persons from among you,
Endued with justice,
And establish the evidence<sup>5510</sup>
(As) before God. Such
Is the admonition given
To him who believes
In God and the Last Day.
And for those who fear
God, He (ever) prepares<sup>5511</sup>
A way out,

3. And He provides for him
From (sources) he never Could imagine. And if Any one puts his trust
In God, sufficient is (God)
For him. For God wil!

لَعَلَّ اللَّهَ يُحْدِثَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ أَمْرًا

⑤ فَإِذَا بَلَغْنَ أَجَلَهُنَّ فَأَمْسِكُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ
أَوْ فَارِقُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ وَأَشْهِدُوا ذَوَى عَدْلٍ
مِنْكُمْ وَأَقِيمُوا الشَّهَادَةَ لِلَّهِ ذَلِكَ يُوعَظُ
بِهِ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَمَنْ
يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مَخْرَجًا

⑥ وَبَرِّزْقَهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ وَمَنْ
يَتَّوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهُ وَإِنَّ
اللَّهَ

5508. A reconciliation is possible, and is indeed recommended at every stage. The first serious differences between the parties are to be submitted to a family council on which both sides are represented (iv. 33); divorce is not to be pronounced when mutual physical attraction is at an ebb (n. 5506); when it is pronounced, there should be a period of probationary waiting: dower has to be paid and due provision has to be made for many things on equitable terms; every facility has to be given for reconciliation till the last moment, and impediments are provided against hasty impulses leading to rupture. "Thou knowest not if perchance God will bring about thereafter some new situation."

5509. Cf. ii. 231. Everything should be done fairly and squarely, and all interests should be safeguarded.

5510. Publicity and the establishment of proper evidence ensure that no one will act unjustly or selfishly. All should remember that these are matters of serious import, affecting our most intimate lives, and therefore our position in the spiritual kingdom.

5511. In these very delicate and difficult matters, the wisdom of jurists provides a less satisfactory solution than a sincere desire to be just and true, which is described as the "fear of God". Where such a desire exists, God often provides a solution in the most unexpected ways or from the most unexpected quarters: e.g., the worst enemies may be reconciled, or the cry or the smile of an infant baby may heal seemingly irreparable injuries or unite hearts seemingly alienated for ever. And Faith is followed at once by a psychological feeling of rest for the troubled spirit.

Talaq, or Divorce.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

﴿١﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَّقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ
فَطَلَّقُوهُنَّ أَعْدَتِهِنَّ وَأَحْصُوا الْعِدَّةَ
وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ رَبَّكُمْ لَا تُخْرِجُوهُنَّ مِنْ
بُيُوتِهِنَّ وَلَا يَخْرُجْنَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَأْتِيَنَّ
بِفَحِشَةٍ مُبَيِّنَةٍ وَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُ اللَّهُ
يَعْلَمُ حُدُودَ اللَّهِ فَقَدْ ظَلَمَ نَفْسَهُ
لَا تَدْرِي

5503. Note that in the first instance the Prophet is himself addressed individually, as the Teacher and representative of the Community. Then the actual directions: "when ye.....": are addressed to the Community collectively.

5504 "Of all things permitted by law, Divorce is the most hateful in the sight of God": see Introduction to this Sūra. The general directions and limitations of Divorce may be studied in ii. 228-232, 236-237, 241, and notes; also iv. 35.

5505. 'Iddat, as a technical term in divorce law, is explained in n. 254 to ii. 228. Its general meaning is "a prescribed period": in that general sense it is used in ii. 185 for a prescribed period for fasting.

5506. The prescribed period (see last note) is in the interests of the wife, of the husband, of an unborn child (if there is any), and of sex laws in nature, and therefore the elementary dictates of refined human society. In English Law the six months' interval between the decree nisi and the decree absolute in divorce attains the same purpose in a round-about way. The Commentators suggest that the divorce should not be pronounced during the courses. Read with ii. 222, this implies that any incipient differences between husband and wife should not be forced to an issue at a time when sex is least attractive and almost repulsive. Everything should be done to strengthen the social and spiritual aspects of marriage and keep down stray impulses of animal instinct. The parties are to think seriously in a mood of piety, keeping the fear of God in their minds.

5507. As Islam treats the married woman as a full juristic personality in every sense of the term a married woman has a right, in the married state, to a house or apartment of her own. And a house or apartment implies the reasonable expenses for its upkeep and for her own and her children's maintenance. And this is obligatory not only in the married state, but during the 'iddat, which is necessarily a most trying period for the woman. During this period she must not only not be turned out, but it is not decent for her to leave of her own accord, lest the chances of reconciliation should be diminished: see the next note.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXV (Ṭalāq)

This is the ninth of the ten short Medina Sūras dealing with the social life of the Community. The aspect dealt with here is Divorce, and the necessity of precautions to guard against its abuse. The relations of the sexes are an important factor in the social life of the Community, and this and the following Sūra deal with certain aspects of it. "Of all things permitted by Law", said the Prophet, "divorce is the most hateful in the sight of God". (Abū Da-ūd, Sunan, xiii 3). While the sanctity of marriage is the essential basis of family life, the incompatibility of individuals and the weaknesses of human nature require certain outlets and safeguards if that sanctity is not to be made into a fetish at the expense of human life. That is why the question of Divorce is in this Sūra linked with the question of insolent impiety and its punishment.

The date is somewhere about A.H. 6, but the chronology has no significance.

Summary.—Provision to be made for women in case of Divorce; insolent impiety always leads to punishment (lxv. 1-12, and C. 244).

C. 244.—Guard well your truth and pure integrity
(lxv 1-12.) In sex relations. Keep the tie
Of marriage sacred; but where it must
Be dissolved, use all precautions to ensure Justice to the weaker party and protect
The interests of unborn or new-born life
As well as social decency; and close not
To the last the door of reconciliation.
God's Laws must be obeyed: 'tis man's
Own loss if he is deaf to the Voice
Which teaches him, or blind to the Light
Which guides him. God's universe
Of beauty and wonder stands strong in wisdom:
Let man but turn himself thereto.

Souls,—they are the ones
That achieve prosperity,<sup>5499</sup>

نَفْسِهِمْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ

17. If ye loan to God<sup>5500</sup>
A beautiful loan, He
Will double it to
Your (credit), and He
Will grant you Forgiveness :
For God is most Ready
To appreciate (service),<sup>5501</sup>
Most Forbearing,—

⑦ إِنْ تُقْرِضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا يُّضَاعِفْهُ لَكُمْ
وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ شَكُورٌ حَلِيمٌ

18. Knower of what is hidden
And what is open,
Exalted in Might,
Full of Wisdom.<sup>5502</sup>

⑧ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ الْغَنِزُ الْحَكِيمُ

5499. Cf. lix 9. Our worst enemy is within ourselves,—the grasping selfishness which would deprive others of their just rights or seize things which do not properly belong to it. If we can get over this covetous selfishness, we achieve real Prosperity in justice and truth.

5500. Cf. ii. 245 and n. 276. Our Charity or Love is called a loan to God, which not only increases our credit account manifold, but obtains for us the forgiveness of our sins, and the capacity for increased service in the future.

5501. Cf. xiv. 5, n. 1877 ; and xxxv. 30, n. 3917. God's appreciation of our service or our love goes far deeper than its intrinsic merits or its specific expression on our side. His reward is beyond our deserts, and passes over our defects. He judges by our motives, which He can read through and through ; see next verse.

5502. God's Appreciation and Forbearing Kindness can reach so far beyond our merits, because (1) His universal knowledge comprehends hidden motives, which others cannot see in us ; (2) His power is so great that He can afford to reward even the unworthy ; and (3) His Wisdom is so great that He can turn even our weakness into our strength.

And your children are (some
That are) enemies to<sup>5494</sup>
Yourselves: so beware
Of them! But if ye
Forgive and overlook,<sup>5495</sup>
And cover up (their faults),
Verily God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

15: Your riches and your children
May be but a trial: <sup>5496</sup>
But in the Presence of God,
Is the highest Reward.

16. So fear God <sup>5497</sup>
as much as ye can;
Obey and obey;
Lend in charity
Benefit of
Your own souls. <sup>5498</sup>
And those saved from
The covetousness of their own

وَأَوْلَادُكُمْ عَدُوًّا لَكُمْ فَاحْذَرُوهُمْ وَإِنْ
تَعْفُوا وَتَصْفَحُوا وَتَغْفِرُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ
رَحِيمٌ

١٥ إِنَّمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَأَوْلَادُكُمْ كُفَّةٌ وَاللَّهُ
عِنْدَهُ أَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ

١٦ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ وَأَسْمِعُوا
وَأَطِيعُوا وَأَنْفِقُوا خَيْرًا لِّأَنْفُسِكُمْ
وَمَنْ يُوقِ شُحَّ

5494. In some cases the demands of families, i.e., wife and children may conflict with a man's moral and spiritual convictions and duties. In such cases he must guard against the abandonment of his convictions, duties, and ideals to their requests or desires. But he must not treat them harshly. He must make reasonable provision for them, and if they persist in opposing his clear duties and convictions, he must forgive them and not expose them to shame or ridicule, while at the same time holding on to his clear duty. Such cases occurred when godly men undertook exile from their native city of Mecca to follow the Faith in Medina. In some cases their families murmured, but all came right in the end.

5495. For the different words for "forgiveness" see n. 110 to ii. 109.

5496. Children may be a "trial" in many senses: (1) their different ways of looking at things may cause you to reflect, and to turn to the highest things of eternal importance; (2) their relationship with you and with each other may confront you with problems far more complicated than those in separate individual lives, and thus become a test of your own strength of character and sense of responsibility; (3) their conflict with your ideals (see n. 5494 above) may vex your spirit, but may at the same time search out your fidelity to God; and (4) their affection for you and your affection for them, may be a source of strength for you if it is pure, just as it may be a danger if it is based on selfish or unworthy motives. So also riches and worldly goods have their advantages as well as dangers.

5497. "Fear God" combined with "as much as you can" obviously means: "lead lives of self-restraint and righteousness": the usual meaning of Taqwā: see n. 26 to ii. 2.

5498. Charity is meant to help and do good to other people who need it. But it has the highest subjective value for the person who gives it. Like mercy "it blesseth him that gives and him that takes". It purifies the giver's soul: the affection that he pours out is for his own spiritual benefit and progress. Cf. Coleridge: "He prayeth best who loveth best all things both great and small, for the Great God Who loveth us, Who made and loveth all".

Rivers flow, to dwell therein
For ever : that will be
The Supreme Achievement.

10. But those who reject Faith
And treat Our Signs
As falsehoods, they will be
Companions of the Fire,
To dwell therein for aye :
And evil is that Goal.

SECTION 2.

11. No kind of calamity
Can occur, except
By the leave of God :
And if any one believes<sup>5492</sup>
In God, (God) guides his Heart (aright) : for God
Knows all things.
12. So obey God, and obey
His Apostle : but if
Ye turn back, the duty
Of Our Apostle is but
To proclaim (the Message)<sup>5493</sup>
Clearly and openly.
13. God ! There is no god
But He : and on God,
Therefore, let the Believers
Put their trust.
14. O ye who believe !
Truly, among your wives

الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ
الْعَظِيمُ

⑩ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
وَهُمْ فِي الْمَصِيرِ

⑪ مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ
اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ قَلْبَهُ وَاللَّهُ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

⑫ وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ
فَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَإِنَّمَا عَلَىٰ رَسُولِنَا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ

⑬ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَعَلَىٰ اللَّهِ
فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ

⑭ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِنِّ مِنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ

5492. What we consider calamities may be blessings in disguise. Pain in the body is often a signal of something wrong, which we can cure by remedial measures. So in the moral and spiritual world, we should in all circumstances hold firmly to the faith that nothing happens without God's knowledge and leave; and therefore there must be some justice and wisdom according to His great universal Plan. Our duty is to find out our own shortcomings and remedy them. If we try to do so in all sincerity of heart, God will give us guidance.

5493. The Apostle comes to guide and teach, not to force and compel. The Apostle's teaching is clear and unambiguous, and it is open and free to all. Cf. also v. 95.

Raised up (for Judgment).<sup>5487</sup>
 Say : " Yea, by my Lord,
 Ye shall surely be
 Raised up : then shall ye
 Be told (the truth) of
 All that ye did.
 And that is easy for God."

8. Believe, therefore, in God
 And His Apostle, and
 In the Light which We<sup>5488</sup>
 Have sent down. And God
 Is well acquainted
 With all that ye do.

9. The Day that He assembles
 You (all) for a Day
 Of Assembly,—that will be
 A day of mutual loss<sup>5489</sup>
 And gain (among you).
 And those who believe
 In God and work righteousness,—
 He will remove from them<sup>5490</sup>
 Their ills, and He will admit
 Them to gardens beneath which<sup>5491</sup>

يَعْتَوُّ أُنْقُلْ بِكَ وَرَبِّي لَتُبْعَثَ
 ثُمَّ لَتَنْبُؤَنَّ بِمَا عَمِلْتُمْ وَذَلِكَ
 عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ

٨ قَامُوا بِآلِهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَالنُّورِ
 الَّذِي أَنْزَلْنَا وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ
 خَبِيرٌ

٩ يَوْمَ يَجْمَعُكُمْ لِيَوْمِ الْجَمْعِ ذَلِكَ
 يَوْمُ التَّغَابُنِ وَمَنْ يُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ
 وَيَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ
 سَيِّئَاتِهِ وَيُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ
 تَحْتِهَا

5487. In other words, they think that there is no future life, and no responsibility for our actions beyond what we see in the present life. If that were true, all the profits of fraud and roguery, which remain unpunished in this world—and many do remain unpunished in this world—will remain with the wicked; and all the losses and pain suffered by integrity and righteousness, if they find no compensation in this life, will never find any compensation. This would be an odd result in a world of justice. We are taught that this is not true,—that it is certain that the balance will be re-pressed in a better future world; that there will be a resurrection of what we call the dead; and that on that occasion the full import of all we did will be made plain to us, and our moral and spiritual responsibility will be fully enforced.

5488. "The Light which We have sent down" i.e., the light of Revelation, the light of conscience, the light of reason, and every kind of true light by which we may know God and His Will. If we play false with any such lights, it is fully known to God,

5489. The Day of Judgment will truly be "a Day of Mutual Loss and Gain", as the title of this Sûra indicates. Men who thought they were laying up riches will find themselves paupers in the Kingdom of Heaven. Men who thought they were acquiring good by wrong-doing will find their efforts were wasted: xviii. 104. On the other hand the meek and lowly of this life will acquire great dignity and honour in the next; the despised ones doing good here will be the accepted ones there; the persecuted righteous will be in eternal happiness. The two classes will as it were change their relative positions.

5490. "Remove from them their ills". The ills may be sins, faults, mistakes, or evil tendencies; God will of His grace cover them up, and blot out the account against them; or they may be sorrows, sufferings, or disappointments; God may even change the evil of such persons into good, their apparent calamities into opportunities for spiritual advancement: xxv. 70. This is because of their sincere Faith as evidenced by their repentance and amendment.

5491. For "Gardens" as the symbol or type of the highest Bliss, see paragraphs 8-9 of Appendix XII, printed at the end of S. liv. ; pp. 1466-67.

4. He knows what is
In the heavens
And on earth;
And He knows what <sup>5483</sup>
Ye conceal and what
Ye reveal; yea, God
Knows well the (secrets)
Of (all) hearts.

5. ~~It~~as not the story
Reached you, of those
Who rejected Faith aforetime?
So they tasted the evil
Result of their conduct; <sup>6184</sup>
And they had
A grievous Penalty.

6. That was because there
Came to them apostles
With Clear Signs,
But they said:
"Shall (mere) human beings <sup>5485</sup>
Direct us?" So they rejected
(The Message) and turned away.
But God can do without (them):
And God is <sup>5486</sup>
Free of all needs,
Worthy of all praise.

7. ~~The~~ Unbelievers think
That they will not be

5483. Not only does He create and develop and sustain all things; but all thoughts, motives, feelings, ideas, and events are known to Him. Therefore we must not imagine that, if some evil seems to go unpunished, it is not known to Him or has escaped His notice. His Plan is wise and good in its fullest compass: sometimes we do not see its wisdom and goodness because we see only a broken fragment of it, as our own intelligence is narrow.

5484. "The evil result of their conduct" begins to manifest itself in this very life, either in external events, or in internal restlessness and agonies of conscience. But its culminating force will be seen in the "grievous Penalty" of the Hereafter.

5485. This is referred to in a more expanded form in xiv. 9-11, which see.

5486. Their obedience is not necessary to God, nor will their rejection of Truth affect the validity of Truth or injure the progress of Truth. God is free of all needs or dependence on any circumstance whatever. He sends His Message for the good of mankind, and it is man who suffers by ignoring, rejecting, or opposing it.

1. Whatever is
In the heavens and
On earth, doth declare <sup>5479</sup>
The Praises and Glory
Of God: to Him belongs
Dominion, and to Him belongs
Praise: and He has power
Over all things.

① يُسَبِّحُ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ
وَالَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

2. It is He Who has Created you; and of you
Are some that are
Unbelievers, and some <sup>5480</sup>
That are Believers:
And God sees well
All that ye do.

② هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْكُمْ كَافِرٌ وَمِنْكُمْ مُؤْمِنٌ وَاللَّهُ
بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ

3. He has created the heavens
And the earth
In just proportions,
And has given you shape, <sup>5481</sup>
And made your shapes
Beautiful: and to Him
Is the final Goal. <sup>5482</sup>

③ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ وَصَوَّرَكُمْ
فَآخَسَنَ صُورَكُمْ وَإِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ

5479. Cf. lxii. 1, and n. 5449. All things by their very existence proclaim the Glory and the Praises of God. He has dominion over all things, but He uses His dominion for just and praiseworthy ends. He has power over all things: therefore He can combine justice with mercy, and His Plan and Purpose cannot be frustrated by the existence of Evil along with Good in His Kingdom.

5480. It is not that He does not see Rebellion and Evil, nor that He cannot punish them. He created all things pure and good, and if evil crept in by the grant of a limited free-will by Him, it is not unforeseen: it is in His wise and universal Plan, for giving man a chance of rising higher and ever higher.

5481. Cf. xl. 64, and n. 4440: also vii. 11 and n. 996. In addition to the beauty and grandeur of all God's Creation, He has endowed man with special aptitudes, faculties and capacities, and special excellencies which raise him at his best to the position of God's vicegerent on earth. "Beautiful" also includes the idea of "adapted to the ends for which they were created".

5482. "The final Goal": not only of mankind, but of all things created, whether material or in the realm of ideas and events. All things return to God: as they derive their origin from Him, so is the return or destination of all of them to God.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXIV (Tagābun).

This is the eighth of the short Medina Sūras, each dealing with a special aspect of the life of the Community.

The special aspect spoken of here is the mutual gain and loss of Good and Evil, contrasted in this life and in the Hereafter.

It is an early Medina Sūra, of the year 1 of the Hijra or possibly even of the Meccan period just before the Hijrat. (See n. 5494 below).

Summary.—Both the Unbelievers and the Believers were created by the One True God, Who created all and knows all : why should Unbelief and Evil exult in worldly gain when their loss will be as manifest in the Hereafter as will be the gains of the Believers ? (lxiv. 1-18, and C. 243).

C. 243.—The self-same God created all men.

(lxiv. 1-18.) If some do good and others evil,
 And ye wonder how the good do suffer
 And the evil thrive, remember the Final
 Goal, when true adjustments will
 Be made. The Gainers here will be
 The Losers there, and the Losers Gainers.
 Some of this exchange you will see
 Even here, in this life, for Unbelievers
 Who deny the Hereafter ; but in the Hereafter,
 Full account and true adjustment
 Of good and ill will follow before
 The Judgment-Seat : nay, Good will get
 More than its full reward : for God
 Is Bounteous, Merciful, Mighty, Wise.

(Largely) in charity, and I
Should have been one
Of the doers of good".

وَكَُنْ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ

11. But to no soul
Will God grant respite <sup>5478</sup>
When the time appointed
(For it) has come; and God
Is well acquainted
With (all) that ye do.

⑪ وَلَنْ يُؤَخِّرَ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهَا وَاللَّهُ
خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ

5478. When our limited period of probation is over, we cannot justly ask for more time, nor will more time be given to us then. Procrastination is itself a fault and God knows every hidden thought and motive in our minds.

May disperse (and quit Medina)."
But to God belong
The treasures of the heavens
And the earth; but
The Hypocrites understand not.

8. They say, "If we<sup>5475</sup>
Return to Medina, surely
The more honourable (element)
Will expel therefrom the meaner "
But honour belongs to God
And His Apostle, and
To the Believers; but
The Hypocrites know not.

SECTION 2.

9. O ye who believe!
Let not your riches
Or your children divert you
From the remembrance of God.
If any act thus,
The loss is their own.<sup>5476</sup>
10. And spend something (in charity)
Out of the substance<sup>5477</sup>
Which We have bestowed
On you, before Death
Should come to any of you
And he should say,
"O my Lord! Why didst
Thou not give me
Respite for a little while?
I should then have given

يَنْفَضُّوْا وَلِلّٰهِ خَزَائِنُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ
وَلَكِنَّ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ لَا يَفْقَهُوْنَ

۸ يَقُوْلُوْنَ اِنْ رَجَعْنَا اِلَى الْمَدِيْنَةِ لَخَرِيْجٌ حَسْبُ
الْاَعْزَمِيْنَهَا اِلَّا ذٰلِكَ وَلِلّٰهِ الْعِزَّةُ وَلِرَسُوْلِهِ
وَالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَلَكِنَّ الْمُنٰفِقِيْنَ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ

۹ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تُلْهِكُمْ اَمْوَالُكُمْ
وَلَا اَوْلَادُكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ
ذٰلِكَ فَاُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْخٰسِرُوْنَ

۱۰ وَاَنْفِقُوْا مِنْ مَّا رَزَقْنٰكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَنْ يَّاْتِيَ
اَحَدَكُمْ الْمَوْتُ فَيَقُوْلَ رَبِّ لَوْلَا اَخَّرْتَنِيْ
اِلَى اَجَلٍ قَرِيْبٍ فَاَصْدَقَ

5475. Words of this import were spoken by 'Abdullah ibn Ubai, the leader of the Medina Hypocrites, to or about the Exiles, in the course of the expedition against the Banu Mustaliq in the fourth or fifth year of the Hijra. He had hopes of leadership which were disappointed by the coming to Medina of a man far greater than he. So he arrogated to himself and his clique the title of "the more honourable (element)" and slightly spoke of the Emigrants as the "meaner" element that had intruded from outside.

5476. Riches and human resources of all kinds are but fleeting sources of enjoyment. They should not turn away the good man from his devotion to God. "Remembrance of God" includes every act of service and goodness, every kind thought and kind deed, for this is the service and sacrifice which God requires of us. If we fail in this, the loss is our own, not any one else's; for it stunts our own spiritual growth.

5477. "Substance" or "Sustenance", in every sense, literal and metaphorical. Whatever good we enjoy comes from God, and it is our duty to use some of it in the service of others, for that is Charity and the service of God. Every unselfish act is Charity. And we must not postpone our good resolutions to the future. Death may come suddenly on us, and we cannot then be allowed to plead for more time. Every present moment calls urgently for its good deed.

Please thee ; and when
They speak, thou listenest
To their words. They are
As (worthless as hollow)
Pieces of timber propped up,<sup>5470</sup>
(Unable to stand on their own).
They think that every
Cry is against them.<sup>5471</sup>
They are the enemies ;
So beware of them.
The curse of God be
On them ! How are they
Deluded (away from the Truth) !

5. And when it is said
To them, " Come, the Apostle
Of God will pray for your <sup>5472</sup>
Forgiveness ", they turn aside
Their heads, and thou wouldst
See them turning away
Their faces in arrogance.

6. It is equal to them
Whether thou pray for
Their forgiveness or not.<sup>5473</sup>
God will not forgive them.
Truly God guides not
Rebellious transgressors.

7. They are the ones who say,
" Spend nothing on those
Who are with God's Apostle,<sup>5474</sup>
To the end that they

وَإِنْ يَقُولُوا تَسْمَعُ لِقَوْلِهِمْ كَأَنْهُمْ خَشَبٌ
مُسْتَنْدَةٌ يَتَخَسَّبُونَ كُلَّ صَيْحَةٍ عَلَيْهِمْ هُمُ
الْعَدُوُّ فَاحْذَرُهُمْ قَتَلَهُمُ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَكُونُوا يَفْكَرُونَ

⑤ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ تَعَالَوْا يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ رَسُولُ
اللَّهِ لَوَّارُؤُسَهُمْ وَرَأْيُهُمْ يُصَدُّونَ وَهُمْ
مُنْكَرِبُونَ

⑥ سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ أَسْتَغْفَرْتَ لَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ
تَسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ لَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ

⑦ هُمُ الَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ لَا تُنْفِقُوا عَلَى مَنْ عِنْدَ
رَسُولِ اللَّهِ حَتَّى

5470. Good timber is strong in itself and can support roofs and buildings. Hollow timber is useless, and has to be propped up against other things. The Hypocrites are like rotten timber. They have no firm character themselves, and for others they are unsafe props to rely upon.

5471. Their conscience always troubles them. If any cry is raised, they immediately get alarmed and think it is against themselves. Such men are worse than open enemies.

5472. Even hypocrisy like other sins can be forgiven by repentance and amendment, provided there is a will and earnest desire to turn from evil and seek the Grace of God. In this case there was none.

5473. The stiff-necked rejecters of God's Truth have made a wide gulf between themselves and God's Grace. No prayer for them will help them. In the attitude of rebellion and transgression they cannot obtain God's forgiveness.

5474. The Muhājirūn, who had come to be with the holy Prophet in Medina in exile, were received, helped, entertained by the Anṣār (Helpers). The Hypocrites in Medina did not like this, and tried in underhand ways to dissuade the good folk of Medina from doing all they could for the exiles. But their tricks did not succeed. The small Muslim community grew from strength to strength until they were able to stand on their own resources and greatly to augment the resources of their hosts as well. It is goodness that produces strength and prosperity, and God holds the keys of the treasures of man's well-being. It is not for God's enemies to dole out or withhold the unbounded treasures of God.

Sura LXIII.

Munafiqun, or the Hypocrites.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. When the Hypocrites<sup>5466</sup>

Come to thee, they say,
"We bear witness that thou
Art indeed the Apostle
Of God." Yea, God
Knoweth that thou art
Indeed His Apostle,
And God beareth witness
That the Hypocrites are Indeed liars.

2. They have made their oaths<sup>5467</sup>

A screen (for their misdeeds):
Thus they obstruct (men)
From the Path of God:
Truly evil are their deeds.

3. That is because they believed,

Then they rejected Faith:
So a seal was set<sup>5468</sup>
On their hearts: therefore
They understand not.

4. When thou lookest

At them, their exteriors<sup>5469</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُنَافِقُونَ قَالُوا نَشْهَدُ إِنَّكَ
لَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ إِنَّكَ لَرَسُولُهُ وَاللَّهُ
يَشْهَدُ إِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ لَكَاذِبُونَ

② اتَّخَذُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ جُنَّةً فَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ
اللَّهِ إِنَّهُمْ سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

③ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ آمَنُوا ثُمَّ كَفَرُوا فَطُبِعَ عَلَى
قُلُوبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ

④ * وَإِذَا رَأَيْتَهُمْ تُعْجِبُكَ أَجْسَامُهُمْ

5466. The hypocrite element, if one exists in any society, is a source of weakness and a danger to its health and its very existence. When the holy Prophet came to Medina in Hijrat, his arrival was welcome to all the patriotic citizens: it not only united them in common life and healed their old differences, but it brought honour and light to them in the person of the greatest living Teacher of Truth. But there were some baser elements filled with envy. Such hopes as they had entertained of attaining power and leadership by playing on the animosities of the factions were now dashed to the ground. They now began to work underground. For fear of the majority they dared not oppose the new growing Brotherhood of Righteousness. They tried to undermine it by intriguing secretly with its enemies and swearing openly its loyalty to the holy Prophet. They were thoroughly unmasked and discredited at the battle of Uhud. See iii. 167, and n. 476.

5467. Cf. lviii. 16, and n. 5358. When they say that Muhammad is the Apostle of God, it is God's own truth: but what is in their hearts? Nothing but falsehood.

5468. Cf. ii. 7. Their double-dealing has fogged their understanding. In Arabic the heart is taken to be the seat of understanding as well as of affection.

5469. The Hypocrites at all times are plausible people, and so were the Hypocrites of Medina. They present a fine exterior; they dress well; they can usually afford fine equipages; they try to win the confidence of every one, as they have no scruples in telling lies, and apparently expressing agreement with every one. Their words are fair-spoken, and as truth does not check their tongues, their flattery and deception know no bounds. But all this is on the outside. As they have no sincerity, nothing that they say or do is worth anything.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXIII (Munāfiqūn).

This is the seventh of the ten short Medina Sūras dealing with a special feature in the social life of the Brotherhood.

The special feature here dealt with is the wiles and mischief of the Hypocrite element in any community, and the need of guarding against it and against the temptation it throws in the way of the Believers.

The battle of Uhud (Shawwāl A.H. 3) unmasked the Hypocrites in Medina: see iii. 167, and n. 476. This Sūra may be referred to some time after that event, say about 4 A.H. or possibly 5 A.H. if the words reported in verse 8 were uttered in the expedition against the Banū Mustaliq, A.H. 5. (See n. 5475 below).

Summary.—False are the oaths of the Hypocrites: they only seek selfish ends: Believers should beware of their wiles and strive devotedly always for the Cause (lxiii. 1-11, and C. 24 ).

C. 242.—The oaths of Hypocrites are a screen
(lxiii. 1-11) For their misdeeds. They think they deceive
With their fair exterior and plausible talk,
But their minds are impervious to the real Truth.
They may plot to withhold from men of God
Such things of this world as they may command;
They may plot to expel and persecute the righteous;
They may call them ill names and slight them.
But to God belong the treasures of the heavens
And the earth, and He will bestow according To His wise and universal Plan. Let not
The world's foolish craze divert the Believers
From the service of God—from good deeds and Charity.
Now is the time: all vain will be
Your pleas and your regrets when the shadow
Of Death cuts off your last chance of Repentance!

Hasten earnestly to the Remembrance
Of God, and leave off
Business (and traffic) : <sup>5462</sup>
That is best for you
If ye but knew ! <sup>5463</sup>

فَاسْعَوْا إِلَىٰ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن
كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ

10. And when the Prayer
Is finished, then may ye
Disperse through the land,
And seek of the Bounty
Of God : and celebrate
The Praises of God
Often (and without stint) :
That ye may prosper. <sup>5464</sup>

١٠ فَإِذَا قُضِيَ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَابْتَغُوا مِن فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَاذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ

11. But when they see
Some bargain or some
Amusement, they disperse
Headlong to it, and leave
Thee standing. Say :
" The (blessing) from the Presence
Of God is better than
Any amusement or bargain !
And God is the Best
To provide (for all needs). " <sup>5465</sup>

١١ وَإِذَا رَأَوْا تِجَارَةً أَوْ لَهْوًا انفَضُّوا إِلَيْهَا
وَتَرَكُوكَ قَائِمًا قُلْ مَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ اللَّهْوِ وَمِنَ
التِّجَارَةِ وَاللَّهُ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ

5462. The idea behind the Muslim weekly " Day of Assembly " is different from that behind the Jewish Sabbath (Saturday) or the Christian Sunday. The Jewish Sabbath is primarily a commemoration of God's ending His work and resting on the seventh day (Gen. ii. 2 ; Exod. xx. 11) : we are taught that God needs no rest, nor does He feel fatigue (ii. 255). The Jewish command forbids work on that day but says nothing about worship or prayer (Exod. xx. 10) ; our ordinance lays chief stress on the remembrance of God. Jewish formalism went so far as to kill the spirit of the sabbath, and call forth the protest of Jesus : " the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath " (Mark. ii. 27). But the Christian Church, although it has changed the day from Saturday to Sunday, has inherited the Jewish spirit : witness the Scottish Sabbath ; except in so far as it has been secularised. Our teaching says : ' When the time for Jum'u'a Prayer comes, close your business and answer the summons loyally and earnestly, meet earnestly, pray, consult and learn by social contact : when the meeting is over, scatter and go about your business '.

5463. The immediate and temporal worldly gain may be the ultimate and spiritual loss, and vice versa.

5464. Prosperity is not to be measured by wealth or worldly gains. There is a higher prosperity, —the health of the mind and the spirit.

5465. Do not be distracted by the craze for amusement or gain. If you lead a righteous and sober life, God will provide for you in all senses, better than any provision you can possibly think of.

If ye think that ye
Are friends to God,
To the exclusion of
(Other) men, then express
Your desire for Death,
If ye are truthful! <sup>5459</sup>

إِنْ زَعَمْتُمْ أَنَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ لِلَّهِ مِنْ دُونِ النَّاسِ فَتَمَنَّوْا الْمَوْتَ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

7. But never will they Express their desire
(For Death), because of
The (deeds) their hands
Have sent on before them!
And God knows well
Those that do wrong!

وَلَا يَتَمَنَّوْنَهُ وَأَبَدًا لِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ
بِالظَّالِمِينَ

8. Say : " The Death from which
Ye flee will truly
Overtake you : then will
Ye be sent back
To the Knower of things
Secret and open : and He
Will tell you (the truth <sup>5460</sup>
Of) the things that ye did! "

قُلْ إِنْ الْمَوْتَ الَّذِي تَفِرُّونَ مِنْهُ فَإِنَّهُ مُلَاقِيكُمْ
تُرْتَدُّونَ إِلَىٰ عِلْمِ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ
بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

SECTION 2.

9. <sup>(P)</sup> ye who believe!
When the call is proclaimed
To prayer on Friday <sup>5461</sup>
(The Day of Assembly),

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا نَادَوْا لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ
الْجُمُعَةِ

5459. Cf. II. 94-96. If they claimed to be special friends of God, why do they not eagerly desire death, which would bring them nearer to God? But of all people they are the most tenacious of this life and the good things of this life! And they know that their grasping selfish lives have run up a score of sin against them, which will meet its recompense.

5460. Before God's Judgment-Seat, when Judgment is established, we shall see the full inwardness of all deeds in this world. The veil of illusion and delusion will be torn off. All our secret motives will be laid bare. The results of all our little plots and plans and their reactions on our spiritual and eternal welfare will be clearly visible to us. All make-believe will disappear.

5461. Friday, "the Muslim Sabbath", is primarily the Day of Assembly, the weekly meeting of the Congregation, when we show our unity by sharing in common public worship, preceded by a Khutha, in which the Imām (or Leader) reviews the week's spiritual life of the Community and offers advice and exhortation on holy living. Notice the gradations of social contact for Muslims if they followed the wise ordinances of their Faith. (1) Each individual remembers God for himself or herself five or more times every day, in the home or place of business, or local mosque, or open air, as the case may be. (2) On Friday in every week, there is a local meeting in the central mosque of each local centre,—it may be a village, or town, or ward of a big city. (3) At the two 'Ids every year, there is a larger local area meeting in one centre, the 'Id-gah. (4) Once at least in a lifetime, where possible, a Muslim shares in the vast international assemblage of the world, in the centre of Islam, at the Meccan Pilgrimage. A happy combination of decentralisation and centralisation, of individual liberty and collective meeting, and contact at various stages or grades. The mechanical part of this ordinance is easy to carry out. Are we carrying out the more difficult part?—the spirit of unity, brotherhood, mutual consultation, and collective understanding and action?

They had been, before,
In manifest error ;—

3. As well as (to confer
All these benefits upon)
Others of them,<sup>5455</sup> who
Have not already joined them :
And He is Exalted
In Might, Wise.

4. Such is the Bounty of God,
Which He bestows
On whom He will :<sup>5456</sup>
And God is the Lord
Of the highest bounty.

5. The similitude of those
Who were charged
With the (obligations
Of the) Mosaic Law,
But who subsequently failed
In those (obligations), is
That of a donkey<sup>5457</sup>
Which carries huge tomes
(But understands them not).
Evil is the similitude
Of people who falsify
The Signs of God :
And God guides not
People who do wrong.

6. Say: "O ye that Stand on Judaism!"<sup>5458</sup>

كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ لِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ

③ وَآخَرِينَ مِنْهُمْ لَمَّا يَلْحَقُوا بِهِمْ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

④ ذَلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ
ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

⑤ مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ حُمِلُوا التَّوْرَةَ ثُمَّ لَمْ
يَحْمِلُوهَا كَمَثَلِ الْحِمَارِ يَحْمِلُ أَسْفَارًا بِشَرِّ
مَثَلِ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ
لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ

⑥ قُلْ يَٰأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ هَادُوا

5455 Others of them : refers to other persons or peoples who may be ignorant, i.e., others than those among whom the holy Prophet came as an apostle. In other words his Message is for his Arab people and his non-Arab contemporaries as well as those who live in other ages, and have no personal contact with him or his Companions.

5456 That is, according to His wise Will and Plan, and also as a result of His unbounded generosity to all

5457 The Children of Israel were chosen as special vehicles for God's Message early in history. When their descendants corrupted the Message and became guilty of all the abominations against which prophets like Isaiah inveighed with such zeal and are, they merely became like beasts of burden that carry learning and wisdom on their backs but do not understand or profit by it.

5458 Standing on Judaism is a very different thing from following the Law and Will of God. An arrogant claim to be a chosen people, to be the exclusive possessors of divine teaching, to be exempt from any punishment for breaches of the divine law, (cf. II, 88), is presumptuous blasphemy. It may be Judaism, but it is not in the spirit of Moses.

Sura LXII.

Jumu'a. or the Assembly (Friday)

Prayer.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Whatever is
In the heavens and
On earth, doth declare <sup>5449</sup>
The Praises and Glory
Of God,—the Sovereign, <sup>5450</sup>
The Holy One, the Exalted
In Might, the Wise.

① يُسَبِّحُ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوسُ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَكِيمُ

2. It is He Who has sent
Amongst the Unlettered <sup>5451</sup>
An apostle from among Themselves, to rehearse
To them His Signs, <sup>5452</sup>
To sanctify them, and
To instruct them in Scripture <sup>5453</sup>
And Wisdom,—although <sup>5454</sup>

② هُوَ الَّذِي بَعَثَ فِي الْأُمِّيِّينَ رَسُولًا مِنْهُمْ
يَتْلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ
الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَإِنْ

5449. See n. 5408 to lix. 24, where I have explained the difference in signification between sabbaha and yusabbiḥu. The latter form is used here, to express an actual fact. 'Everything declares the Praises and Glory of God, because God's mercies extend to all His creatures: He sends His Revelation for the benefit of the ignorant and unlettered as well as for those who have learning in their midst, especially as the latter are apt, by the very weight of their ponderous learning, to miss the real point and spirit of God's Message.'

5450. See lix. 23, and n. 5402. Here we have two of the divine attributes repeated from lix. 23 and two from the end of lix. 24, implying a reminiscence of all the beautiful divine attributes mentioned in that passage.

5451. The Unlettered: as applied to a people, it refers to the Arabs, in comparison with the People of the Book, who had a longer tradition of learning, but whose failure is referred to in verse 5 below. As applied to individuals, it means that God's Revelation is for the benefit of all men, whether they have worldly learning or not.

5452. His Signs: God's wonderful Signs in His Creation and in His ordering of the world. It may include the Verses of the Qur-ān, but they are more specifically referred to as "Scripture" in the next line but one.

5453. Cf. ii. 129, and n. 129. Read again the attributes in the last verse. God is full Sovereign, and therefore cares for all His subjects, including the meanest and most ignorant, and sends His apostles or messengers to them. He is the Holy One, and therefore purifies and sanctifies those who were steeped in superstition and wickedness. He is Exalted in Power, and therefore He can confer all these blessings on the most unlikely people (verse 3), and no one can stay His hand. He is wise, and therefore He instructs in wisdom, both through written Scriptures, and in other ways, e.g., by means of a knowledge of life and its laws, and an understanding of His wonderful universe.

5454. Previous ignorance or error is no bar to a person or nation receiving the blessings of God's revelation, provided such person or nation has the will to come to God and the capacity to bear His Message. For an instance of incapacity through arrogance, see verse 6 below. For some remarks on the Arabs as vehicles of the new Light, see C. 12-15.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXII (Jumu'a).

This is the sixth Sūra in the Medina series of short Sūras which began with S. lvii.

The special theme here is the need for mutual contact in the Community for worship and understanding : for the spirit of the Message is for all, ignorant and learned, in order that they may be purified and may learn wisdom.

The date has no special significance : it may be placed in the early Medina period, say between A.H. 2 and 5.

Summary.—The Revelation has come among unlearned men, to teach purity and wisdom not only to them but to others, including those who may have an older Message but do not understand it : meet solemnly for the Assembly (Friday) Prayer, and let not worldly interests deflect you therefrom. (lxii. 1-11, and C. 241).

C. 241.—God's care for His creatures is universal.
 (lxii. 1-11.) His Revelation is for all—ignorant
 And lowly as well as learned and high-placed,—
 Now and for ever. None can arrogantly
 Claim exclusive possession of God's gifts :
 If they do, search their hearts within, and you
 Will find them afraid of Death and Judgment.
 Men of Faith ! On the Day of Assembly,
 When you hear the call, hasten earnestly
 To answer it : leave off business, and join
 In common worship and devotion. Then
 You may disperse about your ordinary business,
 But remember the Praises of God always :
 It is He alone that can provide
 For your every need, and His gifts are best.

"We are God's helpers!"
 Then a portion of the Children
 Of Israel believed, and
 A portion disbelieved:
 But We gave power
 To those who believed,
 Against their enemies,
 And they became
 The ones that prevailed.<sup>5118</sup>

نَحْنُ أَنْصَارُ اللَّهِ قَامَتِ طَائِفَةٌ مِّنْ بَنِي
 إِسْرَءِيلَ وَكَفَرَتْ طَائِفَةٌ فَأَيَّدْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
 عَلَىٰ عَدُوِّهِمْ فَأَصْبَحُوا ظَاهِرِينَ

5118. A portion of the Children of Israel—the one that really cared for Truth—believed in Jesus and followed his guidance. But the greater portion of them were hard-hearted, and remained in their beaten track of formalism and false racial pride. The majority seemed at first to have the upper hand when they thought they had crucified Jesus and killed his Message. But they were soon brought to their senses. Jerusalem was destroyed by Titus in A.D. 70, and the Jews have been scattered ever since. "The Wandering Jew" has become a bye-word in many literatures. On the other hand, those who followed Jesus permeated the Roman Empire, brought many new races within their circle, and through the Roman Empire, Christianity became the predominant religion of the world until the advent of Islam. So is it promised to the people of Islam: they must prevail if they adhere to the Truth. Badr (A.H. 2) was a landmark against Pagan Arabia; Qadisiya (A.H. 14) and Madāin (A.H. 16) against the might of Persia; Yarmūk (A.H. 15) against the might of the Byzantine Empire in Christian Syria; and Heliopolis (A.H. 19) against the same Empire in Christian Egypt and Africa. These were symbols in external events. The moral and spiritual landmarks are less tangible, and more gradual, but none the less real. Mark how the arrogance and power of Priesthood have been quelled; how superstition and a belief in blind Fate have been checked; how the freedom of human individuals has been reconciled with the sanctity of marriage in the law of Divorce; how the civil position of women has been raised; how temperance and sobriety have been identified with religion; what impetus has been given to knowledge and experimental science; and how economic reconstruction has been pioneered by rational schemes for the expenditure and distribution of wealth.

11. That ye believe in God
And His Apostle, and that
Ye strive (your utmost)
In the Cause of God,
With your property
And your persons :
That will be best for you,
If ye but knew !<sup>5444</sup>

⑪ تَوْمِنُونَ بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتُجَاهِدُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ
اللّٰهِ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن
كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ

12. He will forgive you
Your sins, and admit you
To Gardens beneath which
Rivers flow, and to beautiful
Mansions in Gardens
Of Eternity : that is indeed
The supreme Achievement.

⑫ يَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ وَيُدْخِلْكُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي
مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ وَمَسَاكِنَ طَيِّبَةً فِي جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ
ذَٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ

13. And another (favour
Will He bestow), which ye<sup>5445</sup>
Do love, — help from God
And a speedy victory.
So give the Glad Tidings
To the Believers.

⑬ وَأُخْرَىٰ تَحِبُّونَهَا نَصْرٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَفَتْحٌ قَرِيبٌ
وَبَشِيرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

14. ① ye who believe !
Be ye helpers of God :<sup>5446</sup>
As said Jesus the son of Mary<sup>5447</sup>
To the Disciples, " Who will be
My helpers to (the work
Of) God ? " Said the Disciples,

⑭ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كُونُوا أَنْصَارَ اللّٰهِ كَمَا
قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ لِّلْحَوَارِيِّينَ مَن مِّنْ أَنْصَارِي
إِلَّا اللّٰهُ قَالَ الْحَوَارِيُّونَ

5444. It would indeed be a great and wonderful bargain, to give so little and get so much, if we only knew and understood the comparative value of things,—the sacrifice of our fleeting advantages for forgiveness, the love of God, and eternal bliss.

5445. The supreme Achievement has already been mentioned, viz : the Gardens of Eternity in the Presence of God. But lest that seem too remote or abstract for the understanding of men not spiritually advanced, another type or symbol or metaphor is mentioned which the men who first heard this Message could at once understand and appreciate — " which ye do love " ; viz. : Help and Victory. For all striving in a righteous Cause we get God's help ; and however much the odds against us may be, we are sure of victory with God's help. But all life is a striving or struggle,—the spiritual life even more than any other ; and the final victory there is the same as the Garden of Eternity.

5446. If we seek God's help, we must first help God's Cause, i.e. dedicate ourselves to Him entirely and without reserve. This was also the teaching of Jesus, as mentioned in this verse. As found in the New Testament, the metaphor used is that of the Cross. " Then said Jesus to his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." (Matt. xvi. 24).

5447. See iii. 52, and n. 392 ; and for the Biblical reference, see the last note. The names of the twelve Disciples will be found in Matt. x. 2-4.

Falsehood against God,
Even as he is being invited <sup>5440</sup>
To Islām? And God
Guides not those
Who do wrong.

عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ وَهُوَ يُدْعَى إِلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَاللَّهُ
لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ

8. Their intention is
To extinguish God's Light
(By blowing) with their mouths : <sup>5441</sup>
But God will complete
(The revelation of) His Light,
Even though the Unbelievers
May detest (it).

۞ يُرِيدُونَ لِيُطْفِئُوا نُورَ اللَّهِ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَاللَّهُ
مُتِمُّ نُورِهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ

9. It is He Who has sent
His Apostle with Guidance
And the Religion of Truth,
That he may proclaim it
Over all religion, <sup>5442</sup>
Even though the Pagans
May detest (it).

۞ هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَى وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ
لِيُظَاهِرَ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ

SECTION 2.

10. ۞ ye who believe !
Shall I lead you
To a bargain <sup>5443</sup> that will Save you from
A grievous Penalty ?—

۞ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَى تَحْرِيفٍ
تُجِيبُونَ عَنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ

5440. It is wrong in any case to uphold falsehoods and debasing superstitions, but it is doubly wrong when these are put forward in rivalry or opposition to the light of eternal Unity and Harmony which is Islām. See C. 7-11. God sends His guidance freely, but withdraws His Grace from those who wilfully do wrong.

5441. God's Light is unquenchable. A foolish, ignorant person who thinks of extinguishing it is like a rustic who wants to blow out electric light as he might blow out a rush candle! "With their mouths" also implies the babble and cackle of ignorance against God's Truth. The more the foolish ones try to quench God's Light, the clearer it shines, to shame them!

5442. "Over all religion": in the singular; not over all other religions, in the plural. There is really only one true Religion, the Message of God, submission to the Will of God: this is called Islām. It was the religion preached by Moses and Jesus; it was the religion of Abraham, Noah, and all the prophets, by whatever name it may be called. If people corrupt that pure light, and call their religions by different names, we must bear with them, and we may allow the names for convenience. But Truth must prevail over all. See also ix, 33, n. 1290, and lxxviii 28, n. 4912.

5443. Tijārat: bargain, trade, traffic, transaction: something given or done, in return for something which we desire to get. What we give or do on our part is described in verse 11 below, and what we get is described in verse 12. It is truly a wonderful bargain: what we are asked to give is so little; what we are promised in return is so much. There comes God's unbounded Bounty and Munificence. Cf. also ix, 111, where the bargain is stated in another way.

Why do ye vex and insult.
Me, though ye know
That I am the apostle
Of God (sent) to you? "
Then when they went wrong,<sup>5435</sup>
God let their hearts go wrong.
For God guides not those
Who are rebellious transgressors.

6. And remember, Jesus,
The son of Mary, said:
"O Children of Israel!
I am the apostle of God
(Sent) to you,"<sup>5436</sup> confirming<sup>5437</sup>
The Law (which came)
Before me, and giving
Glad Tidings of an Apostle
To come after me,
Whose name shall be Ahmad."<sup>5438</sup>
But when he came to them
With Clear Signs,<sup>5439</sup>
They said, "This is Evident sorcery!"

7. Who doth greater wrong
Than one who invents

لَمْ تَوَدُّونَنِي وَقَدْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ
إِلَيْكُمْ فَلَمَّا زَاغُوا أَزَاغَ اللَّهُ قُلُوبَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ
لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ

① قَالَهُ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ إِنِّي
رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِلَيْكُمْ مُصَدِّقًا لِمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ
وَأُبَشِّرُ بِرَسُولٍ يَأْتِي بَعْدِي اسْمُهُ أَحْمَدُ
فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ

② وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَى

5435. The sinner's own will deviates, i.e. goes off from the right way, and he does wrong. That means that he shuts off God's grace. God then, after his repeated rebellion, withdraws the protecting Grace from him, and the sinner's heart is tainted; there is "a disease in his heart", which is the centre of his being: his spiritual state is ruined. God's guidance is withdrawn from him.

5436. The mission of Jesus was to his own people, the Jews. Cf. Matt. x. 5-6. See also Matt. xv. 24: "I am not sent but to the lost sheep of Israel;" also Matt. xv. 26: "It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs."

5437. Cf. Matt. v. 17.

5439. Our holy Prophet was foretold in many ways; and when he came, he showed forth many Clear Signs, for his whole life from beginning to end was one vast miracle. He fought and won against odds. Without learning from men he taught the highest wisdom. He melted hearts that were hard, and he strengthened hearts that were tender and required support. In all his sayings and doings men of discernment could see the working of God's hand; yet the ignorant Unbelievers called it all Sorcery!—called that unreal which became the most solid fact of human history!

Sūra LXI.

Ṣaff, or Battle Array.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~What~~ whatever is <sup>5431</sup>
In the heavens and
On earth, let it declare
The Praises and Glory
Of God : for He is
The Exalted in Might,
The Wise.
2. <sup>5432</sup> ye who believe !
Why say ye that
Which ye do not? <sup>5433</sup>
3. Grievously odious is it
In the sight of God
That ye say that
Which ye do not.
4. Truly God loves those
Who fight in His Cause
In battle array, as if <sup>5434</sup>
They were a solid
Cemented structure.
5. And remember, Moses said <sup>5435</sup>
To his people : " O my people !

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① سَبِّحَ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

② يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَقُولُوا
مَا لَا نَفْعَ لَكُمْ

③ كَبُرَ مَقْتًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَنْ تَقُولُوا مَا لَا نَفْعَ لَكُمْ

④ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الَّذِينَ يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِهِ
صَفًّا كَأَنَّهُمْ بُنْيَانٌ مَرْصُورٌ

⑤ وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَى لِقَوْمِهِ يَتَّقُوا اللَّهَ

5431. This verse is identical with lix. 1. The latter illustrated the theme of the wonderful working of God's providence in defeating the wiles of His enemies. Here the same theme is illustrated by showing the need for unshaken discipline if we are to receive the help of God.

5432 At Uhud there was some disobedience and therefore breach of discipline. People had talked much, but had failed to back up their resolution in words with firmness in action. See n. 442 to iii. 121. But on all occasions, when men's deeds are not commensurate with their words, their conduct is odious in the sight of God, and it is only due to God's Mercy if they are saved from disaster.

5433. A battle array, in which a large number of men stand, march, or hold together against assault as if they were a solid wall, is a striking example of order, discipline, cohesion, and courage. "A solid cemented structure" is even a better simile than the usual "solid wall", as the "structure" or building implies a more diversified organisation held together in unity and strength, each part contributing strength in its own way, and the whole held together not like a mass but like a living organism. Cf. also xxxvii. 1 and n. 4031.

5434. The people of Moses often rebelled against him, vexed his spirit, and insulted him. See xxxiii. 69, n. 3774, and (in the Old Testament) Num xii. 1-13. They did it, not through ignorance, but from a selfish, perverse, and rebellious spirit, for which they received punishment. The Ummat of Islam should remember and take note of it, and should avoid any deviation from the Law and Will of God.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LXI (Ṣaff).

This is the fifth Sūra of the series of short Medina Sūras beginning with S. lvii. Its subject-matter is the need for discipline, practical work, and self-sacrifice in the cause of the Ummat. Its date is uncertain, but it was probably shortly after the battle of Uhud, which was fought in Shawwāl, A.H. 3.

Summary.—God's Glory shines through all Creation : but what discipline can you show to back your words with action ? What lessons can you learn from the stories of Moses and Jesus ? Help the Cause, and God's help will come with glorious results (lxi. 1-14, and C. 240).

C. 240.—God's glory shines through all the universe.
 (lxi. 1-14.) What deeds of unity and discipline,
 Of love and righteousness, have you
 To show in conduct ? Or do you
 Only mock and insult the apostles
 As they did of old ? Nay, trust in God
 And strive your utmost in His Cause.
 Little have you to give, but glorious
 Is the reward that God will give you,—
 Now and in the Eternal Life to come !

Of the Hereafter they are Already in despair, just as
The Unbelievers are
In despair about those
(Buried) in graves.<sup>5430</sup>

قَدْ يَيْسُوا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ كَمَا يَبْئَسُ
الْكُفَّارُ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْقُبُورِ

5430. The Unbelievers, who do not believe in a Future Life, can therefore have no hope beyond this life. Miserable indeed is this life to them; for the ills of this life are real to them, and they can have no hope of redress. But such is also the state of others—People of the Book or not—who wallow in sin and incur the divine Wrath. Even if they believe in a Future Life, it can only be to them a life of horror, punishment, and despair. For those of Faith the prospect is different. They may suffer in this life, but this life to them is only a fleeting shadow that will soon pass away. The Reality is beyond; there will be full redress in the Beyond, and Achievement and Felicity such as they can scarcely conceive of in the terms of this life.

The equivalent of what they
Had spent (on their dower).
And fear God,
In Whom ye believe.

مِثْلَ مَا أَنْفَقُوا وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي أَنْتُمْ بِدِينِهِ
مُؤْمِنُونَ

12. ﴿١٢﴾ Prophet! <sup>5427</sup>

When believing women come
To thee to take the oath
Of fealty to thee, that they
Will not associate in worship
Any other thing whatever
With God, that they
Will not steal, that they
Will not commit adultery
(Or fornication), that they
Will not kill their children,
That they will not utter
Slander, intentionally forging
Falsehood, and that they
Will not disobey thee
In any just matter,—
Then do thou receive
Their fealty, and pray to God <sup>5428</sup>
For the forgiveness (of Their sins): for God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ يُبَايِعْنَكَ
عَلَى أَنْ لَا يُشْرِكْنَ بِاللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَسْرِقْنَ وَلَا يَزْنِينَ
وَلَا يَقْتُلْنَ أَوْلَادَهُنَّ وَلَا يَكُونْنَ بِهْتَنٍ
يَفْتَرِيْنَهُ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيْهِنَّ وَأَنْجُلِهِنَّ
وَلَا يَعْصِيَنَّكَ فِي مَعْرُوفٍ فَبَايِعْهُنَّ
وَأَسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُنَّ اللَّهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

13. ﴿١٣﴾ ye who believe!
Turn not (for friendship)
To people on whom
Is the Wrath of God. <sup>5429</sup>

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا
غَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ

5427. Now come directions as to the points on which women entering Islam should pledge themselves. Similar points apply to men, but here the question is about women, and especially such as were likely, in those early days of Islam, to come from Pagan society into Muslim society in the conditions discussed in notes 5422 and 5423 above. A pledge on these points would search out their real motives: (1) to worship none but the One True God; (2) not to steal; (3) not to indulge sex outside the marriage tie; (4) not to commit infanticide; (the Pagan Arabs were prone to female infanticide); (5) not to indulge in slander or scandal; and (6) generally, to obey loyally the law and principles of Islam. The last was a comprehensive and sufficient phrase, but it was good to indicate also the special points to which attention was to be directed in those special circumstances. Obedience was of course to be in all things just and reasonable; Islam requires strict discipline but not slavishness.

5428. If pledges are sincerely given for future conduct, admission to Islam is open. If there is anything in the past, for which there is evidence of sincere repentance, forgiveness is to be prayed for. God forgives in such cases; how can man refuse to give such cases a real chance?

5429. So we come back to the theme with which we started in this Sura: that we should not turn for friendship and intimacy to those who break God's Law and are outlaws in God's Kingdom. The various phases of this question, and the legitimate qualifications, have already been mentioned, and the argument is here rounded off. Cf. also lviii; 14.

For the Unbelievers, nor are
The (Unbelievers) lawful (husbands)

For them. But pay
The Unbelievers what they
Have spent (on their dower).
And there will be no blame
On you if ye marry them <sup>5424</sup>
On payment of their dower
To them. But hold not
To the guardianship of <sup>5425</sup>
Unbelieving women : ask
For what ye have spent
On their dowers, and let
The (Unbelievers) ask for
What they have spent
(On the dowers of women
Who come over to you).
Such is the command
Of God : He judges
(With justice) between you.
And God is Full of Knowledge and Wisdom.

11. And if any
Of your wives deserts you
To the Unbelievers, <sup>5426</sup>
And ye have an accession
(By the coming over of
A woman from the other side),
Then pay to those
Whose wives have deserted

لَهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحِلُّونَ لَهُنَّ وَآتُوهُنَّ مَا أَنْفَقُوا
وَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ تَنْكِحُوهُنَّ إِذَا آتَيْتُمُوهُنَّ
أُجُورَهُنَّ وَلَا تُمْسِكُوا بِعِصَمِ الْكَوَافِرِ وَتَسْأَلُوا مَا
أَنْفَقْتُمْ وَلَيْسَ لَكُمْ أَنْفَقُوا ذَلِكَ حُكْمُ اللَّهِ بِكُمْ
بَيْنَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ

⑪ وَلَئِنْ فَاتَكُمْ نَشَاءٌ مِنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ
فَعَاقِبْتُمْ فَاتُوا الَّذِينَ ذَهَبَتْ أَزْوَاجُهُمْ

5425. Unbelieving women in a Muslim society would only be a clog and a handicap. There would be neither happiness for them, nor could they conduce in any way to a healthy life of the society in which they lived as aliens. They were to be sent away, as their marriage was held to be dissolved; and the dowers paid to them were to be demanded from the guardians to whom they were sent back, just as in the contrary case the dowers of believing women were to be paid back to their Pagan ex-husbands (n. 5422 above).

5426. A very unlikely contingency, considering how much better position the women occupied in Islam than under Pagan custom. But all contingencies have to be provided for equitably in legislation. If a woman went over to the Pagans, her dower would be recoverable from the Pagans and payable to the deserted husband. If a woman came over from the Pagans, her dower would be payable to the Pagans. Assuming that the two dowers were equal, the one would be set off against the other as between the two communities; but within the communities the deserted individual would be compensated by the individual who gains a wife. If the dowers were unequal, the balance would be recoverable as between the communities, and the adjustment would then be made as between the individuals. In practice the common Fund compensated the deserted husband in anticipation of any necessary adjustments.

8. God forbids you not,
With regard to those who
Fight you not for (your) Faith
Nor drive you out
Of your homes,
From dealing kindly and justly <sup>5121</sup>
With them: For God loveth
Those who are just.

① لَا يَنْهَىٰكُمْ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ لَمْ يُقَاتِلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ
وَلَمْ يُخْرِجُوا مِنْ دِينِكُمْ أَنْ تَبَرُّوهُمْ وَتُقْسِطُوا
إِلَيْهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُقْسِطِينَ

9. God only forbids you,
With regard to those who
Fight you for (your) Faith,
And drive you out
Of your homes, and support
(Others) in driving you out,
From turning to them
(For friendship and protection).
It is such as turn to them
(In these circumstances),
That do wrong.

② إِنَّمَا يَنْهَىٰكُمْ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ قَاتَلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ
وَآخَرَجُوا مِنْ دِينِكُمْ وَظَاهَرُوا عَلَىٰ أَخْرَاجِكُمْ
أَنْ تَوَلَّوهُمْ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّهُمْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ

10. ③ ye who believe !
When there come to you
Believing women refugees, <sup>5123</sup>
Examine (and test) them :
God knows best as to
Their Faith : if ye ascertain <sup>5123</sup>
That they are Believers,
Then send them not back
To the Unbelievers.
They are not lawful (wives)

③ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا جَاءَكُمُ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ مِهْجَرَاتٍ
فَأَمْتَحِنُوهُنَّ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِإِيمَانِهِنَّ فَإِنْ عَلِمْتُمُوهُنَّ
مُؤْمِنَاتٍ فَلَا تَرْجِعُوهُنَّ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ لَأَهْنِ حِلٌّ

5121—Even with Unbelievers, unless they are rampant and out to destroy us and our Faith, we should deal kindly and equitably, as is shown by our holy Prophet's own example.

5122 Under the treaty of Hudaibiya [see Introduction to S. xlviii, paragraph 4, condition (3)], women under guardianship (including married women), who fled from the Quraish in Mecca to the Prophet's protection at Medina were to be sent back. But before this Ayat was issued, the Quraish had already broken the treaty, and some instruction was necessary as to what the Medina Muslims should do in those circumstances. Muslim women married to Pagan husbands in Mecca were oppressed for their Faith, and some of them came to Medina as refugees. After this, they were not to be returned to the custody of their Pagan husbands at Mecca, as the marriage of believing women with non-Muslims was held to be dissolved if the husbands did not accept Islam. But in order to give no suspicion to the Pagans that they were badly treated as they lost the dower they had given on marriage, that dower was to be repaid to the husbands. Thus helpless women refugees were to be protected at the cost of the Muslims.

5123. The condition was that they should be Muslim women. How were the Muslims to know? A non-Muslim woman, in order to escape from her lawful guardians in Mecca, might pretend that she was a Muslim. The true state of her mind and heart would be known to God alone. But if the Muslims, on an examination of the woman, found that she professed Islam, she was to have protection. The examination would be directed (among other things) to the points mentioned in verse 12 below.

For thee, though I have
No power (to get) aught
On thy behalf from God."
(They prayed): "Our Lord! <sup>5116</sup>
In Thee do we trust,
And to Thee do we turn
In repentance: to Thee
Is (our) final Goal.

5. "Our Lord! Make us not
A (test and) trial <sup>5117</sup>
For the Unbelievers,
But forgive us, our Lord!
For Thou art the Exalted
In Might, the Wise."

6. There was indeed in them <sup>5418</sup>
An excellent example for you
To follow,—for those Whose hope is in God
And in the Last Day.
But if any turn away,
Truly God is Free of all <sup>5419</sup>
Wants, Worthy of all Praise.

SECTION 2.

7. It may be that God
Will grant love (and friendship) <sup>5120</sup>
Between you and those whom
Ye (now) hold as enemies.
For God has power
(Over all things); And God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

لَكَ وَمَا أَمْلِكُ لَكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ رَبَّنَا عَلَيْكَ
تَوَكَّلْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ أَنْتَبْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ

⑤ رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِتْنَةً لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَاعْفُ رَنَا
رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

① لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِيهِمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ لِمَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوا
اللَّهَ وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ
الْحَمِيدُ

⑦ * عَسَى اللَّهُ أَنْ يَجْعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ
كَادَيْتُمْ مِنْهُمْ مَوَدَّةً وَاللَّهُ قَدِيرٌ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ
رَحِيمٌ

5416. This prayer indicates what our attitude should be. We must trust to God, and not to God's enemies to protect and befriend ourselves, our families, or those near and dear to us.

5417. In n. 1198 to viii, 25, I have explained the shades of meaning in the word Fitnat. In ii. 102 Hārūt and Mārūt were a trial to test the righteous who trusted in God from the unrighteous who resorted to evil and superstition. Here the prayer to God is that we should be saved from becoming so weak as to tempt the Unbelievers to try to attack and destroy us.

5418. In them: i.e., in their attitude of prayer and reliance on God, and of dissociation from evil.

5419. If any one rejects God's Message or Law, the loss is his own. It is not God Who needs him or his worship or his sacrifice or his praise. God is independent of all wants, and His attributes are inherently deserving of all praise, whether the wicked give such praise or not, in word or deed.

5420. Apparent religious hatred or enmity or persecution may be due to ignorance or over-zeal in a soul, which God will forgive and use eventually in His service, as happened in the case of Ḥaḍhrat 'Umar, who was a different man before and after his conversion. As stated in n. 5414 above, we should hate evil, but not men as such.

They would behave to you
As enemies, and stretch forth
Their hands and their tongues
Against you for evil;
And they desire that ye
Should reject the Truth.

3. Of no profit to you<sup>5412</sup>
Will be your relatives
And your children
On the Day of Judgment:
He will judge between you:
For God sees well
All that ye do.

4. There is for you
An excellent example (to follow)
In Abraham and those with him,<sup>5413</sup>
When they said
To their people:
"We are clear of you
And of whatever ye worship
Besides God: we have rejected
You, and there has arisen,
Between us and you, enmity<sup>5414</sup>
And hatred for ever,—unless
Ye believe in God
And Him alone":
But not when Abraham
Said to his father:
"I will pray for forgiveness"<sup>5415</sup>

يَكُونُوا لَكُمْ أَعْدَاءً وَيَبْسُطُوا إِلَيْكُمْ أَيْدِيَهُمْ
وَالْيَنَنَّهُمْ بِالسُّوءِ وَوَدُّوا لَوْلَاكَفَرُونَ

لَنْ يَنْفَعَكُمْ أَرْحَامُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ
يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ
بَصِيرٌ

قَدْ كَانَتْ لَكُمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ فِي إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَالَّذِينَ
مَعَهُ إِذْ قَالُوا الْقَوْمِ هُمُ الْمُتَّبِعُونَ إِنَّا بُرَاءُ بِمَا تَعْبُدُونَ
وَمِنَّا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ كَفَرْنَا بِكُمْ وَبَدَا بَيْنَنَا
وَبَيْنَكُمْ الْعَدَاوَةُ وَالْبَغْضَاءُ أَبَدًا حَتَّى تُؤْمِنُوا
بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ إِلَّا قَوْلَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لِأَبِيهِ
لَا تُسْجِدْ لِلْأَسْنَةِ

5412. The plea of children and relatives (see n. 5409 above) will be no excuse for treachery when the Day of Judgment comes. Your children and family will not save you. The Judgment will be in the hands of God, and He has full knowledge of all your overt and hidden acts and motives.

5413. See ix. 114. Abraham was tender-hearted, and loyal to his father and his people. He warned them against idolatry and sin, and prayed for his father, but when his father and his people became open enemies of God, Abraham entirely dissociated himself from them, and left his home, his father, his people, and his country. Those with him were his believing wife and nephew Lot and any other Believers that went into exile with him.

5414. The enemies of God are enemies of the righteous, and they hate the righteous. Therefore the righteous must cut themselves off eternally from them, unless they repent and come back to God. In that case they receive God's mercy and are entitled to all the rights of love and brotherhood. This shows that our detestation is for evil, not for men as such, so long as there is a chance for repentance. See also verse 7 below. But we must give no chance to Evil for working evil on our Brotherhood at any time.

5415. Refer again to ix. 114, n. 1365: and n. 5413 above. Abraham's conduct is not condemned: it was a special case, and is not to be imitated by weaker men, who may fall into sin by thinking too much of sinners.

Sura LX.

Mumtahanah, or the Woman to be Examined. (lx. 10)

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ١ ye who believe!
Take not My enemies
And yours as friends
(Or protectors),—offering them<sup>5409</sup>
(Your) love, even though
They have rejected the Truth
That has come to you,
And have (on the contrary)
Driven out the Prophet
And yourselves (from your homes),
(Simply) because ye believe
In God your Lord!<sup>5410</sup>
If ye have come out
To strive in My Way
And to seek My Good Pleasure,
(Take them not as friends),
Holding secret converse
Of love (and friendship)
With them: for I know
Full well all that ye
Conceal and all that ye
Reveal. And any of you
That does this has strayed
From the Straight Path.

2. If they were to get<sup>5411</sup>
The better of you,

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا عَدُوِّي
وَعَدُوَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ تُلْقُونَ إِلَيْهِم بِالْمَوَدَّةِ
وَقَدْ كَفَرُوا بِمَا جَاءَكُمْ مِنَ الْحَقِّ يُخْرِجُونَ الرَّسُولَ
وَيَاكُمُ أَنْ تُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ إِن كُنْتُمْ خَرَجْتُمْ
جِهَادًا فِي سَبِيلِي وَابْتِغَاءَ مَرْضَاتِي تُسِرُّوْنَ إِلَيْهِم
بِالْمَوَدَّةِ وَأَنَا أَعْلَمُ بِمَا أَخْفَيْتُمْ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُمْ
وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْهُ مِنْكُمْ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ سَوَاءَ
السَّبِيلِ

٢ إِن يَتَقَفُّوكُمْ

5409. The immediate occasion for this was a secret letter sent by one Hāṣib, a Muhājir, from Medina, to the Pagans at Mecca, in most friendly terms, seeking for their protection on behalf of his children and relatives left behind in Mecca. The letter was intercepted, and he confessed the truth. He was forgiven as he told the truth and his motive did not appear to be heinous, but this instruction was given for future guidance. This was shortly before the conquest of Mecca, but the principle is of universal application. You cannot be on terms of secret intimacy with the enemies of your Faith and people, who are persecuting your Faith and seeking to destroy your Faith and you. You may not do so even for the sake of your relatives, as it compromises the life and existence of your whole community.

5410. Such was the position of the Muslim community in Medina after the Hijrat and before the conquest of Mecca.

5411. Besides the question of your fidelity to your own people, even your own selfish interests require you to beware of secret intrigues with enemies. They will welcome you as cat's-paws. But what will happen when they have used you and got the better of you and your people? Then they will show you their hand. And a heavy hand it will be! Not only will they injure you with their hands but with their tongues! The only words they will use for you will be "Traitors to their own"! If they intrigue with you now, it is to pervert you from the Path of Truth and righteousness and win you over to their evil ways.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LX (Mumtahana).

This is the fourth of the ten Medīna Sūras, each dealing with a special point in the life of the Ummat.

Here the point is: what social relations are possible with the Unbelievers? A distinction is made between those who persecute you for your Faith and want to destroy you and your Faith, and those who have shown no such rancour. For the latter there is hope of mercy and forgiveness. The question of women and cross-marriages is equitably dealt with.

The date is after the Pagans had broken the treaty of Ḥudaibiya, for which see Introduction to S. xlviii,—say about A.H. 8, not long before the conquest of Mecca.

Summary.—The enemies of your Faith, who would exterminate you and your Faith, are not fit objects of your love: follow Abraham's example: but with those Unbelievers who show no rancour, you should deal with kindness and justice: marriages between Believers and Unbelievers. (lx. 1-13, and C. 239).

C. 239.—What social relations should you hold
(lx. 1-13.) With men whose hearts are filled with rancour,—
Who hate both God and men of God?
Surely you cannot offer love and friendship
To such as seek to destroy your Faith
And you. Seek protection for you and yours
From God and not from God's sworn enemies.
But deal kindly and justly with all: it may be
That those who hate you now may love you:
For God can order all things. But look not
For protection to those who are bent on driving
You out. Let not believing women
Be handed over to Unbelievers:
No marriage tie is lawful between them.
When women wish to join your society,
Take their assurance that they yield not
To sin or unbeseeming conduct.
Take every care to keep your society
Free and pure, and self-contained.

Glory to God!
(High is He)
Above the partners<sup>5101</sup>
They attribute to Him.

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ

24. He is God, the Creator,<sup>5105</sup>
The Evolver,
The Bestower of Forms<sup>5106</sup>
(Or Colours).
To Him belong<sup>5107</sup>
The Most Beautiful Names:
Whatever is in
The heavens and on earth,
Doth declare<sup>5108</sup>
His Praises and Glory:
And He is the Exalted
In Might, the Wise.

هُوَ اللَّهُ الْخَلَّاقُ الْبَارِئُ الْمُصَوِّرُ لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ
الْحُسْنَى يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

5101. Such being God's attributes of Goodness and Power, how foolish is it of men to worship anything else but Him? Who can approach His glory and goodness?

5105. God's attributes of Goodness and Power having been referred to, we are now told of His creative energy, of which three aspects are here mentioned, as explained in the following note. The point is emphasised that He does not merely create and leave alone; He goes on fashioning, evolving new forms and colours, and sustaining all the energies and capacities which He has put into His Creation, according to various laws which He has established.

5106. The act or acts of creation have various aspects, and the various words used in this connection are summarised in n. 120 to ii. 117, as supplemented by n. 916 to vi. 94 and n. 923 to vi. 98. Khalaqa is the general term for creation, and the Author of all Creation is Khāliq. Baraa implies a process of evolving from previously created matter or state: the Author of this process is Bārī-u, the Evolver. Ṣawwara implies giving definite form or colour, so as to make a thing exactly suited to a given end or object: hence the title Muṣawwir, Bestower of Forms or Colours: for this shows the completion of the visible stage of creation.

5107. Cf. vii. 180, n. 1154; and xvii. 110, n. 2322.

5108. Thus the argument of the Sūra is rounded off on the same note as was struck at the beginning, lix. 1. The first verse and the last verse of the Sūra are the same, except as regards the tense of the verb sabbaha. In the first verse it is the optative form of the preterite sabbaha: 'let everything declare the Glory of God!' After the illustrations given, the declaratory form of the aorist is appropriate, yusabbihun: 'everything doth declare the Glory of God'.

Asunder for fear of God.
Such are the similitudes
Which We propound to men,
That they may reflect.

22. God is He, than Whom
There is no other god; —<sup>5400</sup>
Who knows (all things)
Both secret and open;
He, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

23. God is He, than Whom
There is no other god; —<sup>5401</sup>
The Sovereign, the Holy One,
The Source of Peace
(and Perfection),
The Guardian of Faith,
The Preserver of Safety,<sup>5402</sup>
The Exalted in Might,
The Irresistible, the Supreme.:<sup>5403</sup>

مِنْ خَشْيَةِ اللَّهِ وَتِلْكَ الْأَمْثَلُ نُصَرِّفُهَا
لِلنَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَفْكُرُونَ

﴿٢٢﴾ هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَالِمُ الْغَيْبِ
وَالشَّهَادَةِ هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ

﴿٢٣﴾ هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوسُ
السَّلَامُ الْمُؤْمِنُ الْمُهَيَّمِنُ الْعَزِيزُ الْجَبَّارُ الْمُتَكَبِّرُ

5400. Here follows a passage of great sublimity, summing up the attributes of God. First, in this verse, we have the general attributes, which give us the fundamental basis on which we can form some idea of God. (1) We start with the proposition that no words are adequate to describe Him, and we can only call Him "He"; for there is nothing else like Him. (2) We think of His Unity; all the varying and conflicting forces in Creation are controlled by Him and look to Him, and we can never get a true idea of Him unless we understand the mystic meaning of Unity. (3) His knowledge extends to everything seen and unseen, present and future, near and far, in being and not in being; in fact these contrasts, which apply to our knowledge, do not apply to Him. (4) His Grace and (5) His Mercy are unbounded: see i. 1, and ii. 19; and unless we realise these, we can have no true conception of our position in the working of His Will and Plan.

5401. This phrase is repeated from the last verse in order to lead us to the contemplation of some other attributes of God, after we have realised those which form our fundamental conceptions of God. See the preceding and the following note.

5402. How can a translator reproduce the sublimity and the comprehensiveness of the magnificent Arabic words, which mean so much in a single symbol? (1) "The Sovereign" in our human language implies the one undisputed authority which is entitled to give commands and to receive obedience, and which in fact receives obedience; the power which enforces law and justice. (2) Human authority may be misused, but in the title "the Holy One", we postulate a Being free from all stain or evil, and replete with the highest Purity. (3) "Salām" has not only the idea of Peace as opposed to Conflict, but wholeness as opposed to defects: hence our paraphrase "Source of Peace and Perfection". (4) Mū-min, one who entertains Faith, who gives Faith to others, who is never false to the Faith that others place in him: hence our paraphrase "Guardian of Faith". (5) "Preserver of Safety": guarding all from danger, corruption, loss, etc.: the word is used for the Qur-an in v. 51. These are the attributes of kindness and benevolence: in the next note are described the attributes of power.

5403. See last note. (6) God is not only good, but He can carry out His Will. (7) And if anything resists or opposes Him, His Will prevails. (8) For He is Supreme, above all things and creatures. Thus we come back to the Unity with which we began in verse 22.

And let every soul look
To what (provision) he has <sup>5395</sup>
Sent forth for the morrow.
Yea, fear God : <sup>5395-A</sup>
For God is well-acquainted
With (all) that ye do.

وَلْيَنْظُرِ نَفْسٌ مَّا قَدَّمَتْ لِغَدٍ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ

19. And be ye not like
Those who forgot God ; <sup>5396</sup>
And He made them forget
Their own souls ! Such
Are the rebellious transgressors !

① وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ نَسُوا اللَّهَ فَأَنْسَاهُمْ
أَنْفُسَهُمْ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ

20. Not equal are
The Companions of the Fire
And the Companions
Of the Garden :
It is the Companions
Of the Garden,
That will achieve Felicity. <sup>5397</sup>

② لَا يَسْتَوِي أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ وَأَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ أَصْحَابُ
الْجَنَّةِ هُمُ الْفَائِزُونَ

21. Had We sent down
This Qur-ān on a mountain, <sup>5398</sup>
Verily, thou wouldst have seen
It humble itself and cleave <sup>5399</sup>

③ لَوْ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ عَلَىٰ جَبَلٍ لَّرَأَيْتَهُ
خَاشِعًا مُّصْبَدًا

5395. The positive side of Taqwā or "fear of God" (see last note) is here emphasised. It is not merely a feeling or an emotion: it is an act, a doing of things which become a preparation and provision for the Hereafter,—the next life, which may be described as "the morrow" in relation to the present Life, which is "to-day"

5395-A. The repetition emphasises both sides of Taqwā: "let your soul fear to do wrong, and let it do every act of righteousness; for God observes both your inner motives and your acts, and in His scheme of things everything will have its due consequences"

5396. To forget God is to forget the only Reality. As we are only reflected realities, how can we understand or do justice to or remember ourselves, when we forget the very source of our being?

5397. The others, the Companions of the Fire, will find their lives-wasted and nullified. Their capacities will be rendered inert and their wishes will end in futility.

5398. There are two ideas associated in men's minds with a mountain: one is its height, and the other that it is rocky, stony, hard. Now comes the metaphor. The Revelation of God is so sublime that even the highest mountains humble themselves before it. The Revelation is so powerful and convincing that even the hard rock splits asunder under it. Will man then be so arrogant as to consider himself superior to it, or so hard-hearted as not to be affected by its powerful Message? The answer is "No" for unspoilt man; "Yes" for man when degraded by sin to be the vilest of creatures.

5399. Cf. vii. 143, and n. 1103, where, in the story of Moses, the Mount became as dust "when the Lord manifested His Glory". Also cf. xxxiii. 72, and n. 3778, where the mountains are mentioned allegorically as an emblem of stability, but as refusing to accept the Trust (Amanat) because they felt themselves to be too humble to be equal to such a tremendous Trust.

Are a people devoid
Of wisdom.

15. <sup>5392</sup> Like those who lately
Preceded them, they have
Tasted the evil result
Of their conduct; and
(In the Hereafter there is)
For them a grievous Penalty;

16. (Their allies deceived them),
Like the Evil One,
When he says to man,
"Deny God": but when <sup>5393</sup>
(Man) denies God,
(The Evil One) says,
"I am free of thee:
I do fear God,
The Lord of the Worlds!"

17. The end of both will be
That they will go
Into the Fire, dwelling
Therein for ever.
Such is the reward
Of the wrong-doers.

SECTION 3.

18. <sup>5394</sup> O ye who believe!
Fear God,

قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ

١٥ كَمَثَلِ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَرِيبًا ذَاتُ أَوْبَاقٍ
أَمْرِهُمُ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

١٦ كَمَثَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ إِذْ قَالَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ اكْفُرْ
فَلَمَّا كَفَرَ قَالَ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِنْكَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ اللَّهَ رَبَّ
الْعَالَمِينَ

١٧ فَكَانَ عَقِبَهُمَا أَنَّهُمَا فِي النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ
فِيهَا وَذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ الظَّالِمِينَ

١٨ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ

5392. The immediate reference was probably to the Jewish goldsmith tribe of the Qainuqā', who were also settled in a fortified township near Medina. They were also punished and banished for their treachery, about a month after the battle of Badr, in which the Meccan Pagans had suffered a signal defeat, in Shawwāl, A.H. 2. The Nadhīr evidently did not take that lesson to heart. The general meaning is that we must learn to be on our guard against the consequences of treachery and sin. No fortuitous alliances with other men of iniquity will save us.

5393. An apt simile. Evil tempts man in all sorts of ways, and presents seductive promises and alliances to delude him into the belief that he will be saved from the consequences. The Evil One says, "Deny God": which means not merely denial in words, but denial in acts,—disobedience of God's Law, deviation from the path of rectitude. When the sinner gets well into the mire, the Evil One says cynically: "How can I help you against God? Don't you see I am afraid of Him? All our alliances and understandings were moonshine. You must bear the consequences of your own folly."

5394. The "fear of God" is akin to love; for it means the fear of offending Him or doing anything wrong that will forfeit His Good Pleasure. This is Taqwā, which implies self-restraint, guarding ourselves from all sin, wrong, and injustice, and the positive doing of good. See li. 2, and n. 26.

We will help you".
But God is witness <sup>5387</sup>
That they are indeed liars.

لَتَنْصُرَنَّكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَشْهَدُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ

12. If they are expelled,
Never will they go out
With them; and if they
Are attacked (in fight),
They will never help them;
And if they do help them,
They will turn their backs;
So they will receive no help. <sup>5388</sup>

⑪ لَئِن أَخْرِجُوا الْاَنْحُرُجُونَ مَعَهُمْ وَلَئِنْ قُوْلُوا
لَا يَنْصُرُوْنَهُمْ وَلَئِنْ نَصَرُوْهُمْ لَيُوْلُوْنَ الْاَدْبَرَ
ثُمَّ لَا يَنْصُرُوْنَ

13. Of a truth ye are Stronger (than they)
Because of the terror <sup>5389</sup>
In their hearts,
(Sent) by God.
This is because they are
Men devoid of understanding.

⑫ لَآنْتُمْ اَشَدُّ رَهْبَةً فِىْ صُدُوْرِهِمْ
مِّنْ اَللّٰهِ ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُوْنَ

14. They will not fight you
(Even) together, except
In fortified townships,
Or from behind walls. <sup>5390</sup>
Strong is their fighting (spirit)
Amongst themselves;
Thou wouldst think
They were united,
But their hearts are divided: <sup>5391</sup>
That is because they

⑬ لَا يَقْتُلُوْنَكُمْ جَمِيعًا اِلَّا فِىْ قَرْيٍ مَّحْصَنَةٍ
اَوْ مِنْ وَّرَآءِ جُدُرٍ بَاْسُهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ شَدِيْدٌ
مُّخَسِبُهُمْ جَمِيعًا وَقُلُوْبُهُمْ شَتَّى ذٰلِكَ
بِاَنَّهُمْ

5387. For this actually happened They never stirred a finger for the Jews, and they never intended to do so. And God knows all their motives and secrets: cf. xlvii. 26, n. 4850.

5388. All hopes founded on iniquity and treachery are vain and illusory. There may be honour among thieves. But there is no honour as between dishonest intriguers, and they are not likely to get any real help from any quarter.

5389. As construed here, the meaning is: 'Ye Muslims, even if ye are weak numerically, or they may have other seeming advantages, ye are really stronger than they are, because they have a wholesome fear in their minds, and God sends such fear into the hearts of wrong-doers! An alternative construction would yield the meaning: 'Being Unbelievers they fear you more than they fear God, because your valour they see, but in God they do not believe.

5390. They have not sufficient self-confidence or clan to sustain them in a fight except under material advantages or defences. Even if they join forces, they have not sufficient trust in each other to expose themselves to open fighting.

5391. 'It may be that they have a strong fighting spirit among themselves, but they have no Cause to fight for and no common objective to achieve. The Meccan Pagans want to keep their own unjust autocracy; the Medina Hypocrites wish for their own domination in Medina; and the Jews want their racial superiority established over the Arabs, of whose growing union and power they are jealous.' Their pretended alliance could not stand the strain of either a defeat or a victory. If they had been wise, they would have accepted the Cause of Unity, Faith, and Truth.

Given to the (latter),
But give them preference
Over themselves, even though
Poverty was their (own lot).
And those saved from
The covetousness of their own
Souls,—they are the ones
That achieve prosperity.

10. And those who came<sup>5384</sup>
After them say : " Our Lord !
Forgive us, and our brethren
Who came before us
Into the Faith,
And leave not,
In our hearts,
Rancour (or sense of injury)<sup>5385</sup>
Against those who have believed.
Our Lord ! Thou art
Indeed Full of Kindness,
Most Merciful."

SECTION 2.

11. ~~Is~~ Hast thou not observed
The Hypocrites say
To their misbelieving brethren
Among the People of the Book ?—<sup>5386</sup>
" If ye are expelled,
We too will go out
With you, and we will
Never hearken to any one
In your affair ; and if
Ye are attacked (in fight)

أَوْتُوا وَتُؤْتِرُونَ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانَ
بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةٌ وَمَنْ يُوَفِّقْ نَفْسَهُ فَأُولَئِكَ
هُمْ الْمُفْلِحُونَ

⑩ وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ يَقُولُونَ
رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الَّذِينَ
سَبَقُونَا بِالْإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غِلًا
لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ رَؤُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ

⑪ * أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ نَافَقُوا يَقُولُونَ لِإِخْوَانِهِمُ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ لَئِنْ أُخْرِجْتُمْ
لَنُخْرِجَنَّ مَعَكُمْ وَلَا نَطِيعُ فِيكُمْ أَحَدًا أَبَدًا وَإِنْ
قُوتِلْتُمْ

5384. Those that came after them : the immediate meaning would refer to later arrivals in Medina or later accessions to Islam, compared with the early Muhājirs. But the general meaning would include all future comers into the House of Islam. They pray, not only for themselves, but for all their brethren, and above all, they pray that their hearts may be purified of any desire or tendency to disparage the work or virtues of other Muslims or to feel any jealousy on account of their successes or good fortune.

5385. Cf. vii. 43, and n. 1021.

5386. The Jews of the Banū Nadhīr had been assured by the Hypocrites of Medina of their support to their cause. They had thought that their defection from the Prophet's Cause would so weaken that cause that they would save their friends. But they never intended to undertake any act involving self-sacrifice on their part ; if they had helped their Jewish friends, it was not likely that they would have succeeded ; and if they had actually gone to the fight, they had neither valour nor fervour to support them, and they would have fled ignominiously before the discipline, earnestness, and Faith of the men of Islam.

To God,—to His Apostle<sup>5381</sup>
 And to kindred and orphans,
 The needy and the wayfarer;
 In order that it may not (Merely) make a circuit
 Between the wealthy among you.
 So take what the Apostle
 Assigns to you, and deny
 Yourselfs that which he
 Withholds from you.
 And fear God; for God
 Is strict in Punishment.

8. (Some part is due)
 To the indigent Muhājirs,<sup>5382</sup>
 Those who were expelled
 From their homes and their property,
 While seeking Grace from God
 And (His) Good Pleasure,
 And aiding God and His Apostle:
 Such are indeed
 The sincere ones;—

9. But those who
 Before them, had homes<sup>5383</sup>
 (In Medina)
 And had adopted the Faith,—
 Show their affection to such
 As came to them for refuge,
 And entertain no desire
 In their hearts for things

فَلِلَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ وَلِذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَالْيَتَامَىٰ
 وَالسَّائِكِينَ وَابْنِ السَّبِيلِ كَى لَا يَكُونَ دُولَةً
 بَيْنَ الْأَغْنِيَاءِ مِنْكُمْ وَمَا آتَاكُمْ
 الرَّسُولُ فَخُذُوهُ وَمَا نَهَاكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوا
 وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ

⑤ لِلْفُقَرَاءِ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ الَّذِينَ أُخْرِجُوا مِنْ
 دِيَارِهِمْ وَأَمْوَالِهِمْ يَبْتَغُونَ فَضْلًا مِنَ اللَّهِ
 وَرِضْوَانًا وَيَنْصُرُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
 أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الصَّادِقُونَ

⑥ وَالَّذِينَ تَبَوَّءُوا الدَّارَ وَالْإِيمَانَ مِنْ
 قَبْلِهِمْ يُحِبُّونَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَلَا يَجِدُونَ
 فِي صُدُورِهِمْ حَاجَةً مِمَّا

5381. "Belongs to God": i.e., to God's Cause; and the beneficiaries are further detailed. No shares are fixed; they depend upon circumstances, and are left to the judgment of the Leader. Compare a similar list of those entitled to Charity, in ii. 177, but the two lists refer to different circumstances and have different beneficiaries in addition to the portion common to both.

5382. The Muhājirs are those who forsook their homes and property in Mecca in order to assist the holy Prophet in his migration to Medina (Hijrat). Their devotion and sincerity were proved beyond doubt by their self-denial, and they were now to be rewarded.

5383. This refers to the Anṣār (the Helpers), the people of Medina, who accepted Islam when it was persecuted in Mecca, and who invited the holy Prophet to join them and become their Leader in Medina. The Hijrat was possible because of their goodwill and their generous hospitality. They entertained the Prophet and all the refugees (Muhājirs) who came with him. The most remarkable ties of full brotherhood were established between individual members of the one group and the other. Until the Ummah got its own resources, the Helpers regularly gave and the Refugees regularly received. The Helpers counted it a privilege to entertain the Refugees, and even the poor vied with the rich in their spirit of self-sacrifice. When the confiscated land and property of the Banū Nadhīr was divided, and the major portion was assigned to the Refugees, there was not the least jealousy on the part of the Helpers. They rejoiced in the good fortune of their brethren. And incidentally they were themselves relieved of anxiety and responsibility on their behalf.

5. Whether ye cut down
(O ye Muslims !)
The tender palm-trees,
Or ye left them standing
On their roots, it was <sup>5375</sup>
By leave of God, and
In order that He might <sup>5376</sup>
Cover with shame
The rebellious transgressors.

6. ~~What~~ What God has bestowed
On His Apostle (and taken
Away) from them—for this
Ye made no expedition
With either cavalry or camelry : <sup>5377</sup>
But God gives power
To His apostles over
Any He pleases : and God <sup>5378</sup>
Has power over all things.

7. What God has bestowed <sup>5379</sup>
On His Apostle (and taken Away) from the people <sup>5380</sup>
Of the townships,—belongs

⑤ مَا قَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ لَيْتَةٍ أَوْ نَضَعْتُمْهَا
قَائِمَةً عَلَى أَصُولِهَا فَإِذْذِ اللَّهُ وَلِيٌّ
الْفَاسِقِينَ

⑥ وَمَا آفَاءَ اللَّهِ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْهُمْ فَمَا
أَوْجَفْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ خَيْلٍ وَلَا رِكَابٍ وَلَكِنْ
اللَّهُ يُسَلِّطُ رُسُلَهُ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى
كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

⑦ مَا آفَاءَ اللَّهِ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْقُرَى

5375. The unnecessary cutting down of fruit trees or destruction of crops, or any wanton destruction whatever in war, is forbidden by the law and practice of Islam. But some destruction may be necessary for putting pressure on the enemy, and to that extent it is allowed. But as far as possible, consistently with that objective of military operations, such trees should not be cut down. Both these principles are in accordance with the Divine Will, and were followed by the Muslims in their expedition.

5376. The arrogance of the Banū Nadhīr had to be humbled, and their power for mischief destroyed.

5377. Neither cavalry nor troops mounted on camels were employed in the siege. In fact the enemy surrendered at the first onset. See lix. 2, and n. 5369 above.

5378. God accomplishes His purpose in various ways, according to His wise and holy Will and Plan. In some cases a fight is necessary. In some cases the godly attain their objective and overawe the forces of evil without actual fighting.

5379. The Jews had originally come from outside Arabia, and seized on the land near Medina. They refused to adapt themselves to the people of Arabia, and were in fact a thorn in the side of the genuine Arabs of Medina. Their dispossession is therefore a restoration of the land to its original people. But the word "Fai" is here understood in a technical sense, as meaning property abandoned by the enemy or taken from him without a formal war. In that sense it is distinguished from "Anfāl", or spoils, taken after actual fighting, about which see viii 1 and 41.

5380. "The people of the townships": the townships were the Jewish settlements round Medina, of the Banū Nadhīr, and possibly of other tribes. Cf. the "townships" mentioned in lix. 14 below. The reference cannot be to the Wādī-ul-Qurā (Valley of Towns), now Madā'in Ṣāliḥ, which was subjugated after Khaybar and Fadak in A.H. 7, unless this verse is later than the rest of the Sūra.

Came to them from quarters<sup>5371</sup>
 From which they little
 Expected (it), and cast
 Terror into their hearts,
 So that they destroyed
 Their dwellings by their own<sup>5372</sup>
 Hands and the hands
 Of the Believers.
 Take warning, then,
 O ye with eyes (to see)!

مِنْ حَيْثُ لَمْ يَحْتَسِبُوا وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ
 الرُّعْبَ يُخْرِبُونَ بُيُوتَهُمْ بِأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَيْدِي الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
 فَاعْبُرُوا آيَاتِنَا وَلِيَ الْأَبْصَارِ

3. And had it not been
 That God had decreed
 Banishment for them,<sup>5373</sup>
 He would certainly have
 Punished them in this world :
 And in the Hereafter
 They shall (certainly) have
 The Punishment of the Fire.
4. That is because they
 Resisted God and His Apostle :
 And if any one resists God,<sup>5374</sup>
 Verily God is severe
 In Punishment.

③ وَلَوْلَا أَنْ كَتَبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْجَلَاءَ
 لَعَذَّبُهمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَلَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ
 عَذَابُ النَّارِ

④ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ شَاقُّوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَمَنْ
 يُشَاقِقِ اللَّهَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ

5371. They had played a double game. Originally they were sworn allies of the Medina Muslims under the holy Prophet, but they secretly intrigued with the Mecca Pagans under Abū Sufyān and the Medina Hypocrites. They even tried treacherously to take the life of the Prophet while he was on a visit to them, breaking both the laws of hospitality and their own sworn alliance. They thought the Pagan Quraish of Mecca and the Hypocrites of Medina would help them, but they did not help them. On the contrary the eleven days' siege showed them their own helplessness. Their supplies were cut off; the exigencies of the siege necessitated the destruction of their outlying palm trees; and the unexpected turn in their fortunes disheartened them. Their hearts were struck with terror, and they capitulated. But they laid waste their homes before they left : see next note.

5372. Their lives were spared, and they were allowed ten days in which to remove themselves, their families, and such goods as they could carry. In order to leave no habitations for the Muslims they demolished their own houses and laid waste their property, to complete the destruction which the operations of war had already caused at the hands of the besieging force of the Muslims.

5373. Banishment was a comparatively mild punishment for them, but the Providence of God had decreed that a chance should be given to them even though they were a treacherous foe. Within two years, their brethren the Banū Quraiza showed that they had not profited by their example, and had to be dealt with in another way : see xxxiii, 26 and notes.

5374. The punishment of the Banū Nadhīr was because in breaking their plighted word with the Apostle and in actively resisting God's Message and supporting the enemies of that Message, they rebelled against His holy Will. For such treason and rebellion the punishment is severe, and yet in this case it was seasoned with Mercy.

Sūra LIX.

Hashr, or The Gathering
(or Banishment, lix. 2-3).

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~What~~ whatever is
In the heavens and
On earth, let it declare
The Praises and Glory <sup>5368</sup>
Of God: for He is
The Exalted in Might,
The Wise.
2. It is He Who got out
The Unbelievers among
The People of the Book <sup>5369</sup>
From their homes
At the first gathering
(Of the forces).
Little did ye think
That they would get out: <sup>5370</sup>
And they thought
That their fortresses
Would defend them from God!
But the (Wrath of) God

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

مَانِعَتُهُمْ حُصُونُهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ فَأَتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ

5368. This verse, introducing the Sūra, is identical with lvii. 1, introducing S. lvii. The theme of both is the wonderful working of God's Plan and Providence. In the one case it referred to the conquest of Mecca and taught the lesson of humility. In this case it refers to the dislodgment of the treacherous Banū Nadhīr from their nest of intrigue in the neighbourhood of Medina, practically without a blow. See next note.

5369. This refers to the Jewish tribe of the Banū Nadhīr whose intrigues and treachery nearly undid the Muslim cause during the perilous days of the battle of Uhud in Shawwāl, A.H. 3. Four months after, in Rabi' I, A.H. 4, steps were taken against them. They were asked to leave the strategic position which they occupied, about three miles south of Medina, endangering the very existence of the Ummat in Medina. At first they demurred, relying on their fortresses and on their secret alliances with the Pagans of Mecca and the Hypocrites of Medina. But when the Muslim army was gathered to punish them and actually besieged them for some days, their allies stirred not a finger in their aid, and they were wise enough to leave. Most of them joined their brethren in Syria, which they were permitted to do, after being disarmed. Some of them joined their brethren in Khaibar: see n. 3705 to xxxiii. 27. The Banū Nadhīr richly deserved punishment, but their lives were spared, and they were allowed to carry away their goods and chattels.

5370. That is, without actual hostilities, and the shedding of precious Muslim blood.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LIX (Hashr).

This is the third of the series of ten short Medina Sūras, dealing each with a special point in the life of the Ummat: see Introduction to S. lvii. The special theme here is how treachery to the Ummat on the part of its enemies recoils on the enemies themselves, while it strengthens the bond between the different sections of the Ummat itself, and this is illustrated by the story of the expulsion of the Jewish tribe of the Banū Nadhīr in Rabi' I, A H. 4.

This fixes the date of the Sūra.

Summary.—The expulsion of the treacherous Jews from the neighbourhood of Medina was smoothly accomplished: their reliance on their fortified positions and on the faith of their allies in treachery proved futile. But the internal bonds in the Ummat were strengthened. Such is the wisdom of God, Lord of the Most Beautiful Names. (lix. 1-24, and C. 238).

C. 238.—God's wisdom foils the treachery of men,
 (lix 1-24) And makes the path smooth for Believers who strive
 Even against odds. Against God's decrees
 All resistance is vain. In property taken
 From the enemy, let those in need have a share,
 And those who sacrifice their all for the Cause,
 But those who lend a helping hand
 In the hour of need do it for love
 And crave no reward, nor feel the least
 Envy or jealousy. They all rejoice
 That the Brotherhood should thrive. Not so
 The Hypocrites: they are false even among Themselves. Perdition is the end
 Of all evil. But the Good and Faithful
 Will achieve felicity. Such is the power
 Of Truth and God's Revelation. God!
 There is no god but He!—the Good,
 The Glorious, the Irresistible!
 All Creation sings His praise,—
 The Exalted in Might, the Wise!

22. Thou wilt not find
 Any people who believe
 In God and the Last Day,
 Loving those who resist
 God and His Apostle,
 Even though they were
 Their fathers or their sons,<sup>5363</sup>
 Or their brothers, or
 Their kindred. For such
 He has written Faith<sup>5364</sup>
 In their hearts, and strengthened
 Them with a spirit<sup>5365</sup>
 From Himself. And He
 Will admit them to Gardens
 Beneath which Rivers flow,
 To dwell therein (for ever).
 God will be well pleased
 With them, and they with Him.<sup>5366</sup>
 They are the Party<sup>5367</sup>
 Of God. Truly it is
 The Party of God that
 Will achieve Felicity.

لَا تَجِدُ قَوْمًا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ
 يُوَادُّونَ مَنْ حَادَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَوْ كَانُوا
 آبَاءَهُمْ أَوْ أَبْنَاءَهُمْ أَوْ إِخْوَانَهُمْ أَوْ عَشِيرَتَهُمْ
 أُولَئِكَ كَتَبَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الْإِيمَانَ وَأَيَّدَهُم بِرُوحٍ
 مِنْهُ وَيُخْلِقُهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
 خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ أُولَئِكَ
 حِزْبُ اللَّهِ أَلَا إِنَّ حِزْبَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ

5363. If any one believes in God and His goodness and justice, and in the Hereafter, in which all true values will be restored he will never love evil or wrong-doing or rebellion against God, even if these things are found in his nearest kith and kin.

5364. Faith in God is indelibly written on the tablets of their hearts, and they can never be false to God.

5365. Cf. ii. 87 and 253, where it is said that God strengthened the Prophet Jesus with the holy spirit. Here we learn that all good and righteous men are strengthened by God with the holy spirit. If anything, the phrase used here is stronger, "a spirit from Himself". Whenever any one offers his heart in faith and purity to God, God accepts it, engraves that Faith on the seeker's heart, and further fortifies him with the divine spirit, which we can no more define adequately than we can define in human language the nature and attributes of God.

5366. Again we have the mystic doctrine of God's Good Pleasure as the highest goal of man, the spiritual heaven which he achieves by a life of purity and faith. He not only attains God's Good Pleasure as the crown of his felicity, but his own nature is so far transformed to the pattern of God's original creation that his own good pleasure is in nothing but in God's Good Pleasure. The mutual good pleasure shows the heights to which man can attain.

5367. This is in antithesis to the Party of the Evil One, mentioned in verse 19 above. That Party of Evil will perish, but while it has its run in the scheme of the present world, the Party of Truth and Reality may be figuratively called the Party of God, even though all Creation is God's in another sense.

They will be Companions
Of the Fire, to dwell
Therein (for aye)!

18. One Day will God
Raise them all up
(For Judgment): then
Will they swear to Him <sup>5359</sup>
As they swear to you:
And they think that, they
Have something (to stand upon).
No, indeed! they are
But liars!

19. The Evil One has Got the better of them, <sup>5360</sup>
So he has made them
Lose the remembrance
Of God. They are the Party
Of the Evil One. Truly,
It is the Party
Of the Evil One
That will perish!

20. Those who resist
God and His Apostle
Will be among those
Most humiliated. <sup>5361</sup>

21. God has decreed:
"It is I and My apostles
Who must prevail":
For God is One
Full of strength,
Able to enforce His Will. <sup>5362</sup>

أُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ

⑮ يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا فَيَحْلِفُونَ لَهُ كَمَا
يَحْلِفُونَ لَكُمْ وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ عَلَى شَيْءٍ
أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ

⑯ اسْتَوْدَعَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ فَأَنسَاهُمْ ذِكْرَ اللَّهِ
أُولَئِكَ حِزْبُ الشَّيْطَانِ أَلَا إِنَّ حِزْبَ الشَّيْطَانِ
هُمُ الْخَسِرُونَ

⑰ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُجَادُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ أُولَئِكَ فِي
الْأَذَلِّينَ

⑱ كَتَبَ اللَّهُ لَأَعْلَيْنَا أَنَا وَرُسُلِي إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ

5359. When Judgment is established, and before they realise the Truth, they may think (as now) that some oaths or excuses will save them. But they have not now—much less will they have then—any footing to stand upon. Falsehood is falsehood, and must perish. They must learn the worthlessness of their falsehood.

5360. Man's original nature as created by God is good (xxx, 30, and n. 3541). It is because man, in spite of the warnings he has received, allows Evil to get the mastery over him, that man forgets God and the divine qualities which God gave him. The result of the perversion is that man becomes a partisan of Evil, and as such dooms himself to perdition.

5361. There are various degrees of humiliation in the final state in the spiritual world. But the worst is the humiliation of being numbered among those who ignominiously attempted to resist the Irresistible.

5362. For the meaning of 'Aziz, see n. 2818 to xxii. 40.

If, then, ye do not so,
And God forgives you,
Then (at least) establish
Regular prayer; practise <sup>5353</sup>
Regular charity; and obey
God and His Apostle.
And God is well-acquainted
With all that ye do.

SECTION 3.

14. Furnest thou not
Thy attention to those <sup>5354</sup>
Who turn (in friendship)
To such as have the Wrath
Of God upon them? <sup>5355</sup>
They are neither of you
Nor of them, and they
Swear to falsehood knowingly. <sup>5356</sup>
15. God has prepared for them
A severe Penalty: evil
Indeed are their deeds.
16. They have made their oaths
A screen (for their misdeeds):
Thus they obstruct (men) <sup>5357</sup>
From the Path of God.
Therefore shall they have
A humiliating Penalty.
17. Of no profit whatever
To them, against God,
Will be their riches <sup>5358</sup>
Nor their sons:

فَإِذَا لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا وَتَابَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ
وَأَتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ
بِمَاتَعْمَلُونَ

⑩ * أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ تَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِمْ مَا هُمْ مِنْكُمْ وَلَا مِنْهُمْ وَيَحْلِفُونَ عَلَى
الْكَذِبِ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ

⑪ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا إِنَّهُمْ سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا
يَعْمَلُونَ

⑫ اتَّخَذُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ جُنَّةً فَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ
اللَّهِ فَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ

⑬ لَنْ تُغْنِيَ عَنْهُمْ أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُهُمْ مِنْ
اللَّهِ شَيْئًا

5353. Zakāt, which I have translated "regular charity", was instituted about A H. 2.

5354. This refers to the Hypocrites of Medina who pretended to be in Islam but intrigued with the Jews. See references as given in n. 5342 above.

5355. By this time the Jews of Medina and the Jewish tribes around had become actively hostile to Islam, and were being sharply called to account for their treachery.

5356. They knew that as Muslims their duty was to refrain from the intrigues of the enemies of Islam and to assist Islam against them.

5357. A false man, by swearing that he is true, makes his falsehood all the more heinous. He stands in the way of other people accepting Truth. He gives a handle to the cynics and the sceptics.

5358. They may arrogantly boast of riches and alliances and followers in man-power. But what are such worldly advantages before the Throne of the Disposer of all events? They must come to utter misery.

Been granted (mystic)
Knowledge.<sup>5349</sup>
And God is well-acquainted
With all ye do.

أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجَاتٍ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ

12. ﴿١٢﴾ ye who believe !
When ye consult
The Apostle in private,<sup>5350</sup>
Spend something in charity
Before your private consultation.
That will be best for you,
And most conducive
To purity (of conduct).<sup>5351</sup>
But if ye find not
(The wherewithal), God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا نَجَّيْتُمُ الرَّسُولَ
فَقَدِّمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوَاكُمْ صَدَقَةٌ ذَٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ
لَّكُمْ وَأَطْرَفُ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ

13. Is it that ye are Afraid of spending sums<sup>5352</sup>
In charity before your
Private consultation (with him) ?

أَسْفَقْتُمْ أَنْ تُقَدِّمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ
نَجْوَاكُمْ صَدَقَاتٍ

5349 Faith makes all people equal in the Kingdom of God, as regards the essentials of citizenship in the Kingdom. But there is leadership, and rank and degree, joined with greater or less responsibility, and that depends on Knowledge,—the true knowledge and insight which Mystics seek everywhere for advancing their service and responsibility in the Kingdom of God. Honour there comes with merit, and is not to be grabbed at.

5350. In the Kingdom of God all instruction or consultation is open and free. But human nature is weak. And people want special instruction or private consultation with the Teacher from one of several motives: (1) they may have, or think they have, a special case, which they are not willing to disclose to their brethren in general; (2) they may have some sense of delicacy or dignity, which can only be satisfied by a private interview; (3) they may even be selfish enough to want to monopolise the Teacher's time. These motives are, in an ascending order, worth discouraging; and yet, considering the weakness of human nature, they cannot be reprobated to the extent of shutting out their victims from chances of improvement. It is therefore recommended that they spend something in charity for the good of their poorer brethren before they indulge in such weaknesses.

5352. Note the plural here, ṣadaqāt, instead of the singular, ṣadaqa in verse 12 above. While people with the foibles described in n. 5350 may be willing to spend "something" (small) in charity for a special consultation occasionally, they may be frightened of spending large sums when their needs for consultation may be numerous. What is to be done then? Are they to be shut out altogether? No. They are asked to be punctilious in the discharge of their normal duties of at least normal regular prayers and regular charity, "if God forgives you", i.e. if God's Messenger relieves them of further special contributions such as those noted in verse 12. This condition, "if God forgives you", provides the safeguard against the abuse of the privilege. The apostle would know in each case what is best for the individual and for the community.

To the Prophet ; but do it
For righteousness and self-restraint ; <sup>5345</sup>
And fear God, to Whom
Ye shall be brought back.

10. Secret counsels are only
(Inspired) by the Evil One,
In order that he may
Cause grief to the Believers ;
But he cannot harm them
In the least, except as <sup>5346</sup>
God permits ; and on God
Let the Believers
Put their trust.

11. ② ye who believe !
When ye are told
To make room
In the assemblies, <sup>5347</sup>
(Spread out and) make room :
(Ample) room will God provide
For you. And when
Ye are told to rise up, <sup>5348</sup>
Rise up : God will
Raise up, to (suitable) ranks
(And degrees), those of you
Who believe and who have

الرَّسُولِ وَتَسْجُدُوا بِالْأَيْدِ وَالْقُلُوبِ وَأَتَّقُوا
اللَّهَ الَّذِي إِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ

⑩ إِنَّمَا الْبَغْيُ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ لِيَحْزُنَ الَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا وَلَيْسَ بِضَارِّهِمْ شَيْئًا إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ
وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ

⑪ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ تَفَسَّحُوا فِي
الْمَجْلِسِ فَافْسَحُوا يَفْضَحِ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ وَإِذَا قِيلَ
انْشُرُوا فَانْشُرُوا يَرْفَعِ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ
وَالَّذِينَ

5345. Ordinarily secrecy implies deeds of darkness, something which men have to hide ; see the next verse. But there are good deeds which may be concerted and done in secret : e.g. charity, or the prevention of mischief, or the defeat of the dark plots of evil. The determining factor is the motive. Is the man doing some wrong, or venting his spite, or trying to disobey a lawful command? Or is he doing some good, which out of modesty or self-renunciation he does not want known, or is he in a righteous cause defeating the machinations of Evil, which may involve great sacrifice of himself?

5346. Evil can harm no one who is good, except in so far as (1) there is some question of trial in God's Universal Plan, or (2) what appears to be harm may be real good. Nothing happens without God's will and permission. And we must always trust Him, and not our cleverness or any adventitious circumstances that draw us the least bit from the path of rectitude.

5347. Even when a great man or a Leader comes into an Assembly, we are not to press forward without discipline, as it causes inconvenience to him and detriment to public business. Nor are we to shut out other people who have equal rights to be in the Assembly. We must spread out, for God's earth is spacious, and so are our opportunities.

5348. Rising up is a mark of respect. Just as those who obey soon become worthy of command, so those who honour where honour is due, become themselves worthy of honour, in various degrees according to their capacities. "Rise up" may also here imply: 'when the Assembly is dismissed, do not loiter about'

He makes the sixth,—
Nor between fewer nor more
But He is in their midst,
Wheresoever they be:
In the end will He
Tell them the truth
Of their conduct, on the Day
Of Judgment. For God
Has full knowledge
Of all things.

8. Turnest thou not thy sight
Towards those who were
Forbidden secret counsels <sup>5312</sup>
Yet revert to that which
They were forbidden (to do)?
And they hold secret counsels
Among themselves for iniquity
And hostility, and disobedience
To the Apostle. And when
They come to thee,
They salute thee, <sup>5313</sup>
Not as God salutes thee,
(But in crooked ways):
And they say to themselves,
"Why does not God
Punish us for our words?" <sup>5314</sup>
Enough for them is Hell:
In it will they burn,
And evil is that destination!

9. ② ye who believe!
When ye hold secret counsel,
Do it not for iniquity
And hostility, and disobedience

هُوَ سَادِسُهُمْ وَلَا أَدْنَىٰ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْثَرَ
إِلَّا هُوَ مَعَهُمْ أَيْنَ مَا كَانُوا ثُمَّ يُنَبِّئُهُم بِمَا
عَمِلُوا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

① أَلَمْ تَر إِلَى الَّذِينَ نُهُوا عَنِ النَّجْوَىٰ ثُمَّ
يَعُودُونَ لِمَا نُهُوا عَنْهُ وَيَتَنَجَّوْنَ بِالْآثِرِ
وَالْعُدْوَانِ وَمَعْصِيَةِ الرَّسُولِ وَإِذَا جَاءُوكَ
حَيَّوْكَ بِمَا لَمْ يُحَيِّكَ بِهِ اللَّهُ وَيَقُولُونَ فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ
لَوْلَا يُعَذِّبُنَا اللَّهُ بِمَا نَقُولُ حَسْبُهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ
يُصَلُّونَهَا فِي سَائِرِ الْمَصِيرِ

② يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا تَلَّجْتُمْ فَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا
بِالْآثِرِ وَالْعُدْوَانِ وَمَعْصِيَةِ

5342. When the Muslim Brotherhood was acquiring strength in Medina, and the forces of disruption were being discomfited in open fight against the Messenger of Righteousness, the wicked resorted to duplicity and secret intrigues, in which the ringleaders were the disaffected Jews and the Hypocrites, whose machinations have been frequently referred to in the Qur-ān. E.g. see ii. 8-16; and iv. 142-145.

5343 The salutation of God was (and is) "Peace!" But the enemies, who had not the courage to fight openly, often twisted the words, and by using a word like "Sām", which meant "Death!" or "Destruction!" instead of "Salām!" (Peace!), they thought they were secretly venting their spite and yet apparently using a polite form of salutation. Cf. ii. 106, and n. 107, where another similar trick is exposed.

5344. The enemies derisively enjoyed their trick (see last note) according to their own perverted mentality. They asked blasphemously, "Why does not God punish us?" The answer is given: there is a Punishment, far greater than they imagine: it will come in good time: it will be the final Punishment after Judgment: it is delayed in order to give them a chance of repentance and reformation.

And His Apostle.
Those are limits (set
By) God. For those who Reject (Him), there is
A grievous Penalty.<sup>5339</sup>

وَرَسُولِهِٓ ۖ وَنَلَكَ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ وَلِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابٌ
أَلِيمٌ

5. Those who resist God
And His Apostle will be
Humbled to dust, as were
Those before them: for We
Have already sent down
Clear Signs. And the Unbelievers
(Will have) a humiliating Penalty,—

۝ إِنَّا الَّذِينَ يُحَادِّثُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ نَكْتُبُهُمْ
فِي الْكِتَابِ الَّذِي مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَقَدْ أُنْزِلَتْ آيَاتُ
بَيِّنَاتٍ وَلِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ

6. On the Day that
God will raise them
All up (again) and show
Them the truth (and meaning)<sup>5340</sup>
Of their conduct. God has
Reckoned its (value), though
They may have forgotten it,
For God is Witness
To all things.

۝ يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا فَيُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوا
أَخَصُّهُ اللَّهُ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ وَاسِعٌ ۖ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ

SECTION 2.

7. Seest thou not that
God doth know (all) that is
In the heavens and
On earth? There is not
A secret consultation
Between three, but He
Makes the fourth among them,—<sup>5341</sup>
Nor between five but

۝ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي
الْأَرْضِ مَا يَكُونُ مِنْ نَجْوَى ثَلَاثَةٍ إِلَّا هُوَ
رَابِعُهُمْ وَلَا خَمْسَةٍ إِلَّا

5339. It would seem that this refers to the spiritual Penalty in the Hereafter for not complying with the small penalty here prescribed. The next verse would then refer to the bigger "humiliating Penalty" for "resistance" to God's Law generally.

5340. This phrase, "God will tell them the truth of their deeds (or their doings or their conduct)" occurs frequently. See v. 51, n. 762; v. 108, n. 811; vi. 60; ix. 94; etc. In this life there is a certain mist or illusion in our spiritual sight. We see things from different angles and dispute about them; we hide real motives, and pretend to virtues which we do not possess; others may attribute such virtues to us, and we may come to believe it ourselves; we conceive likes and hatreds on insufficient grounds; we forget what we should remember, and remember what we should forget. Our vision is narrow, and our values are false. On the Day of Account all this will be remedied. Not only will true values be restored, but we shall ourselves see the inwardness of things in our own lives, which we never saw before.

5341. Secrecy is a relative and limited term among ourselves. There is nothing hidden or unknown to God. Usually secrecy implies fear or distrust, plotting or wrong-doing. But all is open before God's sight.

(Sins), and forgives
(Again and again).

غَفُورٌ

3. But those who divorce
Their wives by Zihar,
Then wish to go back <sup>5335</sup>
On the words they uttered,—
(It is ordained that Such a one)
Should free a slave
Before they touch each other :
This are ye admonished
To perform : and God is
Well-acquainted with (all)
That ye do.

② وَالَّذِينَ يُظَاهِرُونَ مِنْ نِسَائِهِمْ ثُمَّ يَعُودُونَ
لِمَا قَالُوا فَصَحِّهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَتَمَاسَّا ذَلِكَ
تُوعِظُونَ بِهِ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ

4. And if any has not
(The wherewithal), <sup>5336</sup>
He should fast for
Two months consecutively
Before they touch each other.
But if any is unable
To do so, he should feed
Sixty indigent ones. <sup>5337</sup>
This, that ye may show
Your faith in God <sup>5338</sup>

④ فَمَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ فَصِيَامُ شَهْرَيْنِ مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ مِنْ
قَبْلِ أَنْ يَتَمَاسَّا فَمَنْ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَإِطْعَامُ
سِتِّينَ مِسْكِينًا ذَلِكَ لِتُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ

5335. If Zihar were to be ignored as if the words were never uttered, it would mean that men may foolishly resort to it without penalty. It is therefore recognised in respect of the penalty which the man incurs, but safeguards the woman's rights. She can sue for maintenance for herself and her children, but her husband could not claim his conjugal rights. If it was a hasty act and he repented of it, he could not claim his conjugal rights until after the performance of his penalty as provided below. If she loved him, as in Khawla's case, she could also herself sue for conjugal rights in the legal sense of the term and compel her husband to perform the penalty and resume marital relations.

5336. Cf. iv. 92 The penalty is : to get a slave his freedom, whether it is your own slave or you purchase his freedom from another ; if that is not possible, to fast for two months consecutively (in the manner of the Ramadhān fast) ; if that is not possible, to feed sixty poor. See next note.

5337. There is a great deal of learned argument among the jurists as to the precise requirements of Canon Law under the term "feeding" the indigent. For example, it is laid down that half a ṣā' of wheat or a full ṣā' of dates or their equivalent in money would fulfil the requirements, a ṣā' being a measure corresponding roughly to about 9 lbs. of wheat in weight. Others hold that a Mudd measure equivalent to about 2½ lbs. would be sufficient. This would certainly be nearer the daily ration of a man. It is better to take the spirit of the text in its plain simplicity, and say that an indigent man should be given enough to eat for two meals a day. The sixty indigent ones fed for a day would be equivalent to a single individual fed for sixty days, or two for thirty days, and so on. But there is no need to go into minutiae in such matters.

5338. These penalties in the alternative are prescribed, that we may show our repentance and Faith and our renunciation of "iniquity and falsehood" (verse 2 above), whatever our circumstances may be.

Sūra LVIII.

Mujadila, or The Woman who Pleads.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. God has indeed
Heard (and accepted) the statement
Of the woman who pleads<sup>5330</sup>
With thee concerning her husband
And carries her complaint
(In prayer) to God :
And God (always) hears
The arguments between both<sup>5331</sup>
Sides among you : for God
Hears and sees (all things).

2. If any men among you
Divorce their wives by Zihār<sup>5332</sup>
(Calling them mothers),
They cannot be their mothers :
None can be their mothers
Except those who gave them
Birth. And in fact
They use words (both) iniquitous<sup>5333</sup>
And false : but truly
God is One that blots out<sup>5334</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① قَدْ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ قَوْلَ الَّتِي تُجَادِلُكَ فِي زَوْجِهَا
وَتَشْتَكِي إِلَى اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ يَسْمَعُ تَحَاوُرَكُمَا إِنَّ
اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ

② الَّذِينَ يُظَاهِرُونَ مِنْكُمْ نِسَاءَهُمْ مَا هُنَّ
أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ إِنْ أُمُّهُنَّ إِلَّا الَّتِي وَلَدْنَهُمْ وَأَنَّهُمْ
لَيَقُولُونَ مُنْكَرًا مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَزُورًا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ
لَعَلِيمٌ

5330. The immediate occasion was what happened to Khawla bint Tha'lab, wife of Aus son of Hāmit. Though in Islam, he divorced her by an old Pagan custom : the formula was known as zihār, and consisted of the words "Thou art to me as the back of my mother". This was held by Pagan custom to imply a divorce and freed the husband from any responsibility for conjugal duties, but did not leave the wife free to leave the husband's home, or to contract a second marriage. Such a custom was in any case degrading to a woman. It was particularly hard on Khawla, for she loved her husband and pleaded that she had little children whom she had no resources herself to support and whom under zihār her husband was not bound to support. She urged her plea to the Prophet and in prayer to God. Her just plea was accepted, and this iniquitous custom, based on false words, was abolished. See also n. 3670 to xxxiii. 4.

5331. For He is a just God, and will not allow human customs or pretences to trample on the just rights of the weakest of His creatures.

5333. Such words are false in fact and iniquitous, inasmuch as they are unfair to the wife and unseemly in decent society.

5334. Cf. iv. 99 and xxii. 60. Were it not that God in His Mercy makes allowances for our weaknesses and the various grades of motives that actuate us, such conduct would be inexpiable. But He prescribes expiation as in the next verse, because He wishes to blot out what is wrong and give us a chance to reform by His forgiveness.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LVIII (Mujādila).

This is the second of the ten Medina Sūras referred to in the Introduction to the last Sūra. Its subject-matter is the acceptance of a woman's Plea on behalf of herself and her children (see n. 5330 to lviii. 1 below), and a condemnation of all secret counsels and intrigues in the Muslim Brotherhood.

The date is somewhat close to that of S. xxxiii, say between A.H. 5 and A.H. 7.

Summary.—All false pretences, especially those that degrade a woman's position, are condemned,—as well as secret consultations between men and intrigues with falsehood, mischief, and sedition. (lviii. 1-22, and C. 237).

C. 237.—Let not false pretences or superstitions
 (lviii. 1-22.) Degrade the position of woman. Eschew
 Secret plottings and secret counsels.
 Observe order and decorum in public assemblies,
 And seek not in selfish pride to engage
 Your Leader's private attention. It is wrong
 To turn to the enemies of God for friendship:
 They make their oaths a cloak for wrong-doing,
 And keep back men from the Right. But none
 Can resist the Power or the Judgment of God.
 The righteous seek only His Good Pleasure,
 And rejoice therein as their highest Achievement.

A Light by which ye <sup>5327</sup>
 Shall walk (straight
 In your path), and He
 Will forgive you (your past) : <sup>5328</sup>
 For God is Oft-Forgiving,
 Most Merciful :

وَيَجْعَلُ لَكُمْ نُورًا تَمْشُونَ بِهِ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ
 غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

29. That the People of
 The Book may know
 That they have no power <sup>5329</sup>
 Whatever over the Grace
 Of God, that (His) Grace
 Is (entirely) in his hand,
 To bestow it on
 Whomsoever He wills..
 27 For God is the Lord
 30 Of Grace abounding.

٢٩ لَعَلَّ يَعْلَمَ أَهْلُ الْكِتَابِ لَا يَغْدِرُونَ عَلَى شَيْءٍ
 مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَأَنَّ الْفَضْلَ بِيَدِ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَنْ
 يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

5327. As this refers to the Christians and the People of the Book, the following saying of Christ in his last days may interest them : " Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you... While ye have the light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them " (John, xii. 35-36). The light of Christ's Gospel soon departed ; his Church was enveloped in darkness ; then came the light again in the fuller light of Islam. And they are asked to believe in the Light, and to walk in it. Cf. also lvil. 12, and n. 5288 above.

5328. Any wrongs they may have committed through ignorance or misconceptions in their previous religion will be forgiven them, as they have seen the new Light and walk by it.

5329. Let not any race, or people, or community, or group, believe that they have exclusive possession of God's Grace, or that they can influence its grant or its withholding. God's Grace is free, and entirely controlled by Him, independently of any priests and privileged people. He dispenses it according to His own wise and holy Will and Plan ; and to His Grace there is no limit.

But the Monasticism
Which they invented
For themselves, We did not
Prescribe for them : <sup>5321</sup>
(We commanded) only
The seeking for the Good
Pleasure of God ; but that
They did not foster <sup>5322</sup>
As they should have done.
Yet We bestowed, on those
Among them who believed, <sup>5323</sup>
Their (due) reward, but
Many of them are
Rebellious transgressors. <sup>5324</sup>

28. ﴿٢٨﴾ ye that believe! <sup>5325</sup>
Fear God, and believe
In His Apostle, and He will
Bestow on you a double <sup>5326</sup>
Portion of His Mercy :
He will provide for you

وَرَهْبَانِيَّةً ابْتَدَعُوهَا مَا كَتَبْنَاهَا عَلَيْهِمْ
إِلَّا ابْتَغَاءَ وَرْضٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ فَمَآ رَعَوْهَا حَقَّ رِعَايَتِهَا
فَأَتَيْنَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِنْهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ
فَاسِقُونَ

﴿٢٨﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَءَامِنُوا بِرَسُولِهِ
يُؤْتِكُمْ كِفْلَيْنِ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ

5321 But God's Kingdom requires also courage, resistance to evil, the firmness, law, and discipline which will enforce justice among men. It requires men to mingle with men, so that they can uphold the standard of Truth, against odds if necessary. These were lost sight of in Monasticism, which was not prescribed by God.

5322. God certainly requires that men shall renounce the idle pleasures of this world, and turn to the Path which leads to God's Good Pleasure. But that does not mean gloomy lives, ("they that mourn"), nor perpetual and formal prayers in isolation. God's service is done through pure lives in the turmoil of this world. This spirit was lost, or at least not fostered by monastic institutions. On the contrary a great part of the "struggle and striving" for noble lives was suppressed.

5324. The corruptions in the Christian Church, the hair-splitting disputes, and mutual strife and hatred of sects had become a scandal by the time that the light of Islam came into the world. The pages of Gibbon's great History bear witness. Not only had the religion become void of grace, but the lives of the people, priests and laity, had fallen into great depths of degradation. See remarks in my Appendix V, pages 411-413, and the general picture in Kingsley's "Hypatia"

5325. From the context before (see n. 5323 above) and after (see next note), this is held to refer to the Christians and People of the Book who kept their Faith true and undefiled.

5326. The double portion refers to the past and the future. As noted in the last note, this passage is addressed to the Christians and the People of the Book, who, when honestly facing the question of the new Revelation in Islam, find in it the fulfilment of previous revelations, and therefore believe in God's Apostle Muhammad, and walk by the new Light. Their previous merits will be duly recognised, and they will be treated on fully equal terms in the new Ummat. This is their double share, not necessarily more in quantity than that of their brethren in Islam who passed through no other gate, but having a twofold aspect.

 For God is Full of Strength,
 Exalted in Might<sup>5318</sup>
 (And able to enforce His Will).

وَرَسُولُهُ بِالْغَيْبَاتِ اللَّهُ قَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ

SECTION 4.

26. And We sent Noah
 And Abraham, and established
 In their line Prophethood
 And Revelation: and some of them<sup>5319</sup>
 Were on right guidance,
 But many of them
 Became rebellious transgressors.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَجَعَلْنَا
 فِي ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا النَّبُوَّةَ وَالكِتَابَ فَمِنْهُمْ مُهْتَدٍ
 وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ

27. Then, in their wake,
 We followed them up
 With (others of) Our apostles:
 We sent after them
 Jesus the son of Mary,
 And bestowed on him
 The Gospel; and We ordained
 In the hearts of those
 Who followed him
 Compassion and Mercy.<sup>5320</sup>

وَلَقَدْ قَفَّيْنَا عَلَىٰ آثَرِهِم بِرُسُلِنَا وَقَفَّيْنَا بِعِيسَى
 ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ وَآتَيْنَاهُ الْإِنْجِيلَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ
 اتَّبَعُوهُ رَأْفَةً وَرَحْمَةً

5316. In xxi. 49, I have translated "in their most secret thoughts" for the more literal "unseen" (bil-ghaybi). Perhaps the more literal "unseen" may do if understood in the adverbial sense as explained in xxxv. 18, n. 3002. The sincere man will help the Cause, whether he is seen or brought under notice or not.

5317. To help God and His apostles is to help their Cause. It is to give men an opportunity of striving and fighting for His Cause and proving their true mettle, for thus is their spirit tested. As explained in the next line. God in Himself is Full of Strength. Exalted in Power, and Able to enforce His Will, and He has no need of other assistance.

5318. Cf. xxii. 40 and n. 2818. "Strength" is specific; Power or Might is more abstract, the ability to enforce what is willed.

5319. Some of them: i.e., of their line, or posterity, or Ummat. When the Book that was given to them became corrupted, many of them followed their own fancies and became transgressors.

5320. The chief characteristic of the teaching in the Gospels is humility and other-worldliness. The first blessings in the Sermon on the Mount are on "the poor in spirit", "they that mourn", and they that are "meek" (Matt. v. 3-5). Christ's disciples were enjoined to "take no thought for the morrow", and told: "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof" (Matt. vi. 34). They were also commanded "that ye resist not evil; but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also" (Matt. v. 39). These are fragmentary presentments of an imperfect philosophy as seen through monastic eyes. In so far as they represent pity, sympathy with suffering, and deeds of mercy, they represent the spirit of Christ.

Any vainglorious boaster,—<sup>5310</sup>

24. Such persons as are <sup>5311</sup>
Covetous and commend
Covetousness to men.
And if any turn back <sup>5312</sup>
(From God's Way), verily
God is free of all needs,
Worthy of all praise.

25. We sent aforetime
Our apostles with Clear Signs
And sent down with them
The Book and the Balance <sup>5313</sup>
(Of Right and Wrong), that men
May stand forth in justice;
And We sent down <sup>5314</sup> Iron, <sup>5315</sup>
In which is (material for)
Mighty war, as well as
Many benefits for mankind,
That God may test who
It is that will help,

كُلُّ مُتَحَنِّئٍ مُخْزٍ
٢٤ الَّذِينَ يَتَخَلَوْنَ وَيَأْمُرُونَ النَّاسَ بِالْبُخْلِ وَمَنْ
يَتَوَلَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ

٢٥ لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلَنَا بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مَعَهُمُ
الْكِتَابَ وَالْمِيزَانَ لِيَقُومَ النَّاسُ بِالْقِسْطِ وَأَنْزَلْنَا
الحديد فيه بأس شديد ومنافع للناس وليعلم
الله من ينضربوه

5310. In the external world, what people may consider misfortune or good fortune may both turn out to be illusory.—in Kipling's words, "both impostors just the same". The man of God does not grumble if some one else has possessions, nor exult if he has them. He does not covet and he does not boast. If he has any advantages, he shares them with other people, as he considers them not due to his own merits, but as gifts of God.

5311. Neither the Covetous nor the Boasters have any place in the Good Pleasure of God. The Covetous are particularly insidious, as their avarice and niggardliness not only keep back the gifts of God from men, but their pernicious example dries up the streams of Charity in others.

5312. It is Charity in God's Way that is specially in view here. If people are selfish and withhold their hand, they only injure themselves. They do not hurt God's Cause, for He is independent of all needs, and He will find other means of assisting His more meagrely-endowed servants; He is worthy of all praise in His care for His creatures.

5313. Three things are mentioned as gifts of God. In concrete terms they are the Book, the Balance, and Iron, which stand as emblems of three things which hold society together, viz Revelation, which commands Good and forbids Evil; Justice, which gives to each person his due; and the strong arm of the Law, which maintains sanctions for evil-doers. For Balance, see also xlii. 17, and n. 4550.

5314. "Sent down": anzala: in the sense of revealed to man the use of certain things, created in him the capacity of understanding and using them; cf. xxxix. 6: "sent down for you eight head of cattle in pairs".

5315. Iron: the most useful metal known to man. Out of it is made steel, and from steel and iron are made implements of war, such as swords, spears, guns, etc., as well as instruments of peace, such as ploughshares, bricklayers' trowels, architects' and engineers' instruments, etc. Iron stands as the emblem of Strength, Power, Discipline, Law's sanctions, etc. Iron and steel industries have also been the foundation of the prosperity and power of modern manufacturing nations like England.

(For the devotees of God),
And what is the life
Of this world, but
Goods and chattels
Of deception? <sup>5305</sup>

21. Be ye foremost (in seeking)
Forgiveness from your Lord,
And a Garden (of Bliss),
The width whereof is
As the width of
Heaven and earth, <sup>5306</sup>
Prepared for those who believe
In God and His apostles:
That is the Grace of God,
Which He bestows on whom <sup>5307</sup>
He pleases: and God is
The Lord of Grace abounding.

22. No misfortune can happen
On earth or in your souls <sup>5308</sup>
But is recorded in
A decree before We bring <sup>5309</sup>
It into existence:
That is truly easy for God:

23. In order that ye may
Not despair over matters
That pass you by,
Nor exult over favours
Bestowed upon you.
For God loveth not

وَمَا الْحَيَوةُ الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا مَتَاعُ الْغُرُورِ

① سَابِقُوا إِلَىٰ مَغْفِرَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ وَجَنَّةٍ
عَرْضُهَا كَعَرْضِ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ أُعِدَّتْ لِلَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ ذَٰلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ
مَن يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

② مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي
أَنْفُسِكُمْ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مِّن قَبْلِ أَنْ نَبْرَأَهَا إِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى
اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ

③ لِكَلَّا تُتَّسَبَّحُوا عَلَىٰ مَا فَتَكُمُ وَلَا تَفْرَحُوا بِمَا آتَاكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ

5305. C/. iii 185, and n. 492. Many of the attractive vanities of this world are but nets set by the Evil One to deceive man. The only thing real and lasting is the Good Life lived in the Light of God.

5306. C/. iii. 133, and n. 452.

5307. "Bestows on whom He pleases." That is, such grace and favour is beyond any one's own merits. It is bestowed by God according to His holy Will and Plan, which is just, merciful, and righteous.

5308 External disasters or misfortunes may strike people's eye or imagination, but there are worse crises and misfortunes in the spiritual world, which are of equal or greater importance to man's future. All this happens according to the Will and Plan of God. Even where we are allowed the exercise of our own wills, the consequences that follow are in accordance with the laws and Plan decreed by God beforehand.

5309. For bara'a, 'to bring into existence', and other words denoting God's creative energy, see n. 120 to ii. 117; n. 916 to vi. 94; and n. 923 to vi. 98.

The Witnesses (who testify),<sup>5300</sup>
 In the eyes of their Lord:
 They shall have their Reward
 And their Light.<sup>5301</sup>
 But those who reject God
 And deny Our Signs,—
 They are the Companions
 Of Hell-Fire.

SECTION 3.

20. Know ye (all), that
 The life of this world
 Is but play and amusement,<sup>5302</sup>
 Pomp and mutual boasting
 And multiplying, (in rivalry)
 Among yourselves, riches
 And children.
 Here is a similitude :<sup>5303</sup>
 How rain and the growth
 Which it brings forth, delight
 (The hearts of) the tillers ;<sup>5304</sup>
 Soon it withers ; thou
 Wilt see it grow yellow ;
 Then it becomes dry
 And crumbles away.
 But in the Hereafter
 Is a Penalty severe
 (For the devotees of wrong)
 And Forgiveness from God
 And (His) Good Pleasure

عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ لَهُمْ أَجْرُهُمْ وَنُورُهُمْ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
 وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَحِيمِ

① اَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا لَعِبٌ وَلَهُمْ
 زِينَةٌ وَتَفَاخُرٌ بَيْنَكُمْ وَتَكَاثُرٌ فِي الْأَمْوَالِ
 وَالْأَوْلَادِ كَمَثَلِ غَيْثٍ أَعْجَبَ الْكُفَّارَ
 نَبَاتُهُ ثُمَّ يَهِيجُ فَتَرَاهُ مُصْفَرًّا ثُمَّ يَكُونُ حُطَمًا
 وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ مِّنَ
 اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانٌ

5300. The Witnesses are not only Martyrs, but all those who carry the Banner of Truth against all odds and in all positions of danger, whether by pen or speech, or deed or counsel.

5301. Note that these two are specially high degrees in the spiritual kingdom, just short of Apostleship. For they have not only their reward in the spiritual Kingdom of God, like those who practise charity (verse 18 above), but they themselves become sources of light and leading.

5302. Cf. vi. 32, and n. 855. In the present passage the idea is further amplified. In this life people not only play and amuse themselves and each other, but they show off, and boast, and pile up riches and man-power and influence, in rivalry with each other.

5303. Cf. xxxix. 21, and n. 4273. Here the Parable is meant to teach a slightly different lesson. God's mercies are free and open to all, like His rain. But how do men make use of them? The good men take the real spiritual harvest and store the spiritual grain. The men who are in love with the ephemeral are delighted with the green of the tares and the grass; but such things give no real nourishment; they soon wither, become dry, and crumble to pieces, like the worldly pleasures and pomps, boastings and tumults, possessions and friends.

5304. Kuffār is here used in the unusual sense of 'tillers or husbandmen', because they sow the seed and cover it up with soil. But the ordinary meaning, 'Rejecters of Truth', is not absent. The allegory refers to such men.

Of God and of the Truth
Which has been revealed (to them),
And that they should not Become like those to whom
Was given Revelation aforetime,<sup>5296</sup>
But long ages passed over them
And their hearts grew hard?
For many among them
Are rebellious transgressors.

17. Know ye (all) that
God giveth life
To the earth after its death!<sup>5297</sup>
Already have We shown
The Signs plainly to you,
That ye may learn wisdom.

18. For those who give
In Charity, men and women,
And loan to God<sup>5298</sup>
A Beautiful Loan,
It shall be increased manifold
(To their credit),
And they shall have (besides)
A liberal reward.

19. And those who believe
In God and His apostles—
They are the Sincere<sup>5299</sup>
(Lovers of Truth), and

اللَّهُ وَمَا نَزَّلَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ وَلَا يَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ أُوتُوا
الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَطَالَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَمَدُ
فَقَسَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ

﴿١٧﴾ أَغْلَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا
قَدْ بَيَّنَّا لَكُمُ الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ

﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّ الْمُسْدِقِينَ وَالْمُصَدِّقَاتِ وَأَقْرَضُوا اللَّهَ
قَرْضًا حَسَنًا يَضْعَفُ لَهُمْ وَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ كَرِيمٌ

﴿١٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ
الصَّادِقُونَ وَالشَّهِدَاءُ

5296. The men immediately referred to are the contemporary Jews and Christians. To each of these Ummats was given God's Revelation, but as time passed, they corrupted it, became arrogant and hard-hearted, and subverted justice, truth, and the purity of Life. But the general lesson is far wider. No one is favoured of God except on the score of righteousness. Except on that score, there is no chosen individual or race. There is no blind good fortune or ill fortune. All happens according to the just laws and will of God. But at no time is humility or righteousness more necessary than in the hour of victory or triumph.

5297. As the dead earth is revived after the refreshing showers of rain, so is it with the spirit of man, whether as an individual or a race or Ummat. There is no cause for despair. God's Truth will revive the spiritual faculties if it is accepted with humility and zeal.

5298. Cf. lvii. 11; also see ii. 245, n. 276.

5299. Cf. iv. 69, and n. 586. The four categories there mentioned as constituting the beautiful Fellowship of Faith are: the Prophets who teach, the Sincere Lovers of Truth, the Witnesses who testify, and the Righteous who do good. Of these, the prophets or apostles have already been mentioned in this verse. The Righteous who do good are mentioned as the men and women given over to deeds of charity in verse 18.

With a gate therein,
Within it will be Mercy
Throughout, and without it,
All alongside; will be (Wrath and) Punishment!

بَابٌ بَاطِنُهُ فِيهِ الرَّحْمَةُ وَظَاهِرُهُ مِنْ قِبَلِهِ
الْعَذَابُ

14. (Those without) will call out,
"Were we not with you?" <sup>5292</sup>
(The others) will reply, "True!
But ye led yourselves
Into temptation; ye looked forward
(To our ruin); ye doubted
(God's Promise); and (your false) .
Desires deceived you; until
There issued the Command
Of God. And the Deceiver
Deceived you in respect of God. <sup>5293</sup>

١٤ يَتَادَّبُونَهُمْ أَلَمْ يَكُنْ مَعَكُمْ قَالُوا بَلَى
وَلَكِنَّكُمْ فَتَنْتُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ وَتَرَبَّصْتُمْ وَارْتَبْتُمْ
وَغَرَبْتُمْ أَلَمْ نَأْتِ بِحُجَّتٍ لَكُمْ فَمَا تَبْغُونَ
وَنَعَزَّكُمْ بِاللَّهُ الْغُرُورُ

15. "This Day shall no ransom
Be accepted of you, nor
Of those who rejected God. <sup>5294</sup>
Your abode is the Fire:
That is the proper place .
To claim you: and an evil
Refuge it is!"

١٥ فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يُؤْخَذُ مِنْكُمْ فِدْيَةٌ وَلَا مِنَ الَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا مَأْوَاهُمُ النَّارُ هِيَ مَوْلَاهُمْ
وَبَشِّرِ الْمَصِيرَ

16. Now as not the time arrived <sup>5295</sup>
For the Believers that
Their hearts in all humility
Should engage in the remembrance

١٦ *الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْ تَحْشَعَ قُلُوبُهُمْ
لِلذِّكْرِ

5292. The evil will now claim some right of kinship or association or proximity with the good in earthly life; but in fact they had been arrogant and had selfishly despised them before. The reply will be: (1) you yourselves chose temptation and evil; (2) when you had power in your earthly life, you hoped for ruin to the good, and perhaps plotted for it; (3) you were warned by men of God, but you doubted God's very existence, and certainly His Mercy and Justice, and the Hereafter; (4) you followed your own lusts and neglected Reason and Truth; (5) you were given plenty of rope, but you followed your mad career, until Judgment came upon you, and now it is too late for repentance.

5293. The Arch-Deceiver (Satan) deceived you in respect of God in many ways: for example, he made you oblivious of God's Mercy and loving-kindness; he made you reject His Grace; he made you think that God's Justice may not overtake you; etc.

5294. In personal responsibility there is no room for vicarious ransom or for ransom by payments of gold or silver or by sacrifice of possessions. Nor can the crime be expiated for after Judgment 'You' and 'those who rejected God' are two ways of looking at the same persons. 'You are rejected because you rejected God'.

5295. Humility and the remembrance of God and His Message are never more necessary than in the hour of victory and prosperity.

SECTION 2.

11. ~~Who~~ Who is he that will
 Loan to God a beautiful<sup>5287</sup>
 Loan? For (God) will Increase it manifold
 To his credit,
 And he will have (besides)
 A liberal reward.

12. One Day shalt thou see
 The believing men and
 The believing women—
 How their Light runs<sup>5288</sup>
 Forward before them
 And by their right hands:
 (Their greeting will be):
 "Good News for you this Day!
 Gardens beneath which flow rivers!
 To dwell therein for aye!
 This is indeed
 The highest Achievement!"<sup>5289</sup>

13. One Day will the Hypocrites—
 Men and women—say
 To the Believers: "Wait
 For us! Let us borrow
 (A light) from your Light!"<sup>5290</sup>
 It will be said: "Turn
 Ye back to your rear!
 Then seek a light (where Ye can)!" So a wall<sup>5291</sup>
 Will be put up betwixt them,

⑪ مَنْ ذَا الَّذِي يُقْرِضُ اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا فَيُضَاعِفَهُ
 لَهْدًا وَآجُرًا كَثِيرًا

⑫ يَوْمَ تَرَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ يَسْعَى نُورُهُمْ
 بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَبِأَيْمَانِهِمْ بُشْرًا لَكُمْ الْيَوْمَ
 جَنَّاتٌ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
 ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ

⑬ يَوْمَ يَقُولُ الْمُنَافِقُونَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتُ
 لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا انظُرُونَا نَقْتَبِسْ مِنْ نُورِكُمْ
 قِيلَ انْزِعُوا أَوْ رَأَوْا كَرِهَ اللَّهُ لِسُوءِ أُولَئِكَ
 أَنْ يَقُولُوا رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ فَاصْزُوبُوا

5287. Cf. ii. 245, n. 276.

5288. In the Darkness of the Day of Judgment there will be a Light to guide the righteous to their Destination. This will be the Light of their Faith and their Good Works. Perhaps the Light of the Right Hand mentioned here is the Light of their Good Works: for the Blessed will receive their Record in their right hand (lxix. 19-24).

5289. The highest Achievement, the highest felicity, the attainment of Salvation, the fulfilment of all desires. See n. 4733 to xliv. 57.

5290. Watchful preparation in Life, and the light of Faith, which reflects the divine Light, are matters of personal Life, and cannot be borrowed from another. So, in Christ's parable of the Ten Virgins (Matt. xxv. 1-13), when the foolish ones had let their lamps go out for want of oil, they asked to borrow oil from the wise ones, but the wise ones answered and said, "Not so; ...but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves"

5291. The wall of Personality, or Record of Deeds, will divide the Good from the Evil. But the Gateway in it will show that communication will not be cut off. Evil must realise that Good—i.e., Mercy and Felicity—had been within its reach, and that the Wrath which envelops it is due to its own rejection of Mercy.

In your Lord, and has Indeed taken your Covenant,<sup>5283</sup>
If ye are men of faith.

9. He is the One Who Sends to His Servant<sup>5284</sup>
Manifest Signs, that He
May lead you from
The depths of Darkness
Into the Light And verily,
God is to you
Most kind and Merciful.

10. And what cause have ye
Why ye should not spend
In the cause of God?—
For to God belongs<sup>5285</sup>
The heritage of the heavens
And the earth.
Not equal among you
Are those who spent (freely)
And fought, before the Victory,<sup>5286</sup>
(With those who did so later).
Those are higher in rank
Than those who spent (freely)
And fought afterwards.
But to all has God promised
A goodly (reward). And God
Is well acquainted
With all that ye do.

بَرِّكُمْ وَقَدْ أَخَذَ مِيثَاقَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
مُؤْمِنِينَ

① هُوَ الَّذِي يُنَزِّلُ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ آيَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ
لِيُخْرِجَكُمْ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ
بِكُمْ لَرُؤُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ

② وَمَالُكُمْ أَلَّا تُنْفِقُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
وَلِلَّهِ مِيرَاتُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَا يَسْئُرُ
مِنْكُمْ مَنْ أَنْفَقَ مِنْ قَبْلِ الْفَتْحِ وَقَتْلُ
أُولَئِكَ أَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً مِنَ الَّذِينَ أَنْفَقُوا مِنْ
بَعْدِ وَقَتْلِهِمْ وَكَذَلِكَ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْحَسَنَى وَاللَّهُ
بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ

5283. There are two shades of meaning. (1) There is the implied Covenant in a man who accepts the Gospel of Unity that he will bring forth all the fruits of that Gospel, i.e. believe in God, and serve God and humanity. See n. 682 to v. 1. (2) There were at various times express Covenants entered into by the Muslims to serve God and be true to the Prophet, comparable to the Covenants of the Jewish nation about the Message of Moses; e.g. the two Covenants of 'Aqaba (v. 8, and n. 705), and the Pledge of Hudaibiya (xlvi 10, n. 4877). For the Covenant with Israel at Mount Sinai, see ii. 63, n. 78.

5284. The holy Prophet Muhammad. The Signs sent to him were: (1) the Ayats of the Qur-ān, and (2) his life and work, in which God's Plan and Purpose were unfolded.

5285. "To God belongs the heritage of...": see n. 485 to iii. 180; also n. 968 to vi. 165; and n. 1964 to xv. 23.

5286. This is usually understood to refer to the Conquest of Mecca, after which the Muslims succeeded to the power and position which the Pagan Quraish had so misused at Mecca. Thereafter the Muslims had the hegemony of Arabia, and in a few centuries, for a time, the hegemony of the world. But the words are perfectly general, and we must understand the general meaning also: that the people who fight and struggle in God's Cause and give of their best to it at any time are worthy of praise: but those are worthy of special distinction who do it when the Cause is being persecuted and in most need of assistance, before victory comes.

And what comes forth out
Of it, what comes down
From heaven and what mounts
Up to it. And He is
With you wheresoever ye<sup>5279</sup>
May be. And God sees
Well all that ye do.

5. To Him belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth :<sup>5280</sup>
And all affairs are Referred back to God.

6. He merges Night into Day,
And He merges Day into Night ;
And He has full knowledge
Of the secrets of (all) hearts.

7. Believe in God
And His Apostle,
And spend (in charity)
Out of the (substance)
Whereof He has made you<sup>5281</sup>
Heirs. For, those of you
Who believe and spend
(In charity),—for them
Is a great Reward.

8. What cause have ye<sup>5282</sup>
Why ye should not believe
In God?—And the Apostle
Invites you to believe

وَمَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
وَمَا يَخْرُجُ فِيهَا وَهُوَ مَعَكُمْ أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ

٥ اللَّهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ
تَرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ

٦ يُوجِبُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُوجِبُ النَّهَارَ فِي
الَّيْلِ وَهُوَ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

٧ ءَامِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَأَنْفِقُوا مِمَّا
جَعَلَكُمْ مُسْتَخْلَفِينَ فِيهِ فَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ
وَأَنْفَقُوا لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ

٨ وَمَا لَكُمْ لَا تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ
يَدْعُوكُمْ لِيُؤْمِنُوا

5279. He is everywhere. No Space or Time is without Him : yet He is independent of Space or Time. With reference to our own psychology, He is wherever we are, and He sees all that we do.

5280. See lvii. 2 above, where this phrase referred to God's complete authority over the whole of the external universe : the same phrase now refers to His complete authority over the abstract world—of thoughts and affairs. Every affair must finally go back to Him, whether it comes out here from Darkness into Light, or hides itself from Light into Darkness. God's knowledge penetrates into the inmost recesses of all Hearts.

5281. Whenever power or wealth or influence or any good thing is transferred from one person or group of persons to another, it involves added responsibilities to the persons receiving these advantages. They must be the more zealous in real charity and all good works, for that is a part of the evidence which they give of their faith and gratitude. And, besides, their good deeds, under the general law in the spiritual world, carry their own reward.

5282. "What cause have ye why ye should not...?" A figure of speech implying a far wider meaning than the words express. It is equivalent to saying : "There is every reason why ye should believe in God", etc. The same construction applies to verse 10 below. .

Sūra LVII.

Hadid, or Iron.<sup>5274</sup>*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Whatever is in
The heavens and on earth,—
Let it declare
The Praises and Glory of God :<sup>5275</sup>
For He is the Exalted
In Might, the Wise.

2. To Him belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth :
It is He Who gives
Life and Death ; and He
Has Power over all things.

3. He is the First
And the Last,
The Evident
And the Immanent :<sup>5276</sup>
And He has full knowledge
Of all things.

4. He it is Who created
The heavens and the earth
In six Days,<sup>5277</sup> and is moreover Firmly established on the Throne
(Of authority).<sup>5278</sup> He knows
What enters within the earth

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① سَبِّحَ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

② لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يُحْيِي
وَيُمِيتُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

③ هُوَ الْأَوَّلُ وَالْآخِرُ وَالظَّاهِرُ وَالْبَاطِنُ وَهُوَ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

④ هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي
سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى عَلَى الْعَرْشِ
يَعْلَمُ مَا يَلِغُ فِي الْأَرْضِ

5274. Iron is the type and emblem of strength and reliability, on which depend the real virtues expounded in this Sūra, such as real humility, whole-heartedness, and charity, as opposed to Monasticism, Loadiceanism, and Niggardliness. See lvii 25 below.

5275. A connecting thought between this and the last Sūra, of which see verse 96. See also paragraph 3 of the Introduction to S. liii.

5276 Bā'in : that which is within, as opposed to that which is evident in things outside. God has both these qualities. His Signs are everywhere evident in the whole universe. But He is also immanent within us and in the soul of all good things. The pair of seemingly opposite qualities, First and Last, Evident and Immanent, Power and Wisdom, Giving of Life and Death, etc., are referred to here, to point the contrast with our human frailty, in which monasticism may not be the same as humility, spending may not be the same as charity, and so on.

5277. "In six Days" : see xli, 9-12, and notes ; also more briefly, n. 1031 to vii. 54.

5278. Cf. x. 3, and n. 1386. It is not that God completed His Creation in six days and rested on the seventh day, or rests now. Certain external forms of the universe were by God's Command completed in six periods of evolution. But His creative process still goes on, and He is still, and will always be, on His Throne of authority, knowing all and guiding all affairs.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LVII (Ḥadīd).

We have now studied the contents of nearly nine-tenths of the Qur-ān. We have found that the arrangement of the Sūras in the present Text is not haphazard, but that they follow a distinct logical order more helpful for study than the chronological order. The comprehensive scheme of building up the new Ummat or Brotherhood and its spiritual implications is now complete. The remaining tenth of the Qur-ān may be roughly considered in two parts. The first contains ten Sūras (S. lvii. to S. lxi.), all revealed in Medina, and each dealing with some special point which needs emphasis in the social life of the Ummat. The second (S. lxii. to cxiv.) contains short Meccan lyrics, each dealing with some aspect of spiritual life, expressed in language of great mystic beauty.

The present Medina Sūra is chiefly concerned with spiritual humility and the avoidance of arrogance, and a warning that retirement from the world may not be the best way of seeking the good pleasure of God. Its probable date is after the Conquest of Mecca, A.H. 8.

Summary.—God's Power and Knowledge extend to all things : follow His Light direct, without doubt or fear or half-heartedness, but with humility, generous charity, and faith, and not in a life of isolation from the world. (lvii 1-29, and C. 236.)

C. 236.—God is all-in-all : follow His Law
(lvii. 1-29.) And His Light, and obey His Apostle, who invites
You to deeds of goodness and charity.
Strive and spend your resources and yourselves
In the Cause of God : He will grant you a Light
To go before you and guide you to your Eternal
Goal, where no Evil can enter. When success
Crowns your efforts, even then is the time
To humble yourselves before God, in sincere
Witness to His Love. The pleasures here below
Are deceptive : be foremost in seeking God
And His Good Pleasure : trust Him : be not
Like those who mistook mere renunciation
Of the world for God's service. God's Grace
Is for all : be your love and your service for all.

90. And if he be
Of the Companions of
The Right Hand,<sup>5269</sup>

④ وَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ

91. (For him is the salutation),
"Peace be unto thee",<sup>5270</sup>
From the Companions
Of the Right Hand.

⑤ فَسَلَامٌ لَكَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ

92. And if he be
Of those who treat
(Truth) as Falsehood,<sup>5271</sup>
Who go wrong,

⑥ وَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُكَذِّبِينَ
الضَّالِّينَ

93. For him is Entertainment
With Boiling Water,

⑦ فَذُوقْ مِنْ حَمِيمٍ

94. And burning in Hell-Fire.

⑧ وَنَضِيلَةٍ جَهِيمٍ

95. Verily, this is
The Very Truth
And Certainty.<sup>5272</sup>

⑨ إِنَّ هَذَا لَحَقُّ الْيَقِينِ

96. So celebrate with praises<sup>5273</sup>
The name of thy Lord,
The Supreme.

⑩ فَسَبِّحْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الْعَظِيمِ

5269. See above, lvi. 27-38 and notes.

5270. In lvi. 26 above the salutation of "Peace, Peace!" is addressed to those Nearest to God. Here we learn that it is also addressed to the Companions of the Right Hand. Both are in Gardens of Bliss: only the former have a higher Dignity than the latter.

5271. Cf. Above, lvi. 51-55.

5272. "The assurance of the Hereafter" is one of the strongest features of Faith. For without it the apparent inequalities and injustices of this Life cannot be satisfactorily explained.

5273. Cf. lvi. 74 above. That was the conclusion of the argument about the Future from the examples of God's goodness in nature. Now we have the conclusion of the same argument from God's revelation through His inspired Messengers.

83. Then why do ye not <sup>5263</sup>
(Intervene) when (the soul
Of the dying man)
Reaches the throat —

﴿٨٣﴾ فَلَوْلَا إِذَا بَلَغَ الْهُنُقُومَ

84. And ye the while
(Sit) looking on, — <sup>5264</sup>

﴿٨٤﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ حِينِيذٍ تَنْظُرُونَ

85. But We are nearer
To him than ye,
And yet see not, —

﴿٨٥﴾ وَنَحْنُ أَقْرَبُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْكُمْ وَلَكِنْ لَا تُبْصِرُونَ

86. Then why do ye not, — <sup>5265</sup>
If you are exempt
From (future) account, —

﴿٨٦﴾ فَلَوْلَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ عَزِيزًا مُبِينًا

87. Call back the soul, <sup>5266</sup>
If ye are true
(In your claim of Independence) ?

﴿٨٧﴾ تَرْجِعُونَهَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

88. ~~Thus~~ Thus, then, if he
Be of those Nearest to God, <sup>5267</sup>

﴿٨٨﴾ فَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ

89. (There is for him) Rest
And Satisfaction, <sup>5268</sup> and
A Garden of Delights.

﴿٨٩﴾ فَرَوْحٌ وَرَيْحَانٌ وَجَنَّتُ نَعِيمٍ

5263. There is a hiatus after "why do ye not ?"—and two parenthetical clauses,—after which the clause "why do ye not ?" is resumed again in verse 86 below, with its complement in verse 87. It is permissible to the translator to add some such word as "intervene" here, to make the translation run smoothly.

5264. The dying man's friends, relatives, and companions may be sitting round him and quite close to him in his last moments, but God is nearer still at all times, for He is nearer than the man's own jugular vein (l. 16), and one of God's own titles is "Ever Near" (xxxiv. 50).

5265. These words resume the sentence begun at verse 83 above and interrupted by the two parenthetical clauses in verses 84 and 85. See n. 5263 above.

5266. The sentence may now be briefly paraphrased. 'If you disbelieve in Revelation and a future Judgment, and claim to do what you like and be independent of God, how is it you cannot call back a dying man's soul to his body when all of you congregate round him at his death-bed? But you are not independent of Judgment. There is a Day of Account, when you will have to be judged by your deeds in this life.'

5267. See above, lvi. 11-26 and notes.

5268. Raihan : sweet-smelling plants, as in lv. 12. Here used as symbolical of complete Satisfaction and Delight.

SECTION 3.

75. Furthermore I call
To witness the setting<sup>5258</sup>
Of the Stars,—

٥٦ • فَلَا أُقْسِمُ بِمَوْقِعِ الْكُورِ

76. And that is indeed
A mighty adjuration<sup>5259</sup>
If ye but knew,—

٥٧ • فَإِنَّهُ لَقَسَمٌ لِّتُتَعْلَمَ عَظِيمٌ

77. That this is indeed
A Qur-ān most honourable,<sup>5260</sup>

٥٨ • إِنَّهُ لَقُرْآنٌ كَرِيمٌ

78. In a Book well-guarded,

٥٩ • فِي كِتَابٍ مَّكُونٍ

79. Which none shall touch
But those who are clean :

٦٠ • لَا يَمَسُّهُ إِلَّا الْمُطَهَّرُونَ

80. A Revelation from the Lord
Of the Worlds.

٦١ • نَزِيلٌ مِّن رَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

81. Is it such a Message
That ye would hold<sup>5261</sup>
In light esteem ?

٦٢ • أَفَبِهَذَا الْحَدِيثِ أَنْتُمْ مُدْهِنُونَ

82. And have ye made it<sup>5262</sup>
Your livelihood that ye
Should declare it false ?

٦٣ • وَتَجْعَلُونَ رِزْقَكُمْ أَنَّكُمْ تُكَذِّبُونَ

5259. The glory of the firmament as it exists, and the wonder of its passing away, are both evidence, to the discerning mind, of the Future which God has prepared, but this evidence can only be effective if men ' but knew ', i.e. turned their earnest attention to it.

5260. Your attention is drawn to the momentous issues of the Future by the Qur-ān. It is a Revelation described by four characteristics. (1) It is most honourable, karīm, which implies, besides the fact that it is worthy of receiving honour, that it confers great favours on those who receive it. (2) It is well-guarded, maknūn ; precious in itself, and well-preserved in its purity ; see n. 5234 to lvi. 23 ; see also xv. 9, and n. 1944. (3) None but the clean shall touch it,—clean in body, mind, thought, intention, and soul ; only such can achieve real contact with its full meaning. (4) It is a Revelation from the Lord of the Worlds, and therefore universal for all.

5261. The Message being such as is described in the last note, how can any one ignore it or treat it with contempt or refuse to allow it to improve his life ?

5262. The worst indictment of an enemy of Revelation would be that he should make Falsehood a source of filthy lucre for himself, or that he should let his precious life be corrupted by such unholy occupation.

Salt (and unpalatable): <sup>5253</sup>
Then why do ye not Give thanks?

أَجَابًا فَلَوْلَا تَشْكُرُونَ

71. See ye the Fire
Which ye kindle?

٧١ أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ النَّارَ الَّتِي تُورُونَ

72. Is it ye who grow
The tree which feeds <sup>5254</sup>
The fire, or do We Grow it?

٧٢ أَمْ أَنْتُمْ أَنْشَأْتُمْ شَجَرَتَهَا أَمْ نَحْنُ
الْمُشْرِئُونَ

73. We have made it
A memorial (of Our handiwork), <sup>5255</sup>
And an article of comfort
And convenience for
The denizens of deserts. <sup>5256</sup>

٧٣ نَحْنُ جَعَلْنَاهَا تَذْكِرَةً وَمَتَاعًا لِلْقَوَّيْنِ

74. Then celebrate with praises <sup>5257</sup>
The name of thy Lord,
The Supreme!

٧٤ فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ الْعَظِيمِ

5253. The mystery of the two streams of water, one sweet and the other salt, constantly mingling, and yet always separate, is referred to more than once. The never-ending circuit is established by streams and rivers mingling with the ocean, the ocean sending forth mists and steam through a process of evaporation which forms clouds, and the clouds by condensation pouring forth rain to feed the streams and rivers again: see notes 3111-2 to xxv, 53, and n. 5185 to lv, 19, and the further references given there.

5254. The relation of Fire to Trees is intimate. In nearly all the fire that we burn, the fuel is derived from the wood of trees. Even mineral coal is nothing but the wood of prehistoric forests petrified under the earth through geological ages. Fire produced out of green trees is referred to in xxvi, 80; and n. 4026 there gives instances.

5255. Fire is a fit memorial of God's handiwork in nature. It is also an emblem of man's earliest civilisation. It can stand as a symbol of physical comfort and convenience to man, of the source of spiritual light, and also of the warning to Evil about its destruction. In the same way the sower's seed has a symbolical meaning in the preaching of the Message: see xviii, 29, and n. 4917; and the Rain and the Streams of Water have a symbolical meaning: see notes 2404-5 to xviii, 60.

5256. Cf. xx, 10, and n. 2541, where the mystic meaning of the Fire which Moses saw in the desert is explained. Even ordinarily, a fire in a desert is a sign of human habitation; by following it you may get human society and human comfort. A fire, or light, or beacon in many places directs a traveller on the way. Lighthouses at sea and beacons in modern aerodromes serve the same purpose for mariners and airmen.

Another parable about fire will be found in ii, 17-18, and n. 38.

5257. Seeing all these Signs in nature and their symbolical meaning in the spiritual world, man must turn to God and do His Will,

61. From changing your Forms
And creating you (again)
In (Forms) that ye know not.

٥٦ عَلَّمَ أَنْ يُبْدِلَ أَمْثَلَكُمْ وَتُنشِئَكُمْ فِي
مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ

62. And ye certainly know already
The first form of creation:
Why then do ye not
Celebrate His praises ?

٥٧ وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمُ النَّشْأَةَ الْأُولَىٰ فَلَوْلَا
تَذَكَّرُونَ

63. See ye the seed that <sup>5251</sup>
Ye sow in the ground ?

٥٨ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَحْرُثُونَ

64. Is it ye that cause it
To grow, or are We
The Cause ?

٥٩ أَمْ أَنْتُمْ مُزْرِعُونَ أَمْ نَحْنُ الْمُزْرِعُونَ

65. Were it Our Will,
We could crumble it
To dry powder, and ye would
Be left in wonderment,

٦٠ لَوْ نَشَاءُ جَعَلْنَاهُ حُطَامًا فَظَلْتُمْ
تَفَكَّهُونَ

66. (Saying), " We are indeed
Left with debts (for nothing) : <sup>5252</sup>

٦١ إِنَّا لَغُرْمُونَ

67. " Indeed are we shut out
(Of the fruits of our labour) "

٦٢ بَلْ نَحْنُ مَحْرُومُونَ

68. See ye the water
Which ye drink ?

٦٣ أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ الْمَاءَ الَّذِي تَشْرَبُونَ

69. Do ye bring it Down
(In rain) from the Cloud
Or do We ?

٦٤ وَأَنْتُمْ أَنْزَلْتُمُوهُ مِنَ الْمُزْنِ أَمْ نَحْنُ
الْمُنزِلُونَ

70. Were it Our Will,
We could make it

٦٥ لَوْ نَشَاءُ جَعَلْنَاهُ

5251. Having appealed to our own nature within us, He appeals now to the external nature around us, which should be evidence to us (1) of His loving care for us, and (2) of its being due to causes other than those which we produce and control. Three examples are given: (1) the seed which we sow in the soil; it is God's processes in nature, which make it grow; (2) the water which we drink; it is God's processes in nature, that send it down from the clouds as rain, and distribute it through springs and rivers; (3) the fire which we strike; it is again a proof of God's Plan and Wisdom in nature.

5252. The cultivator contracts debts for seed and gives labour for ploughing, sowing, watering, and weeding, in the hope of reaping a harvest. Should he not give thanks to God when his harvest is in ?

55. "Indeed ye shall drink
Like diseased camels
Raging with thirst!" <sup>5248</sup>

﴿فَشَرِبُونَ شُرْبَ الْهَمِيمِ﴾

56. Such will be their entertainment
On the Day of Requitall!

﴿هَذَا نُزْلُهُمْ يَوْمَ الزَّيْنِ﴾

C. 235.—Learn ye then to witness the Truth in your lives.
(lvi 57-96.) Your own creation and growth, the seeds
That ye sow in the ground, the Circuit of Water
Through streams, rivers, and seas, to vapour,
Clouds, and rain that feeds the streams,
The Fire that stands as an emblem of Life
And Light,—all point to your Lord Supreme.
His Revelation conveys the same Message
To the pure in heart. Will ye receive it
And live, assured of the truth of the Hereafter?
Glory and Praise to God the Beneficent,
Supreme in Justice, Mercy, and Truth!

57. It is We Who have Created you: why will ye <sup>5249</sup>
Not witness the Truth?

﴿فَنَحْنُ خَلَقَكُمْ فَلَوْلَا تَصْدَقُونَ﴾

58. Do ye then see?—
The (human Seed) that
Ye throw out,—

﴿أَفَرَأَيْتُمَا تَمْنُونِ﴾

59. Is it ye who create it,
Or are We the Creators?

﴿وَأَنْتُمْ تَخْلُقُونَهُ وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَأَخْلُقُونَ﴾

60. We have decreed Death
To be your common lot, <sup>5250</sup>
And We are not
To be frustrated

﴿نَحْنُ قَدَرْنَا بَيْنَكُمْ الْمَوْتَ وَمَا نَحْنُ
بِمُسْوَاقِينَ﴾

5248. A terrible picture of Misery in contrast to the Companionship of the Good, the True, and the Beautiful, on Thrones of Dignity, for the Companions of the Right Hand, in verses 34-38 above.

5249. Man is apt to forget his Creator, and even the fact that he, man, is a created being. The seed of his body, out of which his physical life starts, is not created by man, but by God in the process of the unfoldment of the world. Why will not man recognise and bear witness to this fact by a life of obedience to God's Law?

5250. Literally, 'to be in the midst of you'. Just as God has created this life that we see, so He has decreed that Death should be the common lot of all of us. Surely, if He can thus give life and death, as we see it, why should we refuse to believe that He can give us other Forms (in the Platonic sense) when this life is over? The Future Life, though indicated by what we know now, is to be on a wholly different plane.

In wealth (and luxury),<sup>5244</sup>

46. And persisted obstinately
In wickedness supreme!

47. And they used to say,
"What! when we die
And become dust and bones,<sup>5245</sup>
Shall we then indeed
Be raised up again?—

48. "(We) and our fathers of old?"

49. Say: "Yea, those of old
And those of later times,

50. "All will certainly be
Gathered together for the meeting
Appointed for a Day
Well-known."<sup>5246</sup>

51. "Then will ye truly,—
O ye that go wrong,
And treat (Truth) as Falsehood!—

52. "Ye will surely taste
Of the Tree of Zaqqûm."<sup>5247</sup>

53. "Then will ye fill
Your insides therewith,

54. "And drink Boiling Water
On top of it:

مُتْرَفِينَ

٤٦ وَكَانُوا يُصِرُّونَ عَلَى الْحِنثِ الْعَظِيمِ

٤٧ وَكَانُوا يَقُولُونَ أَإِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا
رُكَّابًا وَعِظْمًا أَتِنَا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ

٤٨ أَوْ آبَائُنَا الْأَوَّلُونَ

٤٩ قُلْ إِنَّ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَالْآخِرِينَ

٥٠ لَجُمْعُونَ إِلَىٰ مِيقَاتٍ يَوْمٍ مَّعْلُومٍ

٥١ تِلْكَ أَيُّهَا الضَّالُّونَ الْكَذِبُونَ

٥٢ لَا تَكُلُونَ مِنْ شَجَرٍ مِنْ زَقْقُمٍ

٥٣ فَتَالِئِنْ مِنْهَا الْبُطُونَ

٥٤ فَشَرِبُونَ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْحَمِيمِ

5244. Cf. xxxiv. 34, and xliii. 23. We must read verses 45-46 together. They had wealth and the good things of life, but they used them in self-indulgence and shameless crime, and now they are in humiliation.

5245. Their want of belief and ridicule of God's Message contrasts with the stern reality which they see around them now.

5246. In xxvi. 38 (see n. 3159) the phrase "a day well-known" is used for a solemn day of festival, when the multitude of people gather together. The Day of Judgment is such a day in the supreme sense of the word.

5247. This is the Cursed Tree mentioned in xvii. 60, where see n. 2250. Cf. also xxxvii. 62, n. 4072; and xliv. 43-46 and n. 4722.

36. And made them
Virgin-pure (and undefiled),—

⑦ فَجَعَلْنَهُنَّ أَبْكَارًا

37. Beloved (by nature),
Equal in age,—

⑧ عُرُوبًا أُنْبَا

38. For the Companions
Of the Right Hand.

⑨ لِأَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ

SECTION 2.

39. ~~¶~~ (goodly) number
From those of old,<sup>5241</sup>

⑩ ثَلَاثَةٌ مِّنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ

40. And a (goodly) number
From those of later times.

⑪ وَثَلَاثَةٌ مِّنَ الْآخِرِينَ

41. ~~¶~~ The Companions of
The Left Hand,—
What will be
The Companions of
The Left Hand?

⑫ وَأَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ مَا أَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ

42. (They will be) in the midst
Of a fierce Blast of Fire<sup>5242</sup>
And in Boiling Water,

⑬ فِي سُمُومٍ وَجَمِيمٍ

43. And in the shades
Of Black Smoke;<sup>5243</sup>

⑭ وَظِلٍّ مِّنْ يَّحْمُومٍ

44. Nothing (will there be)
To refresh, nor to please:

⑮ لَا بَارِدٍ وَلَا كَرِيمٍ

45. For that they were wont
To be indulged, before that,

⑯ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ

5241. This class—the righteous—will be a large company in Heaven, belonging to all the ages of the world. Cf. n. 5228 to lvi. 13 above. Such is the unbounded Bounty of God. These verses 39-40 should really be in the last Section.

5242. Notice the parallelism in the contrast between those in Bliss and those in Misery. The allegory in each case pursues the idea of contrast, and the allegories about Misery lose nothing by their terse brevity. The fierce Blast of Fire and the Boiling Water are in contrast to the happy Lote-tree and the flowers and fruits in verses 28-29 above.

5243. Even the Shades get a different quality in the Abode of Misery: shades of black smoke in contrast to the cool and refreshing long-extended shades of trees by brooks in verses 30-31 above.

26. Only the saying,<sup>5236</sup>
"Peace! Peace".

٢٦ إِلَّا قِيلَ سَلَامًا سَلَامًا

27. The Companions of
The Right Hand, —
What will be
The Companions of
The Right Hand?

٢٧ وَأَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ مَا أَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ

28. (They will be) among<sup>5237</sup>
Lote-trees without thorns,

٢٨ فِي سِدْرٍ مَخْضُودٍ

29. Among Talḥ trees<sup>5238</sup>
With flowers (or fruits)
Piled one above another, —

٢٩ وَطَلْحٍ مَّنْضُودٍ

30. In shade long-extended,

٣٠ وَظِلٍّ مَّمْدُودٍ

31. By water flowing constantly,

٣١ وَمَاءٍ مَّسْكُوبٍ

32. And fruit in abundance,

٣٢ وَفَلَكَهَةٍ كَثِيرَةٍ

33. Whose season is not limited,
Nor (supply) forbidden,<sup>5239</sup>

٣٣ لَا مَقْطُوعَةٍ وَلَا مَمْنُوعَةٍ

34. And on Thrones (of Dignity),
Raised high.

٣٤ وَفُرشٍ مَّرْفُوعَةٍ

35. We have created
(their Companions)<sup>5240</sup>
(Of special creation.

٣٥ إِنَّا أَنشَأْنَاهُنَّ إِنشَاءً

5236 Qil is best translated "saying", rather than "word". For the saying is an act, a thought, a fact, which may be embodied in a word, but which goes far beyond the word. The "Peace of God" is an atmosphere which sums up Heaven even better than "Bliss".

5237. Lote trees: see xxxiv 10 n. 3814. The thornless lote-tree is a symbol of bliss and of high heaven: lin 14.

5238 Talḥ: some understand by this the plantain or banana tree, of which the fruit is borne in bunches, one tier above another; but the banana tree does not grow in Arabia and its ordinary Arabic name is Mauz; perhaps it is better to understand a special kind of Acacia tree, which flowers profusely, the flowers appearing in tiers one above another.

5239 As it is not like earthly fruit, its season is not limited, nor is there any prohibition by law or custom or circumstance as to when or how it is to be consumed. The spiritual Fruit is free, unlimited, and inexhaustible.

5240. The pronoun in Arabic is in the feminine gender, but lest grosser ideas of sex should intrude, it is made clear that these Companions for heavenly society will be of special creation,—of virginal purity, grace, and beauty, inspiring and inspired by love, with the question of time and age eliminated. Thus every person among the Righteous will have the Bliss of Heaven and the Peace of God.

17. Round about them will (serve)<sup>5231</sup>
Youths of perpetual (freshness),

18. With goblets, (shining) beakers,
And cups (filled) out of
Clear-flowing fountains :

19. No after-ache will they Receive therefrom, nor will they
Suffer intoxication :<sup>5232</sup>

20. And with fruits,
Any that they may select ;

21. And the flesh of fowls,
Any that they may desire.

22. And (there will be) Companions
With beautiful, big,
And lustrous eyes,—<sup>5233</sup>

23. Like unto Pearls<sup>5234</sup>
Well-guarded.

24. A Reward for the Deeds
Of their past (Life).

25. No frivolity will they<sup>5235</sup>
Hear therein, nor any
Taint of ill,—

١٧ يَطُوفُ عَلَيْهِمْ وِلْدَانٌ مُّخَلَّدُونَ

١٨ بِأَكْوَابٍ وَأَبَارِيقَ وَكَأْسٍ مِنْ مَّعِينٍ

١٩ لَا يَصَدَّعُونَ عَنْهَا وَلَا يُنْزِفُونَ

٢٠ وَفَلَاحَةٍ تَمَاتُخَيَّرُونَ

٢١ وَلَحْمِ طَيْرٍ مِمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ

٢٢ وَحُورٌ عِينٌ

٢٣ كَأَمْثَلِ الذُّوْلِيِّ الْمَكْنُونِ

٢٤ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

٢٥ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا وَلَا تَأْثِيمًا

5231. Cf. lii. 24. and n. 5058. The youth and freshness with which the attendants will serve is a symbol of true service such as we may expect in the spiritual world. That freshness will be perpetual, and not subject to any moods, or chances, or changes.

5232. The Feast of Reason and the Flow of Soul are typified by all that is best in the feasts in this imperfect world, but there will be none of the disadvantages incident to such feasts in this world, such as satiety, aches, excess, a sense of exhaustion, or loss of senses, etc. Cf. xxxvii. 47, and n. 4063. A goblet is a bowl without handles; a beaker has a "lip" and a stem; "cup" is a general term.

5233. Cf. xlv. 54, and n. 4729. The companionship of Beauty and Grace is one of the highest pleasures of life. In this bodily life it takes bodily form. In the higher life it takes a higher form suitable to the spiritual world.

5234. Cf. lii. 24, where this description is applied to the youths who serve. See also n. 5058 there. In lvi. 78 below the adjective maknūn is applied to the Qur-ān, "the well guarded Book".

5235. Cf. lii. 23. Apart from physical ills worldly feasts or delights are apt to suffer from vain or frivolous discourse, idle boasting, foolish flattery, or phrases pointed with secret venom or moral mischief. The negation of these from spiritual Bliss follows as a matter of course, but it is specially insisted on to guard against the perversities of human nature, which likes to read ill into the best that can be put in words.

| 14. And a few from thoseOf later times.                                                        | ⑭ وَقَلِيلٌ مِنَ الْآخِرِينَ            |

5226. "Foremost (in Faith)": there are two meanings, and both are implied. (1) Those who have reached the highest degree in spiritual understanding, such as the great prophets and teachers of mankind, will also take precedence in the Hereafter. (2) Those who are the first in time—the quickest and readiest—to accept God's Message—will have the first place in the Kingdom of Heaven. Verses 8, 9 and 10 mention the three main categories or classifications after Judgment. In the subsequent verses their happiness or misery are symbolised. This category, Foremost in Faith, is nearest to God.

5227. See n. 5223 above. 'Nearness to God is the test of the highest Bliss. The symbols that follow are mere reminiscences from our physical life.

5228. Of great Prophets and Teachers there were many before the time of the holy Prophet Muhammad. As he was the last of the Prophets, he and the great Teachers under his Dispensation will be comparatively fewer in number, but their teaching is the sum and flower of all mankind's spiritual experience.

5229. The costly Thrones will typify the high degree of their spiritual eminence.

5230. But they will not be separate each in his own corner. They will face each other. For they are all one, and their mutual society will be part of their Bliss.

5222. The Event Inevitable is the Hour of Judgment. People may doubt now whether it will come. But when it comes, as it will come, suddenly upon them, it will come with such tremendous reality that it will be burnt deep into the experience of every soul.<sup>1</sup> No one can then be deceived or entertain false notions about it.

5223. There will be a sorting out of Good and Evil. Or rather, (verse 7 below), there will be three main classes. Among the Good there will be the specially exalted class, those nearest to God (muqarrabūn, lvi. 11-26), and the righteous people generally, called the Companions of the Right Hand (Ashāb ul-maimannā, lvi. 27-40). And there will be those in agony, the Companions of the Left Hand (Ashāb ul-mash-ammā, lvi. 41-56). Many who were high and mighty in this life will be brought low for their sins, and many who were lowly but virtuous will be exalted to various ranks and degrees. The old landmarks will be lost in the inner world, as they will be in the outer world.

5224. The old physical world will disappear in the New Creation.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LVI (Wāqī'a).

This is the seventh and last Sūra of the series devoted to Revelation and the Hereafter, as explained in the Introduction to S. I.

It belongs to the early Meccan period, with the possible exception of one or two verses.

The theme is the certainty of the Day of Judgment and its adjustment of true Values (lvi. 1-56); God's Power, Goodness and Glory (lvi. 57-74); and the truth of Revelation (lvi. 75-96).

Summary.—When the Day of Judgment comes, the world as we know it will be shaken to its foundations, and men shall be sorted out into three sorts: Those nearest to God, in exalted Bliss; the Companions of the Right Hand, in Bliss; and the Companions of the Left Hand, in Misery (lvi. 1-56, and C. 234).

Surely the Power and Goodness of God, of which Revelation is a Sign, should lead man to accept the Message and glorify Him (lvi. 57-96, and C. 235).

C. 234.—The Event Inevitable is the Day
 (lvi. 1-56) Of Judgment: the world as we know it
 Will be shaken to its depths, and its place
 Will be taken by a world made new,
 Where Good will be sorted out from Evil.
 In Dignity and Bliss will the Good find Fulfilment:
 Both those Nearest to the Throne of God,
 And those who earned, by faith and good life,
 The title, Companions of the Right Hand.
 Who can tell of the Misery in which
 The Companions of the Left Hand will live?
 They will be as it were in a fierce blast
 Of Fire; their drink but boiling water;
 Their shade that of Black Smoke that chokes
 Their lungs;—ever burning with hunger and thirst,
 And never satisfied: fit emblems
 Of the Life in Death to which Evil leads.

73. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?—

74. Whom no man or Jinn
Before them has touched; —

5. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?—

76. Reclining on green Cushions<sup>5220</sup>
And rich Carpets of beauty.

77. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

78. Blessed be the name
Of thy Lord,
Full of Majesty,
Bounty and Honour.<sup>5221</sup>

٧٣ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٧٤ لَمْ يَطْمِثْهُنَّ إِنْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌ

٥ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٧٦ مُتَكِينِينَ عَلَى رَفْرَفٍ خُضِرَ وَعَبَقَرِي

حِسَانِ

٧٧ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٧٨ تَبَارَكَ اسْمُ رَبِّكَ ذِي الْجَلَالِ

وَالْإِكْرَامِ

5220. Cf. the parallel words for the other two Gardens, in lv. 54 above, which suggest perhaps a higher dignity.

Rafraf is usually translated by Cushions or Pillows, and I have followed this meaning in view of the word "reclining". But another interpretation is "Meadows", in view of the adjective "green"—'abqarī: carpets richly figured and dyed, and skilfully worked.

5221. Cf. lv. 27 and n. 5190. This minor echo completes the symmetry of the two leading ideas of this Sūra,—the Bounty and Majesty of God, and the Duty of man to make himself worthy of nearness to God.

63. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny? —

﴿٦٣﴾ فَيَأْتِي آلَآءُ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

64. Dark-green in colour <sup>5214</sup>
(From plentiful watering).

﴿٦٤﴾ مِّدْهَامَتَانِ

65. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

﴿٦٥﴾ فَيَأْتِي آلَآءُ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

66. In them (each) will be
Two Springs pouring forth water <sup>5215</sup>
In continuous abundance:

﴿٦٦﴾ فِيهِمَا عَيْنَانِ تَصَّاحَتَانِ

67. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

﴿٦٧﴾ فَيَأْتِي آلَآءُ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

68. In them will be Fruits,
And dates and pomegranates: <sup>5216</sup>

﴿٦٨﴾ فِيهِمَا فَاكِهَةٌ وَنَخْلٌ وَرُمَّانٌ

69. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

﴿٦٩﴾ فَيَأْتِي آلَآءُ رَبِّكَانُكَذِّبَانِ

70. In them will be Fair (Companions), good, beautiful; — <sup>5217</sup>

﴿٧٠﴾ فِيهِنَّ خَيْرَاتٌ حِسَانٌ

71. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny? —

﴿٧١﴾ فَيَأْتِي آلَآءُ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

72. Companions restrained (as to <sup>5218</sup>
Their glances), in (goodly) pavilions; — <sup>5219</sup>

﴿٧٢﴾ حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْبُحَيْرِ

5214. "Dark-green in colour": these Gardens will also be fruitful and flourishing, and watered plentifully; but their aspect and characteristics will be different, corresponding to the subjective differences in the ideas of Bliss among those who would respectively enjoy the two sets of Gardens.

5215. In comparison with the Springs in the other two Gardens, described in lv. 50 above, these Springs would seem to irrigate crops of vegetables and fruits requiring a constant supply of abundant water.

5216. See last note. Cf. also with lv. 52 above, where "fruits of every kind" are mentioned.

5217. See n 5209 above. Goodness and Beauty are specially feminine attributes.

5218. Maqṣūrāt here is the passive participle of the same verb as the active participle Qāṣirāt in lv. 56, xxxvii. 48 and xxxviii 52. As I have translated Qāṣirāt by the phrase "restraining (their glances)", I think I am right in translating the passive Maqṣūrāt by "restrained (as to their glances)". This is the only place in the Qur-ān where the passive form occurs.

5219. The Pavilions seem to add dignity to their status. In the other Gardens (lv. 58), the description "like rubies and corals" is perhaps an indication of higher dignity.

54. They will recline on Carpets,
Whose inner linings will be
Of rich brocade: the Fruit
Of the Gardens will be
Near (and easy of reach).<sup>5208</sup>

٥٤ مُتَكِينِينَ عَلَىٰ فُرُشٍ بَطَآئِنُهَا مِنْ
إِسْتَبْرَقٍ وَجَنَى الْجَنَّتَيْنِ دَانٍ

55. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٥٥ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرَاقَ كَمَا تَكْذِبَانِ

56. In them will be (Maidens),<sup>5209</sup>
Chaste, restraining their glances,<sup>5210</sup>
Whom no man or Jinn
Before them has touched;—

٥٦ فِيهِنَّ قَصِيرَاتُ الظُّفْرِ لَمْ يَطْمَسْهُنَّ إِنْسٌ
قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌ

57. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?—

٥٧ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرَاقَ نَكْذِبَانِ

58. Like unto rubies and coral,<sup>5211</sup>

٥٨ كَأَنَّهُنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ

59. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٥٩ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرَاقَ تَكْذِبَانِ

60. Is there any Reward
For Good—other than Good?<sup>5212</sup>

٦٠ هَلْ جَزَاءُ الْإِحْسَنِ إِلَّا الْإِحْسَانُ

61. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٦١ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرَاقَ تَكْذِبَانِ

62. And besides these two,
There are two other Gardens,—<sup>5213</sup>

٦٢ وَمِنْ دُونِهِمَا جَنَّاتَانِ

5208. The toil and fatigue of this life will be over: Cf. xxxv. 35.

5209. The symbolic meaning of female Companionship, in terms of grace, purity, innocence and beauty, is explained in para. 12 of Appendix XII. See also notes 4728-29 to xlv. 54.

5210. Cf. xxxvii. 48 and n. 4064. Their purity is the feature hereby chiefly symbolised.

5211. Delicate pink, with reference to their complexions and their beauty of form. The gems also indicate their worth and dignity.

5212. This is the summing up of all the symbolism used to express the Fruit of Goodness or Good. The symbolism must necessarily resort to comparative terms, to subjective ideas of Bliss. But the fullest expression can only be given in abstract terms: "Is there any reward for Good—other than Good?" Can anything express it better?

5213. See n. 5205 above.

45. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

SECTION 3.

46. But for such as fear
The time when they will Stand before (the Judgment Seat <sup>5204</sup>
Of) their Lord,
There will be two Gardens—<sup>5205</sup>

47. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?—

48. Containing all kinds
(Of trees and delights);—

49. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?—

50. In them (each) will be
Two Springs flowing (free); <sup>5206</sup>

51. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?—

52. In them will be Fruits
Of every kind, two and two. <sup>5207</sup>

53. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٤٥ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٤٦ وَلَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهِ، جَنَّاتٍ

٤٧ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٤٨ ذَوَاتَا أَفْنَانٍ

٤٩ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٥٠ فِيهِمَا عَيْنَانِ تَجْرِيَانِ

٥١ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٥٢ فِيهِمَا مِنْ كُلِّ فَاكِهَةٍ زَوْجَانِ

٥٣ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

5204. The reference to the Punishment of Sin having been dismissed in a few short lines, we now come to a description of the state of the Blessed in a number of spacious allegories. Their general nature has already been discussed in Appendix XII at the end of the last Sūra, where see para. 9 for the significance of the allegory of the Garden.

5205. Here two Gardens are mentioned, and indeed four, counting the other two mentioned in lv. 62-76. Opinions are divided about this, but the best opinion is that the two mentioned in verses 46-61 are for the degree of those Nearest to God (Muqarrabūn), and those in verses 62-76 for the Companions of the Right Hand: see para. 10 of Appendix XII. p. 1467. Why two for each? The Duality is to express variety, and the whole scheme of the Sūra runs in twos. There will be no dulness of uniformity; as our minds can conceive it now, there will be freshness in change, but it will be from Bliss to Bliss, and there will be Unity.

5206. Two Springs, for the same reasons as there will be two Gardens. See last note.

5207. The Duality of Fruits is for the same reason as the Duality of the Gardens. See n. 5205.

37. When the sky is rent
Asunder, and it becomes red
Like ointment : <sup>5199</sup>

38. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny ?

39. On that Day
No question will be asked <sup>5200</sup>
Of man or Jinn
As to his sin,

40. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny ?

41. (For) the sinners will be Known by their Marks : <sup>5201</sup>
And they will be seized
By their forelocks and
Their feet.

42. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny ?

43. This is the Hell which
The Sinners deny : <sup>5202</sup>

44. In its midst
And in the midst
Of boiling hot water
Will they wander round ! <sup>5203</sup>

٧ فَإِذَا انشَقَّتِ السَّمَاءُ فَكَانَتْ وَرْدَةً
كَالدِّهَانِ

٨ فَيَأْتِي الْأَوْرَثُكَ نَكْذِبَانِ

٩ قَبْوِمٌ لَا يُسْأَلُ عَنْ ذَنْبِهِ إِنْسٌ وَلَا جَانٌ

١٠ فَيَأْتِي الْأَوْرَثُكَ نَكْذِبَانِ

١١ يُعْرَفُ الْجَرِمُونَ بِسِيمَاهُمْ فَيُؤْخَذُ بِالنَّوَصِي
وَالْأَقْدَامِ

١٢ فَيَأْتِي الْأَوْرَثُكَ كَمَا تَكْذِبَانِ

١٣ هَذِهِ جَهَنَّمُ الَّتِي يُكَذِّبُ بِهَا الْجَرِمُونَ

١٤ يَطُوفُونَ فِيهَا وَبَيْنَ جَمْعٍ

5199. Melting away like grease or ointment. The red colour will be due to the flames and the heat. The whole of the world as we know it now will dissolve.

5200. This does not of course mean that they will not be called to account for their sin. They will certainly be called to account for all their deeds: xv. 92. The meaning of this whole passage is that their personal responsibility will be enforced. But their own tongues and hands and feet will bear witness against them as to their actions: xxiv. 24. Every man will bear marks on his person, showing his classification in the Final Account: vii. 48. After these Marks are affixed, everyone's position and status in the Final Account will be known to everyone. As to the Judge on the Throne of Judgment. He will of course know all before Judgment is set up. But to give every chance to the accused, his record will be produced and shown to him (lxix. 19, 25; xviii. 49), and he will be given a chance to plead (vii. 53), but if a sinner, he will be in confusion (xxviii. 66).

5201. By their Marks; see last note.

5202. It will then become too real to them. "Oh! that this too, too solid flesh would melt", as Hamlet said to his Queen-Mother (Hamlet, i. 2. 129).

5203. They will apparently have no rest. The fire will burn but not consume them, and their drink will be only boiling water.

Ye can pass beyond
The zones of the heavens
And the earth, pass ye!
Not without authority
Shall ye be able to pass!

أَنْ تَنْفُذُوا مِنْ أَقْطَارِ السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ فَأَنْفُذُوا لَا تَنْفُذُونَ إِلَّا بِسُلْطَانٍ

34. Then which of the favours<sup>5195</sup>
Of your Lord will ye deny?

﴿٢٤﴾ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرَبُ كَمَا يَكْذِبَانِ

C. 233.—Let not Evil think that it will escape
(lv 35 78.) Justice: its tell-tale Mark is on those Who follow it, and it must meet its Reward
In the final adjustment. But the Good,
The Righteous, must reach their Fulfilment
In the Gardens of Bliss, where every Delight
Will be theirs in Beauty and Dignity.
How can such Delights be pictured in words?
In symbols subjective let each take his choice.
For Good can there ever be any Reward
Other than Good? Beautiful sights
And sounds, delicious fruits to nourish
The soul, and Companionship where Grace
Is mingled with Love, may figure forth our Bliss.
Blessed be God, full of Majesty and Bounty.
God's creatures! what favours of God will ye deny?

35. ﴿٢٥﴾ On you will be sent
(O ye evil ones twain!)<sup>5196</sup>
A flame of fire (to burn)
And a smoke (to choke):<sup>5197</sup>
No defence will ye have:

﴿٢٥﴾ يُرْسَلُ عَلَيْكُمَا شَوْاظٌ مِّنْ نَّارٍ وَنُحَاسٌ
فَلَا تَنْصِرَانِ

36. Then which of the favours<sup>5198</sup>
Of your Lord will ye deny?

﴿٢٦﴾ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرَبُ كَمَا يَكْذِبَانِ

5195. Note how gradually we have been led up in the Argument. 'The Signs of God are all about you, in revelation, in your intelligence, and in nature around you—Your creation; the mystic light and heat typified by the sun in all directions; the cycle of waters in the physical earth and of Knowledge in the world of Intelligence; the help and cherishing care of God Himself;—all these things should teach you the Truth and warn you about the Future, which is more particularly referred to in the remainder of the Sūra.

5196. The Dual is with reference to the two worlds explained above in n. 5193.

5197. We now come to the terrors of the Judgment on the evil ones.

5198. Here and in some of the verses that follow, (verses 40, 42, and 45 below), the refrain applies with an ironical meaning. It is as if it was said: 'You used to laugh at Revelation, and at the warnings which were given for your own benefit in order to draw you to repentance and God's Mercy; what do you find now? Is not all that was said to you true?' To reject God's Law is in itself to deny God's Mercies.

Full of Majesty,
Bounty and Honour.<sup>5190</sup>

28. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

29. ﴿٢٩﴾ If Him seeks, (its need)<sup>5191</sup>.
Every creature in the heavens
And on earth :
Every day in (new) Splendour<sup>5192</sup>
Doth He (shine)!

30. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

31. ﴿٣٠﴾ Soon shall We
Settle your affairs,
O both ye worlds!<sup>5193</sup>

32. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

33. ﴿٣١﴾ ye assembly of Jinns<sup>5194</sup>
And men! If it be

ذُو الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ

﴿٢٨﴾ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرِيَكُمْ مِمَّا تَكْذِبَانِ

﴿٢٩﴾ يَسْأَلُهُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ
هُوَ فِي شَأْنٍ

﴿٣٠﴾ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرِيَكُمْ مِمَّا تَكْذِبَانِ

﴿٣١﴾ سَنَفْرُغُ لَكُمْ آيَةَ الثَّقَلَانِ

﴿٣٢﴾ فَيَأْتِي الْآوْرِيَكُمْ مِمَّا تَكْذِبَانِ

﴿٣٣﴾ يَمْشُرُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ

5190. Ikrām : two ideas are prominent in the word, (1) the idea of generosity, as proceeding from the person whose attribute it is, and (2) the idea of honour, as given by others to the person whose attribute it is. Both these ideas are summed up in "nobility". To make the meaning quite clear, I have employed in the translation the two words "Bounty and Honour" for the single word Ikrām. The same attributes recur in the last verse of this Sūra. In the Fact of God's Eternity is the Hope of our Future.

5191. Every single creature depends on God for its needs; of all of them the Cherisher and Sustainer is God. Seek (its needs): does not necessarily mean 'seek them in words': what is meant is the dependence; the allusion is to the Source of supply.

5192. Shān: state, splendour; aim, work, business, momentous affair. God's is still the directing hand in all affairs: He does not sit apart, careless of mankind or of any of His creatures. But His working shows new Splendour every day, every hour, every moment.

5193. Thaqal: weight, something weighty, something weighed with something else. The two thaqals are the two worlds of Jinns and men,—the unseen world and the world before our eyes. They are both before God, and the affairs of both are conducted under His Command. If there are inequalities or apparent disturbances of balance, that is only for a season. God gives to both good and evil men a chance in this period of probation; but this period will soon be over, and Judgment will be established. To give you this chance, this probation, this warning, is itself a favour, by which you should profit, and for which you should be grateful.

5194. Cf. vi. 130, where the Jinns and men are addressed collectively. That whole passage, vi. 130-134, should be read as a commentary on this verse. 'If you think that because you do things in secret, or because some of your sins do not seem to meet their inevitable punishment or some of your good deeds seem to go unnoticed, do not be deceived. Judgment will soon come. You cannot possibly escape out of the zones in which your lives have been cast, without authority from God. Be grateful to God for the chances He has given you'. All that hath been promised unto you will come to pass: nor can ye frustrate it in the least bit" (vi. 134).

21. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

22. Out of them come
Pearls and Coral: <sup>5186</sup>

23. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

24. And His are the Ships <sup>5187</sup>
Sailing smoothly through the seas,
Lofty as mountains: <sup>5188</sup>

25. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

SECTION 2.

26. All that is on earth
Will perish:

27. But will abide (for ever)
The Face of thy Lord,—<sup>5189</sup>

٢١ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٢٢ يَخْرُجُ مِنْهُمَا اللُّؤْلُؤُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ

٢٣ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٢٤ وَلَهُ أَبْجَارٌ مُّتَشَاتَةٌ فِي الْبَحْرِ كَالْأَعْلَامِ

٢٥ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ

٢٦ كُلُّ مَنْ عَلَيْهَا فَانٍ

٢٧ وَيَبْقَى وَجْهُ رَبِّكَ

5186. Pearls are produced by the oyster and coral by the polyp, a minute marine creature which, working in millions, has by its secretions produced the reefs, islands, and banks in and on both sides of the Red Sea and in other parts of the world. The pearl has a translucent lustre, usually white, but sometimes pink or black. Coral is usually opaque, red or pink, but often white, and is seen in beautiful branching or cup-like shapes, as visitors to Port Sudan will recall. Both are used as gems, and stand here for gems generally. Mineral gems, such as agate and cornelian, are found in river-beds. Pearl oysters are also found in some rivers.

Taken allegorically, the two kinds of gems would denote the jewels of this life and the jewels of the spiritual world. The jewels of this world—like coral—are hard, widely spread over the world, comparatively cheap, and less absorptive of the light from above. The spiritual jewels—like pearls—are soft, rare, costly, and translucent, absorbent of light and showing the more lustre the more they are in light. The analogy can be carried further to the two seas—the two bodies of flowing water—mentioned in verses 19-20 above. They are the two kinds of knowledge—human and divine—referred to in the story of Moses and Khidr: see notes 2404 5 to xviii 60.

5187. The Ships—sailing ships and steamers, and by extension of analogy, aeroplanes and airships majestically navigating the air—are made by man, but the intelligence and science which made them possible are given by man's Creator; and therefore the Ships also are the gifts of God.

5189. The most magnificent works of man—such as they are—are but fleeting. Ships, Empires, the Wonders of Science and Art, the splendours of human glory or intellect, will all pass away. The most magnificent objects in outer Nature—the mountains and valleys, the sun and moon, the Constellation Orion and the star Sirius—will also pass away in their appointed time. But the only One that will endure for ever is the "Face" of God. "Face" expresses Personality, Glory, and Majesty, inner being, essence, self, all the noble qualities which we associate with the Beautiful Names of God. See n. 114 to ii. 112; also n. 1154 to vii. 180, and n. 2322 to xvii. 110.

14. He created man
From sounding clay <sup>5181</sup>
Like unto pottery,
15. And He created Jinns <sup>5182</sup>
From fire free of smoke :
16. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny ? <sup>5183</sup>
17. (He is) Lord
Of the two Easts <sup>5184</sup>
And Lord
Of the two Wests :
18. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny ?
19. He has let free <sup>5185</sup>
The two bodies
Of flowing water,
Meeting together :
20. Between them is a Barrier
Which they do not transgress :

⑩ خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ صَلْصَالٍ كَالْفَخَّارِ

⑪ وَخَلَقَ الْجَانَّ مِنْ مَّارِجٍ مِنْ نَّارٍ

⑫ فَيَأْتِي الْآؤُرِثِيكَمَا تَكَذِّبَانِ

⑬ رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقَيْنِ وَرَبُّ الْمَغْرِبَيْنِ

⑭ فَيَأْتِي الْآؤُرِثِيكَمَا تَكَذِّبَانِ

⑮ مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ يَلْتَقِيَانِ

⑯ بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزَخٌ لَا يَبْغِيَانِ

5181. See n. 1966 to xv. 26. The creation of men and Jinns is contrasted. Man was made of sounding clay, dry and brittle like pottery. The Jinn (see next note) was made from a clear flame of fire. Yet each has capacities and possibilities which only God's Grace bestows on them. How can they deny God's favours?

5182. For the meaning of Jinn, see n. 929 to vi. 100. They are spirits, and therefore subtle like a flame of fire. Their being free from smoke implies that they are free from grossness, for smoke is the grosser accompaniment of fire. If we take them to typify the hidden forces and capacities in man, created by God, both their potency and their value would be acknowledged. Then how can we deny the favours of God? Both the natural man with all his grossness and brittleness and the spiritual forces with all their fineness and clearness must join in the service of God.

5183. Part of the idea of this refrain will be found in xvi. 71, 72 ; xl. 81 ; and liii. 55 (where see n. 5122).

5184. The two Easts are the two extreme points where the sun rises during the year, and include all the points between. Similarly the two Wests include the two extreme points of the sun's setting and all the points between. The Dual Number fits in with the general atmosphere of Duality in this Sūra. God is Lord of every region of the earth and sky, and He scatters His bounties everywhere. See also n. 4641 to xliii. 38, and n. 4034 to xxxvii. 5.

5185. See xxv. 53, and n. 3111, where it is explained how the two bodies of water, salt and sweet meet together, yet keep separate, as if there was a barrier or partition between them. This is also one of the favours of God. Sea-water is a sanitating agent, while fresh water is sweet and palatable to drink. For the allegorical interpretation, see notes 2404-5 to xviii. 60 ; also n. 5186 (end) below.

5178. To be taken both literally and figuratively. A man should be honest and straight in every daily matter, such as weighing out things which he is selling: and he should be straight, just and honest, in all the highest dealings, not only with other people, but with himself and in his obedience to God's Law. Not many do either the one or the other when they have an opportunity of deceit. Justice is the central virtue, and the avoidance of both excess and defect in conduct keeps the human world balanced just as the heavenly world is kept balanced by mathematical order.

5179. How can God's favours be counted? Look at the earth alone. Life and the conditions here are mutually balanced for God's creatures. The vegetable world produces fruit of various kinds and corn or grain of various kinds for human food. The grain harvest yields with it fodder for animals in the shape of leaves and straw, as well as food for men in the shape of grain. The plants not only supply food but sweet smelling herbs and flowers. Raiḥān is the sweet basil, but is here used in the generic sense, for agreeable produce in the vegetable world, to match the useful produce already mentioned.

5180. Both the pronoun "your" and the verb "will ye deny" are in the Arabic in the Dual Number. The whole Sūra is a symphony of Duality, which leads up to Unity, as explained in the Introduction. All creation is in pairs: li. 49, and notes 5025-26; xxxvi. 36, n. 3981. Justice is the conciliation of two opposites to unity, the settlement of the unending feud between Right and Wrong. The things and concepts mentioned in this Sūra are in pairs: man and outer nature; sun and moon; herbs and trees; heaven and earth; fruit and corn; human food and fodder for cattle; things nourishing and things sweet-smelling; and so on throughout the Sūra. Then there is man and Jinn, for which see n. 5182 below.

"Will ye deny?" that is, fail to acknowledge either in word or thought or in your conduct. If you misuse God's gifts or ignore them, that is equivalent to ingratitude or denial or refusal to profit by God's infinite Grace

5172. The Revelation comes from God Most Gracious, and it is one of the greatest Signs of His grace and favour. He is the source of all Light, and His light is diffused throughout the universe.

5173. Bayān: intelligent speech; power of expression; capacity to understand clearly the relations of things and to explain them. God has given this to man; and besides this revelation in man's own heart, has aided him with revelation in nature and revelation through prophets and apostles.

5174. In the great astronomical universe there are exact mathematical laws, which bear witness to God's Wisdom and also to His favours to His creatures; for we all profit by the heat and light, the seasons, and the numerous changes in the tides and the atmosphere, on which the constitution of our globe and the maintenance of life depend.

5175. Najm: may mean stars collectively, or herbs collectively; perhaps both meanings are implied.

5176. All nature adores God. C/. xxii. 18, and n. 2790; xiii. 15; and xvi. 48-49.

5177. The "balance of justice" in this verse is connected with "the Balance" in the next two verses, that men may act justly to each other and observe due balance in all their actions, following the golden mean and not transgressing due bounds in anything. But the Balance is also connected figuratively with the heavens above in three symbols: (1) Justice is a heavenly virtue; (2) the heavens themselves are sustained by mathematical balance; and (3) the constellation Libra (the Balance) is entered by the sun at the middle of the zodiacal year.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LV (Raḥmān).

The majority of Commentators consider this an early Meccan Sūra, though some consider at least a part of it as dating from Medina. The greater part of it is undoubtedly early Meccan.

It is highly poetical and mystical, and the refrain "Then which of the favours of your Lord will ye deny?" is interspersed 31 times among its 78 verses.

It is the sixth of the series of seven dealing with Revelation, the favours of God, and the Hereafter: see Introduction to S. I.

Here the special theme is indicated by the refrain. The rhyme in most cases is in the Dual grammatical form, and the Argument implies that though things are created in pairs, there is an underlying Unity, through the Creator, in the favours which He bestows, and in the goal to which they are marching.

Summary.—God Most Gracious has sent Revelation, one of His greatest favours to man; His creation is in pairs, well-balanced; all created things receive His favours, but they will all pass away, and only God will endure through the ages (lv. 1-34, and C. 232).

Ultimately all evil shall return to its destination, as well as all Good, but ever blessed is the name of God, Lord of Glory, Honour and Bounty (lv. 35-78, and C. 233).

C. 232.—God's creatures! Which favours of God will ye deny?

(lv 1-34) Most Gracious is God, Who reveals Himself

In the Qur-ān, in man's Intelligence,

And in the nature around man.

Balance and Justice, Goodness and Care,

Are the Laws of His Worlds. Created

From clay, man can yet comprehend

The Lord of the Easts and the Wests, Him

Who sustains all His creatures, Him

Who bestows the Jewels of Life and Faith,

Him Who abides when all else perisheth,

Him Whose Eternity is the Hope

Of man's Future, the Lord Everlasting

Of Justice and Glory and Bounty and Honour!

Which, then, of the favours of your Lord will ye deny?

Light will be one, but its rays will be many. And it winds up with the salutation of "Peace!" from God, Whose supreme glory is Mercy, Peace, and Harmony. In the second passage these points are again emphasised but from other points of view. Not only will there be individual satisfaction and social bliss, but it will be shared by families or friends whom we held dear in this life, provided their life made them worthy of that association. While the memory of love and all good in this life will endure, it will be purged of all old fears and anxieties in the supreme realisation—the crown and climax of the whole—that God is the One Reality—the Good, the Beneficent and the Merciful. The souls in Heaven will realise in the highest spiritual sense the Presence of God.

Of this world's life ;
 But nearness to God
 Is the best of the goals.

" Say : Shall I give you
 Glad tidings of things
 Far better than those ?
 For the righteous are Gardens
 In nearness to their Lord,
 With rivers flowing beneath ;
 Therein is their eternal home ;
 With Companions pure and holy ;
 And the Good Pleasure of God."

But the Good Pleasure of God has its counterpart in the Good Pleasure of man, raised to such eminence in Heaven.

" O thou soul !
 In (complete) rest and satisfaction !
 Come back thou
 To thy Lord !—
 Well pleased (thyself),
 And well pleasing
 Unto Him !

" Enter, thou, then,
 Among My Devotees,—
 Yea, enter thou
 My Heaven ! "

(lxxxix. 27-30.)

15. This, then, is the Muslim idea of Salvation. It consists, not in being saved from the consequences of our sins by the sufferings or the merits of others, nor in Nirvana, or annihilation or absorption,—but in the achievement of a perfected Personality, a Bliss that grows up within us, and does not depend on external circumstances. It may require the utmost effort or striving (Jihād) of a lifetime or more. But it is the Supreme Achievement, the attainment of all desires, the Felicity in excelsis (xliv. 57, and n. 4733).

16. The several aspects of it are summed up in two passages of singular beauty, xxxvi. 55-58, and lii. 17-28, which should be studied along with the notes thereon. The first passage describes symbolically the mise en scene and the nature of the Bliss. It goes on to say that the happiness will not be solitary, but will be shared in association, on thrones of dignity and peace. It further figures the psychological inner satisfaction, unconnected with outer circumstances, but reflecting the inner tastes of Personalities: "they shall have whatever they call for": the musician's heaven will be full of music; the mathematician's will be full of mathematical symmetry and perfection; the artist's will be full of beauty of form: the carnal attributes. As in the word "angel" in English, (unlike its original Angelos in Greek or Angelus in Latin), there is with it an association of the specially feminine virtues of purity, grace, beauty, innocence, truth, and good-will (see n. 4729 to xliv. 54). In lxxviii. 33 are mentioned Maidens or Virgins of Equal Age, in a highly symbolical passage, where the notes may be consulted. But the masculine virtues of handsome and manly strength and the youthful enthusiasm for service are also mentioned in association with heaven (see lii. 24, and n. 5058). In other words the symbolism leads up from our ideas of beauty, grace, harmony, strength, youth, and service as we know these things in their most refined forms here, to something even nobler and purer which no language can adequately describe.

13. The symbolism of Springs or Fountains and Cups of Drink or Wine is also worked out in a beautiful way in S. lxxvi. (Dahr). Note that the Arabic word Sharāb means either Drink or Wine, and in Sūfi language, Wine or the Cup is the means of attaining spiritual Ecstasy. The Quranic language tempers Ecstasy with coolness, and associates a refreshing tonic, rather than an unbounded ecstasy, with spiritual fervour, especially in the earlier stages of spiritual Bliss, when the soul is yet new to its new world. Just after the Great Event of Judgment is passed, the righteous soul enters the regions of Bliss, and is given to drink of a Cup from the mystic fountain of Kāfūr (lxxvi. 5, n. 5835). Kāfūr literally means camphor: in symbolic language it stands for all that is wholesome, cooling and refreshing, soothing and agreeable. This is provided in unstinted measure. Then the yearning humility which filled the souls in the lower life gives place to a sense of possession: dignity and honour, typified by light silk garments, thrones, and the humility now shown to them by those around them (lxxvi. 12-14). Then comes the setting of a Magnificent Realm, typifying Divine Glory. A drink of a Cup of Zanjābīl, typifying warmth and zest to the taste, from a fountain called Sal-sabīl ("Seek the Way"), festive clothes of ceremony, and rich setting of a Royal Banquet of beauty and splendour, stand as symbols to show the approach to the very Presence Ineffable. Further, there is a Spring or Fountain Tashīm, which is only drunk neat by those Nearest to God: they alone can bear its fullest flavour, as they alone can bear the full effulgence of the Glory of God; but every righteous man will have a taste of this Fountain mixed with his heavenly Wine, to the extent that his spiritual advancement is capable of enjoying it (lxxxiii. 27-28).

14. For the highest Felicity in heaven is described to be in the nearness to God, in the Good Pleasure of God. See iii. 14-15:—

"Fair in the eyes of men
Is the love of things they covet:
Women and sons;
Heaped-up hoards of gold and silver;
Horses branded (for blood and excellence);
And wealth of cattle
And well-tilled land.

Such are the possessions

10. We picture not only a Garden, but a Garden with rivers or springs flowing beneath. This further enlarges our horizon. We can picture a landscape with banks, terraces, and sloping lawns, high ground, and valleys. What is the spiritual analogy for this? We must not imagine a dull place where all are engaged in perpetual psalm-singing. There will be differences in ranks, dignities, and tastes, according to each individual's growth and individuality: for that is the meaning of the persistence of Personality. And yet they will form one equal Brotherhood of Peace, one Society of Concord. There will be the four-fold classification according to the varying spiritual experiences gained in this life: (1) the Prophets who taught and led mankind; (2) the sincere Devotees of Truth, who supported the Cause in their person and with all their resources; (3) the Martyrs and Witnesses, who suffered and served; and (4) the righteous people generally, those who led ordinary lives, but always with righteous aims. All these are united in one beautiful Fellowship (see iv. 69, and n. 586). Or take that other classification indicated in lvi. 27 and 11: the righteous generally, the Companions of the Right Hand (as distinguished from the Companions of the Left Hand, who will not have reached Heaven), and those nearest to God in rank and dignity. The latter will have no interposing Veils of Light to obscure the pure Light of God from them (Appendix VIII, and xxiv. 35); for, in Sūfī language, they will have had the ineffable Bliss of seeing the "Divine Eyes". Possibly the Companions of the Garden and Those on the Heights (vii. 46) refer to the same two categories of souls. Whatever the precise interpretation of these mystic passages may be, there is no doubt that the retention of individual Personality in the Hereafter will mean Bliss of different kinds for each category.

11. How can we understand a psychological term like Bliss in general symbolical terms? If it is to convey the idea of satisfaction in any but abstract terms, we must have the symbolism of ordinary life, yet lifted up to ideas of refinement, delicacy, and satisfaction. The acts of eating and drinking are spiritualised and socialised. The choicest of meats, fruits, and drinks, which minister to the most sensitive taste, will be provided. Dress of most artistic taste will add dignity to social intercourse, and there will be thrones and symbols of honour. There will be companionship, individual companionship, companionship of equal age, as well as general companionship. And those whom we loved in this life—mothers, wives, sisters, relatives, children, friends—will all add to our joy by their company in a transformed Love as superior to earthly Love as in the Garden of Heaven to an earthly Garden. The condition of Faith and good Life is of course attached: for no disharmony can enter to mar the dignity of Heaven. (See xiii. 23 and n. 1837; xliii. 70-72, and n. 4668-70). Perfected Love will not be content with Self, but like a note of music will find its melody in communion with others.

12. Carnal sex has of course no place in Heaven, but sex in our constitution here has a mental and psychological value, which we can picture in our transformed and perfected Love above. The word Hūr, in such passages as xlv. 54, and lii. 20, has been much misunderstood and misrepresented. Grammatically it is not feminine in form, and the companionship of Hūrs will be for all in Heaven—men and women (as they were in this life), who will retain their personality but not their

6. Thus it becomes a doctrine of Law, or of "fruits of actions". Every deed must have its inevitable consequences (n. 4671 to xliii. 73). There is no vicarious atonement; for there is individual responsibility. And yet it is not a doctrine of "justification by deeds"; for the best of our actions fall short of the "heaven" which we hope for (see paragraph 4 above). Nor is it the same as the doctrine of Karma, which plays so prominent a part in Buddhist and Hindu philosophy. For we have a lively faith in God's Grace and Mercy: it can and does intervene for us and accepts our repentance and amendment, and gives us fresh chances at every stage of our probationary life. But our will is an important factor: we cannot accept a mechanical form of Determinism which eliminates the human will in the government of the microcosm within us, and even eliminates such a thing as the Divine Will in the government of the Macrocosm, or the great world without us.

7. Such being the fundamental aspects of our life and destiny, how can we best clothe our ideas of heaven in human language? Our Heaven is independent of Time, or Place, or fleeting Circumstance. No one can know precisely now the spiritual delights hidden in reserve for him (xxxii. 17). But we must necessarily use terms that imply all these three conditions. Therefore they can only be expressed by allegory or imagery. If we understand what the essence of the allegory or imagery is, we shall profit by it. If we branch out into fantastic applications that leave us in the material world, we shall never be able to get a glimpse of the spiritual world into which such allegory or imagery is intended to open a window for our spiritual eyes. Such allegory or imagery is supplied in abundance in the Qur-ân.

8. The simplest and yet the most far-reaching allegory that we can employ is that of the Garden—the Garden of Bliss (Jannat or Jannat un Na'im, v. 68). In all Muslim languages, that word Jannat (Garden) is now specialised for Heaven. Let us analyse a few of the ideas which we can legitimately associate in this connection with the concrete word "Garden" and the abstract term "Bliss"

9. In this our life most of our sensations depend upon sense-perceptions, and we can reduce the highest and noblest of them to terms connected with the Garden. To each of our five senses, in their most refined form, does the Garden minister. For the eye there is the general green, with all the most delicate tints of green in the foliage, and the wonderful colours and shapes in flowers; the arrangement of paths and parterres; the various gradations of light and shade; the soft and melting beauty of clouds and mists; and the landscape views with cool rivers flowing underneath, or perhaps murmuring brooks. For the ear is the music of birds, the music of waterfalls, and the appropriate moonlight music of the human voice with or without the accompaniment of an instrument like a guitar. For the smell there is not only the perfume of flowers but the more subtle scents of foliage, moisture or morning dew, or even garden soil. For taste and touch the exquisite fruits, and for touch the soft rose petals and the carpet-like lawns, besides the gentle kiss of breezes, all minister to the highest bliss and fulfilment that we can imagine through our senses.

And forgive you your sins :
For God is Oft-Forgiving,
Most Merciful.

Or again, in ii. 165 we have :—

But those of Faith
Are overflowing
In their love for God.

Certainly whatever good we do benefits our own souls, but the motive with which we should do it should be only as "seeking the glory (literally, Face, Countenance) of God" (ii. 272). The righteous persevere patiently in righteousness, seeking "the Countenance of their Lord" (xiii. 22).

4. Is the "Reward" apportioned to the merits or deserts of the receiver? Not at all. At best, our merits or deserts can amount to very little. But God's Mercy and Grace are vast and all-embracing (vi. 147). He has said: "My Mercy extendeth to all things" (vii. 156); His Grace is universal and all-pervasive; and "He is the Lord of Bounties unbounded" (iii. 74). If any man does good, "the reward to him is better than his deed; but if any does evil, the doers of evil are only punished to the extent of their deeds" (xxviii. 84). Thus His justice is strict but in favour of man; but His Grace is beyond calculation. "That which ye lay out for charity, seeking the Countenance of God, will increase: it is these who will get a recompense multiplied" (xxx. 39). See also n. 5909 to lxxviii. 36.

5. To be righteous merely for the hope of reward for one's self or for fear of punishment may be good at a certain elementary stage of spiritual progress when higher motives are yet unintelligible. But as the light of Islam illumines the soul more and more, it is seen that virtue is its own reward and evil is its own punishment: for the one accords with the Will of God, and the other is contrary to it—and therefore also contrary to the pure nature of man as made by God,—"God's handiwork according to the pattern on which He has made mankind; no change let there be in the work wrought by God: that is the standard Religion" (xxx. 30). "Is there any Reward for Good—other than Good?" (lv. 60). We are asked to "repent" when we have fallen into evil. But "repentance" does not mean sackcloth and ashes, or putting on a gloomy pessimism. It means giving up disease for health, crookedness (which is abnormal) for the Straight Way, the restoration of our nature as God created it from the falsity introduced by the enticements of Evil (n. 3543 to xxx. 31). The "fear of God" is the beginning of wisdom; but it is not fear in the ordinary sense of the term, for on the righteous "there shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve" (ii. 38). The fear of God is not a passive oppression by an outside feeling, but an active assertion of our own will not to offend our Lord and Cherisher. The fear is lest we lose His Good Pleasure. It is akin to love, and is a purification of our will. It is on our will that our future depends under the Grace and Mercy of God. We must strive to reach His Grace. Our strength is small, but He will accept the submission of our will (Islam), and His Grace will search us out; and our progress will proceed according to the Law which God in His wisdom has established.

APPENDIX XII

The Muslim Heaven (see liv. 54-55, and notes 5168-71)

To write about the Muslim Heaven adequately is to describe the spiritual ideals of Islam and its conception of the Hereafter for those who follow the true laws of their being as created by God and as explained in Revelation. Such a task would be beyond the scope of an Appendix. But I propose to collect here a few matters which have been referred to in scattered notes to the Quranic text, but which could not be fully explained in the space at the disposal of the notes. This is all the more necessary, as some ignorant critics of Islam imagine that Islam postulates a sensual heaven, and they press into service some garbled versions of what some of our own more material-minded brethren have said on the subject.

2. It is true that Islam uses the most varied imagery for describing spiritual matters which are really beyond description in words except by such imagery. But it carefully avoids using such imagery for God Himself, lest it should be misunderstood by shallow minds, and confines the use of such imagery to the description of human beings, who have, in their present life, some material forms of pleasure, satisfaction, and happiness, and some mental and social relations which conduce to such feelings, and which may therefore be used legitimately to typify the more spiritual joys and relationships of a spiritual Heaven. It knows nothing of the amours of gods and goddesses and the jealousies and bickerings that disfigure the Court of the Olympian Jove; and yet Greek Mythology was the most refined of all Pagan Mythologies. In spite of all Wagner's efforts to glorify the Valkyrian heaven, we have yet in that heaven high actions and high passions in an atmosphere of frustration and strife. The Christian imagery of the vision of God and God's Throne is that of "a jasper and a sardine stone," emeralds and crowns of gold, a sea of glass like unto crystal, and four and twenty elders casting their crowns before the Throne, and glorifying God, but adding, "Thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." (The concluding Book of the New Testament: The Revelation of St. John the Divine, Chapter iv). Our imagery never carries these metaphors to the Person of God, and we are not taught that the object of creation is God's pleasure; our teaching is that man was created for man's self-development and his attainment of his high destiny, which can be done by his understanding, obeying, and knowing God.

3. Our doctrine of the Hereafter is not strictly a doctrine of Rewards and Punishments. A promise of Rewards implies two things: (1) an inducement to a certain course of action by the motive of winning the reward; and (2) the apportionment of the reward to the merits and deserts of the receiver.

As to the motives, see iii. 31:—

Say: "If ye do love God,
Follow me: God will love you

53. Every matter, small and great,
Is on record.

④ وَكُلُّ صَغِيرٍ وَكَبِيرٍ مُسْتَقَرٌّ

54. As to the Righteous,
They will be in the midst
Of Gardens and Rivers,<sup>5168</sup>

⑤ إِنَّا لِلنَّافِلِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَنَهَرٍ

55. In an Assembly of Truth,<sup>5169</sup>
In the Presence of<sup>5170</sup>
A Sovereign Omnipotent.<sup>5171</sup>

⑥ فِي مَقْعَدِ صِدْقٍ عِنْدَ مَلِكٍ مُّقْتَدِرٍ

5168. The record, in the case of those who dishonoured and violated Truth, will lead to their undoing; but in the case of those who honoured the Truth and adopted it so as to shine in their righteous lives, the result is expressed by four metaphors, in an ascending degree of sublimity; (1) they will be in the midst of Gardens where rivers flow; (2) they will be in an Assembly of Truth; (3) in the Presence of God; (4) Whose sovereignty is omnipotent. See notes following, and Appendix XII, at the end of this Sûra.

(1) "Gardens" with Rivers (flowing beneath): this has been explained more than once already: Cf. n. 4668 to xliii. 70. The Garden suggests all the Bliss we can imagine through our senses. How the Garden ministers to the noblest functions of our senses is further explained in Appendix XII.

5169 (2) While we possess our bodily senses, the best conceptions we can form are through our sense-perceptions, and the Garden is a good symbol from that point of view. The next higher understanding of spiritual truth is through our intellect and our social satisfaction. This is best symbolised by the Assembly of Truth—the gathering in which we sit with our fellows and enjoy the realisation of Truth and the dissipation of falsehoods and half-truths.

5170. (3) But there is a higher conception still, something so intensely spiritual that it can only be expressed by reference to the Presence of God. God is present everywhere and at all times, but when His Presence becomes an actual realised experience to its fullest extent, then we have reached Heaven.

5171. (4) Such realisation of God, as is spoken of in the last note, can only be perfected when we know—it comes into our inmost being—that God is Sovereign, All-in-all, First and Last, not only for ourselves but for all persons and things and events. Muqtadir, which I have translated Omnipotent, implies something more: the eighth-declension form denotes not only complete mastery, but the further idea that the mastery arises from God's own nature, and depends on nothing else whatever.

49. Verily, all things
Have We created
In proportion and measure.<sup>5163</sup>

④ إِنَّا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِقَدَرٍ

50. And Our Command
Is but a single (Act),—<sup>5164</sup>
Like the twinkling
Of an eye.

⑤ وَمَا أَمْرُنَا إِلَّا وَجْدَةٌ كُلُّهَا بِالْبَصَرِ

51. And (oft) in the past,
Have We destroyed gangs<sup>5165</sup>
Like unto you: then
Is there any that
Will receive admonition?<sup>5166</sup>

⑥ وَلَقَدْ أَهْلَكْنَا أَشْيَاءَكُمْ فَهُمْ لِمَنْ
مُّذَكِّرٍ

52. All that they do
Is noted in (their)
Books (of Deeds):<sup>5167</sup>

⑦ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ فَعَلُوهُ فِي الزُّبُرِ

5163. God's Creation is not haphazard. Everything goes by law, proportion, and measure. Everything has its appointed time, place, and occasion, as also its definite limitation. Nothing happens but according to His Plan, and every deed, word, and thought of man has its fullest consequences, except in so far as the Grace or Mercy of God intervenes, and that is according to law and plan.

5164. While in the life of created things there is "proportion and measure", and a lag of time or distance or circumstance, in God's Command, the Design, the Word, the Execution, and the Consequences are but a single Act. The simile given is that of the twinkling of an eye, which is the shortest time that a simple man can think of: the cause which occasions the twinkling, the movement of the muscles connected with it, the closing of the eyelids, and their reopening, are all almost like a simultaneous act. By way of contrast take an illustration like that of a man writing a book. He must form the design in his mind; he must prepare himself by research, collection of knowledge, or of personal experience; he must use or acquire the art of writing; he must collect the materials for writing, viz., paper, ink, pen, etc., and this will connect with a chain of manufacturing processes in which he is dependent upon other people's work and experience; then his book may have to be printed or lithographed or bound, and sold, or taken to a library, or presented to a friend, which will bring into play numerous other chains of processes, and dependence upon other people's work or skill; and the lag of Time, Space, and Circumstance will occur at numerous stages. In God's Command, the word "Be" (kun) includes everything, without the intervention of or dependence upon any other being or thing whatever. And this is also another phase of the philosophy of Unity.

5165. Ashyā'akum: 'gangs or parties or collections of men like you.'—addressed to wicked men who arrogantly rely upon their own strength or combination, neither of which can stand for a moment against the Will of God.

5166. The cases of Pharaoh's men of old and the Pagan Quraish are considered as parallel, and an appeal is addressed to the latter from the experience of the former: 'will ye not learn and repent?'

5167. The Book of Deeds is of course metaphorical. The point is that nothing which men do is lost—good or evil. Everything gives rise to an inevitable chain of consequences, from which a release is only obtained by the intervention of God's Grace acting on an act, a striving, of the human will to repent and turn to God.

43. Are your Unbelievers,
(O Quraish), better than they ? <sup>5159</sup>
Or have ye an immunity
In the Sacred Books ?

٤٣ أَكْفَرْتُمْ خَيْرَ مَنْ أُولِيكُمْ بَرَاءَةٌ
فِي الذِّكْرِ

44. Or do they say :
" We acting together
Can defend ourselves " ?

٤٤ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ نَحْنُ جَمِيعٌ مُنْتَصِرُونَ

45. Soon will their multitude
Be put to flight,
And they will show
Their backs.

٤٥ سَيَهْرَبُونَ الْجَمْعُ وَيَوَلُونَ الدُّبُرَ

46. Nay, the Hour (of Judgment)
Is the time promised them
(For their full recompense) : <sup>5160</sup>
And that Hour will be
Most grievous and most bitter.

٤٦ بَلِ السَّاعَةُ مَوْعِدُهُمْ وَالسَّاعَةُ أَذَى وَأَمْرٌ

47. Truly those in sin
Are the ones
Straying in mind, and mad. <sup>5161</sup>

٤٧ إِنَّ الْجَاهِلِينَ فِي ضَلَالٍ وَسُعُرٍ

48. The Day they will be Dragged through the Fire
On their faces, <sup>5162</sup> (they Will hear:) " Taste ye
The touch of Hell! "

٤٨ يَوْمَ يُسْحَبُونَ فِي النَّارِ عَلَى وُجُوهِهِمْ ذُوقُوا
مَسَّ سَقَرَ

5159. If the Egyptians with all their power and science were unable to resist the punishment of their sins, the Pagan Quraish are asked: how will you fare when you come to a trial of strength against God's Truth? You are not specially favoured so as to be immune from God's Law. And if you rely on your numbers, they will be a broken reed when the trial comes, as indeed happened at the Battle of Badr.

5161. Cf. liv. 24 above. Note how the tables are turned in the argument by the repetition. The unjust think that the godly are wandering in mind and mad. They will find that it is really they who were wandering in mind, and mad, even when they were in the plenitude of their power and in the enjoyment of all the good things of this life. These minor echoes heighten the effect of the major refrain mentioned in the Introduction

5162. "On their faces": the Face is the symbol of Personality. Their whole Personality will be subverted and degraded—in the midst of the Fire of Suffering.

37. And they even sought
To snatch away his guests <sup>5157</sup>
From him, but We blinded
Their eyes. (They heard :)
"Now taste ye My Wrath
And My Warning."

﴿٣٧﴾ وَلَقَدْ رَاوَدُوهُ عَنْ ضَيْفِهِ فَطَمَسْنَا
أَعْيُنَهُمْ فَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي وَنُذِرْ

38. Early on the morrow
An abiding Punishment
Seized them :

﴿٣٨﴾ وَلَقَدْ صَبَّتْهُمْ بَكْرَةٌ عَذَابٌ مُسْتَقِرٌّ

39. "So taste ye My Wrath
And My Warning."

﴿٣٩﴾ فَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي وَنُذِرْ

40. And We have indeed
Made the Qur-ān easy
To understand and remember :
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition ?

﴿٤٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ

SECTION 3.

41. Qo the People <sup>5158</sup>
Of Pharaoh. too, aforetime,
Came Warners (from God).

﴿٤١﴾ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَ آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ النُّذُرُ

42. The (people) rejected all
Our Signs ; but We
Seized them with such Penalty
(As comes) from One
Exalted in Power,
Able to carry out His Will.

﴿٤٢﴾ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كُلِّهَا فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ أَخْذَ
عَزِيزٍ مُقْتَدِرٍ

5157. Lot had been preaching to them some time against their iniquities. The crisis of their fate came when the two angels came to Lot in the guise of handsome young men. The men of the whole City came in an uproar, assaulted his house, and tried to snatch away the two handsome men. Lot tried to prevent them, but was powerless. Darkness fell on their eyes, as the first stage in their punishment, and before next morning the wicked cities were buried under a shower of brimstone. Lot and his believing household were saved.

5158. The Egyptian people of old are the last people mentioned in this Sūra as an example of iniquity meeting with punishment. And the moral is driven home to the Pagan Quraish, to warn them of their fate if they persisted in their evil lives. The Egyptians had many Signs given them. They were a gifted people and had made much progress in the sciences and the arts. They could have learnt from history that when the highest virtues disappear, the nation must fall. Moses was brought up among them and commissioned to give God's Message to them. But they were arrogant; they were unjust to God's creatures; they followed debasing forms of worship; they mocked at Truth; and were at last punished with destruction in the Red Sea for their arrogant leaders and army. See x, 75-90 for a narrative.

31. For We sent against them<sup>5151</sup>
A single Mighty Blast,
And they became
Like the dry stubble used
By one who pens cattle.<sup>5152</sup>

٥١ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَكَانُوا
كَهَشِيرِ الْحُمْظِرِ

32. And we have indeed
Made the Qur-ān easy
To understand and remember ;
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition ?

٥٢ وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ

33. ~~The~~ People of Lūt<sup>5153</sup>
Rejected (his) Warning.

٥٣ كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ لُوطٍ بِالْأُنْذُرِ

34. We sent against them
A violent tornado
With showers of stones,<sup>5154</sup>
(Which destroyed them), except Lūt's household : them We Delivered by early Dawn,—

٥٤ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حَاصِبًا إِلَّا آلَ لُوطٍ
نَجَّيْنَاهُمْ لَيْلَى

35. As a Grace from Us :
Thus do We reward
Those who give thanks.<sup>5155</sup>

٥٥ نِعْمَةٌ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا كَذَلِكَ تَجْزِي مَنْ شَكَرَ

36. And (Lūt) did warn them<sup>5156</sup>
Of Our Punishment, but
They disputed about the Warning.

٥٦ وَلَقَدْ أَنْذَرَهُمْ بَطْشَتَنَا فَتَمَارَوْا بِالْأُنْذُرِ

5151. See n. 1047 to vii, 78, and cf. the same phrase "single Blast" used for the signal for the Resurrection in xxxvi, 53. In the case of the Thamūd, the destruction seems to have been by a severe earthquake accompanied with a terrible rumbling noise.

5152. They became like dry sticks such as are used by herdsmen in making pens or enclosures for their cattle.

5153. The story of Lot (Lūt) and the Cities of the Plain has been frequently referred to. See xi, 74-83

5154. Hāṣib : a violent tornado bringing a shower of stones. The word occurs here ; in xvii, 68 (without reference to any particular place) ; in xxix, 40 (where it seems to refer to Lot's Cities, see n. 3462) ; and in lxvii, 17 (where again there is no reference to a particular place) In Lot's Cities the shower was of brimstone ; see xi, 82.

5155. "Giving thanks" to God in Quranic phrase is to obey God's Law, to do His Will, to practise righteousness, to use all gifts in His service.

5156. Cf. xi, 78-79.

From among ourselves!
Shall we follow such a one? <sup>5147</sup>
Truly should we then be
Straying in mind, and mad!

25. "Is it that the Message
Is sent to him,
Of all people amongst us?
Nay, he is a liar,
An insolent one!" <sup>5148</sup>

26. Ah! they will know
On the morrow, which is
The liar, the insolent one!

27. For We will send
The she-camel <sup>5149</sup>
By way of trial for them.
So watch them, (O Salih),
And possess thyself in patience!

28. And tell them that
The water is to be
Divided between them: <sup>5150</sup>
Each one's right to drink
Being brought forward
(By suitable turns).

29. But they called
To their companion,
And he took a sword
In hand, and hamstrung (her).

30. Ah! how (terrible) was
My Penalty and My Warning!

يَتَأَوَّلُونَ قَوْلَهُ إِذَا آتَىٰ فِي ضَلَالٍ وَسُعُرٍ

٥١٤٧ أَلَيْسَ الَّذِي كُرِّهُ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ بَيْنِنَا بَلْ هُوَ كَذَّابٌ أَشِرٌّ

٥١٤٨ سَيَعْلَمُونَ غَدًا مَنِ الْكَذَّابُ الْأَشِرُّ

٥١٤٩ إِنَّا مُرْسِلُوا الْقَامَةِ فِتْنَةً لَّهُمْ فَارْتَقِبْهُمْ وَاصْطَبِرْ

٥١٥٠ وَبَيِّنْ لَهُمْ أَنَّ الْمَاءَ قِسْمَةٌ بَيْنَهُمْ كُلٌّ شَرْبٌ خَافِضٌ

٥١٥١ فَنَادَوْا صَاحِبَهُمْ فَتَعَاطَىٰ فَعَقَرَ

٥١٥٢ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنَذِيرٌ

5147. Because the Preacher is one among so many, and different from them, although brought up among themselves, it is made a cause of reproach against him, when it should have been an index leading to a searching of their hearts and an examination of their ways.

5148. Pure abuse, as a contrast to Salih's expostulation! See xxvi. 141-158, and notes.

5149. See n. 1044 to vii. 73, for the she-camel as a trial or test case among selfish people who tried to monopolise water and pasture as against the poor.

5150. See xxvi. 155-56. All were to have water in due turn. It was to be no one's monopoly. And certainly the gates were not to be shut against the poor or their cattle.

To understand and remember :
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition ?

لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ

18. The 'Ad (people) (too)
Rejected (Truth): then
How terrible was
My Penalty and My Warning ?

١٨ كَذَّبَتْ عَادٌ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنَذِيرِ

19. For We sent against them<sup>5144</sup>
A furious wind, on a Day
Of violent Disaster,

١٩ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا صَرْصَرًا فِي يَوْمٍ
نَحْسٍ مُسْتَمِرٍّ

20. Plucking out men as if
They were roots of palm-trees
Torn up (from the ground).

٢٠ نَزَعْنَا النَّاسَ كَأَنَّهُمْ أَعْجَازُ نَخْلٍ مُنْقَعِرٍ

21. Yea, how (terrible) was
My Penalty and My Warning!<sup>5145</sup>

٢١ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنَذِيرِ

22. But We have indeed
Made the Qur-ān easy
To understand and remember :
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition ?

٢٢ وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ

SECTION 2.

23. The Thamūd (also)
Rejected (their) Warners.

٢٣ كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ بِالنُّذُرِ

24. For they said : " What ! "<sup>5146</sup>
A man ! a solitary one

٢٤ فَقَالُوا أَبَشَرًا

5144. Cf. xli. 16. How graphic is the description of the tornado that uprooted them ! It must indeed be a dreadful tornado that plucks up the palm-trees by their deep tap-roots. The " Day " is an indefinite period of time. The wind that destroyed the 'Ad people lasted seven nights and eight days : lxix. 7.

5145. Repeated from verse 18 to heighten the description of the sin, the penalty, and the criminal negligence of the sinners in refusing the warnings on account of their self-complacent confidence in their own strength and stability ! It is repeated again as a secondary refrain in liv. 30 and (with slight modification) in liv. 32 and 39.

5146. The psychology of the Thamūd is more searchingly analysed here than in xli. 17, to show up the contrast between shallow men's ideas about Revelation, and the real sanity, humanism, social value, and truth of Revelation. To them the Revelation was brought by Ṣālih.

12. And We caused the earth
To gush forth with springs.
So the waters met (and rose) <sup>5137</sup>
To the extent decreed.

﴿١٢﴾ وَفَجَّرْنَا الْأَرْضَ عُيُونًا فَالْتَقَى الْمَاءُ عَلَى أَمْرٍ قَدْ قُدِّرَ

13. But We bore him
On an (Ark) made of
Broad planks and caulked <sup>5138</sup>
With palm-fibre :

﴿١٣﴾ وَحَمَلْنَاهُ عَلَى ذَاكَ الْأَیَّامِ ثُلُثِ ذُرِّيَّتِهِ

14. She floats under our eyes
(And care) : a recompense <sup>5139</sup>
To one who had been
Rejected (with scorn) !

﴿١٤﴾ تَجْرِي بِأَعْيُنِنَا جَزَاءً لِمَنْ كَانَ كُفِرَ

15. And We have left
This as a Sign <sup>5140</sup>
(For all time) : then
Is there any that will Receive admonition ? <sup>5141</sup>

﴿١٥﴾ وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْنَاهَا آيَةً فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ

16. But how (terrible) was <sup>5142</sup>
My Penalty and My Warning ?

﴿١٦﴾ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنُذْرٍ

17. And We have indeed
Made the Qur-ān easy <sup>5143</sup>

﴿١٧﴾ وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ

5137. The torrents of rain from above combined with the gush of waters from underground springs, and caused a huge Flood which inundated the country.

5138 Dusur, plural of disār, which means the palm-fibre with which boats are caulked: from dasara, to ram in, to spear. A derived meaning is "nails", (which are driven into planks): this latter meaning also applies, and is preferred by translators not familiar with the construction of simple boats.

5139. As usual, God's Mercy in saving His faithful servants takes precedence of His Wrath and Penalty: And He helps and rewards those whom the world rejects and despises !

5140. Cf. xxix 15. where the Ark (with the salvation it brought to the righteous) is mentioned as a Sign for all Peoples. So also in xxv, 37 and xxvi, 121. it is a Sign for men. Similarly the saving of Lot, with the destruction of the wicked Cities of the Plain, is mentioned as a Sign left for those who would understand: xxix, 35, and li, 37.

5141. A refrain that occurs six times in this Sūra: see Introduction.

5142. While the Mercy of God is always prominently mentioned, we must not forget or minimise the existence of Evil, and the terrible Penalty it incurs if the Grace of God and His Warning are deliberately rejected.

5143. While the Qur-ān sums up the highest philosophy of the inner life, its simple directions for conduct are plain and easy to understand and act upon. Is this not in itself a part of the Grace of God? And what excuse is there for any one to fail in receiving admonition?

6. Therefore, (O Prophet,) <sup>5131</sup>
 Turn away from them.
 The Day that the Caller <sup>5132</sup>
 Will call (them)
 To a terrible affair,

① فَنُؤَلِّهِمْ يَوْمَ يَدْعُ الدَّاعِ إِلَى شَيْءٍ نَّكَرٍ

7. They will come forth,—
 Their eyes humbled—
 From (their) graves, (torpid) <sup>5133</sup>
 Like locusts scattered abroad,

② خُشَعًا أَبْصَرُهُمْ يَخْرُجُونَ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ
 كَأَنَّهُمْ جَرَادٌ مُّنتَشِرٌ

8. Hastening, with eyes transfixed,
 Towards the Caller!—
 "Hard is this Day!",
 The Unbelievers will say.

③ مُهْطِعِينَ إِلَى الدَّاعِ يَقُولُ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا
 يَوْمٌ عَسِيرٌ

9. Before them the People
 Of Noah rejected (their apostle):
 They rejected Our servant, <sup>5134</sup>
 And said, "Here is
 One possessed!", and he
 Was driven out.

④ * كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ فَكَذَّبُوا
 عَبْدَنَا وَقَالُوا مَجْنُونٌ وَازْدُجِرَ

10. Then he called on his Lord:
 "I am one overcome:
 Do Thou then help (me)!" <sup>5135</sup>

⑤ فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ أَنِّي مَغْلُوبٌ فَانْتَصِرَ

11. So We opened the gates
 Of heaven, with water
 Pouring forth.

⑥ فَفَتَحْنَا أَبْوَابَ السَّمَاءِ بِمَاءٍ مُّنْهَمِرٍ

5132 For a time godlessness seems to triumph, but the triumph is short-lived. And in any case there is the great Reckoning of the Day of Judgment.

5133 The angel whose voice will call at the Resurrection and direct all souls Cf. xx. 108, 111.

5134 At one stage in the invasion of locust swarms, the locusts are torpid and are scattered abroad all over the ground. I have seen them on railway tracks in 'Irāq, crushed to death in hundreds by passing trains. The simile is apt for the stunned beings who will rise up in swarms from their graves and say, "Ah! woe unto us! who has raised us up?" (xxxvi 52).

5135 The story of Noah and the Flood is frequently referred to in the Qur-ān. The passage which best illustrates this passage will be found in xi. 25-48. Note in that passage how they first insult and abuse him arrogantly; how he humbly argues with them; how they laugh him to scorn, as much as to say that he was a madman possessed of some evil spirit; and how the Flood comes and he is saved in the Ark, and the wicked are doomed to destruction.

5136 He did not call down punishment. He merely asked for help in his mission, as he felt himself overpowered by brute force and cast out, which prevented the fulfilment of his mission. But the wicked generation were past all repentance, and they were wiped out.

Sūra LIV.

Qamar, or the Moon.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

1. The Hour (of Judgment)<sup>5127</sup>
Is nigh, and the moon
Is cleft asunder.<sup>5128</sup>

2. But if they see
A Sign, they turn away,
And say, "This is
(But) transient magic."<sup>5129</sup>

3. They reject (the warning)
And follow their (own) lusts
But every matter has<sup>5130</sup>
Its appointed time.

4. There have already come
To them Recitals wherein<sup>5131</sup>
There is (enough) to check (them),

5. Mature wisdom ;—but
(The preaching of) Warners
Profits them not.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① أَقْرَبَ السَّاعَةِ وَأَنْشَقَّ الْقَمَرُ

② وَإِنْ يَرَوْا آيَةً يُعْرِضُوا وَيَقُولُوا سِحْرٌ مُسْتَعْتِرٌ

③ وَكَذَّبُوا وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَكُلُّ أَمْرٍ مُسْتَقَرٌّ

④ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مِنَ الْأَنْبَاءِ مَا فِيهِ مُزْدَجَرٌ

⑤ حِكْمَةٌ بَلِغَةٌ فَاَنْغَرَّ النَّذِيرُ

5127. See para. 2 of the Introduction to S. liii. The idea of the Judgment being nigh at the beginning of this Sūra connects it with the same idea at the end of the last Sūra (verse 57), though the actual words used in the two cases are different.

5128. Three explanations are given in the Mufradāt, and perhaps all three apply here: (1) that the moon once appeared cleft asunder in the valley of Mecca within sight of the Prophet, his Companions, and some Unbelievers; (2) that the prophetic past tense indicates the future, the cleaving asunder of the moon being a Sign of the Judgment approaching; and (3) that the phrase is metaphorical, meaning that the matter has become clear as the moon. That the first was noticed by contemporaries, including Unbelievers, is clear from verse 2. The second is an incident of the disruption of the solar system at the New Creation: C/. lxxv. 8-9. And the third might well be implied as in eastern allegory, based on the other two.

5129. Muslamirr: transient, or powerful; either meaning will apply. The Unbelievers acknowledge the unusual appearance, but call it magic. They do not therefore profit by the spiritual lesson.

5130. The prevalence of sin and the persecution of truth may have its day, but it must end at last.

5131. The stories of the sins of past generations having been visited with exemplary punishments were already in their possession, and should, if they had been wise, have opened their eyes and checked them in their mad career of sin. Five of these stories are again referred to later in this Sūra by way of illustration.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LIV (Qamar).

This is an early Meccan Sūra, the fifth in the series dealing with Judgment, and the truth of Revelation, as explained in the Introduction to S. I.

The theme of the Sūra is explained by the refrain : "Is there any that will receive admonition?" which occurs six times, at the end of each reference to a past story of sin and rejection of warnings and in the appeal to the simplicity of the Qur-ān (verses 15; 17, 22, 32, 40, and 51). There is an invitation to listen to the Message and turn to Truth and Righteousness.

Summary.—The Hour of Judgment is nigh, but men forget or reject the Message, as did the people of Noah, of 'Ād, of Thamūd, of Lot, and of Pharaoh. Is there any that will receive admonition? (liv. 1-55, and C. 231.)

C. 231.—With every breath of our life, comes nearer
(liv. 1-55.) And nearer the Hour of Judgment: the proud
Will be brought low: the lovers of ease
Will find themselves in hardship. Come!
Is there any that will truly receive admonition?
So said Noah, but his people rejected
The warning and perished. We have made
Our Revelation easy to understand and follow.
Is there any that will truly receive admonition?
So said the prophets of 'Ād and Thamūd;
So said the prophets deputed to the People
Of Lūt and of Pharaoh: but the wicked continued
In sin and defiance and perished. Will the present Generation learn wisdom by warning? Alas!
Is there any that will truly receive admonition?
The Righteous will dwell in their Gardens of Bliss,—
In the joyful Assembly of realised Truth,
In the Presence of their Sovereign Most High!

60. And will ye laugh <sup>5125</sup>
And not weep,—

⑩ وَتَضْحَكُونَ وَلَا تَبْكُونَ

61. Wasting your time
In vanities?

⑪ وَأَنْتُمْ مُسْتَعِدُونَ

62. But fall ye down in prostration
To God, and adore (Him)! <sup>5126</sup>

⑫ فَاسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ وَاعْبُدُوا

5125. The higher issues of Life and the Hereafter are serious, and therefore all that we do in this life is serious and important. We must shun inanities and frivolities. It is no laughing time. If we only realised our own shortcomings, we should weep, with our good angels who weep for us. But weeping by itself will not help. We must try and understand God and adore Him. Thus shall we be able to understand ourselves and our fellow-men.

5126. And so we are invited to prostrate ourselves and adore Him. For this is the true end of Revelation and the true attitude when we understand the world, Nature, History and the working of God's Plan.

51. And the Thamūd,
Nor gave them a lease
Of perpetual life.

٥١ وَثَمُودَ إِذْ آتَيْنَاهُ
مَاءً فَسَوَّىٰ

52. And before them,
The people of Noah,
For that they were (all)
Most unjust
And most insolent transgressors,

٥٢ وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ مِّن قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا هُمْ أَظْلَمَ
وَأَطْغَىٰ

53. And He destroyed
The Overthrown Cities <sup>5121</sup>
(Of Sodom and Gomorrah),

٥٣ وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَةَ أَهْوَىٰ

54. So that (ruins unknown)
Have covered them up.

٥٤ فَغَشَّاهَا مَا غَشَّىٰ

55. Then which of the gifts <sup>5122</sup>
Of thy Lord, (O man,)
Wilt thou dispute about ?

٥٥ فَيَأْتِيهِ الْآءُ رَبِّكَ تَتَمَارَىٰ

56. This is a Warner, <sup>5123</sup>
Of the (series of) Warners
Of old !

٥٦ هَٰذَا نَذِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّذِرِ الْأَوَّلِ

57. The (Judgment) ever approaching
Draws nigh :

٥٧ أَزِفَ الْأَرْزَقُ

58. No (soul) but God
Can lay it bare.

٥٨ لَيْسَ لَهَا مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ كَاشِفَةٌ

59. Do ye then wonder <sup>5124</sup>
At this recital ?

٥٩ أَفَمَن هَٰذَا الْحَدِيثِ تُعْجِبُونَ

5121. Verses 53-60 may be construed as a commentary on the aphorisms. The story of the Overthrown Cities, to which Lot was sent for a warning, will be found in xi. 74-83 and the notes thereon. This story may well be treated as separate from the aphorisms as it refers to events that happened in the later life of Abraham.

5122. With a slight modification this forms the refrain of the next Sūra but one, the highly poetical Sūra of Rahmān. In S. liv, 15, 17, etc., there is a similar refrain in different words. Every gift and benefit you have is from God, and to save you from the just punishment of your sins, God at all times sends revelations and Messengers to warn you. Why not accept God's Grace instead of disputing about it?

5123. The Prophet before the Quraish (and before us) continues the line of men of God who have come to teach mankind and lead men into unity and righteousness. Shall we not listen to his voice? Every day that passes, the Judgment approaches nearer and nearer. But God alone can say at what precise hour it will come to any of us. It is certain, and yet it is a mystery, which God alone can lay bare.

5124. Mere wondering will not do, even if it is the wonder of admiration. Each soul must strive and act, and God's Mercy will take it under its wings.

43. That it is He Who
Granteth Laughter and Tears ;

④ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَضْحَكَ وَأَبْكَى

44. That it is He Who .
Granteth Death and Life ;

⑤ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَمَاتَ وَأَحْيَا

45. That He did create
In pairs,—male and female,<sup>5116</sup>

⑥ وَأَنَّهُ يُخْلِقُ الزَّوْجَيْنِ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى

46. From a seed when lodged
(In its place) ;

⑦ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ إِذَا تَسَنَّى

47. That He hath promised
A Second Creation
(Raising of the Dead) ;<sup>5117</sup>

⑧ وَأَن عَلَيْهِ النَّشْأَةُ الْآخِرَى

48. That it is He Who
Giveth wealth and satisfaction ;<sup>5118</sup>

⑨ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَغْنَى وَأَقْنَى

49. That He is the Lord
Of Sirius (the Mighty Star) ;<sup>5119</sup>

⑩ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ رَبُّ الشَّعَرَى

50. And that it is He
Who destroyed the (powerful)
Ancient 'Ad (people),<sup>5120</sup>

⑪ وَأَنَّهُ أَهْلَكَ عَادًا الْأُولَى

5116 The seventh aphorism relates to the mystery of sex: all things are created in pairs; each sex performs its proper function, and yet its wonderful working is part of the creative process of God: the living seed fructifies, but contains within itself all the factors disclosed in its later development and life.

5117. No less wonderful is the promise He has made about the raising of the dead, and a new life in the Hereafter, and this is the subject of the eighth aphorism.

5118. Wealth and material gain are sought by most men, in the hope that they will be a source of enjoyment and satisfaction. But this hope is not always fulfilled. There is a psychical and spiritual side to it. But both the material and the spiritual side depend upon the working of God's Plan. This is referred to in the ninth aphorism.

5119. The tenth aphorism refers to a mighty phenomenon of nature, the magnificent star Sirius, which is such a prominent object in the skies, in the early part of the solar year, say, from January to April. It is the brightest star in the firmament, and its bluish light causes wonder and terror in Pagan minds. The Pagan Arabs worshipped it as a divinity. But God is the Lord, Creator and Cherisher, of the most magnificent part of Creation, and worship is due to Him alone.

5120. The eleventh and last aphorism refers to the punishment of the most powerful ancient peoples for their sins. For the 'Ad people, see n. 1010 to vii 65, and for the Thamūd, see n. 1043 to vii. 73. They were strong; and they were talented; but their strength and their talents did not save them from being destroyed for their sins. The same may be said about the earlier generation of Noah, who were destroyed in the Flood: they "rejected Our Signs; they were indeed a blind people" (vii. 64); see also n. 1039 to vii 59; and xi. 25-49.

Ancient 'Ad (people): some Commentators construe, "First 'Ad people", distinguishing them from the later 'Ad people, a remnant that had their day and passed away.

35. What! Has he knowledge
Of the unseen
So that he can see? <sup>5109</sup>

٣٥ أَعِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ فَهَوْ يَرَى

36. Nay, is he not acquainted
With what is in the books <sup>5110</sup>
Of Moses—

٣٦ أَمْ لَمْ يَنْتَبِهْ بِمَا فِي صُحُفِ مُوسَى

37. And of Abraham <sup>5111</sup>
Who fulfilled his engagements? — <sup>5112</sup>

٣٧ وَابْرَاهِيمَ الَّذِي وَفَّى

38. Namely, that no bearer <sup>5113</sup>
Of burdens can bear
The burden of another;

٣٨ أَلَا نَزَرُ وَأَزَرُهُ وَزَرَ آخَرَى

39. That man can have nothing
But what he strives for;

٣٩ وَأَنْ لَيْسَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ إِلَّا مَا سَعَى

40. That (the fruit of) his striving <sup>5114</sup>
Will soon come in sight;

٤٠ وَأَنْ سَعْيُهُ سَوْفَ يَرَى

41. Then will he be rewarded
With a reward complete;

٤١ ثُمَّ يُجْزَاهُ الْجِزَاءَ الْأَوْفَى

42. That to thy Lord
Is the final Goal; <sup>5115</sup>

٤٢ وَأَنْ إِلَى رَبِّكَ الْمُنْتَهَى

5109. 'So that he can see what will happen in the Hereafter': for no bargains can be struck about matters unknown.

5110. Books of Moses: apparently not the Pentateuch, or the Taurāṭ, but some other book or books now lost. For example, the Book of the Wars of Jehovah is referred to in the Old Testament (Num. xxi. 14) but is now lost. The present Pentateuch has no clear message at all of a Life to come.

5111. No original Book of Abraham is now extant. But a book called "The Testament of Abraham" has come down to us, which seems to be a Greek translation of a Hebrew original. See n. 6094 to lxxxvii. 19, where the Books of Moses and Abraham are again mentioned together.

5112. One of the titles of Abraham is Hantī, the True in Faith: Cf. xvi. 120, 123.

5113. Here follows a series of eleven aphorisms of ancient wisdom apparently incorporated in current Semitic folklore. The first is that a man's spiritual burden—the responsibility for his sin—must be borne by himself and not by another: Cf. vi. 164. There can be no vicarious atonement.

5114. The second and third aphorisms are that man must strive, or he will gain nothing; and that if he strives, the result must soon appear in sight and he will find his reward in full measure.

5115. The fourth, fifth, and sixth aphorisms are that all things return to God; that all our hope should be in Him, and we should fear none but Him; and that He alone can give Life and Death.

Only (falling into) small faults,—
 Verily thy Lord is ample<sup>5106</sup>
 In forgiveness. He knows
 You well when He brings
 You out of the earth,
 And when ye are hidden
 In your mothers' wombs.
 Therefore justify not yourselves:<sup>5107</sup>
 He knows best who it is.
 That guards against evil.

إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِنَّكَ ذَبِكُ وَاسِعُ الْغُفْرِ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ
 بِكُمْ إِذَا أَنشَأَكُم مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ وَإِذَا أَنْتُمْ
 أَرْجِلُونَ فِي بُطُونِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ فَلَا تُزَكُّوْا
 أَنْفُسَكُمْ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنِ اتَّقَى

C. 230.—When once in God's Way, turn not away,
 Nor check your generous impulse to give
 Your all to God. The spiritual world
 Unseen is above all worldly bargains.
 Each soul must bear its own responsibility.
 It must strive its utmost and attain its end.
 The final Goal of all is God:
 In His hands are Laughter and Tears, Life
 And Death, the mystery of Birth and Creation,
 And the Hereafter. He controls our Bliss
 And inner satisfaction. He is Lord
 Of the highest and noblest in Nature. His hand
 Traces the course of History. Learn,
 Oh learn from His Revelation, and
 Adore the Lord of your inmost Soul!

SECTION 3.

33. Seest thou cre<sup>5108</sup>
 Who turns back,

﴿٣﴾ أَفَوَيْتَ الَّذِي يُنَادِي تَوَلَّى

34. Gives a little,
 Then hardens (his heart)?

﴿٤﴾ وَأَعْطَى قَلِيلًا وَأَخْتَدَى

5106. God's attributes of Mercy and Forgiveness are unlimited. They come into action without our asking, but on our bringing our wills as offerings to Him. Our asking or prayer helps us to bring our minds and wills as offerings to Him. That is necessary to frame our own psychological preparedness. It informs God of nothing, for He knows all.

5107. As God knows our inmost being, it is absurd for us to justify ourselves, either by pretending that we are better than we are, or by finding excuses for our conduct. We must offer ourselves unreservedly, such as we are: it is His Mercy and Grace that will cleanse us. If we try, out of love for Him, to guard against evil, our striving is all that He asks for.

5108. The particular reference in this passage, according to Balidhawi, is to Walid ibn Mugaira, who bargained with a Quraish Pagan for a certain sum if the latter would take upon himself the sins of Walid. He paid a part of the sum but withheld the rest. The general application that concerns us is threefold: (1) if we accept Islam, we must accept it whole-heartedly and not look back to Pagan superstitions; (2) we cannot play fast and loose with our promises and (3) no man can bargain about spiritual matters, for he cannot see what his end will be, unless he follows the law of God, which is the law of righteousness.

27. Those who believe not
In the Hereafter, name
The angels with female names.<sup>5102</sup>

28. But they have no knowledge
Therein. They follow nothing
But conjecture; and conjecture<sup>5103</sup>
Avails nothing against Truth.

29. Therefore shun those who Turn away from Our Message
And desire nothing but
The life of this world.

30. That is as far as<sup>5104</sup>
Knowledge will reach them.
Verily thy Lord knoweth best
Those who stray from
His Path, and He knoweth
Best those who receive guidance.

31. Yea, to God belongs all
That is in the heavens
And on earth: so that
He rewards those who do<sup>5105</sup>
Evil, according to their deeds,
And He rewards those who
Do good, with what is best.

32. Those who avoid
Great sins and shameful deeds,

٥٣ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ

لَيَسْمُونَنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ تَسْمِيَةً الْأُنثَى

٥٤ وَمَا لَهُمْ بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِن يَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا الظَّنَّ

وَأَنَّ الظَّنَّ لَا يَصْنَعُ مِنَ الْحَقِّ شَيْئًا

٥٥ فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْ مَنْ تَوَلَّى عَنْ ذِكْرِنَا وَلَمْ يُرِدْ

إِلَّا الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا

٥٦ ذَلِكَ مَبْلَغُهُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنِ

ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنِ اهْتَدَى

٥٧ وَلِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لِيَجْزِيَ

الَّذِينَ اسْتَوُوا بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ

أَخْسَرُوا بِالْحَسَنَى

٥٨ الَّذِينَ يَجْتَنِبُونَ كَبِيرَ الْإِثْمِ وَالْفَوَاحِشَ

5102. Cf. lili. 21 above, and n. 5096. The Pagan Quraish had no firm belief in the Hereafter. Their prayers for intercession to angels and deities was on account of their worldly affairs.

5103. Cf. lili. 23 above, and n. 5098

5104. Men with a materialist turn of mind, whose desires are bounded by sex and material things, will not go beyond those things. Their knowledge will be limited to the narrow circle in which their thoughts move. The spiritual world is beyond their ken. While persons with a spiritual outlook, even though they may fail again and again in attaining their full ideals, are on the right Path. They are willing to receive guidance, and God's Grace will find them out and help them.

5105. All deeds have their consequences, good or ill. But this is not an iron law, as the Determinists in philosophy, or the preachers of bare Karma, would have us believe. God does not sit apart. He governs the world. And Mercy as well as Justice are His attributes. In His Justice every deed or word or thought of evil has its consequence for the doer or speaker or thinker. But there is always in this life room for repentance and amendment. As soon as this is forthcoming, God's Mercy comes into action. It can blot out our evil, and the "reward" which it gives is nearly always greater than our merits

23. These are nothing but names
Which ye have devised, —<sup>5097</sup>
Ye and your fathers, —
For which God has sent
Down no authority (whatever).
They follow nothing but<sup>5098</sup>
Conjecture and what
Their own souls desire! —
Even though there has already
Come to them Guidance
From their Lord!

24. Nay, shall man have (just)
Anything he hankers after? <sup>5099</sup>

25. But it is to God
That the End and
The Beginning (of all things)
Belong.

SECTION 2.

26. ~~How~~ many-so-ever be
The angels in the heavens, <sup>5100</sup>
Their intercession will avail
Except after God has given<sup>5101</sup> nothing
Leave for whom He pleases
And that he is acceptable
To Him.

١٣ إِن هِيَ إِلَّا أَسْمَاءٌ سَمَّيْتُمُوهَا أَنْتُمْ
وَأَبَاؤُكُمْ مِمَّا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْهِمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ
يَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا الظَّنَّ وَمَا تَهْوَى الْأَنْفُسُ وَلَقَدْ
جَاءَهُمْ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ الْهُدَى

١٤ أَمْ لِلْإِنْسَانِ مَا تَمَنَّى

١٥ فَلِلَّهِ الْآخِرَةُ وَالْأُولَى

١٦ *وَكَمْ مِنْ مَلَكٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ لَا تُغْنِي
شَفَاعَتُهُمْ شَيْئًا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنْ يَأْذَنَ
اللَّهُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَرْضَى

5097. Cf. vii. 71; xii. 40, n. 1693. The divine names which they give to stocks and stones, or to heroes living or dead, or even to prophets and men of God, are but the creations of their own fancy. Whatever they were, they were not gods.

5098. Cf. vi. 116. Conjecture is a dangerous thing in speaking of divine things. It follows lines which reflect the lusts of men's own hearts. Why not follow the divine guidance which comes through men of God?

5099. The unpurified desires of men's hearts often lead to destruction, for they are dictated by Evil. The true source of guidance and light is God, just as He is also the goal to which all persons and things—all existence—returns.

5100. We are apt to imagine the angelic host of heaven as beings of immense power. But their power is all derived from God. Men, when they attain to the highest spiritual dignities, may have even more power and position than angels in the sight of God, as is typified by angels being bidden to bow down to Adam: ii. 34. The Quraish superstition about angels being intermediaries and intercessors for man with God is condemned.

5101. Cf. xx. 109 and xxi. 28. No one can intercede except with the permission of God, and that permission will only be given for one who is acceptable to God. For a possible different shade of meaning, see n. 2634 to xx. 109.

15. Near it is the Garden
Of Abode.<sup>5094</sup>

⑩ عِنْدَهَا جَنَّةُ الْمَأْوَىٰ

16. Behold, the Lote-tree
Was shrouded
(In mystery unspeakable!)

⑪ إِذْ يَغْشَى السَّدْرَةَ مَا يَغْشَىٰ

17. (His) sight never swerved,
Nor did it go wrong!

⑫ مَا زَاغَ الْبَصَرُ وَمَا طَغَىٰ

18. For truly did he see,
Of the Signs of his Lord,
The Greatest!

⑬ لَقَدْ رَأَىٰ مِنْ آيَاتِ رَبِّهِ الْكُبْرَىٰ

19. Have ye seen <sup>5095</sup>
Lat, and 'Uzzā,

⑭ أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ اللَّاتَ وَالْعُزَّىٰ

20. And another,
The third (goddess), Manāt?

⑮ وَمَنَاةَ الثَّالِثَةَ الْأُخْرَىٰ

21. What! For you <sup>5096</sup>
The male sex,
And for Him, the female?

⑯ أَلَكُمُ الذَّكَرُ وَلَهُ الْأُنثَىٰ

22. Behold, such would be
Indeed a division
Most unfair!

⑰ تِلْكَ إِذْ قَسَمَ خُضَيْرَىٰ

5094. The Mansion or Throne (figuratively) or Special Presence,—if the Throne or Presence could ever be localised in our thoughts: for God's "Throne doth extend over the heavens and the earth" (ii. 255). The point was reached when the spiritual knowledge of man could reach no higher. The Ṣūfis interpret the Lote-tree in Islam to be what the Burning Bush in the valley of Tuwā was to Moses: Q xx 10-13, and n 2541; and Exod iii. 1-6. Only, in the case of Moses it was but a prefigurement of the divine effulgence on this earth: in the case of Muḥammad it was the divine Glory in heaven itself, and it was "shrouded in mystery unspeakable". This was indeed "the Greatest of the Signs of the Lord" (lii. 18).

5095. From the heights of divine Glory, we come back again to this sorry earth, with its base idolatries. We are asked to "look at this picture, and at that!" The three principal idols of Pagan Arab Idolatry were the goddesses Lāt, 'Uzzā, and Manāt. Opinions differ as to their exact forms: one version is that Lāt was in human shape, 'Uzzā had its origin in a sacred tree, and Manāt in a white stone. They all represented God in female form.

5096. To show God in human shape, or imagine sons or daughters of God, as if God were flesh, was in any case a derogation from the supreme glory of God, high above all creatures, even if the human shapes were invested with great beauty and majesty as in the Greek Pantheon. But when we consider in what low opinion Pagan Arabia held the female sex, it was particularly degrading to show God, or so-called daughters of God, in female shapes. Cf. xvi. 57-59, and n. 2082; also lii. 39, and n. 5073.

7. While he was in
The highest part <sup>5088</sup>
Of the horizon :
8. Then he approached
And came closer,
9. And was at a distance
Of but two bow-lengths <sup>5089</sup>
Or (even) nearer ;
10. So did (God) convey <sup>5090</sup>
The inspiration to His Servant—
(Conveyed) what He (meant)
To convey.
11. The (Prophet's) (mind and) heart
In no way falsified <sup>5091</sup>
That which he saw.
12. ~~Will~~ ill ye then dispute
With him concerning
What he saw ?
13. For indeed he saw him
At a second descent, <sup>5092</sup>
14. Near the Lote-tree <sup>5093</sup>
Beyond which none may pass :

⑦ وَهُوَ بِالْأَفْقِ الْأَعْلَى

⑧ ثُمَّ دَنَا فَتَدَلَّى

⑨ فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ أَوْ أَدْنَى

⑩ فَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ عَبْدِهِ مَا أَوْحَىٰ

⑪ مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَا رَأَىٰ

⑫ أَفْتُمِرُونَ عَلَىٰ مَا بَيَّنَّنَىٰ

⑬ وَلَقَدْ رَآهُ نَزْلَةً أُخْرَىٰ

⑭ عِنْدَ سِدْرَةِ الْمُنْتَهَىٰ

5088. Gabriel appeared in stately form, perhaps towering above the Mountain of Light (see C. 31), Islawā in verse 6, translated "appeared", means literally "mounted" or "ascended", or "set himself to execute a design": see n. 1386 to x. 3.

5089. Two bow-shots (counting 100 to 150 yards to a bow-shot) would be a clearly visible distance. But Sūfī mysticism would interpret: "two drawn bows, with their chords touching" making a complete circle of union. In this case the "one Mighty in Power" in verse 5 above would be not Gabriel, but the Supreme Being, Who Himself taught the Prophet.

5090. Gabriel would be just a messenger, to do no more than convey God's Message to God's Apostle.

5091. "Heart" in Arabic includes the faculty of intelligence as well as the faculty of feeling. The impression conveyed was pure truth; there was no illusion in it.

5092. The first occasion when Gabriel appeared in a visible form was at the Mountain of Light, when he brought his first revelation beginning with Iqraa: see C. 29-35. The second was at the Prophet's Mi'raj or Ascension: see Introduction to S. xvii, paras 2-4. These were the only two occasions when Gabriel appeared in visible form. The Mi'raj appearance was near the Lote-tree in the highest heaven, above which (figuratively) is the Throne of God.

5093. For the Lote-tree in its literal meaning, see n. 3814 to xxxiv. 16. The wild Lote is thorny; under cultivation it yields good fruit and shade, and is symbolic of heavenly bliss, as here and in lvi. 28. The symbolism here is that the farthest Lote-tree marked the bounds of heavenly knowledge as revealed to men, beyond which neither angels nor men could pass.

Sura LIII.

*Najm, or the Star.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Star<sup>5085</sup>
When it goes down,—
2. Your Companion is neither<sup>5086</sup>
Astray nor being misled,
3. Nor does he say (aught)
Of (his own) Desire.
4. It is no less than
Inspiration sent down to him :
5. He was taught by one<sup>5087</sup>
Mighty in Power,
6. Endued with Wisdom :
For he appeared
(In stately form)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① وَالنَّجْمِ إِذَا هَوَىٰ

② مَا ضَلَّ صَاحِبُكُمْ وَمَا غَوَىٰ

③ وَمَا يَنطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوَىٰ

④ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا وَحْيٌ يُوحَىٰ

⑤ عَلَّمَ شَدِيدُ الْقُوَىٰ

⑥ ذُو مِرَّةٍ فَاسْتَوَىٰ

5085. Najm is interpreted in various ways. As most commonly accepted, it means either a Star generically, or the close cluster of seven stars known as the Pleiades in the Constellation Taurus, which the sun enters about the 21st of April every year. In mid-April, or a little later, the beautiful cluster would set just after the sun, after having gradually ascended the sky in the winter months. In late May, or a little later, it would rise just before the sun. In its western aspects, it might be considered a spring constellation. To open-air nations (including the Arabs) whose climate usually presents starry skies, this is an object of great interest, and many folklore tales gather round it. When so glorious a cluster is content to bow down in the horizon and merge its light in the greater light created by God (see the last three lines of C 228), it becomes a symbol of humility in beauty and power before the Most High, Whose revelation discloses the summit of beauty, power, and wisdom.

Hawā in the text may mean either "goes down (or sets)" or "rises". Whichever meaning we take, it makes no difference to the symbolic interpretation given above.

5086 "Your Companion" is the holy Prophet Muhammad, who had lived among the Quraish all his life. He is defended from three kinds of charges that the Unbelievers brought against him: (1) that he was going astray, either through defect of intelligence or through carelessness; (2) that he was being misled or deceived by evil spirits; and (3) that he spoke out of a whim or impulse, or from a selfish desire to impress his own personality. None of these charges was true. On the contrary he had direct inspiration from God.

5087. This is referred by the Commentators to the angel Gabriel, through whom the inspiration came. Cf. lxxxix. 20.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LIII (Najm).

This is an early Meccan Sūra, and is the fourth of the series of seven which were described in the Introduction to S. I.

The particular theme of this Sūra is that Revelation is not an illusion: the illusion is in the minds of those who doubt and have false ideas of God: God is the source and goal of all things.

In some Sūras the consecutive arrangement is shown or suggested by a cue-word. Here the cue-word is "star", corresponding to "stars" in the last verse of the last Sūra. So in xlv. 1, the words: "Exalted in Power, Full of Wisdom": are carried forward from the last verse of S. xlv, and indeed the same words occur in the first verse of S. xlv. So, again the words: "Most Merciful, Oft-Forgiving": in xxxiv. 2, refer back to the words: "Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful": in the last line of S. xxxiii. In S. liv. 1, the nearness of Judgment recalls the same idea at the end of the previous Sūra (liii. 57). Other examples will also be found.

Summary.—The impression received by the Prophet in revelation is neither error on his part nor deception by others, nor does he speak from selfish motives: it comes clearly from God, Who is not what the vain imaginations of men conceive: He is all-in-all, First and Last, Lord of all, Ample in forgiveness (liii. 1-32, and C. 229).

Those who turn away are petty and ignorant, not knowing that God is the source and goal of all things—in men, in nature, and in the events of history: therefore serve ye Him (liii. 33-62, and C. 230).

C. 229.—True revelation is not a process
(liii. 1-32) Either of error or deception, nor does
The Prophet speak from himself as he desires.
It is God's inspiration, true, without doubt.
It is reality,—the inner reality
Of heaven as far as knowledge can reach,
Not the false ideas and idols that men
Construct for themselves, names without truth
Behind them. The goal of all things is God,
As He is the One from Whom starts Reality.
No other can e'er intercede except
As He wills. He made us, and knows all
That we are. It is not for us to justify Ourselves, but to offer ourselves as we are.

For verily thou art
In Our eyes : <sup>5081</sup>
And celebrate the praises
Of thy Lord the while
Thou standest forth, <sup>5082</sup>

49. And for part of the night <sup>5083</sup>
Also praise thou Him,—
And at the retreat <sup>5084</sup>
Of the stars !

فَإِنَّكَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ حِينَ تَقُومُ

④ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ قَآذِرَ الْغُجُومِ

5081. The man of God must strive his utmost to proclaim the Message of God: as for results, it is not for him to command them. He must wait patiently, in the knowledge that he is not forgotten by God, but is constantly under God's eyes,—under His loving care and protection. And he must glorify God's name, as he is a standard-bearer of God's Truth.

5082. The translators and Commentators nearly all understand laqūmu in the sense of rising up from sleep. But the rendering I have given is consistent with Quranic usage. In xxvi. 218, we have the same two words hina laqūmu, meaning "standing forth (in prayer)". In lvii. 25, we have "li-yaqūm an-nāsu bil-qisṭi", which obviously means "that men may stand forth in justice," i.e. do all their business in justice. In lxxviii. 38, we have yaqūmu used for the angels standing forth in ranks.

On my rendering the meaning will be: 'celebrate God's praises when you stand forth in prayer, or at all times when you go about your business; but also for part of the night and at early dawn when worldly life is at a standstill.'

5083. It is not necessary to understand this for any particular canonical prayers. It is good to spend a part of the night in prayer and praise: Cf. lxxii. 6. And the Dawn is a daily recurring miracle of nature, full of spiritual influences and "testimony": Cf. xvii. 78-79.

5084. Idhār-un-nujūm; the retreat of the stars: the glorious hour of early dawn. In cxiii. 1, we seek God's protection as "Lord of the Dawn".

43. Or have they a god<sup>5077</sup>
Other than God?
Exalted is God
Far above the things
They associate with Him!

٥٢ أَمْ لَهُمْ آلَٰهٌ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ

44. ~~Were~~ Were they to see
A piece of the sky<sup>5078</sup>
Falling (on them), they
Would (only) say: "Clouds Gathered in heaps!"

٥٣ وَإِنْ يَرَوْا كِسْفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ سَاقِطًا يَقُولُوا سَحَابٌ مَّرْكُومٌ

45. So leave them alone
Until they encounter
That Day of theirs,
Wherein they shall (perforce)
Swoon (with terror),—<sup>5079</sup>

٥٤ فَذَرَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي فِيهِ يُصْعَقُونَ

46. The Day when their plotting
Will avail them nothing
And no help shall be Given them.

٥٥ يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ كَيْدُهُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ

47. And verily, for those
Who do wrong, there is Another punishment besides this:<sup>5080</sup>
But most of them
Understand not.

٥٦ إِنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا عَذَابًا دُونَ ذَلِكَ وَلَٰكِن أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

48. Now await in patience
The command of thy Lord:

٥٧ وَأَصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ

5077. This is the final and decisive question: Is there really any god other than the One True God? Every argument points to the negative. A series of questions has been asked above, pointing to the negative of the superstitions of the godless. The gospel of Unity, Revelation, and the Hereafter has thus been preached by a searching examination of the position of the Unbelievers. And the Sūra ends with an exhortation to leave alone those who will not believe because they wish not to believe, and to let Time work out the web and pattern of God's Plan.

5078. In xxvi. 187. Shu'aib, the man of God, is challenged by the Companions of the Wood "to cause a piece of the sky to fall on us, if thou art truthful." Such a challenge, in some form or other, is addressed to all men of God. It is mere defiance. It has no meaning. If a piece of the sky were to fall on them, it would not convince them, for they would only say: "These are only clouds gathered in heaps." They do not wish to believe. Otherwise there are ample Signs and Evidences of God's Plan in Creation and in man's own heart.

5079 That is, the Day of Judgment. Cf. xxxix. 68, and n. 4343.

5080 The final Judgment is for all. But in addition, wrong-doers have to fear a retribution or punishment in this very life, an open punishment through external events, or at least the bitter pangs of conscience within.

37. Or are the Treasures
Of thy Lord with them,<sup>5071</sup>
Or are they the managers
(Of affairs) ?

٣٧ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَبِّكَ أَمْ هُمُ الْمُصِيطِرُونَ

38. Or have they a ladder,<sup>5072</sup>
By which they can (climb
Up to heaven and) listen
(To its secrets) ? Then let (Such a) listener of theirs
Produce a manifest proof.

٣٨ أَمْ لَهُمْ سُلَّمٌ يَسْتَمِعُونَ فِيهِ فَلْيَأْنِ
مُسْتَمِعُهُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ

39. Or has He only daughters<sup>5073</sup>
And ye have sons ?

٣٩ أَمْ لَهُ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَكُمْ الْبَنُونَ

40. Or is it that thou
Dost ask for a reward,<sup>5074</sup>
So that they are burdened
With a load of debt ?—

٤٠ أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا فَهُمْ مِنْ مَغْرَمٍ مُثْقَلُونَ

41. Or that the Unseen<sup>5075</sup>
Is in their hands,
And they write it down ?

٤١ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ فَهُمْ يَكْتُبُونَ

42. Or do they intend
A plot (against thee) ?<sup>5076</sup>
But those who defy God
Are themselves involved
In a Plot !

٤٢ أَمْ يُرِيدُونَ كَيْدًا فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
هُمُ الْمَكِيدُونَ

5071. Cf. vi. 50, and n. 867. The Treasures of God's Knowledge are infinite. But the doubters and unbelievers have no access to them, much less can the doubters and unbelievers marage the wonders of this world. Must they not therefore seek grace and revelation from God ?

5072. Cf. vi. 35: a reference to the Pagan belief that by means of a material ladder a man might climb up to heaven and learn its secrets !

5073. Cf. xvi. 57-59, and n. 2082. To the gospel of Unity it is repugnant to assign begotten sons or daughters to God. But the Arab superstition about angels being the daughters of God was particularly blasphemous as the Pagan Arahs hated to have daughters themselves and considered it a mark of humiliation !

5074. The men of God ask for no reward to preach the Message of God and direct men to the right Path. Why then do men shun them and persecute those who seek to bring blessings to them ?

5075. The Unseen in the spiritual world is a subject of Revelation, though it works through the common everyday life of man. The men who reject Revelation simply because it is outside their own experience ought on the contrary to try to learn about it and seek to understand it.

5076. Shallow men who plot against Good are themselves the willing victims of insidious plots laid by Evil.

32. Is it that their faculties
Of understanding urge them <sup>5066</sup>
To this, or are they
But a people transgressing <sup>5067</sup>
Beyond bounds?

٣٢ أَمْ تَأْمُرُهُمْ أَعْيُنُهُمْ أَن يَقُولُوا
طَاغُونَ

33. Or do they say,
"He fabricated the (Message)"? <sup>5068</sup>
Nay, they have no faith!

٣٣ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ تَقَوَّلَهُ بَلْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ

34. Let them then produce
A recital like unto it,—
If (it be) they speak
The Truth!

٣٤ فَلْيَأْتُوا بِحَدِيثٍ مِّثْلِهِ إِنْ كَانُوا صَادِقِينَ

35. Were they created of nothing, <sup>5069</sup>
Or were they themselves
The creators?

٣٥ أَمْ خُلِقُوا مِنْ غَيْرِ شَيْءٍ أَمْ هُمُ الْخَالِقُونَ

36. Or did they create
The heavens and the earth?
Nay, they have
No firm belief. <sup>5070</sup>

٣٦ أَمْ خَلَقُوا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بَلْ لَا يُوقِنُونَ

5066. It may be that the persecutors of Truth are ignorant, and their deficient faculties of understanding mislead them, but it is more often the case that they are perverse rebels against the law of God, defending their own selfish interests, and preventing those whom they oppress, from getting justice.

5067. Cf. li. 53.

5068. As an alternative to the charges of being a soothsayer or a madman or a disgruntled poet, there is the charge of a forger or fabricator applied to the man of God when he produces his Message. This implies that there can be no Revelation or inspiration from God. Such an attitude negatives Faith altogether. But if this is so, can they produce a work of man that can compare with the inspired Word of God? They cannot. Cf. x. 37-39, and xvii. 88.

5069. "Were they created of nothing?" Three possible alternative meanings are suggested by the Commentators, according to the meaning we give to the Arabic preposition min=of, by, with, for. (1) 'Were they created by nothing? Did they come into existence of themselves? Was it a mere chance that they came into being? (2) Were they created as men out of nothing? Was there not a wonderful seed, from which their material growth can be traced, as the handiwork of a wise and wonderful Creator? Must they not then seek His Will? (3) Were they created for nothing, to no purpose? If they were created for a purpose, must they not try to learn that purpose by understanding God's Revelation?

5070. They obviously did not create the wonders of the starry heavens and the fruitful globe of the earth. But they can assign no definite cause to explain it, as they have no firm belief on the subject themselves.

27. " But God has been good
To us, and has delivered us
From the Penalty
Of the Scorching Wind.<sup>3061</sup>

﴿٧﴾ فَمَنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا وَقَنَاءَ عَذَابِ السَّمُورِ

28. " Truly, we did call
Unto Him from of old :
Truly it is He,
The Beneficent, the Merciful! "<sup>3062</sup>

﴿٨﴾ إِنَّا كُنَّا مِنْ قَبْلُ نَدْعُوهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْبَرُّ الرَّحِيمُ

SECTION 2.

29. "Therefore proclaim thou<sup>3063</sup>
The praises (of thy Lord):
For by the Grace
Of thy Lord, thou art
No (vulgar) soothsayer, nor
Art thou one possessed.

﴿٩﴾ فَذَكِّرْ فَإِنَّكَ بِرَيْعَتِ رَبِّكَ بِكَاهِنٍ
وَلَا مَجْنُونٍ

30. Or do they say :
" A Poet ! we await
For him some calamity<sup>3064</sup>
(Hatched) by Time ! "

﴿١٠﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ شَاعِرٌ نَتَرَبَّصُّ بِهِ رَيْبَ
الْمُنُونِ

31. Say thou : "Await ye !
I too will wait<sup>3065</sup>
Along with you ! "

﴿١١﴾ قُلْ تَرَبَّصُوا فَإِنِّي مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمُرَبِّصِينَ

3061. "Us" includes the good man or woman and all whom he or she cared for. This would be an ever-expanding circle, until it includes all mankind through Teachers like the Chosen One. The "Scorching Wind" is the type of haste, arrogance, and fire, such as entered into the composition of Jinns : xv, 27. The destiny of man is to attain to calm, peace, security, the Garden of Bliss.

3063. The nature of the spiritual kingdom, with its apex in God, having been explained in the last section, the man of God is now exhorted to go on proclaiming the Message of God, despite all that the foolish, ignorant, or wicked men may say. The greatest of the Prophets was called a soothsayer, i.e., one who tells fortunes by divination, or a madman possessed of some evil spirit, or a poet singing spiteful satires. Much more may lesser men be called by such names because they proclaim the Truth. They should go on in spite of it all.

3064. If a spiteful poet foretells evil calamities for men, men can afford to laugh at him, hoping that Time will bring about its revenge, and spite will come to an evil end. For the various meanings of Raib, seen, 1884 to xiv, 9. Some Commentators suggest Death as the Calamity hatched by Time.

3065. Cf. ix, 52. If the wicked wait or look for some calamity to befall the preacher of Truth, the preacher of Truth can with far more justice await the decision of the issue between him and his persecutors. For he stands for right, and God will support the right.

22. And We shall bestow
On them, of fruit and meat,<sup>5056</sup>
Anything they shall desire.

٢٢ وَأَمْدَدْنَاهُمْ فِيهِمْ وَخِم مِمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ

23. They shall there exchange,
One with another, -
A (loving) cup
Free of frivolity,<sup>5057</sup>
Free of all taint
Of ill.

٢٣ يَتَنَزَّعُونَ فِيهَا كَأْسًا لَا لَغْوُ فِيهَا وَلَا نَجَسٌ

24. Round about them will serve,
(Devoted) to them,
Youths (handsome) as Pearls<sup>5058</sup>
Well-guarded.

٢٤ وَيَطُوفُ عَلَيْهِمْ غِلَاقٌ لَّهُمْ كَأَنَّهُمْ
لُؤْلُؤٌ مَّكَوْنٌ

25. They will advance<sup>5059</sup>
To each other, engaging
In mutual enquiry.

٢٥ وَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ

26. They will say : "Aforetime,
We were not without fear
For the sake of our people."<sup>5060</sup>

٢٦ قَالُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا قَبْلَ فِي أَهْلِنَا مُشْفِقِينَ

5056. To be interpreted allegorically as the "feast of reason and the flow of soul." Note that this verse is embedded in the midst of the description of social bliss; the individual bliss figured by meat and drink has already been mentioned in verse 19 above. The social pleasures will be of any kind or quantity they shall desire, but their desires will then be purified, just as their pleasures will be on a different plane.

5057. Drinking or loving cups, in our life on this earth, are apt to be misused in two ways: (1) they may be occasions for mere frivolity or the wasting of time; (2) they may lead to evil thoughts, evil suggestions, evil talk, or evil deeds. To safeguard the allegory, it is added that the Cup in the final Bliss will be free from any taint of this kind. It will be pure love without any grossness whatever.

5058. The allegory is further continued. There is no question of sex in heaven. But the type of the grace and gentleness of womanhood having been implied in the word Hūr (verse 20 above), the type of the handsome and well-formed strength and splendour of manhood is mentioned here in the allegory of Pearls,—of the purest water, well-guarded from weathering and unsullied by rough usage. Their service will be the service of youth, whose glory is enthusiasm without self-interest.

Maknūn : well-guarded, kept close, concealed from exposure : the beautiful nacreous lustre of Pearls is disfigured by exposure to gases, vapours, or acids; when not actually in use they are best kept in closed caskets, guarded from deteriorating agencies.

5059. The third—and the highest—stage of Bliss, after individual Bliss and social Bliss, is the satisfaction of looking to the Past without its shadows and realising to the full in the Present the goodness of God. See n. 5050. This, again, is shared in mutual converse and confidence.

5060. A man may be good, and may within limits have found goodness in his own spiritual life, but may have anxieties about his family or friends whom he loves. All such shadows are removed in heaven by the Grace of God, and he is free to dwell on it in his confidential converse with other men similarly circumstanced.

19. (To them will be said:) <sup>5050</sup>
 "Eat and drink ye,
 With profit and health, <sup>5051</sup>
 Because of your (good) deeds."

① كَلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا بِمَا كُنتُمْ
 تَعْمَلُونَ

20. They will recline (with ease)
 On Thrones (of dignity)
 Arranged in ranks; <sup>5052</sup>
 And We shall join them
 To Companions, with beautiful
 Big and lustrous eyes. <sup>5053</sup>

② مُتَكِبِينَ عَلَى سُرُرٍ مَصْفُوفَةٍ وَزَوَّجْنَاهُمْ
 بِحُورٍ عِينٍ

21. And those who believe
 And whose families <sup>5054</sup> follow
 Them in Faith,—to them
 Shall We join their families:
 Nor shall We deprive them
 (Of the fruit) of aught
 Of their works:
 (Yet) is each individual
 In pledge for his deeds. <sup>5055</sup>

③ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَاتَّبَعَتْهُمْ ذُرِّيَّتُهُمْ
 بِإِيمَانٍ لِّحَقْنَاهُمْ ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ وَمَا أَلَتْنَاهُمْ
 مِنْ عَمَلِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ بِمَا كَسَبَ
 رَهِينٌ

5050. The bliss of the Righteous is described in three aspects: (1) their individual bliss, verses 17-20; (2) their social bliss, verses 21-24; and (3) their satisfaction in the dissipation of past shadows, and their full understanding of the goodness of God, verses 25-28

5051. Individual satisfaction is expressed in three types or figures of speech. (1) eating and drinking, (2) thrones of dignity, and (3) the joy of individual companionship. But the eating and drinking will not be like the physical acts, which are subject to drawbacks, such as excess, after-effects and satiety: here there will be pure health, profit, and enjoyment. So about the other two: see the notes following.

Cf. with this the symbolical description of heaven in xxxvii 40-49: while the general account is the same, special phases are brought out in the two passages to correspond with the context.

5052. Every one will have a Throne of dignity, but it does not follow that the dignity will be the same. Every one's Personality will be purified but it will not be merged into one general sameness.

5054. Ḥurrīyat: literally, progeny, offspring, family; applied by extension to mean all near and dear ones whether related or not, ancestors and descendants, friends, a circle, a group, whether contemporaneous in time or not. Love is unselfish, and works not merely, or chiefly, for Self, but for others; provided the others have Faith and respond according to their capacities or degrees, they will be joined on to the Head of the Group, even though on individual merits their rank might be less. This applies specially to a Prophet and his Ummat (or following).

5055. As already explained in the last note, though the love poured out by Prophets, ancestors, descendants, friends, or good men and women, will secure for their loved ones the enjoyment of their society, it is an indispensable condition that the loved ones should also, according to their lights, have shown their faith and their goodness in deeds. Each individual is responsible for his conduct. In the kingdom of heaven there is no boasting of ancestors or friends. But it is part of the satisfaction of the good ones who poured out their love that those who were in any way worthy to receive their love should also be admitted to their society, and this satisfaction shall in no wise be diminished to them.

12. That play (and paddle)
In shallow trifles.

13. That Day shall they be Thrust down to the Fire
Of Hell, irresistibly.

14. "This", it will be said,<sup>5046</sup>
"Is the Fire,—which ye
Were wont to deny!

15. "Is this then a fake,<sup>5047</sup>
Or is it ye that
Do not see?

16. "Burn ye therein :
The same is it to you
Whether ye bear it
With patience, or not :<sup>5048</sup>
Ye but receive the recompense
Of your (own) deeds."

17. As to the Righteous,<sup>5049</sup>
They will be in Gardens,
And in Happiness,—

18. Enjoying the (Bliss) which
Their Lord hath bestowed
On them, and their Lord
Shall deliver them from
The Penalty of the Fire.

١٢ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي خَوْضٍ يَلْعَبُونَ

١٣ يَوْمَ يَدْعُوكَ إِلَى نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ دَعَاً

١٤ هَذِهِ النَّارُ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ بِهَا تُكَذِّبُونَ

١٥ أَفَيْضًا لِمَا أَنْتُمْ لَا تَبْصُرُونَ

١٦ أَضَلُّوكمَا فَاصْبِرُوا أَوْ لَا تَصْبِرُوا سَوَاءٌ
عَلَيْكُمْ إِنَّمَا يُجْزَوْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

١٧ إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَنَعِيمٍ

١٨ فِيكِهِمْ بِمَا آتَاهُمُ رَبُّهُمْ وَوَقَّاهُمْ
رَبُّهُمْ عَذَابَ الْجَحِيمِ

5046. In face of the Realities, it will be borne in on them how wrong it was for them in this life to deny or forget that every wicked thought or deed had its own retributive chain of consequences.

5047. Perhaps they had said that the Hereafter was a fake, mere old wives' tales! If they had given serious thought to the Signs of God, they would have been saved from that serious spiritual blindness: then they will see that the fault was their own, and that the warnings of the apostles of Truth were nothing but pure Truth.

5048. At that stage they will have no justification for anger or impatience; for their whole position will have been due to their own conduct and their rejection of God's Grace. Nor will there be time then for patience or repentance, for their period of probation will then have been over.

5049. The Righteous will be in Bliss far beyond their merits: their sins and faults will be forgiven by the grace of God, which will save them from the penalties which they may have incurred from human frailty. It will be their own effort or striving which will win them God's grace: see verse 19 below. But the fruits will be greater than they could strictly have earned.

6. And by the Ocean<sup>5041</sup>
Filled with Swell;—<sup>5042</sup>

① وَالْبَحْرِ الْمَسْجُورِ

7. Verily, the Doom of thy Lord
Will indeed come to pass;—

② إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ لَوَاقِعٌ

8. There is none
Can avert it;—

③ مَالَهُ مِنْ دَافِعٍ

9. On the Day when<sup>5043</sup>
The firmament will be
In dreadful commotion.

④ يَوْمَ تَنفُورُ السَّمَاءُ مَوَرًا

10. And the mountains will fly
Hither and thither.<sup>5044</sup>

⑤ وَنَسِيرُ الْجِبَالِ سِيرًا

11. When woe that Day
To those that treat
(Truth) as Falsehood;—<sup>5045</sup>

⑥ فَوَيْلٌ لِلْكَافِرِينَ

5041. (5) The Ocean—the vast, limitless, all encircling Ocean,—is the material symbol of the universal, unlimited, comprehensive nature of the invisible spiritual world. It is expressed to be masjūr, full of a mighty swell, boiling over, poured forth all over the earth, as if overwhelming all landmarks; Cf. lxxx. 6 —a fitting description of the final disappearance of our temporal world in the supreme establishment of the Reality behind it.

5042 This completes the five Signs or Symbols by which man may know for certain of the Judgment to come. Note that they are in a descending order;—the highest, or most remote from man's consciousness, being mentioned first, and that nearest to man's consciousness being mentioned last. The truth of Revelation; its embodiment in a Prophet's Message given in human language; the universal appeal of divine worship; the starry world above; and the encircling Ocean, full of life and motion below,—all are evidences that the Day of God will finally come, and nothing can avert it.

In §501 interpretation each of these Symbols further typifies an aspect of the final Preacher of Unity: the Mount signifying his tremendous Personality; the Decree inscribed in a Scroll Unfolded, the perspicuous Qur-ān; the much-frequented Fane, his heart open to every living creature; the Canopy Raised on High, his spiritual eminence; and the Swelling Ocean, the vast sea of his living knowledge.

5043. The Day of Judgment is typified by two figures. (1) "The firmament will be in dreadful commotion." The heavens as we see them suggest to us peace and tranquillity, and the power of fixed laws which all the heavenly bodies obey. This will all be shaken in the rise of the new spiritual world. Cf. Matt xxiv 29: "Immediately after the tribulation of those days...the powers of the heavens shall be shaken." For (2) see next note.

5044. (2) The mountains are a type of firmness and stability. But things that we think of as firm and stable in this material life will be shaken to pieces, and will be no more substantial than a mirage in a desert. Cf. lxxviii. 20.

5045. That Day will be a Day of Woe to the wrong-doers described in two aspects, the rebels against God and God's Truth, just as it will be a Day of Joy and Thanksgiving to the Righteous, who are described in three aspects in verses 17 to 28. The rebels are here described as being those who openly defied Truth and plunged into wrong-doing, or who trifled with truth, who jested with serious matters, who had not the courage to plunge openly into wrong-doing but who secretly took profit out of it, who wasted their life in doubts and petty quibbles. It is difficult to say which attitude did more harm to themselves and to others. Both are aspects of deep-seated sin and rebellion. But the mercy of God was open to all if they had repented and amended their lives.

Sura LII.

Tur, or the Mount.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Mount (of Revelation); <sup>5037</sup>
2. By a Decree Inscribed <sup>5038</sup>
3. In a Scroll unfolded;
4. By the much-frequented Fane; <sup>5039</sup>
5. By the Canopy Raised High; <sup>5040</sup>

① وَالْطُّورُ
② وَكِتَابٍ مَسْطُورٍ
③ فِي رَقٍّ مَنشُورٍ
④ وَالْبَيْتِ الْمَعْمُورِ
⑤ وَالسَّفْحِ الْمَرْفُوعِ

5037. The adjuration is by five things which we shall presently explain. An appeal is made to these five Signs in verses 1 to 6, and the certainty of future events is asserted in the most emphatic terms in verses 7 to 28, in three parts, viz. the coming of Judgment and the passing away of this phenomenal world (verses 7-10); the future ill consequences of ill-deeds done (verses 11-16); and future attainment of bliss and complete realisation of God's love and mercy (verses 17-28).

5038. See last note. The five Signs to which appeal is made are: (1) the Mount (of Revelation), verse 1; (2) the Decree Inscribed, verses 2-3; (3) The Much-frequented Fane, verse 4; (4) the Canopy Raised High, verse 5; and (5) the Ocean filled with Swell, verse 6.

Let us examine these in detail. Each of them has a figurative and a mystic meaning. (1) The Mount is the sublime world of Revelation. In the case of Moses it is typified by Mount Sinai: Cf. xcv. 2, where it is mentioned in juxtaposition to the sacred territory of Mecca, xcv. 3. In the case of Jesus it is the Mount of Olives: Cf. xcv. 1, and also Matt. xxiv. 3-51, where Jesus made his striking pronouncement about the Judgment to come. In the case of Muhammad it is the Mountain of Light, where the divine inspiration made him one with the spiritual world: Cf. C. 31 and n. 11 (2). The Decree Inscribed is God's Eternal Decree. When it becomes Revelation to man, it is figured forth as something "inscribed", reduced to writing; and as it is made clear to the intelligence of man, it is further described as "in a scroll unfolded", that is, spread out so that everyone who has the will can seek its guidance.

5039. See the last two notes. (3) "The much-frequented Fane" (or House) is usually understood to mean the Ka'ba, but in view of the parallelism noted in the last note, it may be taken generally to mean any Temple or House of Worship dedicated to the true God. It would then include the Tabernacle of the Israelites in the wilderness, the Temple of Solomon, the Temple in which Jesus worshipped, and the Ka'ba which the holy Prophet purified and re-dedicated to true worship. These would be only illustrations. Other concrete places of worship would be included, and in a more abstract meaning, the heart of man, which craves, with burning desire, to find and worship God. The Fane is "much-frequented" as there is a universal desire in the heart of man to worship God, and his sacred Temples draw large crowds of devotees.

5040. (4) "The Canopy Raised High" is the canopy of heaven, to whose height or sublimity no limit can be assigned by the mind of man. It is Nature's Temple, in which all Creation worships God,—the Symbol in which the material and the visible merges into the spiritual and the intuitional.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LII (Tūr).

This is the third of the group of seven Meccan Sūras described in the Introduction to S. I.

It is, like its predecessor, an early Meccan Sūra. The points here emphasized are : that Revelation is in accord with all God's Signs, including previous Revelations, and that the Hereafter is inevitable, and we must prepare for it.

Summary.—All Signs of God, including previous Revelations, point to the inevitable consequences of ill-deeds and good deeds : how can people deny or ignore the Message of Revelation ? (lii. 1-49, and C. 228).

C. 228.—By the sacred Symbols—of the Mount
(lii. 1-49.) Sublime, the Eternal Record on an open
Scroll, the House of Worship thronged
With men, the Canopy blue of unfathomed
Heights, and the boundless Ocean with
Its resistless tidal Swell,—all acts
Of men must have their inevitable fruits.
New worlds will be born with the Day of Doom :
New values established by God's Decree.
Consumed will be Evil in the fire of Reality :
And Good will come to its own—in personal
And social Bliss, but most in the full
Realisation that God is good, the Beneficent,
The Merciful . . . Proclaim, then, the praises
Of the Lord, nor heed the slanders of Ignorance
Or Spite : for the Lord Who created will cherish ;
His Plan will overthrow the puny plots
Of men. Hold firm with patience in Faith
In the Hereafter, and sing His praises
Even in the busy marts of this world,
But chiefly in the stillness of the Night
And the holy hour of Dawn as the Stars
Retreat, singing glory to the Maker
Of their own most glorious Sun.

Unto the portion of their <sup>5035</sup>
 Fellows (of earlier generations):
 Then let them not ask Me
 To hasten (that portion)!

مِثْلَ ذُنُوبِ أَصْحَابِهِمْ فَلَا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ

60. Woe, then, to the Unbelievers,
 On account of that Day <sup>5036</sup>
 Of theirs which they
 Have been promised!

﴿٦٠﴾ فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ يَوْمِهِمُ الَّذِي
 يُوعَدُونَ

5035. Each generation, that acts like any of its predecessors, must meet a similar fate. If the wicked came to an evil end in the past, the same results will follow in the present and the future. The punishment will come suddenly enough: let them not in mockery ask that it should be hastened.

5036. That is, their eternal Punishment in the Hereafter, as well as any punishment that may come to them in this life.

One to another ?
Nay, they are themselves
A people transgressing
Beyond bounds !

بِهِمْ بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ طَاغُونَ

54. So turn away<sup>٥٤</sup>
From them : not thine
Is the blame.

٥٤ قَوْلَ عَنْهُمْ فَمَا أَنْتَ بِمَلُومٍ

55. But teach (thy Message)
For teaching benefits
The Believers.

٥٥ وَذَكِّرْ فَإِنَّ الذِّكْرَ تَنْفَعُ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

56. I have only created<sup>٥٦</sup>
Jinns and men, that
They may serve Me.

٥٦ وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ

57. No Sustenance do I require<sup>٥٧</sup>
Of them, nor do I
Require that they should Feed Me.

٥٧ مَا أُرِيدُ مِنْهُمْ مِنْ رِزْقٍ وَمَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ
يُطْعَمُونِي

58. For God is He Who
Gives (all) Sustenance,—
Lord of Power,—<sup>٥٨</sup>
Steadfast (for ever).

٥٨ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الرَّزَّاقُ ذُو الْقُوَّةِ الْمَتِينُ

59. For the wrong-doers,
Their portion is like

٥٩ فَإِنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذَنْبًا

3031. When the Prophet freely proclaims his Message, it is not his fault if obstinate wickedness refuses to listen. He can leave them alone, but he should continue to teach for the benefit of those who have Faith

3032. Creation is not for idle sport or play ; xxi. 16. God has a serious Purpose behind it, which, in our imperfect state, we can only express by saying that each creature is given the chance of development and progress towards the Goal, which is God. God is the source and centre of all power and all goodness, and our progress depends upon our putting ourselves into accord with His Will. This is His service. It is not of any benefit to Him : see the next two verses ; it is for our own benefit.

3033. Sustenance : in both the literal and the figurative sense ; so also "Feed Me" at the end of the verse. God is independent of all needs. It is therefore absurd to suppose that He should require any Sustenance, and still more absurd to suppose that we can feed Him ! The gifts, the Sustenance, the goodness, all come from His side

3034. God commands all power ; therefore any power we seek must be from Him. And His power is steadfast, the same to-day as yesterday, and for ever. Therefore His help is always sure.

48. And We have spread out
The (spacious) earth :
How excellently
We do spread out!

٤٨ وَالْأَرْضَ فَرَشْنَاهَا فَنِعْمَ الْمَبْدُوتُ

49. And of every thing
We have created pairs :<sup>5026</sup>
That ye may receive Instruction.

٤٩ وَمِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَا زَوْجَيْنِ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ

50. Hasten ye then (at once)<sup>5027</sup>
To God : I am from Him
A Warner to you,
Clear and open!

٥٠ فَفِرُّوْا إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنِّي لَكُم مِّنْهُ نَذِيرٌ
مُّبِينٌ

51. And make not another<sup>5028</sup>
An object of worship
With God :
I am from Him
A Warner to you,
Clear and open!

٥١ وَلَا تَجْعَلُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ إِنِّي لَكُم مِّنْهُ نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ

52. Similarly, no apostle came
To the Peoples before them,
But they said (of him)
In like manner,
"A sorcerer, or
One possessed" !<sup>5029</sup>

٥٢ كَذَلِكَ مَا آتَى الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِم مِّن رَّسُولٍ
إِلَّا قَالُوا سَاحِرٌ أَوْ مُجْنُونٌ

53. Is this the legacy<sup>5030</sup>
They have transmitted,

٥٣ أَوْ تَرَاثَوْا

5026. See (3) in the last note. Cf. xxxvi. 36, n. 3981.

5027. If you understand Nature and yourselves aright, you will know that God is all in all, and you will fly at once to Him. This is the teaching which the Prophet of God has come to give you, in clear terms and openly to all.

5028. Verses 50 and 51, ending with the same clause to emphasize the connection between the two, should be read together. The Prophet's mission was (and is): (1) to show us the urgent need for repentance; and (2) to wean us from the precipice of false worship. The one convinces us of sin and opens the door to the Mercy of God; the other cures us of the madness of paying court to idle or worthless objects of desire; for in the worship of the One True God is included the best service to ourselves and our fellow-creatures. If fully understood, this sums up the whole duty of man: for it leads us by the right Path to the love of God and the love of man and of all creatures.

5029. They said this of Moses: li. 39 And they said this of the holy Prophet: xxxvi i. 4; xliiv 14.

5030. There is a tradition of Evil as there is a tradition of Good. The ways of Evil in dealing with the teachers of Truth are similar in all ages. But such evil traditions would have no effect, were it not that the generation following them is itself ungodly, "transgressing beyond bounds".

44. But they insolently defied<sup>5021</sup>
The Command of their Lord :
So the stunning noise<sup>5022</sup>
(Of an earthquake) seized
Them, even while they Were looking on.

٤٤ فَعَتَوْا عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِمْ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الصَّاعِقَةُ وَهُمْ
يَنْظُرُونَ

45. Then they could not
Even stand (on their feet),<sup>5023</sup>
Nor could they help themselves.

٤٥ فَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا مِنْ قِيَامٍ وَمَا كَانُوا
مُتَصَرِّفِينَ

46. So were the People<sup>5024</sup>
Of Noah before them :
For they wickedly transgressed.

٤٦ وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ مِّن قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا
فَاسِقِينَ

SECTION 3.

47. With power and skill<sup>5025</sup>
Did We construct
The Firmament :
For it is We Who create
The vastness of Space.

٤٧ وَالسَّمَاءَ بَنَيْنَاهَا بِإِيدٍ
وَلَنَا الْمَوْسِعُونَ

5021. They had already defied the order to preserve the She-camel, which was symbolical of the grazing rights of the common people : see xi. 64-65 and n. 1560. They continued to flout the warnings of the prophet until the earthquake came on them with a stunning noise and buried them where they were : vii. 78; and xi. 67.

5022. Ṣā'iqat : a stunning sound like that of thunder and lightning (ii. 55); such a sound often accompanies an earthquake (see xli. 17, n. 4485, and vii. 78, and n. 1047).

5023. They were swept off in the earthquake.

5024. The generation of Noah was swept away in the Flood for their sins : vii. 59-64. The point is that such a Flood seemed so unlikely to them that they thought Noah was "wandering in his mind" when he delivered God's Message : vii. 60.

5025. If you do not wish to go back to the wonderful things in the past, which show the power and goodness of God, and His justice supreme over all wrong-doing, look at the wonderful things unfolding themselves before your very eyes! (1) The space in the heavens above! Who can comprehend it but He Who made it and sustains it? (2) The globe of the earth under your feet! How great its expanse seems over sea and land, and spread out for you like a wonderful carpet or bed of rest! (3) All things are in twos: sex in plants and animals, by which one individual is complementary to another; in the subtle forces of nature, Day and Night, positive and negative electricity, forces of attraction and repulsion; and numerous other opposites, each fulfilling its purpose, and contributing to the working of God's Universe; and in the moral and spiritual world, Love and Aversion, Mercy and Justice, Striving and Rest, and so on;—all fulfilling their functions according to the Artistry and wonderful Purpose of God. Everything has its counterpart, or pair, or complement. God alone is One, with none like Him, or needed to complement Him. These are noble things to contemplate. And they lead us to a true understanding of God's Purpose and Message.

38. And in Moses <sup>5016</sup>
(Was another Sign):
Behold, We sent him
To Pharaoh, with authority
Manifest.

﴿٣٨﴾ وَفِي مُوسَى إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ
بِسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ

39. But (Pharaoh) turned back
With his Chiefs, and said,
"A sorcerer, or
One possessed!"

﴿٣٩﴾ فَقَالَ يُرْكُنُهُ وَالْقَالَ سِحْرٌ
مَجْنُونٌ

40. So We took him
And his forces, and
Threw them into the sea;
And his was the blame. <sup>5017</sup>

﴿٤٠﴾ فَأَخَذْنَاهُ وَجُنُودَهُ فَنَبَذْنَاهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ
وَهُوَ مَلِيءٌ

41. And in the 'Ad (people) <sup>5018</sup>
(Was another Sign):
Behold, We sent against them
The devastating Wind:

﴿٤١﴾ وَفِي عَادٍ إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّيحَ
الْعَاقِبَةَ

42. It left nothing whatever
That it came up against,
But reduced it to ruin
And rottenness.

﴿٤٢﴾ مَا يَذُرُّ مِنْ شَيْءٍ أَتَتْ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا جَعَلْنَاهُ
كَالزَّمِيرِ

43. And in the Thamūd <sup>5019</sup>
(Was another Sign):
Behold, they were told,
"Enjoy (your brief day) <sup>5020</sup>
For a little while!"

﴿٤٣﴾ وَفِي ثَمُودَ إِذْ قِيلَ لَهُمْ تَمَتَّعُوا حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ

5016. Cf. xlii. 17-31. The story of Moses and Pharaoh is here just referred to. The points emphasized here are: (1) that Moses had manifest authority, yet Pharaoh doubted; (2) that Pharaoh's reliance was on his Chiefs and his forces, but they could not help when his doom came; and (3) that in the most extraordinary and incredible ways (judged by ordinary human standards), his arrogance and his reliance on his Chiefs and forces was his undoing.

5017. The ungodly Egyptians were all destroyed, but the chief blame lay on Pharaoh for misleading them. Pharaoh's punishment was just. He could not blame any one else. And certainly no one can blame the course of God's Justice, for God was long-suffering, and gave him many chances to repent.

5018. Cf. xlii. 21-26. The point here is that the 'Ad were a gifted people: God had given them talents and material wealth: but when they defied God, they and all their belongings were destroyed in a night, by a hurricane which they thought was bringing them the rain to which they were looking forward. How marvellously God's Providence works, to help the good and destroy the wicked!

5019. See the story of the Thamūd and their prophet Ṣālih in vii. 73-79. Here the point is the suddenness of their punishment and its unexpected nature.

5020. Ṣālih their prophet gave them three days' clear warning for repentance (xi. 65). But they heeded him not. On the contrary they flouted him and continued in their evil courses.

31. (Abraham) said: "And what,
O ye Messengers,
Is your errand (now)?"

٣١ • قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكُمْ أَيُّهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ

32. They said, "We have
Been sent to a people
(Deep) in sin;—

٣٢ قَالُوا إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَى قَوْمٍ مُّجْرِمِينَ

33. "To bring on, on them,
(A shower of) stones
Of clay (brimstone),"<sup>5011</sup>

٣٣ لِنُرْسِلَ عَلَيْهِمْ حِجَارَةً مِنْ طِينٍ

34. "Marked as from thy Lord<sup>5012</sup>
For those who trespass
Beyond bounds."

٣٤ مُّسَوِّمَةً عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ لِلْمُسْرِفِينَ

35. Then We evacuated<sup>5013</sup>
Those of the Believers
Who were there,

٣٥ فَأَخْرَجْنَا مَنْ كَانَ فِيهَا مِنَ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

36. But We found not there
Any just (Muslim) persons
Except in one house:<sup>5014</sup>

٣٦ فَمَا وَجَدْنَا فِيهَا غَيْرَ بَشِيرٍ مِنَ
الْمُتْلِينَ

37. And We left there
A Sign for such as
Fear the Grievous Penalty.<sup>5015</sup>

٣٧ وَتَرَكْنَا فِيهَا آيَةً لِلَّذِينَ يَخَافُونَ
الْعَذَابَ الْكَبِيرَ

5011. Cf. xi. 82, and n. 1052 to vii. 81. The angels' errand of mercy to Abraham (to announce the succession of godly men in his line) was coupled with their errand of justice and punishment to the people of Lūṭ, the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, who were deep in the most abominable and unnatural sins. So God's Mercy and Justice go hand in hand in all human affairs. Faith has nothing to fear, and wickedness has only to turn and repent, to obtain God's Mercy.

5012. Cf. xi. 83, and n. 1580. Every crime has its due punishment, as marked out in the decrees of God.

5013. The only just or righteous persons found in Sodom and Gomorrah (Cities of the Plain by the Dead Sea) were in the house of Lūṭ, who was the apostle sent to call them to repentance. He and his believing family and adherents were told to leave in due time, and the wicked were destroyed in a shower of brimstone.

5014. That was the house of Lūṭ; and even there, his wife had no faith: she disobeyed the Command and perished: xi. 81, n. 1577.

5015. The Grievous Penalty: that is, the Final Judgment. The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah in this life is taken as the type of the Final Judgment. The vestiges can be seen—as a Sign and a Warning—in the sulphury plain round the Dead Sea: Cf. xv. 79.

25. Behold, they entered <sup>5006</sup>
His presence, and said :
"Peace!" He said, "Peace!"
(And thought, "These seem) Unusual people." <sup>5007</sup>

٢٥ إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوا سَلَامًا قَالَ
سَلَامٌ قَوْمٌ مُنْكَرُونَ

26. Then he turned quickly <sup>5008</sup>
To his household, brought
Out a fatted calf,

٢٦ فَرَاغَ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِ فَجَاءَ بِعِجْلٍ سَمِينٍ

27. And placed it before them...
He said, "Will ye not Eat?"

٢٧ فَتَرَبَّعُوا لَیْسَ لَهُمْ قَالِ إِلَّا تَأْكُلُونَ

28. (When they did not eat),
He conceived a fear of them.
They said, "Fear not,"
And they gave him
Glad tidings of a son
Endowed with knowledge.

٢٨ فَأَوْحَسَ مِنْهُمْ خِيفَةً قَالُوا
لَا تَحْزَنْ وَبَشِّرْهُ بِغُلَامٍ عَلِيمٍ

29. But his wife came forward <sup>5009</sup>
(Laughing) aloud: she smote
Her forehead and said :
"A barren old woman!"

٢٩ فَأَقْبَلَ امْرَأَتُهُ فِي صَرَخٍ فَصَعَكَتْ
وَجْهَهَا وَقَالَتْ عَجُوزٌ عَقِيمٌ

30. They said, "Even so <sup>5010</sup>
Has thy Lord spoken :
26 And He is full
30 Of Wisdom and Knowledge."

٣٠ قَالُوا كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ إِنَّهُ هُوَ
الْحَكِيمُ الْعَلِيمُ

5006. They were angels, who appeared suddenly before him at his tent-door in the guise of men, and saluted him with the salutation of peace. He returned the salutation, but felt, from their appearance and their manner, that they were unusual, not ordinary, strangers.

5007. Munkar: unknown, uncommon, unusual, not customary, (hence by derived meaning, not applicable here, not fair or just); opposite in both primary and secondary meanings to ma'rūf, well-known, usual, customary, just. Cf. xv. 62.

5008. They seemed unusual strangers, but he said nothing and quietly proceeded to perform the rites of hospitality. He brought a roast fatted calf and placed it before them to eat. But the strangers did not eat (xi. 70). This disconcerted him. According to the laws of hospitality, a stranger under your roof is under your protection, but if he refuses to eat, he refuses your hospitality and keeps himself free from any ties of guest and host. "What were their designs?" thought Abraham, and he felt some distrust. But they were angels and could not eat. They declared themselves, and announced the birth to Abraham of a son endowed with wisdom,—in other words that Abraham was to be the head of a long line of Prophets! (xv. 53).

5009. Abraham's wife Sarah was old and barren. This news seemed to her too good to be true. She came forward, laughed aloud (xi. 71), struck her forehead with her hands, indicative of her amusement and incredulity as "a barren old woman": xi. 72.

5010. The angels said: "What may sound improbable to human beings will yet come to pass if God commands. And God thy Lord has spoken. So shall it be. For all His promises are full of wisdom and knowledge." So the angels on that occasion. But the application is for all time and to all human affairs. Never despair. However much Truth may be in the shade, it will shine with full splendour. And the Judgment will come, when good will come to its own!

20. On the earth
Are Signs for those
Of assured Faith,

٢٠ وَفِي الْأَرْضِ آيَاتٌ لِلْمُوقِنِينَ

21. As also in your own <sup>5002</sup>
Selves: will ye not
Then see?

٢١ وَفِي أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ

22. And in heaven is <sup>5003</sup>
Your Sustenance, as (also)
That which ye are promised.

٢٢ وَفِي السَّمَاءِ رِزْقُكُمْ وَمَا تُوعَدُونَ

23. Then, by the Lord <sup>5004</sup>
Of heaven and earth,
This is the very Truth,
As much as the fact
That ye can speak
Intelligently to each other.

٢٣ قُورَيْبِ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُ لَحَقٌّ مِّثْلَ مَا أَنَّكُمْ تَنْطَفِرُونَ

C. 227.—Even Abraham the True had need to be told
(li. 24-60.) Before he could realise the purpose of God.
Clear Signs were sent for warning, as, of old,
To Pharaoh, the 'Ād, the Thamūd, and the people
Of Noah, and the warning inevitably came
To pass. Our Signs are for your instruction.
Heed them and learn by them. Those who believe
Find profit in their lives: those who reject
Or deny,—alas! they learn not from the past.
Woe unto them! The loss is their own!

SECTION 2.

24. Is as the story <sup>5005</sup>
Reached thee, of the honoured
Guests of Abraham?

٢٤ هَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ ضَيْفِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ
الْمُكْرَمِينَ

5002. The Signs and Evidences of God are in all nature and within the body and soul of man, if man has but the spiritual eyes to see. Cf. xii. 53.

5003. "Sustenance", here as elsewhere, includes physical sustenance, as well as spiritual sustenance. Similarly heaven or sky has both the physical and the spiritual meaning. The physical sustenance grows from rain from the sky; the spiritual sustenance comes from divine aid, grace, and mercy, and includes the Good News and the Warning which come from Revelation about the Hereafter.

5004. Attention having been called to the Signs or Evidences of God's working on the earth, within ourselves, and in the heavens, in verses 20-22, an appeal is made to our own inner conscience, in the name of the Lord of heaven and earth, to acknowledge and act up to the truth of Revelation, and turn to the spiritual Realities. For they are as real as our own conscious and self-intelligent existence, on which is based all our knowledge. As a philosopher (Descartes) has said: "I think; therefore I am."

5005. Cf. xi. 69-73 and notes, where further details of the story will be found. Cf. also xv. 51-56

13. (It will be) a Day
When they will be tried
(And tested) over the Fire !

١٣ يَوْمَ هُمْ عَلَى النَّارِ يُفْتَنُونَ

14. " Taste ye your trial !
This is what ye used
To ask to be hastened ! " <sup>4997</sup>

١٤ ذُوقُوا فِتْنَتَكُمْ هَذَا الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ
بِهِ تَسْتَعْجِلُونَ

15. As to the Righteous,
They will be in the midst
Of Gardens and Springs, <sup>4998</sup>

١٥ إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ

16. Taking joy in the things
Which their Lord gives them,
Because, before then, they Lived a good life.

١٦ يَأْخُذِينَ مِمَّا آتَاهُمُ رَبُّهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا
قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُحْسِنِينَ

17. They were in the habit <sup>4999</sup>
Of sleeping but little
By night,

١٧ كَانُوا قَلِيلًا مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ مَا يَهْجَعُونَ

18. And in the hours
Of early dawn,
They (were found) praying
For Forgiveness ; <sup>5000</sup>

١٨ وَيَا الْأَنْشَارَ هُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ

19. And in their wealth
And possessions (was remembered)
The right of the (needy,)
Him who asked, and him
Who (for some reason) was <sup>5001</sup>
Prevented (from asking).

١٩ وَفِي أَمْوَالِهِمْ حَقٌّ لِّلضَّالِّينَ وَالْمُخْرَجِينَ

4997. They used to say scoffingly, "if there is to be punishment for our sins, let it come at once!" When it comes, they will know what a terrible thing it is! Cf. xxvi. 204, n. 3230.

4998. Gardens and Springs are the two most frequent symbols for the highest satisfaction and bliss.

4999. They were engaged most of the night in worship and in the planning of good deeds. They preferred activity to idleness, the service of God and His creatures to the indulgence of Self.

5000. They were up early before dawn, ready for their devotions. The praying for Forgiveness, and Mercy does not necessarily imply that they had committed fresh sins. Indeed they began the day with such devotions, showing their great humility before God and their anxious care for others, for whom they prayed as much as for themselves. See the last sentence of n. 21 to i. 5.

5001. True charity remembers not only those in need who ask, but also those who are prevented by some reason from asking. The man of true charity seeks out the latter. There may be various reasons which prevent a man from asking for help: (1) he may be ashamed to ask, or his sense of honour may prevent him from asking; (2) he may be so engrossed in some great ideal that he may not think of asking; (3) he may even not know that he is in need, especially when we think of wealth and possessions in a spiritual sense, as including spiritual gifts and talents; (4) he may not know that you possess the things that can supply his needs; and (5) he may be a dumb and helpless creature, whether a human being or a dumb animal, or any creature within your ken or power. Charity in the higher sense includes all help, from one better endowed to one less well endowed. Cf. n. 179 to ii. 177; also ii. 273-274, and notes 322 and 323.

5. Verily that which ye <sup>4991</sup>
Are promised is true ;
6. And verily Judgment <sup>4992</sup>
And Justice must
Indeed come to pass.
7. By the Sky
With (its) numerous Paths, <sup>4993</sup>
8. Truly ye are in
A doctrine discordant, <sup>4994</sup>
9. Through which are deluded (away
From the Truth) such
As would be deluded. <sup>4995</sup>
10. Woe to the falsehood-mongers,—
11. Those who (flounder) heedless <sup>4996</sup>
In a flood of confusion :
12. They ask, " When will be
The Day of Judgment
And Justice ? "

- ٥ إِنَّمَا تُوْعَدُونَ كَصَادِقٍ
- ٦ وَاتَّكَ الَّذِينَ لَوْفِعُ
- ٧ وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الْحُبُكِ
- ٨ إِنَّكُمْ لَفِي قَوْلٍ مُتَخَلِّفٍ
- ٩ يُؤْفَكُ عَنْهُ مِزْ أُولَئِكَ
- ١٠ قِيلَ الْخَرَّصُونَ
- ١١ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي غَمْرَةٍ سَاهُونَ
- ١٢ يَسْأَلُونَ آيَاتِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ

4991. That which ye are promised : the Promise of God about Mercy and Forgiveness to the Penitent, and Justice and Penalty to the Rebellious ; the promise of the Hereafter ; the promise that all does not end here, but that there is a truer and more lasting world to come, for which this is but a preparation.

4993. The study of the numerous regular orbits of the planets and irregularly regular orbits of comets, and the various motions, visible or invisible, of the fixed stars or revolving stars, form in themselves a network of knowledge or science, of a highly technical nature ; the highest astronomy or mathematics can only barely reach its fringe. But these have all a fixed Plan and Purpose under God's Dispensation. In them variety leads to Unity. In contrast look at the confused medley of doctrines, views, and dicta put forward by the Sceptics, as described in the next verse.

4994. Qawl—saying, word, theory, doctrine. Mukhtaliḥ—differing, various, inconsistent with itself, discordant. No theory or doctrine based on a denial of a Hereafter can be consistent with spiritual facts as we know them, or with God's Goodness, Justice, and Mercy.

4995. Some Commentators draw from this a rigid doctrine of Calvinistic Predestination or Determinism, which I do not think is fairly deducible from the words. "Ufika" should I think be translated "will be or would be deluded", meaning "have the wish or desire to be", and not "must necessarily be deluded by eternal predestination" The word occurs in many places in the Qur'an : e.g. Cf. v. 78, or ix. 30.

4996. They are in great spiritual danger : yet they care not.

Sūra LI.

Zariyat, or the Winds That Scatter.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. By the (Winds) <sup>1986</sup>
That scatter broadcast; <sup>1987</sup>

① وَالذَّارِيَّتِ ذَرَوًا

2. And those that <sup>1988</sup>
Lift and bear away
Heavy weights;

② فَالْحَامِلَاتِ وِقْرًا

3. And those that <sup>1989</sup>
Flow with ease
And gentleness;

③ فَالْجَارِيَّتِ يَسْرًا

4. And those that <sup>1990</sup>
Distribute and apportion
By Command;—

④ فَالْقَسَمَاتِ آمْرًا

4986. The atmosphere of mysticism starts from the beginning of the Sūra. Four agencies are mentioned in verses 1 to 4 as evidences or types or symbols of the certainty and unity of a Truth described in verses 5-6. What these agencies are is described by certain adjectival participles, the noun understood being usually taken to be "Winds": the word for Wind (Rih) being feminine in Arabic. Some Commentators however understand other nouns as being implied, e.g. angels in all four verses, or different things in each of the four verses. I do not think that it is necessary to be precise about material things in spiritual parables. Whatever the agencies are, their different modes of working are evidence of the power and goodness of God, the Unity of His Plan, and the certainty of Good and Evil reaching their own destined ends, when Judgment and Justice will have given each one his due.

4987. Winds may blow strong, and scatter particles of dust far and wide; but they do not diminish by one jot the substance of God's material creation; on the contrary they help to readjust things. They reshape the configuration of the earth; in the vegetable kingdom they carry seeds about and plant new seeds in old soils; in the region of air they produce mighty changes in temperature and pressure that affect animal and vegetable life; they carry the moisture of equatorial Africa to the parched plains of India; and so on. Yet they are just one little agency showing God's working in the material world. So in the spiritual world. Revelation works mighty changes; it may be resisted, but the resistance will be swept away; it ever points to the one Great Final Event, "to which the whole Creation moves".

4988. The things that lift and bear away heavy weights may be the Winds that carry the heavy rain-clouds or that sweep off every resistance from their path, or it may be the heavy moisture-laden clouds themselves. So works Revelation: it lifts and sweeps away the burdens of custom, superstition, or man's inertia, and ever leads onwards to the destined End.

4989. These may be Winds that fill the sails of ships with gentle and favourable breezes, that carry men and merchandise to their destinations. Or they may be the ships themselves, whose smooth motion through the waters is described in many places by the verb jarā, "to flow", e.g. cf. ii. 164.

4990. These may be Winds (or other agencies) that distribute and apportion moisture or rain or atmospheric pressure or other blessings of God.—not haphazard but by fixed laws, i.e. according to the Command of their Lord. So with Revelation. Its blessings are distributed all round, and it produces its marvellous effects sometimes in the most unlikely places and ways.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA LI. (Zāriyāt).

This is an early Meccan Sūra, with a highly mystic meaning. It is the second of the seven Sūras forming a group dealing with Revelation and the Hereafter. See Introduction to S. I. This Sūra deals with the varying ways in which Truth prevails irresistibly even against all human probabilities.

Summary.—The winds may blow and scatter, lift and rush, or divide in all directions; but the Truth and Promise of God are sure and stable, whereof you may see Signs both around and within you (li. 1-23, and C. 226).

Past events and what you see before you point to the unfailing consequences of all you do: God, of His Grace, sends you a Reminder: the loss is your own if you reject and deny (li. 24-60, and C. 227).

C. 226.—Various are the ways of working we see
 (li. 1-23.) In God's world,—strong and gentle, scattering
 And uniting: through it all runs a Purpose
 True and stable, which we shall see fulfilled
 On the Day of Judgment and Justice, which Must inevitably come to pass: give up
 False doctrines, which agree not among themselves
 Or with facts. For evil must end in evil,
 And good in joy and felicity. The good
 Worship God and serve God's creatures:
 Those needing help are ever in their thoughts.
 They see Signs of God in all things in heaven
 And earth, and in their own hearts and minds.

41. And listen for the Day <sup>1980</sup>
When the Caller will call
Out from a place
Quite near, — <sup>1981</sup>

42. The Day when they will Hear a (mighty) Blast <sup>1982</sup>
In (very) truth: that
Will be the Day
Of Resurrection.

43. Verily it is We Who Give Life and Death;
And to Us is
The Final Goal—

44. The Day when
The Earth will be <sup>1983</sup>
Rent asunder, from (men)
Hurrying out: that will be
A gathering together, —
Quite easy for Us. <sup>1984</sup>

45. ~~We~~ We know best what they <sup>1985</sup>
Say; and thou art not
One to overawe them
By force. So admonish
With the Qur-an such
As fear My Warning!

٤١) وَاسْتَمِعْ يَوْمَ يُنَادِ الْمُنَادِ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ
قَرِيبٍ

٤٢) يَوْمَ يَسْمَعُونَ الصَّيْحَةَ بِالْحَقِّ ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ الْخُرُوجِ

٤٣) إِنَّا نَحْنُ نُحْيِي وَنُمِيتُ وَإِلَيْنَا الْمَصِيرُ

٤٤) يَوْمَ تَشَقَّقُ الْأَرْضُ عَنْهُمْ سِرَاعًا ذَلِكَ
حَشْرٌ عَلَيْكُمْ يُسِيرُ

٤٥) نَحْنُ أَكْبَرُ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ
بِجَبَّارٍ فَذَكِّرْ بِالْقُرْآنِ مَنْ يَخَافُ وَعِيدِ

1980. The Day of Resurrection, when the Call to the souls to arise and come to the Judgment-Seat will be immediately answered, and they will all arise and come forth. Cf. xxxvi. 49-53, and notes 3997 and 3999.

1981. In the life of this world it seemed all so remote. In the new life at the Resurrection it will all be so near; for there will be neither time nor space as we know them here.

1982. The word "ṣaḥāṭun" (mighty Blast) is used for the Resurrection (as here) or for the sudden punishment of the guilty on this earth, as in xi. 67, where see further references.

1983. Men will hurry out from all corners of the earth to answer the call, and the earth itself will be rent asunder. In xxv. 25 the imagery used was the heaven being rent asunder, and angels coming out in ranks: see n. 3082. Cf. also lxxxiv. 1-4.

1984. It may seem to our material imaginations a difficult task to collect together the souls of all sorts of men, who died in all sorts of conditions at different times, but it will be a different kind of world and creation altogether, and to God all things are not only possible but easy.

1985. People may throw all sorts of doubts about the Judgment and the Hereafter. The Prophet's task is not to force them to accept anything. His task is to deliver the Message of the Qur-an, and admonish those who are spiritually fit and ready to receive admonition and to prepare themselves for the new and higher life destined for man.

37. Verily in this <sup>4974</sup>
Is a Message
For any that has
A heart and understanding
Or who gives ear and Earnestly witnesses (the truth).

٢٧ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَذِكْرًا لِمَن كَانَ لَهُ قَلْبٌ
أَوْ أَلْفَى السَّمْعَ وَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ

38. We created the heavens <sup>4975</sup>
And the earth and all
Between them in Six Days, <sup>4976</sup>
Nor did any sense
Of weariness touch Us. <sup>4977</sup>

٢٨ وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا
فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ وَمَا مَسَّنَا مِنْ لُغُوبٍ

39. Bear, then, with patience,
All that they say,
And celebrate the praises
Of thy Lord, before <sup>4978</sup>
The rising of the sun
And before (its) setting,

٢٩ فَاصْبِرْ عَلَى مَا يَقُولُونَ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ
طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ الْغُرُوبِ

40. And during part
Of the night, (also,)
Celebrate His praises,
And (so likewise)
After the postures <sup>4979</sup>
Of adoration.

٣٠ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ وَأَدْبَرَ السُّجُودِ

4974 As Christ said (Matt. xi. 15), 'he that hath ears to hear, let him hear.' These are matters of high moment. Many spiritual lessons can be learnt from these things by any one who has the heart and understanding to apply to God's teaching and can give genuine thought to what he sees, as a witness does who has to swear to the facts on his oath.

4975. God's creation of the heavens and the earth in long stages or periods of time, as we count time, shows how things evolve in their own good time. We must therefore be patient if Good does not seem to come to its own according to our ideas. Our will should merge itself in God's Will, and we should praise Him, realising that He is All-Good, and that all adjustments will be in the Hereafter.

4976. Cf. vii. 54. n. 1051; and xii. 12. n. 4477

4977. Cf. xxxv. 35

4978. God should be remembered at all times. But the best time for individual adoration is early in the morning before sunrise late in the day before sunset, and a portion of the night, when there is stillness in the air, and man's spirit loves to commune with things spiritual. Those who would connect this with the five canonical prayers, instituted at a later stage in Medina, would take the Fajr for the prayer before sunrise, the Zuhri and the Asr for the afternoon prayers before sunset, and the Mugrib and the 'Ishā'a for the night prayers.

4979 The general meaning of "after the postures of adoration" would be the contemplation and remembrance of God after prayers. Those who would connect this passage with the five canonical prayers understand these further prayers following the sujūd or postures of adoration to mean the extra or supernumerary prayers known as nafl, also the use of the Rosary in remembering the Names of God.

To the Righteous,—no more
A thing distant.

لِلتَّقِينَ غَيْرَ بَعِيدٍ

32. (A voice will say :)
" This is what was
Promised for you,—
For every one who turned <sup>4969</sup>
(To God) in sincere repentance,
Who kept (His Law),

٣٢ هَذَا مَا تُوْعَدُونَ لِكُلِّ أَتَابٍ حَفِيفٍ

33. " Who feared (God)
Most Gracious unseen, <sup>4970</sup>
And brought a heart
Turned in devotion (to Him) :

٣٣ مَنْ خَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنََ الْغَيْبِ وَجَاءَ بِقَلْبٍ مُنِيبٍ

34. " Enter ye therein
In Peace and Security ; <sup>4971</sup>
This is a Day
Of Eternal Life ! "

٣٤ ادْخُلُوْهَا بِسَلَامٍ ذَٰلِكَ يَوْمُ الْخُلُودِ

35. There will be for them
Therein all that they wish,—
And more besides
In Our Presence. <sup>4972</sup>

٣٥ لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ فِيْهَا وَلَدَيْنَا مَزِيدٌ

36. But how many Generations before them
Did We destroy (for their Sins),—stronger in power <sup>4973</sup>
Than they ? Then did they
Wander through the land :
Was there any place
Of escape (for them) ?

٣٦ وَكَذَٰلِكَ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْنٍ هُمْ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ بَطْشًا فَنَقَّبُوا فِي الْبِلَادِ هَلْ مِنْ مَّخِصٍ

4969. The description of the Righteous is given in four masterly clauses: (1) those who turned away from Evil in sincere repentance; (2) those whose new life was good and righteous; (3) those who in their innermost hearts and in their most secret doings were actuated by God-fearing love, the fear that is akin to love in remembering God under His title of "Most Gracious"; and (4) who gave up their whole heart and being to Him.

4970. Cf. xxxvi. 11 and n. 3952; and xxxv. 18, and n. 3902.

4971. The true meaning of Islam: peace, security, salutation, and accord with God's Plan in all Eternity.

4972. To get all that our purified wishes and desires comprehend may seem to sum up final Bliss; but there is something still wanting, which is supplied by the Presence of God, the Light of His Countenance

4973. While virtue and righteousness will accomplish their final goal, what will be the End of Sin? Let the past tell its story. Many powerful and arrogant generations were swept away, to stray in the paths of misery, without any way of escape from the consequences of their sin. This was already seen in the life of this world. In the world to come, it will be worse, as already stated in verses 24-26 above.

28. He will say : " Dispute not <sup>4964</sup>
With each other
In My Presence :
I had already in advance
Sent you <sup>4965</sup> Warning.

٢٨ قَالَ لَا تَخْتَصِمُوا لَدَيَّ وَقَدْ قَدَّمْتُ
الْيَكْمَ بِالْوَعِيدِ

29. " The Word changes not
Before Me, and I do not
The least injustice
To My Servants." <sup>4966</sup>

٢٩ مَا يَبْدُلُ الْقَوْلُ لَدَيَّ وَمَا أَنَا بِظَلَمٍ لِلْعَبِيدِ

C. 225.—As Goodness has possibilities unlimited,

(l. 30 45) So has Evil in the opposite direction.

To those who bring a heart unsullied

And to God devoted, will be Peace,

Security, and Eternal Life—the Rays

From God's own Presence. Adore ye God

And pay no heed to whispers of Doubt

And Evil : these must vanish at Judgment,

When Truth and Justice reign supreme.

SECTION 3.

30. One Day We will
Ask Hell, " Art thou
Filled to the full ? " <sup>4967</sup>
It will say, " Are there
Any more (to come) ? "

٣٠ يَوْمَ نَقُولُ لِلْجَهَنَّمَ هَلِ امْتَلَأْتِ وَتَقُولُ
هَلْ مِنْ مَّزِيدٍ

31. And the Garden <sup>4968</sup>
Will be brought nigh

٣١ وَأَزْلَفْنَا الْجَنَّةَ

4964. It is suggested that sinners whose Record is black, driven into a corner, accuse others of misleading them : the others may be the Recorders, or their faculties or opportunities or surroundings or their associates in the world, or anything but themselves. Such recriminations are not allowed in the Court of Judgment.

4965. Besides, personal responsibility had already been clearly preached to them in God's Message, and they had been warned of the consequences. " You " is in the plural number : ' all of you who are before the Judgment-Seat had clear warning of the consequences of your conduct.'

4966. " 'Abd " has two plurals : (1) 'Abīd, as here, means all Servants of God, i.e. all his creatures ; (2) 'Ibād has the further connotation of Servants of God, devoted to his service ; I have translated it in many cases by the word " devotees ". The Sentence before the Judgment-Seat is pronounced with perfect justice ; it does not change, and requires no change ; the inevitable consequences of sin must follow ; the time for Mercy is past.

4967. As the capacity of Good is unlimited, so is the capacity of Evil—unlimited. Hell is personified and asked, " Art thou sated to the full ? " It replies, " If there are more to come, let them come." It is not satisfied.

4968. In this life, the ideals of the spirit, the accomplishment of the things in our hearts and our hopes, seem to be ever so far, seem even to recede as we think we come nearer. Not so in the Hereafter. The fruits of righteousness will no longer be in the distance. They will be realised. They will seem themselves to approach the Righteous.

And sharp is thy sight <sup>4958</sup>
This Day ! "

23. And his Companion <sup>4959</sup> will say :
" Here is (his Record) ready
With me ! "

24. (The sentence will be :)
" Throw, throw <sup>4960</sup> into Hell
Every contumacious Rejecter
(Of God) !—

25. " Who forbade what was good,
Transgressed all bounds,
Cast doubts and suspicions ;

26. " Who set up another god
Beside God : throw him
Into a severe Penalty."

27. His Companion <sup>4961</sup> will say :
" Our <sup>4962</sup> Lord ! I did not
Make him transgress, <sup>4963</sup>
But he was (himself)
Far astray."

فَصَرَكَ الْيَوْمَ حَدِيدٌ

٢٣ وَقَالَ قَرِينُهُ هَذَا مَا لَدَيَّ عِنْدِي

٢٤ أَلْقِيَا فِي جَهَنَّمَ كُلَّ كَفَّارٍ عَنِيدٍ

٢٥ مَتَاعٍ لِلْخَيْرِ مُعْتَدٍ مُرِيبٍ

٢٦ الَّذِي جَعَلَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَأَلْقِيَاهُ فِي

الْعَذَابِ الشَّدِيدِ

٢٧ * قَالَ قَرِينُهُ رَبَّنَا مَا أَفْغَيْنُكَ وَلَكِنْ

كَانَ فِي ضَلَالٍ بَعِيدٍ

4958. The clearness of vision will now be even greater ; see n. 4955 above.

4959. Qarīn: Companion. If we take No. 1 of the constructions suggested in n. 4957, the Companion will be one of the Recording Angels mentioned above, in verse 21, perhaps the one that drives ; or perhaps the third one mentioned in verse 18, for he has the Record ready with him. If we take any of the other constructions mentioned in n. 4957, it will be the evil deeds or the misused faculties. In any case it will be the factors on whose testimony his conviction will be based.

4960. The original for " throw ", here and in verse 26 below, is in the dual number, which some Commentators explain by saying that the dual form is used for emphasis, as if the verb (" throw, throw ") were twice repeated. Examples of this are found in Arabic. But is it possible that the dual refers to the two angels mentioned in verses 17 and 21 ? In that case the Companion in verse 27 will be the third one mentioned in verses 18 and 23. In any case the third one will be the one on whose Record the sentence will be passed.

4961. See last note. But some people understand by " Companion " here an evil associate in the world, an evil one who misled.

4962. Our Lord. One man speaks ; " I did not ", etc. Yet he uses the plural pronoun in saying, " Our Lord ". This is beautifully appropriate, as he is speaking so as to include the person to be judged : as if he were to say, " Thou art my Lord, or the Lord of us angels or of all Creation, but Thou art his Lord also, for Thou didst cherish him and warn him, and he owed duties to Thee."

4963. Neither the Recording Angels nor the misused limbs and faculties, nor anything else whatever was responsible for the Evil : it was the personal responsibility of the Doer himself, with his free-will.

18. Not a word does he <sup>4954</sup>
Utter but there is
A sentinel by him,
Ready (to note it).

١٨ مَا يَلْفِظُ مِنْ قَوْلٍ إِلَّا لَدَيْهِ رَقِيبٌ عَيْنٌ

19. And the stupor of death <sup>4955</sup>
Will bring truth (before
His eyes): "This was
The thing which thou
Wast trying to escape!"

١٩ وَجَاءَتْ سَكْرَةُ الْمَوْتِ بِالْحَقِّ
ذَلِكَ مَا كُنْتَ مِنْهُ تَحِيدُ

20. And the Trumpet <sup>4956</sup>
Shall be blown:
That will be the Day
Whereof Warning (had been given).

٢٠ وَتُفْعَفُ فِي الصُّورِ ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ الْوَعْدِ

21. And there will come forth
Every soul: with each
Will be an (angel) to drive, <sup>4957</sup>
And an (angel) to Bear witness.

٢١ وَجَاءَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَعَ سَائِرٍ وَشَهِيدٍ

22. (It will be said:)
"Thou wast heedless
Of this; now have We
Removed thy veil,

٢٢ لَقَدْ كُنْتَ فِي غَفْلَةٍ مِنْ هَذَا
فَكَشَفْنَا عَنْكَ غِطَاءَكَ

4954. Then each "word" spoken is taken down by a "sentinel" (raqib). This has been construed to mean that the sentinel only records words, not thoughts which are not uttered. Thoughts may be forgiven if not uttered, and still more if they do not issue in action. At the stage at which we clothe a thought in words, we have already done an action. The Recorders mentioned in the last verse make a complete Record, in order to supply motives and springs of action, which will affect the degrees or status in the spiritual Hereafter. The three together, individuals or kinds, make the honourable Recorders, Kirāman Kātibin, (plural, not dual number) mentioned in lxxxii 11.

4955. What is stupor or unconsciousness to this probationary life will be the opening of the eyes to the spiritual world: for Death is the Gateway between the two. Once through that Gateway man will realise how the things which he neglected or looked upon as remote are the intimate Realities, and the things which seemed to loom large in his eyes in this world were shadows that have fled. The things he wanted to avoid are the things that have really come to pass. Both Good and Evil will realise the Truth now in its intensity.

4956. The next stage will be the Judgment, heralded with the blowing of the Trumpet. Every soul will then come forth.

4957. Several interpretations are possible, leading to the same allegorical truth, that the Judgment will be set up; the Record will be produced; the good and bad deeds will speak for and against; and complete justice will be done, each act leading to its own due fruit. (1) The (angel) to drive and the (angel) to bear witness may be the Recording Angels of the left and the right (verse 17); or (2) it may not be angels, but the evil deeds will drive like task-masters, and the good deeds will bear witness for the soul on trial; or (3) his misused limbs and faculties will drive him to his doom, while his well-used limbs and faculties will witness for him.

12. Before them was denied
(The Hereafter) by the People<sup>4950</sup>
Of Noah, the Companions
Of the Rass, the Thamūd,

كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَأَصْحَابُ الرَّسِّ
وَتَمُودُ

13. The 'Ad, Pharaoh,
The Brethren of Lūt,

وَعَادٌ وَفِرْعَوْنُ وَآخُوتُ لُوطٍ

14. The Companions of the Wood,
And the People of Tubba';
Each one (of them) rejected
The apostles, and My warning
Was duly fulfilled (in them).

وَأَصْحَابُ الْأَيْكَةِ وَقَوْمِ تُبَّاعٍ كُلٌّ
كَذَّبَ الرُّسُلَ فَحَقَّ وَعِيدُ

15. Were We then weary
With the first Creation,
That they should be
In confused doubt<sup>4951</sup>
About a new Creation?

أَفَعَيْنَا بِالْخَلْقِ الْأَوَّلِ بَلْ هُمْ فِي لَبْسٍ مِنْ
خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ

SECTION 2.

16. It was We Who
Created man, and We know
What dark suggestions his soul<sup>4952</sup>
Makes to him: for We
Are nearer to him
Than (his) jugular vein.

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ وَنَعْلَمُ مَا تُوَسْوِسُ
بِهِ نَفْسُهُ وَنَحْنُ أَقْرَبُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ جَبَلٍ أَلْوَدٍ

17. Behold, two (guardian angels)<sup>4953</sup>
Appointed to learn (his doings)
Learn (and note them),
One sitting on the right
And one on the left.

إِذْ يَتَلَفَّئُ الْمَتَلَفِّئَانِ عَنِ الْيَمِينِ وَعَنِ
الشِّمَالِ قَعِيدٌ

4950. Just the names of the peoples of Arabian tradition who were punished for their sins are mentioned; their stories will be found elsewhere. For the People of Nauh, see xi. 25-48 and other passages. For the Companions of the Rass, see xxv. 38 and n. 3094; for the 'Ad and the Thamūd, see xxvi. 123-158, and other passages; for Pharaoh and his People, see ii. 49-50 and other passages; for the Brethren of Lūt, see vii. 80-84, and other passages; for the Companions of the Wood, see xv. 78-79, and n. 2000; and for the People of Tubba', see xlv. 37 and n. 4715.

4951. Cf. xlv. 33, and n. 4912.

4952. God created man, and gave him his limited free-will. God knows the inmost desires and motives of man even better than man does himself. He is nearer to a man than the man's own jugular vein. The jugular vein is the big trunk vein, one on each side of the neck, which brings the blood back from the head to the heart. The two jugular veins correspond to the two carotid arteries which carry the blood from the heart to the head. As the blood-stream is the vehicle of life and consciousness, the phrase "nearer than the jugular vein" implies that God knows more truly the innermost state of our feeling and consciousness than does our own ego.

4953. This must of course be taken figuratively. Two angels are constantly by him to note his thoughts, words, and actions. The allegory is further elaborated. One sits on the right side and notes his good deeds and the other on the left, to note his bad deeds; corresponding to the Companions of the Right and the Companions of the Left mentioned in lvi. 27 and 41.

6. Do they not look
At the sky above them?—
How We have made it<sup>4945</sup>
And adorned it,
And there are no
Flaws in it?
7. And the earth—
We have spread it out,<sup>4946</sup>
And set thereon mountains
Standing firm, and produced
Therein every kind of Beautiful growth (in pairs)—<sup>4947</sup>
8. To be observed
And commemorated
By every devotee<sup>4948</sup>
Turning (to God).
9. And We send down
From the sky Rain
Charged with blessing,
And We produce therewith
Gardens and Grain for harvests;
10. And tall (and stately)<sup>4949</sup>
Palm-trees, with shoots
Of fruit-stalks, piled
One over another;—
11. As sustenance for (God's) Servants;—
And We give (new) life
Therewith to land that is Dead: thus-will be
The Resurrection.

① أَفَلَمْ يَنْظُرُوا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ فَوْقَهُمْ كَيْفَ
بَنَيْنَاهَا وَزَيَّنَّاهَا وَمَا لَهَا مِنْ فُرُوجٍ

② وَالْأَرْضَ مَدَدْنَاهَا وَأَلْقَيْنَا فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ
وَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ بَازِجٍ

③ تَبَصَّرَهُ وَذَكَرَ لِكُلِّ عَبْدٍ مُنِيبٍ

④ وَزَلَّلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً مُبَارَكًا
فَأَنْبَتْنَا بِهِ جَنَّاتٍ وَحَبَّ الْحَصِيدِ

⑤ وَالنَّخْلَ بَاسِقَاتٍ لَهَا طَلْعٌ نَضِيدٌ

⑥ رِزْقًا لِلْعِبَادِ وَأَحْيَيْنَا بِهِ بَلْدَةً مَيْتًا كَذَلِكَ
الْخُرُوجُ

4945. The greatest philosophers have found a difficulty in understanding the sceptical position when they contemplate the wonder and mystery of the skies with all the countless beautiful stars and planets and lights in them, and laws of order, motion, and symmetry, that respond to the highest mathematical abstractions without a flaw—Can blind Chance give rise to such conditions?

4946. Cf. xiii 3; and xv. 19 and n. 1955. The earth is round, and yet it appears stretched out as a vast expanse, like a carpet kept steady with the weight of the mountains.

4947. Cf. xxii, 5, and n 2777. Sex in plants may be hinted at: see n. 1804 to xiii, 3.

4948. For all these things go into his very heart and soul. He loves to contemplate them, to remember them for himself as evidence of God's goodness and glory, and to mention and proclaim them, in the form of Psalms, Hymns, or the Zikrs or Chants of the Sūfis and Saints.

4949. A beautiful nature passage. How graphic and unforgettable to any one who has seen a spring and summer in an Arabian oasis!

Sura L.

Qaf.<sup>4939</sup>

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. Qaf: <sup>4939</sup>

By the Glorious <sup>4940</sup> Qur-ān
(Thou art God's Apostle).

2. But they wonder that <sup>4941</sup>

There has come to them
A Warner from among Themselves.

So the Unbelievers say:
"This is a wonderful thing!"

3. "What! When we die <sup>4942</sup>

And become dust, (shall we Live again?) That is
A (sort of) Return
Far (from our understanding).

4. We already know

How much of them <sup>4943</sup>
The earth takes away:
With Us is a Record
Guarding (the full account).

5. But they deny the truth

When it comes to them;
So they are in
A confused state. <sup>4944</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١ ق وَالْقُرْآنِ الْمَجِيدِ

٢ بَلْ عَجِبُوا أَنْ جَاءَهُمْ مُنْذِرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَقَالَ
الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا شَيْءٌ عَجِيبٌ

٣ أَوَدَأْمِتَنَا وَكُنَّا تَرَابًا ذَلِكَ رَجْعٌ بَعِيدٌ

٤ قَدْ عَلِمْنَا مَا تَنْقُصُ الْأَرْضُ مِنْهُمْ وَعِندَنَا
كِتَابٌ حَفِيفٌ

٥ بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ فَهُمْ فِي أَمْرٍ
مُرِيبٍ

4939. This is an Abbreviated Letter. For Abbreviated Letters generally, see Appendix I (pp. 118-120). This particular Abbreviated Letter Qaf occurs only here as a single letter, and in combination at the beginning of S. xlii., where I was unable to explain the full combination. Here the Qaf is taken by several Commentators to represent "Qudhiya-l-amr", "the matter has been decreed," with reference to the eschatological trend of the Sura. God knows best.

4940. Majid (translated "Glorious") is one of the beautiful appellations of the Qur-ān. Its glory is that of the rising sun: the more it rises on your mental and spiritual horizon, the more you are lost in admiration of its glory. Its meanings are manifest and inexhaustible. The greater your experience, the more light is your spiritual eye able to bear. And in that glory is a beauty that none can tell who has not experienced it in his soul. It is in itself the proof of the mission of the holy Prophet.

4941. In a sense their wonder is natural: do we not wonder at the glorious sun? In another sense it is unnatural: what should we say of a man who fails to see in broad daylight?

4942. Cf. xxxvii. 16.

4943. The earth only corrupts and takes away the body when they are dead; it has no power over the soul. The full account of the soul's doings is in God's Record.

4944. If they deny what has been made clear to them, their minds must necessarily get into confusion. All nature declares the glory and goodness of God. Revelation explains the inequalities of this life and how they will be redressed in the Hereafter. If they do not accept this, they are not in a logical position. They cannot reconcile the known with the unknown.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA L. (Qāf).

We now come to a group of seven Meccan Sūras (I-lvi), dealing with God's revelation through nature, through history, and through the mouths of the Prophets, and pointing to the Hereafter. We saw that the last group of three (xlvii.—xlix.) dealt with the external and internal relations of the Ummat when formed. In the present group our attention is more particularly directed to aspects eschatological,—the Future before us when this life is done.

This particular Sūra belongs to the early Meccan period. After an appeal to nature and to the fate of wicked peoples in history, it removes as it were the veil (verse 22) from the Future after death.

Summary.—Sceptics can look up to the heavens above and to Nature around them, as well as to the fate of sin in the history of the past: will they doubt God's Revelation when the veil is lifted? (l. 1-29, and C. 224.)

A vision of the Day of Recompense and the Day of Reality (l. 30-45, and C. 225).

C. 224.—The Apostle's credentials are the Revelation

(l. 1-29.) He brings. Let them not wonder at the Message
Or at the News of the Hereafter. They have but
To look at the starry heavens and at Nature
Around them to see God's goodness and His power
To bring life out of the dead, and to punish
All wrong. Every deed, word, and thought are in
The eternal Record. Death will open
Your eyes and make you see Realities.
Then will every action bear
Its due fruit, and no soul can shift
Its responsibility on to another.

16. Say: "What! Will ye<sup>4936</sup>
Instruct God about your Religion? But God knows
All that is in the heavens
And on earth: He has
Full knowledge of all things.

قُلْ أَتُعَلِّمُونَ اللَّهَ بِدِينِكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي
السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

17. They impress on thee<sup>4937</sup>
As a favour that they
Have embraced Islam.
Say, "Count not your Islam
As a favour upon me:
Nay, God has conferred
A favour upon you
That He has guided you
To the Faith, if ye
Be true and sincere.

يُمْنُونَ عَلَيْكَ أَنْ أَسْلَمُوا قُلْ لَا تَمْنُوا عَلَيَّ
إِسْلَامَكُمْ بَلِ اللَّهُ يُمْنٌ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ هَدَاكُمْ لِلْإِيمَانِ
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

18. "Verily God knows<sup>4938</sup>
The secrets of the heavens
And the earth: and God
Sees well all
That ye do."

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ غَيْبَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاللَّهُ
بَصِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ

4936. 'You say (or perhaps even think) that you are Muslims, but where are the fruits of your Faith? God knows the innermost motives and secrets of your heart, and you cannot deceive Him by attaching a certain label to yourselves.' Alas! that this answer to the desert Arabs is true of so many others in our own times!

4937. Islam in itself is a precious privilege. By accepting it we confer no favour on its preacher or on any community. If the acceptance is from the heart, it is a great favour done to those who accept, that the Light of God has entered their hearts and they have received guidance.

4938. This does not mean that we should seek petty motives in newcomers into the House of Islam. That would indeed be harbouring suspicions or allowing curiosity to spy out motives, which would be a crime under xlix. 12. We should be true, sincere, and devoted ourselves, and leave the case of others to God, from Whose eyes nothing is hidden.

13. ﴿١٣﴾ mankind! We created<sup>4933</sup>
 You from a single (pair)
 Of a male and a female,
 And made you into
 Nations and tribes, that
 Ye may know each other
 (Not that ye may despise
 (Each other). Verily
 The most honoured of you
 In the sight of God
 Is (he who is) the most
 Righteous of you,
 And God has full knowledge
 And is well acquainted
 (With all things).

﴿١٣﴾ يٰٓاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنَّا خَلَقْنٰكُمْ مِنْ ذَكَرٍ وَاُنْثٰى
 وَجَعَلْنٰكُمْ شُعُوْبًا وَّقَبَاٖۗٔلَ لِيَعْرِفُوْا اِنَّ
 اَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ اَتْقٰىكُمْ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ
 عَلِيْمٌ خَبِيْرٌ

14. ﴿١٤﴾ The desert Arabs say,<sup>4934</sup>
 "We believe." Say, "Ye
 Have no faith; but ye
 (Only) say, 'We have submitted<sup>4935</sup>
 Our wills to God,'
 For not yet has Faith
 Entered your hearts.
 But if ye obey God
 And His Apostle, He
 Will not belittle aught
 Of your deeds: for God
 Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful."

﴿١٤﴾ * قَالِىَ الْاَعْرَابُ ءَاٰمَنَّا قُلْ لَمْ تُؤْمِنُوْا وَلٰكِنْ

15. Only those are Believers
 Who have believed in God
 And His Apostle, and have Never since doubted, but
 Have striven with their Belongings and their persons
 In the Cause of God:
 Such are the sincere ones.

﴿١٥﴾ اِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهِ
 ثُمَّ لَمْ يَرْتَابُوْا وَجَاهَدُوْا بِاَمْوَالِهِمْ وَاَنْفُسِهِمْ
 فِى سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الصّٰدِقُوْنَ

4933. This is addressed to all mankind and not only to the Muslim brotherhood, though it is understood that in a perfected world the two would be synonymous. As it is, mankind is descended from one pair of parents. Their tribes, races, and nations are convenient labels by which we may know certain differing characteristics. Before God they are all one, and he gets most honour who is most righteous.

4934. The desert Arabs were somewhat shaky in their faith. Their hearts and minds were petty, and they thought of petty things, while Islam requires the complete submission of one's being to God. See next verse. Some of the failings of the desert Arabs are described in xiviii, 11-15. But the reference here is said to be to the Banū Asad, who came to profess Islam in order to get charity during a famine.

4935. 'This is what ye ought to prove if your faith has any meaning, but ye only say it with your tongues.'

It may be that
The (latter) are better
Than the (former):
Nor defame nor be <sup>4930</sup>
Sarcastic to each other,
Nor call each other
By (offensive) nicknames;
Ill-seeming is a name
Connoting wickedness,
(To be used of one)
After he has believed:
And those who
Do not desist are (Indeed) doing wrong.

12. ﴿١٢﴾ ye who believe!
Avoid suspicion as much <sup>4931</sup>
(As possible): for suspicion
In some cases is a sin:
And spy not on each other,
Nor speak ill of each other
Behind their backs. Would any
Of you like to eat
The flesh of his dead <sup>4932</sup>
Brother? Nay, ye would
Abhor it . . . But fear God:
For God is Oft-Returning,
Most Merciful.

عَسَىٰ أَن يَكُونَ خَيْرًا مِّنْهُنَّ وَلَا تَلْمِزُوا
أَنفُسَكُمْ وَلَا تَنَابَزُوا بِالْأَلْقَابِ بِئْسَ الْأَاسِمُ
الْفُسُوقُ بَعْدَ الْإِيمَانِ وَمَن لَّمْ يَتُبْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ
سُمُّ الظَّالِمِينَ

﴿١٢﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اجْتَنِبُوا كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الظَّنِّ إِنَّ
بَعْضَ الظَّنِّ إِثْمٌ وَلَا تَجَسَّسُوا وَلَا يَغْتَبِ
بَعْضُكُم بَعْضًا أَيَحِبُّ أَحَدُكُمْ أَن يَأْكُلَ
لَحْمَ أَخِيهِ مَيْتًا فَكَرِهْتُمُوهُ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
تَوَّابٌ رَّحِيمٌ

4930. Defamation may consist in speaking ill of others by the spoken or written word, or in acting in such a way as to suggest a charge against some person whom we are not in a position to judge. A cutting, biting remark or taunt or sarcasm is included in the word lamaza. An offensive nickname may amount to defamation, but in any case there is no point in using offensive nicknames, or names that suggest some real or fancied defect. They ill accord with the serious purpose which Muslims should have in life. For example, even if a man is lame, it is wrong to address him as "O lame one!" It causes him pain, and it is bad manners. So in the case of the rude remark, "the black man"

4931. Most kinds of suspicion are baseless and to be avoided, and some are crimes in themselves: for they do cruel injustice to innocent men and women. Spying, or enquiring too curiously into other people's affairs, means either idle curiosity, and is therefore futile, or suspicion carried a stage further, which almost amounts to sin. Back-biting also is a brood of the same genus. It may be either futile but all the same mischievous, or it may be poisoned with malice, in which case it is a sin added to sin.

4932. No one would like even to think of such an abomination as eating the flesh of his brother. But when the brother is dead, and the flesh is carrion, abomination is added to abomination. In the same way we are asked to refrain from hurting people's feelings when they are present; how much worse is it when we say things, true or false, when they are absent!

9. If two parties among<sup>4927</sup>
The Believers fall into
A quarrel, make ye peace
Between them: but if
One of them transgresses
Beyond bounds against the other,
Then fight ye (all) against
The one that transgresses
Until it complies with
The command of God;
But if it complies, then
Make peace between them
With justice, and be fair:
For God loves those
Who are fair (and just).

① وَلَئِنْ طَائِفَتَانِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ اقْتَتَلُوا
فَأَصْلِحُوا بَيْنَهُمَا فَإِنْ بَغَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا عَلَى الْأُخْرَى
فَقْتُلُوا الَّتِي بَغَتْ حَتَّى تَتَّقِيَ إِلَىٰ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ فَإِنْ
فَاءَتْ فَأَصْلِحُوا بَيْنَهُمَا بِالْعَدْلِ وَأَقْسِطُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ
يُحِبُّ الْمُقْسِطِينَ

10. The Believers are but
A single Brotherhood:<sup>4928</sup>
So make peace and
Reconciliation between your
Two (contending) brothers;
And fear God, that ye
May receive Mercy.

② إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِخْوَةٌ فَأَصْلِحُوا بَيْنَ أَخَوَيْكُمْ
وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ

SECTION 2.

11. ﴿٢٣﴾ ye who believe!
Let not some men
Among you laugh at others:<sup>4929</sup>
It may be that
The (latter) are better
Than the (former):
Nor let some women
Laugh at others:

③ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا يَسْخَر قَوْمٌ مِنْ قَوْمٍ
عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَكُونُوا خَيْرًا مِنْهُمْ وَلَا نِسَاءٌ مِنْ نِسَاءٍ

4927. Individual quarrels are easier to compose than group quarrels, or, in the modern world, national quarrels. But the collective community of Islam should be supreme over groups or nations. It would be expected to act justly and try to compose the quarrel, for peace is better than fighting. But if one party is determined to be the aggressor, the whole force of the community is brought to bear on it. The essential condition of course is that there should be perfect fairness and justice and respect for the highest principles; for Islam takes account of every just and legitimate interest without separating spiritual from temporal matters. The League of Nations fails because these essentials are absent.

4928. The enforcement of the Muslim Brotherhood is the greatest social ideal of Islam. On it was based the Prophet's Sermon at his last pilgrimage, and Islam cannot be completely realised until this ideal is achieved.

4929. Mutual ridicule ceases to be fun when there is arrogance or selfishness or malice behind it. We may laugh with people, to share in the happiness of life: we must never laugh at people in contempt or ridicule. In many things they may be better than ourselves!

The Inner Apartments—
Most of them lack understanding.

5. If only they had patience
Until thou couldst
Come out to them,
It would be best
For them: but God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

6. <sup>4924</sup> Ye who believe!
If a wicked person comes
To you with any news,
Ascertain the truth, lest
Ye harm people unwittingly,
And afterwards become
Full of repentance for
What ye have done.

7. <sup>4925</sup> And know that among you
Is God's Apostle: were he,
In many matters, to follow
Your (wishes), ye would
Certainly fall into misfortune:
But God has endeared <sup>4926</sup>
The Faith to you, and
Has made it beautiful
In your hearts, and He
Has made hateful to you
Unbelief, wickedness, and Rebellion: such indeed are
Those who walk in righteousness;—

8. A grace and favour
From God; and God
Is full of Knowledge
And Wisdom.

الْحَجْرَاتِ أَكْثَرُكُمْ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ

⑤ وَلَوْ أَنَّهُمْ صَبَرُوا حَتَّى تَخْرُجَ إِلَيْهِمْ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

⑥ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِن جَاءَكُمْ فَاسِقٌ بِنَبَأٍ فَتَبَيَّنُوا أَن تُصِيبُوا قَوْمًا بِمَهْلَةٍ فَتُصْحَبُوا عَلَى مَا فَعَلْتُمْ نَادِمِينَ

⑦ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ فِيكُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ لَوْ يُطِيعُكُمْ فِي كَثِيرٍ مِّنَ الْأُمْرِ لَعَصَيْتُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ حَبَّبَ إِلَيْكُمُ الْإِيمَانَ وَزَيَّنَهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَكَرَّهَ إِلَيْكُمُ الْكُفْرَ وَالْفُسُوقَ وَالْعِصْيَانَ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الرَّاكِبُونَ

⑧ فَضْلًا مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَنِعْمَةً وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ

4924. All tittle-tattle or reports—especially if emanating from persons you do not know—are to be tested, and the truth ascertained. If they were believed and passed on, much harm may be done, of which you may have cause afterwards to repent heartily. Scandal or slander of all kinds is here condemned. That about women is specially denounced: xxiv. 11-20; 23-26.

4925. The man of God, if he consults his friends and associates, should not be expected to follow their advice in all matters. The judgment and responsibility are his: he sees farther than the rest, and he is less swayed by personal feeling than any one else.

4926. Fortunate indeed was the generation among whom the Prophet of God walked in his daily life. His example was inspiring. Their inner Faith was dear to them; it was a thing to be proud of in their innermost hearts; and they loved discipline, obedience, and righteousness. No wonder all their other disadvantages were neutralised, and they went from strength to strength. Nothing but the Grace of God could have brought about such a result.

Hujurat, or the Inner Apartments.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

Put not yourselves forward <sup>4919</sup>
Before God and His Apostle;
But fear God: for God
Is He Who hears
And knows all things.

١ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَقْدُمُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ
وَرَسُولِهِ وَأَتَقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ

2. Q ye who believe!
Raise not your voices <sup>4920</sup>
Above the voice of the Prophet,
Nor speak aloud to him
In talk, as ye may
Speak aloud to one another,
Lest your deeds become <sup>4921</sup>
Vain and ye perceive not.

٢ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَرْفَعُوا أَصْوَاتَكُمْ
فَوْقَ صَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ وَلَا تَجْهَرُوا لَهُ بِالْقَوْلِ
كَجَهْرِ بَعْضِكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ أَن تَحْبَطَ أَعْمَالُكُمْ
وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَشْعُرُونَ

3. Those that lower their voice
In the presence of
God's Apostle, — their hearts
Has God tested for piety: <sup>4922</sup>
For them is Forgiveness
And a great Reward.

٣ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَخُضِّونَ أَصْوَاتَهُمْ عِندَ
رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ امْتَحَنَ اللَّهُ قُلُوبَهُمْ
لِلتَّقْوَى لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ

4. W hose who shout out <sup>4923</sup>
To thee from without

٤ إِنَّا لِلَّذِينَ يُنَادُونَكَ مِنْ وَرَاءِ

4919. Three shades of meaning are implied: (1) do not make yourselves conspicuous in word or deed when in the presence of God (e.g. in a Mosque, or at Prayers or religious assemblies); (2) do not anticipate in word or deed what your Leader (God's Apostle) may say or do; (3) do not be impatient, trying to hasten things before the time is ripe, of which the best Judge is God, Who speaks through His Apostle. Be reverent in all things, as in the presence of God: for He hears and sees all things.

4920. It is bad manners to talk loudly before your Leader. Some ill-mannered people so raise their voices as to drown the voice of their Leader, in conversation or in Council.

4921. Such rudeness may even destroy the value of such services as they may otherwise have been able to render, and all this without their even realising the harm they were doing to the Cause.

4923. To shout aloud to your Leader from outside his Apartments shows disrespect both for his person, his time, and his engagements. Only ignorant fools would be guilty of such unseemly behaviour. It is more seemly for them to wait and bide their time until he is free to come out and attend to them. But, in the Court of a spiritual King, much is forgiven that is due to lack of knowledge and understanding. In an earthly Court, ignorance of the Law excuseth no man. If a man behaved in that way to the General of an army or the Governor of a Province, not to speak of an earthly King, he would be laid hands on by the Guard, and could never gain the access he desires.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLIX (Hujurāt).

This is the third of the group of three Medina Sūras, which began with S. xlvii. See the Introduction to that Sūra.

Its subject-matter is the manners to be observed by the members of the rapidly-growing Muslim community, among themselves and towards its Leader. The key-word "Hujurāt" (Inner Apartments) occurs in verse 4.

Its date is referred to the Year of Deputations, A.H. 9, when a large number of deputations of all kinds visited Medina to offer their allegiance to Islam.

Summary.—A community must show its respect to its Leader in all forms of behaviour; quarrels are unseemly and should be composed; manners spring from morals; and mutual respect and confidence are a duty and a privilege in Islam (xlix. 1-18, and C. 223).

C. 223.—Respectful behaviour to the Leader, in manner,
(xlix. 1-18.) Voice, and demeanour, are the bonds and cement
Of an organised community. The whispers
Of rumour should be tested, and selfish impatience
Should be curbed to discipline. All quarrels
Should be composed, if necessary by the force
Of the community, but with perfect
Fairness and justice. Ridicule, taunts,
And biting words, should be avoided,
In presence or in absence. Suspicion
And spying are unworthy of men who believe.
All men are descended from one pair:
Their honour depends, not on race, but
On righteousness. Faith is not a matter
Of words, but of accepting God's Will
And striving in His Cause. The coming
Into Islam confers no favour on others,
But is itself a favour and a privilege,
A guidance for those who are true and sincere.

On its own stem, (filling)
 The sowers with wonder
 And delight. As a result,<sup>4918</sup>
 It fills the Unbelievers
 With rage at them.
 God has promised those
 Among them who believe
 And do righteous deeds
 Forgiveness,
 And a great Reward.

عَلَى سَوْفِهِ يُعْجِبُ الزَّاعِ لِيَغِظَ بِهِمُ
 الْكُفَّارَ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
 وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنْهُمْ مَغْفِرَةً
 وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا

4918. I construe the particle "li" as expressing not the object, but the result. The result of the wonderful growth of Islam in numbers and strength was that its enemies were confounded, and raged furiously within their own minds, a contrast to the satisfaction, wonder, and delight of the Prophet and his Companions. The pronoun in "rage at them" of course refers to the Prophet and his Companions, and goes back to the earlier words, "on their faces" etc.

All religion : and enough
Is God for a Witness.<sup>4912</sup>

29. Muhammad is the Apostle
Of God ; and those who are
With him are strong
Against Unbelievers, (but)
Compassionate amongst each other.<sup>4913</sup>

Thou wilt see them bow
And prostrate themselves
(In prayer), seeking Grace
From God and (His) Good
Pleasure.<sup>4914</sup>

On their faces are their
Marks, (being) the traces<sup>4915</sup>
Of their prostration.
This is their similitude
In the Taurāt ;<sup>4916</sup>
And their similitude
In the Gospel is ;<sup>4917</sup>
Like a seed which sends
Forth its blade, then
Makes it strong ; it then
Becomes thick, and it stands

الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا

④ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ أَشِدَّاءُ عَلَى
الْكُفَّارِ رُحَمَاءُ بَيْنَهُمْ تَرَاهُمْ رُكَّعًا سُجَّدًا
يَبْتَغُونَ فَضْلًا مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانًا سِيمَاهُمْ
فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ مِنْ أَثَرِ السُّجُودِ ذَلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي
التَّوْرَةِ وَمَثَلُهُمْ فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ كَزَرْعٍ
أَخْرَجَ شَطْئَهُ فَآزَرَهُ فَاسْتَغْلَظَ فَاسْتَوَى

4912. The divine disposition of events in the coming of Islam and its promulgation by the holy Prophet are themselves evidence of the truth of Islam and its all-reaching character ; for there is nothing which it has not influenced. See also lxi. 9, n. 5442.

4913. Cf. ix. 128. The devotees of God wage unceasing war against evil, for themselves, and for others ; but to their own brethren in faith—especially the weaker ones—they are mild and compassionate ; they seek out every opportunity to sympathise with them and help them.

4914. Their humility is before God and His Apostle and all who have authority from God, but they yield no power or pomp, nor do they worship worldly show or glitter. Nor is their humility before God a mere show for men.

4916. In the Book of Moses, which is now found in a corrupt form in the Pentateuch, the posture of humility in prayer is indicated by prostration : e.g., Moses and Aaron "fell upon their faces", Num. xvi. 22.

4917. The similitude in the Gospel is about how the good seed is sown and grows gradually, even beyond the expectation of the sower : "the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how ; for the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself ; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear" ; Mark, iv. 27-28. Thus Islam was preached by the holy Prophet ; the seed seemed to human eyes lost in the ground ; but it put forth its shoot, and grew, and became strong, until it was able to stand on its own legs, and its worst enemies recognised its existence and its right to live. Note how much more complete the parable is in the Qur-ān. The mentality of the sowers of the seed is expressed in beautiful terms : its growth and strength filled them "with wonder and delight."

Certainly have punished
The Unbelievers among them
With a grievous punishment.

26. While the Unbelievers
Got up in their hearts
Heat and cant—the heat <sup>4907</sup>
And cant of Ignorance,—
God sent down His Tranquillity <sup>4908</sup>
To his Apostle and to
The Believers, and made them
Stick close to the command
Of self-restraint; and well
Were they entitled to it <sup>4909</sup>
And worthy of it.
And God has full knowledge
Of all things.

SECTION 4.

27. Truly did God fulfil
The vision for His Apostle: <sup>4910</sup>
Ye shall enter the Sacred
Mosque, if God wills,
With minds secure, heads shaved,
Hair cut short, and without fear.
For He knew what ye
Knew not, and He granted,
Besides this, a speedy victory. <sup>4911</sup>

28. It is He Who has sent
His Apostle with Guidance
And the Religion of Truth,
To proclaim it over

لَعَذَابُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْهُمْ عَذَابًا
أَلِيمًا

⑦ إِذْ جَعَلَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ
الْحِمَىٰ حِمَىَٰ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ
سَكِينَتَهُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِهِ وَعَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
وَأَلَزَمَهُمْ كَلِمَةَ التَّقْوَىٰ وَكَانُوا أَحَقَّ بِهَا
وَأَمَلَهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا

⑧ لَقَدْ صَدَقَ اللَّهُ رَسُولَهُ الرُّبُوبَ بِالْحَقِّ
لَتَدْخُلَنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ عَالَمِينَ
مُحْلِقِينَ رُؤُوسَكُمْ وَمُقَصِّرِينَ لَا تَخَافُونَ
فَعَلِمَ مَا لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا فَجَعَلَ مِنْ دُونِ ذَلِكَ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا

⑨ هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَدِينِ
الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى

4907. While the Unbelievers were blustering and excited, and meticulously objected to introductory words such as "In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful (they did not like the titles), the Muslims were calm and collected, and got the substance of their demands embodied in the Treaty without worrying about words. This was due to their unity and trust in their Leader.

4908. Cf. above xlviii. 18, and n. 4894.

4909. It—Tranquillity. Their calmness amid much provocation was a gift of God; they had earned a right to it by their obedience and discipline, and showed themselves well worthy of it.

4910 The Prophet had had a dream that he had entered the Sacred Mosque at Mecca, just before he decided on the journey which resulted in the Treaty of Hudaibiya. By it he and his people could enter next year without the least molestation and in the full customary garb, with head shaved or hair cut short, and all the customary minor rites of pilgrimage.

4911. See above, xlviii. 18, and n. 4895.

From you and your hands
From them in the midst <sup>4902</sup>
Of Mecca, after that He Gave you the victory
Over them. And God sees
Well all that ye do.

بَصِيرًا

⑩ هُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوكُمْ عَنِ الْمَسْجِدِ
الْحَرَامِ وَالْمَذْيِ مَعْكُوفًا أَنْ يَنْبَلِغَ مِنْكُمْ وَلَدٌ
رِجَالٌ مُؤْمِنُونَ وَنِسَاءٌ مُؤْمِنَاتٌ لَمْ تَقْلُوبُوا
أَنْ تَطُوبُوا فُضِّبَ بَيْنَكُمْ مِنْهُمْ مَعْرَةٌ
بِفَيْرِ عِلْمٍ لِيَدْخُلَ اللَّهُ فِي رَحْمِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
لَوْ زِلْتُمْ

4902. Little incidents had taken place that might have plunged the Quraish and the Muslims from Medina into a fight. On the one hand, the Quraish were determined to keep out the Muslims, which they had no right to do: and on the other hand, the Muslims, though unarmed, had sworn to stand together, and if they had counter-attacked they could have forced their entrance to the Ka'ba, the centre of Mecca. But God restrained both sides from anything that would have violated the Peace of the Sanctuary; and after the Treaty was signed, all danger was past.

4903. The Muslims from Medina had brought the animals for sacrifice with them, and had put on the Ihram or pilgrim's garb (see n. 217 to ii, 197), but they were not only prevented from entering Mecca, but were also prevented from sending the sacrificial animals to the place of sacrifice in Mecca, as they could have done under ii, 196. The sacrifice was therefore actually offered at Hudaibiya.

4904. There were at the time in Mecca believing Muslims, men and women, and the faith of some of them was unknown to their brethren from Medina. Had a fight taken place in Mecca, even though the Muslims had been successful, they would unwittingly have killed some of these unknown Muslims, and thus would unwittingly have been guilty of shedding Muslim blood. This was prevented by the Treaty.

4905. God works according to His wise and holy Will and Plan, and not according to what seems to us, in the excitement of human life, to be the obvious course of things. By preventing a fight He saved many valuable lives, not only of Muslims but also of some who became Muslims afterwards and served Islam. He grants His Mercy on far higher standards than man in his limited horizon can see.

4906. If the party from Medina could have distinguished Muslims from non-Muslims among the Meccans, they might have been allowed to enter and punish the pagan Quraish for their inordinate vanity and gross breach of the unwritten law of the land. But in the actual circumstances the best solution was the Treaty of Hudaibiya.

20. God has promised you
Many gains that ye shall <sup>4896</sup>
Acquire, and He has given <sup>4897</sup>
You these beforehand; and
He has restrained the hands
(Of men from you; that it
May be a Sign for <sup>4898</sup>
The Believers, and that
He may guide you
To a Straight Path;

⑤ وَعَدَكُمْ اللَّهُ مَغَانِمَ كَثِيرَةً
تَأْخُذُونَهَا فَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ هَذِهِ يَدِي الْنَّاسِ
عَنْكُمْ وَلِتَكُونَ آيَةً لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَيَهْدِيَكُمْ صِرَاطًا
مُسْتَقِيمًا

21. And other gains (there are),
Which are not within <sup>4899</sup>
Your power, but which
God has compassed: and God
Has power over all things.

⑥ وَأُخْرَى لَمْ تَقْدِرُوا عَلَيْهَا قَدْ أَحَاطَ اللَّهُ بِهَا
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرًا

22. If the Unbelievers
Should fight you, they would <sup>4900</sup>
Certainly turn their backs;
Then would they find
Neither protector nor helper.

⑦ وَلَوْ قَاتَلَكُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوَلَّوْا الْأَذْبَرَ
لَهُمْ لَا يَجِدُونَ وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا

23. (Such has been) the practice <sup>4901</sup>
(Approved) of God already
In the past: no change
Wilt thou find in
The practice (approved) of God.

⑧ سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَنْ يَجْعَلَ
لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا

24. And it is He Who
Has restrained their hands

⑨ وَهُوَ الَّذِي كَفَّ أَيْدِيَهُمْ

4896. The gains so far seen from the Bai'at and their calm and disciplined behaviour were certainly great; but greater still were to follow in the spiritual sense, in the rapid spread of Islam, in the clearance from the Sacred House of the idolatrous autocracy, and in the universal acceptance of the Message of God in Arabia.

4897. The first fruits of the Bai'at were the victory or treaty of Hudaibiya, the cessation for the time being of the hostility of the Meccan Quraish, and the opening out of the way to Mecca. These things are implied in the phrase, "He has restrained the hands of men from you."

4898. Hudaibiya (in both the Bai'at and the Treaty) was truly a sign-post for the Believers; it showed the solidarity of Islam, and the position which the Muslims had won in the Arab world.

4899. Other gains: these are usually referred to the later victories of Islam, but we must view them not merely in their political or material aspect, but chiefly in the use of Islam as a world power, morally and spiritually.

4900. Their morale was now truly broken.

4901. Cf. xxxiii. 62.

Did before, He will punish
You with a grievous Penalty.

17. No blame is there
On the blind, nor is
There blame on the lame,
Nor on one ill (if he Joins not the war):
But he that obeys God <sup>4890</sup>
And His Apostle,— (God)
Will admit him to Gardens
Beneath which rivers flow;
And he who turns back,
(God) will punish him
With a grievous Penalty.

SECTION 3.

18. God's Good Pleasure <sup>4891</sup>
Was on the Believers
When they swore Fealty
To thee under the Tree: <sup>4892</sup>
He knew <sup>4893</sup> what was
In their hearts, and He Sent down Tranquillity <sup>4894</sup>
To them; and He rewarded
Them with a speedy Victory; <sup>4895</sup>

19. And many gains will they Acquire (besides); and God
Is Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.

مِنْ قَبْلِ يُعَذِّبُكُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

⑦ لَيْسَ عَلَى الْأَعْمَى حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْأَعْرَجِ
حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرِيضِ حَرَجٌ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ
وَرَسُولَهُ يُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
الْأَنْهَارُ مِنْ يَنْوَلُ يُعَذِّبُهُ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

⑧ * لَقَدْ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذْ بَايَعُوكَ
تَحْتَ الشَّجَرَةِ فَعَلِمَ مَا فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ فَأَنْزَلَ
السَّكِينَةَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَأَثَبَهُمْ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا

⑨ وَمَغَايِرَ كَثِيرَةٍ يَأْخُذُونَهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ
عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا

4890. There may be neither fighting nor booty. But all who obey the righteous Imam's call to Jihād with perfect discipline will get the spiritual Rewards of the Hereafter. The blind, the maimed, and the infirm will of course be exempted from active compliance with the Call, but they can render such services as are within their power, and then they will not be excluded from the reward.

4891. The noun from the verb radhiya is ridhwan (Good Pleasure); hence the name of this Ba'at, Ba'at ur Ridhwan, the Fealty of God's Good Pleasure: see n. 4877, to xlviii. 10.

4892. The great ceremony of the Fealty of God's Good Pleasure took place while the holy Apostle sat under a tree in the plain of Hudaibiya. This Tree became very famous, and so much superstitious veneration was attached to it by later generations that it had to be cut down.

4893. Or tested: see n. 4855 to xlvii. 31.

4894. Sakina = Peace, calm, sense of security and confidence, tranquillity. Cf. above xlviii. 4, and n. 4809. The same word is used in connection with the battle of Hunain in ix. 26, and in connection with the Cave of Thaur at an early stage in the Hijrat; ix. 40.

4895. The Treaty of Hudaibiya itself was a "speedy Victory": it followed immediately after the Ba'at.

وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

- ١٥ سَيَقُولُ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ إِذَا انْطَلَقْتُمْ إِلَى مَغَائِرِهِمْ
لِنَأْخُذْهُمْ فَأَذَرُونَا فِي تَعِيجِكُمْ يُرِيدُونَ أَن
يَسْجُدُوا لِكَلِمَةِ اللَّهِ قُلْ لَن تَسْبِعُونَا كَذَلِكَ
قَالَ اللَّهُ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَٰذَا سَيَقُولُونَ بَلْ تَتَحَدَّوْنَ بَلْ
كَاٰنُوا لَا يَفْقَهُوْنَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

- ﴿١٦﴾ قُلِ الْخَافِينَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ سَأَدْعُونَ
إِلَى قَوْمٍ أُولِي بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ يَقْتُلُونَهُمْ أَوْ يَسِلُّونَ
فِيهِمْ فَيَقْتُلُوهُمْ أَوْ تُسَبِّحُونَ لَهُمْ أَنْ يَقُولُوا
فَإِنْ تَطِيعُوا يُؤْتِكُمُ اللَّهُ أَجْرًا حَسَنًا إِنَّكُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ
كَمَا تَأْتِيكُمْ

4889. That is, you shall go forth to war if you learn discipline, not for booty, but for a great and noble Cause. For if your opponents submit to the Cause, there will be no fighting and no booty.

Say to thee :

" We were engaged in (Looking after) our flocks
And herds, and our families :

Do thou then ask
Forgiveness for us." <sup>4879</sup>

They say with their tongues
What is not in their hearts.

Say : " Who then has
Any power at all
(To intervene) on your behalf
With God, if His Will
Is to give you some loss <sup>4880</sup>
Or to give you some profit ?
But God is well acquainted
With all that ye do.

12. "Nay, ye thought that
The Apostle and the Believers
Would never return to
Their families; this seemed
Pleasing in your hearts, <sup>4881</sup> and
Ye conceived an evil thought,
For ye are a people
Lost (in wickedness)."

13. And if any believe not
In God and His Apostle,
We have prepared,
For those who reject God,
A Blazing Fire !

14. To God belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth :
He forgives whom He wills, <sup>4882</sup>
And He punishes whom He

شَغَلْنَا أَمْوَالَنَا وَأَهْلُونَا فَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَنَا
يَقُولُونَ بِأَلْسِنَتِهِمْ مَا لَيْسَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ قُلْ<sup>٤٨٧٩</sup>
فَن يَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا إِنْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ
ضَرًّا أَوْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ نَفْعًا بَلْ كَانَ
اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا

١٢ بَلْ ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنْ لَنْ يَنْقَلِبَ الرَّسُولُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِلَى
أَهْلِيهِمْ أَبَدًا وَزَيَّنَ ذَلِكَ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ
وَظَنَنْتُمْ ظَنَّ السَّوْءِ وَكُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا بُورًا

١٣ وَمَنْ لَمْ يُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ فَإِنَّا
أَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ سَعِيرًا

١٤ وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يُغْفِرُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَيُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ

4879. They said this with their tongues, but no thought of piety was in their hearts.

4880. Their false excuse was based on a calculation of worldly profit and loss. But what about the spiritual loss in detaching themselves from the holy Prophet or spiritual profit in joining in the splendidly loyal feelings of service and obedience which were demonstrated at Hudaibrya? And in any case they need not think that all their real and secret motives were not known to God.

4881. Their faith was so shaky that they thought the worst would happen, and that the Meccan Quraish would destroy the unarmed band. In their heart of hearts they would not have been sorry, because they were steeped in wickedness and rejoiced in the sufferings of others. But such persons will burn in the fire of their own disappointment.

4882. Evil must inevitably have its punishment, but there is one way of escape, viz., through repentance and the Mercy of God. God's Justice will punish, but God's Mercy will forgive; and the Mercy is the predominant feature in God's universe: "He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful."

8. We have truly sent thee <sup>4876</sup>
As a witness, as a
Bringer of Glad Tidings,
And as a Warner :

9. In order that ye
(O men) may believe
In God and His Apostle,
That ye may assist
And honour Him,
And celebrate His praises
Morning and evening.

10. Verily those who plight <sup>4877</sup>
Their fealty to thee
Do no less than plight
Their fealty to God :
The Hand of God is
Over their hands :
Then any one who violates
His oath, does so
To the harm of his own
Soul, and any one who
Fulfils what he has
Covenanted with God,—
God will soon grant him
A great Reward.

SECTION 2.

11. The desert Arabs who <sup>4878</sup>
Lagged behind will

⑧ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ شَهِيدًا وَمُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا

⑨ لِنُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتُعَزِّرُوهُ وَتُوَقِّرُوهُ وَتُسَبِّحُوهُ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا

⑩ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَبَايِعُونَكَ إِنَّمَا يُبَايِعُونَ
اللَّهَ يَدُ اللَّهِ فَوْقَ أَيْدِيهِمْ فَمَنْ نَكَثَ فَإِنَّمَا
يَنْكُثُ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ أَوْفَى بِمَا عَاهَدَ
عَلَيْهِ اللَّهُ فَسَيُؤْتِيهِ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا

⑪ سَيَقُولُ لَكَ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ

4876. The Apostle came in order to establish Faith in God and true worship. We can view him in three capacities : (1) as a witness to help the weak if they were oppressed and check the strong if they did wrong ; (2) as a giver of the Glad Tidings of God's Grace and Mercy to those who repented and lived good lives ; and (3) as one who warned sinners of the consequences of their sin.

4877. In the Hudaibiya negotiations, when it was uncertain whether the Quraish would treat well or ill the Prophet's delegate to Mecca, there was a great wave of feeling in the Muslim camp of 1400 to 1500 men. They came with great enthusiasm and swore their fealty to the Prophet, by placing hand on hand according to the Arab custom ; see paragraph 3 of the Introduction to this Sūra. This in itself was a wonderful demonstration of moral and material strength, a true Victory : it is called Bar'at ur Ridhwān (Fealty of God's Good Pleasure) in Islamic History. They placed their hands on the Prophet's hand, but the Hand of God was above them, and He accepted their Fealty.

'Alaihu is an archaic form for 'Alaihi.

4878. When the Prophet started from Medina on the Mecca journey which ended in Hudaibiya, he asked all Muslims to join him in the pious undertaking, and he had a splendid response. But some of the desert tribes hung back and made excuses. Their faith was but lukewarm, and they did not want to share in any trouble which the Meccans might give to the unarmed Muslims on pilgrimage. Their excuse that they were engaged in looking after their flocks and herds and their families was an after-thought, and in any case made after the return of the Prophet and his party with enhanced prestige to Medina.

The Forces of the heavens <sup>4871</sup>
And the earth; and God is
Full of Knowledge and Wisdom;—

5. That He may admit <sup>4872</sup>
The men and women
Who believe, to Gardens
Beneath which rivers flow,
To dwell therein for aye,
And remove their ills
From them;—and that is,
In the sight of God,
The highest achievement
(For man),—

6. And that He may punish
The Hypocrites, men and Women, and the Polytheists,
Men and women, who imagine
An evil opinion of God.
On them is a round <sup>4873</sup>
Of Evil: the Wrath of God
Is on them: He has cursed <sup>4874</sup>
Them and got Hell ready
For them: and evil
Is it for a destination.

7. For to God belong <sup>4875</sup>
The Forces of the heavens
And the earth; and God is
Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.

جُنُودَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَكَانَ
اللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا

⑤ لِيَدْخُلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ
تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَيُكَفَّرُ
عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ
عِنْدَ اللَّهِ قُرْآنًا عَظِيمًا

⑥ وَيُعَذِّبُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ
وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ وَالْمُشْرِكَاتِ الظَّالِمِينَ
بِاللَّهِ ظُلُمَ السَّوْءِ عَلَيْهِمْ دَائِرَةُ السَّوْءِ
وَعَصَبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَنَهُمْ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ جَهَنَّمَ
وَسَاءَ مَصِيرًا

⑦ وَلِلَّهِ جُنُودُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَكَانَ
اللَّهُ عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا

4871. There are visible forces which you see in the physical world. Men fight with armed forces, and the Muslims had to defend themselves with arms also, and not without success. But social, moral, and spiritual forces were fighting for them under God's command, and they were the real forces that established the Message of Islam and the position of its Leader and Preacher.

4872. This clause is co-ordinated to the previous clause, "That they may add Faith to their Faith". The intervening words, "For to God...and Wisdom", are parenthetical. The third co-ordinate clause comes in the next verse, "And that He may punish...". The skeleton construction will be, "God sends down calm courage to Believers, in order that they may be confirmed in their Faith; that they may qualify for the Bliss of Heaven; and that the evil ones may receive the punishment they deserve."

4873. They will be encircled (or hemmed in) by Evil.

4874. That is, deprived them of His Grace, on account of their continued rejection of it.

4875. These words are repeated (with a slight change) from the parenthetical clause in verse 4, to emphasize the assertion as a substantive proposition, that fighting and visible forces in the physical world are not the only forces with which God works out His Plan. The invisible forces are more important as they were at Hudaibiya. The slight difference is instructive; in the parenthetical clause, God's Knowledge was emphasized, and in the substantive clause it is God's Power. Knowledge plans, and Power executes.

Sura XLVIII.

l'-at-h or Victory.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Verily We have granted
Thee a manifest Victory :<sup>4866</sup>
2. That God may forgive thee<sup>4867</sup>
Thy faults of the past
And those to follow ;
Fulfil His favour to thee ;
And guide thee
On the Straight Way ;
3. And that God may help<sup>4868</sup>
Thee with powerful help.
4. It is He Who sent Down Tranquillity<sup>4869</sup>
Into the hearts of
The Believers, that they may
Add Faith to their Faith ;—<sup>4870</sup>
For to God belong

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① إِنَّا فَتَحْنَا لَكَ فَتْحًا مُبِينًا

② لِيُغْفِرَ لَكَ اللَّهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِكَ وَمَا تَأَخَّرَ
وَيُتِمَّ نِعْمَتَهُ عَلَيْكَ وَيَهْدِيَكَ صِرَاطًا
مُسْتَقِيمًا

③ وَيَنْصُرَكَ اللَّهُ نَصْرًا عَظِيمًا

④ هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ السَّكِينَةَ فِي قُلُوبِ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ لِيَزْدَادُوا إِيمَانًا مَعَ إِيمَانِهِمْ
وَلِلَّهِ

4866 This is best referred to the Treaty of Hudaibiya, for which see the Introduction to this Sura. By this Treaty the Meccan Quraish, after many years of unrelenting conflict with Islam, at length recognised Islam as (what they thought) an equal power with themselves. In reality the door was then opened for the free spread of Islam throughout Arabia and thence through the world.

4867. See n. 4428 to xl. 55, and Cf. xlvii. 19. Any mistakes of the past were now rectified, and any future ones prevented by the free scope now offered, by the act of the Quraish Pagans themselves, to the recognition and free promulgation of Islam.

4868. Three objects or results of the Treaty are mentioned : (1) forgiveness, which is equivalent to Mercy, (2) fulfilment of the dignity of Prophethood with the dignity of an effective and recognised position in Arabia ; (3) opening up a straight way leading to Islam, by access to Mecca from next year, Mecca being the symbolic centre of Islam. These three are summed up in the comprehensive phrase "powerful (or effective) help"

4869. The results were achieved by tranquillity, calmness, and cool courage among the 1400 to 1500 unarmed men who accompanied the Prophet to Hudaibiya and who were threatened with violence by the excited Quraish leaders of Mecca.

4870. It is a casuistical question to ask, Are there degrees in Faith? The plain meaning is that Believers will see one Sign of God after another, and with each their Faith is confirmed. During all the long years of persecution and conflict they had Faith, but when they see their old enemies actually coming out to negotiate with them, their Faith is justified, fulfilled, and confirmed ; and they turn in gratitude to God

It was impossible to think that there would be apostates or renegades to Paganism!
"Look on this picture, and on that!"

6. The Muslims faithfully observed the terms of the Treaty. The following year (A.H. 7) they performed the lesser Pilgrimage in great state for three days. It is true that the Meccans later on broke the Peace in the attack which one of their allied tribes (the Banū Bakr) made on the Muslim Banū Khuza'a (who were in alliance with the Prophet), but this led to the conquest of Mecca and the sweeping away of the autocracy. Meanwhile Hudaibiya was a great victory, moral and social, as well as political, and its lessons are expounded in this Sūra, as the lessons of Badr were expounded in viii. 42-48, and of Uhud in iii. 121-129, 149-180.

Summary.—Victory comes from cool courage, devotion, faith, and patience, as shown at Hudaibiya; therefore remember God, and follow His Apostle (xlvi. 1-29, and C. 222).

C. 222.—Victory and Help go with calmness of mind,
(xlvi. 1-29.) Faith, fidelity, zeal, and earnestness,
Not with greed, lukewarmness, or timidity.
Discipline and obedience are essential
For service. The rewards for service are not
To be measured by immediate results,
But accrue in countless hidden ways
For Patience and Restraint. Be strong
Against Evil, but kind and gentle amongst Yourselves: the seed will grow and become Strong, to your wonder and delight.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLVIII (Fat-h).

1. This is the second of the group of three Medina Sūras described in the Introduction to S. xlvii. Its date is fixed by the mention of the Treaty of Hudaibīya, Zul-qa'd A.H. 6=Feb. 628 (see n. 1261 to ix 13).

2. Hudaibīya is a plain, a short day's march to the north of Mecca, a little to the west of the Medina-Mecca road, as used in the Prophet's time. Six years had passed since the Prophet had left his beloved City, and it had been in the hands of the Pagan autocracy. But Islam had grown during these six years. Its Qibla was towards the Ka'ba. The Pagans had tried to attack Islam at various times and had been foiled. By Arab custom every Arab was entitled to visit the Sacred Enclosure unarmed, and fighting of any kind was prohibited during the Sacred Months (see n. 209 to ii. 194), which included the month of Zul-qa'd. In Zul-qa'd A.H. 6, therefore, the Prophet desired to perform the 'Umra or lesser pilgrimage (n. 212 to ii. 196), unarmed, but accompanied with his followers. A large following joined him, to the number of fourteen to fifteen hundred.

3. This was not to the liking of the Pagan autocracy at Mecca, which took alarm, and in breach of all Arab tradition and usage, prepared to prevent the peaceful party from performing the rites of pilgrimage. They marched out to fight the unarmed party. The Prophet turned a little to the west of the road, and encamped at Hudaibīya, where negotiations took place. On the one hand the Prophet was unwilling to give the Quraish any pre-*text*ed excuse for violence in the Sacred Territory; on the other, the Quraish had learnt, by six years' bitter experience, that their power was crumbling on all sides, and Islam was growing with its moral and spiritual forces, which were also reflected in its powers of organisation and resistance. The enthusiasm with which the Covenant of Fealty was entered into under a tree in Hudaibīya (xlvi. 18) by that great multitude united in devotion to their great leader, was evidence of the great power which he commanded even in a worldly sense if the Quraish had chosen to try conclusions with him.

4. A peaceful Treaty was therefore concluded, known as the Treaty of Hudaibīya. It stipulated: (1) that there was to be peace between the parties for ten years; (2) that any tribe or person was free to join either party or make an alliance with it; (3) that if a Quraish person from Mecca, under guardianship, should join the Prophet without the guardian's permission, he (or she) should be sent back to the guardian, but in the contrary case, they should not be sent back; and (4) that the Prophet and his party were not to enter Mecca that year, but that they could enter unarmed the following year.

5. Item 3, not being reciprocal, was objected to in the Muslim camp, but it really was of little importance. Muslims under guardianship, sent back to Mecca, were not likely to renounce the blessings of Islam; on the other hand Muslims going to Mecca would be centres of influence for Islam, and it was more important that they should be allowed to remain there than that they should be sent back to Medina.

Ask you (to give up)
Your possessions.<sup>4861</sup>

يَسْأَلُكُمْ أَمْوَالَكُمْ

37. If He were to ask you
For all of them, and Press you, ye would Covetously withhold, and He would<sup>4862</sup>
Bring out all your ill-feeling.<sup>4863</sup>

٢٧ إِن يَسْأَلْكُمْ وَهَافٍ عَلَيْكُمْ يَخْلُوا وَيُخْجِ
أَضْفَعَكُمْ

38. Behold, ye are those<sup>4864</sup>
Invited to spend
(Of your substance)
In the Way of God:
But among you are some
That are niggardly. But any
Who are niggardly are so
At the expense of
Their own souls.
But God is free
Of all wants,
And it is ye that are needy.
If ye turn back<sup>4865</sup>
(From the Path), He will Substitute in your stead
Another people; then they
Would not be like you!

٢٨ مَا أَنْتُمْ هَؤُلَاءِ تُدْعَوْنَ لِلنَّفَقَةِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
فَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يَخْشَى أَنْ يَخْلُفَ فَإِنْ يَخْلُفْ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ
وَاللَّهُ الْغَنِيُّ وَأَنْتُمُ الْفُقَرَاءُ وَإِنْ
تَوَلَّوْا يَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَكُونُوا
أَمْثَلَكُمْ

4861. Complete self-sacrifice, if voluntarily offered, has a meaning: it means that the person's devotion is exclusively and completely for the Cause. But no law or rule can demand it. And a mere offer to kill yourself has no meaning. You should be ready to take risks to your life in fighting for the Cause, but you should aim at life, not death. If you live, you should be ready to place your substance and your acquisitions at the disposal of the Cause. But it is not reasonable to pauperise yourself and become a hanger-on for the Cause. Moreover, the inborn tendency to self-preservation in an average man would lead to concealment and niggardliness if all were asked for the Cause, by Law, and there would further be a feeling of bitterness and rebellion.

4862. Cf. iii. 180.

4863. Cf. above, verse 29. Rancour or ill-feeling, or any desire but that of devotion, should never be given a handle in a wise Law.

4864. Here the cases of the special devotee and of the average man with his human foibles are distinguished. Stinginess is not a virtue: it hurts more the finer nature of the individual practising it than it hurts the Cause. God is free of all wants and independent of any need that we can meet. His Cause is similarly independent of human aid. But it uses human agency for our own human advancement. The need to be able to serve in the Kingdom of Heaven is ours. We are the needy beggars who should claim the privilege before the Lord of Bounties unbounded.

4865. If we desert the Cause, the Cause will not fail. Better men than we will uphold the flag. But we should fall, and others will take our place, who are not so timid, half-hearted, or stingy. In Wordsworth's words, "High Heaven rejects the lore of nicely calculated less or more."

Has been clearly shown to them,<sup>4857</sup>
Will not injure God
In the least, but He
Will make their deeds
Of no effect.

33. O ye who believe!
Obey God, and obey
The Apostle, and make
Not vain your deeds!

34. Those who reject God,<sup>4858</sup>
And hinder (men) from the Path'
Of God, then die rejecting God,—
God will not forgive them.

35. Be not weary and
Faint-hearted, crying for peace,
When ye should be<sup>4859</sup>
Uppermost: for God is
With you, and will never
Put you in loss
For your (good) deeds.

36. The life of this world
Is but play and amusement:<sup>4860</sup>
And if ye believe
And guard against evil,
He will grant you
Your recompense, and will not

الْهْدَىٰ لَنْ يَضُرَّوْا اللَّهَ شَيْئًا وَسَيُحِطُّ أَعْمَلَهُمْ

٣٣ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ
وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَلَا تُبْطِلُوا أَعْمَالَكُمْ

٣٤ * إِنَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدَدُوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ
اللَّهِ ثُمَّ مَاتُوا وَهُمْ كُفَّارٌ فَلَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ

٣٥ فَلَا يَهِنُوا وَتَدْعُوا إِلَى السَّلَامِ وَأَنتُمْ
الْأَعْلَوْنَ وَاللَّهُ مَعَكُمْ وَلَنْ يَبْرِكَكُمْ
أَعْمَالَكُمْ

٣٦ إِنَّمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا لَعِبٌ وَلَهُوَ إِنْ تَوَمَّنُوا
وَتَشْتَأُوا يُؤْتِكُمْ أَجْرَكُمْ وَلَا

4857. Cf. verse 25 above, and verse 34 below: in verse 25 was shown the source of the evil, viz., yielding to the deceptions of the Evil One; in this verse are shown the proximate consequences of such yielding to evil, viz., failure of all we do; and in verse 34 below are shown the eternal consequences, viz., our deprivation of God's Grace and Mercy.

4858. See last note.

4859. To those who are trying to root out evil, and have authority to do so, the question is not of peace or conflict, but of whether Good or Evil is to prevail. They must remember that Good must ultimately prevail, and God's help is with those who, as far as men can, are trying to further the universal Plan. Cf. n. 4847 to verse 22 above.

4860. Cf. vi. 32, and n. 855; and xxix. 64, and n. 3497. Amusement and play are not bad things in themselves. As preparations for the more serious life, they have their value. But if we concentrate on them, and neglect the business of life, we cannot prosper. So we must use our life in this world as a preparation for our spiritual or inner life.

28. This because they followed
That which called forth
The Wrath of God, and
They hated God's good pleasure;
So He made their deeds
Of no effect.

SECTION 4.

29. Or do those in whose<sup>4853</sup>
Hearts is a disease, think
That God will not bring
To light all their rancour?
30. Had We so willed,
We could have shown them
Up to thee, and thou
Shouldst have known them<sup>4854</sup>
By their marks: but surely
Thou wilt know them
By the tone of their speech!
And God knows
All that ye do.
31. And We shall try you<sup>4855</sup>
Until We test those
Among you who strive
Their utmost and persevere
In patience; and We shall
Try your reported (mettle).<sup>4856</sup>
32. Those who reject God,
Hinder (men) from
The Path of God, and resist
The Apostle, after Guidance

٢٨ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ اتَّبَعُوا مَا أَشْجَلَهُ اللَّهُ
وَكَرِهُوا رِضْوَانَهُ فَأَحْبَطَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ

٢٩ أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ أَن لَّا يُخْرِجَ
اللَّهُ أَضْغَانَهُمْ

٣٠ وَلَوْ شَاءَ لَأَرَيْنَاكُمْ فَلَعَرَفْتَهُمْ بِسِيمَاهُمْ
وَلَعَرَفْتَهُمْ فِي لَحْنِ الْقَوْلِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ أَعْمَالَكُمْ

٣١ وَلَنَبْلُوَنَّكُمْ حَتَّى نَعْلَمَ الْمُجَاهِدِينَ مِنْكُمْ
وَالصَّابِرِينَ وَنَبْلُوَنَّكُمْ أَخْبَارَكُمْ

٣٢ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَن سَبِيلِ
اللَّهِ وَشَاقُّوا الرَّسُولَ مِن بَعْدِ مَا بَيَّنَّ لَهُمُ

4853. Cf. verse 20 above, and n. 4845. Being diseased at the very core of their being, they do not understand the simplest facts of spiritual life.

4854. Evil is not always necessarily branded in this life with a distinguishing mark or brand. But the discerning ones know. Evil is betrayed by its speech and behaviour.

4855. Cf. xxxiv. 21. and n. 3821. The test and trial is for our own psychological development, to help in the exercise of such choice as has been given to us in our free-will. Cf. also iii. 154, and n. 467

4856. Akhbār: the things reported of you; reputation for courage and constancy, which has to be brought to the test of facts and experience. In an epigram of Tacitus we are told of a Roman Emperor that he would have been considered in every way to have been worthy of being a ruler if only he had never ruled! So in life people may think us courageous, true, noble, and self-sacrificing; and we may consider ourselves as possessing all such virtues; but it is actual experience that will bring them to the test.

23. Such are the men
Whom God has cursed <sup>4848</sup>
For He has made them
Deaf and blinded their sight.

﴿٢٣﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فَأَصَمَّهُمْ وَأَعَمَّى
أَبْصَارَهُمْ

24. Do they not then
Earnestly seek to understand
The Qur-ān, or are
Their hearts locked up
By them?

﴿٢٤﴾ أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ أَمْ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبٍ
أَفْئَالٌ

25. Those who turn back <sup>4849</sup>
As apostates after Guidance
Was clearly shown to them,—
The Evil One has instigated
Them and buoyed them up
With false hopes.

﴿٢٥﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آذَنُوا وَعَلِيَ آذُنِهِمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ
مَا بَيَّنَّ لَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ الشَّيْطَانُ سَوَّلَ لَهُمْ
وَأَمْلَأَهُمْ

26. This, because they said <sup>4850</sup>
To those who hate what God has revealed, "We
Will obey you in part
Of (this) matter"; but God
Knows their (inner) secrets.

﴿٢٦﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ كَرِهُوا مَا نَزَّلَ
اللَّهُ سَطِيعُكُمْ فِي بَعْضِ الْأَمْرِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ
إِسْرَارَهُمْ

27. But how (will it be) <sup>4851</sup>
When the angels take
Their souls at death,
And smite their faces <sup>4852</sup>
And their backs?

﴿٢٧﴾ فَكَيْفَ لِمَا تَوْفَّنَهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ يَضْرِبُونَ
وُجُوهَهُمْ وَأَظْهَرَهُمْ

4848. Cursed : i.e., deprived of His Grace : left them straying, because they deliberately rejected His guidance. The result is that what they hear is as if they had not heard, and what they see is as if they had not seen. They have no desire to understand God's Will or God's Revelation;—or is it that they have themselves locked and bolted their hearts and minds, so that nothing can penetrate them?

4849. Such men are entirely in the hands of Evil. They follow its suggestions, and their hopes are built on its deceptions.

4850. They have become so impervious to facts and truths, because, without the courage to oppose God's Cause openly, they secretly intrigue with God's enemies, and say that they will follow them part of the way, and by remaining partly in the other camp, they will be far more useful as spies and half-hearted doubters than by going over altogether. If they think that this game will be successful, they are mistaken. All the inner secrets and motives of their hearts are known to God. Cf. lix. 11.

4851. It is all very well for them to practise hypocrisy in this life. How will they feel at death, when they find that the angels know all, and touch the very spots they had taken such care to conceal?

4852. Their faces and their backs : there is a subtle metaphor. The face is what looks to the front, the side you present to the outer world; the back is what is not shown, what is hidden from the world. The hypocrites will be hit at both points. Or, the face is what they boast of, what they are proud of; the back is the skeleton in the cupboard, the things they dare not utter, but which yet haunt them. The hypocrites are hit on every side. Cf. viii. 50.

SECTION 3.

20. <sup>4843</sup> Those who believe say,
 "Why is not a Sūra
 Sent down (for us)?"
 But when a Sūra
 Of basic or categorical <sup>4844</sup>
 Meaning is revealed,
 And fighting is mentioned
 Therein, thou wilt see those
 In whose hearts is a disease <sup>4845</sup>
 Looking at thee with a look
 Of one in swoon at
 The approach of death.
 But more fitting for them—

21. Were it to obey
 And say what is just,
 And when a matter <sup>4846</sup>
 Is resolved on, it were
 Best for them if they
 Were true to God.

22. Then, is it <sup>4847</sup>
 To be expected of you,
 If ye were put in authority,
 That ye will do mischief
 In the land, and break
 Your ties of kith and kin?

وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَتْ سُورَةٌ
 فَإِذَا أُنْزِلَتْ سُورَةٌ مُحْكَمَةٌ وَذُكِرَ فِيهَا الْقِتَالُ
 رَأَيْنَا الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ يُنْظَرُونَ إِلَيْكَ
 نَظَرَ الْمَغْشِيِّ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ فَأُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ

طَاعَةٌ وَقَوْلٌ مَعْرُوفٌ فَإِذَا عَزَمَ الْأَمْرُ
 فَلَوْ صَدَقُوا اللَّهَ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ

فَهَلْ عَسَيْتُمْ إِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ أَنْ تُفْسِدُوا فِي
 الْأَرْضِ وَتَقَطَّعُوا أَرْحَامَكُمْ

4843. The men of faith and loyalty are eager and anxious to get a command to serve the Cause even if it be at the sacrifice of their lives. Not so the Hypocrites, "those in whose hearts is a disease". They are mortally afraid as mentioned below.

4844. Cf. iii. 7, and n. 347. The defence of truth and righteousness at all sacrifice, when a definite and categorical command issues from the righteous Imām under inspiration from God, is a fundamental condition of enlistment in the cause of God. It is true that Punishment and Judgment belong to God alone; but our mettle and fidelity have to be tested, (see verse 4 above), and God uses human agency in human affairs.

4845. Cf. ii. 10. The disease is hypocrisy, disloyalty to the Cause, want of courage and of the spirit of self-sacrifice, want of true understanding.

4847. It is no use to say, as the Quraish said, that it is not seemly to fight against kith and kin. From one point of view the stand against sin brings "not peace, but a sword". It is a case of either subduing evil or being subdued by evil. If evil gets the upper hand, it is not likely to respect ties of kith and kin. It did not in the case of the holy Prophet and his adherents, and had to be suppressed, to bring about the conditions necessary for peace.

18. Do they then only wait <sup>4839</sup>
 For the Hour,—that it
 Should come on them
 Of a sudden? But already
 Have come some tokens <sup>4840</sup>
 Thereof, and when it
 (Actually) is on them,
 How can they benefit
 Then by their admonition?

١٨ قَهْلَ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً
 فَقَدْ جَاءَ أَشْرَاطُهَا فَأَنَّى لَهُمْ إِذَا جَاءَتْهُمْ
 ذِكْرُهَا

19. Know, therefore, that
 There is no god
 But God, and ask
 Forgiveness for thy fault, <sup>4841</sup>
 And for the men
 And women who believe:
 For God knows how ye <sup>4842</sup>
 Move about and how
 Ye dwell in your homes.

١٩ فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنْبِكَ
 وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ
 مُتَقَلِّبَكُمُ وَمَشَاقِكُمْ

C. 221.—Those eager for service want the call for service;
 (xlvi. 20-38.) But the hypocrites blench at such call.

If it were not obeyed, and evil should get
 The upper hand, will it not stalk arrogant
 Over the land, and trample under foot
 All claims of right and kinship? Fight it,
 And fail not in the test of your mettle. Be bold
 And establish the Flag of Righteousness
 In the highest places. Thus comes Peace,
 For which due sacrifice must be made.

4839. Cf. xliii. 66, and n. 4665.

4840. The sands of time are always running, and when a wrong is done, the time for its punishment is approaching every moment. No one should therefore wait. The time for repentance is Now at any given time. When the punishment comes, it is too late for repentance, and all admonition would be useless.

Looking to the particular time when this Sûra was revealed, viz., about a year after the Hijrat, already there were Signs that the plans of the Pagans to crush Islam were crumbling to pieces. The Hijrat showed how much good-will there was in Medina for the holy man of God, and how many people from Mecca adhered to him. The battle of Badr showed that they could hold their own against odds of three to one.

4841. Cf. xl. 55, and n. 4428.

4842. The time and manner of our conducting ourselves at home and when we move about on our business are all material to the judgment of our conduct, and for every nuance in our moral and spiritual progress, we must seek God's help and guidance.

Of wine, a joy
To those who drink ;
And rivers of honey
Pure and clear. In it
There are for them
All kinds of fruits ; <sup>4834</sup>
And Grace from their Lord <sup>4835</sup>
(Can those in such Bliss)
Be compared to such as
Shall dwell for ever
In the Fire, and be given,
To drink, boiling water,
So that it cuts up <sup>4836</sup>
Their bowels (to pieces) ?

16. And among them are men
Who listen to thee,
But in the end, when they
Go out from thee, <sup>4837</sup>
They say to those who
Have received Knowledge,
"What is it he said
Just then ?" Such are Men whose hearts God
Has sealed, and who
Follow their own lusts.

17. But to those who receive <sup>4838</sup>
Guidance, He increases
The (light of) Guidance,
And bestows on them
Their Piety and Restraint
(From evil).

مِنْ خَيْرِ لَذَائِ الشَّرَابِ وَأَنْهَارٍ مِنْ عَسَلٍ
مُصَيٍّ وَلَهُمْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ
مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ كَمَنْ هُوَ خَالِدٌ فِي النَّارِ وَسُقُوا مَاءً
حَمِيمًا فَقَطَّعَ أَمْعَاءَهُمْ

① وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَسْتَمِعُ إِلَيْكَ حَتَّى إِذَا خَرَجُوا
مِنْ عِنْدِكَ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ مَاذَا قَالَ
هَٰذَا أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ
وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ

② وَالَّذِينَ اهْتَدَوْا زَادَهُمْ هُدًى
وَسَخَّرَ لَهُمْ تَقْوَاهُمْ

4834. The signification of Fruits in their metaphorical sense has been already explained: see n. 4671 to xliii. 73. In the setting of the present verse, note that it implies a second degree of totality of Bliss, the third or highest and final degree being the Grace or Mercy of God.

4835. Grace from their Lord: that is the covering up or blotting out of sin and all that was sad or unsatisfactory in the lower life; the pure Light from the Countenance of God Most High: xcii. 20.

4836. Cf. xxxvii. 66-67, and n. 4074. Just as the Bliss of the Blessed will penetrate their being through and through, so the agony of the condemned ones will penetrate their being through and through. "Bowels" besides meaning their inmost being, also suggests the seat of their feelings and affections.

4837. Cf. x. 42, and n. 1434; also vi. 25, 36, and n. 857. The case here referred to is that of the Hypocrites who came to the assemblies of Islam in Medina and pretended to listen to the Prophet's teaching and preaching. But their heart and mind were not in learning righteousness, but in carping at things they saw and heard. When they got out, they knew nothing of the teaching, but on the contrary asked foolish and ignorant questions, such as might raise doubts.

4838. Spiritual advancement is progressive: each step makes the next ones easier and more complete.

While those who reject God
Will enjoy (this world) <sup>4830</sup>
And eat as cattle eat ;
And the Fire will
Be their abode.

13. And how many cities,
With more power than
Thy city which has
Driven thee out, <sup>4831</sup>
Have We destroyed
(For their sins) ?
And there was none
To aid them.

14. Is then one who is
On a clear <sup>4832</sup> (Path)
From his Lord,
No better than one
To whom the evil
Of his conduct seems pleasing,
And such as follow
Their own lusts ?

15. (There is) a Parable
Of the Garden which
The righteous are promised :
In it are rivers
Of water incorruptible ; <sup>4833</sup>
Rivers of milk
Of which the taste
Never changes ; rivers

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَمْشُونَ
وَيَأْكُلُونَ كَمَا تَأْكُلُ الْأَنْعَامُ وَالنَّارُ

مَثْوًى لَهُمْ
③ وَكَأَيِّنْ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ هِيَ أَشَدُّ قُوَّةً
مِنْ قَرْيِكَ الَّتِي أَخْرَجْنَاكَ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ فَلَا
نَاصِرَ لَهُمْ

④ أَفَمَنْ كَانَ عَلَىٰ بَيِّنَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّهِ كَمَنْ
زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ

⑤ مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وَعَدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ فِيهَا أَنْهَارٌ مِنْ
مَاءٍ غَيْرِ آسِنٍ وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ لَبَنٍ لَمْ يَتَغَيَّرْ
طَعْمُهُ وَأَنْهَارٌ

4830. An apt simile. Beasts of the field eat their fill, but have no higher interests. Men who worship the world exclusively are no better their pleasures and enjoyments rise no higher than those of the beasts of the field. They have no inkling of spiritual happiness. On the contrary, as they were endowed with spiritual faculties which they misused, they will not escape the Fire of Punishment, the Penalty of Sin.

4831. A reference to Pagan Mecca, which drove out the holy Prophet because of his righteousness and because he preached Repentance. The date of this Sūra must therefore be after the Hijrat.

4832. Clear, or enlightened ; a Path on which shines the Light of God.

4833. In this symbolism there are four kinds of drinks and all kinds of fruits ; and the summing up of all spiritual delights in the " Grace from their Lord ". The four kinds of drinks are : (1) delicious, cool, pure water, not like earthly water, for it never suffers corruption ; (2) milk which never turns sour, whose taste is like that of fresh warm milk drawn from the udder ; (3) wine, not like any wine on earth, for it leaves no headaches behind, and causes no intoxication, which is a kind of madness or poison, but is ever a joy to drink ; and (4) honey, pure and clear, with no admixture of wax or any foreign substance. These drinks, again speaking metaphorically, will cool the spirit, feed the heart, warm the affections, and sweeten life.

7. ٧ ye who believe!
If ye will aid
(The cause of) God,
He will aid you,
And plant your feet firmly.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِن تَنْصُرُوا اللَّهَ
يَنْصُرْكُمْ وَيُثَبِّتْ أَقْدَامَكُمْ

8. But those who reject (God),—
For them is destruction,
And (God) will render
Their deeds astray <sup>4827</sup>
(From their mark).

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَتَعْسًا لَهُمْ وَأَضَلَّ
أَعْمَالَهُمْ

9. That is because they
Hate the Revelation of God;
So He has made
Their deeds fruitless. <sup>4828</sup>

ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَرِهُوا مَا أُنْزِلَ اللَّهُ
فَأَخْبَطَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ

10. Do they not travel <sup>4829</sup>
Through the earth, and see
What was the End
Of those before them
(Who did evil)?
God brought utter destruction
On them, and similar (Fates await) those who
Reject God.

أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ دَمَرَهُ اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِمْ وَلِلْكَافِرِينَ أَمْثَلُهَا

11. That is because God
Is the Protector of those
Who believe, but
Those who reject God
Have no protector.

ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ مَوْلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَأَنَّ
الْكَافِرِينَ لَا مَوْلَى لَهُمْ

SECTION 2.

12. ١٢ Verily God will admit
Those who believe and do
Righteous deeds, to Gardens
Beneath which rivers flow;

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ
تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ

4827. See above, xlvii. 1 and n. 4817.

4828. Their deeds are "fruitless" in the sense that they are vain; they do not produce the results intended by their doers. But they will not be exempt from producing the natural consequences of evil, viz., further degradation and misery for the soul.

4829. The end of evil is evil. All past history and tradition shows that. Will not men of every generation learn that lesson? God helps His servants, but those who rebel against God have no one to help them.

Smite at their necks ;
 At length, when ye have
 Thoroughly subdued them,
 Bind a bond <sup>4821</sup>
 Firmly (on them) : thereafter
 (Is the time for) either
 Generosity or ransom : <sup>4822</sup>
 Until the war lays down
 Its burdens. Thus (are ye Commanded) : but if it
 Had been God's Will,
 He could certainly have exacted
 Retribution from them (Himself) ;
 But (He lets you fight)
 In order to test you, <sup>4823</sup>
 Some with others.
 But those who are slain <sup>4824</sup>
 In the way of God,—
 He will never let
 Their deeds be lost.

5. Soon will He guide them <sup>4825</sup>
 And improve their condition,

6. And admit them to
 The Garden which He <sup>4826</sup>
 Has announced for them.

فَضْرَبَ الرِّقَابَ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَثْخَنُوهُمْ
 فَشَدُّوا أَلْوَتَاقَ فِيمَا مَتَابَعْدُ وَإِنَّمَا
 فِدَاءٌ حَتَّىٰ تَضَعَ الْحَرْبُ أَوْزَارَهَا ذَلِكَ
 وَلَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ لَآنصَرْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَلَٰكِنْ
 لِّيَبْلُوَ بَعْضُكُم بِبَعْضٍ وَالَّذِينَ قُتِلُوا فِي
 سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَلَنْ يُضِلَّ أَعْمَالَهُمْ

⑤ سَيَهْدِيهِمْ وَيُصْلِحُ بَالَهُمْ

⑥ وَيُدْخِلُهُمُ الْجَنَّةَ عَرَّفَهَا لَهُمْ

4821. In the first onset there must necessarily be great loss of life ; but when the enemy is fairly beaten, which means, in a Jihād, that he is not likely to seek again the persecution of Truth, firm arrangements should be made to bring him under control. I thus construe the words "bind a bond firmly (on them)", but others have construed the words to mean, "after the enemy's numbers are fairly thinned down, prisoners may be taken". With this passage may be compared viii, 67, and n. 1234.

4822. When once the enemy is brought under control, generosity (i.e., the release of prisoners without ransom) or ransom is recommended.

4823. The Believers are tested in Faith by the extent to which they are willing to make sacrifices, even to the laying down of their lives ; and the enemies are tested as to whether they would repent and let the righteous live in freedom and security.

4824. There are two alternative readings, (1) qātalū, "those who fight", and (2) qulilū, "those who are slain". The meaning under the first reading is wider, and includes that under the second. I have translated on the basis of the second reading, which is in accordance with the text of the Royal Egyptian edition.

4825. If we read "who are slain" in the last clause but one of verse 4, (see last note), "guide" would mean "guide them in their spiritual journey after death". Improve their condition : see n. 4818 above. If after death, their minds and hearts will be more and more settled and at rest, and their spiritual satisfaction greater.

4826. "The Garden which He has announced for them" : the state of Bliss which is declared in Revelation to be destined for those who serve God.

Sura XLVII.

*Muhammad (the Prophet).In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Those who reject God
And hinder (men) from
The Path of God,—
Their deeds will God
Render astray <sup>4817</sup> .
(From their mark).

2. But those who believe
And work deeds of
Righteousness, and believe
In the (Revelation) sent down
To Muhammad — for it is
The Truth from their Lord,—
He will remove from them
Their ills and improve
Their condition. <sup>4818</sup>

3. This because those who
Reject God follow vanities,
While those who believe follow
The Truth from their Lord :
Thus does God set forth <sup>4819</sup>
For men their lessons
By similitudes.

4. Therefore, when ye meet <sup>4820</sup>
The Unbelievers (in fight),

① الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ
سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَضَلَّ أَعْمَلُهُمْ

② وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَأَمَّا نَسُوا نَصْرَ اللَّهِ الَّذِي كَفَرُوا
مِنْ زِينَتِهِمْ كَفَرَ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ
وَأَضْلَحَ بِالْهَرَمِ

③ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا اتَّبَعُوا
الْبُطْلَ وَأَنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّبَعُوا الْحَقَّ مِنْ
زِينَتِهِمْ كَذَلِكَ يُضْرِبُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ أَمْثَلَهُمْ

④ فَإِذَا لَقِيتُمْ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا

4817. Whatever they do will miss its mark, because God is the source of all energy and life. If the wicked try to persecute men or seduce them from the Truth, the result will be the opposite of what they intend.

4818. Bāl means state or condition, whether external, or of the heart and mind. Both meanings apply here. The more the wicked rage, the better will be the position of the righteous, and God will make it easier and easier for the righteous to love and follow the Truth.

4819. We learn the greatest spiritual lessons by parables and similitudes from things that happen in the outer world. If a man goes after a mirage or a thing that has no real existence, he can never reach his goal, while the man that follows the kindly Light from God that leads him on must be happier in mind, sounder in heart, and firmer in life, generally for every moment that he lives.

4820. When once the fight (Jihād) is entered upon, carry it out with the utmost vigour, and strike home your blows at the most vital points (smite at their necks), both literally and figuratively. You cannot wage war with kid gloves.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLVII (Muhammad).

We have examined and followed the current arrangement of the Sūras according to subject-matter and independently of chronology, and we have found that a logical thread runs through them. We have now finished more than five-sixths of the Qur-ān. The remaining sixth consists of short Sūras, but these are again grouped according to subject-matter.

We begin the first of such groups with a group of three Sūras (xlvi. to xlix.), which deal with the organisation of the Muslim Ummat or community both for external defence and in internal relations. The present Sūra deals with the necessity of defence against external foes by courage and strenuous fighting, and dates from about the first year of the Hijra, when the Muslims were under threat of extinction by invasion from Mecca.

Summary.—Aggressive hostility to Faith and Truth should be fought firmly, and God will guide (xlvi. 1-19, and C. 220).

Faint-heartedness condemned; those who strive and those who turn away will be sorted out (xlvi. 20-38, and C. 221).

C. 220.—No plots against Truth or Faith will succeed:
(xlvi. 1-19.) But those who follow both will be strengthened.
Be firm in the fight, and God will guide.
Rebellion against God is destruction: fidelity
Will cool the mind and feed the heart;
It will warm the affections and sweeten life.
Hypocrisy carries its own doom.

33. See they not that
God, Who created the heavens
And the earth, and never
Wearied with their creation,<sup>4812</sup>
Is able to give life
To the dead? Yea, verily
He has power over all things.

34. And on the Day that<sup>4813</sup>
The Unbelievers will be
Placed before the Fire,
(They will be asked,)
"Is this not the Truth?"
They will say, "Yea,
By our Lord!"
(One will say :)
"Then taste ye<sup>4814</sup>
The Penalty, for that ye
Were wont to deny (Truth)!"

35. Therefore patiently persevere,
As did (all) apostles
Of inflexible purpose;
And be in no haste
About the (Unbelievers). On the Day<sup>4815</sup>
That they see the (Punishment)
Promised them, (it will be)
As if they had not
Tarried more than an hour
In a single day. (Thine
But) to proclaim the Message:<sup>4816</sup>
But shall any be destroyed
Except those who transgress?

٣٣ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضَ وَلَمْ يَتَّعِ بِخَلْقِهِنَّ بِقَدِيرٍ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يَحْيِيَ
الْمُوتَىٰ بَلَىٰ إِنَّهُمْ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

٣٤ وَيَوْمَ يُعْرَضُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَلَىٰ النَّارِ أَلَيْسَ هَٰذَا
بِالْحَقِّ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ وَرَبِّنَا قَالَ فَذُوقُوا الْعَذَابَ
بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ

٣٥ فَاصْبِرْ كَمَا صَبَرَ أُولُو الْعَزْمِ مِنَ الرُّسُلِ
وَلَا تَسْتَعْجِلْ لَهُمْ كَأَنَّهُمْ يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَ مَا يُوعَدُونَ
لَا يُلْبِسُوا إِلَّا سَاعَةً مِّنْ نَّهَارٍ بَلْعَلْ هُم بِحَقِّ
إِلَٰهِ الْقَوْمِ الْفَاسِقُونَ

4812. Cf. ii. 255 (Verse of the Throne): "His Throne doth extend over the heavens and the earth, and He feeleth no fatigue in guarding and preserving them." He Whose power is constant and unwearied in creating and preserving all things in heaven and earth can surely give life to the dead at the Resurrection.

4813. Cf. xlv. 20, where the argument was closed about the undutiful son of a good father. After that the example of the 'Ad and of the believing Jinns was cited, and now is closed that argument in similar terms.

4814. The Truth which they denied is now all too clear to them. They are out of the Light of Truth, out of the Light of God's Countenance. And that in itself is a terrible Penalty.

4815. All spiritual work proceeds in its own good time. We should never be impatient either about its success or about the punishment which is bound to come for those who oppose it or wish to suppress it. The inevitable punishment is spoken of as the Punishment promised. It will come so soon and so suddenly that it will appear as if there was not the delay of a single hour in a single day! Time is a great factor in our affairs in this world, but it hardly counts in the spiritual Kingdom.

4816. The Preacher's duty is to proclaim the Message in unmistakable terms. If any human beings come in the way, it will be to their own destruction; but none but rebellious transgressor will be punished. There is always hope and forgiveness for repentance and amendment.

29. Behold, We turned Towards thee a company<sup>4809</sup>
Of Jinns (quietly) listening
To the Qur-ān : when they Stood in the presence
Thereof, they said, "Listen
In silence!" When the (reading)
Was finished, they returned
To their people, to warn
(Them of their sins).

30. They said, "O our people!
We have heard a Book
Revealed after Moses,
Confirming what came
Before it : it guides (men)
To the Truth and
To a Straight Path.

31. "O our people, hearken
To the one who invites<sup>4810</sup>
(You) to God, and believe
In him : He will forgive
You your faults,
And deliver you from
A Penalty Grievous.

32. "If any does not hearken
To the one who invites (Us) to God, he cannot<sup>4811</sup>
Frustrate (God's Plan) on earth,
And no protectors can he have
Besides God : such men
(Wander) in manifest error."

٢٩ ﴿وَإِذْ صَرَفْنَا إِلَيْكَ نَفَرًا مِّنَ الْجِنِّ يَسْتَمِعُونَ
الْقُرْآنَ فَلَمَّا حَضَرُوهُ قَالُوا أَنصُوتُوا فَلَمَّا قُضِيَ وَلَّوْا
إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ مُّنْذِرِينَ

٣٠ ﴿قَالُوا يَاقَوْمَنَا إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا كِتَابًا
أُنزِلَ مِن بَعْدِ مُوسَىٰ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ
يَهْدِي إِلَى الْحَقِّ وَإِلَى طَرِيقٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ

٣١ ﴿يَقَوْمَنَا أَجِيبُوا دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ وَآمِنُوا بِهِ يَغْفِرَ لَكُم
مِّن ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَتُجْرَمُوا مِنْ عَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

٣٢ ﴿وَمَن لَّا يَجِبْ دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ فَلَيْسَ بِمُعْجِزٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَلَيْسَ لَهُ مِن دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءُ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ
بُعيدٍ

4809. A company of Jinns. Nafar (company) may mean a group of from three to ten persons. For Jinns, see n 929 to vi 100. I have usually translated "spirits", but here some unfamiliar class of men or beings seems to be meant. They listened to the reading of the Qur-ān with great respect. The next verse shows that they had heard of the Jewish religion, but they were impressed with the Message of Islam, and they seem to have gone back to their people to share the Good News with them.

4810. The one who invites all to God is the holy Prophet. He invites us to God ; if we believe in God and His Apostle, God will forgive us our sins on our repentance and amendment of our lives, and save us the Penalty of the future life.

4811. If a person refuses to believe the Truth, or opposes it, it has not the least effect on God's holy Plan, which will go on to its completion ; but it will deprive him of Grace and of any protection whatever ; he will wander about as an outlaw in manifest helplessness

26. And We had firmly established
Them in a (prosperity and) power
Which We have not given
To you (ye Quraish!)
And We had endowed them
With (faculties of) <sup>4804</sup>
Hearing, seeing, heart and intellect:
But of no profit to them
Were their (faculties of)
Hearing, sight, and heart
And intellect, when they Went on rejecting the Signs <sup>4805</sup>
Of God; and they were (Completely) encircled <sup>4806</sup>
By that which they
Used to mock at!

٢٦ وَلَقَدْ مَكَّنَّهُمْ فِيهَا إِن تَكُنْ لَهُمْ فِيهِ
وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ سَمْعًا وَبَصَرًا وَأَفْئِدَةً فَمَا
أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ سَمْعُهُمْ وَلَا أَبْصَرُهُمْ وَلَا
أَفْئِدَتُهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِذْ كَانُوا يَجْحَدُونَ
بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَحَاقَ بِهِم مَّا كَانُوا بِهٖ
يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ

SECTION 4.

27. We destroyed aforetime
Populations round about you; <sup>4807</sup>
And We have shown
The Signs in various ways,
That they may turn (to Us).

٢٧ وَلَقَدْ أَهْلَكْنَا مَا خَوْلَاكُمْ مِنْ
الْقُرَىٰ وَصَرَّفْنَا الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَرْجِعُونَ

28. Why then was no help
Forthcoming to them from those
Whom they worshipped as gods,
Besides God, as a means
Of access (to God)? Nay,
They left them in the lurch:
But that was their
Falsehood and their invention. <sup>4808</sup>

٢٨ فَلَوْلَا نَصْرُهُمُ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ
اللَّهِ قُرْبَانَا إِلَىٰ إِلَهِهِمْ يَبْتَغُونَ
إِنْ كُنْهُمْ وَمَا كَانُوا يَفْقَهُونَ

4804. The 'Ad and their successors the Thamūd were more richly endowed with the faculties of the arts, sciences, and culture than ever were the Quraish before Islam. "Hearing and seeing" refer to the experimental faculties; the word "heart" in Arabic includes intellect, or the rational faculties, as well as the instruments of feeling and emotion, the aesthetic faculties. The Second 'Ad, or the Thamūd, have left interesting traces of their architecture in the country round the Hījr: see n. 1043 to vii. 73, and notes 2002-2003 to xv. 80-82.

4805. The highest talents and faculties of this world are useless in the spiritual world if we reject the laws of the spiritual world and thus become outlaws there.

4806. See n. 4770 to xiv. 33. They used to mock at God's Signs but those were the very things which hemmed them in, and showed that they had more power and effectiveness than anything else.

4807. In Arabian history and tradition alone, to say nothing of God's Signs elsewhere, sin inevitably suffered its Punishment, and in various ways. Would not the later people take warning?

4808. The false things that they worshipped were figments of their imagination. If they had had any existence in fact, it was not of the kind they imagined.

From our gods? Then bring
Upon us the (calamity)
With which thou dost
Threaten us, if thou
Art telling the truth!"

23. He said: "The Knowledge <sup>4801</sup>
(Of when it will come)
Is only with God: I
Proclaim to you the mission
On which I have been sent:
But I see that ye
Are a people in ignorance!" ...

24. Then, when they saw <sup>4802</sup>
The (Penalty in the shape of)
A cloud traversing the sky,
Coming to meet their valleys,
They said, "This cloud
Will give us rain!"
"Nay, it is the (calamity)
Ye were asking to be
Hastened!—a wind
Wherein is a Grievous Penalty!"

25. "Everything will it destroy
By the command of its Lord!"
Then by the morning they — <sup>4803</sup>
Nothing was to be seen
But (the ruins of) their houses!
Thus do We recompense
Those given to sin!

الْمُتَكَاثِرِينَ بِمَا تَعِدُنَا إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ
الصَّادِقِينَ

٢٣ قَالَ إِنَّمَا الْعِلْمُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَأُبْلِغُكُمْ مَا
أُرْسِلْتُ بِهِ، وَلَئِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُرِيدُونَ أَنْ
تُجَاهِلُوا

٢٤ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ عَارِضًا مُسْتَقْبِلَ أَوْدِيَّتِهِمْ قَالُوا
هَذَا عَارِضٌ مُمْطِرُنَا بَلْ هُوَ مَا اسْتَعْجَلْتُمْ بِهِ رِيحٌ
فِيهَا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

٢٥ لَنُدَمِّرُ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ بِأَمْرِ رَبِّهَا فَأَصْبَحُوا
لَا يُرَى إِلَّا أَسَاسُ كُنُوزِهِمْ كَذَلِكَ نُخْرِجُ الْقَوْمَ
الْجَاحِلِينَ

4801. The coming of the Punishment for evil was (and is always) certain. At what particular time it would come he could not tell. It is not for the prophet, but for God, to bring on the Penalty. But he saw that it was useless to appeal to them on account of the ignorance in which they were content to dwell.

4802. The Punishment came suddenly, and when they least expected it. They wanted rain, and they saw a cloud and rejoiced. Behold, it was coming towards their own tracts, winding through the hills. Their irrigation channels would be full, their fields would be green, and their season would be fruitful. But no! What is this? It is a tremendous hurricane, carrying destruction on its wings! A violent blast, with dust and sand! Its fury destroys everything in its wake! Lives lost! Fields covered with sand-hills! The morning dawns on a scene of desolation! Where were the men who boasted and defied their Lord! There are only the ruins of their houses to witness to the past!

4803. Here is the figure of speech known in rhetoric as aposiopesis, to heighten the effect of the suddenness and completeness of the calamity. In the Arabic text, the verb asbahū, in the third person plural, leads us to expect that we shall be told what they were doing in the morning. But no! They had been wiped out, and any small remnant had fled (see n. 1040 to vii. 65). Nothing was to be seen but the ruins of their houses.

According to the deeds
Which they (have done),
And in order that (God)
May recompense their deeds,
And no injustice be done
To them.

20. And on the Day that
The Unbelievers will be
Placed before the Fire,
(It will be said to them):
"Ye received your good things <sup>4796</sup>
In the life of the world,
And ye took your pleasure
Out of them: but to-day
Shall ye be recompensed <sup>4797</sup>
With a Penalty of humiliation:
For that ye were arrogant
On earth without just cause,
And that ye (ever) transgressed."

SECTION 3.

21. Mention (Hud)
One of 'Ad's (own) brethren: <sup>4798</sup>
Behold, he warned his people
About the winding Sand-tracts: <sup>4799</sup>
But there have been Warners
Before him and after him:
"Worship ye none other
Than God: truly I fear
For you the Penalty
Of a Mighty Day."

22. They said: "Hast thou come <sup>4800</sup>
In order to turn us aside

4796. "Received your good things" implies (in Arabic) grabbing at them, being greedy of them, seeking them as fleeting pleasures rather than the more serious things of life, sacrificing the spiritual for the material.

4797. They will be told: 'You took your choice, and you must pay the price. You did wrong in a rebellious spirit, and prided yourselves on your wrong-doing, not occasionally, but of set purpose and constantly. Now will you be humbled in the dust, as a fitting punishment.'

4798. Cf. vii. 65, and note 1040. The point is that the Warner who was raised among the 'Ad people—as among other peoples—was not a stranger, but one of their own brethren, even as the holy Prophet began his preaching with a call to his own brethren the Quraish.

4799. Winding Sand-tracts: Ahḡāf: see Introduction to this Sūra. The very things, which, under irrigation and with God's Grace, gave them prosperity and power, were to be their undoing when they broke God's Law and denied His Grace. See verses 24-26 below.

4800. They were too much wedded to their evil ways—to the false gods that they worshipped—to appreciate the sincere advice of the man of God. They defied him and defied God Who had sent him. Mockingly they challenged him to bring on the threatened punishment! For they did not believe a word of what he said.

4793. A godly man often has an ungodly son, who flouts all that the father held sacred, and looks upon his father himself as old-fashioned and unworthy of respect or regard. The contrast in an individual family may be matched by the contrast in the passing and the rising generations of mankind. All this happens as a passing phase in the normal evolution of mankind, and there is nothing in this to be despondent about. What we have to do is for the maturer generations to bring up their successors in godly ways, and for the younger generations to realise that age and experience count for something, especially in the understanding of spiritual matters and other matters of the highest moment to man.

4794. Cf. xli. 25 and n. 4494. Each individual, each generation, and each people is responsible for its own good deeds or misdeeds. The law of actions and their fruits applies: you cannot blame one for another. The only remedy lies in seeking for God's Grace and Mercy, not only for ourselves but for others in brotherly or fatherly love.

This verse is in balanced contrast to verse 16 above.

4795. There is fine grading in the spiritual Kingdom. Every deed, good or bad, is judged and weighed to the minutest degree, with its motives, intentions, results, and relevant circumstances. It is not a mere rough classification. The fruits of evil will be exactly according to the degree of evil. But, as stated in other passages (e.g., xxviii, 84), the reward of good deeds will be far beyond their merits, on account of the Mercy and unbounded Bounty of God.

15. ~~XX~~ We have enjoined on man <sup>4789</sup>

4789, C/. xxix. 8 and xxxi. 14.

4790. In xxxi. 14 the time of weaning was stated to be at the age of two years, i.e., 24 months. See also ii. 233. That leaves six months as the minimum period of human gestation after which the child is known to be viable. This is in accordance with the latest ascertained scientific facts. The average period is 280 days, or ten times the inter-menstrual period, and of course the average period of weaning is much less than 24 months.

The maximum period of breast-feeding (2 years) is again in accordance with the time that the first dentition is ordinarily completed in a human child. The lower milk incisors in the centre come out between the 6th and 9th month; then come out the milk teeth at intervals, until the canines appear. The second molars come out at about 24 months, and with them the child has a complete apparatus of milk teeth. Nature now expects him to chew and masticate and be independent of his mother's milk completely. On the other hand it hurts the mother to feed from the breast after the child has a complete set of milk teeth. The permanent teeth begin at the sixth year, and the second molars come at 12 years. The third molars are the wisdom teeth, which may appear at 18 to 20 years, or not at all.

4791. The age of full strength (ashudd) is held to be between 18 and 30 or 32. Between 30 and 40 the man is in his best manhood. After that he begins to look to his growing issue, and rightly commends the new generation to God. Perhaps his spiritual faculties also gain the upper hand after 40.

4785. A great many of the early Muslims were in humble positions, and were despised by the Quraish leaders. 'If such men could see any good in Islam,' they said, 'there could be no good in it: if there had been any good in it, we should have been the first to see it!' The spiritually blind have such a good conceit of themselves! As they reject it, and as the Revelation is proved to have historic foundations, they can only call it "an old, old falsehood"!

4786 The last revealed Book which was a Code of Life (Shari'at) was the Book of Moses: nor that of Jesus was not such a Code, but merely moral precepts to sweep away the corruptions that had crept in. The Qur-an has the same attitude to it as the teaching of Jesus had to the Law. Jesus said (Matt. v. 17): "Think not that I am come to destroy the Law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil." But the corruptions took new forms in Christian Churches: an entirely new Shari'at became necessary, and this was provided in Islam!

4787. To say, "Our Lord is God" is to acknowledge that we owe no service to any creature, and shall render none: God shall have our exclusive devotion. "To remain firm on that Path" is shown by our conduct: we prove that we love God and all His creatures, and will unflinchingly do our duty in all circumstances.

4788. Cf. ii. 38 The phrase occurs in numerous other places, with a new application on each occasion. Here, if our claim is true that 'our Lord is God', what fear can possibly come on us, or what calamity can there be to cause us grief? For our Lord is our Cherisher, Defender, and Helper, our Hope and our Comfort, which can never fail.

SECTION 2.

11. The Unbelievers say
Of those who believe :

شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ

① قُلْ مَا كُنْتُ بِدَاعٍ مِنَ الرُّسُلِ وَمَا
أَدْرِي مَا يَفْعَلُ بِي وَلَا يَكْفُرُ إِن تَتَّبِعُوا إِلَّا
مَا يُوْحَىٰ إِلَيَّ وَمَا أَنَا إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ

② قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ كَانَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ وَكَفَرْتُمْ بِهِ
وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِنْ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ عَلَىٰ مِثْلِهِ فَقَامَ
وَاسْتَكْبَرْتُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ

③ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا

4782. 'What is there to forge? All prophets have taught the Unity of God and our duty to mankind. I bring no new-fangled doctrine, but eternal truths that have been known to good men through the ages. It is to reclaim you that I have come. I do not know what will be your fate for all this callousness, nor what you will do to me. But this I know, that I am preaching truth and righteousness as inspired by God. My duty is only to proclaim aloud and clearly the Message entrusted to me by God. The rest I leave to God.'

4783. Another side of the argument is now presented. 'You pagan Arabs! You are puffed up with pride, though you are an ignorant nation. Among Israel there are men who understand the previous scriptures, and who find in the Qur-ān and its Preacher a true confirmation of the previous scriptures. They accept Islam as a fulfilment of the revelation of Moses himself! (See Deut. xviii. 18-19). And yet you hold back, though the Qur-ān has come in your own language, in order to help you to understand. How unjust and how shameful! In that case, with what face can you seek guidance from God?'

4784. There were learned Jews (and Christians) who saw in the holy Prophet the Messenger of God foreshadowed in previous Revelations, and accepted Islam. As this is a Meccan Sūra we need not construe this as a reference to 'Abdullah ibn Salām, whose conversion was in Medina only two years before the Prophet's death, unless we accept this particular verse to be so late in date. The sincere Jews were in a position to understand how this Revelation fitted in with all they had learnt about Revelation.

(Revealed) before this,
Or any remnant of knowledge
(Ye may have), if ye
Are telling the truth!

5. And who is more astray <sup>4779</sup>
Than one who invokes,
Besides God, such as will
Not answer him to the Day
Of Judgment, and who
(In fact) are unconscious
Of their call (to them)?

6. And when mankind
Are gathered together
(At the Resurrection),
They will be hostile
To them and reject
Their worship (altogether)!

7. ~~When~~ When Our Clear Signs
Are rehearsed to them,
The Unbelievers say,
Of the Truth
When it comes to them: <sup>4780</sup>
"This is evident sorcery!"

8. Or do they say,
"He has forged it"?
Say: "Had I forged it,
Then can ye obtain <sup>4781</sup>
No single (blessing) for me
From God. He knows best
Of that whereof ye talk
(So glibly)! Enough is He

مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا أَوْ أَشْرَفُ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
صَادِقِينَ

⑤ وَمَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّن يَدْعُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَنْ
لَا يَسْتَجِيبُ لَهُ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ وَهُمْ عَنْ
دُعَائِهِمْ غَافِلُونَ

⑥ فَإِذَا حُشِرَ النَّاسُ كَانُوا لَهُمْ أَعْدَاءً
وَكَانُوا بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ كَافِرِينَ

⑦ وَإِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالَ الَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا بِالْحَقِّ لَمَجَاءُهُمْ هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ

⑧ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ قُلْ إِنْ افْتَرَيْتُهُ فَلَا
تَمْلِكُونَ لِي مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تُفِيضُونَ
فِيهِ كَفَى بِهِ

4779. As there is no argument at all in favour of your sham worship, what sense is there in it? Either your false gods are senseless stocks and stones which will never answer you to the end of Time, being themselves devoid of understanding, or they are real objects which will disown you at the last. If you worshipped Self, your own misused faculties will witness against you at the last (xli. 20-23). If you worshipped good men or prophets, like Jesus, they will disown you (v. 119). Similarly, if you worshipped angels, they will disown you (xxxiv. 40-41).

4780. When the truth is actually brought to their doors, they call it sorcery! Cf. xxxvii. 12-15, and n. 4042.

4781. 'If I forged a message from myself as one purporting to come from God, you would not be able to see me enjoy any of the blessings from God which I enjoy; you would not see me calm and relying on God, nor would you see me bear the reputation of being a trustworthy man. A liar comes to an evil end. But what about those who talk so glibly and freely about things which they know not? God knows all, and He is my witness! But even against your false accusations, I pray for His forgiveness and mercy to you, for He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful!'

4774. See Introduction to S. xl., paragraphs 2-4.

4775. This verse is the same as the second verse of the last Sūra, but the theme is worked out differently in the two Sūras. In S. xlv. was shown how deniers of Revelation will at last be humbled until they can no longer deny its truth and power. In this Sūra is shown how Truth and Revelation will be vindicated by patience and constancy (xlvi, 35).

4776. Cf. xlv. 22. Many things may appear to us in the present world as strange and inexplicable. But everything made by God has a just purpose which must be fulfilled. Nothing in this world is permanent: everything is for an appointed term. The Word of God alone abides. All else will pass away after it has fulfilled its purpose. But Unbelievers refuse to face the danger of which they are warned.

4777. Some people may rush thoughtlessly into false worship, because it is the fashion or an ancestral custom, etc. They are asked to pause and see for themselves. Have the false gods or falsehood created anything? (They destroy much.) Or have they any share or lot in the things we associate with the heavens,—spiritual well-being, etc.?

4778. 'Or is there any warrant for you from any earlier revelation, assuming that you do not believe in this Revelation? Or can you point to the least scrap or remnant of real knowledge on which you can base what we condemn as your false life? No, you cannot.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLVI (Aḥqāf).

This is the seventh and last Sūra of the Ḥā-Mīm series. For the general theme and chronological place of these Sūras see the Introduction to S. xl.

The Aḥqāf (mentioned in verse 21) are the long and winding crooked tracts of sand-hills, characteristic of the country of the 'Ad people, adjoining Hadhramaut and Yaman : see vii. 65, n. 1040. These people had, at that time, probably a fertile irrigated country, but their sins brought on the calamity mentioned in xlv. 24-25. The lesson of this Sūra is that if the Truth is challenged, the challenge will be duly answered, and Truth vindicated.

Summary.—All Creation has a Purpose behind it: Truth and Revelation will be vindicated, and those who question it will be undone by the very means by which they set such store : the righteous should wait in patience and constancy (xlv. 1-35, and C. 219).

C. 219.—Creation is for just ends, and Falsehood
 (xlv. 1-35) Is but straying from the Path :
     Say what people may
     Truth carries its own vindication :
     Follow it firmly. Let age think of youth,
     And youth not turn rebellious. There are fine
     Gradations in the kingdom of God : then strive
     For the best. Let not pride and arrogance
     Undo you : the humble are often the best
     Recipients of Truth. All will come right
     In good time : so persevere with patient firmness
     Of purpose. Justice that seems to tarry
     Comes really on swiftest foot but sure.

36. When Praise be to God,<sup>4773</sup>
 Lord of the heavens
 And Lord of the earth,—
 Lord and Cherisher
 Of all the worlds!

37. To Him be Glory
 Throughout the heavens
 And the earth; and He
 25 Is Exalted in Power,
 30 Full of Wisdom!

٥ فَلِلّٰهِ الْحَمْدُ رَبِّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَرَبِّ الْاَرْضِ رَبِّ
 الْعٰلَمِيْنَ

٦ وَلِلّٰهِ الْكَرِيْمِ الْاَمْرُ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَهُوَ
 الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيْمُ

4773. The argument having been completed about the fruits of this life being reaped in the Ma'ād, or the Hereafter, when perfect balance will be restored and perfect Justice will reign supreme, the Sūra closes with praise and glory to God, Who is not only Omnipotent but is full of Wisdom, and cherishes and cares for all His creation. We began with the remembrance of His Revelation and Mercy, and we close with the celebration of His goodness, power, and wisdom. Note how the argument is rounded off by the reminiscence of the last clause of the second verse of this Sūra.

32. " And when it was said
That the promise of God
Was true, and that the Hour—
There was no doubt
About its (coming), ye
Used to say, ' We
Know not what is <sup>4769</sup>
The Hour: we only think
It is an idea, and we
Have no firm assurance.' "

٣٢ وَإِذَا قِيلَ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَالسَّاعَةُ
لَأَرِيبٌ فِيهَا قُلْتُمْ مَا نَدْرِي مَا السَّاعَةُ إِنْ
نَظُنُّ إِلَّا ظَنًّا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُتَّقِينَ

33. Then will appear to them
The evil (fruits) of what
They did, and they will be <sup>4770</sup>
Completely encircled by that
Which they used to mock at!

٣٣ وَبَدَأَ لَهُمْ فِيهَا مَا عَمِلُوا أَوْحَاقٍ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا
يُحَسِّتُونَ

34. It will also be said:
" This Day We will forget <sup>4771</sup>
You as ye forgot
The meeting of this Day
Of yours! And your
Abode is the Fire, and
No helpers have ye!

٣٤ وَقِيلَ الْيَوْمَ نَنْسِيكُمْ كَمَا نَسِيتُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ
هَذَا وَمَأْوَاكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُم مِّن نَّاصِرِينَ

35. " This, because ye used
To take the Signs of God
In jest, and the life
Of the world deceived you: " <sup>4772</sup>
(From) that Day, therefore.
They shall not be taken out
Thence, nor shall they be Received into Grace.

٣٥ ذَلِكَ بِأَنكُمْ اتَّخَذْتُمْ مَّآيَةَ اللَّهِ هُزُوًا
وَعَزَّيْتُمْ كُمُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يَخْرُجُونَ مِنْهَا
وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ

4769. There is arrogance as well as untruth in this pretence. The coming of Judgment has been proclaimed times out of number by every man of God. They cannot dismiss it as a mere idea or superstition. Their object is merely an ostentatious and lofty rejection of Faith.

4770. Cf xi 8. Their mockery will be turned against themselves, for they will be hemmed in by the very Realities which they had ignored or doubted or laughed at.

4771. Cf. vii. 51 and n. 1029. " Forget " is of course metaphorical for " deliberately to ignore "

4772. It is implied that 'you deliberately allowed yourselves to be deceived by the vanities of this world', or 'that you put yourselves into a position where you were deceived, for you were expressly warned against Evil'.

Of Judgment is established,—
That Day will the dealers <sup>4765</sup>
In Falsehood perish !

28. And thou wilt see
Every sect bowing the knee : <sup>4766</sup>
Every sect will be called
To its Record : " This Day
Shall ye be recompensed
For all that ye did !

29. " This Our Record speaks
About you with truth :
For We were wont <sup>4767</sup>
To put on record
All that ye did."

30. When, as to those who Believed and did righteous
Deeds, their Lord will Admit them to His Mercy :
That will be the Achievement <sup>4768</sup>
For all to see.

31. But as to those who Rejected God, (to them
Will be said) : " Were not
Our Signs rehearsed to you ?
But ye were arrogant,
And were a people
Given to sin !

يَوْمَئِذٍ يَخْسِرُ الْمُبْطِلُونَ

٢٨ وَتَرَى كُلَّ أُمَّةٍ جَاثِيَةً كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ تُدْعَى إِلَى
كِتَابِهَا الْيَوْمَ تُحْزَنُونَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

٢٩ هَذَا كِتَابُنَا يَنْطِقُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّا
كُنَّا نَسْتَنسِخُ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

٣٠ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
فَيُدْخِلُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ
الْبَاقِي

٣١ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَفَلَمْ تَكُنْ بِآيَاتِنَا
عَلَيْكُمْ فَانْتَكَبْتُمْ وَكُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا مُجْرِمِينَ

4765 These vain wranglers about the future life and deniers of the Truth may have a run in this fleeting world ; but the moment the world of Reality is established, they will see what they now deny. The facts will destroy their fancies, and they themselves will find themselves humiliated and lost, for having deliberately ignored God's Signs and acted in opposition to His holy Will.

4766 Bowing the knee ; the key-phrase of the Sûra, and its title. Cf. xix, 72. Whatever the arrogance of the wicked may be in this life, whatever exclusive sects and divisions they may form, in this life, the time will come when they will humbly submit and bow the knee to the Truth. Before the Judgment-seat, when their Record is produced, they must necessarily be dumb.

4767. Cf. xliii, 60. Nothing misses the Recording Angel, and whatever is said in the Record is true.

4768. The attainment and satisfaction of all hopes and desires ; the reaching of the final goal of Bliss. Cf. xliv, 57, and n. 4733.

A cover on his sight.
Who, then, will guide him
After God (has withdrawn Guidance)? Will ye not
Then receive admonition?

وَجَعَلَ عَلَىٰ بَصَرِهِ غِشَاوَةً فَمَنْ يَهْدِيهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ اللَّهِ
أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ

24. And they say: "What is
There but our life
In this world?
We shall die and we live,<sup>4763</sup>
And nothing but Time
Can destroy us." But
Of that they have no
Knowledge: they merely conjecture:

٢٤ وَقَالُوا مَا هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا
وَمَا يَهْدِيكُمْ إِلَّا الذُّهْرُ وَمَا لَكُم بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا يَظُنُّونَ

25. And when Our Clear
Signs are rehearsed to them,
Their argument is nothing
But this: they say, "Bring<sup>4764</sup>
(Back) our forefathers, if
What ye say is true!"

٢٥ وَإِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ مَّا كَانُوا
يُجْتَنِبُوهَا إِلَّا أَنْ قَالَ أَأَتُونَا بِآبَائِنَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
صَادِقِينَ

26. Say: "It is God Who Gives you life, then
Gives you death; then
He will gather you together
For the Day of Judgment
About which there is
No doubt": but most
Men do not understand.

٢٦ قُلِ اللَّهُ يُحْيِيكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يَجْمَعُكُمْ إِلَىٰ
يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ
لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

SECTION 4.

27. ~~And~~ God belongs
The dominion of the heavens
And the earth, and
The Day that the Hour

٢٧ وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ
السَّاعَةُ

4763. Cf. xxiii. 37, and n. 2896. The additional touch here, "And nothing but Time can destroy us", suggests the materialist philosophy that Matter and Time are eternal backwards and forwards; and possibly also that though each individual perishes, the race lasts till Time destroys it. This is not knowledge but conjecture. Why not accept light from Him Who knows all

4764. Cf. xlv. 36. It is no argument to say, "If there is a future life, bring back our forefathers and let us see them here and now!" It is not for a man to raise the dead when and where he pleases. It is for God to command. And His promise is about the general Resurrection for the Day of Judgment. In His hands are the keys of life and death.

21. What I do those who Seek after evil ways
Think that We shall
Hold them equal with <sup>4759</sup>
Those who believe and
Do righteous deeds,—that
Equal will be their
Life and their death?
Ill is the judgment
That they make.

SECTION 3.

22. God created the heavens <sup>4760</sup>
And the earth for
Just ends, and in order
That each soul may find
The recompense of what
It has earned, and none
Of them be wronged.
23. Then seest thou such <sup>4761</sup>
A one as takes
As his god his own
Vain desire? God has,
Knowing (him as such),
Left him astray, and sealed
His hearing and his heart
(And understanding), and put

٢١ أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ اجْتَرَحُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ أَنْ
نَجْعَلَهُمْ كَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
سَوَاءً مَحْيَاهُمْ وَمَمَاتُهُمْ سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ

٢٢ وَخَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَلِيَجْزِيَ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ

٢٣ أَفَرَأَيْتَ مَنْ اتَّخَذَ إِلَهَهُ هَوَاهُ وَأَضَلَّهُ
اللَّهُ عَلَى عِلْمٍ وَخَتَمَ عَلَى سَمْعِهِ وَقَلْبِهِ

4759. Three meanings can be deduced, (1) The evil ones are not in God's sight like the righteous ones; neither in life nor in death are they equal; in life the righteous are guided by God and receive His Grace, and after death His Mercy, while the others reject His Grace, and after death receive condemnation. (2) Neither are the two the same in this life and in the after-life: if the wicked flourish here, they will be condemned in the Hereafter; if the good are in suffering or sorrow here, they will receive comfort and consolation in the Hereafter. (3) The real life of the righteous—for they have received spiritual life—is not like the nominal life of the wicked, which is really death; nor is the physical death of the righteous, which will bring them into eternal life, like the terrible death of the wicked, which will bring them to eternal misery.

4761. If a man follows, not the laws of God, which are also the laws of his own pure nature as made by God, but the desires of his own distorted self, as shaped by the rebellion of his will, the inevitable consequence will be the withdrawal of God's grace and guidance. All his faculties will then be debased, and there will be nothing to guide him, unless he turns in repentance again to God.

4762. Cf. ii. 7 and notes.

(Of Religion): it was only <sup>4754</sup>
 After knowledge had been Granted to them that they Fell into schisms, through
 Insolent envy <sup>4755</sup> among themselves
 Verily thy Lord will judge
 Between them on the Day
 Of Judgment as to those Matters in which they
 Set up differences.

فَمَا اخْتَلَفُوا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بِنَبِيِّ
 بَيْنَهُمْ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
 فَمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ

18. Then we put thee
 On the (right) Way <sup>4756</sup>
 Of Religion: so follow
 Thou that (Way),
 And follow not the desires
 Of those who know not.

⑧ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاكَ عَلَىٰ شَرِيعَةٍ مِّنَ الْأَمْرِ
 فَاتَّبِعْهَا وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

19. They will be of no
 Use to thee in the sight <sup>4757</sup>
 Of God: it is only
 Wrong-doers (that stand as)
 Protectors, one to another:
 But God is the Protector
 Of the Righteous.

⑨ إِنَّهُمْ لَنُفَعُواكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا فَإِنَّ
 الظَّالِمِينَ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ وَاللَّهُ
 وَلِيُّ الْمُتَّقِينَ

20. These are clear evidences <sup>4758</sup>
 To men, and a Guidance
 And Mercy to those
 Of assured Faith.

⑩ هَٰذَا بَصِيرَةٌ لِّلنَّاسِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّقَوْمٍ
 يُوقِنُونَ

4754 C/. x. 93. The Jews were the more to blame, that they fell from Grace after all the divine favours which they had enjoyed. Their schisms and differences arose from mutual envy, which was rebellious insolence against God. As the next verse shows, some of them (not all) rejected the mission of the holy Prophet, also through envy that a Prophet had come among the Arabians.

4755. C/. ii. 90, and that whole passage, with its notes.

4756 Shari'at is best translated the "right Way of Religion", which is wider than the mere formal rites and legal provisions, which mostly came in the Medina period, long after this Meccan verse had been revealed.

4757. That is, in thy service of God. Ignorant and contentious men are of no use or service to any Cause. The more you seek their help, the more do their ignorance and their contentiousness increase their own importance in their own eyes. Evil protects (or thinks it protects) evil: it has really no power of protection at all, for itself or for others. The righteous seek the protection of God, Who can and will protect them.

4758. The evidences of God's Signs should be clear to all men: to men of Faith, who accept God's Grace, they are a Guide and a Mercy.

It is for Him to recompense <sup>4749</sup>
(For good or ill) each People <sup>4750</sup>
According to what
They have earned.

لِيَجْزِيَ قَوْمًا بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

15. If any one does <sup>4751</sup>
A righteous deed,
It enures to the benefit
Of his own soul ;
If he does evil,
It works against
(His own soul).
In the end will ye
(All) be brought back
To your Lord.

⑤ مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ فَعَلَيْهَا
لَنُؤْتِيَنَّكَ أَجْرًا ۖ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّكَ أَجْرًا ۖ وَلَنُؤْتِيَنَّكَ أَجْرًا ۖ

16. We did aforetime
Grant to the Children <sup>4752</sup>
Of Israel the Book,
The Power of Command,
And Prophethood ; We gave
Them, for Sustenance, things <sup>4753</sup>
Good and pure ; and We
Favoured them above the nations,

⑥ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ
وَالْحِكْمَ وَالنُّبُوَّةَ وَرَزَقْنَاهُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ
وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى الْعَالَمِينَ

17. And We granted them
Clear Signs in affairs

⑦ وَآتَيْنَاهُمْ بَيِّنَاتٍ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ

4749. It is not for private persons to take vengeance even for the cause of right and justice. God will give due recompense for good or evil according to His own full Knowledge and righteous Plan, and in His own good time. Nor is it permissible even to a group of persons to arrogate to themselves the championship of the right. There are always apt to be private motives of hatred or enmity or mixed motives of that kind. These are, and must necessarily be absent in the case of a Jihād under a righteous Imām ; for, by the very definition of the term, a righteous Imām is swayed by no feelings of a private nature and is guided by nothing but divine Light. It is private vengeance that is forbidden, not help, or striving, wherever possible, against evil.

4750 "People" here may be taken to be a group of common characteristics, e.g. the righteous in contrast with the unrighteous, the oppressed in contrast with the oppressors, and so on.

4751. Ordinarily good and evil come to their own even in this world ; but in any case there is the final Judgment before God.

4752. The argument here is similar to that in xliv. 32-33. but it is more particularised here. Israel had the Revelation given through Moses, the power of judgment and command through the Kingdom of David and Solomon, and numerous prophetic warnings through such men as Isaiah and Jeremiah.

4753. "Sustenance", here as elsewhere, is to be understood both in a physical and metaphorical sense. The Mosaic Law laid down rules of diet, excluding things unclean, and it laid down rules for a pure and honourable life. In this way Israel became the standard-bearer of God's law, thus "favoured above the nations".

11. This is (true) Guidance :
And for those who reject
The Signs of their Lord,
Is a grievous Penalty
Of abomination.<sup>4745</sup>

⑪ هَذَا هُدًى وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ
رَبِّهِمْ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مِنْ رِجْزِ أَلِيمٍ

SECTION 2.

12. It is God Who has
Subjected the sea to you,<sup>4746</sup>
That ships may sail
Through it by His command
That ye may seek
Of His Bounty, and that
Ye may be grateful.

⑫ اللَّهُ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْبَحْرَ لِتَجْرِيَ الْفُلُكُ فِيهِ
بِأَمْرِهِ وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ
تَشْكُرُونَ

13. And He has subjected
To you, as from Him,
All that is in the heavens<sup>4747</sup>
And on earth : behold,
In that are Signs indeed
For those who reflect.

⑬ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي
الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا مِنْهُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ
يَتَفَكَّرُونَ

14. Tell those who believe,
To forgive those who
Do not look forward
To the Days of God :<sup>4748</sup>

⑭ قُلْ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا يَغْفِرُوا لِلَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ
آيَاتَ اللَّهِ

4745. (4) In verse 11, he has flouted and rejected the specific guidance that came to him from the Word of God, or from the admonition of a man of God. His Penalty is a penalty of abomination : he earns unspeakable horror and abomination from all the Righteous, and is an unclean object in the Kingdom of Heaven

4746. Cf. xvi. 14 and notes thereon, especially n. 2037. The one encircling ocean of our globe is one of the most significant facts in our physical geography. Its salt water is an agent of global sanitation. The salubrious effects of sea-air, with its ozone, are well known to everyone who has recouped his health by its means. Thanks to ships, the sea unites rather than divides : communications are, and have always been, more active between sea-coast towns than further inland. They thus further human intercourse, and help us to seek the "Bounty of God", not only in a commercial but in an intellectual and spiritual sense. All this is through "God's command" i.e. by His beneficent ordering of the universe, and we should be grateful.

4747. Cf. xxxi. 20, and n. 3605. The sea was only one example of God's cherishing care in making all things in nature available for the use of man, through the genius and faculties which He has given to man. Man should never forget that it is all "as from Him", i.e. from God. For is not man God's vicegerent on earth (ii. 30) ?

4748. Cf. vii. 51, n. 1031. The "Days of God" I interpret to mean not periods of twenty-four hours, but the stages through which God's Purpose works in us, in bringing home to us a sense of sin and a sense of God's Mercy. We must be patient with those who have not yet acquired that sense. "Days of God" may also mean the Days of the Kingdom of God, when evil will be destroyed and God's authority will reign unquestioned.

And in the change
Of the winds,—are Signs
For those that are wise.

6. Such are the Signs<sup>4741</sup>
Of God, which We rehearse to thee
In truth: then in what
Exposition will they believe
After (rejecting) God
And His Signs?

7. Wee to each sinful
Dealer in Falsehoods:<sup>4742</sup>

8. He hears the Signs
Of God rehearsed to him,
Yet is obstinate and lofty,
As if he had not
Heard them: then announce
To him a Penalty Grievous!

9. And when he learns
Something of Our Signs,
He takes them in jest:
For such there will be
A humiliating Penalty.<sup>4743</sup>

10. In front of them is
Hell: and of no profit
To them is anything
They may have earned,
Nor any protectors they
May have taken to themselves
Besides God: for them
Is a tremendous Penalty.<sup>4744</sup>

وَتَضَرِّفُ الرِّيحُ آيَاتُ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ

٦ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ اللَّهِ نَتْلُوهَا عَلَيْكَ بِالْحَقِّ فَبِأَيِّ
حَدِيثٍ بَعْدَ اللَّهِ وَآيَاتِهِ يَوْمُنُونَ

٧ وَبَلِّغْ لِكُلِّ أَفَّاكٍ أَثِيمٍ

٨ يَسْمَعُ مَا يَتْلُو اللَّهُ تَلَاتِي عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَصِرُ
مُسْتَكْبِرًا كَأَن لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا فَبَشِّرْهُ
بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

٩ وَإِذَا عَلِمَ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا شَيْئًا اتَّخَذَهَا هُزُوًا
أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ

١٠ مِنْ وَرَائِهِمْ جَهَنَّمُ وَلَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ
مَا كَسَبُوا شَيْئًا وَلَا مَا اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ
اللَّهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ

4741. If there are any to whom the Signs from Nature, from within their own heart and conscience, and from the voice of Revelation, are not enough to convince them, what possible kind of exposition will they accept?

4742. A soul so dead, as described in the last note, is indeed wretched. It will resort to falsehoods, in worship, in conduct, and in its attitude towards God. It will be obstinate, and pretend to be 'above such things'. It will hear the most beautiful Message but not profit by it. The loss or punishment is its own, and grievous it is!

4743. Note that in each of the verses 8-11 the Penalty is characterised by a certain description, which accords with the crime. (1) In verse 8, the man is arrogant about the Signs of God's love and care all around him, and his Penalty is "grievous". (2) In verse 9, he ridicules God's Signs, and his Penalty is "humiliating": he makes himself a ridiculous fool. (3) and (4) are described in the two following notes.

4744. (3) In verse 10 the sinner has piled up the good things of this life, and thinks he has got plenty of helpers and protectors, but all these things are of no use. On the contrary, his Penalty will be "tremendous", to correspond with the great pains which he has taken to multiply the gods of his worship.

Sura XLV.

Jathiya, or Bowing the Knee.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. Īnā-Mim.<sup>4735</sup>2. The revelation<sup>4736</sup>
Of the Book
Is from God
The Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.3. Verily in the heavens<sup>4737</sup>
And the earth, are Signs
For those who believe.4. And in the creation<sup>4738</sup>
Of yourselves and the fact
That animals are scattered
(Through the earth), are Signs
For those of assured Faith.5. And in the alternation<sup>4739</sup>
Of Night and Day,
And the fact that God
Sends down Sustenance<sup>4740</sup> from
The sky, and revives therewith
The earth after its death,

٢ نَزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ
الْحَكِيمِ

٣ إِنَّ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَآيَاتٍ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ

٤ وَفِي خَلْقِكُمْ وَمَا يَبُثُّ مِنْ دَابَّةٍ آيَاتٌ

السَّمَاءِ مِنْ زَرْقٍ فَأَخْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ
مَوْتِهَا

4735 See Introduction to S xl paragraphs 2-4

4736. This verse is the same as xl. 2, except that "wisdom" is here substituted in the last line for "knowledge". This is appropriate, as in this Sura we are dealing with the folly of those who reject God and His Signs, while S xl dealt with the individual soul's witness to Faith and Virtue.

4737. Verses 3-5 deal with some of the points in the noble argument in ii. 164, but again there are differences on account of the different context. Note that here the argument is divided into three parts, one in each verse. (1) In verse 3 we are dealing with big Signs external to ourselves, some of which are far beyond our personal experiences: for them we require Faith: they are Signs "for those who believe." For the other two see the next two notes.

4738. (2) These Signs are in our own nature and in the animals we meet with every day: here we have certainty within human limits: these are "for those of assured Faith."

4739. (3) These are our daily experiences from external things, but they affect us and our lives intimately: here are questions of deductions "for those that are wise"

4740. "Sustenance" is almost equivalent here to "rain". And "rain" itself, and its revival of a dead earth, refer symbolically to Revelation and its putting new life into a dead soul. Similarly the alternation of Night and Day, and the change of the winds, besides being Signs as wonderful phenomena of Nature, refer to spiritual ignorance and knowledge, rest and activity, and the constant beneficent changes that are going on in the world, making for the spread of the blessing of God's Revelation.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLV (Jāthiya).

This is the sixth Sūra of the Hā-Mīm series : for their general theme and chronology, see the Introduction to S. xl.

Summary.—The title, " Bowing the knee ", taken from verse 28, expresses the leading idea in the Sūra. In this life, in spite of the Signs of God, and the evidences of His goodness all around, men go about in Unfaith, and mocking at Faith ; but the End will bring them all to their knees.

C. 218.— The Signs of God are everywhere :

(xl. 1-37.) His power, wisdom, and goodness are shown
Through all Creation and in Revelation.
How can man be so ungrateful
As to reject true Guidance, reaping thus
The fruits of Evil? But men of Faith
Have patience and forgive their weaker
Brethren, and trust in the final justice
Of God. Form no sects, as was done
Aforetime, nor make your lusts your gods :
The Future is sure, and in the hands
Of God, to Whom all will bend the knee,
When Truth will shine in all its glory.
So praise and glory to God, the Lord
And Cherisher of all the worlds !

56. Nor will they there
Taste Death, except the first <sup>4731</sup>
Death ; and He will preserve
Them from the Penalty
Of the Blazing Fire,—<sup>4732</sup>

٥٦ لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا الْمَوْتَ إِلَّا الْمَوْتَةَ الْأُولَىٰ
وَقَدْ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

57. As a Bounty from thy Lord !
That will be
The supreme achievement ! <sup>4733</sup>

٥٧ فَضَلًا مِنْ رَبِّكَ ذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ
الْعَظِيمُ

58. Verily, We have made
This (Qur-ān) easy, <sup>4734</sup>
In thy tongue,
In order that they
May give heed.

٥٨ فَإِنَّمَا يَتَسَدَّىٰ لِسَانُكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَتَذَكَّرُونَ

59. So wait thou and watch ;
For they (too) are waiting.

٥٩ فَارْتَقِبْ إِنَّهُمْ مُّرْتَقِبُونَ

4731. First Death : the ordinary natural death from this life, which brought them to the Garden of Felicity : there will be no further death after that. Cf. xxxvii 59, and n. 4071.

4732. As in the Buddha's doctrine, the higher object of this our life is to obtain salvation from sorrow, pain, and the other incidents which make of it a constant struggle. In Islam we are taught that this is not possible by our unaided efforts. Certainly, striving on our part is an indispensable condition ; but it is the Mercy of God which comes to our help and keeps us from the Fire of final Punishment. This is mentioned last as the foundation on which is built our eternal felicity and our positive spiritual joys

4733. This is our idea of Salvation : the negative avoidance of all the consequences of evil, and the positive attainment of all—and more than all—that our hearts could possibly desire. For God's Bounty outstrips anything that our eyes have seen, or our ears have heard of, or our imagination can conceive.

4734. Easy : not only to understand, being in the Arabic tongue ; but mellifluous, whose rhythm carries off our spirits to a higher spiritual plane. In another sense, it is difficult ; for to get to its deepest meaning, we shall have to strive hard, as the contents of this Sūra alone will show.

49. "Taste thou (this) !
Truly wast thou
Mighty, full of honour ! <sup>4723</sup>

٤٩ ذُوقْ لَذَّةَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزِ الْكَرِيمِ

50. "Truly this is what Ye used to doubt ! " <sup>4724</sup>

٥٠ إِنَّ هَذَا مَا كُنْتُمْ يَدْعُرُونَ

51. As to the Righteous
(They will be) in
A position of Security, <sup>4725</sup>

٥١ إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي مَقَامٍ أَمِينٍ

52. Among Gardens and Springs ;

٥٢ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ

53. Dressed in fine silk <sup>4726</sup>
And in rich brocade,
They will face each other ;

٥٣ يَلْبَسُونَ مِنْ سُندُسٍ وَإِسْتَبْرَقٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ

54. So ; and We shall
Join them to Companions <sup>4727</sup>
With beautiful, big,
And lustrous eyes. <sup>4728</sup>

٥٤ كَذَلِكَ وَزَوَّجْنَاهُمْ بِحُورٍ عِينٍ

55. There can they call
For every kind of fruit <sup>4729</sup>
In peace and security ;

٥٥ يَدْعُونَ فِيهَا بِكُلِّ فَاكِهَةٍ آمِنِينَ

4723. In this particular Sūra the besetting sin we are considering is the arrogance born of place or power, wealth or honour, as understood in this world. The punishment of ignominy looks back to the kind of sin which is to be punished.

4724. When the Punishment becomes a realised fact, how foolish will those look who doubted whether there would be a Hereafter ?

4725. There will be no uncertainty, as on this earth ; no danger of discontinuance ; no possibility of their satisfaction being terminated.

4727. Everything will be open and in social companionship : for all the petty feelings of jealousy or exclusiveness will have passed away.

4728. The Companions, like the scene, the dress, the outlook, and the fruit, will be beautiful. These symbolic words need not be taken to mean that there will be eating and drinking, or dressing, or marriage, or any physical things of that kind. There will be life, but free from all earthly grossness. The women as well as the men of this life will attain to this indescribable bliss : ix. 72 ; and objects of beauty, grace, and satisfaction, described symbolically, must apply to both.

4729. Har implies the following ideas : (1) purity ; possibly the word Harurīyūn, as applied to the first Disciples of Jesus, is connected with this root ; (2) beauty, especially of eyes, where the intense white of the eye-balls stands out against the intense black of the pupil, thus giving the appearance of lustre, and intense feeling, as opposed to dullness or want of expression ; and (3) truth and good-will.

4730. The metaphorical signification is explained in n. 4671 to xlii. 73.

41. The Day when no protector <sup>4719</sup>
Can avail his client
In aught, and no help
Can they receive,

④ يَوْمَ لَا يُغْنِي مَوْلَى عَنْ مَوْلَى شَيْئًا وَلَا هُمْ
يُنصَرُونَ

42. Except such as receive <sup>4720</sup>
God's Mercy : for He is Exalted in Might, Most Merciful.

⑤ إِلَّا مَنْ رَحِمَ اللَّهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ

SECTION 3.

43. Truly the tree <sup>4721</sup>
Of Zaqqūm <sup>4722</sup>

⑥ إِنَّ شَجَرَةَ الزَّقُّومِ

44. Will be the food
Of the Sinful,—

⑦ طَعَامًا لِلْأَشِيمِ

45. Like molten brass ;
It will boil
In their insides,

⑧ كَالْهَلِيقِ فِي الْبُطُونِ

46. Like the boiling
Of scalding water.

⑨ كَغَلِي الْحَمِيمِ

47. (A voice will cry :
" Seize ye him
And drag him
Into the midst
Of the Blazing Fire !

⑩ خُذُوهُ فَاعْتِلُوهُ إِلَى سَوَاءِ الْجَحِيمِ

48. " Then pour over his head
The Penalty of Boiling Water

⑪ ثُمَّ صُبُّوا فَوْقَ رَأْسِهِ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْحَمِيمِ

4719. When that Day comes, the strictest justice will prevail. No man, however prominently he may have walked on the world's stage, can help another. He himself will need help, not the sort of log-rolling help which high and low render to each other in this life, but which in the conditions of reality will be of no avail. The only things which will help will be the Mercy of God.

4720. God's Mercy will be the only thing of any efficacy : for He is both able to help (" Exalted in Might ") and willing to forgive (" Most Merciful ").

4721. Now follows a word-picture of the horrors to which Evil must lead us. What human language and what figures of speech can adequately describe them ?

4722. The opposite of " delicious Fruits " is the terrible tree of Zaqqūm, which is further described in xxxvii. 62-68, where see n. 4073. Also see xvii. 60, n. 2250.

35. " There is nothing beyond
Our first death,
And we shall not
Be raised again.

٢٥ إِنَّ هِيَ إِلَّا مَوْتُنَا الْأُولَى وَمَا نَحْنُ
بِمُنشَرِينَ

36. " Then bring (back)
Our forefathers, if what
Ye say is true ! "

٢٦ فَأْتُوا بِآبَائِنَا إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

37. What ! are they better
Than the people of Tubba' <sup>4715</sup>
And those who were
Before them ? We destroyed
Them because they were Guilty of sin. <sup>4716</sup>

٢٧ أَهْم خَيْرٌ أَمْ قَوْمُ يَتِجٍ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا مُجْرِمِينَ

38. ~~We~~ We created not
The heavens, the earth,
And all between them,
Merely in (idle) sport : <sup>4717</sup>

٢٨ وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا
لَعِبِينَ

39. We created them not
Except for just ends :
But most of them
Do not understand.

٢٩ مَا خَلَقْنَاهُمْ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ
لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

40. Verily the Day of <sup>4718</sup>
Sorting Out is the time
Appointed for all of them,—

٣٠ إِنَّ يَوْمَ الْفَصْلِ مِيقَاتُهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ

4715. 'Tubba' is understood to be a title or family name of Himyar kings in Yaman, of the tribe of Hamdan. The Himyar were an ancient race. At one time they seem to have extended their hegemony over all Arabia and perhaps beyond, to the East African Coast. Their earliest religion seems to have been Sabianism, or the worship of the heavenly bodies. They seem at different times, later on, to have professed the Jewish and the Christian religion. Among the Embassies sent by the holy Prophet in A.H. 9-10 was one to the Himyar of Yaman, which led to their coming into Islam. This was of course much later than the date of this Sūra.

4716. In prehistoric times the Himyar and Yaman seem to have played a large part in Arabia and even beyond : see last note. But when they were intoxicated with power, they fell into sin, and gradually they ceased to count, not only in Arabia but even in Yaman.

4717. Cf. xli. 16, and n. 2676. All creation is for a wise and just purpose. But men usually do not realise or understand it, because they are steeped in their own ignorance, folly, or passions.

4718. Day of Sorting Out, or the Day of Decision. Cf. xxxvii. 21, and n. 4047. Ignorance, prejudice, passion, spite, and selfishness, seem sometimes to flourish in this probationary life. In any case they are mixed up with knowledge, justice, commonsense, love and regard for others. But the good and the evil will be sorted out and separated at the Day of Judgment. There is a time appointed for it. In God's good time all will come right.

C. 217.—So with the Children of Israel :

(xliv. 30-39.) Granted gifts and favours, they became Arrogant and fell. Can the Quraish
Escape the doom for sin ? We created
The world for just ends. The Day
Will come when good and evil will be Sorted out : each will meet
The fruits of its own deeds. Give good heed
To the Message revealed, and wait and watch.

SECTION 2.

30. ~~We~~ We did deliver aforetime
The Children of Israel
From humiliating Punishment,<sup>4711</sup>

٣٠ وَلَقَدْ نَجَّيْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ الْمُهِينِ

31. Inflicted by Pharaoh, for he
Was arrogant (even) among
Inordinate transgressors,

٣١ مِنْ فِرْعَوْنَ إِذْ هُوَ كَانَ عَلِيًّا مِنَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ

32. And We chose them aforetime
Above the nations, knowingly,<sup>4712</sup>

٣٢ وَلَقَدْ اخْتَرْنَاهُمْ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ عَلَىٰ الْعَالَمِينَ

33. And granted them Signs<sup>4713</sup>
In which there was
A manifest trial.

٣٣ وَآتَيْنَاهُمْ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا مَا فِيهِ بَلَاءٌ مُبِينٌ

34. As to these (Quraish),<sup>4714</sup>
They say forsooth :

٣٤ إِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ إِلَّا يَكْفُرُونَ

4711. The Israelites were held in bondage prior to the Exodus. Their hard taskmaster placed every indignity on them, and by Pharaoh's decree their male children were to be killed, and their females were to be kept alive for the Egyptians.

4712. From degrading servitude, Israel was delivered, and taken, in spite of many rebellions and backslidings on the way, to "a land flowing with milk and honey", where later they established the glorious kingdom of David and Solomon. This was not merely fortuitous. In God's prescience it was to be a link in furthering the great universal Plan. But their being chosen did not mean that they could do what they liked. In that sense there is no "chosen race" before God. But God gives every race and every individual a chance, and when the race or individual fails to live up to it, he or it must fall and give place to others.

4714. The cases of the Egyptians and the Israelites having been cited as great nations which fell through inordinate vanity and wrong-doing, the case is now pressed home against the Quraish leaders in their arrogance to the holy Prophet himself. They deny Revelation; they deny a future life, as the Sadducees did among the Jews before them; they persecute the man of God, and those who believe in him; and they mockingly demand that their ancestors should be brought back to life, if it is true that there is a future life. They are reminded that better men than they lived in their own country of Arabia, men who had knowledge of God's revelation under the earliest Dispensation. See next note. They perished because of their unbelief and wrong-doing. What chance have they unless they turn and repent?

To his Lord:
 "These are indeed
 A people given to sin."

رَبِّهِمْ وَأَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمٌ مُّجْرِمُونَ

23. (The reply came :)
 "March forth with my servants
 By night ; for ye are
 Sure to be pursued.

٢٣ فَأَسِرْ بِعِبَادِيَ لَيْلًا إِنَّهُمْ مُّتَّبَعُونَ

24. "And leave the sea
 As a furrow (divided) : <sup>4708</sup>
 For they are a host
 (Destined) to be drowned."

٢٤ وَأَتْرِكُوا الْبَحْرَ دُفًّا إِنَّهُمْ مُّضْمَرُونَ

25. How many were the gardens <sup>4709</sup>
 And springs they left behind,

٢٥ كَمْ تَرَكُوا مِنْ جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ

26. And corn-fields
 And noble buildings,

٢٦ وَزُرُوعٍ وَمَقَامِرَ كَرِيمٍ

27. And wealth (and conveniences
 Of life), wherein they
 Had taken such delight !

٢٧ وَنَعْمَةٍ كَانُوا فِيهَا فَاكِهِينَ

28. Thus (was their end) !
 And We made other people
 Inherit (those things) !

٢٨ كَذَلِكَ وَأَوْرَثْنَاهَا قَوْمًا آخَرِينَ

29. And neither heaven <sup>4710</sup>
 Nor earth shed a tear
 Over them : nor were
 They given a respite (again).

٢٩ فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ
 وَمَا كَانُوا مُنظَرِينَ

4708. For the passage of Moses and his following, the sea had divided : they were to pass through the gap or furrow and leave it alone, to lure on the Egyptian host, on which the sea afterwards closed in, totally destroying them.

4709. There follows a word-picture of all the fine and enjoyable things which the ruling caste had monopolised. Now these proud monopolists were drowned in the sea, and the inheritance went to other hands.

4710. They died, "unwept, unhonoured, and unsung". They were too inordinate to be given another chance. Pharaoh had claimed to be their supreme god, and they had followed him !

There came to them
An apostle most honourable,<sup>4701</sup>

18. Saying : " Restore to me <sup>4702</sup>
The servants of God :
I am to you an apostle
Worthy of all trust ; <sup>4703</sup>

19. " And be not arrogant
As against God :
For I come to you
With authority manifest.

20. " For me, I have sought <sup>4704</sup>
Safety with my Lord
And your Lord, against
Your injuring me. <sup>4705</sup>

21. " If ye believe me not, <sup>4706</sup>
At least keep yourselves
Away from me."

22. (But they were aggressive :) <sup>4707</sup>
Then he cried

وَجَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ كَرِيمٌ

١٨ أَنِ ادْعُوا إِلَىٰ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ لِيُنَازِلَكُمْ
رَسُولُهُمْ

١٩ وَأَن لَّا تَعْلُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنِّي آتِيكُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ
مُّبِينٍ

٢٠ وَلَئِنِّي عُذْتُ بِرَبِّي وَرَبِّكُمْ أَن تَرْجُمُونِ

٢١ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّونَ آلِيَّ فَاتَّبِعُونِي

٢٢ فَدَعَا

4701. Most honourable : this epithet is specially applied to Moses here, as expressing the truth, in contrast to the Pharaoh's false characterisation of him as "a contemptible wretch" (xliii, 52).

4702. The argument of Moses and his "authority manifest" will be found at vii. 104-108, 120-126, 130-137. Notice how fully he assumes the authority of his office here. He claims all "servants of God", i.e., true worshippers, as under his protection, for his mission was both to the Egyptians and the Israelites; he asks that they should be restored to him; and he boldly denounces the Pharaoh's arrogance "as against God".

4703. "Worthy of all trust" : Amīn, a title applied to prophets in S. xxvi. : e.g., see xxvi. 107. As the holy Prophet had historically earned that title among his own people, the reminiscences of the story of Moses apply to him in his relations with the arrogant Quraish.

4704. It is no use their plotting his death or his vilification; for his safety is in God. As he truly says, "God is not only my Lord, but your Lord also; your responsibility arises apart from my preaching, but I preach in order to remind you of it."

4705. "Injuring me" : literally "stoning me". "Stoning" may be here symbolical of any injury or vilification.

4706. If you do not believe me, at least go your ways : do not add to your sins by trying to suppress me and the Message of Truth which I bring : keep out of my way.

4707. They would not even leave him alone to do his duty. So he cried to God, not indeed to destroy them, for a Prophet does not judge, but only God judges; he justified himself in prayer, that he had done his best, but they were obdurate in sin, and they were trying to oppress and injure the believers. Then came the order to march. They were to march under the cover of night, because the enemy was sure to pursue. They were to march with all believers, presumably believing Egyptians (such as were not martyred) as well as Israelites, for some Egyptians had believed : vii, 121.

12. (They will say :)
"Our Lord! Remove
The Penalty from us,
For we do really believe!"

﴿ رَبَّنَا اكْشِفْ عَنَّا الْعَذَابَ إِنَّا مُؤْمِنُونَ ﴾

13. How shall the Message
Be (effectual) for them,<sup>4697</sup>
Seeing that an Apostle
Explaining things clearly
Has (already) come to them,—

﴿ أَنَّى يَكُونُ الذِّكْرُ وَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴾

14. Yet they turn away
From him and say : "Tutored
(By others), a man possessed!"<sup>4698</sup>

﴿ تَذَرُوهُ وَكَلُوا غَيْرَهُ وَرَأَاهُم كَاذِبِينَ ﴾

15. We shall indeed remove<sup>4699</sup>
The Penalty for a while,
(But) truly ye will revert
(To your ways).

﴿ إِنَّا كَاشِفُو الْعَذَابِ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴾

16. One day We shall seize
You with a mighty onslaught :
We will indeed (then)
Exact Retribution!

﴿ يَوْمَ نَبْطِشُ الْبَطْشَةَ الْكُبْرَى إِنَّا مُنْقِمُونَ ﴾

17. ~~We~~ We did, before them,
Try the people of Pharaoh :<sup>4700</sup>

﴿ • وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا قَبْلَهُ قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ ﴾

4697. The Quraish had before them an Apostle whose purity of life was openly known to them; they themselves called him al-Amin (worthy of all trust); he preached in their own language in words of burning eloquence and transparent clearness: yet they turned away from him and called him a madman, or one whose Message was not inspired by God, but written by some hidden hand (see next note)! How will the teaching of spiritual Truth make way among such unreasonable people?

4698. Tutored : see xvi. 103, and n. 2143.

Possessed : see xv. 6, and n. 1940.

4699. God gives every chance to all His creatures, however rebellious. He gives them a little trial, perhaps personal, perhaps economic, to see if that would bring them to their bearings, and train their will in the right direction. Some are thus reclaimed, and some do not learn. Perhaps, for the latter, he gives them a chance by removing the trial; some are reclaimed, and some still remain obdurate. And so, in His wisdom, He allows His grace to work, again and again, until, at the last, Judgment must seize the last and irreclaimable remnant "with a mighty onslaught"

Such working of God's Providence is clearly visible in the story of the Quraish. It is a pity that the economic conditions of Mecca have not been studied in detail in any of the standard biographies of the Prophet. The so-called biographies by non-Muslims, e.g., Muir's Life, do not even mention any Meccan famine or its reactions on the Quraish mind!

4700. This reference is to the pride of Pharaoh and his Egyptians, and their fall, rather than to the story of Moses himself; just as in xlv. 30-33 the reference is to the blessings bestowed on Israel, contrasted with their pride, unbelief, and fall; and in xlv. 37, to the ancient Himyar kingdom of Yaman, which similarly fell for its sins.

Between them, if ye (but)
Have an assured faith.<sup>4693</sup>

8. There is no god but He :
It is He Who gives life
And gives death,—
The Lord and Cherisher
To you and your earliest
Ancestors.

9. Yet they play about<sup>4694</sup>
In doubt.

10. Then watch thou
For the Day<sup>4695</sup>
That the sky will
Bring forth a kind
Of smoke (or mist)<sup>4696</sup>
Plainly visible,

11. Enveloping the people :
This will be a Penalty
Grievous.

بَيْنَهُمَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُوقِنِينَ

⑤ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ رَبُّكُمْ وَرَبُّ
آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ

⑥ بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ يَلْعَبُونَ

⑦ فَارْتَقِبْ يَوْمَ تَأْتِي السَّمَاءُ بِدُخَانٍ مُبِينٍ

⑧ يَغْشَى النَّاسَ هَذَا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

4694. The story is mainly about the Quraish. But there is a wider meaning behind it, applicable to men generally, and at all times. As a body the Quraish, especially in the earlier stages of the preaching of Islam, before they started persecution, received the Message with more amusement than hatred. They played about with it, and expressed doubts about it, whereas the Preacher was most earnest about it, with all his heart and soul in it, as he loved his people and wished to save them from their wickedness and folly.

4696. The "smoke" or "mist" is interpreted on good authority to refer to a severe famine in Mecca, in which men were so pinched with hunger that they saw mist before their eyes when they looked at the sky. Ibn Kathīr in his Tārīkh mentions two famines in Mecca, one in the 8th year of the Mission, say the fourth year before the Hijra, and another about the 8th year after the Hijra. But as either or both of these famines lasted as many as seven years, the dates are to be taken very roughly. It is even possible that the two famines were continuous, of varying severity from year to year. Bukhārī mentions only the post-Hijrat famine, which was apparently so severe that men began to eat bones and carrion. Abū Sufyān (about 8 A.H.) approached the holy Prophet to intercede and pray for the removal of the famine, as the Pagans attributed it to the curse of the Prophet. Sūra xxiii., which is also Meccan, but of later date than the present Sūra, also refers to a famine : see xxiii. 75. and n. 2921. As Sūras were not all revealed at once, but many came piecemeal, it is possible that particular verses in a given Sūra may be of different dates from the Sūra as a whole.

Sūra XLIV.

Dukhan, or Smoke (or Mist).*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Ha-Mim.<sup>4688</sup>

① حم

2. By the Book that<sup>4689</sup>
Makes things clear ;—

② وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ

3. We sent it down
During a blessed night :<sup>4690</sup>
For We (ever) wish
To warn (against Evil).

③ إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةٍ مُبَارَكَةٍ إِنَّا كُنَّا مُنْذِرِينَ

4. In that (night) is made
Distinct every affair
Of wisdom,<sup>4691</sup>

④ فِيهَا يُفْرَقُ كُلُّ أَمْرٍ حَكِيمٍ

5. By command, from Our Presence. For We (ever)
Send (revelations),

⑤ أَمْرًا مِنْ عِنْدِنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا مُرْسِلِينَ

6. As a Mercy
From thy Lord :
For He hears and knows<sup>4692</sup>
(All things) ;

⑥ رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

7. The Lord of the heavens
And the earth and all

⑦ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا

4688. These Abbreviated Letters are discussed in the Introduction to S. xl. paragraphs 2-4.

4689. The Qur-ān is its own evidence. In the last Sūra (xlili. 3) stress was laid on the fact that everyone could understand it. Here the stress is on the fact that it is a Message of Mercy from God in that it warns mankind against evil.

4690. Usually taken to be a night in the month of Ramadhān, say the 23rd, 25th, or 27th night of that month. It is referred to as the Night of Power in xcvi. 1-2. See also ii. 185. But perhaps we need not fix it literally by the calendar. The night that a Message descends from God is indeed a blessed night, like a day of rain for a parched land.

4691. Such an occasion is one on which divine Wisdom places before us through Revelation the solution of spiritual problems of the highest import to mankind.

4692. It is because God is the friend of the friendless and the help of the helpless that He hears all sincere prayers; and as His knowledge embraces all things, He grants to us whatever is best for us, not as we see it, but as He knows it in His perfect knowledge.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLIV (Dukhān).

For the chronology and the general theme of the Sūras of the Hā-Mīm series, of which this is the fifth, see the Introduction to S. xl.

The theme of this particular Sūra is how worldly pride and power are humbled in the dust if they resist spiritual forces, and how Evil and Good find their true setting in the Hereafter.

The title-word Dukhān occurs in verse 10. It means smoke or mist, and may refer to a drought or famine, as explained in the notes to that verse.

Summary.—Revelation explains clearly how worldly pride and arrogance may come to naught, even at long odds, against spiritual truths (xliv. 1-29, and C. 216):

A people may be given all blessings and may fail in its trust, as did Israel: will the Quraish learn the lesson of Good and Evil? (xliv. 30-59, and C. 217).

C. 216.—Blest is the night in which God's Message
(xliv. 1-29.) Comes down, as a Mercy to men, to warn them
Against Evil. How fractious of men to ignore
Or suppress such warnings? Proud Pharaoh
And his Chiefs did resist God's authority,
But their sins rebounded on themselves:
They were swallowed up by the sea; and their tilth,
Their gardens, their noble fanes and buildings,
And all the advantages of which they boasted
Passed to other hands. Not a tear
Was shed over them in heaven or earth.
Thus ends the tale of power misused.

87. If thou ask them, Who <sup>4684</sup>
Created them, they will Certainly say, God : how
Then are they deluded
Away (from the Truth) ?

88. (God has knowledge) <sup>4685</sup>
Of the (Prophet's) cry,
"O my Lord ! Truly
These are a people
Who will not believe ! " <sup>4686</sup>

89. But turn away from them,
And say "Peace ! " <sup>4687</sup>
But soon shall they know !

﴿٨٧﴾ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَهُمْ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ

﴿٨٨﴾ وَقِيلَ لِلَّذِينَ اتَّبَعَتْ مَا يُنَادِيهِمْ لَتُبْلَوُنَّ فِي الْحَيَاةِ بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ أَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ فِتْنَةً أَن يَقُولُوا لَكُم مَّا كُنْتُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ فِتْنَةً أَن يَقُولُوا لَكُم مَّا كُنْتُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ فِتْنَةً أَن يَقُولُوا لَكُم مَّا كُنْتُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ

﴿٨٩﴾ فَاصْفَعْ عَنْهُمْ وَقُلْ سَلَامٌ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ

4684. Cf. xxxi. 25, and n. 3613 ; and xxxix. 38, and n. 4299.

4685. Commentators are divided in opinion as to the construction. The best opinion is that which I have adopted, referring back qālikū as a genitive governed by ʿilm in verse 85. An alternative construction is to construe the wāw here as the wāw qasamiya : in that case we should have to suppose some other clause as understood, in order to complete the sense.

4686. The Prophet was much troubled in mind by the Unfaith of the Quraish : xviii. 6. He is here told to leave them alone for a time, for the Truth must soon prevail.

4687. Cf. xxv. 63, and n. 3123.

The Lord of the Throne <sup>4680</sup>
(Of Authority)! (He is Free) from the things
They attribute (to Him)!

رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ

83. So leave them to babble
And play (with vanities)
Until they meet that Day <sup>4681</sup>
Of theirs, which they
Have been promised.

٨٣ فَذَرَّهُمْ خُوضُوا وَيَلْعَبُوا حَتَّى يُلَاقُوا
يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي يُوْعَدُونَ

84. It is He Who is God
In heaven and God on earth;
And He is Full
Of Wisdom and Knowledge.

٨٤ وَهُوَ الَّذِي فِي السَّمَاءِ إِلَهٌُ وَفِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَهٌُ
وَهُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْعَلِيمُ

85. And blessed is He <sup>4682</sup>
To Whom belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth,
And all between them:
With Him is the knowledge
Of the Hour (of Judgment):
And to Him shall ye
Be brought back.

٨٥ وَتَبَارَكَ الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَعِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَإِلَيْهِ
تُرْجَعُونَ

86. And those whom they invoke
Besides God have no power
Of intercession;—only he <sup>4683</sup>
Who bears witness to the Truth,
And they know (him).

٨٦ وَلَا يَمْلِكُ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ
الشفاعة إلا من شهد بالحق وهم يعلمون

4680. C/. vii. 54 and n. 1032. All Power, Authority, Knowledge, and Truth are with God. He neither begets nor is begotten. Glory to Him!

4681. That Day of theirs: they had their Day on earth; they will have a different sort of Day in the Hereafter, according to the promise of God about the Resurrection and Judgment, or perhaps about Retribution in this very life! So leave them to play about with their fancies and vanities. Truth must eventually prevail!

4682. We glorify God, and we call His name blessed, because He has not only supreme power and authority, but because we shall return to Him and see "the Light of His Countenance." (xxx. 38).

4683. The classical Commentators construe this clause differently. According to their construction, the clause would be translated, "except those who bear witness to the Truth, and with full knowledge." "Truth" they would construe to be the Gospel of Unity. According to them, while idols and false gods have no power of intercession, persons like Jesus, who is falsely worshipped by his misguided followers, but who himself preached the Gospel of Unity with full understanding, will have the power of intercession. This implies that we construe the singular man shahida to refer to the same person or persons as the plural hum ya'lamūn. This difficulty is removed if we construe as I have translated it. In that case "he who bears witness to the Truth" is the holy Prophet, who came to renew the Gospel of Unity, and "they know (him)" would refer to the Quraish, amongst whom he was brought up and among whom he earned the reputation of being a man of probity (Amīn).

But it is they who
Have been unjust themselves.

77. They will cry : " O Malik ! <sup>4674</sup>
Would that thy Lord
Put an end to us !"
He will say, " Nay, but Ye shall abide ! " <sup>4675</sup>

78. Verily We have brought <sup>4676</sup>
The Truth to you :
But most of you
Have a hatred for Truth.

79. What ! Have they settled <sup>4677</sup>
Some Plan (among themselves) ?
But it is We Who
Settle things.

80. Or do they think <sup>4678</sup>
That We hear not
Their secrets and their Private counsels ? Indeed
(We do), and Our Messengers
Are by them, to record.

81. Say : " If (God) Most Gracious
Had a son, I would <sup>4679</sup>
Be the first to worship."

82. Glory to the Lord
Of the heavens and the earth,

وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا هُمُ الظَّالِمِينَ

٧٧ وَنَادَوْا يَا مَلِكُ لِيَقْضِ عَلَيْنَا رَبُّكَ قَالَ
لَكُمْ مَكَثُورٌ

٧٨ لَقَدْ جِئْنَاكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ وَلَكِنْ
أَكْثَرَكُمْ لِلْحَقِّ كَارِهُونَ

٧٩ أَمْ أَمْرُكُمْ أَمْ أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِمَّا يَمْشُرُونَ

٨٠ أَمْ يَحْسِبُونَ أَنَّا لَا نَسْمَعُ سِرَّهُمْ
وَنَجْوَاهُمْ بَلَىٰ وَرُسُلُنَا لَدَيْهِمْ يَكْتَثِرُونَ

٨١ قُلْ إِنْ كَانَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ وَلَدٌ فَأَنَا
أَوَّلُ الْعَابِدِينَ

٨٢ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّيَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ

4674. Malik : one who is lord or possessor ; one who is in charge ; applied to the Angel in charge of Hell.

4675. Cf. xx. 74. Annihilation is better than agony. But wrong-doers cannot destroy the "fruits" of their actions, by asking for annihilation.

4676. We come back now to the Present,— primarily to the time when Islam was being preached in Mecca, but by analogy the present time or any time. Truth is often bitter to the taste of those who live on Falsehoods and Shams and profit by them. They hate the Truth, and plot against it. But will they succeed? See next verse and note.

4677. Men cannot settle the high affairs of the universe. If they plot against the Truth, the Truth will destroy them, just as, if they accept the Truth, the Truth will make them free. It is God Who disposes of affairs.

4678. However secretly men may plot, everything is known to God. His Recording Angels are by, at all times and in all places, to prepare a Record of their Deeds for their own conviction when the time comes for Judgment.

4679. The man of God does not object to true worship in any form. But it must be true : it must not superstitiously attribute derogatory things to God, or foster false ideas.

71. To them will be passed <sup>4669</sup>
Round, dishes and goblets
Of gold : there will be
There all that the souls
Could desire, all that
The eyes could delight in :
And ye shall abide
Therein (for aye).

٧١ يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِصُحُفٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ
وَأَكْوَابٍ وَفِيهَا مِمَّا تُشْبِهُ الْأَنْفُسُ
وَلَا يُلَاقُونَ فِيهَا الْغَيْظَ وَلَا خِلَافًا

72. Such will be the Garden
Of which ye are made <sup>4670</sup>
Heirs for your (good) deeds
(In life).

٧٢ وَتِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِي أُورِثْتُمُوهَا بِمَا
كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

73. Ye shall have therein
Abundance of fruit, <sup>4671</sup> from which
Ye shall have satisfaction. <sup>4672</sup>

٧٣ لَكُمْ فِيهَا فَاكِهَةٌ كَثِيرَةٌ مِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ

74. The Sinners will be
In the Punishment of Hell,
To dwell therein (for aye):

٧٤ إِنَّ الْجَحِيمَ فِي عَذَابٍ مُتَسَاوٍ

75. Nowise will the (punishment)
Be lightened for them,
And in despair will they
Be there overwhelmed.

٧٥ لَا يَفْتَرُ عَنْهُمْ وَهُمْ فِيهِ مُبْلِسُونَ

76. Nowise shall We <sup>4673</sup>
Be unjust to them :

٧٦ وَمَا ظَنَنْهُمْ

4669. We shall have all our near and dear ones ("wives") with us : perfected Love will not be content with Self, but like a note of music will find its melody in communion with the others. The richest and most beautiful vessels will minister to our purified desires, and give complete and eternal satisfaction to our souls in every way.

4670. We shall be there, not as strangers, or temporary guests, but as heirs,—made heirs in eternity because of the good lives we had led on earth.

4671. "Fruit" and "eating" are metaphorical. Even as types or emblems, eating and drinking were suggested by "dishes and goblets of gold" in verse 71 above. The "fruit" here links on with the last words in the last verse (72), "ye are made heirs for your (good) deeds (in life)". It is not a doctrine of "rewards", strictly so called. A reward is measured by merit, but here the bliss is beyond all merits or deserts. It is a doctrine of works and their fruits : every deed must have its inevitable consequences. At first sight it may be compared to the doctrine of "Karma", but it differs from it in postulating God's unbounded Mercy, and the efficacy of Repentance.

4672. Literally, "shall eat" But the word akula is used in many places in the comprehensive sense of "enjoy", "have satisfaction". For example, see n. 776 to v. 69. Cf. also vii, 19 and n. 1004.

4673. The wrong-doers suffer not because God is unjust or cruel, nor as a deterrent to others, for the probationary period will then have passed, but because their evil deeds must bear their inevitable fruit. God's Grace was ever ready to offer opportunities for Repentance and Forgiveness. But they rejected them. They were unjust to themselves. This is complementary to the doctrine of works and their fruits, as explained in n. 4671 above.

65. But sects from among Themselves fell into disagreement :
Then woe to the wrong-doers,
From the Penalty
Of a Grievous Day!

٦٥ فَلَاخْتَلَفْنَا الْأَحْزَابَ مِنْ بَيْنِهِمْ فَوَيْلٌ
لِّلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْ عَذَابِ يَوْمٍ أَلِيمٍ

66. Do they only wait <sup>4665</sup>
For the Hour—that it
Should come on them
All of a sudden,
While they perceive not?

٦٦ هَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ أَن تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً
وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ

67. Friends on that Day <sup>4666</sup>
Will be foes, one
To another,—except
The Righteous.

٦٧ الْأَخِلَاءُ يَوْمَئِذٍ بَعْضُهُم لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ إِلَّا
الْمُتَّقِينَ

SECTION 7.

68. O my devotees! <sup>4667</sup>
No fear shall be
On you that Day,
Nor shall ye grieve,—

٦٨ يٰعِبَادِ لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْكُمُ الْيَوْمَ وَلَا أَنْتُمْ
تَحْزَنُونَ

69. (Being) those who have believed
In Our Signs and bowed
(Their wills to Ours) in Islām.

٦٩ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا
مُسْلِمِينَ

70. Enter ye the Garden, <sup>4668</sup>
Ye and your wives,
In (beauty and) rejoicing.

٧٠ ادْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ أَنْتُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُكُمْ تُحْبَرُونَ

4665. Cf. xii. 107. What is there to wait for? The Hour of Judgment may come at any moment. It will come all of a sudden before they realise that it is on them. They should make up their minds to give up misleading disputations and come to the Straight Path.

4666. The hatred and spite, which are associated with evil, will be felt with peculiar intensity in that period of agony. That itself would be a punishment, from which the righteous will be free. The righteous will have passed all perils of falling into wrong frames of mind.

4667. The devotion and service to God result in the soul being made free from all fear and sorrow, as regards the past, present, and future, if we may take an analogy from Time for a timeless state. Such devotion and service are shown by (1) believing in God's Signs, which means understanding and accepting His Will, and (2) by merging our will completely in His universal Will, which means being in tune with the Infinite, and acting in all things to further His Kingdom.

4668. The Garden is the type of all that is beautiful to eye, mind, and soul, all that is restful and in tune, a complete state of bliss, such as we can scarcely conceive of in this troubled world. Several metaphors indicate how we can try to picture that bliss to ourselves in "this muddy resture of decay."

60. And if it were Our Will,<sup>4661</sup>
We could make angels
From amongst you, succeeding
Each other on the earth.

61. And (Jesus) shall be<sup>4662</sup>
A Sign (for the coming
Of) the Hour (of Judgment):
Therefore have no doubt
About the (Hour), but Follow ye Me : this
Is a Straight Way.

62. Let not the Evil One
Hinder you : for he is
To you an enemy avowed.

63. ~~When~~ When Jesus came
With Clear Signs, he said :
" Now have I come
To you with Wisdom,<sup>4663</sup>
And in order to make Clear to you some
Of the (points) on which
Ye dispute : therefore fear God
And obey me.

64. " For God, He is my Lord<sup>4664</sup>
And your Lord : so worship
Ye Him : this is
A Straight Way."

﴿٦٠﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَجَعَلْنَا مِنْكُمْ مَلَائِكَةً فِي
الْأَرْضِ يَخْلُفُونَ

﴿٦١﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَعِلْمٌ لِلْسَّاعَةِ فَلَا تَمْتَرُنَّ بِهَا
وَاتَّبِعُونِ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ

﴿٦٢﴾ وَلَا يَصُدُّكُمْ الشَّيْطَانُ إِنَّهُ لَكُمْ
عَدُوٌّ مُبِينٌ

﴿٦٣﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَ عِيسَى بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالَ قَدْ
جِئْتُكُمْ بِالْحِكْمَةِ وَلِأُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ بَعْضَ
الَّذِي تَخْتَلِفُونَ فِيهِ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا

﴿٦٤﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوهُ
هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ

4661. If it were said that the birth of Jesus without a father sets him above other prophets, the creation of angels without either father or mother would set them still higher, especially as angels do not eat and drink and are not subject to physical laws. But angels are not higher.

4662. This is understood to refer to the second coming of Jesus in the Last Days just before the Resurrection, when he will destroy the false doctrines that pass under his name, and prepare the way for the universal acceptance of Islam, the Gospel of Unity and Peace, the Straight Way of the Qur-ān.

4663. True wisdom consists in understanding the unity of the Divine purpose and the Unity of the Divine Personality. The man Jesus came to reconcile the jarring sects in Israel, and his true teaching was just the same as that which was expounded in a wider form by Islam. He did not claim to be God : why should not the Christians follow the doctrine of Unity rather than what has become their ancestral and traditional custom?

4664. In verses 26-28 an appeal is made to the pagan Arabs, that Islam is their own religion, the religion of Abraham their ancestor; in verses 46-54, an appeal is made to the Jews that Islam is the same religion as was taught by Moses, and that they should not allow their leaders to make fools of them; in verses 57-65 an appeal is made to the Christians that Islam is the same religion as was taught by Jesus, and that they should give up their sectarian attitude and follow the universal religion, which shows the Straight Way.

C. 215.—If Christians go back to Jesus, he (xliii. 57-89.) Was but a man and a servant of God :
 He came to still the jarring sects,
 Not to create a new one : he preached
 The One True God, his Lord. So give up
 Disputing, and join in devotion to God.
 That is the Way to the Garden of Bliss,
 But the opposite leads to the Fire. Beware !
 The Truth has come, and God knows how you
 Receive it. He is the Lord of power and mercy.
 The Truth must prevail : resist it not.

SECTION 6.

57. ~~When~~ When (Jesus) the son <sup>4659</sup>
 Of Mary is held up
 As an example, behold,
 Thy people raise a clamour
 Thereat (in ridicule)!

٥٧ * وَلَمَّا ضُرِبَ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ مَثَلًا إِذَا قَوْمُكَ
 مِنْهُ يَصِدُّونَ

58. And they say, "Are
 Our gods best, or he?"
 This they set forth
 To thee, only by way
 Of disputation : yea, they
 Are a contentious people.

٥٨ وَقَالُوا أَالِهَتُنَا خَيْرٌ أَمْ هُوَ مَا ضَرَبُوهُ لَكَ
 إِلَّا جَدَلًا بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ خَصِمُونَ

59. He was no more than
 A servant : We granted
 Our favour to him,
 And We made him
 An example to the Children <sup>4660</sup>
 Of Israel.

٥٩ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا عَبْدٌ أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَيْهِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ
 مَثَلًا لِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ

4659. Jesus was a man, and a prophet to the Children of Israel, "though his own received him not." Some of the churches that were founded after him worshipped him as "God" and as "the son of God", as do the Trinitarian churches to the present day. The orthodox churches did so in the time of the holy Prophet. When the doctrine of Unity was renewed, and the false worship of others besides God was strictly prohibited, all false gods were condemned, e.g., at xxi. 98. The pagan Arabs looked upon Jesus as being in the same category as their false gods, and could not see why a foreign cult, or a foreign god, as they viewed him, should be considered better than their own gods or idols. There was no substance in this, but mere mockery, and verbal quibbling. Jesus was one of the greater prophets : he was not a god, nor was he responsible for the quibbling subtleties of the Athanasian Creed.

4660. A reference to the limited mission of the prophet Jesus, whose Gospel to the Jews only survives in uncertain fragmentary forms.

52. "Am I not better
Than this (Moses), who
Is a contemptible wretch <sup>4654</sup>
And can scarcely
Express himself clearly?

٥٢ أَمْ أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْ هَذَا الَّذِي هُوَ مَهِينٌ
وَلَا يَكَادُ يُبِينُ

53. "Then why are not <sup>4655</sup>
Gold bracelets bestowed
On him, or (why)
Come (not) with him
Angels accompanying him
In procession?"

٥٣ فَلَوْلَا أُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ أَسْوَرَةٌ مِّنْ ذَهَبٍ وَأُجَاءَ مَعَهُ
الْمَلَائِكَةُ مُقَرَّرِينَ

54. Thus did he make
Fools of his people,
And they obeyed him:
Truly were they a people
Rebellious (against God).

٥٤ فَاسْتَخَفَّ قَوْمَهُ فَاطَاعُوهُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا
قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ

55. When at length they <sup>4656</sup>
Provoked Us, We exacted
Retribution from them, and
We drowned them all. <sup>4657</sup>

٥٥ فَلَمَّا عَسَفْنَا أَن نَّخْلُقَ مِنْهُمْ قَوْمًا
أُخَيْرِينَ

56. And We made them
(A people) of the Past <sup>4658</sup>
And an Example
To later ages.

٥٦ فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ سَكَنًا وَمَثَلًا لِّلْآخِرِينَ

4654. Being a despised Israelite in any case, and having further an impediment in his speech. See xx. 27, and notes 2552-53.

4655. Gold bracelets and gold chains were possibly among the insignia of royalty. In any case they betokened wealth, and the materialists judge a man's worth by his wealth and his following and equipage. So Pharaoh wanted to see Moses, if he had any position in the spiritual kingdom, invested with gold bracelets, and followed by a great train of angels as his Knight-companions! The same kind of proofs were demanded by the materialist Quraish of our holy Prophet. These were puerilities, but such puerilities go down with the crowd. Barring a few Egyptians who believed in God and in the Message of Moses, the rest of Pharaoh's entourage followed Pharaoh in his pursuit of revenge, and were drowned in the Red Sea.

4656. God is long-suffering, and gives many and many opportunities to the most hardened sinners for repentance. But at length comes a time when His justice is provoked, and the inevitable punishment follows.

4657. Cf. vii. 136.

4658. Pharaoh and his hosts were blotted out, and became as a tale of the past. Their story is an instructive warning and example to future generations. The later course of Egyptian religion after the Exodus is referred to in Appendix V, pp. 408-413.

To Pharaoh and his Chiefs:
He said, "I am an apostle
Of the Lord of the Worlds."

47. But when he came to them
With Our Signs, behold,
They ridiculed them.<sup>4650</sup>

48. We showed them Sign<sup>4651</sup>
After Sign, each greater
Than its fellow, and We
Seized them with Punishment,
In order that they
Might turn (to Us).

49. And they said, "O thou<sup>4652</sup>
Sorcerer! Invoke thy Lord
For us according to
His covenant with thee;
For we shall truly
Accept guidance."

50. But when We removed
The Penalty from them,
Behold, they broke their word.

51. And Pharaoh proclaimed
Among his people, saying:
"O my people! Does not
The dominion of Egypt
Belong to me, (witness)<sup>4653</sup>
These streams flowing
Underneath my (palace)? What!
See ye not then?"

إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ فَقَالَ إِنِّي رَسُولُ رَبِّ
الْعَالَمِينَ

⑤ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بَيِّنَاتُ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْهَا
يَضَعَكُونَ

⑥ وَمَا نُرِيهِمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ إِلَّا هِيَ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ
أُخْرَاهَا وَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ

⑦ وَقَالُوا يَا أَيُّهَا السَّاحِرُ ادْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ بِمَا عَهِدَ
عِنْدَكَ إِنَّا لَمُهْتَدُونَ

⑧ فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ الْعَذَابَ إِذَا هُمْ
يَسْكُرُونَ

⑨ وَنَادَىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ فِي قَوْمِهِ قَالَ يَبْقُومُ
الْيَتِيمَ لِيَؤْمَلَكَ بِمُضِرٍّ هَٰذَا إِلَّا نَبْرٌ تُفْعِلُونَ
تَحْتَىٰ أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ

4650. For the mockery of Moses and his Signs see xvii. 101; also below, xliii. 49, 52-53.

4651. Moses showed them nine Clear Signs; see n. 1091 to vii. 133; also xvii. 101. Each one of them in its own setting and circumstances was greater than any of its "sister" Signs. The object was if possible to reclaim as many Egyptians as possible from their defiance of God.

4652. This speech is half a mockery, and half a ruse. In spite of their unbelief, they had fear in their minds, and in order to stop the plagues, one after another, they promised to obey God, and when the particular plague was removed, they again became obdurate. See vii. 133-135.

4653. The wāw here in Arabic is the Wāw ḥālīya; the abundant streams from the Nile flowing beneath his palace being evidence of his power, prosperity, and sovereignty. The Nile made (and makes) Egypt, and the myth of the god Osiris was a compound of the myths of the Nile and the sun. The Pharaoh, therefore, as commanding the Nile, commanded the gods who personified Egypt. He boasted of water, and he perished in water,—a fitting punishment!

41. Even if We take thee <sup>1645</sup>
Away, We shall be sure
To exact retribution from them,

٤١) فَإِنَّا نَذْهَبُ بِكَ فَإِنَّا مِنْهُمْ مُنْتَقِمُونَ

42. Or We shall show thee
That (accomplished) which We
Have promised them :
For verily We shall
Prevail over them.

٤٢) أَوْزَيِّنُكَ الَّذِي وَعَدْنَاهُمْ فَإِنَّا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّقْتَدِرُونَ

43. So hold thou fast <sup>1646</sup>
To the Revelation sent down
To thee : verily thou
Art on a Straight Way.

٤٣) فَاسْتَمْسِكْ بِالَّذِي أُوحِيَ إِلَيْكَ إِنَّكَ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

44. The (Qur-ān) is indeed
The Message, <sup>1647</sup> for thee
And for thy people ;
And soon shall ye
(All) be brought to account.

٤٤) وَإِنَّهُ لَذِكْرٌ لَّكَ وَلِقَوْمِكَ وَسَوْفَ تُسْأَلُونَ

45. And question thou our apostles <sup>1648</sup>
Whom We sent before thee ;
Did We appoint any deities
Other than (God) Most Gracious,
To be worshipped ?

٤٥) وَسْأَلْ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رُسُلِنَا أَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ دُونِ الرَّحْمَنِ آلِهَةً يُعْبَدُونَ

SECTION 5.

46. ~~We~~ We did send Moses <sup>1649</sup>
Aforetime, with Our Signs,

٤٦) وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَى بِآيَاتِنَا

1645. Cf. viii. 30 : "how the Unbelievers plotted against thee, to keep thee in bonds, or slay thee, or get thee out (of thy home)." They were always plotting against the holy Prophet in his Meccan period. But even if their plots had succeeded against human beings, they could not defeat God's Plan, nor escape the just punishment of their deeds. Cf. also x. 46, and n. 1438.

1646. Let the wicked rage, say what they like, or do their worst : the man of God is encouraged to go forward steadfastly in the Light given him, for he is on a Path that leads straight to God.

1647. Zikrūn : Message, Remembrance, Cause of remembrance, Memorial, Title for remembrance to posterity. Thus two meanings emerge, not necessarily mutually exclusive. (1) The Qur-ān brings a Message of Truth and Guidance to the Apostle, and his people ; (2) the revelation of the Qur-ān raises the rank of the Apostle, and the people among whom, and in whose language, it was promulgated, making them worthy of remembrance in the world's history for all time. But the honour also carried its responsibilities. All who hear it must give an account of how far they profit by it spiritually.

1648. That is, by examining their Message, and asking the learned among their real followers. It will be found that no Religion really teaches the worship of other than God.

1649. For the story of Moses in detail, see vii. 103-137, but especially vii. 104, 130-136.

Of (God) Most Gracious,
We appoint for him
An evil one, to be
An intimate companion to him.

الرَّحْمَنُ يَقْضِي لَهُ شَيْطَانًا قَهُولَهُ قَرِينٌ

37. Such (evil ones) really
Hinder them from the Path,<sup>4639</sup>
But they think that they
Are being guided aright!

٣٧ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَيَصُدُّونَهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُهْتَدُونَ

38. At length, when (such a one)<sup>4640</sup>
Comes to Us, he says
(To his evil companion):
"Would that between me
And thee were the distance
Of East and West!"<sup>4641</sup> Ah!
Evil is the companion (indeed)!

٣٨ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَنَا قَالَ يَلَيْتَ بَيْنِي
وَبَيْنَكَ بَعْدَ الشَّرَاقَيْنِ فَيُشْرُ الْقَرِينُ

39. When ye have done wrong,<sup>4642</sup>
It will avail you nothing,
That day, that ye shall be
Partners in punishment!

٣٩ وَلَنْ يَنْفَعَكُمْ كُذُّ الْيَوْمِ إِذْ ظَلَمْتُمْ أَنَّكُمْ فِي
الْعَذَابِ مُشْتَرِكُونَ

40. Canst thou then make<sup>4643</sup>
The deaf to hear, or give
Direction to the blind
Or to such as (wander)
In manifest error?<sup>4644</sup>

٤٠ أَفَأَنْتَ تُسْمِعُ الصُّمَّ أَوْ تَهْدِي الْعُمْيَ وَمَنْ
كَانَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ

4639. The downward course in evil is rapid. But the most tragic consequence is that evil persuades its victims to believe that they are pursuing good. They think evil to be their good. They go deeper and deeper into the mire, and become more and more callous. "Them" and "they" represent the generic plural of anyone who "withdraws himself from...God" (see last verse).

4640. If ever the presence of God is felt, or at the time of Judgment, a glimmering of truth comes to the deceived soul, and it cries to its evil companion in its agony. "Would that I had never come across thee! Would that we were separated poles apart!" But it cannot shake off evil. By deliberate choice it had put itself in its snare.

4641. Distance of East and West: literally, 'distance of the two Easts'. Most Commentators understand in this sense, but some construe the phrase as meaning the distance of the extreme points of the rising of the sun, between the summer solstice and the winter solstice. Cf. n. 4034 to xxxvii, 5. A good equivalent idiom in English would be "poles apart", for they could never meet.

4642. All partners in evil will certainly share in the punishment, but that is no consolation to any individual soul. Evil desires the evil of others, but that does not diminish its own torment, or get rid of the personal responsibility of each individual soul.

4643. Cf. xxx, 52-53. The evil go headlong into sin, and sink deeper and deeper until their spiritual faculties are deadened, and no outside help can bring them back. God's grace they have rejected.

4644. There is hope for a person who wanders in quest of truth, and even for one who wanders through mistake or by weakness of will. But there is none for one who, by deliberate choice, plunges into "manifest error", i.e. error which any one can see.

In the life of this world :
And We raise some of them
Above others in ranks,
So that some may command
Work from others.
But the Mercy of thy Lord
Is better than the (wealth)
Which they amass.

فَالْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَا وَرَفَعْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ
دَرَجٰتٍ لِّيَتَّخِذَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا سَخِرَآءً وَرَحْمَةً
رَّبِّكَ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا يَجْتَمِعُونَ

33. And were it not that.<sup>4636</sup>
(All) men might become
Of one (evil) way of life,
We would provide,
For everyone that blasphemes
Against (God) Most Gracious,
Silver roofs for their houses,
And (silver) stair-ways
On which to go up,

۞ وَلَوْلَا اَنْ يَكُوْنَ النَّاسُ اُمَّةً وَّاحِدَةً
لَجَعَلْنَا لِكُلِّ بَلٰغٍ لِّزَيْنٍ لِّبٰوْتِهِمْ سُقْفًا مِّنْ
فِضَّةٍ وَمَعَارِجَ عَلَيْهَا يَظْهَرُونَ

34. And (silver) doors
To their houses, and thrones
(Of silver) on which
They could recline,

۞ وَلِلِّبٰوْتِهِمْ اَبْوَابٌ وَسُرُرٌ عَلَيْهَا يَتَكَبَّرُونَ

35. And also adornments<sup>4637</sup>
Of gold. But all this
Were nothing but conveniences
Of the present life :
The Hereafter, in the sight
Of thy Lord, is
For the Righteous.

۞ وَزُخْرَفًا وَاِنَّ كُلَّ ذٰلِكَ لَمَّا مَتَاعُ
الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةُ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ
لِالْمُتَّقِيْنَ

SECTION 4.

36. If anyone withdraws himself<sup>4638</sup>
From remembrance

۞ وَمَنْ يَّعِشْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ

4636. So little value is attached in the spiritual world to silver or gold, or worldly ranks or adornments, that they would freely be at the disposal of everyone who denied or blasphemed God, were it not that in that case there would be too great temptation placed in the way of men, for they might all scramble to sell their spiritual life for wealth! They might have silver roofs and stair-ways, silver doors and thrones, and all kinds of adornments of gold. But God does not allow too great a temptation to be placed in the path of men. He distributes these things differently, some to unjust men, and some to just men, in various degrees, so that the possession of these is no test either of an unjust or a just life. His wisdom searches out motives far more subtle and delicate than any we are even aware of.

4637. Adornments of gold: the keyword to this Sūra. All false glitter and adornments of this world are as naught. They more often hinder than help.

4638. If men deliberately put away the remembrance of God from their minds, the natural consequence, under God's decree, is that they join on with evil. Like consorts with like. We can generalise evil in the abstract, but it takes concrete shape in our life-companions.

28. And he left it
As a Word <sup>4631</sup>
To endure among those
Who came after him,
That they may turn back
(To God).

وَجَعَلَهَا كَلِمَةً بَاقِيَةً فِي عَقِبِهِ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَرْجِعُونَ

29. Yea, I have given <sup>4632</sup>
The good things of this life.
To these (men) and
Their fathers, until the Truth
Has come to them,
And an Apostle
Making things clear.

بَلْ مَتَّعْتُ هَؤُلَاءِ وَآبَاءَهُمْ حَتَّى
جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ وَرَسُولٌ مُبِينٌ

30. But when the Truth came
To them, they said:
"This is sorcery, and we <sup>4633</sup>
Do reject it."

وَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ
كَافِرُونَ

31. Also, they say: "Why
Is not this Qur-ān sent
Down to some leading man
In either of the two <sup>4634</sup>
(Chief) cities?"

وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا نَزَلَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ عَلَى رَجُلٍ
مِّنَ الْقَرْيَتَيْنِ عَظِيمٍ

32. Is it they who would portion out
The Mercy of thy Lord? <sup>4635</sup>
It is We Who portion out
Between them their livelihood.

أَمْ يَقْسِمُونَ رَحْمَتَ رَبِّكَ نَحْنُ قَسَمْنَا
بَيْنَهُمْ مَعِيشَتَهُمْ

4631. A Word: i.e., the Gospel of Unity, viz.: "I worship only Him Who made me", as in verse 27. This was his teaching, and this was his legacy to those who followed him. He hoped that they would keep it sacred, and uphold the standard of Unity. Cf. C. 7-8 Cf. also xxxvii. 108-111.

4632. Note the first person singular, as showing God's personal solicitude and care for the descendants of Abraham in both branches. The context here refers to the prosperity enjoyed by Meccans and the Meccans until they rejected the truth of Islam when it was preached in their midst by an apostle whose Message was as clear as the light of the sun.

4633. When the pagan Meccans could not understand the wonderful power and authority with which the holy Prophet preached, they called his God-given influence sorcery!

4635. That is, spiritual gifts, those connected with Revelation. What audacity or folly in them to claim to divide or distribute them among themselves? They may think they are distributing the good things of this world among themselves. In a sense that may be true, but even here, their own power and initiative are very limited. Even here it is God's Will on which all depends. In His wisdom God allows some to grow in power or riches, and command work from others, and various relative gradations are established. Men scramble for these good things of this world, but they are of no value compared to the spiritual gifts.

24. He said : " What ! <sup>4629</sup>
Even if I brought you
Better guidance than that
Which ye found
Your fathers following ? "
They said : " For us,
We deny that ye (prophets)
Are sent (on a mission
At all). "

٢٤ * قُلْ وَلَوْ جِئْتُكُمْ بِأَهْدَىٰ مِمَّا وَجَدْتُمْ
عَلَيْهِ ءَابَاءَكُمْ قُلُوا إِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ
كَافِرُونَ

25. So We exacted retribution
From them : now see
What was the end
Of those who rejected (Truth) !

٢٥ فَانْتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَنْظُرْ كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكَذِّبِينَ

C. 214.—If the Arabs hark back to ancestry, why not (xliii. 26-56) Accept the Faith of Abraham the True ?
He joined not gods with God. Spiritual
Worth is measured by other things
Than gold or silver or the adornments
Of this world. These are but things of the hour.
The lasting gifts are those of the Hereafter.
If Israel goes back to Moses, how he
Was mocked by Pharaoh in his pride
Of power ! Yet Pharaoh and his deluded
People perished : so ends the pomp
And power and vanity of this world !

SECTION 3.

26. Behold ! Abraham said <sup>4630</sup>
To his father and his people :
" I do indeed clear myself
Of what ye worship :

٢٦ وَإِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ إِنَّنِي
بِرَاءٌ مِّمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ

27. " (I worship) only Him
Who made me, and He
Will certainly guide me."

٢٧ إِلَّا الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي فَإِنَّهُ سَيَهْدِينِ

4629. The Warner or apostle pointed out the merits and the truth of his teaching, and how superior it was to what they called their ancestral customs. But they denied his mission itself or the validity of any such mission. In other words they did not believe in inspiration or revelation, and went on in their evil ways, with the inevitable result that they brought themselves to destruction.

4630. The plea of ancestral ways is refuted by the example of Abraham, in two ways : (1) he gave up the ancestral cults followed by his father and his people, and followed the true Way, even at some sacrifice to himself ; and (2) he was an ancestor of the Arabs, and if the Arabs stood on ancestral ways, why should they not follow their good ancestor Abraham, rather than their bad ancestors who fell into evil ? See n. 4627 above. The incident in Abraham's story referred to here will be found in xxi. 51-70,

God. Did they witness
Their creation? Their evidence
Will be recorded, and they
Will be called to account!

إِنَّا أَشْهَدُ وَأَخْلَقَهُمْ سُبُّكَ شَهِدَتُهُمْ
وَيُسْأَلُونَ

20. (" ~~Al~~ h!") they say, "If
It had been the Will<sup>4625</sup>
Of (God) Most Gracious,
We should not have
Worshipped such (deities)!"
Of that they have
No knowledge! They
Do nothing but lie!<sup>4626</sup>

٢٥ وَقَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ الرَّحْمَنُ مَا عَبَدْنَاهُمْ مَالَهُ
بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا يَخْرُصُونَ

21. What! have We given them
A Book before this,
To which they are
Holding fast?

٢٦ أَمْ آتَيْنَاهُمْ كِتَابًا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَهُمْ بِهِ
سُتَبْرِكُونَ

22. Nay! they say: "We found<sup>4627</sup>
Our fathers following
A certain religion,
And we do guide ourselves
By their footsteps."

٢٧ بَلْ قَالُوا لَوْ لَمْ نَجِدْنَا آبَاءَنَا عَلَىٰ أُمَّةٍ وَإِنَّا
عَلَىٰ آثَرِهِمْ مُتَّبِعُونَ

23. Just in the same way,
Whenever We sent a Warner
Before thee to any people,
The wealthy ones among them<sup>4628</sup>
Said: "We found our fathers
Following a certain religion,
And we will certainly
Follow in their footsteps."

٢٨ وَكَذَلِكَ مَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِّنْ
نَّذِيرٍ إِلَّا قَالَ مُتْرَفُوهَا إِنَّا وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا عَلَىٰ
أُمَّةٍ وَإِنَّا عَلَىٰ آثَرِهِمْ مُّقْتَدُونَ

4625. Worsted in argument they resort to a dishonest sarcasm. 'We worship these deities: if God does not wish us to do so, why does He not prevent us?' In throwing the responsibility on God, they ignore the limited free-will on which their whole life is based. They are really playing with truth. They are arguing against their own knowledge. They have no authority in any scripture, and indeed they are so slippery that they hold fast to no scripture at all.

4626. C/. vi. 116.

4627. Then comes the argument about ancestral custom, which was repudiated by Abraham (see verses 26-28 below). Indeed a good reply to ancestral custom in the case of the Arabs was the example of Abraham, the True in Faith, for Abraham was the common ancestor of the Arabs and the Israelites.

4628. It is some privileged position, and not ancestral custom, which is really at the bottom of much falsehood and hypocrisy in the world. This has been seen again and again in religious history.

15. Yet they attribute <sup>4620</sup>
To some of His servants
A share with Him
(In His godhead) !
Truly is man a blasphemous
Ingrate avowed !

وَجَعَلُوا لِمِنْ عِبَادِهِ مِنْ جُزْءِ مَا
الْإِنْسَانُ لَكَفُورٌ مُبِينٌ

SECTION 2.

16. ~~What~~ hat ! Has He taken <sup>4621</sup>
Daughters out of what He Himself creates, and granted
To you sons for choice ?

أَمْ آتَّخَذَ مَا يَخْلُقُ بَنَاتٍ وَأَصْفَاكُمْ
بِالْبَنِينَ

17. When news is brought <sup>4622</sup>
To one of them of (the birth
Of) what he sets up
As a likeness to (God)
Most Gracious, his face
Darkens, and he is filled
With inward grief !

وَإِذَا بَشِيرٌ أَحَدُهُمْ بِمَا ضَرَبَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ مَثَلًا
ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسَوِّدًا وَهُوَ كَاظِمٌ

18. Is then one brought up <sup>4623</sup>
Among trinkets, and unable
To give a clear account
In a dispute (to be Associated with God) ?

أَوْ مِنْ يَنْشُرُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ وَهُوَ فِي
الْخِصَامِ غَيْرُ مُبِينٍ

19. And they make into females
Angels who themselves serve <sup>4624</sup>

وَجَعَلُوا الْمَلَائِكَةَ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عِبَادُ الرَّحْمَنِ

4620. As a contrast to the men of true understanding are the ungrateful blasphemous creatures, who offer a share in godhead to others besides God ! They imagine sons and daughters to God, and forget the true lesson of the whole of Creation, which points to the Unity of God. This theme is further developed in the following Section.

4621. To imagine goddesses (female gods) or mothers or daughters to God was particularly blasphemous in the mouths of people who held the female sex in contempt. Such were the pagan Arabs, and such (it is to be feared) are some of the moderns. They wince when a daughter is born to them and hanker after sons. With that mentality, how can they attribute daughters to God ?

4622. Cf. xvi. 57-59 and notes. With scathing irony it is pointed out that what they hate and are ashamed of for themselves they attribute to God !

4623. The softer sex is usually brought up among trinkets and ornaments, and, on account of the retiring modesty which for the sex is a virtue, is unable to stand up boldly in a fight and give clear indications of the will to win. Is that sort of quality to be associated with God ?

4624. Angels for grace and purity may be compared to the most graceful and the purest forms we know. But it is wrong to attribute sex to them. They are servants and messengers of God and so far from being rivals seeking worship, are always engaged in devotion and service. If any persons invent blasphemies about God, such blasphemies will form a big blot in their Book of Deeds, and they will be called to account for them.

Could never have accomplished
This (by ourselves),

4614. In due measure : i.e., according to needs, as measured by local as well as universal considerations. This applies to normal rainfall : floods and droughts are abnormal conditions, and may be called unusual manifestations of His power, fulfilling some special purpose that we may or may not understand.

4615. The clause 'And We raise...(from the dead)' is parenthetical. Cf. xxxv. 9, n. 3881. Note the transition from the third to the first person, to mark the Resurrection as a special act of God as distinguished from the ordinary processes of nature ordained by God.

4616. Cf. n. 2578 to xx. 53. Also see xxxvi. 36, n. 3981.

4617. By analogy all means of transport, including horses, camels, ships, steamers, railways, aeroplanes, airships, etc. The domestication of animals as well as the invention of mechanical means of transport require a skill and ingenuity in man, which are referred to God as His gifts or endowments to man.

4618. See last note. People of understanding attribute all good to its true and original source viz. : God.

4619. Men of understanding, every time they take a journey on earth, are reminded of that more momentous journey which they are taking on the back of Time to Eternity. Have they tamed Time to their lawful use, or do they allow Time to run away with them wildly to where they know not? Their goal is God, and their thoughts are ever with God.

7. And never came there
A prophet to them
But they mocked him.

8. So We destroyed (them)—
Stronger in power than these;—
And (thus) has passed on<sup>4609</sup>
The Parable of the peoples
Of old.

9. If thou wert
To question them, ' Who created
The heavens and the earth ? ' <sup>4610</sup>
They would be sure to reply,
' They were created by (Him),
The Exalted in Power,
Full of Knowledge ' ;—<sup>4611</sup>

10. (Yea, the same that) <sup>4612</sup>
Has made for you
The earth (like a carpet) <sup>4613</sup>
Spread out, and has made
For you roads (and channels)
Therein, in order that ye
May find guidance (on the way);

(From time to time)

٧ وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ نَبِيٍّ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ

الْأَوَّلِينَ

٩ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ

لَيَقُولَنَّ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِالْعِزِّ الْعَلِيِّ

١٠ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَجَعَلَ

لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ

١١ وَالَّذِي نَزَّلَ

4609. The result of rebellion was destruction. And the pagan Meccan generation contemporary with the Prophet are reminded that the peoples of old who were destroyed were, many of them, more powerful than they, and that they, in disobeying God's Law, were inviting the same fate for themselves. The events of the past have become Parables for the present and the future.

4610. C/, xxix. 61 and n. 3493; and xxxi. 25 and n. 3613. This class of men acknowledge God's Power and God's Knowledge or Wisdom, but do not realise God's infinite Mercy and care for His creatures.

4611. Note the beautiful rhetorical figure of speech here. The reply of the inconsistent men who do not follow God's Law is turned against themselves. When they acknowledge God's Power and Knowledge, their speech is interrupted, and the concomitant qualities of God's Mercy and care of His creatures, with pointed reference to the inconsistent ones themselves, is set out in eloquent terms, as completing what they themselves had said, and the right course of conduct is pointed out to them (verses 10-14).

4612. See last note.

4613. C/, xx. 53 and n. 2576. Mihād, a carpet or bed spread out, implies not only freedom of movement but rest also. The 'roads and channels' carry out the idea of communications and include land routes, sea routes, and airways.

4606. Cf. iii. 7, n. 347; and xiii. 39, n. 1864. The Mother of the Book, the Foundation of Revelation, the Preserved Tablet (Lauh Mahfūz, lxxxv. 22), is the core or essence of revelation, the original principle or fountain-head of God's Eternal and Universal Law. From this fountain-head are derived all streams of knowledge and wisdom, that flow through Time and feed the intelligence of created minds. The Mother of the Book is in God's own Presence, and its dignity and wisdom are more than all we can think of in the spiritual world.

4607. In vouchsafing Revelation, what an inestimable Mercy has God conferred on mankind! Yet so many deluded souls are ungrateful, and ignore or oppose its teaching. If it were not for His attributes of Forgiveness and Forbearing He would be justified in withdrawing that Light, but He continues to shed it, that all who will may come and be blessed by it.

4608. In spite of, or because of, man's obstinate and rebellious nature, God sent prophet after prophet to the peoples of old, but there was among them always a party that ridiculed them and treated God's Signs as naught.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLIII (Zukhruf)

This is the fourth Sūra of the Hā-Mīm series of seven Sūras. For their chronology and general theme see the Introduction to S. xl.

This Sūra deals with the contrasts between the real glory of Truth and Revelation and the false glitter of what people like to believe and worship. It cites the examples of Abraham, Moses, and Jesus, as exposing the False and holding up the Truth. The key-word (Zukhruf, Gold Adornments) occurs in verse 38, but the idea occurs all through the Sūra.

Summary.—The Book of Revelation makes things clear, even though the ignorant and foolish mock at it and ignore God's Signs : it will last, while its rejecters will perish (xlili. 1-25, and C. 213).

Abraham exposed the falsehood of traditional worship : the glitter and adornments of this world will not last : what was the end of Pharaoh in his arrogant fight with Moses ? (xlili. 26-56, and C. 214).

Jesus was a servant of God, but his sectarian followers raised false disputations about him : all is known to God, Whose Truth will shine, in spite of unfaith (xlili. 57-89, and C. 215).

C. 213.—Revelation makes ever-lasting Truths
(xlili. 1-25.) Clear : those who mock merely undo themselves.
Consider the Signs of God's gracious kindness
Around you, and glorify Him : attribute not
Unworthy qualities nor any companions
To the One True God. Seek Truth in worship
More than mere ancestral ways,
And shut not out Revelation's Light.

Inspiration to thee:
 Thou knewest not (before) <sup>4601</sup>
 What was Revelation, and
 What was Faith; but We
 Have made the (Qur-an)
 A Light, wherewith We
 Guide such of Our servants
 As We will; and verily
 Thou dost guide (men) <sup>4602</sup>
 To the Straight Way,—

53. The Way of God, <sup>4603</sup>
 To Whom belongs
 Whatever is in the heavens
 And whatever is on earth.
 Behold (how) all affairs
 Tend towards God!

رُوحًا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا مَا كُنْتَ تَدْرِي مَا الْكِتَابُ
 وَلَا الْإِيمَانُ وَلَكِنْ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُورًا تَهْدِي
 بِهِ عَمَّنْ نَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا وَإِنَّكَ لَهْدَى إِلَى
 صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

③ صِرَاطُ اللَّهِ الَّذِي لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ
 وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ يُصِيرُ الْأُمُورَ

4601. Before the receipt of his mission in his fortieth year, the holy Prophet, though a man of steadfast virtue and purity and undinching in his search for Truth (see C. 22-23), was yet unacquainted with Revelation in the highest sense of the term, and with the certainty that comes from perfected Faith, or realised nearness to God. Rab, which I have here translated Inspiration has also been understood by some Commentators to refer to the angel Gabriel, the vehicle of Revelation. The Light of the Qur-an made all things clear to man, and to the world.

4602. The Qur-an and the Inspired Prophet who proclaimed it, are here identified. They were a Guide to men, showing the Straight Way. This Way is described in various ways; for example, see i. 6, and n. 22; xviii. 1-2, and notes 2326-27; and xc. 11-18.

4603. The most comprehensive description of the Straight Way is that it is the Way of God, the Way of the Universal Law; for God is the source, centre, and goal of all things in heaven and earth. Everything goes back to Him. According to our own understanding we make our own laws, our own standards, and our own institutions. But the ultimate test of their validity or authority is God's Will, as revealed to us by His Revelation.

(Children) male or female
According to His Will (and Plan),

وَيَهَبُ لِمَن يَشَاءُ الذَّكَورَ

50. Or He bestows both males <sup>4596</sup>
And females, and He leaves
Barren whom He will :
For He is full
Of knowledge and power.

⑤ أَوْ ذُنُورَ جُحْدٍ ذُكْرًا وَانْثَاءً وَيَجْعَلُ مَن
يَشَاءُ عَقِيمًا إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ قَدِيرٌ

51. It is not fitting <sup>4597</sup>
For a man that God
Should speak to him
Except by inspiration, <sup>4598</sup>
Or from behind a veil, <sup>4599</sup>
Or by the sending
Of a Messenger <sup>4600</sup>
To reveal, with God's permission,
What God wills : for He Is Most High, Most Wise.

⑥ * وَمَا كَانَ لِبَشَرٍ أَنْ يُكَلِّمَهُ اللَّهُ
إِلَّا وَحْيًا أَوْ مِنْ وَرَائِ حِجَابٍ أَوْ رَسُولٌ رَسُولًا
فَيُوحِي بِإِذْنِهِ مِمَّا يَشَاءُ إِنَّهُ عَلَىٰ حَكِيمٍ

52. And thus have We,
By Our command, sent

⑦ وَكَذَٰلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ

4596. To parents themselves it is a mystery why a male or female child is given at any birth, or how the balance of the two sexes is made up in a family or in large groups of mankind, or why in some cases the womb is barren and the would-be parents are denied the joys and responsibilities of parenthood. But each individual human soul is precious in the Plan of God, and all these variations, besides their reactions on parents and on society, have a purpose to fulfil in the large Plan of God.

4597. This leads us on to the higher spiritual meaning of verses 49-50, as leading up to verses 51-53. Man is but a speck in God's creation. His growth and family relationships are not by any means comparable to God's creative acts, whose various stages are referred to in n. 120 to ii, 117, n. 916 to vi, 94, and n. 923 to vi, 98. That being so in the mysteries of man's daily life, how much more profound is the contrast between man and God in the apprehension of the higher spiritual problems concerned with Revelation? How can man be fit to speak to God? He is not fit. But there are three ways in which God, in His infinite Mercy, communicates with man, as described in verses 51-53.

4598. God is Most High, Most Wise; man is, in spite of his high destiny, often the lowest of the low (xcv. 5). Yet God, out of His infinite Mercy and Grace, has bestowed His revelation on man. How does it come about? Three ways are mentioned; (1) Wahyun, Inspiration; (2) from behind a veil; and (3) by the sending of a Messenger: see the notes following.

Wahyun, Inspiration, is interpreted to be of two kinds: (1) a suggestion thrown by God into the heart or mind of man, by which man understands the substance of the Message, whether it is a command or prohibition, or an explanation of a great truth; and (2) verbal or literal inspiration, by which the actual words of God are conveyed in human language. Orthodox opinion admits the existence of both kinds, though the latter ("recited", matlū) is held to be of a superior degree, only vouchsafed to the greater Prophets, while the former ("other than recited", gair-matlū) may be given not only to the greater Prophets but to other men of spiritual insight who have not attained the degree of Prophethood. If we accept the theory of verbal inspiration, it would also cover the Messages brought by the angel Gabriel: see n. 4600 below.

4599. Behind a veil: not of course a material veil, or screen, or Purdah, but the mystic Veil of Light, or 70,000 Veils of Light, for which see Appendix VIII to S. xxiv.

4600. Messenger: Rasūl: the angel Gabriel, through whom the revelations were given to the holy Prophet. These spiritual visions, conveying the message of Revelation, are the basis of the Qur-ān.

47. Hearken ye to your Lord,
Before there come a Day
Which there will be
No putting back, because <sup>4591</sup>
Of (the ordainment of) God!
That Day there will be
For you no place of refuge
Nor will there be for you
Any room for denial <sup>4592</sup>
(Of your sins)!

48. If then they turn away,
We have not sent thee
As a guard over them. <sup>4593</sup>
Thy duty is but to convey
(The Message). And truly,
When We give man
A taste of a Mercy <sup>4594</sup>
From ourselves, he doth
Exult thereat, but
When some ill happens
To him, on account
Of the deeds which
His hands have sent forth,
Truly then is man ungrateful!

49. No God belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth.
He creates what He wills <sup>4595</sup>
(And plans). He bestows

٤٧ ﴿أَسْمِعُوا لِلرَّبِّ كُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ
لَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَكُم مِّنْ تَجْلِيلٍ يُوسِذُ
وَمَا لَكُم مِّنْ تَكْوِينٍ﴾

٤٨ ﴿فَإِنَّا نَعْرِضُوهُنَّ لِمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ
حَفِيفًا إِنَّا عَلَىكَ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ فَإِنَّا إِذَا
أَذَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنَّا رَحْمَةً فَجَحَّ بِهَا وَان
تُصِبُّهُ سَيِّئَةٌ يَّمْلَأْ قَدَمَتَا يَدَيْهِ يَوْمَ فَإِنَّا
الْإِنْسَانَ كَفُورٌ﴾

٤٩ ﴿لِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَخْلُقُ
مَا يَشَاءُ يُهَيِّئُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ مِثْرًا﴾

4591. The Day of Judgment is inevitable. God has ordained it, and it cannot in any way be put back.

4592. At Judgment no one can escape the consequences of his crimes or deeds. And no one can disavow them or deny them, or by any chance pretend that they do not apply to him.

4593. The warning is now given, that men may repent and do good, and pray for God's Mercy and Grace. If the warning is not heeded or is rejected, the man of God is not responsible for bringing about the Penalty or for forcing people to come to the right Path. He is not a guard set over them to free them from the need of exercising their limited free-will.

4594. Cf. xxx. 36. It is a sad reflection that men, when they receive some gift out of God's Mercy, exult in their good fortune and attribute it to some merit in themselves, instead of to the Grace and Mercy of God, thus missing the real lesson of Life. On the other hand, when they are in trouble, due to their own errors and shortcomings, they fall into despair and blame God, instead of blaming themselves. This is rank ingratitude. So they miss the true lesson of Life in that case also.

4595. Verses 49-50 deal, in their ordinary meaning, with God's creative power, replete with knowledge and continued purpose, contrasted with man's instincts and gropings after knowledge. The mystery of sex and parenthood is referred to in a new light. With reference to children, a parent is often spoken of as the "author" of their being. The growth of population and the proportion of males and females in it have various sociological and psychological implications; yet how little do parents really know about them? The knowledge of science as regards the determination of sex in the embryo is practically nothing. Even if advancing knowledge threw light on what may be called the mechanical aspects of the question, the profounder problems touched by it are beyond the reach of man. Yet they are not governed by chance. God has a meaning and purpose in all things, and His power is complete to carry out His purpose.

SECTION 5.

44. For any whom God
Leaves astray, there is
No protector thereafter.
And thou wilt see
The wrong-doers, when
In sight of the Penalty,
Say : " Is there any way <sup>4587</sup>
(To effect) a return ? "

45. And thou wilt see them
Brought forward to the (Penalty),
In a humble frame of mind
Because of (their) disgrace, <sup>4588</sup>
(And) looking with a stealthy
Glance. And the Believers
Will say : " Those are indeed <sup>4589</sup>
In loss, who have given
To perdition their own selves
And those belonging to them
On the Day of Judgment.
Behold ! Truly the wrong-doers
Are in a lasting Penalty ! "

46. And no protectors have they <sup>4590</sup>
To help them,
Other than God.
And for any whom God
Leaves to stray, there is
No way (to the Goal).

٤٤ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ
وَتَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ لَمَّا رَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ
يَقُولُونَ هَلْ لَنَا مَرْجِعٌ مِنْ سَبِيلِ

٤٥ وَتَرَاهُمْ يُقْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا خَشِيعَاتٍ مِنَ
الذُّلِّ يَنْظُرُونَ مِنْ طَرْفٍ خَفِيٍّ وَقَالَ
الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَاتِ الْخَاسِرِينَ
الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ يَوْمَ
الْقِيَامَةِ الْإِنِ الظَّالِمِينَ فِي
عَذَابٍ مُقِيمٍ

٤٦ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءٍ يَنْصُرُونَهُمْ
مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ

4587. When the actual consequences of evil are in sight, the foolish sinner wishes that it were possible to get back to the life of probation. But he neglected or abused it and rejected God's Grace all the time. How can he then be restored to a closed chapter of his life?

4588. They were very arrogant in their probationary life. Now will they be humbled to the dust. And they will be in utter despair and misery. They will not be able to see the favours and good things of the other life (Cf. xx, 124-126). Even their misery, which will face them as a terrible Reality, they will only be able to look at askance, so thoroughly cowed will be their spirit.

4589. This will be their thought, and their realised experience : 'after all, any troubles and sorrows, any persecutions and taunts which they suffered in the life of probation from the enemies of truth, were of no consequence; the real loss was that revealed at the Judgment at the restoration of true values; the wicked and the arrogant, have lost their own souls, and have brought to perdition all who attached themselves to them and followed their evil ways; and this Penalty is one that will endure! How much more real it is!'

4590. The argument begun in verse 44 above is here rounded off. 'If once men finally cut themselves off from God's guidance and care, they will have no protection whatever. All their false objects of worship will only mislead them further and further. How they will wish the fact blotted out when they are in sight of Judgment, and vainly wish for time to be reversed! They will be in the Fire, while the men whom they despised and rejected will have reached the final Goal! For them there will be no such way!'

His reward is due<sup>4582</sup>
From God : for (God)
Loveth not those who
Do wrong.<sup>4583</sup>

فَأَجْرُهُ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنْ لَمْ يَأْتِ
الْفَالِغِينَ

41. But indeed if any do help
And defend themselves
After a wrong (done)
To them, against such<sup>4584</sup>
There is no cause
Of blame.

وَلَمْ يَأْتِ أَنْصَرَ بَعْدَ ظُلْمِهِ فَأُولَئِكَ
مَاعَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ

42. The blame is only<sup>4585</sup>
Against those who oppress
Men with wrong-doing
And insolently transgress
Beyond bounds through the land,
Defying right and justice :
For such there will be
A Penalty grievous.

إِنَّمَا السَّبِيلُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ يَظْلِمُونَ
النَّاسَ وَيَبْغُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ
أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

43. But indeed if any Show patience and forgive,<sup>4586</sup>
That would truly be
An exercise of courageous will
And resolution in the conduct
Of affairs.

وَلَكِنْ صَبْرٌ وَغَفْرٌ ذَلِكَ كَيْفَ
عَزَّ الْأُمُورُ

4582. To love God is the highest motive of our conduct, for it leads to the love of God's creatures; to win the approbation and love of God, is the highest reward, far transcending any compensation or satisfaction we can obtain in this life.

4583. God does not love those who do wrong. If, therefore, we tolerate wrong, or encourage wrong by allowing it to run rampant when we can prevent it, we fail in our duty to God.

4584. Such people are not to be blamed, though they are following the lower law. The blame is on those who arrogantly ride rough-shod over the land, oppressing people with grievous wrong. See next verse.

4585. The fact that men seek the lower rather than the higher Law is itself a result of arrogant wrong-doing, of which the type was the Pharaoh who claimed to be "your Lord Most High" and oppressed the Israelites, and kept his own people under slavery and subjection, and the false glamour of magic and deception.

4586. It is harder to be patient and forgive, and yet to get wrongs righted, as was done by the holy Prophet, than to bluster about and "punish the guilty" or "teach them lessons". It may look like futility or lack of purpose, but in reality it is the highest and noblest form of courage and resolution. And it may carry out the purpose of reform and the suppression of evil even better than stern punishment. The gentleness of innocence often "persuades where stronger measures fail." But of course circumstances alter cases, and there is some allowance also to be made for the personal equation of the men you have to deal with; in some cases severity may be called for, but it should be from a strict judicial motive, and not merely from personal anger or spite or any lower motive in disguise.

Regular prayer ; who (conduct)
Their affairs by mutual
Consultation ; <sup>4579</sup>
Who spend out of what
We bestow on them
For Sustenance ;

الضَّلَاةَ وَأَمْرُهُمْ شُورَى بَيْنَهُمْ وَمِمَّا
رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ

39. And those who, when
An oppressive wrong is inflicted
On them, (are not cowed
But) help and defend themselves. <sup>4580</sup>

وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَصَابَهُمُ الْبَغْيُ هُمْ
يَنْصُرُونَ

40. The recompense for an injury
Is an injury equal thereto <sup>4581</sup>
(In degree) : but if a person
Forgives and makes reconciliation,

وَجَزَاءُ سَيِّئَةٍ سَيِّئَةٌ مِثْلُهَا فَمَنْ عَفَا
وَأَصْلَحَ

4579. "Consultation." This is the key-word of the Sūra, and suggests the ideal way in which a good man should conduct his affairs, so that, on the one hand, he may not become too egotistical, and, on the other, he may not lightly abandon the responsibilities which devolve on him as a Personality whose development counts in the sight of God. See the points in head (7) under n. 4578 above. This principle was applied to its fullest extent by the holy Prophet in his private and public life, and was fully acted upon by the early rulers of Islam. Modern representative government is an attempt—by no means perfect—to apply this principle in State affairs. See my Religious Polity of Islam.

4580. This follows from the high value attached to an individual soul's Personality in Islam. Cf. last note. There are four possible situations that may arise : an individual may have to stand up against an oppressor (1) for his own trampled rights, or (2) for the rights of others within his ken ; or (3) a community may have similarly to stand up for its own rights collectively ; or (4) for the rights of others. Nos. 2, 3, and 4 are considered highly meritorious for all, though few have the courage or the spirit to rise to so high a standard. No. 1 is specially liable to abuse on account of man's selfishness ; Nos. 2, 3, and 4 are also abused by men pretending to motives of public good when they are serving their own personal interests or idiosyncracies ; hence the qualifications mentioned in the next four verses and the notes thereto.

4581. See last note. When you stand up for rights, either on private or public grounds, it may be through processes of law, or by way of private defence in so far as the law permits private action. But in all cases you must not seek a compensation greater than the injury suffered. The most you can do is to demand equal redress, i.e., a harm equivalent to the harm done to you. Even this may serve to curb your unregenerate soul, or a community bent on revenge. But the ideal mode is not to slake your thirst for vengeance, but to follow better ways leading to the reform of the offender or his reconciliation. See xli, 34, and xxiii, 96. You can take steps to prevent repetition, by physical or moral means ; the best moral means would be to turn hatred into friendship by forgiveness and love. In that case the compensation or reward (if we must use such terms) is infinitely greater, for it wins the good pleasure of God.

But this active righting of wrongs, whether by physical or by moral or spiritual means, which are commended as better, is an antithesis to the monkish doctrine, when you are smitten on one cheek, to turn the other also. This would not suppress, but encourage wrong-doing. It is practised by none but poltroons, and is preached only by hypocrites, or men who want to make slaves of others by depriving them of the power of self-defence. It occurs in two of the four canonical Gospels (Matt. v. 39, and Luke vi. 29), but we need not therefore assume that it was preached by Jesus.

35. But let those know, who<sup>4574</sup>
Dispute about Our Signs,
That there is for them
No way of escape.

وَيَعْلَمُ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا
مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مَخْرَجٍ

36. Whatever ye are given (here)
Is (but) a convenience<sup>4575</sup>
Of this Life : but that
Which is with God
Is better and more lasting :
(It is) for those who believe<sup>4576</sup>
And put their trust
In their Lord ;

فَمَا أَوْفَيْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَّعِ الْحَيَاةَ
الْذِيئَا وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْوَى
لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَلَى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ

37. Those who avoid the greater<sup>4577</sup>
Crimes and shameful deeds,
And, when they are angry
Even then forgive ;

وَالَّذِينَ يَحْتَنِبُونَ كَبِيرَ الْإِثْمِ
وَالْفَوَاحِشَ وَإِذَا مَا غَضِبُوا هُمْ يَغْفِرُونَ

38. Those who hearken<sup>4578</sup>
To their Lord, and establish

وَالَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا

4574. If we treat God's Signs in the wrong spirit, i.e., contumaciously reject them or constantly dispute about them instead of trying to understand them, we are told that such tactics will avail us nothing : we cannot escape the consequences of our sins. The only way to escape is by repentance on our part and the grant of mercy by God.

4575. Any good (or ill) which is our lot is only a temporary phase to serve the convenience of this life. But there is a higher good, which comes from God's own Presence. Such good is both superior in quality, and more permanent. In the same way, any ill that we may suffer in this life, have reference only to the conditions of this our life of probation. The ill that we "earn" in our spiritual Life—such as deprivation of God's Grace—are far more momentous and permanent.

4576. The higher and more permanent gifts which come from God's Presence are for those who truly worship and serve God. These are described by nine of their characteristics : viz. (1) they have Faith; and it follows that (2) they trust in God, instead of running after false standards or values; (3) they eschew the more serious offences against God's Law, and of course keep clear of any offences against sex ("shameful deeds"); (4) while knowing that they are not themselves perfect, they are ready to forgive others, even though they are sorely tried with anger and provocation; for the rest see n. 4578

4577. Here we are speaking of the ordinary man or woman who tries to follow God's Law: he or she is not perfect, but at least eschews the major breaches of conduct. For those higher in spiritual degree there is of course a stricter standard. But all are entitled to the blessing of Islam, whatever their degree.

4578. Continuing the enumeration of the characteristics described in n. 4576 above, we have the following further qualities in those who wish to serve God. (5) They are ready at all times to hearken to God's Signs, or to listen to the admonitions of men of God, and to follow the true Path, as they understand it; (6) they keep personal contact with God, by habits of Prayer and Praise; (7) their conduct in life is open and determined by mutual Consultation between those who are entitled to a voice, e.g., in private domestic affairs, as between husband and wife, or other responsible members of the household; in affairs of business, as between partners or parties interested; and in State affairs, as between rulers and ruled, or as between different departments of administration, to preserve the unity of administration; (8) they do not forget Charity, or the help due to their weaker brethren, out of the wealth or gifts or talents or opportunities, which God has provided for themselves; and (9) when other people use them spitefully, they are not cowed down or terrorised into submission and acceptance of evil, but stand up for their rights within the limits mentioned in verse 40.

Of the things your hands <sup>4570</sup>
Have wrought, and for many
(Of them) He grants forgiveness.

31. Nor can ye frustrate (aught),
(Fleeing) through the earth; <sup>4571</sup>
Nor have ye, besides God,
Any one to protect
Or to help.

32. And among His Signs
Are the ships, smooth-running <sup>4572</sup>
Through the ocean, (tall)
As mountains.

33. If it be His Will,
He can still the Wind:
Then would they become
Motionless on the back
Of the (ocean). Verily
In this are Signs
For everyone who patiently <sup>4573</sup>
Perseveres and is grateful.

34. Or He can cause them
To perish because of
The (evil) which (the men)
Have earned; but much
Doth He forgive.

كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَيَعْفُوا عَنْ كَثِيرٍ

⑤ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ

⑥ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ الْجَوَارِ فِي الْبَحْرِ كَالْأَعْلَامِ

⑦ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُسْكِنِ الرِّيحَ فَيَظْلَلْنَ
رَوَاقِدَ عَلَى ظَهْرِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ
لِكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ

⑧ أَوْ يُوقِعْهُنَّ يَا كَسَبُوا وَيَعْفُ عَنْ
كَثِيرٍ

4570. All evil, all sorrow, all pain and affliction, are things not normal, things twisted from the pure and holy nature as created by God's hands. As far as man is concerned, his misfortunes are but the consequences of the things he has done. He must bear personal responsibility for them and not throw the blame on others.

4571. Every evil deed or word or thought must have its evil consequences; but if God forgives anything,—and He forgives much,—let no one imagine that he has defeated—or can defeat—God's Will or Plan. The only help or protection that is possible is from God. Cf. xxix 22.

4572. The great and stately ships are appealed to again and again as being among the Signs of God, from many aspects. The aspect referred to here is how the great sailing ship runs prosperously as long as "the breath of heaven fills the sail", and what a miserable helpless creature she becomes when she once becomes becalmed. Students of English literature will remember the striking picture which Coleridge draws in his "Rime of the Ancient Mariner." The becalmed ship is as it were in the grip of Death because of the crime which the sailor had committed, and his mind feels psychologically the full force of the Sign. By analogy we can apply this to other craft: the steamer is not free from other dangers of the sea, nor air-craft from numerous dangers of the air.

4573. If we study such Signs in the right spirit, we learn the highest lessons for our spiritual life: on the one hand, patient perseverance with reliance on God, and on the other, a feeling or attitude of grateful thanks to God, that he enables us to achieve so much in spite of our shortcomings, and forgives in us so much that deserves punishment and disaster.

Given up all hope,<sup>4567</sup>
And scatters His Mercy
(Far and wide). And He Is the Protector, Worthy
Of all Praise.

مَا قَطُّوْا وَيَنْشُرْ رَحْمَتَهُ وَهُوَ الْوَلِيُّ
الْحَمِيدُ

29. And among His Signs
Is the creation of
The heavens and the earth,
And the living creatures<sup>4568</sup>
That He has scattered
Through them:<sup>4569</sup> and He
Has power to gather them
Together when He wills.

② وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَمَا بَيْنَ فِيهِنَّ مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَهُوَ عَلَى جَمْعِهِمْ
إِذَا يَشَاءُ قَدِيرٌ

C. 212.—What we call the ills of life is due
(xlii. 30-53.) To our own ill-deeds, and many of them
Are forgiven by God. His Plan can never
Be frustrated. This Life is but a stage
Of convenience: live true and resist
All wrong, but learn the best way to do so.
On God rely; else no protector
Will you find. God's Revelation
Comes as a Guide and Mercy: it shows
The Straight Way, the Way of God All-Wise.

SECTION 4.

30. ~~What~~ Whatever misfortune
Happens to you, is because

③ وَمَا أَصَابَكُمْ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فِيمَا

4567. That men should get such a blessing as rain when they expect it according to ordinary calculations of probabilities does not impress them, as it is a daily occurrence. But God's mercy is more than this. It comes to our aid even when all hope is lost, and gives us new chances and new openings where we least expect them. His quality of cherishing and protecting His creatures is always active, and what higher praise can we give?

4568. Dābbatun: beasts, living, crawling creatures of all kinds: see n 166 to ll. 164. Similarly in xxiv. 45, and other passages, the word is used for living creatures of all kinds, life generally, whose material basis is the mysterious thing which science calls protoplasm. The more our biological knowledge increases, the more do we marvel at the unity of Life on the one hand, and its diversity on the other.

4569. Life is not confined to our one little Planet. It is a very old speculation to imagine some life-like human life on the planet Mars. Though no scientific demonstration is possible, it is reasonable to suppose that Life in some form or other is scattered through some of the millions of heavenly bodies scattered through space. What a wonderful Sign of God! The Almighty Who created such countless beings has surely the power to bring them together.

Thy heart. And God
Blots out Vanity, and proves
The Truth by His Words.
For He knows well
The secrets of all hearts.

عَلَى قَلْبِكَ وَيَمْحُ اللَّهُ الْبَاطِلَ وَيُخَوِّدُ الْحَقَّ
بِكَلِمَاتِهِ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

25. He is the One that accepts <sup>4561</sup>
Repentance from His Servants
And forgives sins :
And He knows all
That ye do,

⑤ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهِ
وَيَعْفُو عَنِ السَّيِّئَاتِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ

26. And He listens to <sup>4564</sup>
Those who believe and
Do deeds of righteousness,
And gives them increase
Of His Bounty : but
For the Unbelievers there is
A terrible Penalty.

⑥ وَيَسْتَجِيبُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ وَيَزِيدُهُمْ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
وَالْكَافِرُونَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ

27. If God were to enlarge <sup>4565</sup>
The provision for His Servants,
They would indeed transgress
Beyond all bounds
Through the earth ;
But He sends (it) down
In due measure
As He pleases. <sup>4566</sup>
For He is with His Servants
Well-acquainted, Watchful.

⑦ * وَلَوْ بَسَطَ اللَّهُ الرِّزْقَ لِعِبَادِهِ لَبَغَوْا فِي
الْأَرْضِ وَلَٰكِنْ يَنْزِلُ بِقَدَرٍ مَّا يَشَاءُ
إِنَّهُ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ

28. He is the One that sends down
Rain (even) after (men) have

⑧ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُنْزِلُ الْغَيْثَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ

4563. Whatever the sin, God's Mercy is open to sincere Repentance, at all times, until the degree of condemnation issues.

4564. To the prayers of the righteous He listens, and He gives them of His Bounty beyond their deserts. Every time they do a little good, they are increased in their goodness. Every right impulse or aspiration is strengthened and leads to progressive spiritual advancement.

4565. It may be objected that all prayers, even of good people, are not answered. The reply is : (1) that even everyone who is good does not necessarily know what is best for him, for the values in this life are curiously distorted ; and (2) on account of their want of knowledge, if everyone got all he asked for, there would be chaos and confusion, and " transgression beyond bounds through the earth ", for the different interests are so intermingled and balanced that some measure must be observed in granting people's wishes. This measure is best supplied by the watchful care of God and His perfect knowledge of all our real needs.

4566 "As He pleases" is here almost equivalent to "as He thinks best".

They have earned, and (the burden
Of) that must (necessarily)
Fall on them. But those
Who believe and work
Righteous deeds will be
In the luxuriant meads <sup>4558</sup>
Of the Gardens: they shall
Have, before their Lord,
All that they wish for.
That will indeed be
The magnificent Bounty
(Of God).

23. That is (the Bounty) whereof <sup>4559</sup>
God gives Glad Tidings
To His Servants who
Believe and do righteous deeds.
Say: "No reward do I
Ask of you for this
Except the love
Of those near of kin." <sup>4560</sup>
And if any one earns
Any good, We shall give
Him an increase of good
In respect thereof: for God
Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready <sup>4561</sup>
To appreciate (service).

24. ~~What~~ hat! Do they say,
"He has forged a falsehood
Against God"? But if God
Willed, He could seal up <sup>4562</sup>

كَسَبُوا وَهُوَ وَاَقْعُ بِهِمُ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فِي رَوْضَاتِ الْجَنَّاتِ لَهُمْ
مَا يَشَاءُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ

③ ذَلِكَ الَّذِي يُبَشِّرُ اللَّهَ عِبَادَهُ الَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ قُلْ
لَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا إِلَّا الْمَوَدَّةَ فِي الْقُرْبَىٰ
وَمَنْ يَتَرَفَّحْ حَسَنَةً تَزِدْ لَهُ فِيهَا حُسْنًا إِنَّ
اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ

④ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا فَاِنْ
يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ يُخَذِّبَهُ

4558. In contrast with the withering terror of the wrong-doers is the ease and rational happiness of those who do good "On them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve" (ii. 38). Their wills will have been purified, and they shall have all that they shall desire, "before their Lord". That is, their highest Bliss will be the sight of their Lord. No higher Bounty can they wish for.

4559. Heaven may be pictured to our minds in various forms. This is one of the highest, and God announces it freely to the righteous.

4560. No sort of tangible reward does the man of God ask for, proclaiming the Glad Tidings of God. But at least he has the right to ask that his kith and kin should not persecute him and put all sorts of obstacles in his way, as did the Quraish against the holy Prophet. The love of kindred may be extended to mean the love of our common humanity, for all mankind are brothers descended from Adam. Everyone can understand the ordinary love of kindred. Can we not extend the idea to a mystical meaning of Love for all mankind, thus proving kinship with the divine Love, which in the story of Joseph is figured by the earthly love between the sexes?

4561. Cf. xxxv. 29-30, and notes 3915 (for increase) and 3917 (for God's appreciation of service).

4562. If any one has a doubt about a prophet's mission, let him look at the prophet's life, at his work, at his character. God loves Truth, not Falsehood. God's aid goes with Truth, not with Falsehood. The beauty and power of God's Word cannot be found in Falsehood. The false man's heart would be sealed, not expanded to new heights, as is that of the Message-bearer of God.

He gives Sustenance<sup>4554</sup>
To whom He pleases ;
And He has Power
And can carry out
His Will.

يَرْزُقُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْقَوِيُّ الْعَزِيزُ

SECTION 3.

20. Who any that desires
The tilth of the Hereafter,
We give increase
In his tilth ; and to any
That desires the tilth
Of this world, We grant
Somewhat thereof, but he<sup>4555</sup>
Has no share or lot
In the Hereafter.

② مَنْ كَانَ يُدِيرُ خَرْبَ الْآخِرَةِ نَزِدْ لَهُ فِي
خَرْبِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ كَانَ يُدِيرُ خَرْبَ الدُّنْيَا نُؤْتِهِ
مِنْهَا وَمَالَهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنْ نَصِيبٍ

21. What! Have they partners<sup>4556</sup>
(In godhead), who have Established for them some
Religion without the permission
Of God? Had it not
Been for the Decree
Of Judgment, the matter
Would have been decided
Between them (at once).
But verily the wrong-doers
Will have a grievous Penalty.

③ أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ شَرَعُوا لَهُمُ الدِّينَ
مَا لَمْ يَأْذَنْ بِهِ اللَّهُ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةُ الْفَصْلِ
لَفُتِنَ بِهِمْ ۚ وَلِلَّهِ الظَّالِمِينَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

22. Thou wilt see the wrong-doers<sup>4557</sup>
In fear on account of what

④ تَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا

4554. Sustenance, i.e., provision for all needs, physical, moral, spiritual, etc. "To whom He pleases" is not restrictive, but modal. 'God provides for all, but His provision is according to His wise Will and Plan, and not according to people's extravagant demands.' He can provide for all, because He has complete power and can carry out His Will. A further comment will be found in the next verse.

4555. The parable is from the efforts of the husbandman, who ploughs and prepares the soil, sows the seed, weeds in due season, and reaps the harvest. You reap as you sow. But God will add manifold advantages for spiritual tilth. To those who are only engrossed in the vanities of this world, something may accrue in this world, but the spiritual world is closed to them.

4556. Nothing can exist without the permission of God. Can people, who indulge in false worship say : "Why does God permit it?" The answer is : "a certain latitude is allowed with the grant of a limited form of free-will. When the time for Judgment comes, the Punishment is sure." See n. 1810 to xiii 6. Decree (or Word) of Judgment : See n. 1407 to x. 19.

4557. The chief feature of the punishment of wrong-doing is that the minds of the wrong-doers are haunted with terror on account of their own guilty conscience. They cannot possibly escape the weight of that terror.

16. But those who dispute
Concerning God after He
Has been accepted, —<sup>4549</sup>
Futile is their dispute
In the sight of
Their Lord: on them
Is Wrath, and for them
Will be a Penalty
Terrible.

17. It is God Who has
Sent down the Book in truth,
And the Balance<sup>4550</sup>
(By which to weigh conduct).
And what will make thee
Realise that perhaps the Hour
Is close at hand?

18. Only those wish to<sup>4551</sup>
Hasten it who believe not
In it: those who believe
Hold it in awe,
And know that it is
The Truth. Behold, verily
Those that dispute concerning
The Hour are far astray.

19. Gracious is God<sup>4552</sup>
To His servants: <sup>4553</sup>

وَالَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي اللَّهِ مِنْ
بَعْدِ مَا اسْتَجِيبَ لَهُ نَجْمُهُمْ دَاخِضَةٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ
وَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ

اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ وَالْمِيزَانَ
وَمَا يَذِّرُكَ لَعَلَّ السَّاعَةَ قَرِيبٌ

يَسْتَعْجِلُ بِهَا الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهَا وَالَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا مُشْفِقُونَ مِنْهَا وَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّهَا الْحَقُّ
الْآنَ الَّذِينَ يُمَارُونَ فِي السَّاعَةِ لَافٍ
ضَلَالٍ بَعِيدٍ
اللَّهُ لَطِيفٌ بِعِبَادِهِ

4549. After He has been accepted. The disputants are the Unbelievers who pugnaciously assault the minds of Believers after the Believers have by conviction accepted Faith in God as leading to spiritual Light. Such disputation is futile. An inner spiritual experience can never be shaken by dialectical assaults. On the contrary such disputations recoil on the heads of those who indulge in them. God's Wrath is on them in this life, and the terrible Penalty of the Hereafter must inevitably follow their evil plots against Truth.

4550. Revelation is like a balance, an instrument placed by God in our hands, by which we can weigh all moral issues, all questions of right and wrong in conduct. We must do so constantly. For the Judgment in any given case may come at any time: it may be quite near, and we must always be prepared. The Balance may also refer to the God-given faculty by which man can judge between right and wrong.

4551. The Unbelievers do not believe in Judgment and laugh at it. They say defiantly, "If there is to be a punishment, let it come at once!" The threefold answer to this will be found in n. 1810 to xiii. 6. With those who believe, the case is different. They know that the Hereafter is an awful Reality, and prepare for it. They see clearly on what a wrong track the scoffers are!

4552. Latif: so kind, gracious, and understanding, as to bestow gifts finely suited to the needs of the recipients. For the various meanings of Latif, see n. 2844 to xxii. 63. Cf. also xii. 100

4553. "Servants" here seems to include all men, just and unjust, for God provides for them all.

Went forth before <sup>4545</sup>
 From thy Lord,
 (Tending) to a Term appointed,
 The matter would have
 Been settled between them:
 But truly those who have
 Inherited the Book after them
 Are in suspicious (disquieting) <sup>4546</sup>
 Doubt concerning it.

سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى لَّفُصِّنَا
 بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ أُورِثُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ
 لَفِي شَكٍّ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٍ

15. Now then, for that (reason), <sup>4547</sup>
 Call (them to the Faith),
 And stand steadfast
 As thou art commanded,
 Nor follow thou their vain
 Desires; but say: "I believe
 In the Book which
 God has sent down;
 And I am commanded
 To judge justly between you.
 God is our Lord <sup>4548</sup>
 And your Lord: For us
 (Is the responsibility for)
 Our deeds, and for you
 For your deeds. There is
 No contention between us
 And you. God will Bring us together,
 And to Him is
 (Our) final goal.

١٥ فَلِذَلِكَ فَادْعُ وَانْتَقِمْ كَمَا أُمِرْتَ
 وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَقُلْ مَنِ إِيَّانَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ
 مِنْ نَبِيٍِّّ وَأُمِرْتُ لِأَعْدِلَ بَيْنَكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّنَا
 وَرَبُّكُمْ لَنَا أَعْمَلْنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَلْنَا
 لَأُحْجِثَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمُ اللَّهُ يُجْمَعُ بَيْنَا وَإِلَيْهِ
 الْمَصِيرُ

4545. C/. x 19, and n. 1407. God's decree has allowed a certain Term during which a sinner has the chance of repentance and forgiveness. Were it not so, sin would be punished at once, and the matter would be decided straightway. So also, when people reject Truth from selfish or contumacious motives, they get rope: perchance they may repent.

4546. C/. xiv. 9 and n. 1884. "Those who have inherited the Book" are the People of the Book, of the ages since the Book or Revelation came to them. Referring to the Jews and Christians contemporary with our Prophet, how true it is that they were broken up into hostile sects which hated and persecuted each other! Islam came to unite them, and it did. For the present phases of Christianity and Judaism are of later growth.

4547. How beautifully the mission of Islam is commended in this verse! (1) The more sectarianism and division there is in the world, the more need is there for the Gospel of Unity. (2) It must steadfastly pursue its way. (3) It must not be deflected by worldly or political motives. (4) Its faith must be directly in God and in God's Revelation. (5) It must judge justly between warring factions, as the Religion of Peace and Unity.

4548. The mission of Islam is further described. (6) The God whom it preaches is not an exclusive God: He is the Lord of the Worlds: to any given person, of whatever faith, 'He is your God, as well as mine.' (7) Our Faith is not a question of words; it is deeds which decide; each one of us has personal responsibility for his own conduct. (8) There is no cause of contention whatever, when we preach Unity, Truth, and the Hereafter. (9) If you have doubts, the final arbiter is God, and His Throne is our Goal.

He enlarges and restricts.<sup>4540</sup>
The Sustenance to whom
He will : for He knows
Full well all things.

13. The same religion has He Established for you as that
Which He enjoined on Noah—<sup>4541</sup>
The which We have sent
By inspiration to thee—
And that which We enjoined
On Abraham, Moses, and Jesus :
Namely, that ye should remain
Steadfast in Religion, and make
No divisions therein :<sup>4542</sup>
To those who worship
Other things than God,
Hard is the (way)
To which thou callest them.<sup>4543</sup>
God chooses to Himself
Those whom He pleases,
And guides to Himself
Those who turn (to Him).

14. And they became divided<sup>4544</sup>
Only after knowledge
Reached them,—through selfish
Envy as between themselves.
Had it not been
For a Word that

يَسْطُرُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

⑬ * شَرَعَ لَكُمْ مِنَ الدِّينِ مَا وَصَّى بِهِ نُوحًا
وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ وَمَا وَصَّيْنَا بِهِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ
وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى أَنْ أَقِمُوا الدِّينَ وَلَا تَتَفَرَّقُوا
فِيهِ كَبُرَ عَلَى الْمُشْرِكِينَ مَا تَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَهُ اللَّهِ
يَجْتَبِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يُنِيبُ

⑭ وَمَا تَفَرَّقُوا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بَعِيًا
بَيْنَهُمْ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ

4540. "Sustenance", here as elsewhere, stands for all things that support every phase of life, physical, social, intellectual, or spiritual. Cf. x. 59, n. 1447. The source of all gifts is God; His bounty is inexhaustible, and He gives to all; but He does not give to all in the same measure, because, out of the fullness of His knowledge and wisdom, He can judge best what is best for any of His creatures.

4541. God's Religion is the same in essence, whether given, for example, to Noah, Abraham, Moses, or Jesus, or to our holy Prophet. The source of unity is the revelation from God. In Islam it is "established" as an institution, and does not remain merely a vague suggestion.

4542. Faith, Duty, or Religion, is not a matter to dispute about. The formation of sects is against the very principle of Religion and Unity. What we should strive for is steadfastness in duty and faith, and unity among mankind.

4543. Unity, unselfishness, love for God and man,—these things are inconsistent with selfish aggrandizement, unjust suppression of our fellow-creatures, false worship, and false conduct to our brethren. Hence the Gospel of Unity, though it is in complete accord with the pure pattern after which God made us, is yet hard to those who love self and falsehood. But Grace is free to all, and in His wise Plan, He will specially select Teachers to show the Way to humanity, and no one who turns to Him will lack guidance.

4544. Cf. ii. 213. If you reject Truth after it has reached you, it can only be through selfish contumacy or envy.

Besides Him? But it is
God, — He is the Protector,<sup>4537</sup>
And it is He Who
Gives life to the dead:
It is He Who has power
Over all things.

SECTION 2.

10. ~~What~~ whatever it be wherein
Ye differ, the decision
Thereof is with God : <sup>4538</sup>
Such is God my Lord :
In Him I trust,
And to Him I turn.
11. (He is) the Creator
Of the heavens and
The earth : He has made
For you pairs
From among yourselves, <sup>4539</sup>
And pairs among cattle :
By this means does He
Multiply you : there is nothing
Whatever like unto Him,
And He is the One
That hears and sees (all things).
12. To Him belong the keys
Of the heavens and the earth :

فَاللَّهُ هُوَ الْوَلِيُّ وَهُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَوْتَى وَهُوَ عَلَى
كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

⑩ وَمَا اختلفت فيه من شئ فحكمه
إلى الله ذلكم الله ربى عليه توكلت
والیه انیب

⑪ فاطر السموات والأرض جعل لكم من
أنفُسِكُمْ أزواجاً ومن الأنعام أزواجاً
يذركم فيه ليس كشيء وهو السميع
البصير

⑫ له مفاتيح السموات والأرض

4537. There can be no greater ingratitude or blasphemy than to worship false gods, or to seek protection from things that have no power, when God—Who has power over all things—is always seeking to protect and cherish His creatures, and placing in their way all the means for attaining the best in them.

4538. In the highest issues of life men may see things differently. If their differences arise merely from selfish motives, or narrowness of vision, they are sinning against their own souls. If their differences arise from sincere but mistaken notions, their proper course is not to form divisions and sects, or to increase contention and hatred among men, but to leave all things to God, trusting in Him and turning to Him in all difficulties. The final decision in all things is with Him.

4539. The mystery of sex has not only its physical aspects, but its moral and spiritual aspects, and therefore mankind is in this respect differentiated from the lower animals, and among mankind the grades and qualities are suggested by the phrase "from among yourselves". As regards cattle, they are specially mentioned among the animals, as having special relations with man and specially subserving his needs, not only in the physical sphere, but also in the matter of transport, which is the key to all civilization and culture : Cf. xxxvi. 71-73 ; also xxiii. 21-22, where they are compared to ships, the symbol of international intercourse.

The Oft-Forgiving,
Most Merciful.

6. And those who take
As protectors others besides
Him, —<sup>4532</sup>
God doth watch over them ;
And thou art not
The disposer of their affairs.

7. Thus have We sent
By inspiration to thee
An Arabic Qur-ān : <sup>4533</sup>
That thou mayest warn
The Mother of Cities <sup>4534</sup>
And all around her, —
And warn (them) of
The Day of Assembly,
Of which there is no doubt :
(When) some will be <sup>4535</sup>
In the Garden, and some
In the Blazing Fire.

8. If God had so willed, <sup>4536</sup>
He could have made them
A single people ; but He Admits whom He will
To His Mercy ;
And the wrong-doers
Will have no protector
Nor helper.

9. What ! Have they taken
(For worship) protectors

الْغُفُورِ الرَّحِيمِ

⑥ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهُ
حَفِظُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ

⑦ وَكَذَلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا
لِنُنْذِرَ أُمَّ الْقُرَى وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا وَنُنْذِرَ يَوْمَ
الْجَمْعِ لَا تَسْبَغُ فِيهِ فِرْقَتَانِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَفِرْقَةٌ فِي
السَّعِيرِ

⑧ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَعَلَهُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً
وَلَكِنْ يَدْخُلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ
وَالظَّالِمُونَ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ

⑨ أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ حُفَاةً

4532. We now come to the contrast, the folly and ingratitude of man. But that cannot escape its final doom in the Universal Plan of God. Only judgment rests with God. A Prophet is not responsible for the conduct of men, in a system which permits some limited free-will and personal responsibility.

4533. The point of the Qur-ān being in Arabic is that it is plain and intelligible to the people through whom and among whom it was promulgated ; see next clause.

4534. The City of Mecca. See n. 913 to vi. 92. This is undoubtedly a Meccan verse. Even apart from the Qibla, Mecca is the centre of Islam, and " all around her " is the whole world.

4535. The contrast is again emphasised, as explained in the Summary.

4536. Cf. v. 51, and n. 761. It is one of the Signs of God that He has made us different, that we may be tried in the exercise of our will, and that we may reach, through righteousness and Faith, our highest development, and enjoy His gifts of Mercy and Grace. But we must not become contentious, and fall into evil ; we must understand our own limitations. Otherwise we shall lose His grace and protection.

وَلَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لِمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا إِنْ لَئِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ

4526. See Introduction to S. xl. paragraphs 2-4.

4527. This Sūra has a double set of Abbreviated Letters, one in the first verse, and one in this second verse. No authoritative explanation of this second set is available, and I refrain from speculation. See Appendix I.

4528. Inspiration is full of Power and Wisdom, and both these qualities are derived from the Power and Wisdom of God. Unlike human power, this Power is necessarily good and merciful; unlike human wisdom, this Wisdom is necessarily complete and indisputable.

4529. We cannot conceive the distance which separates the Most High from the highest of His creatures, God Most Great from the greatest of the beings that we can imagine. The highest heavens are mentioned in the next verse, as well as the noblest creatures that we can imagine, the angels.

4530. How can we conceive of sublimity and greatness in a higher degree than this, that the highest heavens are almost ready to burst asunder by His Glory, which is higher than all?

4531. The angels are the noblest and purest beings of whom we can conceive. They reflect on the one side God's Glory and Praise, and on the other, two other attributes of God, that look towards His erring creatures, viz.: Forgiveness and Mercy. The two sets of attributes are complementary. Believers and unbelievers alike are included in their solicitude and prayer. They thus proclaim in their own being and in their prayers the Greatness and unbounded Goodness of God.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLII (Shūrā).

This is the third Sūra of the Hā-Mīm series of seven Sūras, for which see the Introduction to S. xl.

The theme is how evil and blasphemy can be cured by the Mercy and Guidance of God, which come through His Revelation. Men are asked to settle their differences in patience by mutual Consultation (xlii. 38); which explains the title of the Sūra.

Summary.—The Contrast of blasphemy and disputation against Revelation, Unity, and Faith, as relying on the Signs and the Mercy of God (xlii. 1-29, and C. 211).

Evil comes through men's own deeds, of which they cannot avoid the consequences, but Guidance comes through God's Mercy and Revelation (xlii. 30-53, and C. 212).

C. 211.—Inspiration is part of the Glory and Goodness
(xlii. 1-29.) Of God. His Unity is shown
In His Creation; yet man will turn
To false gods, and dispute about Religion.
Faith has been one at all times,
But sects and divisions rose through selfish
Contumacy. Let all contention cease,
And conduct weighed by the just balance
Of God's Word. The just and the unjust
Will all be brought before God, Whose Mercy
And Bounty are writ large in the Signs
In His marvellous Creation,—one, yet diverse!

Regions (of the earth), and <sup>4524-C</sup>
 In their own souls, until
 It becomes manifest to them
 That this is the Truth.
 Is it not enough that
 Thy Lord doth witness
 All things?

54. Ah indeed! are they
 In doubt concerning
 The Meeting with their Lord? <sup>4525</sup>
 Ah indeed! it is He
 That doth encompass
 All things!

الْأَفَاقِ وَفِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ حَتَّى يَتَبَيَّنَ لَهُمُ اللَّهُ
 الْحَقُّ أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِ بِرَبِّكَ أَنْتَ عَلَى كُلِّ
 شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ

⑤ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ فِي رَيْبٍ مِّنْ لِّقَاءِ رَبِّهِمْ أَلَا إِنَّهُ
 بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّحِيطٌ

4524-C. God's Truth always spreads, in its own good time, across to the uttermost ends of the earth, as it did in the case of Islam. But its intensive spread in the hearts and souls of people is even more remarkable than its extensive spread over large areas. Men like the four Companions of the Prophet—and many more—became leaders of men and arbiters of the world's fate. Medina, from being a focus of jarring tribes and factions that hated each other, became the seat of heroic actions and plans and the nursery of great and noble heroic deeds that resounded throughout the world. It makes no difference what men may say or do. God's Truth must prevail, and He knows who obstruct and who help.

4525. Short-sighted people may like to think that there may be no judgment. But judgment is inevitable and cannot be escaped, for God "doth encompass all things"

After some adversity has Touched him, he is sure
To say, "This is due
To my (merit) : I think not
That the Hour (of Judgment)
Will (ever) be established ;
But if I am brought back
To my Lord, I have (Much) good (stored) in His sight ! "
But We will show
The Unbelievers the truth
Of all that they did,
And We shall give them
The taste of a severe
Penalty.

51. ~~When~~ When We bestow favours <sup>4523</sup>
On man, he turns away,
And gets himself remote
On his side (instead of <sup>4524</sup> Coming to Us); and when
Evil seizes him, (he comes)
Full of prolonged prayer !

52. Say : " See ye if <sup>4524-A</sup>
The (Revelation) is (really)
From God, and yet do ye
Reject it ? Who is more
Astray than one who
Is in a schism <sup>4524-B</sup>
Far (from any purpose) ? "

53. Soon will We show them
Our Signs in the (furthest)

شِقَاقٍ بَعِيدٍ

③ سَنُرِيهِمْ آيَاتِنَا فِي

4523. The last verse and note dealt with men's distortion of the values of life. Here we come to men's ingratitude and hypocrisy. If they receive good, they go farther away from God, instead of coming nearer to him. If they suffer ill, they call on God and offer prolonged prayers, but it is not sincere devotion and therefore worthless.

4524. Cf. xvii. 83.

4524-A. An argument is now addressed, of a most searching nature. Examine your own souls. See if you do not really find something unusual in God's Revelation ! If you do, and yet you reject it, what a terrible responsibility fastens itself on you ? Could anything be more foolish or more misguided than to reject a Message which is transforming the whole world ?

4524-B. 'If you resist the convictions of the whole world, you are only forming a Cave or a narrow obscure sect or schism, which serves no purpose, and is unfit to live in the broad light of Universal Religion.' Cf. ii. 176, n. 176.

47. To Him is referred <sup>4519</sup>

The Knowledge of the Hour
(Of Judgment : He knows all) :
No date-fruit comes out
Of its sheath, nor does
A female conceive (within
Her womb) nor bring forth

The Day that (God) will propound
To them the (question), <sup>4520</sup>
"Where are the Partners
(Ye attributed) to Me?"
They will say, "We do

Aforetime will leave them
In the lurch, and they
Will perceive that they
Have no way of escape.

٢٨ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَدْعُونَ مِنْ
قَبْلُ وَظَنُّوا مَا لَهُمُ مِنَ نَجْوٍ

49. Quān does not weary <sup>4521</sup>
Of asking for good (things),
But if ill touches him,
He gives up all hope
(And) is lost in despair.

٢٩ لَا يَسْتَعِزُّ الْإِنْسَانُ مِنْ دُعَاءِ الْخَيْرِ وَإِنْ
مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ فَيَسْأَلْ مَنْ يَرْجُو

50. When We give him a taste <sup>4522</sup>
Of some mercy from Ourselves,

٣٠ وَلَئِنْ آذَقْتَهُ رَحْمَةً مِنَّا

4519. There are profound mysteries which the knowledge of man cannot fathom but which are all open knowledge to God, because He plans, guides and controls all things. The precise time of the Hour of Judgment is one of these. We are not to dispute about matters like these, which are matters of speculation as far as human intelligence is concerned. Such speculations ruined the Ummat of Moses, and set them on the arid path of doubts and controversies. Our task is to do our duty and love God and man (see the last two verses). Cf. also xli. 4.

4520. When the final restoration of true values comes, all falsehood will be exposed openly and publicly. The false gods will vanish, and their falsehood will be acknowledged by those who had lapsed from true worship. But it will be too late then for repentance.

4521. Not only is man prone to doubts and speculations in matters beyond his ken, thus disturbing the even tenor of his spiritual life: he is apt to run into opposite extremes in his daily experiences in this life. He is always hankering after the good things of this life. They are not all good for him. If he receives a little check, even though it may be to bring him to his bearings and turn his thoughts to higher things, he is apt to fall into despair.

4522. When men entertain false ideas of values in life, there are two or three possible attitudes they may adopt in reaction to their experiences. In the first place, their desire may be inordinate for the good things of this life, and any little check brings them into a mood of despair. See last note. In the second place, if their desire is granted, they are puffed up, and think that everything is due to their own cleverness or merit, and they forget God. Not only that, but they go a step further, and begin to doubt a Hereafter at all! If by chance they have a faint glimmering of the Hereafter, which they cannot help recognising, they think themselves "favoured of Heaven", because of some small favours given to them in this life by way of trial. Thus they turn all things, good or evil, away from their real purpose, because they are devoted to falsehood.

And a healing to those
Who believe; and for those
Who believe not, there is
A deafness in their ears,<sup>4517</sup>
And it is blindness in their (eyes):
They are (as it were)
Being called from a place
Far distant!"

لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا هُدًى وَشِفَاءٌ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ فِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرٌ وَهُوَ عَلَيْهِمْ عَمًى أُولَٰئِكَ يُنَادَوْنَ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ

SECTION 6.

45. ~~We~~ We certainly gave Moses
The Book aforetime: but disputes
Arose therein. Had it not
Been for a Word<sup>4518</sup>
That went forth before
From thy Lord, (their differences)
Would have been settled
Between them: but they Remained in suspicious
Disquieting doubt thereon.

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ
فَاخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ
سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَلَهُمْ
لَكِنِ شَكٌّ مِنْهُ مُبِينٌ

46. Whoever works righteousness
Benefits his own soul;
Whoever works evil, it is
Against his own soul:
Nor is thy Lord ever
24 Unjust (in the least)
30 To His servants.

مَنْ عَمِلْ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ عَمَلٌ
أَسَاءَ فَاعِلُهَا وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِظَالِمٍ لِّلْعَبِيدِ

4517. Cf. xli. 5, and vi. 25. 'They pretended that it was too deep for them, when they meant that they were superior to it! The fact was that by putting themselves in an artificially false position, they rendered themselves impervious to the Message. The voice of Revelation or the voice of conscience sounded to them as if it came from a far-off place! They themselves made themselves strangers to it.

4518. Callousness and self-sufficiency in religion are often illustrated by sects like the Pharisees and Sadducees among the Jews. Where there are honest differences of opinion, they can, in God's Plan, lead to greater enquiry and emulation. Where the differences are fractious, there is often even then time left for repentance. In any case the Word or Decree of God is for the best good of all, and should not disturb Faith. Cf. x. 19. A good life, of faith and truth, is in our own interests, and the opposite against our own interests. God is never unjust.

(Are not hidden from Us).
And indeed it is a Book
Of exalted power.

وَلَا تَأْتِيهِ الْغُطُلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَلَا مِنْ
خَلْفِهِ تَنْزِيلٌ مِنْ حَكِيمٍ حَمِيدٍ

42. No falsehood can approach it
From before or behind it - <sup>4514</sup>
It is sent down
By One Full of Wisdom,
Worthy of all Praise.

٤٢ لَا يَأْتِيهِ الْغُطُلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَلَا مِنْ
خَلْفِهِ تَنْزِيلٌ مِنْ حَكِيمٍ حَمِيدٍ

43. Nothing is said to thee
That was not said
To the apostles before thee ; <sup>4515</sup>
That thy Lord has
At His command (all) Forgiveness
As well as a most Grievous Penalty.

٤٣ مَا يُقَالُ لَكَ إِلَّا مَا قَدْ قِيلَ لِلرُّسُلِ مِنْ
قَبْلِكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُو مَغْفِرَةٍ
وَذُو عِقَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

44. Had We sent this as
A Qur-ān (in a language) <sup>4516</sup>
Other than Arabic, they would Have said : " Why are not
Its verses explained in detail ?
What ! (a Book) not in Arabic
And (a Messenger) an Arab ? "
Say : " It is a guide

٤٤ وَلَوْ جَعَلْنَاهُ قُرْآنًا أَعْجَبِيَا لَقَالُوا
لَوْلَا فُصِّلَتِ آيَاتُهُ وَعَاجَبُوهُ
وَعَرَبِيٌّ قُلُوبُهُ

4514. God's Truth is fully guarded on all sides. No one can get the better of it by attacking it from before or behind it, openly or secretly, or in any way whatever.

4515. The gist of God's Message, now, before, and for ever, is the same ; Mercy to the erring and repentant ; just punishment to those who willfully rebel against God.

4516. Cf. xvi. 103-105 ; xii. 2 ; etc. It was most natural and reasonable that the Messenger being Arab, the Message should be in his own tongue, that he might explain it in every detail, with the greatest power and eloquence. Even though it was to be for the whole world, its initial exposition was thus to be in Arabic. But if people had no faith and were spiritually deaf or blind, it would not matter in what language it came.

39. And among His Signs

In this : thou seest
The earth barren and desolate ; <sup>4510</sup>
But when We send down
Rain to it, it is stirred
To life and yields increase,
Truly, He Who gives life <sup>4511</sup>
To the (dead) earth
Can surely give life
To (men) who are dead.
For He has power
Over all things.

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَقُومَ الْأَرْضُ
خَاسِيَةً فَإِذَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ
أَحْيَاهَا الَّذِي أَنْشَأَ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ
الْحَيَاةَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

40. Those who pervert <sup>4512</sup>

The Truth in Our Signs
Are not hidden from Us.
Which is better?—he that
Is cast into the Fire,
Or he that comes safe through,
On the Day of Judgment?
Do what ye will :
Verily He seeth (clearly)
All that ye do.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُلْحِدُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا
لَا يَخْفَوْنَ عَلَيْنَا أَفَمَنْ يُلْقَى فِي النَّارِ
خَيْرٌ أَمْ مَنْ يَأْتِي آمِنًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ
اعْمَلُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ إِنَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ
بَصِيرٌ

41. Those who reject the Message <sup>4513</sup>

When it comes to them

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِالذِّكْرِ لَمَّا
جَاءَهُمْ

4510. Evil makes of the souls of men what drought makes of land : it kills life, beauty, and fruitfulness. God's Word in the spiritual world has the same wonderful effect as rain has on barren land : it gives life, beauty, and fruitfulness. And the effect of God's Word is also seen through the lives of men who repel evil with what is better. They also convert dead souls (which harbour spite and hatred) into living souls, which come into the main current of spiritual life, and help in carrying out God's beneficent Purpose.

4511. Why should we wonder then at the potency of God's Word, whether in our probationary lives here, or in the eternal life of the Hereafter.

4512. Perverse the Truth in Our Signs : either by corrupting the scriptures or turning them to false and selfish uses ; or by neglecting the Signs of God in nature around them, or silencing His voice in their own conscience. Everything is known to God. Why not work for true salvation at the final Judgment ?

4513. Mere rejection by men will not silence the Signs of God, which will work unintermittently and with the fullest potency.

36. And if (at any time)
An incitement to discord <sup>4507</sup>
Is made to thee
By the Evil One,
Seek refuge in God.
He is the One
Who hears and knows
All things.

﴿٣٦﴾ وَإِنَّمَا يَنزَغُكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ
نَزْعٌ فَاتَّعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ
الْعَلِيمُ

37. Among His Signs are <sup>4508</sup>
The Night and the Day,
And the Sun and the Moon.
Adore not the sun
And the moon, but adore
God, Who created them,
If it is Him ye wish
To serve.

﴿٣٧﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ اللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَالشَّمْسُ
وَالْقَمَرُ لَا تَسْجُدُوا لِلشَّمْسِ وَلَا لِلْقَمَرِ
وَاتَّعِذُوا بِاللَّهِ الَّذِي جَعَلَهُنَّ مِن كُنُوزِ
إِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُونَ

38. But if the (Unbelievers)
Are arrogant, (no matter) : <sup>4509</sup>
For in the presence
Of thy Lord are those
Who celebrate His praises
By night and by day.
And they never flag
(Nor feel themselves Above it).

﴿٣٨﴾ فَإِنِ اسْتَكْبَرُوا فَالَّذِينَ عِنْدَ
رَبِّكَ يُسَبِّحُونَ لَهُ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَهُمْ
لَا يَشْعُرُونَ

4507. Nazaga has in it the idea of discord, slander, disharmony, as well as incitements to such disturbances in the soul. They can only proceed from evil, and should be resisted with the help of God. See also last note.

4508. Night and Day are opposites, and yet, by the alchemy of God, they can both subserve the purpose of human good, because the Night can give rest while the Day can promote activity. The Sun and the Moon are similarly complementary. So, in moral and spiritual affairs, seeming opposites may by God's alchemy be made to subserve the purposes of Good. They are but instruments: God is the Cause. Adore God, and not the things which He has created. Use the things which He has created, but do not adore them.

4509. It does not in any way affect God if men rebel against Him. It is men's own loss. God's glory is being celebrated night and day by angels and men who receive the privilege of approaching His presence. To them it is a delight and an honour to be in the sunshine of Truth and Happiness.

SECTION 5.

33. ~~Who~~ <sup>4503</sup> Who is better in speech
Than one who calls (men)
To God, works righteousness,
And says, "I am of those
Who bow in Islam" ?

34. Nor can Goodness and Evil <sup>4504</sup>
Be equal. Repel (Evil)
With what is better :
Then will he between whom
And thee was hatred
Become as it were
Thy friend and intimate ! <sup>4505</sup>

35. And no one will be <sup>4506</sup>
Granted such goodness
Except those who exercise
Patience and self-restraint,—
None but persons of
The greatest good fortune.

﴿۳﴾ وَمَنْ أَحْسَنُ قَوْلًا لِّمَنْ دَعَا إِلَى اللَّهِ
وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَقَالَ إِنِّي مِنَ
الْمُسْلِمِينَ

﴿۴﴾ وَلَا تَسْتَوِ الْحَسَنَةُ وَلَا السَّيِّئَةُ ادْفَعْ
بِالْخَيْرِ مَا خَسَنَ فَإِذَا الَّذِي بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَهُ
عَدَاوَةٌ كَأَنَّهُ وَلِيٌّ حَمِيمٌ

﴿۵﴾ وَمَا يُلْقِيهَا إِلَّا الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَمَا
يُلْقِيهَا إِلَّا ذُو حَظٍّ عَظِيمٍ

4503. Better in speech : i.e., speaks better counsel ; or is more worthy of being listened to. That his word reaches the highest mark of human speech is evidenced by three facts : (1) that he calls all to the Truth of God, showing that his thoughts are not centred on himself ; (2) every deed of his is righteousness, showing that there is no divergence between his preaching and his conduct ; and (3) he completely associates himself with the Will of God, showing that he is the full embodiment of Islam. What a fine description of the holy Prophet !

4504. You do not return good for evil, for there is no equality or comparison between the two. You repel or destroy evil with something which is far better, just as an antidote is better than poison. You foil hatred with love. You repel ignorance with knowledge, folly and wickedness with the friendly message of Revelation. The man who was in the bondage of sin, you not only liberate from sin, but make him your greatest friend and helper in the cause of God ! Such is the alchemy of the Word of God ! Cf. xxiii. 96 ; xxviii. 54.

4505. Hamim : the key-word of the Hā-Mīm Sūras. See n. 4500 above, and Introduction to S. xl.

4506. The moral standard referred to in the last verse can only be reached by the exercise of the highest patience and self-restraint. All sorts of human weaknesses and counsels of pseudo-wisdom and "self-respect" will keep breaking in, but resist them as suggestions of Evil (see next verse). If you can reach anywhere near that high standard, you will be indeed most fortunate in a spiritual sense, for God's Revelation will have made you great and free.

Is God", and, further,<sup>4499</sup>
Stand straight and steadfast,
The angels descend on them
(From time to time):
"Fear ye not!" (they suggest),
"Nor grieve! But receive
The Glad Tidings
Of the Garden (of Bliss),
The which ye were promised!

اللَّهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَقَمُوا نَزَّلَ عَلَيْهِمُ
الْمَلَائِكَةَ أَلا تَخَافُوا وَلَا تَحْزَنُوا وَأَبْشِرُوا
بِالْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي كُنتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ

31. "We are your protectors<sup>4500</sup>
In this life and
In the Hereafter:
Therein shall ye have
All that your souls<sup>4501</sup>
Shall desire; therein
Shall ye have all
That ye ask for!—

﴿ نَحْنُ أَوْلِيَائُكُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا تَشْتَهُونَ
أَنْفُسُكُمْ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا
مَا تَدْعُونَ

32. "A hospitable gift from One<sup>4502</sup>
 Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful!"

﴿ نَزْلًا مِنْ غَفُورٍ رَحِيمٍ

C. 210.—The best of men is the man of Faith,
(xli. 33-54.) Who calls all men to share his Faith,
Whose life is pure, and whose law of life
Is the Will of God. Eschew all evil,
And adore God, and Him alone.
His Signs are everywhere, and His Message
Is the same through all the ages, a guide
And a healing to those who believe.
Dispute not, but live righteousness.
Knowledge belongs to God, but Falsehood
Deprives man of hope, humility,
And clear sight, and drives him to Hypocrisy. So turn to Truth, and live.

4499. The people who succeed in eternal Life are those who recognise and understand the one and only Reality, that is God, and further shape their probationary Life firmly and steadfastly on the principles of that Truth and Reality. They will have their friends and protectors in the good angels, in contrast to the evil ones, who will have no friendship or protection, but only the reproaches of the Evil Ones.

4500. "Protectors": a key-thought for the Hū-Mīm Sūras. Cf. n. 4492 to xli. 25 above, and n. 4505 to xli. 34 below.

4501. Their desires will by then be so purified that desire, the expression of that desire, and the satisfaction of that desire will be practically synonymous for them: for they will be in complete accord with the true and only Reality.

4502. Cf. iii. 198. Through God's infinite Mercy and Forgiveness, they will now be in the position of guests to Host, and will receive unnumbered gifts out of all proportion to their own merits.

Is proved against them ;
For they are utterly lost.<sup>4495</sup>

SECTION 4.

26. ~~The~~ The Unbelievers say :
"Listen not to this Qur-an,<sup>4496</sup>
But talk at random
In the midst
Of its (reading), that ye
May gain the upper hand !"

27. But We will certainly
Give the Unbelievers a taste
Of a severe Penalty,
And We will requite them
For the worst of their deeds.<sup>4497</sup>

28. Such is the requital
Of the enemies of God,—
The Fire : therein will be
For them the Eternal Home :
A (fit) requital, for
That they were wont
To reject Our Signs.

29. And the Unbelievers will say :
"Our Lord ! Show us those,<sup>4498</sup>
Among Jinns and men,
Who misled us : we shall
Crush them beneath our feet,
So that they become
The vilest (before all)."

30. ~~In~~ In the case of those
Who say, "Our Lord

وَالْإِنْسِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا خَسِرِينَ

⑤ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَسْمَعُوا لِهَذَا الْقُرْآنِ وَالْغَوَا فِيهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ

⑥ فَلَنَذِيقَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَشْرَ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

⑦ ذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الْكَافِرِينَ هُمْ فِيهَا دَارُ الْخُلْدِ جَزَاءُ بِمَا كَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَجْحَدُونَ

⑧ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا رَبَّنَا أَرِنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنَّا مِنَّا مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ نَجْعَلُهُم بِأَعْقَابِنَا يَكُونُوا مِنَّا لَأَنفُسِكُمْ

⑨ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا رَبُّنَا

4495. The echo here of verse 23 above completes the argument from another point of view.

4496. A favourite trick of those who wish to dishonour Revelation is, not only not to listen to it themselves, but to talk loudly and insolently when it is being read, so that even the true listeners may not be able to perform their devotions. They think that they are drowning the voice of God: in fact they are piling up misery for themselves in the future. For God's voice can never be silenced.

4497. Nothing that they can do, however outrageous, will escape its fit punishment. And to reject God's Signs is to shut the very door to His Grace and Mercy.

4498. It is one of the qualities of sin and all evil, that it wishes to drag down others in its own camp, and rejoices to see them humiliated and disgraced, just as, in the opposite case, the good rejoice to help and honour others and make them happy wherever they can. Cf. vi. 12-113.

Your hearing, your sight,
And your skins should bear
Witness against you! But
Ye did think that God
Knew not many of the things
That ye used to do!

23. "But this thought of yours<sup>4490</sup>
Which ye did entertain
Concerning your Lord, hath
Brought you to destruction,
And (now) have ye become
Of those utterly lost!"

24. If, then, they have patience,<sup>4491</sup>
The Fire will be
A Home for them!
And if they beg
To be received into favour,
Into favour will they not (Then) be received.

25. And We have destined
For them intimate companions<sup>4492</sup>
(Of like nature), who made
Alluring to them what was
Before them and behind them;<sup>4493</sup>
And the sentence among
The previous generations of Jinns<sup>4494</sup>
And men, who have passed away,

سَمِعَكُمْ وَلَا أَبْصَرَكُمْ وَلَا جُلُودُكُمْ
وَلَكِنْ ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَعْلَمُ كَثِيرًا
مِمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ

٢٣ وَذَلِكَ ظَنُّكُمْ الَّذِي ظَنَنْتُمْ بِرَبِّكُمْ
أَرَدْتُمْ لَكُمْ فَاصْبِرْهُمْ مِنَ الْخَسِرِينَ

٢٤ فَإِنْ يَصْبِرُوا فَالنَّارُ مَثْوًى لَهُمْ وَإِنْ
يَسْتَعِينُوا فَما هُمْ مِنَ الْمُعْتَيْنِ

٢٥ وَقَضَيْنَا لَهُمْ قُرْبَاءَ فَزَيَّنُوا لَهُمْ مَا بَيْنَ
أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَحَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلُ فِي
أَمْرِ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْجِنِّ

4490. "You now see the situation! We were given for your use and service. You misused us, to your own utter and irretrievable destruction!"

4491. If they have patience: there is sarcasm in the meaning. "Let them not be impatient: they will soon find a home in the Fire of Hell! If they ask for grace and forgiveness then, it will be too late."

4492. Just as the idea of happiness in heaven is expressed, not only by individual satisfaction, but by congenial society, so the idea of Punishment in hell is deepened by the fact that Evil will be made to meet evil: those who made sin fair-seeming in this life will be there to share in the regrets and mutual recriminations which will make life a burden. In fact, in these Hā-Mīm verses, the idea of fit companionship for the Good and uncongenial company for the Evil, runs like a thread throughout. See Introduction to S. xl.

4493. They painted in glowing colours the pleasures of sin in the past and the pleasures of sin in the future, thus practising a double deception, which will now be found out.

4494. Jinns: see n. 929 to vi. 100. All spirits of wickedness and all men who submitted to them, in the past, were under one common sentence; and future generations who embrace evil will also join them. Cf. vi. 128.

18. But We delivered those Who believed and practised righteousness.

وَنَجَّيْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَكَانُوا
يَتَّقُونَ

SECTION 3.

19. On the Day that
The enemies of God
Will be gathered together
To the Fire, they will
Be marched in ranks.<sup>4486</sup>

وَيَوْمَ يُجْمَعُ أَغْلَاءُ اللَّهِ إِلَى النَّارِ فَهُمْ
يُرْزَعُونَ

20. At length, when they reach
The (Fire), their hearing,
Their sight, and their skins<sup>4487</sup>
Will bear witness against them,
As to (all) their deeds.

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا مَا جَاءُوهَا شَهِدَ عَلَيْهِمْ
سَمْعُهُمْ وَأَبْصَارُهُمْ وَجُلُودُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا
يَعْمَلُونَ

21. They will say to their skins:<sup>4488</sup>
"Why bear ye witness Against us?" They will say:
"God hath given us speech,—
(He) Who giveth speech
To everything: He created
You for the first time,
And unto Him were ye
To return.

وَقَالُوا لِيُجْلُو ذُرِّيَّةُ شَهِيدَتِنَا
قَالُوا أَنْطَقَنَا اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْطَقَ كُلَّ
شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ خَلَقَكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ فَلْيَبْذُ
رْجِعُونَ

22. "Ye did not seek<sup>4489</sup>
To hide yourselves, lest

وَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَكْبِرُونَ أَنْ يَشْهَدَ
عَلَيْكُمْ

4486. "Marched in ranks": to show their further humiliation; for they will be like prisoners going to Punishment.

4487. All the members of their bodies and the faculties of their minds, which they misused, will bear witness against them. Similarly, in xxxvi. 65, their hands and their feet bear witness against them. The "skin" not only includes the sense of touch (which is so often misused in sex), but also the sense of taste and the sense of smell, which are specialised forms of the organ of touch. All the sensory organs, and all their intellectual and emotional counterparts advance us by their use and pull us down by their misuse. They become tell-tale witnesses against us if abused.

4488. A new phase of their existence will now dawn on them. They used to think that if they concealed their evil deeds from the rest of the world, nothing would happen to them! But God can give "tongues to trees", and can make every fact in life, known and unknown to the world, contribute to the elucidation of truth and justice. "Speech" on behalf of their senses and faculties should of course be understood figuratively. When we succumb to evil, our limbs and faculties themselves betray us.

4489. The limbs and faculties will say: "You did not seek to hide your evil from us: in fact you used us for your evil, because we were in your power. Did you not know that God knew everything, and that our knowledge would be evidence against you?"

Certainly have sent down angels<sup>4481</sup>
(To preach) : now we reject
Your mission (altogether)."

15. Now the 'Ad behaved
Arrogantly through the land,
Against (all) truth and reason,<sup>4482</sup>
And said: "Who is superior
To us in strength?" What!
Did they not see that
God, Who created them,
Was superior to them
In strength? But they
Continued to reject Our Signs!

16. So We sent against them
A furious Wind through days<sup>4483</sup>
Of disaster, that We might
Give them a taste
Of a Penalty of humiliation
In this Life; but the Penalty
Of a Hereafter will be
More humiliating still:
And they will find
No help.

17. As to the Thamūd,<sup>4484</sup>
We gave them guidance,
But they preferred blindness
(Of heart) to Guidance:
So the stunning Punishment<sup>4485</sup>
Of humiliation seized them,
Because of what they had earned.

لَا نَزَلَ مَكَلِّبُكَ فَإِنَّا نَمَّا أَرْسَلْنَا
بِدُءٍ كَفَرُونَ

⑤ فَأَمَّا عَادُ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَقَالُوا مَنْ أَشَدُّ مِنَّا قُوَّةً
أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُمْ هُوَ
أَشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
يَجْحَدُونَ

⑥ فَارْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا صَرْصَرًا فِي
أَيَّامٍ نَحْسَاتٍ لِنُبَيِّنَهُمْ عَذَابَ
الْخِزْيِ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَعَذَابُ
الْآخِرَةِ أَخْزَىٰ وَهُمْ لَا يُنصَرُونَ

⑦ وَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَهَدَيْنَاهُمْ فَاسْتَحَبُّوا الْعَنَىٰ
عَلَى الْهُدَىٰ فَآَخَذْنَاهُمْ صَاعِقَةً الْعَذَابِ
الْمُؤَنِّبَةِ كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

4481. Cf. xv. 7, n. 1941; vi. 8-9, n. 841-42. The 'Ad had more power and material civilisation than the Pagan Arabs contemporary with the holy Prophet. But the greater the material civilisation, the greater the arrogance as the besetting sin.

4482. Against (all) truth and reason: Cf. vii. 33. Their estimate of their own strength was greater than was justified by facts, but if they had all the strength which they arrogated to themselves, yet how could they stand before God?

4483. The detailed story of the 'Ad and their besetting sin, and the preaching of their apostle Hūd to them will be found in xxvi. 123-140; also vii. 65-72, and n. 1040. For the furious Wind, Cf. liv. 19.

4484. The story of the Thamūd usually goes with that of the 'Ad. Cf. xxvi. 140-59; also vii. 73-79, and n. 1043.

4485. "The stunning Punishment": i.e. deafening noises like those of thunder and lightning; or the rumbling of a terrible earthquake. In vii. 78, an earthquake is suggested: see n. 1047 to that verse. Cf. also above, xli. 13.

In two Days,<sup>4477</sup> and He Assigned to each heaven
Its duty and command.
And We adorned
The lower heaven
With lights, and (provided it)<sup>4478</sup>
With guard. Such
Is the Decree of (Him)
The Exalted in Might,
Full of knowledge.

13. But if they turn away,
Say thou: "I have warned
You of a stunning Punishment
(As of thunder and lightning)<sup>4479</sup>
Like that which (overtook)
The 'Ad and the Thamūd!"

14. Behold, the apostles came
To them, from before them<sup>4480</sup>
And behind them, (preaching):
"Serve none but God."
They said, "If our Lord
Had so pleased, He would

ذَٰلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ

١٣ فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَقُلْ أَنذَرْتُكُمْ صَاعِقَةً

وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ قَالُوا
لَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّنَا

4477. For "Days", which may include thousands of years, see vii 54, and n. 1031. They refer to stages in the evolution of physical nature. In the Biblical cosmogony, (Gen. i, and ii. 1-7), which reflects old Babylonian cosmogony, the scheme is apparently to be taken literally as to days and is as follows. The first day God created light; the second, the firmament; the third, the earth and vegetation; the fourth, the stars and planets; the fifth, fish and fowl from the sea; and the sixth, cattle, creeping things, beasts on land, and man; on the seventh day He ended His work and rested. Our scheme is wholly different. (1) God did not rest, and never rests. "His Throne doth extend over the heavens and the earth, and He feeleth no fatigue in guarding and preserving them"; (2) God's work has not ended; His activity still goes on: xxxii. 5; vii. 54; (3) man in our scheme does not come in with land animals; his advent is much later; (4) our stages are not sharply divided from each other, as in the above scheme, where the stars and planets having been created on the fourth day, it is not intelligible how the first three days were counted, nor how vegetation grew on the third day. Our stages for earth and heaven are not in sequence of time for the heavens and the earth. Our six stages are broadly speaking, (1) the throwing off of our planet from cosmic matter; (2) its cooling and condensing; (3) and (4) the growth of vegetable and animal life; (5) and (6) the parallel growth of the starry realm and our solar system.

4478. Cf. xv. 17, and n. 1951; also xxxvii. 6-9. The transition from the third person ("He completed," etc.) to the first person ("We adorned," etc.) may be noted. The act of creation is an impersonal act; the act of adornment and guarding is a personal favour to God's creatures.

4479. See verse 17 below.

4480. "From before them and behind them": i.e., from every side. They were warned from every point of view.

10. He set on the (earth),
Mountains standing firm,<sup>4471</sup>
High above it,
And bestowed blessings on
The earth, and measured therein
All things to give them
Nourishment in due proportion,
In four Days,<sup>4472</sup> in accordance
With (the needs of)
Those who seek (sustenance).<sup>4473</sup>

١٠ وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ مِنْ فَوْقِهَا وَبَارَكَ
فِيهَا وَقَدَّرَ فِيهَا أَقْوَامًا فِي أَرْبَعَةِ أَيَّامٍ
سَوَاءً لِّلنَّاسِ يَلِيبُ

11. Moreover He comprehended<sup>4474</sup>
In His design the sky,<sup>4475</sup>
And it had been (as) smoke:
He said to it
And to the earth:
"Come ye together,"<sup>4476</sup>
Willingly or unwillingly."
They said: "We do come (Together), in willing obedience."

١١ ثُمَّ أَسْتَوَىٰ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَهِيَ
دُخَانٌ فَقَالَ لَهَا وَلِلْأَرْضِ
اآتِيَا طَوْعًا أَوْ كَرْهًا قَالَتَا أَتَيْنَا
طَائِعِينَ

12. So he completed them
As seven firmaments

١٢ فَفَضَّلَهُنَّ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ

4471. Cf. xiii. 3 and xvi. 15, n. 2038. High above it: the highest mountains are 29,000 feet above sea-level, and the lowest depths of the bottom of the ocean are 31,600 feet below sea-level, so that the vertical difference between the highest and lowest points on the solid crust of the earth is about 11½ miles. The highland areas are the main sources of the water-supply in all the regions of the earth, and vegetable and animal life depends on water-supply.

4472. See n. 4470 above.

4473. Sā-ilīn may mean either (1) those who seek, or (2) those who ask or enquire. If the former meaning is adopted, the clause means that everything is apportioned to the needs and appetites of God's creatures. If the latter, it means that the needs of enquirers are sufficiently met by what is stated here.

4474. For istawā see n. 1386 to x. 3. Cf. also ii. 29.

4475. From lxxix. 30 it would appear as if the earth was spread out after the sky was made. In the present passage the creation of the earth and the evolution of life on our globe are mentioned first; and the making of the sky into the seven firmaments is mentioned last. The two statements are not inconsistent. It is stated here that when the sky was made into seven firmaments, it had existed previously as smoke, or vapour, or steam. The idea I derive from a collation of the relevant Quranic passages is that God first created primeval matter, which was as yet without order, shape, or symmetry. This state is called Chaos as opposed to Cosmos in Greek Cosmogony. The next stage would be the condensation of this primeval matter, into gases, liquids, or solids: on this subject no precise information is given us: it belongs to the realm of Physics. About the earth we are told of four stages or Days, and about the heavens, of two stages or Days. For Days see n. 4477 below. If these stages proceeded or proceed together in time, it is obvious that each stage as we know it on earth is half as long as each stage in the heavens. But these are questions of Physics, Astronomy, or Geology, not questions of Religion.

4476. I take this to mean that God's design in creation was not to keep heaven and earth separate, but together, as we indeed are, being part of the solar system, and travellers through space, crossing the path of several comets. And all matter created by God willingly obeys the laws laid down for it.

For us, we shall do
(What we will!)"

6. Say thou : " I am
But a man like you : <sup>4467</sup>
It is revealed to me
By inspiration, that your God
Is One God: so stand
True to Him, and ask
For His forgiveness." <sup>4468</sup>
And woe to those who Join gods with God,—

7. Those who practise not
Regular Charity, and who
Even deny the Hereafter.

8. For those who believe <sup>4469</sup>
And work deeds of righteousness
Is a reward that will Never fail.

SECTION 2.

9. Say: Is it that ye
Deny Him Who created
The earth in two Days? <sup>4470</sup>
And do ye join equals
With Him? He is
The Lord of (all)
The Worlds.

لَنَا عَمَلُونَ

① قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُوحَىٰ
لِيَ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُكُمُ إِلَهُ وَاحِدٌ فَاٰتَنِقِمُوا
إِلَيْهِ وَاسْتَغْفِرُوا لَهُ وَوَيْلٌ لِلشَّٰرِكِينَ

② الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَهُمْ
بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ كَاٰفِرُونَ

③ لَٰكِنَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّٰلِحٰتِ
لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ يَمُنُّونَ

④ * قُلْ أَتَيْتُكُمْ لَتَكْفُرُنَّ بِالَّذِي
خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ فِي يَوْمَيْنِ وَتَتَّبِعَلُونَ كَدُّ
أَنكَارَ ذَلِكَ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

4467. The reply is in effect: that the bringer of the Message is not an angel nor a god, and so there can and ought to be no barrier between him and his hearers; but he has been chosen to bring a Message of Truth and Hope to them; they should accept the Gospel of Unity, and by Repentance obtain God's Grace and Forgiveness.

4468. There is nothing but pity for those who reject Truth, run after false worship, have no sympathy or charity for their fellow-men, and even deny that there is any future Life.

4469. But blessed are those who have Faith. They will have a Future and a Bliss that will never fail.

4470. This is a difficult passage, describing the primal creation of our physical earth and the physical heavens around us. If we count the two Days mentioned in this verse, the four Days mentioned in verse 10, and the two Days mentioned in verse 12, we get a total of eight Days, while in many passages the creation is stated to have taken place in six Days: see vii. 54, n. 1031; and xxxii. 4, n. 3632. The Commentators understand the "four Days" in verse 10 to include the two Days in verse 9, so that the total for the universe comes to six Days. This is reasonable, because the processes described in verses 9 and 10 form really one series. In the one case it is the creation of the formless matter of the earth; in the other case it is the gradual evolution of the form of the earth, its mountains and seas, and its animal and vegetable life, with the "nourishment in due proportion", proper to each. C/ also xv. 19-20.

4462. Abbreviated Letters: see Introduction to S. xl. See also n. 4382 to xl. 18, and n. 4505 to xli. 34.

4463. In the last Sūra (xl. 2-3) the revelation was described with reference to some of the qualities of God, from Whom it came. Here it is described mainly with reference to its subject-matter. (1) It brings the Message of Grace and Mercy; (2) it is not merely a book of Dark Sayings, but everything is explained clearly and from various points of view; (3) it is in Arabic, the language of the people among whom it was first promulgated, and therefore easily intelligible to them if they take the trouble to understand; and (4) it opens the way to Forgiveness through Repentance and gives warning of all spiritual Dangers.

4464. With all the qualities mentioned in the last note, if men do not profit by its blessings, the fault lies in their will; they turn away, and thus fail to hear the voice that calls to them.

4465. The consequence of their wilful rejection is that a distance is created between Revelation and those for whom it is meant; their ears become deaf, so that the voice falls fainter and fainter on their ears: they feel a bar between themselves and the Messenger who comes to teach them. Cf. vii. 25.

4466. This is either a superiority complex adopting the sarcastic tone of an inferiority complex, or it expresses calculated indifference to spiritual teaching. In effect it says: 'Our hearts and minds are not intelligent enough to understand your noble ideas, nor our ears sufficiently acute to hear their exposition: you and we are quite different; there is a gulf between us. Why worry about us? You go your way, and we shall go ours!'

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XLI (Hā-Mīm).

This is the second of the series of seven Sūras bearing the Abbreviated Letters Hā-Mīm, as explained in the Introduction to S. xl. To prevent confusion with other Sūras of the Hā-Mīm series, the word Sajda is sometimes added to the title, making it Hā-Mīm as-Sajda, the double title being necessary as there is another Sūra called Sajda (S. xxxii). To avoid the double title, it is sometimes called Fuṣṣilat, from the occurrence of the word in verse 3.

The meaning of Hā-Mīm has been explained in the Introduction to S. xl, where will also be found a note on the chronology and general theme of the seven Hā-Mīm Sūras.

For this particular Sūra the theme is that the basis of Faith and Revelation is God's Power and Goodness, and the fruit of both is man's righteousness and healing.

Summary.—What is Revelation and Faith, and what is man's attitude to both, and what are its consequences? (xli. 1-32, and C. 209).

The fruits of Faith and Unfaith, Truth and Falsehood (xli. 33-54, and C. 210).

C. 209.—Revelation explains, and makes things clear;
 (xli. 1-32.) It gives the message of hope and mercy,
 And it warns men against the snares
 Of Evil. Deny not God, the Lord
 Of the Worlds, Whose glory and power
 Are shown in Creation, and His Mercy
 In Revelation. Learn from the fate
 Of the Peoples of old! Learn from the warnings
 Of your own nature : your very limbs
 And faculties, if misused, bear witness
 Against you. Repent ere it be too late.

As they had; but
That very (Wrath) at which <sup>4460</sup>
They were wont to scoff
Hemmed them in.

84. But when they saw
Our Punishment, they said :
" We believe in God,—
The One God — and we
Reject the partners we used
To join with Him."

85. But their professing the Faith <sup>4461</sup>
When they (actually) saw
Our Punishment was not going
To profit them.
(Such has been) God's way
Of dealing with His servants
(From the most ancient times)
And even thus did
The rejecters of God
Perish (utterly)!

وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ

٨٤ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ
وَكَفَرْنَا بِمَا كُنَّا بِهِ مُشْرِكِينَ

٨٥ فَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ مِمَّا يُنْفَعُونَ بِإِيمَانِهِمْ تَنَادَوا
رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا سَأَلْنَا اللَّهَ الَّذِي قَدْ خَلَقَ
فِي عِبَادِهِ عَجْزًا كَإِنَّكَ
الْكَاذِبُونَ

4460. Cf. xvi. 34. Nothing could stop the Justice of God punishing Evil. What they had ridiculed came as an inexorable fact. None of their grandeur or art or science or skill was of any use when they lost their souls!

4461. Again and again were they given chances, and again and again did they reject them. When it was too late, and in fact when it had no meaning, they offered to profess Faith. That was of no use. God does not accept unmeaning things of that kind. He wants to train and purify our will. For their disobedience and rebellion they perished utterly.

May use some for riding
And some for food;

80. And there are (other) advantages
In them for you (besides);
That ye may through them
Attain to any need
(There may be) in your hearts;
And on them and on ships
Ye are carried.

81. And He shows you (always)<sup>4437</sup>
His Signs : then which
Of the Signs of God
Will ye deny?

82. Do they not travel through
The earth and see what
Was the End of those Before them? They were
More numerous than these
And superior in strength<sup>4438</sup>
And in the traces
(They have left) in the land :
Yet all that they accomplished
Was of no profit to them.

83. For when their apostles
Came to them
With Clear Signs, they exulted<sup>4439</sup>
In such knowledge (and skill)

لَتَرْكَبُوا مِنْهَا وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ

④ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ وَلِتَبْلُغُوا عَلَيْهَا
حَاجَةً فِي صُدُورِكُمْ وَعَلَيْهَا
وَعَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُونَ

⑤ وَيُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ فَأَيَّ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
تُنْكِرُونَ

⑥ أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا
أَكْثَرَ مِنْهُمْ وَأَشَدَّ قُوَّةً وَآثَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ
فَمَا أَغْنَى عَنْهُمْ مَتَاعُكَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

⑦ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ رَسُولُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَرِحُوا بِمَا
عِنْدَهُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ

4437. The Signs of God's goodness and mercy are so numerous that it is impossible to enumerate them. Which of them can any mortal deny? This is the theme of that highly poetical Sūra, Rahmān (S. lv.).

4438. Cf. ix. 69. For any generation to take inordinate pride in its own single achievements in science or skill becomes ridiculous if we consider the broad stream of history. In the first place, men will find that a great deal of what they attribute to their own merits only became possible owing to the earlier work of their predecessors. Secondly, many of their predecessors were more numerous and mightier in power than they, although the perspective of time may have reduced the apparent depth of their influence, and the monuments which they have left behind may have suffered from the destroying hand of Time. Thirdly, and most important of all, when they forgot God and His inexorable Law, nothing of their own handiwork profited them : they perished in the common ruin as all vanities must perish. Cf. also xl. 21 above, and n. 4387. See how the recapitulation rounds off the argument.

4439. Arrogance and an exaggerated idea of Self were at the bottom of the Evil to which they succumbed.

77. So persevere in patience ;
For the Promise of God
Is true : and whether <sup>4453</sup>
We show thee (in this life)
Some part of what We Promise them,—or We
Take thy soul (to Our Mercy)
(Before that),—(in any case)
It is to Us that
They shall (all) return.

٧٧ فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ فَلَمَّا
رَبَّيْنَكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِي وَعَدْنَاهُمْ أَوْ نَوَفَيْتَكَ
فَلِإِنَّا يَرْجِعُونَ

78. We did aforetime send
Apostles before thee : of them <sup>4454</sup>
There are some whose story
We have related to thee,
And some whose story
We have not related
To thee. It was not (Possible) for any apostle
To bring a Sign except
By the leave of God :
But when the Command <sup>4455</sup>
Of God issued,
The matter was decided
In truth and justice,
And there perished,
There and then, those
Who stood on Falsehoods.

٧٨ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلًا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْهُمْ
مَنْ قَصَصْنَا عَلَيْكَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ لَمْ نَقْصُصْ
عَلَيْكَ وَمَا كُنَّا لِرَسُولٍ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ بِآيَةٍ
إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ فُضِّى
بِالْحَقِّ وَخَسِرَ هُنَالِكَ الْمُبْطِلُونَ

SECTION 9.

79. It is God who made <sup>4456</sup>
Cattle for you, that ye

٧٩ اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ الْأَنْعَامَ

4453. Cf. x. 46, and n. 1438. As the eventual justice and readjustment of values must take place, when every soul returns to the Judgment-seat of God, it makes no difference if good and evil meet their deserts in this very life or not. Cf. also xiii. 40.

4454. Cf. iv. 164. God sent Messengers of His Truth to every people. There are some whose names are known to us through the holy Qur-ān, but there are a large number whose names are not made known to us through that medium. We must recognise the Truth wherever we find it.

4455. The Signs of God are everywhere, and can be seen by the discerning eye at all times. But if any extraordinary Signs are demanded by cynics or Unbelievers, they will not be granted merely because they are demanded. It is God's Will that issues them, not merely the desire of human beings, even if he be a Messenger of God. But when an extraordinary Sign does issue by the Command of God, it means that the cup of the iniquitous is full ; that their case is decided, and their time of respite is past ; and that Justice takes the place of Mercy, and evil is blotted out.

4456. Cf. xvi. 5-8. The fact that beasts, which in their wild state are so noxious, are, when domesticated, so useful to man, is itself one of the great and standing Signs of God's care for man. The great usefulness of cattle is very instructive. They serve for riding, and many of them for food ; further, they are used for the plough, and they produce milk, or wool, or hair ; and from their carcasses man derives bones and horns for many industrial uses ; but passing on to higher aspects of life, they further social, moral, and spiritual uses as draught-animals, in that transport serves one of the fundamental purposes of civilisation, being in this respect like ships for international commerce : xxx. 46, and n. 3565. It is by means of human intercourse through transport that we can carry out the highest needs of our culture, "any need there may be in our hearts", i.e., in our inner being.

71. When the yokes (shall be) <sup>448</sup>
Round their necks,
And the chains;
They shall be dragged along—

72. In the boiling fetid fluid; <sup>449</sup>
Then in the Fire
Shall they be burned,

73. Then shall it be said
To them: "Where are
The (deities) to which
Ye gave part-worship—

74. "In derogation of God?"
They will reply: "They have <sup>450</sup>
Left us in the lurch:
Nay, we invoked not,
Of old, anything (that had Real existence)." Thus
Does God leave
The Unbelievers to stray.

75. "That was because <sup>451</sup>
Ye were wont to rejoice
On the earth in things
Other than the Truth,
And that ye were wont
To be insolent.

76. "Enter ye the gates <sup>452</sup>
Of Hell, to dwell therein:
And evil is (this) abode
Of the arrogant!"

٧١ إِذَا الْأَغْلَظُ فِي أَغْقِهِمُ وَالسَّلْسِلُ
بُسْبُورُ

٧٢ فِي الْمَيِّتِ فِي النَّارِ يُسْجَرُونَ

٧٣ ثُمَّ قِيلَ لَهُمْ أَإِنَّ مَا كُنْتُمْ تُشْرِكُونَ

٧٤ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ قَالُوا ضَلُّوا عَنَّا بَلْ لَمْ تَكُنْ
تَدْعُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ شَيْئًا كَذَلِكَ يَضِلُّ
اللَّهُ الْكَافِرِينَ

٧٥ ذَلِكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَفْرَحُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتُمْ تَمُرُّونَ

٧٦ ادْخُلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
فَبَشِّرْهُم بِأَلْسِنَةِ كَثِيرِينَ

448. The rejection of God's Message, however brought, carries its own penalty. The yoke of spiritual slavery to Sin and Evil is fastened more and more firmly round the rejecter's neck, because there is no one to safeguard his freedom, and the chains of superstitions and the ugly consequences of evil restrict his freedom and the limited faculty of choice which was given by God to man. This process receives its climax at the Hour of Judgment.

449. The sinner gets dragged further and further in the disgusting consequences of his evil actions, until the fire of destruction closes in upon him.

450. All falsehoods will vanish: Cf. vii. 36. The only Reality will be fully manifest even to those to whom Evil was made to seem alluring in the lower life. They will feel in their inmost souls that they had been pursuing mere shadows, things of no real existence. This was the result of their rejecting the Light and the Grace of God: they got entangled in the mazes of error.

451. God does not withdraw His grace from any unless (1) they actively and deliberately take a delight in things that are vain or false, and (2) they insolently reject the things that are true,—in other words, unless men are deliberately false to their own lights, as illuminated by the Light of God.

452. Cf. xxxix. 72.

Then from a sperm-drop,
Then from a leech-like clot;
Then does He get you
Out (into the light)
As a child; then lets you
(Grow and) reach your age
Of full strength; then
Lets you become old,—
Though of you there are
Some who die before;—
And lets you reach
A Term appointed;
In order that ye
May learn wisdom.

68. It is He Who gives Life<sup>445</sup>
And Death; and when He Decides upon an affair,
He says to it, "Be",
And it is.

SECTION 8.

69. Seest thou not those
That dispute concerning
The Signs of God?
How are they turned away<sup>446</sup>
(From Reality)?—

70. Those who reject the Book<sup>447</sup>
And the (revelations) with which
We sent Our apostles:
But soon shall they know,—

ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُكُمْ
طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِنَبْلَأُكُمْ أَشْدَّكُمْ ثُمَّ
لِتَكُونُوا شِوْخًا وَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يَتَوَفَّى مِنْ
قَبْلِ وَلِنَبْلَأُكُمْ أَجْلًا مُّسَمًّى وَلَعَلَّكُمْ
تَعْقِلُونَ

④ هُوَ الَّذِي يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ فَلَا تَغْنَىٰ أَمْرًا
فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ

⑤ أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يَجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
أَنَّهُ يَصْرِفُونَ

⑥ الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِالْكِتَابِ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا
بِهِ رَسُولًا فَهُمْ مُّكِلُونَ

4445. The keys of life and death are in God's hands. But He is not dependent on time or place or instruments or materials. All that He has to do is to say "Be", and it comes into existence. Cf. xvi. 40, and n. 2066; xxxvi. 82, and n. 4029. Conversely, His Will or Command is sufficient to annihilate Existence into Non-Existence (Life into Death) or determine the limits or conditions of Existence or Non-Existence.

4446. Those who dispute about the Signs of God which are clear to all who care to see, are merely in the mists of Unreality; Cf. x. 32.

4447. "The Book" may refer to the Holy Qur-ān or to the fundamental Revelation, the "Mother of the Book" (xiii. 39), while the Books revealed to the apostles are the definite Revelations that came down to men from time to time.

As a resting place,<sup>4439</sup>
 And the sky as a canopy,
 And has given you shape—<sup>4440</sup>
 And made your shapes
 Beautiful,—and has provided
 For you Sustenance,<sup>4441</sup>
 Of things pure and good;—
 Such is God your Lord.
 So Glory to God,
 The Lord of the Worlds!

65. He is the Living (One):<sup>4442</sup>
 There is no god but He:
 Call upon Him, giving Him
 Sincere devotion. Praise be
 To God, Lord of the Worlds!

66. Say: "I have been forbidden"<sup>4443</sup>
 To invoke those whom ye
 Invoke besides God,—seeing that
 The Clear Signs have come
 To me from my Lord;
 And I have been commanded
 To bow (in Islām)
 To the Lord of the Worlds."

67. It is He Who has<sup>4444</sup>
 Created you from dust,

قَارَاوَالسَّمَاءَ بَنَاءً وَصَوَّرَكُمْ
 فَأَحْسَنَ صُورَكُمْ وَرَزَقَكُمْ
 مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ ذَٰلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ
 فَتَبَارَكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ

⑤ هُوَ الْحَيُّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَادْعُوهُ
 مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ
 الْعَالَمِينَ

⑥ قُلْ إِنِّي نُهَيْتُ أَنْ أُعْبَدَ الَّذِينَ
 تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ لَكُمُ الْجَاوِزُ
 الْبَيْتُ مِنْ رَبِّي وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أُسَلِّمَ لِرَبِّ
 الْعَالَمِينَ

⑦ هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ

4439. A resting place: I understand this to imply a temporary place of rest or sojourn, a period of probation, to be followed by the eternal Home.

4440. Cf. vii. 11 and n. 996. The shape and form refer to the physical form as well as to the inborn moral and spiritual capacities of man. As regards physical form, Cf. Milton's description of Adam and Eve, "Two of far noble shape, erect and tall" (Paradise Lost, iv. 288). As regards moral and spiritual capacities, they are typified by the breathing of God's spirit into man: xv. 29.

4441. "Sustenance": all that is necessary for growth and development, physical, moral, and spiritual. Cf. n. 2105 to xvi. 73.

4442. The real, self-subsisting Life is only in Him: Cf. ii. 255, and n. 296. All other forms of life are but shadows compared to His perfect Light.

4443. If God, when we truly apprehend Him, is the only Reality, we must take our standard and inspiration from Him. All other objects of worship are mere delusions. To any one who sees this clearly, through God's Self-revelations, the only possible course is to give up everything else, which his own inner experience as well as outer Revelation tell him is false or of a temporary nature, and to bring his own will and actions into complete unison with the only Reality: for that is the meaning of Islām, bowing to the Will of God. When we bow to the Real and Everlasting, we are automatically saved from falling victims to the False and Evanescent.

4444. Cf. this passage with xxii. 5 and notes 2773 and 2774. The various stages of man's physical life are: (1) first, simple matter (dust); (2) the sperm-drop in the father; (3) the fertilised ovum in the mother's womb; (4) out into the light, as a human child; (5) youth and full maturity; (6) decay; and (7) death. In some cases the later stages are curtailed or cut off; but in any case, a Term appointed is reached, so that the higher purpose of God's Will and Plan may be fulfilled in each given case, that man "may learn wisdom".

60. And your Lord says :
 " Call on Me ; I
 Will answer your (Prayer) : <sup>4434</sup>
 But those who are
 Too arrogant to serve Me
 Will surely find themselves
 In Hell—in humiliation ! "

٥٠ وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ
 إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِي
 سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِينَ

SECTION 7.

61. ~~It~~ is God Who has <sup>4435</sup>
 Made the Night for you,
 That ye may rest therein,
 And the Day, as that
 Which helps (you) to see.
 Verily God is Full of
 Grace and Bounty to men :
 Yet most men give
 No thanks.
62. Such is God, your Lord,
 The Creator of all things.
 There is no god but He :
 Then how ye are deluded <sup>4436</sup>
 Away from the Truth !
63. Thus are deluded those <sup>4437</sup>
 Who are wont to reject
 The Signs of God.
64. ~~It~~ is God Who has <sup>4438</sup>
 Made for you the earth

٥١ اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ اللَّيْلَ
 لِتَسْكُنُوا فِيهِ وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا
 إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ
 وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا
 يَشْكُرُونَ

٥٢ ذَلِكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ
 لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَاتَّقُوهُ كُونَ

٥٣ كَذَلِكَ يُؤْفَكُ الَّذِينَ
 كَانُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ يَجْحَدُونَ

٥٤ اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ الْأَرْضَ

4434. As this life is not the end of all things, and we are to have its fulfilment in the Hereafter : we have only to pray to the Lord of the Present and the Hereafter, and He will hear us, forgive us, guide us, and make our Path smooth. But Pride will have its fall,--and its humiliating Punishment : Cf. xxxvii, 18.

4435. The succession of Day and Night in our physical life is frequently appealed to, as a symbol to draw our attention to the Mercy and Bounty of God. If we viewed these things aright, we should serve God and seek Light from Him and Rest from Him, and celebrate His praises with gratitude.

4436. If we worship false gods, i.e., go after vanities, what is it that deludes us and leads us astray ? What could it be but our rank ingratitude and failure to use the understanding which God has given us ?

4437. See the last two notes. If men are deluded by Falsehoods, it is because they reject Revelation and refuse to learn from the Signs of God all around them.

4438. The argument in the last two verses was from man's personal experiences of his physical life. In this and the next verse a parallel argument is addressed to man on a much higher plane : 'look at the spacious earth and the canopy of the sky ; look at the special position you occupy above other animals that you know, in shape and form, and moral and spiritual capacities ; consider your refinements in food and fruits and the higher spiritual Sustenance of which your physical food is a type ; would you not indeed say that the Lord is good, and would you not glorify His holy name ?'

The Praises of thy Lord
In the evening
And in the morning.<sup>4429</sup>

56. Those who dispute
About the Signs of God
Without any authority
Bestowed on them,—there is<sup>4430</sup>
Nothing in their breasts
But (the quest of) greatness,
Which they shall never
Attain to : seek refuge,
Then, in God : it is He
Who hears and sees (all things).

57. Assuredly the creation<sup>4431</sup>
Of the heavens
And the earth
Is a greater (matter)
Than the creation of men :
Yet most men understand not.

58. Not equal are the blind
And those who (clearly) see :<sup>4432</sup>
Nor are (equal) those
Who believe and work
Deeds of righteousness, and
Those who do evil.
Little do ye learn
By admonition !

59. The Hour will certainly come :<sup>4433</sup>
Therein is no doubt :
Yet most men believe not.

يَحْمَدُ رَبَّكَ بِالْعِشِيِّ وَالْأَبْحَرِ

٥٦ إِنْ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ
اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَاهُمْ إِنْ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ
إِلَّا كِبَرٌ مَّا هُمْ بِيَلْقَوْنَ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ
إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

٥٧ لَخَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ خَلْقِ
النَّاسِ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ
لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

٥٨ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَىٰ وَالْبَصِيرُ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَلَا الْمُنَافِقُونَ
مَّا تَعْمُونَ

٥٩ إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَآتِيَةٌ لَّا رَيْبَ فِيهَا
وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ

4429. Cf. iii, 41. Evening and morning are the best times for mystic contemplation and spiritual effort. But the phrase "evening and morning" may mean "at all times".

4430. The Disputers are actuated by nothing but the desire for self-glory and self-aggrandizement. Their desire is not likely to receive fruition, but others should take warning from it.

4431. The heavens and the earth include mankind and all other creatures and millions of stars. Man is himself but a tiny part of creation. Why should he be so ego-centric? The whole is greater than a tiny part of it. And God Who created the whole of the Worlds is able to do much more wonderful things than can enter the imagination of man. Why should man be arrogant and doubt the Resurrection, and take upon himself to doubt the possibility of God's Revelation? It is only because he has made himself blind. See next verse.

4432. The man of Faith who backs his faith by righteous conduct is like the man of clear vision, who sees things in their true perspective and walks with firm steps in the Way of God. The man who does evil is like a blind man : the Light of God is all around him, but the man has made himself blind, and he can see nothing. He has rejected Faith and cannot even learn by other people's admonition.

4433. "The Hour" is the crown and consummation of man's life on this earth,—the gateway to the Hereafter.

SECTION 6.

51. ~~We~~ We will, without doubt,
Help Our apostles and those
Who believe, (both)
In this world's life
And on the Day
When the Witnesses <sup>4424</sup>
Will stand forth,—

٥١ إِنَّا لَنَنْصُرُ رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ
الدُّنْيَا وَيَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْأَشْهَادُ

52. The Day when no profit
Will it be to Wrong-doers
To present their excuses, <sup>4425</sup>
But they will (only) have
The Curse and the Home
Of Misery.

٥٢ يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ الظَّالِمِينَ مَعْذِرَتُهُمْ
وَلَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَلَهُمْ سُوءُ النَّارِ

53. We did aforetime give Moses
The (Book of) Guidance, <sup>4426</sup>
And We gave the Book
In inheritance to the Children
Of Israel,—

٥٣ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْهُدًى وَأَوْرَثْنَا بَنِي
إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ

54. A Guide and a Message
To men of understanding.

٥٤ هُدًى وَذِكْرَى لِلْأُولَى الْأَلْبَابِ

55. Patiently, then, persevere : <sup>4427</sup>
For the Promise of God
Is true : and ask forgiveness <sup>4428</sup>
For thy fault, and celebrate

٥٥ فَاصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ حَقًّا وَأَسْتَغْفِرْ
لِذُنُوبِكَ وَسَبِّحْ

4424. The Day of Judgment is described as "the Day when Witnesses will stand forth". This description implies two things: (1) that there man will be judged justly; his past actions and his faculties and opportunities will be witnesses as to the use he made of them (xxiv. 24); in fact he will himself be a witness against himself (vi. 130); and the prophets and just men will bear witness to the fact that they preached and warned men (xxxix. 69; ii. 133).

4425. After the testimony mentioned in the last note, there will be no room for excuses, and if any were made, they could serve no purpose, unlike the state of matters in this world, where there is much make-believe, and Falsehood often masquerades as Truth and is accepted as such even by those who should know better.

4426. Moses was given a Revelation, and it was given in heritage to the Children of Israel, to preserve it, guide their conduct by it, and hold aloft its Message: but they failed in all these particulars.

4427. The Israelites corrupted or lost their Book; they disobeyed God's Law; and failed to proclaim and exemplify God's Message. That is why the new Revelation came to the holy Apostle. If, in the beginning, it was rejected and persecuted, there was no cause for discouragement; on the contrary, there was all the greater need for patience and perseverance.

4428. Every mortal according to his nature and degree of spiritual enlightenment falls short of the perfect standard of God (xvi. 61), and should therefore ask God for forgiveness. What is merit in an ordinary man may be a human shortcoming in one nearest to God: see xxxviii. 24-25, and notes 4175-76. Prophets have a further responsibility for their People or their Ummat, and they ask in a representative capacity.

Take (on yourselves) from us
Some share of the Fire?"

48. Those who had been arrogant
Will say: "We are all"<sup>441</sup>
In this (Fire)! Truly,
God has judged
Between (His) Servants!"

49. Those in the Fire will say
To the Keepers of Hell: "<sup>442</sup>
"Pray to your Lord
To lighten us the Penalty
For a Day (at least)!"

50. They will say: "Did there
Not come to you
Your apostles with Clear Signs?"
They will say, "Yes".
They will reply, "Then"<sup>443</sup>
Pray (as ye like)! But
The Prayer of those Without Faith is nothing
But (futile wandering)
In (mazes of) error!"

تَقْنُونَ عَمَّا نَصِيبًا مِنَ النَّارِ

٥٨ قَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُلٌّ
فِيهَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ حَكَمَ بَيْنَ الْعِبَادِ

٥٩ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ فِي النَّارِ لِخَزَنَةِ جَهَنَّمَ
ادْعُوا رَبَّكُمْ يُخَفِّفْ عَنَّا يَوْمًا مِّنَ
الْعَذَابِ

٦٠ قَالُوا أَوَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ رُسُلُكُمُ
بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَالُوا فَأَدْعُوا مَادَّعَوْا
الْكَاذِبِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ

C. 208.—God's grace and help are ever ready
(xl. 51-85.) For His servants who patiently persevere.
Let not arrogance blind the souls
Of men: the Hour of Judgment is bound
To come. The keys of Life and Death
Are in the hands of God. Dispute not
The Signs of God, but learn from History
And the world around you. Science and skill
Avail you not if the soul is dead,

4421. Note the evasion and cynicism of the answer, befitting the character of spiritual mis-leaders! 'What! are we not suffering with you in the same Fire! Pray to God if you like! He has pronounced His Judgment!' Cf. xiv. 21-22.

4422. Cf. xxxix. 71. The poor misguided ones will turn to the angels who are their Keepers, asking them to pray and intercede for them. But the angels are set there to watch over them, not to intercede for them. In their innocence they ask, 'Did you have no warnings from apostles, men like yourselves, in your past life?'

4423. The answer being in the affirmative, they will have to tell the dreadful truth: 'This is neither the time nor the place for prayer, for mercy! And in any case, Prayer without Faith is Delusion, and must miss its mark.' Cf. xlii. 14.

Or in the Hereafter;
Our Return will be
To God; and the Transgressors
Will be Companions
Of the Fire!

44. "Soon will ye remember
What I say to you (now).<sup>4417</sup>
My (own) affair I commit
To God : for God (ever)
Watches over His Servants."

45. When God saved him
From (every) ill that they
Plotted (against him),
But the brunt of the Penalty<sup>4418</sup>
Encompassed on all sides
The People of Pharaoh.

46. In front of the Fire
Will they be brought,
Morning and evening :<sup>4419</sup>
And (the Sentence will be)
On the Day that
Judgment will be established :
"Cast ye the People
Of Pharaoh into
The severest Penalty!"

47. Behold, they will dispute
With each other in the Fire!<sup>4420</sup>
The weak ones (who followed)
Will say to those who
Had been arrogant, "We but
Followed you : can ye then

وَلَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَأَنْتَ مَرْدَّنَا إِلَى اللَّهِ
وَأَنْتَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ هُمْ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ

④ قَتَذَكُرُونَ مَا أَقُولَ لَكُمْ
وَأَفُوضُ أَمْرِي إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
بَصِيرٌ بِالْعِبَادِ

⑤ فَوَقَّهَ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتِ مَا مَكَرُوا وَحَاقَ بِآلِ
فِرْعَوْنَ سُوءُ الْعَذَابِ

⑥ النَّارُ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا غُدُوًّا وَعَشِيًّا
وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ أَدْخِلُوا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ أَشَدَّ
الْعَذَابِ

⑦ وَإِذْ يَتَحَاوَرُونَ فِي النَّارِ فَيَقُولُ
الضُّعْفَاءُ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا
كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَمَا كُنَّا

4417. The wording suggests as if there was a plot to kill him, but he was saved, as the next verse shows. His thought to the last is with his People. 'No matter what you do to me : you will have cause to remember my admonition, when perhaps it is too late for you to repent. For my part I commit myself to the care of God, and my Faith tells me that all will be right.'

4418. The Pharaoh of the time of Moses, and his people, suffered many calamities in this world : vii. 130-136. But those were nothing to the spiritual Penalties mentioned in the next verse.

4419. When the Judgment really comes, it is not like an ordinary physical disaster. The Fire of Punishment is ever present—morning and evening—i.e., at all times. The sentence becomes final and there is no mitigation.

4420. Just as Unity, Harmony, and Peace are symbols of Truth, Bliss, and Salvation, so Reproaches, Disputes, and Disorders are symbols of Hell.

That is the Home
That will last.<sup>4412</sup>

40. "He that works evil
Will not be requited
But by the like thereof;
And he that works
A righteous deed—whether
Man or woman—and is
A Believer—such will enter
The Garden (of Bliss): therein
Will they have abundance<sup>4413</sup>
Without measure.

41. "And O my People!
How (strange) it is<sup>4414</sup>
For me to call you
To Salvation while ye
Call me to the Fire!

42. "Ye do call upon me
To blaspheme against God,<sup>4415</sup>
And to join with Him
Partners of whom I have
No knowledge; and I
Call you to the Exalted
In Power, Who forgives
Again and again!"

43. "Without doubt ye do call
Me to one who is not
Fit to be called to,<sup>4416</sup>
Whether in this world,

هِيَ دَارُ الْقَرَارِ

① مَنْ عَمِلَ سَيِّئَةً فَلَا يُجْزَى إِلَّا مِثْلَهَا
وَمَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا مِنْ ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أَنْثَى وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ
فَأُولَئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ يُرْزَقُونَ
فِيهَا بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ

② وَتَدْعُونَنِي إِلَى الْفِتْرِ
وَتَدْعُونَنِي إِلَى النَّارِ

③ تَدْعُونَنِي لِأَكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ وَأُشْرِكَ بِهِ
مَا لَيْسَ لِي بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَأَنَا أَدْعُوكُمْ إِلَى
الْعَزِيمِ الْغَشَقَرِ

④ لَا جِسْمَ أَتَمَّا تَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ لَيْسَ لَهُ
دَعْوَةٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا

4412. Faith makes him see the contrast between vanities, even though they may glitter temporarily, and the eternal Good that is destined for man.

4413. Cf. ii. 212. The spiritual Good will not only last. It will be a most liberal reward, far above any merits of the recipient.

4414. It may seem strange according to the laws of this world that he should be seeking their Good while they are seeking his damnation! But that is the merit of Faith. Its mission is to rescue its enemies and God's enemies, as far as their will will consent!

4415. The worship of Pharaoh was but typical of Egyptian blasphemy, but it had many sides, including the worship of heroes, animals, powers of good and evil in nature, and idols of all kinds. It is this comprehensive cult which required forgiveness again and again, but God is Exalted in Power, and gives such forgiveness on repentance.

4416. Faith is not content with its own inner vision and conviction. It can give ample arguments. Three are mentioned here: (1) nothing but God is worthy of worship, either in this world of sense or in the spiritual world; (2) our Return will be to God, the only Reality; and (3) the worship of Falsehood must necessarily lead to the Penalty of Falsehood, unless God's Mercy intervenes and forgives on our sincere repentance.

36. Pharaoh said : " O Hāmān !
Build me a lofty palace,<sup>4408</sup>
That I may attain
The ways and means—

⑥ وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ يَهْمَنُ ابْنِي
صَرَحًا عَلَيَّ أَبْلُغْ الْأَسْبَابَ

37. " The ways and means
Of (reaching) the heavens,
And that I may mount up
To the God of Moses :
But as far as I am concerned,
I think (Moses) is a liar ! "
Thus was made alluring,<sup>4409</sup>
In Pharaoh's eyes,
The evil of his deeds,
And he was hindered
From the Path ; and the plot<sup>4410</sup>
Of Pharaoh led to nothing
But perdition (for him).

⑦ أَسْبَابَ السَّمَوَاتِ فَأَطَّلِعَ إِلَى إِلَهِ
مُوسَى وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّهُ كَاذِبًا وَكَذَلِكَ
زُيِّنَ لِفِرْعَوْنَ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ وَصُدَّ
عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَمَا كَيْدُ فِرْعَوْنَ إِلَّا فِي تَبَابٍ

SECTION 5.

38. The man who believed said
Further : " O my People !
Follow me : I will lead
You to the Path of Right."<sup>4411</sup>

⑧ وَقَالَ الَّذِي آمَنَ يَهْدِي
أَتَّبِعُونَ أَهْدِيكُمْ سَبِيلَ الرَّشَادِ

39. " O my People ! This life
Of the present is nothing
But (temporary) convenience :
It is the Hereafter

⑨ يَقُولُوا إِنَّمَا هَذِهِ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا
مَتَاعٌ وَإِنَّ الْآخِرَةَ

4408. Cf. xxviii. 38, and n. 3371. There are two points to be noted here. (1) Pharaoh, in the arrogance of his materialism, thinks of the Kingdom of Heaven like a kingdom on earth ; he thinks of spiritual things in terms of palaces and ladders : notice that the word asbāb (ways and means) is emphasised by repetition. (2) His sarcasm turns Moses and God to ridicule. Really he does not believe in anything spiritual, and he frankly states that ' for his part he thinks Moses is a liar ', though other men less lofty than he (Pharaoh) may be deceived by the Clear Signs of Moses.

4410. Pharaoh had plotted to slay Moses (xl. 26) and to kill the Children of Israel (xl. 25). The plot recoiled on his own head and on the head of his people who joined in the plot ; for they were all drowned in the Red Sea.

4411. Note the contrast between the earnest beseeching tone of the Believer here and the hectoring tone of Pharaoh in using similar words in xl. 29 above.

33. "A Day when ye
Shall turn your backs
And flee: no defender
Shall ye have from God:
Any whom God leaves
To stray, there is none
To guide ...

٣٣ يَوْمَ تَوَلَّوْا مُدْبِرِينَ مَا لَكُمْ
مِنْ اللَّهِ مِنْ عَاصِمٍ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ
فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ

34. "And to you there came
Joseph in times gone by,<sup>4405</sup>
With Clear Signs, but
Ye ceased not to doubt
Of the (mission) for which
He had come; at length,
When he died, ye said:
'No apostle will God send'<sup>4406</sup>
After him.' Thus doth God
Leave to stray such as
Transgress and live in doubt,—

٣٤ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ يُوسُفُ مِنْ قَبْلُ
بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَتَارْتَرُونَ فِي شَكٍّ يَمَّا جَاءَكُمْ
بِهِ حَتَّى إِذَا هَلَكَ قُلْتُمْ لَنْ يَبْعَثَ اللَّهُ مِثْلَهُ
ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا رَسُولًا كَذَلِكَ يُضِلُّ اللَّهُ مَنْ هُوَ
مُسْرِفٌ مُرْتَابٌ

35. "(Such) as dispute about
The Signs of God,
Without any authority
That hath reached them.
Grievous and odious
(Is such conduct)
In the sight of God
And of the Believers.
Thus doth God seal up<sup>4407</sup>
Every heart—of arrogant
And obstinate transgressors."

٣٥ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَاهُمْ كَبُرَ مَقْتًا عِنْدَ
اللَّهِ وَعِنْدَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ
اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ قَلْبٍ مُتَكَبِّرٍ
جَبَّارٍ

4405. So far he has been speaking of general religious tradition. Now, as an Egyptian, addressing Egyptians, he refers to the mission of Joseph in Egypt, for which see the whole of Sūra xii, and Appendix VI following it. Joseph was not born in Egypt, nor was he an Egyptian. With what wonderful incidents he came into Egypt! What difficulties did he not surmount among his own brothers first, and in the Egyptian family which afterwards adopted him! How injustice, spite, and forgetfulness on the part of others, yet wove a spell round him and made him a ruler and saviour of Egypt in times of famine! How he preached to prisoners in prison, to Zulaikha in her household, to the Egyptian ladies in their banquet, and to the Court of Pharaoh generally! The Egyptians profited by the material gains which came to them through him, but as a nation remained sceptical of his spiritual truths for many generations after him.

4406. See Appendix IV, p. 406, for a discussion of the interval between Joseph and Moses. Perhaps the interval was about one to three centuries, a very short period for the memory of a learned nation like the Egyptians. And yet they as a nation ignored his spiritual work, and afterwards even persecuted Israel in Egypt until Moses delivered them. They actually saw the benefits conferred by Joseph, but did not realise that God's Kingdom works continuously even though men ignore it. See Appendix V, pp. 408-13, for a sketch of Religion in Egypt. For such men how could the Grace and Guidance of God be effective in their hearts?

4407. See the last note. The arrogant transgressors having closed their hearts to the Message of God and to every appeal made to them, it followed by God's Law that their hearts were sealed up to any fresh influences for good. Cf. vii. 100; also ii. 7, and n. 31.

Ye have the upper hand <sup>4399</sup>
 In the land: but who
 Will help us from
 The Punishment of God,
 Should it befall us? "
 Pharaoh said: "I but
 Point out to you that
 Which I see (myself); <sup>4400</sup>
 Nor do I guide you
 But to the Path of Right! "

30. فThen said the man
 Who believed: "O my People!
 Truly I do fear
 For you something like <sup>4401</sup>
 The Day (of disaster)
 Of the Confederates (in sin)!—<sup>4402</sup>

31. "Something like the fate
 Of the People of Noah,
 The 'Ad, and the Thamūd,
 And those who came
 After them: but God
 Never wishes injustice <sup>4403</sup>
 To His Servants.

32. "And O my People!
 I fear for you a Day <sup>4404</sup>
 When there will be
 Mutual calling (and wailing),—

ظَاهِرِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَنْ يَنْصُرُنَا مِنْ
 بَأْسِ اللَّهِ إِنْ جَاءَنَا قَالَ قَرَعُونَ
 مَا أُرِيكُمْ إِلَّا مَا أَرَى وَمَا أَهْدِيكُمْ
 إِلَّا سَبِيلَ الرَّشَادِ

٣٠ وَقَالَ الَّذِي آمَنَ يَوْمَئِذٍ أَخَافُ
 عَلَيْكُمْ مِثْلَ يَوْمِ الْأَحْزَابِ

٣١ مِثْلَ ذَابِ قَوْمِ نُوحٍ وَعَادٍ وَثَمُودَ
 وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَمَا اللَّهُ بِرَبِّدٍ ظَلَمَ
 لِّلْعِبَادِ

٣٢ وَهَيَّئُوا لِي آخَافٌ عَلَيْكُمْ يَوْمَ
 التَّنَادِ

4399. 'Do not be puffed up with arrogance because the power is in your hands at present! Do you deserve it? Will it last? If you are sinning and drawing upon yourselves God's Punishment, is there anything that can shield you from it?

4400. Pharaoh's egotism and arrogance come out. 'I can see and understand everything. As I see things, so do I direct you. The Path which I see must be right, and you must follow it.'

4401. He appeals to past history. 'Have you not heard of people who lived before you?—like the generations of Noah, the 'Ad, the Thamūd, and many more—who held together in sin against God's Preachers, but were wiped out for their sins?'

4402. Cf. xxxviii. 11-13, and n. 4158, also xl. 5, and n. 4361.

4403. 'All these disasters happened in history, and they will happen again to you if you do not give up evil. Do not for a moment think that God is unjust. It is you who are deliberately preparing the disasters by your conduct.'

4404. This Day may refer to the Day of Judgment, of which three features are here referred to. (1) People may wail and call to each other, but no one can help another: each one will have his own judgment to face; (2) the wicked will then be driven to Hell from the Judgment-Seat; and (3) there will be no one to help, guide, or intercede, because the grace and guidance of God had already been rejected. But the words are perfectly general, and are applicable to all stages at which the Wrath of God is manifest.

27. Moses said: "I have indeed
Called upon my Lord
And your, Lord <sup>4395</sup>
(For protection) from every Arrogant one who believes not
In the Day of Account!"

SECTION 4.

28. A Believer, a man <sup>4396</sup>
From among the people
Of Pharaoh, who had concealed
His faith, said: "Will ye
Slay a man because he Says, 'My Lord is God'?—
When he has indeed come
To you with Clear (Signs)
From your Lord? And if
He be a liar, on him
Is (the sin of) his lie;
But, if he is telling <sup>4397</sup>
The Truth, then will
Fall on you something
Of the (calamity) of which
He warns you: truly
God guides not one <sup>4398</sup>
Who transgresses and lies!

29. "O my People! yours
Is the dominion this day:

وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِمَنِ عُذَّتِ رَبِّي
وَرَبِّي كُفُّوا عَنْ كُلِّ مَكْرٍ
لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ

وَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مُّؤْمِنٌ مِّنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ
يَكْتُمُ إِيمَانَهُ أَتَقْتُلُونَ رَجُلًا
أَن يَقُولَ رَبِّيَ اللَّهُ وَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ
بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَإِن يَكُ كَذِبًا
فَعَلَيْهِ كَذِبُهُ وَإِن يَكُ صَادِقًا
يُضِيبُكُمْ بِهِ الَّذِي يَعِدُكُمْ إِنَّ
اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ مُسْرِفٌ كَذَابٌ

يَقَوْمِ لَكُمْ الْمُلْكُ الْيَوْمَ

4395. The whole point of the Gospel of Unity which Moses preached was that the God of Moses and the God of Pharaoh, of Israel and of Egypt, the Lord of all the Worlds, was One,—the only True God. See xx. 49-50 and notes 2572 and 2573.

4396. There is nothing to justify the identification of this man with the man mentioned in xxviii. 20, who warned Moses long before Moses had received his mission. On the contrary, in this passage, the man is evidently speaking after Moses had received his mission, preached to Pharaoh, and got a certain amount of success, for which Pharaoh and his people were trying to seek his life. Moses had evidently already brought his Clear Signs.

4397. A commonsense view is put before them by an Egyptian who loves his own people and does not wish them to perish in sin. "Will you kill this man for calling on God? Have you not seen his character and behaviour? Do you not see the 'Clear Signs' about him that bespeak his credentials? Suppose for a moment that he is a liar and pretender; he will suffer for his falsehood, but why should you turn against God? But suppose that he is really inspired by God to tell you the truth and warn you against evil, what will be your fate when God's Wrath descends? For it must descend if he is a true Messenger sent by God."

4398. 'This is with reference to the "Clear signs". 'They are Signs of God's guidance, for God would never guide a man who exceeds the bounds of truth and tells you lies! Such a man is bound to be found out!'

24. To Pharaoh, Hāmān,<sup>4390</sup>
And Qārūn; but they Called (him) "a sorcerer
Telling lies!"...

٢٤ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامَانَ وَقَارُونَ
فَقَالُوا سَاحِرٌ كَذَّابٌ

25. Now, when he came to them<sup>4391</sup>
In Truth, from Us,
They said, "Slay the sons
Of those who believe<sup>4392</sup>
With him, and keep alive
Their females," but the plots
Of Unbelievers (end) in nothing
But errors (and delusions)!...

٢٥ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُم بِآلِ الْحَقِّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا قَالُوا
أَقْتُلُوا أَبْنَاءَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَعَهُ
وَاسْتَحْيُوا نِسَاءَهُمْ وَهُدًى وَمَا كُنْتُمْ
بِالْمُكَفِّرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ

26. Said Pharaoh: "Leave me
To slay Moses; and let him
Call on his Lord!<sup>4393</sup>
What I fear is lest
He should change your religion,<sup>4394</sup>
Or lest he should cause
Mischiefs to appear
In the land!"

٢٦ وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ ذَرُونِي أَقْتُلْ مُوسَى
وَلْيَدْعُ رَبَّهُ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُبَدِّلَ
دِينَكُمْ أَوْ أَنْ يُظْهِرَ فِي الْأَرْضِ الْفَسَادَ

4390. Here are three types of Unfaith, each showing a different phase, and yet all united in opposition to the Truth and Mission of Moses. (1) Pharaoh is the type of arrogance, cruelty, and reliance on brute force; Cf. xxviii. 38-39. (2) Hāmān was Pharaoh's minister (n. 3331 to xxviii. 6; also xxviii. 38); he was the type of a sycophant who would pander to the vanity of any man in power. (3) Qārūn excelled in his wealth, was selfish in its use, and overbearing to the poor (xxviii. 76-81, and n. 3404). They all came to an evil end eventually.

4391. Verse 24 described the opposition of three types of Unfaith, which opposed Faith, in different ways, as described in the last note. Qārūn, in his overweening insolence, may well have called Moses and Aaron "sorcerers telling lies" in the Sinai desert, as he despised priests and men of God, and might cast the Egyptian reproach in their teeth as a reminiscence. Here, in verse 25, we have an episode about the time of the birth of Moses; "them" and "they" refer to Pharaoh and his Court; the "coming" of Moses here refers to the time of his birth. On that construction, "with him", lower down in their speech would be elliptical, referring to "slay the sons", as if they had said, "Kill all Israelite male children: the unknown Prophet to be born would be amongst them: so kill them all with him." In verse 26 we again skip some years and recall an episode when Moses, having got his mission, stood in Pharaoh's Court, and some of the Egyptian Commonalty were almost ready to believe in him.

4392. That is, the Israelites, for they were the custodians of God's Faith then. For the slaughter of Israelite children by Pharaoh, see xxviii. 4-6, and notes.

4393. This is an episode that occurs when Moses, invested with his mission, confronts Pharaoh in his Court and preaches to him: see xx. 49 and following verses; also xx. 57, 63.

4394. Some of Pharaoh's people did afterwards give up the worship of Pharaoh and of the Egyptian gods and believed "in the Lord of Aaron and Moses" and in fact suffered martyrdom for the Faith of Unity: xx. 70-73.

But evil. Mighty men of old
In arrogance plotted against God's Truth,
But were brought low. A humble Believer
In Pharaoh's Court stood up for Truth,
And counselled his People to obey the Right :
In earnest humility did he address them.
They heard him not. But he was saved,
And they were engulfed in the Wrath of God.

SECTION 3.

21. Do they not travel
Through the earth and see
What was the End
Of those before them ? <sup>4386</sup>
They were even superior
To them in strength,
And in the traces (they <sup>4387</sup>
Have left) in the land ;
But God did call them
To account for their sins,
And none had they
To defend them against God.

22. That was because there came
To them their apostles <sup>4388</sup>
With Clear (Signs),
But they rejected them :
So God called them
To account : for He is
Full of Strength,
Strict in Punishment.

23. Of old We sent Moses, <sup>4389</sup>
With Our Signs
And an Authority manifest,

٢١ * أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا
مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا هُمْ أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً
وَإِذَا رَأَوْا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ
وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَاقٍ

٢٢ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَانَتْ تَأْتِيهِمْ
رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَكَفَرُوا
فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ إِنَّهُ قَوِيٌّ شَدِيدُ
الْعِقَابِ

٢٣ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَى بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ
مُبِينٍ

4386. Cf. xxx. 9 and several other similar passages.

4387. See n. 3515 to xxx. 9. We can learn from the history of previous nations. Many of them were more powerful, or have left finer and more imposing monuments and made a deeper impression on the world around them than any particular generation addressed. "Traces" in the text may be taken in that extended sense. And yet all this did not save them from the consequences of their sins. They were called to account and punished. None of the power or pomp or skill of which they boasted could for a moment ward off the punishment when it came in God's good time.

4388. But God in His Mercy always sends a Message of warning and good news through his apostles, and He gives His apostles Clear Signs and an authority that can be recognised. Among the Clear Signs are: (1) the pure and unselfish lives of the apostles; (2) the revelation of truth which they bring; (3) their influence on the course of events in their own and succeeding generations; etc. Some of these may be so remarkable that they merit the name of Miracles.

4389. This is not the story of Moses himself, so much as an introduction to the story of the one just man who believed, in the court of Pharaoh: see verse 28 below. This Sûra ("The Believer") is called after him.

18. Warn them of the Day
That is (ever) drawing near,
When the Hearts will (Come) right up to the Throats <sup>4381</sup>
To choke (them);
No intimate friend <sup>4382</sup>
Nor intercessor will the wrong-doers
Have, who could be

19. (God) knows of (the tricks)
That deceive with the eyes, <sup>4383</sup>

(Of men) conceal, <sup>4384</sup>

20. And God will judge
With (Justice and) Truth :
But those whom (men)
Invoke besides Him, will
Not (be in a position)
To judge at all.
Verily it is God (alone)
Who hears and sees <sup>4385</sup>
(All things).

وَاللَّهُ يَقْضِي بِالْحَقِّ وَالَّذِينَ
يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ لَا يَقْضُونَ شَيْئًا
إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

C. 207.—Travel in space and time, and you
(xl. 21-50.) Will see that Evil came to nothing

4381. Hearts will come right up to the Throats to choke them : an idiom implying that the whole of their life-functions will be choked up with terror. But a more subtle meaning emerges from further analysis. The heart (or the breast) is the seat of affection, emotion, and every kind of feeling, such as terror, pain, despair, etc. These things will as it were overflow right up to the throat and choke it. The throat is the vehicle for the voice; their voice will be choked, and they will be able to say nothing. The throat is the channel for food, which goes to the stomach and maintains a healthy functioning of life; the choking means that the healthy functioning will stop, and there will be nothing but woe.

4382. In that enforcement of personal responsibility, what sympathy or intercession can the wrong-doers get? Is Hamim in any way connected with the Abbreviated Letters Hā-Mīm attached to this Sūra? See Introduction.

4383. Men may be taken in by tricks that deceive with the eyes, but God's perfect knowledge penetrates through all mysteries. "Deceive with the eyes" may mean several things: (1) a sleight of hand (literally or figuratively) may deceive in respect of the eyes of beholders, for the things that they see do not actually happen; (2) it may be the deceiver's own eyes that play false, because, for example, they show love when hatred is meant; or (3) it may be that the eyes of the beholder play him false, in that he sees things that he should not see, and thus sins with his eyes.

4384. Here we come into the region of evil motives and thoughts which may be concealed in the heart, breast, or mind, but which are all perfectly known to God.

4385. If men build their hopes or their faith in anything except the Divine Grace, they will find themselves deserted. Any pretences that they make will be known to God. On the other hand every single good act, or word, or motive, or aspiration of their will, will reach God's Throne of Mercy.

Even though the Unbelievers<sup>4375</sup>
May detest it.

وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ

15. Raised high above ranks
(Or degrees),<sup>4376</sup>
(He is) the Lord
Of the Throne (of authority):
By His Command doth He
Send the spirit (of inspiration)
To any of His servants<sup>4377</sup>
He pleases, that it may
Warn (men) of the Day
Of Mutual Meeting,—<sup>4378</sup>

١٥ رَفِيعُ الدَّرَجَاتِ ذُو الْعَرْشِ يُلْقِي الرُّوحَ
مِنْ أَمْرِهِ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ لِيُنْذِرَ
يَوْمَ التَّلَافِ

16. The Day whereon
They will (all) come forth:
Not a single thing
Concerning them is hidden
From God.. Whose will be
The Dominion that Day? <sup>4379</sup>
That of God, the One,
The Irresistible!

١٦ يَوْمَ هُمْ بَرْزُورٌ لَا يَخْفَى عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنْهُمْ
شَيْءٌ لَمَّا لَمْ يَكُنِ لِلْيَوْمِ لِلَّهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ

17. That Day will every soul
Be requited for what
It earned; no injustice
Will there be that Day,
For God is Swift<sup>4380</sup>
In taking account.

١٧ الْيَوْمَ تُجْزَى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ لَا ظُلْمَ
الْيَوْمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ

4375, Cf. ix. 33.

4376. He is raised far above any rank or degree which we can imagine. It is possible also to treat Ra'f' as equivalent to Rāf', meaning that He can raise His creatures to the highest ranks and degrees in His spiritual kingdom, for He is the fountain of all honour.

4377. The choosing of a man to be the recipient of inspiration—to be the standard-bearer of God's Truth—is the highest honour possible in the spiritual Kingdom. And God bestows that honour according to His own most perfect Will and Plan, which no one can question, for He is the fountain of all honour, dignity, and authority.

4378. All men will meet together and meet their Lord at the Resurrection, no matter how far scattered they may have been in life or in death.

4379. The Kingdom of God—of Justice, Truth, and Righteousness—will then be fully established. Evil can then no more come into competition with Good, even in the subjective consciousness of man.

4380. Swift in several senses: (1) the time of the present life or of the interval before Judgment, i.e., before the restoration of true values, is so short as compared to Eternity, that it may be counted as negligible: in the next verse the Day is characterised as "(ever) drawing near"; (2) in spite of the great concourse of souls to be judged, the process of Judgment will be almost instantaneous, "in the twinkling of an eye" (xvi. 77), because everything is already known to God; and yet not the least injustice will be done.

To yourselves, seeing that ye
Were called to the Faith
And ye used to refuse."

11. They will say: " Our Lord!
Twice hast Thou made us <sup>4371</sup>
Without life, and twice
Hast Thou given us Life!
Now have we recognised
Our sins: is there
Any way out (of this) ? "

12. (The answer will be : )
" This is because, when
God was invoked as
The Only (object of worship), <sup>4372</sup>
Ye did reject Faith,
But when partners were
Joined to Him, ye believed!
The Command is with God, <sup>4373</sup>
Most High, Most Great! "

13. ~~He~~ <sup>He</sup> it is Who showeth
You His Signs, and sendeth
Down Sustenance for you <sup>4374</sup>
From the sky: but only
Those receive admonition
Who turn (to God).

14. Call ye, then, upon God
With sincere devotion to Him,

أَنْفُسَكُمْ إِذْ دُعِيتُمْ إِلَى الْإِيمَانِ

فَكُفَرْتُمْ

① فَالْوَارِثَ أَمْثَلْنَا أَنْتَيْنِ وَأَخِيَّتَنَا

أَنْتَيْنِ فَأَعْتَرَفْنَا بِذُنُوبِنَا فَهَلْ إِلَى

خُرُوجٍ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ

② ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُ إِذَا دُعِيَ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ

كَفَرْتُمْ وَإِنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ تُؤْمِنُونَ

فَالْحُكْمُ لِلَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْكَبِيرِ

③ هُوَ الَّذِي يُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُنَزِّلُ

لَكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ رِزْقًا وَمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ

إِلَّا مَنْ يَنْبِ

④ فَادْعُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ

4371. Cf. ii. 28: " How can ye reject the faith in God?—seeing that ye were without life, and He gave you life; then will He cause you to die, and will again bring you to life; and again to Him will ye return." Non-existence, or existence as clay without life was equiva'ent to death. Then came true Life on this earth; then came physical death or the cessation of our physical life; and now at the Resurrection, is the second life.

4372. Cf. xxxix. 45, and n. 4313. When exclusive devotion is not rendered to God, there is no true understanding, in the mind of a creature, of his own true position, or of the working of the Divine Will and Purpose. How can he then hope to achieve the purpose of his life, or obtain God's Mercy, which is the only way to obtain release from the consequences of Sin?

4373. At the Judgment, the matter will have passed out of the stage at which further chances could have been hoped for. But in any case God is High above all things, Great above all that we can conceive of, both in Mercy and in Justice. The Decision will be with Him, and Him alone.

4374. Lest it should be thought that God's Grace did not meet the Sinner again and again and offer God's Mercy again and again, it is pointed out that God's Signs were freely vouchsafed everywhere and continuously, and that every kind of means was provided for man's "Sustenance" or growth and development, physical, mental, and spiritual. But only those could take advantage of it who turned their attention to God, who submitted their will to Him.

Is over all things,
In Mercy and Knowledge.
Forgive, then, those who
Turn in Repentance, and follow
Thy Path; and preserve them
From the Penalty
Of the Blazing Fire!

8. "And grant, our Lord!
That they enter
The Gardens of Eternity,
Which Thou hast promised
To them, and to the righteous
Among their fathers,<sup>4367</sup>
Their wives, and their posterity!
For Thou art (He),
The Exalted in Might,
Full of Wisdom.

9. "And preserve them
From (all) ills;
And any whom Thou
Dost preserve from ills<sup>4368</sup>
That Day,—on them
Wilt Thou have bestowed
Mercy indeed: and that
Will be truly (for them)
The highest Achievement"<sup>4369</sup>

SECTION 2.

10. The Unbelievers will be Addressed: "Greater was
The aversion of God to you<sup>4370</sup>
Than (is) your aversion

كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رَّحْمَةً وَعِلْمًا فَاغْفِرْ
لِلَّذِينَ تَابُوا وَاتَّبَعُوا سَبِيلَكَ وَقِهِمْ
عَذَابَ الْجَحِيمِ

⑧ رَبَّنَا وَأَدْخِلْهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ الَّتِي
وَعَدْتَهُمْ وَمِنْ صَلَاحٍ مِنْ أَرْوَاحِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجِهِمْ
وَذُرِّيَّتِهِمْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

⑨ وَفِيهِ السَّيِّئَاتُ وَمَنْ تَبَى السَّيِّئَاتِ
يَوْمَئِذٍ فَقَدْ رَحِمْتَهُ وَذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ
الْعَظِيمُ

⑩ إِنَّكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنَّمَا يَدَّوْنُ
لِقَائِ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ مَقَاتِلِكُمْ

4367. There is nothing selfish in prayer. We pray for all who are true and sincere. But just as Evil is catching, so Goodness is catching in another sense. The associates of the Good and those near and dear to them also share in their goodness and happiness, if only they try to walk in the same Way. And the Grace of God is working for all, all the time.

4368. That is the final Judgment, and any who is saved from the evil consequences of their deeds in this life will truly have been saved by God's Mercy, and for them it is the highest achievement they could have, the attainment of all their wishes, the fulfilment of their destiny and the noblest purpose of their Life, the supreme Salvation and Felicity.

4369. Muslim Salvation, then, is more positive than mere safety from dangers or evils: it is the complete fulfilment of the noble destiny of man in the attainment of the fullest Grace.

4370. The Unbelievers having rejected God's Signs, they now see how they are shut out from Grace, and they feel disgusted with themselves. How much greater was God's displeasure with them, when He showered mercy upon mercy on them and they yet rebelled! How could they now hope for Grace!

5. But (there were people) before them,
Who denied (the Signs),—
The People of Noah,
And the Confederates <sup>4361</sup>
(Of Evil) after them;
And every People plotted
Against their prophet,
To seize him, and disputed
By means of vanities, <sup>4362</sup>
Therewith to condemn
The Truth: but it was I
That seized them!
And how (terrible) <sup>4363</sup>
Was My Requital!

٥ كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَالْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ
بَعْدِهِمْ وَهَمَّتْ كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ بِرَسُولِهِمْ
لِيَأْخُذُوا وَجَدَ لَوْ آيَاتٍ يَلْبِسُوا
بِهَا الْحَقَّ فَآخَذْنَاهُمْ فَأَكْفَيْتُكَانَ
عِقَابِ

6. Thus was the Decree
Of thy Lord proved true
Against the Unbelievers; <sup>4364</sup>
That truly they are
Companions of the Fire!

٦ وَكَذَلِكَ حَقَّتْ كَلِمَةُ رَبِّكَ عَلَى
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ

7. <sup>4365</sup>Those who sustain
The Throne (of God)
And those around it
Sing Glory and Praise
To their Lord; believe
In Him; and implore Forgiveness
For those who believe:
"Our Lord! Thy Reach <sup>4366</sup>

٧ الَّذِينَ يَحْمِلُونَ الْعَرْشَ وَمَنْ
حَوْلَهُ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ
وَيُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ
لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبَّنَا وَسِعْتَ

4361. Cf. xxxviii. 11-13, and n. 4158. All the hosts of wickedness collected together from history will have no power against God's Truth, or the Messenger of that Truth, or God's holy Plan for all His Creation.

4362. Whenever a great or vital Truth is proclaimed and renewed, there are always shallow minds that are ready to dispute about it! And what petty and vain arguments they advance! They think they can discredit or condemn the Truth in this way, or render "of none effect" God's Plan. But they are mistaken. If they seem to succeed for a time, that is merely their trial. They may try to plan and plot against God's men. But their plots will fail in the long run. They will themselves be caught in their own snares. And then, how terrible will be their Punishment!

4363. Cf. xlii. 32.

4364. Cf. xxxix. 71. The Decree, or Word, of God, by which Evil was to be judged and condemned, was proved true against these men. They are "Companions of the Fire": in other words, they are fit to live only in the environment of Evil!

4365. Cf. xxxix. 75. As the Throne of God is figurative, so is the act of sustaining or carrying it. Nor must we suppose that this is restricted to such ideas as we form of angels. All good men and women who rise to the spiritual dignity of carrying the throne of God, or being in the company of such as carry it, sing the praises and glory of God. They are a part of that environment, just as the evil ones are a part of the environment of the Blazing Fire. Their Faith is perfect, for they have seen the Glory with their own spiritual eyes; and they beg for forgiveness for their weaker brethren, who struggle in Faith and Repentance in God's Path

4366. Cf. verse 3 above.

Sura XL.

Mu-min, or The Believer.

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. In a-Mim.<sup>4356</sup>

2. The revelation
Of this Book
Is from God,
Exalted in Power,
Full of Knowledge,—<sup>4357</sup>

3. Who forgiveth Sin,
Accepteth Repentance,<sup>4358</sup>
Is Strict in Punishment,
And hath a Long Reach
(In all things).
There is no god
But He : to Him
Is the Final Goal.

4. None can dispute
About the Signs of God<sup>4359</sup>
But the Unbelievers.
Let not, then,
Their strutting about<sup>4360</sup>
Through the land
Deceive thee !

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

①

② نَزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ

③ غَافِرِ الذَّنْبِ وَقَابِلِ التَّوْبِ شَدِيدِ
الْعِقَابِ ذِي الْعَرْشِ الْمَعْلِيِّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ إِلَهُ الْمَصِيرِ

④ مَا يَجْعَلُ فِي آيَاتِنَا لِلَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا أَفْلًا يَغُرُّكَ تَقَلُّبُهُمْ فِي الْبِلَادِ

4356. See paragraphs 2-4 of the Introduction to this Sura.

4358. God's knowledge is supreme and all-reaching. But there are other attributes of His, which concern us even more intimately ; e.g., He forgives sin and accepts our repentance when it is sincere and results in our change of heart and life ; but He is also just, and strict in punishment ; and so no loophole will be left for Evil except in repentance. And further, all His attributes reach forward to everything : His Mercy, as well as His Knowledge and Justice ; His Bounties as well as His Punishments.

4359. God's knowledge and attributes are perfect, and everything around us proclaims this. We are surrounded by His Signs. It is only want of Faith that will make people dispute about them.

4360. Cf. iii, 196. Their strutting about shows how little they can read the Signs.

No doubt is there of the Future Judgment ; the Power, Goodness, and Justice of God are manifest ; will man dispute, or will he accept the Signs before it is too late ?.(xl. 51-85, and C. 208).

C. 206.—Believe in God, For He is Perfect
(xl. 1-20.) In Knowledge and Power, forgives Sin
And accepts Repentance, and justly
Enforces His Law. Those who reject Him
Are but in deceit : His glory is sung
By the highest and purest. Give all devotion
To Him alone. The Day of Requital
Is ever drawing near, when Falsehood
Will vanish, and God's Truth and Justice
Will be established for all Eternity.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XL (Mū-min).

This Sūra is called "The Reliever" (Mū-min) from the story of the individual Believer among the people of Pharaoh, who declares his faith and looks to the Future (verses 28-45). It is also called Qāfir (He who forgives, see verse 3). In S. xxiii, called The Believers (Mū minūn), the argument was about the collective force of Faith and Virtue. Here it is about the Individual's witness to Faith and Virtue, and his triumph in the End.

We now begin a series of seven Sūras (xl-xlvi) to which are affixed the Abbreviated Letters Hā-Mīm. Chronologically they all belong to the same period, the later Meccan Period, and they immediately follow the last Sūra in time. About the Abbreviated Letters generally, see Appendix I at the end of S. II. As to the precise meaning of Hā-Mīm no authoritative explanation is available. If Mīm here has a signification similar to Mīm in A.L.M. (see n. 23 to ii), it means the End of things, the Last Day, and all these Sūras direct our special attention to that. Hā, the emphatic guttural, in contrast with the softer breathing of Alif, may be meant to suggest that the Beginning (see n. 25 to ii. 1, last paragraph) is only for the End, the Present for the Future, and to emphasize the eschatological element in Faith. But this is mere conjecture, and should be taken for no more than it is worth.

The general theme of the whole series is the relation of Faith to Unfaith, Revelation to Rejection, Goodness to Evil, Truth to Falsehood. It is shown that the first in each of these pairs is the real friend, helper, and protector of man, while the second is his enemy. The very word Hamīm in that sense is used in Sūras xl and xli (xl. 18 and xli. 34), while in the other Sūras we have words of equivalent import, e.g. wālī or naṣīr (xlii. 8 and 31); qarīn (xliii. 36, 38); maulā (xliv. 41); aḥiyāa or nāṣirīn (xlv. 19, 34); and aḥiyāa (xlvi. 32). Is it permissible to connect the Abbreviated Letters Hā-Mīm with these ideas as expressed in the word Hamīm?

Another suggestion worthy of consideration is that Hā stands for Ḥaiy, and Mīm for Qaiyūm. These are two attributes of God, meaning, (1) the Living, and (2) the Self-Subsisting, Eternal. The one points to Life and Revelation, and the other to the Hereafter and Eternity; and both these matters are specially dealt with in the seven Hā-Mīm Sūras. The first letter of Ḥaiy (Hā) is appropriate for life, and the last letter of Qaiyūm is appropriate for the Last Days, the Ma'ād, the Hereafter. Again, this is mere conjecture, and should not be taken for more than it is worth.

Summary.—Faith is ever justified, for God forgives: but evil deeds must have evil fruits, for God knows and is just (xl. 1-20, and C. 206).

In all history Evil came to evil; the protest of Faith, in the midst of Evil, may be ignored; but Faith is protected by God, while Evil perishes (xl. 21-50, and C. 207).

Its gates will be opened ;
And its Keepers will say :
" Peace be upon you !
Well have ye done ! <sup>4353</sup>
Enter ye here,
To dwell therein."

وَفُحِّتْ أَبْوَابُهَا وَقَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا سَلَامٌ
عَلَيْكُمْ طِبْتُمْ فَادْخُلُوهَا خَالِدِينَ

74. They will say : " Praise be <sup>4353</sup>
To God, Who has
Truly fulfilled His promise
To us, and has given us
(This) land in heritage : <sup>4354</sup>
We can dwell in the Garden
As we will : how excellent
A reward for those
Who work (righteousness) ! "

وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي صَدَقَنَا
وَعْدَهُ وَأَوْزَنَا الْأَرْضَ نَبْشَأُ مِنْ
الْجَنَّةِ حَيْثُ نَشَاءُ فَنِعْمَ أَجْرُ الْعَامِلِينَ

75. And thou wilt see
The angels surrounding
The Throne (Divine)
On all sides, singing Glory
And Praise to their Lord.
The Decision between them
(At Judgment) will be
In (perfect) justice,
And the cry (on all sides)
Will be, " Praise be to God, <sup>4355</sup>
The Lord of the Worlds ! "

وَتَرَى الْمَلَائِكَةَ حَافِينَ
مِنْ حَوْلِ الْعَرْشِ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ
وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَقِيلَ
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

4352. The angels in heaven are not surprised at the advent of the good and righteous souls. They are glad; they greet them with the salutation of Peace; they congratulate them; and they welcome them in.

4353. This is said by the new arrivals in heaven. As is right, they begin with the Praises of God, which shows at once their satisfaction and their gratitude.

4354. In heritage : i.e. as our Portion. Cf. iii. 180, and n. 485; vi. 165, and n. 988. There is no question here of their passing on any property to heirs. They are the final possessors of Heaven for eternity, by the grace of God.

4355. These are the opening words of the first Sūra, and they describe the atmosphere of the final Bliss in Heaven, in the light of the Countenance of their Lord, the Universal Lord of all!

Of its deeds ; and (God)
Knoweth best all that <sup>4346</sup>
They do.

مَا عَلَيْكَ وَمَا أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ

SECTION 8.

71. ~~And~~ The Unbelievers will be Led to Hell in crowd : <sup>4347</sup>
Until, when they arrive there,
Its gates will be opened.
And its Keepers will say, <sup>4348</sup>
" Did not apostles come
To you from among yourselves,
Rehearsing to you the Signs
Of your Lord, and warning you
Of the Meeting of this Day
Of yours ? " The answer
Will be : " True : but
The Decree of Punishment
Has been proved true <sup>4349</sup>
Against the Unbelievers ! "

وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ
زُمًّا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُوهَا فَفُتِحَتْ أَبْوَابُهَا
وَقَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ رُسُلٌ
مِّنكُمْ يَتْلُونَ عَلَيْكُمْ آيَاتِ رَبِّكُمْ
وَيُنذِرُونَكُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَٰذَا قَالُوا بَلَىٰ
وَلَكِن كُنَّا فِي شَكٍّ مِّنَ الْآيَاتِ
الَّتِي كُنَّا فِيهَا

72. (To them) will be said :
" Enter ye the gates of Hell,
To dwell therein :
And evil is (this)
Abode of the arrogant ! " <sup>4350</sup>

قِيلَ ادْخُلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ
خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا فَبِئْسَ مَثْوًى لِّلْكَافِرِينَ

73. ~~And~~ those who feared
Their Lord will be led
To the Garden in crowds : <sup>4351</sup>
Until behold, they arrive there ;

وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا
رَبَّهُم إِلَىٰ الْجَنَّةِ زُمًّا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُوهَا

4346. In an earthly court, a decision may possibly go wrong because the judge is deceived ; here no deceit or mistake will be possible, for God knows all, and knows it better than any one else can.

4347. Crowds : this is the word which gives the key-note to the Sûra. If the soul does not stand to its own convictions or search out the Truth by itself, it will only be classed with the crowds that go to Perdition !

4348. The Keepers may be supposed to be angels, who know nothing of the conditions of evil on this earth, and are surprised at such crowds coming to the " Evil Abode ". Their question is more like that of a remark or comment by the Chorus in a Greek Tragedy.

4349. Cf. x. 33. The answer is perhaps given by other angels : ' yes ; apostles were sent to them from among themselves, to warn them and to proclaim to them Mercy through repentance ; but the decree of God, which warned them of punishment, has now come true against them, for they rebelled and were haughty ; they rejected Truth, Faith, and Mercy ! '

4350. As elsewhere, the root of Evil is pointed out to be in self-love and arrogance, Cf. ii. 34, etc.

4351. The righteous ones will also go in crowds, and not be alone. There is now a true sorting out. Verses 73-75 are parallel in contrast to verses 71-72 above.

Rolled up in His right hand :
Glory to Him !
High is He above
The Partners they attribute
To Him !

مَطْوِيَّتٌ بِيَمِينِهِ سُبْحَانَهُ
وَعَلَى عَمَائِهِمْ كُورٌ

68. The Trumpet will (just)
Be sounded, when all
That are in the heavens
And on earth will swoon,<sup>4343</sup>
Except such as it will
Please God (to exempt).
Then will a second one
Be sounded, when, behold,
They will be standing
And looking on !

وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ فَصَعِقَ مَنْ فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ
وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ نُفِخَ
فِيهِ أُخْرَىٰ فَإِذَا هُمْ قِيَامٌ يَنْظُرُونَ

69. And the Earth will shine
With the glory of its Lord :<sup>4344</sup>
The Record (of Deeds)
Will be placed (open) ;
The prophets and the witnesses
Will be brought forward ;
And a just decision<sup>4345</sup>
Pronounced between them ;
And they will not
Be wronged (in the least).

وَأَشْرَقَتِ الْأَرْضُ بِنُورِ رَبِّهَا وَوُضِعَ
الْكِتَابُ وَجَاءَ بِالنَّبِيِّينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ
وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ

70. And to every soul will be Paid in full (the fruit)

وَوُفِّيَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ

4343. Ṣa'iqā implied the idea of a swoon, or loss of all consciousness of being ; it implies a cessation of the normal functioning of the usual powers of life or feeling. The metaphor is that with the first Trumpet of the Resurrection, the whole world will cease to be in the form and the relations which we see now : there will be a new heaven and a new earth, see xiv. 48, ḡ. 1925 ; human souls will for the time being be dazed and lose all memory or consciousness of time or place or personality. With the second one, they will stand in a new world ; they will see with clearer vision than ever before ; and judgment will proceed.

4344. It will be a new Earth. All traces of injustice or inequality, darkness or evil, will have gone. There will be the one universal Light, the Glory of God, which will now illuminate all. Falsehood, pretence, and illusion will have disappeared. Everything will be seen in its true light.

4345. It is in such a scene of Reality that Judgment will be held. Before the Throne of God (if we may use metaphors again to form some idea out of the things we know) the book of each man's deeds and motives will be placed wide open, which all may see ; the Prophets and Preachers of Truth, and the martyrs who gave their lives or made their real sacrifices in the cause of Truth, will be in the Court, to give evidence ; and the decision pronounced will be absolutely just, for the Judge will not only be just, but He will know every fact and circumstance, and His wisdom will give due weight to everything, great or small.

SECTION 7.

64. Say : " Is it
Some one other than God
That ye order me <sup>4337</sup>
To worship, O ye
Ignorant ones ? "

﴿ قُلْ أَفَغَيْرَ اللَّهِ
تَأْمُرُونِي أَعْبُدُ أَيُّهَا الْجَاهِلُونَ ﴾

65. But it has already
Been revealed to thee, — <sup>4338</sup>
As it was to those
Before thee, — " If thou
Wert to join (gods
With God), truly fruitless <sup>4339</sup>
Will be thy work (in life),
And thou wilt surely
Be in the ranks of those
Who lose (all spiritual good) "

﴿ وَلَقَدْ آوَيْنَا لَكَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ
لَيْسَ شَرِكُكَ لِيُحْطِنَ عَمَلُكَ وَلَتَكُونَنَّ مِنَ
الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴾

66. Nay, but worship God,
And be of those who
Give thanks. <sup>4340</sup>

﴿ بَلِ اللَّهَ فَاعْبُدْ وَكُنْ مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ ﴾

67. No just estimate
Have they made of God, <sup>4341</sup>
Such as is due to Him :
On the Day of Judgment
The whole of the earth
Will be but His handful, <sup>4342</sup>
And the heavens will be

﴿ وَمَا قَدَرُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ قَدْرِهِ وَالْأَرْضُ
جَمِيعًا قَبْضَتُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَالسَّمَوَاتُ ﴾

4337. "Order me": there is great irony here. The man of God turns to his critics and says: "You arrogate to yourselves the right to order me how to worship! But who are you? You are only ignorant men! My commission is from God. It is the same as came to men of God before me in all ages, viz. (1) that the only Truth is in the Gospel of Unity; and (2) that if you worship other things and turn away from God, your life will be wasted and all your probation will have been of no account.

4338. The Message of Unity, renewed in Islam, has been the Message of God since the world began.

4339. Cf. v. 6. False worship means that we run after fruitless things, and the main purpose of our spiritual lives is lost.

4340. To "give thanks" is to show by our conduct that we esteem the gifts of God and will use them in His service.

4341. Cf. vi. 91, and n. 909; and xli. 74. In running after false gods or the powers of nature they have forgotten that all creatures are as nothing before God.

4342. See last note. The whole earth will be no more to God than a thing that a man might enclose in the hollow of his hand, nor will the heavens with their vast expanse be more than a scroll, which a man might roll up with his right hand, the hand of power and action. This is of course figurative. God is not a creature of flesh and blood, with hands or fingers. Cf. xxi. 104, and lxxxi. 1.

My Signs, and thou didst
Reject them : thou wast <sup>4331</sup>
Haughty, and became one
Of those who reject Faith !''

60. On the Day of Judgment
Wilt thou see those
Who told lies against God ;—
Their faces will be turned <sup>4332</sup>
Black ; is there not
In Hell an abode <sup>4333</sup>
For the Haughty ?

61. But God will deliver
The righteous to their place <sup>4334</sup>
Of salvation : no evil
Shall touch them,
Nor shall they grieve.

62. God is the Creator
Of all things, and He
Is the Guardian and Disposer <sup>4335</sup>
Of all affairs.

63. To Him belong the keys
Of the heavens
And the earth :
And those who reject
The Signs of God,—
It is they who will <sup>4336</sup>
Be in loss.

بِآيَاتِي فَكَذَّبْتَ بِهَا وَأَنْتَ كَذِبٌ
وَكُنْتَ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ

٦٠ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ نَرَى الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ
وُجُوهَهُمْ مُسْوَدَّةٌ
الَّذِينَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّكُفْرِهِمْ

٦١ وَنُنَجِّي الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا
بِمَفَازٍ لَهُمْ لَا يُغْنِيهِمْ الشُّعُورُ وَلَا هُمْ
يَحْزَنُونَ

٦٢ اللَّهُ خَالِقُ كُلِّ
شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَكِيلٌ

٦٣ لَهُ مُقَالِيدُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ
الْخَاسِرُونَ

4331. Cf. ii. 34. The example of the arch-sinner illustrates what happens in a minor degree in every kind of sinner.

4332. As spotless white is the symbol of purity, honour, and truth, so black is the symbol of evil, disgrace, and falsehood. Perhaps "black" in connection with Hell also refers to the scorching punishment of the Fire.

4333. Cf. above, xxxix. 32, and n. 4292, where the subtle implication of the interrogative form is explained.

4334. Ma'āz : place or state of safety or salvation, place or state of victory or achievement ; accomplishment of wish or desire. This is contrasted against the frustration, failure, and perdition of the children of evil, — what may be called damnation in theological phrase.

4335. God has not only created all the Worlds, but He maintains them and cares for them. He does not sit apart from His world. Everything depends upon Him.

4336. God has nothing to lose by the rebellion or disobedience of His creatures. It is they who lose, because they go counter to their own nature, the beautiful mould in which God created them.

55. " And follow the Best <sup>4326</sup>
Of (the courses) revealed
To you from your Lord,
Before the Penalty comes
On you—of a sudden,
While ye perceive not!—

⑤ وَأَتَّبِعُوا أَحْسَنَ مَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ مِنْ
قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ بَغْتَةً وَأَنْتُمْ
لَا تَشْعُرُونَ

56. " Lest the soul should (then)
Say : 'Ah ! woe is me !—' <sup>4327</sup>
In that I neglected
(My Duty) towards God,
And was but among those
Who mocked !—

⑥ أَنْ تَقُولَ نَفْسٌ يَا حَسْرَتَى عَلَى مَا فَرَّطْتُ فِي
جَنْبِ اللَّهِ وَإِنْ كُنْتُ لَمِنَ السَّخِرِينَ

57. " Or (lest) it should say : <sup>4328</sup>
' If only God had guided
Me, I should certainly
Have been among the righteous !

⑦ أَوْ تَقُولَ لَوْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هَدَانِي لَكُنْتُ مِنَ
الْمُتَّقِينَ

58. " Or (lest) it should say <sup>4329</sup>
When it (actually) sees
The Penalty : ' If only
I had another chance,
I should certainly be
Among those who do good !—

⑧ أَوْ تَقُولَ حِينَ تَرَى الْعَذَابَ لَوْ أَنَّ لِي كَرَّةً
فَأَكُونُ مِنَ الْفَاعِلِينَ

59. " (The reply will be :) ' Nay, <sup>4330</sup>
But there came to thee

⑨ بَلَى قَدْ جَاءَ تِلْكَ

4326. Cf. xxxix. 18, and n. 4269. God's Command meets the weakness of His weakest servants, and only asks that His servants should surrender their selfish will to God's Will. In divine compassion, therefore, we are allowed to do just what we can, even though our standard should fall short of the highest standard. But our aim should be to follow the highest standard, and God's Grace will come to our assistance. But we must do so in this life,—and at once, as soon as the Word penetrates our mind or understanding. We must not delay a moment, for the Judgment may come at any time, suddenly, before we even perceive where we are.

4327. Many kinds of sighs and regrets will then assail us. In the first place, we shall see our shortcomings: we were negligent when we should have been serious: we mocked when we should have tried to learn and understand. But it will be too late then to retrieve our position.

4328. In the second place, we might be inclined to say, 'I wish I had received warning or guidance'. But this would not be true, because the warning and guidance are being conveyed in the clearest manner in God's Revelation. That is the force of 'lest it should say'. It could have said so, had it not seen that the objection is clearly anticipated in the call to repent and in the warning about the Hereafter.

4329. In the third place, when we stand face to face with the Penalty of our own deeds, we might say, 'I wish I had another chance'. But not one, but many, chances are being given, especially when we are told (verse 53 above): 'Despair not of the Mercy of God: for God forgives all sins: for He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful'. The force of 'lest it should say' here is the same as explained in the last note.

4330. The reply explains how all such pleas have been anticipated and met. It was deliberate rejection that will deserve and meet its consequences. It is further explained that the motive of sin, as with Satan, was haughtiness and Self. There is no room for Self when the only Reality is God.

And they will never be Able to frustrate (Our Plan)!

وَمَا هُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ

52. Know they not that God enlarges the provision <sup>4323</sup>
Or restricts it, for any
He pleases? Verily, in this are Signs for those who believe!

﴿٥٢﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ

C. 205.— But no soul need be in despair because (XXXIX. 53-75) . Of its sin : God's Forgiveness and Mercy are Unbounded Turn to God in repentance
Now, for at Judgment it will be too late.
Unity in worship and life is commanded
By God. Go not astray. When Judgment
Comes, it will be a new World.
In perfect justice will the followers
Of Evil be sorted out from the Good.
And the righteous will rejoice, singing
Praises to God with the angels on high.

SECTION 6.

53. Say : " O my Servants who Have transgressed against their souls!
Despair not of the Mercy
Of God : for God forgives <sup>4324</sup>
All sins : for He is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

﴿٥٣﴾ * قُلْ يٰعِبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ أَشْرَفُوا عَلَىٰ
أَنفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِن رَّحْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ
الذُّنُوبَ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ

54. " Turn ye to your Lord
(In repentance) and bow
To His (Will), before <sup>4325</sup>
The Penalty comes on you :
After that ye shall not
Be helped.

﴿٥٤﴾ وَأَنِيبُوا إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ وَأَسْلُمُوا لَهُ مِن
قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تُنصَرُونَ

4323, Cf. xxviii. 82. God's gifts are given to all men—to some in a greater degree than to others. But it is all done according to His wise Plan, for His Will is just and looks to the good of all creatures. No one should therefore be puffed up in prosperity or cast down in adversity. Prosperity does not necessarily mean merit on man's part, nor adversity the reverse. Thinking men bear in mind the large Plan—which is visible in all God's Signs.

4324. Forgives all sins: i.e., on sincere repentance and amendment of conduct.

4325. The exhortation in brief is: 'Repent and work righteousness, before it becomes too late' No help will come to you when the Judgment is actually established and you stand before the Judgment-Seat.

For ransom from the pain
Of the Penalty on the Day
Of Judgment : but something
Will confront them from God,
Which they could never
Have counted upon ! <sup>4316</sup>

48. For the evils of their Deeds
Will confront them,
And they will be (completely) <sup>4317</sup>
Encircled by that which
They used to mock at !

49. Now, when trouble touches man,
He cries to Us : <sup>4318</sup>
But when We bestow
A favour upon him <sup>4319</sup>
As from Ourselves,
He says, " This has been
Given to me because of
A certain knowledge (I have) ! " <sup>4320</sup>
Nay, but this is
But a trial, but most
Of them understand not !

50. Thus did the (generations)
Before them say ! But
All that they did
Was of no profit to them.

51. Nay, the evil results
Of their deeds overtook them. <sup>4321</sup>
And the wrong-doers
Of this (generation)—
The evil results of their deeds
Will soon overtake them (too), <sup>4322</sup>

لَا تَدْرَأُونَ مِنْ سَوْءِ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامِ
وَبِاللَّهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَمْ يَكُونُوا يَحْتَسِبُونَ

وَبِاللَّهِ سَيِّئَاتٍ مَا كَسَبُوا وَهَاقَ بِهِمْ
مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ

فَلَمَّا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضَرْبُ عَذَابٍ إِذَا خَوَّلَهُ
نِعْمَةً مِنَّا قَالَ إِنَّمَا أُوتِيتُهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ بَلْ هِيَ فِتْنَةٌ
وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

قَدْ قَالُوا الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَدْ أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ
مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

فَأَصَابَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَالَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا
زَهَّوْا وَسِعَبُهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا

4316. This something will be beyond anything they can conceive of in this life. Just as the righteous will then attain a bliss which no human imagination can conceive of now, so the unrighteous will be in a misery of which they can form no conception now. See next note.

4317. How humiliating it will be for them to realise that the things they used to mock at are realities all around them, and the things they were so eager to pursue are mere falsehoods or vanities !

4318. Cf. xxx. 33 and n. 3545.

4319. Cf. xxxix. 8 above.

4320. Cf. xxviii. 78, and n. 3408. Prosperity may be a trial as much as adversity.

4321. Cf. xvi. 34.

4322. It is the same story through the ages. People laugh at Truth, persecute Truth, and try to destroy Truth. But God's Plan is never to be frustrated. It will be carried out, and only the enemies of Truth will accomplish their own undoing. So it happened in Arabia : so will it happen always and everywhere.

To grant) Intercession :<sup>4311</sup>
 To Him belongs the dominion
 Of the heavens and the earth :
 In the End, it is to Him<sup>4312</sup>
 That ye shall be Brought back."

45. When God, the One and Only,
 Is mentioned, the hearts
 Of those who believe not
 In the Hereafter are filled
 With disgust and horror ;<sup>4313</sup>
 But when (gods) other than He
 Are mentioned, behold,
 They are filled with joy !

46. Say : " O God !
 Creator of the heavens
 And the earth !
 Knower of all that is
 Hidden and open !<sup>4314</sup>
 It is Thou that wilt
 Judge between Thy Servants
 In those matters about which
 They have differed."

47. Even if the wrong-doers
 Had all that there is
 On earth, and as much more,<sup>4315</sup>
 (In vain) would they offer it

الشَّفَعَةُ جَمِيعًا لَمْ يَمْلِكِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ طَرَفَ
 إِلَيْهِ يُرْجَعُونَ

④ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ اشْمَأَزَّتْ قُلُوبُ
 الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ الَّذِينَ
 مِنْ دُونِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ

⑤ قُلِ اللَّهُمَّ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَلِمَ
 الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ أَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ
 فِي مَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ

⑥ وَلَوْ أَنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا
 وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ

4311. For Shaf'a' (Intercession, Advocacy) see ii. 255; x. 3; xx. 109, n. 2634; and xxi. 28, n. 2688. It follows that no one can intercede with God, except (1) by God's permission, and (2) for those who have prepared themselves by penitence for God's acceptance. Even in earthly Courts, Advocacy is not permitted to any one: the Advocate must be granted the position of Advocate before he can plead before the judge. Nor can it be supposed that a plea for forgiveness or mercy can be put forward except on grounds recognised by equity and justice.

4314. The mysteries of life and death, of worship and spiritual growth, are matters of high moment, which it may be difficult for us to apprehend in this present life. It is no use arguing about them and plunging in endless controversies. The proper attitude is to appeal to God humbly to accept our purified hearts and Faith, in the firm hope that everything which is now vague to us will be cleared up in the Hereafter, and to pray to Him for His guidance and mercy.

4315. Cf. xiii. 18. Those who reject God's Message must realise that the time will come when they will wish they had sacrificed everything in the cause of Truth and Righteousness. It will be too late then. Why not examine the matter seriously now and accept God's Grace and Light?

And those that die not
(He takes) during their sleep : <sup>4307</sup>
Those on whom He
Has passed the decree
Of death, He keeps back <sup>4308</sup>
(From returning to life),
But the rest He sends
(To their bodies)
For a term appointed.
Verily in this are Signs <sup>4309</sup>
For those who reflect.

43. What! Do they take
For intercessors others <sup>4310</sup>
Besides God? Say: "Even if
They have no power whatever
And no intelligence?"

44. Say: "To God belongs Exclusively (the right

4307. Cf. vi. 60. What is sleep? As far as animal life is concerned, it is the cessation of the working of the nervous system, though other animal functions, such as digestion, growth, and the circulation of the blood, continue, possibly at a different pace. It is the repose of the nervous system, and in this respect it is common to man and animals, and perhaps even to plants, if, as is probable, plants have a nervous system. The mental processes (and certainly volition) are also suspended in sleep, except that in ordinary dreams there is a medley of recollections, which often present vividly to our consciousness things that do not or cannot happen in nature as we know it in our co-ordinated minds. But there is another kind of dream which is rarer—one in which the dreamer sees things as they actually happen, backwards or forwards in time, or in which gifted individuals see spiritual truths otherwise imperceptible to them. How can we explain this? It is suggested that our soul or personality,—that something which is above our animal life—is then in a plane of spiritual existence akin to physical death (see last note), when we are nearer to God. In poetic imagery, Sleep is "twin-brother to Death".

4308. Sleep being twin-brother to Death, our souls are for the time being released from the bondage of the flesh. God takes them for the time being. If, as some do, we are to die peacefully in sleep, our soul does not come back to the physical body, and the latter decays and dies. If we have still some period of life to fulfil according to God's decree, our soul comes back to the body, and we resume our functions in this life.

4309. If we contemplate these things, we can see more clearly many spiritual truths: e.g. (1) that our bodily life and death are not the whole story of our existence; (2) that in our bodily life we may be dead to the spiritual world, and in our bodily death, may be our awakening to the spiritual world; (3) that our nightly Sleep, besides performing the function of rest to our physical life, gives us a foretaste of what we call death, which does not end our personality; and (4) that the Resurrection is not more wonderful than our daily rising from Sleep, "twin-brother to Death".

4310. Let alone worship, man should not rely upon any power or person other than God to help them out or intercede for them. When it is idols, they are poor lifeless things which have obviously neither power nor intelligence. But even prophets or saints or heroes have no power to intercede except as God wills and permits. See next note.

SECTION 5.

42. It is God that takes
The souls (of men) at death; 4800

﴿٤٥﴾ اللَّهُ يَتَوَفَّى الْأَنفُسَ حِينَ مَوْتِهَا

4301. C/. xii. 67 and xiv. 12. God alone is He Who will and can discharge any trust put in Him. All other things will fail. Therefore those who put their trust in anything should put their trust in God.

4302. Cf. xi. 121 and n. 1624-A.

4303. Cf. xi. 93. The two clauses, about those who suffer a Penalty of ignominy and those on whom descends a lasting Penalty, apparently refer to the same persons in two different aspects: (1) they suffer shame, and (2) their punishment endures.

4304. Revelation is sent by God through His messenger, but it is for all. It is given in order that men and women may be taught Righteousness. It is given in Truth : there is no pretence about it. It is for their own good. If they reject it and follow Evil, the loss is their own.

4305. God's apostles do all they can to teach mankind. But they cannot force men's wills. If men reject their teaching, the account of the rejecters is with God. Cf. vi. 107 and n. 935.

4306. The mystery of life and death, sleep and dreams, is a fascinating enigma, of which the solution is perhaps beyond the ken of man. A vast mass of superstition as well as imaginative and psychological literature has grown up about it. But the simplest and truest religious doctrine is laid down here in a few words. In death we surrender our physical life, but our soul does not die; it goes back to a plane of existence in which it is more conscious of the realities of the spiritual world: "God takes the soul"

36. Is not God enough <sup>4296</sup>

They try to frighten thee
With other (gods) besides Him!
For such as God leaves
To stray, there can be

بِالَّذِينَ

37. And such as God doth <sup>4297</sup>
Guide there can be
None to lead astray.
Is not God Exalted
In Power, (Able to enforce
His Will), Lord of Retribution? <sup>4298</sup>

38. If indeed thou ask them
Who it is that created <sup>4299</sup>
The heavens and the earth,
They would be sure to say,
"God". Say: "See ye then?
The things that ye invoke
Besides God,—can they,
If God wills some Penalty
For me, remove His Penalty?—
Or if He wills some Grace
For me, can they keep back <sup>4300</sup>

٣٨ وَلَكِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلْ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَدْعُونَ
مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ أَرَادَنِيَ اللَّهُ بِضُرٍّ هَلْ هُنَّ
كَشِيفَتُ صُرُوفِهِ أَوْ أَرَادَنِيَ بِرَحْمَةٍ هَلْ هُنَّ
مُمْسِكَتٌ

4296. The righteous man will find God enough for all the protection he needs, all the rest and peace he craves for, and all the happiness he can imagine. If the evil ones wish to frighten him with false gods, he knows that that is mere superstition. In the case of idols to whom worship is paid, this is easily intelligible. But there are other false gods which men worship,—wealth, position, power, science, selfish desire, and so on. The idea may occur to them: "this is the right course, but what will men say?" or "shall I lose my case if I tell the truth?" or "will it ruin my chances if I denounce sin in high places?" All such false gods will only mislead and leave their victims in the lurch. The worship of them will lose them the Grace of God, which wants to guide and comfort all who seek God.

4297. On the other hand if any one holds fast to God's Truth, nothing can mislead or betray him.

4298. God's Power can protect, and will defeat all plots against His Will, as well as punish Evil when it gets beyond bounds.

4299. Cf. xxix. 61; also n. 2927 to xxiii. 85. Most worshippers of false gods are not either atheists or sceptics. They admit the existence of God as an abstract proposition, but it has not come into their hearts and souls: it has not been translated into their lives. They run after false worship on account of ancestral custom or on account of their thoughtlessness or false environment, or on account of their own selfish desires or limited outlook. To them is addressed the argument: 'Ultimately your false gods can do nothing for you: why not turn to the One True God, on Whom you depend, and Who can give you Grace and Mercy, Justice and Punishment?'

4300. Cf. xxxiii. 17.

SECTION 4.

32. Who, then, doth more wrong
Than one who utters
A lie concerning God,<sup>4291</sup>
And rejects the Truth
When it comes to him;
Is there not in Hell<sup>4292</sup>
An abode for blasphemers?

﴿٢٩﴾ * فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ كَذَبَ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَذَبَ
بِالصِّدْقِ إِذْ جَاءَهُ ۖ فَوَالَّذِينَ
يَبْغُونَ مَثْوًى لِّلْكَافِرِينَ

33. And he who brings the Truth
And he who confirms<sup>4293</sup>
(And supports) it—such are
The men who do right.

﴿٣٠﴾ وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا بِالصِّدْقِ وَصَدَّقَ بِهِ ۖ أُولَٰئِكَ
هُمُ الْمُتَّقُونَ

34. They shall have all
That they wish for,<sup>4294</sup>
In the presence of their Lord:
Such is the reward
Of those who do good:

﴿٣١﴾ لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ عِندَ رَبِّهِمْ ۚ ذَٰلِكَ جَزَاءُ
الْمُحْسِنِينَ

35. So that God will
Turn off from them
(Even) the worst in their deeds<sup>4295</sup>
And give them their reward
According to the best
Of what they have done.

﴿٣٢﴾ لِيُكَفِّرَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ أَسْوَأَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا
وَيَجْزِيََهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ بِأَحْسَنِ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

4291. When the creature deliberately adopts and utters falsehoods against his own Creator, in spite of the Truth being brought, as it were, to his very door by God's Signs, what offence can we imagine more heinous than this? In Christian theology this is the blasphemy "against the Holy Ghost" spoken of in Matt. xii. 31-32: "whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man", (Christ)," it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come"

4292. Blasphemers have really no place to go to. The question form suggests that even Hell is not an abode for them; it is merely a place for punishment or a state of punishment.

4293. This is true of the Prophet, and all men of God and all righteous persons. Any one who preaches the Truth and brings home God's Signs to men is performing the duty of a right and noble life. In this he confirms the teaching of all previous men of God. Any one who supports and confirms such a teacher is also doing his duty and on the right way.

4294. At that stage their wills will have been purified, and they could wish for nothing that they could not or should not have. And it will be as "in the presence of their Lord". If an earthly king gives a decoration, how much greater is the honour when the investiture takes place by the king himself personally?

4295. The conjunction (lāw in Arabic, translated "so that") indicates here the results, not the purpose. God's Reward is so bounteous, that if we truly and sincerely put our will into His keeping, He will remove the consequences not only of our minor faults but of the worst of our sins, and judge us according to the very best of our deeds.

4286 See xviii, 1 and n. 2326. Cf. also vii. 45, n. 1024 ; and xix. 36, n. 2188.

4287. The difference between the creed of Polytheism and the Gospel of Unity is explained by the analogy of two men. One belongs to many masters; the masters disagree among themselves, and the poor man of many masters has to suffer from the quarrels of his many masters; it is an impossible and unnatural position. The other serves only one master; his master is good, and does all he can for his servant; the servant can concentrate his attention on his service; he is happy himself and his service is efficiently performed. Can there be any doubt as to (1) which of them is the happier, and (2) which of them is in a more natural position? No man can serve two, still less numerous, masters.

4288. God is praised that He has put us, not under gods many and lords many, but has, out of His infinite Mercy, allowed us direct approach to Him, the One, the True, the Eternal.

4289. Even the prophets are not exempt from bodily death, much less the righteous, but they live in their beneficent work and the memories they leave behind them. All men have to die, good and bad alike. But there is a life after death, and in that life all the unexplained things about which people dispute in this world will be made clear in the presence of God.

 Of the Hereafter,
 If they only knew!

4282. Cf. xvi. 26. They will be punished from quarters or in ways they do not perceive. From their Unbelief and Rebellion they think they derive great advantages, but they suddenly find out, when too late, that that which they exulted in was the cause of their own undoing.

4283. Cf. ii. 114. Sin often brings disgrace and humiliation in this life, but the greater and truer punishment is in the Hereafter. But men often do not know the inwardness of this matter. If they flourish here for a time, they think they will escape the real consequences in the Hereafter. Or if they suffer a little harm here, they think that will make up the Penalty, and they will escape the Hereafter. Both ideas are wrong.

4284. Men can only understand high spiritual truths by parables and similitudes and these are given abundantly in the Qur-ān. The object is, not merely to tell stories, but to teach lessons of spiritual wisdom.

4285 Previous revelations had been in other languages. Now the revelation was given in Arabia in Arabic itself, the language of the country which all could understand. And it is a beautiful language, straight and flexible, and fit to be the vehicle of sublime truths. Cf. C. 12.

① أَفَنْ يَتَّقِي بِوَجْهِهِ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ

4277. Maṭḥānī: Cf. xv. 87, where we have translated "oft-repeated": "the seven oft-repeated (verses)". See n. 2008 to that passage. Here the meaning is similar, but the context gives a different colour to it, as is seen in the translation.

4278. The skin is the outer integument of the body. It receives the first shock from the impact of anything unusual, and it trembles and its hair stands on end under excitement. So in spiritual matters the first stimulation from God's Message is external. Those who receive Faith do it as it were with tremor and not with apathy. But the next stage is that it penetrates their outer nature and goes right into their hearts. Their whole nature is "softened" to receive the beneficent Message, and it transforms them through and through.

4279. "Whom He pleases" and "leaves to stray" are explained fully in n. 2133 to xvi. 93. See also xiv. 4 and n. 1875.

4280. The unrepentant Sinners will receive the full Penalty on the Day of Judgment. They will receive it full in the face, i.e. their whole being will be affected by it. Their hands (figuratively) will be tied, and they cannot therefore use their hands to ward off the Penalty of the Fire: in any case their hands will not have the power to ward it off. Are such helpless people to be compared for a moment with people who have received Grace and are therefore guarded from all harm and danger? Certainly not. To the evil the fruit of their deeds, and to the good the grace of their Lord!

4274. Those who listen to God's Message find at each stage God's Grace helping them more and more to expand their spiritual understanding and to receive God's light, so that they travel farther and farther to their Goal in the Path of Truth and Righteousness. They are not to be compared to those who shut out God's Light from their hearts. See next note

4275. Just as there is spiritual progress for those who seek God, so there is more and more spiritual retrogression for those who close their hearts to God. Their hearts get hardened, and they allow less and less God's Grace to penetrate within. But it is obvious that they flounder on the Way, and cannot walk with the firm steps of those of assured Faith.

4276. Is Mutashābih here to be understood in the same sense as in iii. 7, where I have translated it as "allegorical"? See n. 347 to iii. 7. The better opinion is that there is a slightly different shade of meaning here, as suggested by the context. In the earlier passage, it was opposed to Mukham; here it is contrasted or compared to Matḥānī. The root meaning is: 'having something similar; working by analogy or allegory, or parable; having its parts consistent with each other'. The last meaning I adopt here. The Qur-ān was revealed in parts at different times. And yet its parts all conform to each other. There is no contradiction or inconsistency anywhere.

Men of understanding.

C. 204.—What distance separates the man
(xxxix. 22-52) Whose heart is melted by the Message
Of God and enlightened by His Light,
And him who rejects Revelation! God

4270. If a man is already steeped in sin and has rejected God's Grace, how can we expect Revelation to work in his soul?

4271. Cf. xxix. 58, and xxxiv. 37. The idea of heaven here is that of a Home of sublimity and beauty, with a picturesque outlook, such as we would describe in this life by the type of a palace by gently-flowing streams. The mansions will also suggest generous space and architectural beauty, tiers upon tiers piled one upon another.

4272. Mī'ād: the time, place, and manner of the fulfilment of a Promise. God's promise will be fulfilled in all particulars better than we can possibly imagine.

4273. The circuit of water, by which the rain falls from the clouds, is absorbed through the earth, and flows through rivers or underground streams to the sea, where it again rises as vapour and forms clouds, was explained in notes 3111-12 to xxv. 53. Here our attention is drawn to one portion of the process. The rain fructifies the soil and the seeds. Produce of various kinds is raised. The harvest ripens and is gathered in. The plants wither, dry up, and crumble away. Men and animals are fed. And the circuit starts again in another season. Here is a Sign of the Grace and Goodness of God, clear to those who understand.

16. They shall have Layers<sup>4266</sup>
Of Fire above them,
And Layers (of Fire)
Below them: with this
Doth God warn off<sup>4267</sup>
His Servants: "O My Servants!
Then fear ye Me!"

١٦ لَّهُمْ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ مِنَ النَّارِ وَمِنْ تَحْتِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ
ذَٰلِكَ يُخَوِّفُ اللَّهُ بِهِ عِبَادَهُ يُعْبَادُونَ فَاتَّقُوا

17. Those who eschew Evil,—
And fall not into<sup>4268</sup>
Its worship,—and turn
To God (in repentance),—
For them is Good News:
So announce the Good News
To My Servants,—

١٧ وَالَّذِينَ اجْتَنَبُوا الظَّالِمَاتِ أَنْ يَعْبدُوهُمَا
وَأَنَابُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ لَهُمُ الْبُشْرَىٰ قَبْلَ عِبَادِ

18. Those who listen
To the Word,
And follow
The best (meaning) in it:<sup>4269</sup>
Those are the ones
Whom God has guided, and those
Are the ones endued
With understanding.

١٨ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَمِعُونَ الْقَوْلَ فَيَتَّبِعُونَ أَحْسَنَهُ
أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ هَدَى اللَّهُ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْأَلْبَابُ

19. Is, then, one against whom
The decree of Punishment

١٩ أَفَمَنْ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِ كِتَابُ الْعَذَابِ

4267. But God does not leave mankind without warning. Man has been granted a limited amount of free-will, and in order to help him in its right use, all the consequences of his action are clearly explained to him. To those who will listen to Reason are given arguments which can be apprehended by their own intelligence; to those who are swayed by affections and emotion, an appeal is made in the name of the love of God; to those who understand nothing but fear, the warning is conveyed by a portrayal of the dreadful consequences of wrong-doing.

4268. There is always the danger that Evil may seize us even if we approach it out of mere curiosity. If we take an interest in it we may become its worshippers or slaves. The wise man eschews it altogether, and so he enrolls among the Servants of God, and gets the good news of His Mercy and Good Pleasure.

4269. The Commentators construe this clause in two alternative ways. (1) If "word" be taken as any word, the clause would mean that good men listen to all that is said and choose the best of it. (2) If "word" be taken to mean God's Word, it would mean that they should listen reverently to it, and where permissive and alternative courses are allowed for those who are not strong enough to follow the higher course, those "endued with understanding" should prefer to attempt the higher course of conduct. For Example, it is permitted (within limits) to punish those who wrong us, but the nobler course is to repel evil with good (xxiii. 96); we should try to follow the nobler course. I prefer the latter construction: it accords better with my interpretation of the last verse: see n. 4268.

Spacious is God's earth ! <sup>4261</sup>
Those who patiently persevere
Will truly receive
A reward without measure ! "

وَأَرْضُ اللَّهِ وَاسِعَةٌ إِنَّمَا يُوَفَّى
الصَّابِرُونَ أَجْرَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ

11. Say : " Verily, I am commanded
To serve God
With sincere devotion ;

⑪ قُلْ إِنِّي أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ

12. " And I am commanded
To be the first <sup>4262</sup>
Of those who bow
To God in Islam."

⑫ وَأُمِرْتُ لِأَنْ أَكُونَ أَوَّلَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ

13. Say : " I would, if I <sup>4263</sup>
Disobeyed my Lord,
Indeed have fear
Of the Penalty
Of a Mighty Day."

⑬ قُلْ إِنِّي أَخَافُ إِنْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّي
عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ

14. Say : " It is God I serve,
With my sincere
(And exclusive) devotion :

⑭ قُلْ لِلَّهِ أَعْبُدُ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ دِينِي

15. " Serve ye what ye will <sup>4264</sup>
Besides Him." Say :
" Truly, those in loss
Are those who lose
Their own souls
And their People <sup>4265</sup>
On the Day of Judgment :
Ah ! that is indeed
The (real and) evident Loss !

⑮ فَاعْبُدُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ قُلْ إِنَّ
الْخُسْرَانَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ يَوْمَ
الْقِيَامَةِ أَلَا ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِينُ

4261. Cf. xxix. 56 and n. 3489. We must always do right. We cannot plead that the circumstances in which we find ourselves force our hands. If our home conditions do not allow us to act according to the Faith that is in us, we must be prepared to suffer ostracism or even exile.

4262. Cf. vi. 14. "The first" need not necessarily be chronological: it may also refer to the first rank in zeal, and in readiness to suffer for the Cause.

4263. Cf. vi. 15. The worst Penalty in a spiritual sense is the Displeasure of God, just as the highest achievement, the fulfilment of all desire, is the attainment of God's Good Pleasure; vi. 16.

4264. This is not a command or permission but a reproach and warning. The address of the man of God may be paraphrased thus: 'Whatever happens I will follow the command of God. He has revealed Himself, and I know that He is One, supreme over all creatures. Him alone will I serve. Is there any so ignorant as to seek anyone else? Let him do so and see the result. The loss will be his own. For he falls from Grace into Evil.'

4265. The cult of Evil results in the destruction of all that is best and most valuable in us, as well as poisons all the affections which link us to our families, friends, and people, in the Final Adjustment, which we call the Day of Judgment.

Turning to Him in repentance:
But when He bestoweth
A favour upon him
As from Himself, (man)
Doth forget what he cried
And prayed for before,
And he doth set up
Rivals unto God,
Thus misleading others
From God's Path.
Say, "Enjoy thy blasphemy <sup>4257</sup>
For a little while:
Verily thou art (one)
Of the Companions of the Fire!"

مُنِيبًا إِلَيْهِ تَوَّابًا إِذَا خَوَّلَهُ نِعْمَةً مِّنْهُ نَسِيَ
مَا كَانَ يَدْعُو إِلَى اللَّهِ مِن قَبْلُ وَجَعَلَ لِلَّهِ أَنْدَادًا
لِّيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ قُلْ تَمَتَّعْ بِكُفْرِكَ قَلِيلًا
إِنَّكَ مِن أَصْحَابِ النَّارِ

9. Is one who worships devoutly
During the hours of the night <sup>4258</sup>
Prostrating himself or standing
(In adoration), who takes heed
Of the Hereafter, and who
Places his hope in the Mercy
Of his Lord—(like one
Who does not)? Say:
"Are those equal, those who know
And those who do not know?
It is those who are
Endued with understanding
That receive admonition. <sup>4259</sup>"

① أَمَّنْ هُوَ قَبْلُ أَنَاءَ اللَّيْلِ سَاجِدًا وَقَائِمًا
يَحْذَرُ الْآخِرَةَ وَيَرْجُو رَحْمَةَ رَبِّهِ قُلْ هَلْ
يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا
يَعْلَمُونَ إِنَّمَا يَذَكَّرُ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ

SECTION 2.

- 10 Say: "O ye
My servants who believe!
Fear your Lord. <sup>4260</sup>
Good is (the reward)
For those who do good
In this world.

① قُلْ يٰعِبَادِ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا
رَبَّكُمُ الَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً

4257. Those who practise and those who teach evil and blasphemy may seem to flourish in this world. But their satisfaction will be of very short duration. They are treading all the while the Path that leads to the Fire of Perdition.

4258. Cf. iii. 113-117. It is a great thing when a man gets into the attitude of humble devotion to God. To him the hereafter is a real thing, and he prepares for it with good works. He does not build his hopes on the vanities of this world, but on God's Grace and Mercy. Such a man is "endued with understanding" and receives God's Message with fervour and alacrity. He is not to be compared with the cynic or the unbeliever, who knows nothing of the real value of the inner life.

4259. Cf. iii. 19.

4260. The "fear of God" (Taquwā) is explained in n. 26 to ii. 2. See also n. 2912 to xxiii. 60. The fear of God is akin to love, for it means that we are afraid to displease Him.

Of your mothers,
In stages, one after another,<sup>4251</sup>
In three veils of darkness.<sup>4252</sup>
Such is God, your Lord
And Cherisher : to Him belongs
(All) dominion. There is
No god but He : then
How are ye turned away<sup>4253</sup>
(From your true Centre) ?

أَمْهَيْتُكُمْ خَلْقًا مِنْ بَعْدِ خَلْقِي فِي
ظُلُمَاتٍ ثَلَاثٍ ذَلِكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا
هُوَ فَأَنْتُمْ تُصْرَفُونَ

7. If ye reject (God),
Truly God hath no need
Of you ; but He liketh not<sup>4254</sup>
Ingratitude from His servants :
If ye are grateful, He
Is pleased with you.
No bearer of burdens<sup>4255</sup>
Can bear the burden
Of another. In the End,
To your Lord is your Return,
When He will tell you
The truth of all
That ye did (in this life).
For He knoweth well
All that is in (men's) hearts.

⑤ إِنْ تَكْفُرُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَنِيٌّ عَنْكُمْ وَلَا يَرْضَىٰ
لِعِبَادِهِ التَّكْفُورَ وَإِنْ تَشْكُرُوا يَرْضَهُ لَكُمْ وَلَا تَزِرُ
وِزْرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ مَرْجِعُكُمْ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ
بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

8. When some trouble toucheth man,<sup>4256</sup>
He crieth unto his Lord,

⑥ وَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضُرٌّ دَعَا رَبَّهُ

4251. See xxii. 5, where the gradual physical growth of man in several successive stages is mentioned as one of the Signs of God's creative Power and cherishing care.

4252. The 'three veils of darkness' which cover the unborn child are : the caul or membrane, the womb, and the hollow in which the womb is enclosed. But we might understand "three" in a cumulative rather than a numerical sense.

4253. It is clear that you owe your very existence and your maintenance, growth, and preservation, to God. He is the centre of your being : how is it that you are turned away by chance things from Him ?

4254. God is independent of all wants, and therefore man's ingratitude does not affect God. But God cares for man, and therefore man's gratitude and service earn God's Good Pleasure, and man's ingratitude and rebellion are displeasing to God.

4255. Cf. vi. 164. The account is between you and God. No one else can take your burdens or carry your sins. Vicarious atonement would be unjust. You have to return to God in the Hereafter. You will find that He knows all that you did in this life, and its full significance. He will explain to you even better than you can understand yourself ; because all your secret hidden motives, which you sometimes tried to ignore yourself, are fully known to Him.

4256. Cf. x. 12. Trouble and adversity often bring a man to his bearings. But if he is not firm and constant, he forgets the lessons which life is meant to teach him. As soon as he gets a little prosperity, he forgets that it is from God, and attributes it to something which may only be a secondary cause, e.g., his own efforts or the Powers of Nature, or something which he has invented and made into a god, e.g., idols or fate. God is the Ultimate Cause of all things. To set up rivals to Him in this way is not only wrong and degrading to the false worshipper himself, but misleads countless ignorant people, who may not be able to make allowances for the figures of speech or the symbolism by which subtler minds can explain away falsehoods.

4. Had God wished
To take to Himself
A son, He could have Chosen whom He pleased
Out of those whom He <sup>4246</sup>
Doth create : but Glory
Be to Him! (He is above
Such things.) He is God,
The One, the Irresistible.

5. He created the heavens
And the earth
In true (proportions) : <sup>4247</sup>
He makes the Night
Overlap the Day, and the Day
Overlap the Night :
He has subjected
The sun and the moon
(To His law) :
Each one follows a course
For a time appointed.
Is not He the Exalted
In Power — He Who forgives <sup>4248</sup>
Again and again ?

6. He created you (all)
From a single Person : <sup>4249</sup>
Then created, of like nature,
His mate ; and He
Sent down for you eight head <sup>4250</sup>
Of cattle in pairs :
He makes you,
In the wombs

① لَوْ أَرَادَ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا لَاصْطَفَىٰ مِمَّا يَخْلُقُ
مَا يَشَاءُ سُبْحَانَهُ هُوَ اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ

② خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
بِالْحَقِّ يُكَوِّرُ اللَّيْلَ عَلَى النَّهَارِ وَيُكَوِّرُ النَّهَارَ
عَلَى اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي
لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۚ إِنَّ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفَّارُ

③ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْهَا
زَوْجَهَا وَأَنزَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ الْأَنْفُسِ
ثَمَنِيَّةً ۚ أَرْوَاحُكُمْ يَخْلُقُكُمْ فِي بُطُونِ

4246. It is blasphemy to say that God begot a son. If that were true, He should have had a wife (vi. 101), and His son would have been of the same kind as Himself; whereas God is one, with no one else like unto Him (xxii. 4). Begetting is an animal act which goes with sex. How can it be consistent with our conception of One Who is above all Creatures? If such a blasphemous thought were possible, as that God wanted some one else to help Him, He could have chosen the best of His creatures instead of lowering Himself to an animal act. But glory to God! He is above such things! His Unity is the first thing that we have to learn about Him. As He is Omnipotent, He requires no creatures to help Him or bring other creatures to Him.

4247. Cf. vi. 73, and n. 896.

4248. His Power is equalled by His Mercy. Who can there be like unto Him?

4249. Cf. iv. 1, and n. 504.

4250 See vi. 143-4, where four kinds of cattle are mentioned in pairs in connection with certain Arab superstitions which are there condemned. Here the same four kinds are mentioned as representative of domesticated cattle given by God as useful to man. These are sheep, goats, camels, and oxen. In Arab idiom the horse is not included among "cattle".

For the wisdom and goodness of God in granting man dominion over cattle, see xxxvi. 71-73, .

Sura XXXIX.

Zumar, or the Crowds.

In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. The revelation
Of this Book
Is from God,<sup>4242</sup>
The Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.

2. Verily it is We Who have Revealed the Book to thee
In Truth : so serve God,
Offering Him sincere devotion.

3. Is it not to God<sup>4243</sup>
That sincere devotion
Is due? But those who Take for protectors others
Than God (say): "We only
Serve them in order that
They may bring us nearer<sup>4244</sup>
To God." Truly God
Will judge between them
In that wherein they differ.<sup>4245</sup>
But God guides not
Such as are false
And ungrateful.

① نَزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ

② إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ
بِالْحَقِّ فَاعْبُدِ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ

③ أَلِلَّهِ الَّذِينَ الْخَاصِرَ وَالَّذِينَ
اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ مَا نَعْبُدُهُمْ إِلَّا لِيُقَرِّبُونَا
إِلَى اللَّهِ زُلْفَى إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَخْتَصُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ فِي
مَا هُمْ فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي
مَنْ هُوَ كَذِبٌ كَفَّارٌ

4242. In connection, with Revelation two qualities of God are mentioned: (1) that He is All-Powerful and can carry out His Will in spite of all opposition; and (2) that He is full of knowledge and wisdom. The first answers those who question how God can send Revelation to man; the second explains that true wisdom consists in carrying out God's Will as revealed to us.

4243. In the many Signs in Creation as described below, there yet is a clear indication of the unity of Plan, pointing to the Unity of the Creator. Worship or service is due to none but Him. And He wants exclusive and sincere devotion.

4244. Worshippers of Idols or of deities other than God, e.g., saints or perhaps Wealth and Power, Science or Selfish Desire, may pretend that these are symbols that may get them nearer to their self-development, nearer to the goal of their life, nearer to God, but they are altogether on the wrong track.

4245. This departure of theirs from true worship, this divergence from the right way, produces endless disputations and sects. God will judge between them. But if they are determined to go after falsehoods and forget the gratitude and service which they owe to God, and God alone, they are putting themselves on a Path where they will get no guidance. They are cutting themselves off from revealed Truth.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXIX (Zumar).

This is the last of the series of six Sūras beginning with S. xxxiv., which deal with the mysteries of the spiritual world, as leading up to the Ma'ād, or the Hereafter. See Introduction to S. xxxiv.

Its subject-matter is how Creation in its great variety is yet sorted out in Groups or Classes, all governed by one Plan, and created and sustained by One God, Who will separate Good from Evil at the last Day. The word zumar occurs in verses 71 and 73.

Its chronology has no significance. It belongs to the later Meccan period.

Summary.—The variety in Creation yet points to unity of Plan : there is only One God : to Him is due all worship and from Him flow all Justice and Grace (xxxix. 1-21, and C. 203).

There is unity in Revelation, and guidance comes from God alone : turn to Him only, for all else is false (xxxix. 22-52, and C. 204).

God's Mercy is all-embracing : despair not : seek it before it is too late : for Judgment and Justice will come for certain (xxxix. 53-75, and C. 205).

C. 203.—To God is due sincere devotion, and to Him
(xxxix. 1-21.) Alone : there is none like unto Him.
All nature obeys His laws, and our own
Growth and life proclaim Him Lord
And Cherisher. How can we blaspheme?
We must serve Him, the One, the True,
With sincere devotion, and follow His Law
In its highest meaning : or else the loss
Is our own. All nature proclaims
Aloud His Grace and Loving-kindness.

83. "Except Thy Servants
Amongst them, sincere
And purified (by Thy grace)."

٨٣ لَا عِبَادَ لَكَ مِنْهُمْ الْخَالِصِينَ

84. (God) said: "Then
It is just and fitting—<sup>4236</sup>
And I say what is
Just and fitting—

٨٤ قَالَ فَالْحَقُّ وَالْحَقُّ أَقُولُ

85. "That I will certainly fill <sup>4237</sup>
Hell with thee
And those that follow thee,—
Every one."

٨٥ لَا أَنَا لَأَنْ جَهَنَّمَ مِنْكَ وَمِمَّنْ تَتَّبِعُكَ مِنْهُمْ
أَجْمَعِينَ

86. Say: "No reward do I ask <sup>4238</sup>
Of you for this (Qur-an),
Nor am I a pretender. <sup>4239</sup>

٨٦ قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ
التَّكْلِيفِينَ

87. "This is no less than
A Message to (all) <sup>4240</sup>
The Worlds.

٨٧ إِنَّهُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ

88. "And ye shall certainly
Know the truth of it (all) <sup>4241</sup>
After a while."

٨٨ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُونَ

4236. Cf. n. 1990 to xv. 64.

4237. Cf. vii. 18; vii. 179; and xi. 119, n. 1623. The punishment of defiance, disobedience, and rebellion is inevitable and just, and the followers who choose to identify themselves with the disobedience must suffer as well as the leaders. Cf. v. 33

4238. Cf. xxv. 57; xxvi. 109; and many other passages. The prophet of God neither seeks nor expects any reward from men. On the contrary he suffers much at their hands. He is unselfish and offers his services under God's inspiration. He is satisfied with the hope "that each one who will may take a straight Path to his Lord". That is his reward. And the reward he hopes for from God is similarly unselfish. He earnestly hopes to win His Good Pleasure—or, to use another metaphor, "to see His Face"

4239. Mutakallif: a man who pretends to things that are not true, or declares as facts things that do not exist, one who takes upon himself tasks to which he is not equal. True prophets are not people of that kind.

4240. So far from there being any false or selfish motive in the Message proclaimed in Revelation, it is a healing mercy to all mankind. More, it is in accord with all parts of God's Creation, and makes us kin with all Creation, the handiwork of the One True God.

4241. There may be many things which we in our "muddy vesture of decay" may not fully understand or take in. If we only follow the right Path, we shall arrive at the Goal in the Hereafter, and then everything will be clear to us.

Or art thou one <sup>4230</sup>
Of the high (and mighty) ones?"

76. (Iblis) said: "I am better
Than he: Thou createdst
Me from fire, and him
Thou createdst from clay."

77. (God) said: "Then get thee
Out from here: for thou
Art rejected, accursed.

78. "And My Curse shall be
On thee till the Day <sup>4231</sup>
Of Judgment."

79. (Iblis) said: "O my Lord!
Give me then respite <sup>4232</sup>
Till the Day
The (dead) are raised."

80. (God) said: "Respite then
Is granted thee—

81. "Till the Day
Of the Time Appointed," <sup>4233</sup>

82. (Iblis) said: "Then,
By Thy Power, <sup>4234</sup> I will Put them all in the wrong, — <sup>4235</sup>

٧٨ وَإِنَّ عَلَيْكَ لَعْنَتِي إِلَى يَوْمِ الدِّينِ

٧٩ قَالَ رَبِّ فَأَنْظِرْنِي إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ

٨٠ قَالَ فَإِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمُنْظَرِينَ

٨١ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْوَقْتِ الْمَعْلُومِ

٨٢ قَالَ فَبِعِزَّتِكَ لَأُغْوِيَنَّهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ

4230. If, then, Satan refuses, it is a rebellion against God. It arises from arrogance or haughtiness, an exaggerated idea of Self. Or, it is asked, are you really sufficiently high in rank to dispute with the Almighty? Of course he was not.

4231. See n. 1972 to xv. 35, where it is explained why the respite is to the Day of Judgment. The whole of that passage in S. xv. forms a good commentary on this.

4232. For the significance of the respite see n. 1973 to xv. 36.

4233. It is not an indefinite respite. It is for a period definitely limited, while this our Probation lasts in this world. It is part of the test as to how we use our limited free-will. After that, our whole existence will be on a different plane. The good will have been sorted out, the chain of consequences of the present world will be broken, and "a new Creation" will have taken the place of the present World.

4234. This phrase, this oath of Satan, is a fresh point introduced in this passage, because here we are dealing with Power—the Power of Good contrasted with Evil,—the spiritual Power of God as contrasted with the power that we see in our earthly affairs. Satan acknowledges that even his Power, such as it is, has no reality except in so far as it is permitted to operate by God in God's wise and universal Plan, and that it cannot harm the true and sincere worshippers of God.

4235. See n. 1974 to xv. 39.

70. ' Only this has been revealed
To me : that I am
To give warning
Plainly and publicly." <sup>4224</sup>

71. Behold, thy Lord said <sup>4225</sup>
To the angels : " I am
About to create man
From clay : <sup>4226</sup>

72. " When I have fashioned him
(In due proportion) and breathed
Into him of My spirit, <sup>4227</sup>
Fall ye down in obeisance
Unto him."

73. So the angels prostrated themselves,
All of them together :

74. Not so Iblis : he
Was haughty, and became <sup>4228</sup>
One of those who reject Faith.

75. (God) said : " O Iblis !
What prevents thee from
Prostrating thyself to one
Whom I have created
With My hands ? <sup>4229</sup>
Art thou haughty ?

٧٠) إِنْ يُوحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ إِلَّا أَنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ

٧١) إِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ إِنِّي خَالِقٌ
بَشَرًا مِّن طِينٍ

٧٢) فَلَمَّا سَوَّيْتُهُ وَنَفَخْتُ
فِيهِ مِن رُّوحِي فَقَعُوا لَهُ سَاجِدِينَ

٧٣) فَسَجَدَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ أَجْمَعُونَ

٧٤) إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ اسْتَكْبَرَ وَكَانَ
مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ

٧٥) قَالَ يَا إِبْلِيسُ مَا مَنَعَكَ أَن تَسْجُدَ لِمَا خَلَقْتُ
بِيَدَيَّ أَسْتَكْبَرْتَ

4224. Two things are implied in Mubîn : (1) that the warning should be clear and perspicuous ; there should be no mincing of matters, no ambiguity, no compromise with evil, vii. 184 ; (2) that the warning should be delivered publicly, before all people, in spite of opposition and persecution, xxvi. 115. Both these ideas I have tried to express in this passage.

4225. Two passages may be compared with this : viz. : (1) ii. 30-39, where merely the first stages of the Rebellion against God and its consequences to mankind are mentioned, and (2) xv. 29-40, where the further intrusion of evil in man's life here below is referred to, and an assurance is given that Evil will have no power except over those who yield to it. The latter is the passage most relevant here, as we are now dealing with the spiritual power of Revelation to defeat the machinations of Evil.

4226. This shows that the material world round us was created by God before God fashioned man and breathed of His soul into him. Geology also shows that man came on the scene at a very late stage in the history of this planet.

4227. See n. 1968 to xv. 29, where the spiritual significance of this is explained.

4228. Arrogance (self-love) is thus the root of Evil and of Unfaith.

4229. With My hands : i.e., by My power and creative skill. This is the point. Man, as typified by Adam, is in himself nothing but frail clay. But as fashioned by God's creative power into something with God's spirit breathed into him, his dignity is raised above that of the highest creatures,

C. 202.—The Gospel of Unity is the true Cure
 (xxxviii. 65-88.) For Evil : for it gives the good news
 Of God's Power Supreme, and His Mercy
 And Forgiveness again and again. It warns
 Us to avoid Evil, for Evil arose
 From selfish Pride and Rebellion. No power
 Has it over God's servants, sincere
 And true : while Revelation comes
 As a gift free to all God's Creation.

SECTION 5.

65. Say : " Truly am I
 A Warner : no god
 Is there but the One
 God, Supreme and Irresistible,—<sup>4219</sup>

٦٥ قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ وَمَا مِنِّ إِلَهٍ إِلَّا اللَّهُ
 الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ

66. " The Lord of the heavens
 And the earth, and all
 Between,—Exalted in Might,
 Able to enforce His Will,<sup>4220</sup>
 Forgiving again and again."<sup>4221</sup>

٦٦ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ
 وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفَّارُ

67. Say : " That is a Message
 Supreme (above all),—

٦٧ قُلْ هُوَ نَبَأٌ عَظِيمٌ

68. " From which ye
 Do turn away !"<sup>4222</sup>

٦٨ أَنْتُمْ عَنْهُ مُعْرِضُونَ

69. " No knowledge have I
 Of the Chiefs on high,
 When they discuss
 (Matters) among themselves."<sup>4223</sup>

٦٩ مَا كَانَ لِي مِنْ عِلْمٍ بِالسَّالِفِينَ إِذْ
 يَخْتَصِمُونَ

4219. Cf. xii. 39, where Joseph preaches to the men in prison. The one supreme Message of importance to mankind was (and is) the Unity of God ; that He is the Creator and Sustainer of all ; that His Will is supreme ; that He can carry out His Will without question, and no powers of Evil can defeat it ; and that He forgives by His grace again and again. This Message the holy Prophet came to deliver, and he delivered it.

4220. In n. 2818 to xxii. 40, I have explained the full import of 'Azīz as a title applied to God, and I have expressed two of the leading ideas involved, in the two lines here. The argument in this Sūra turns upon the contrast between earthly Power and the Divine Power ; the one is impotent and the other is supreme.

4221. Qaḥḥār is the emphatic intensive form, and I have accordingly translated it as " Forgiving again and again ". Cf. xx. 82.

4222. The Message which is of supreme import to mankind,—from that they turn away. Instead of profiting by it, they turn away to side issues, or unprofitable speculation : such as : what is the origin of Evil ; when will Judgment come ? etc.

4223. The hierarchy in Heaven, under God's command, discuss questions of high import in the Universe. Those are not necessarily revealed to men, except in so far as it is good for men to know, as in verses 71-85 below. But the chief thing for man is to know that God is Most Merciful, that He forgives again and again, and that Evil has no power over those who trust in God.

59. Here is a troop
Rushing headlong with you !<sup>4214</sup>
No welcome for them !
Truly, they shall burn
In the Fire!

٥٩ هَذَا قَوْجٌ مُتَّخِذٌ مَعَكُمْ دُجًى لَا مَرْجَاؤَ لَهُمْ
إِنَّهُمْ صَالُوا النَّارِ

60. (The followers shall cry
To the misleaders :)
"Nay, ye (too)! No welcome
For you! It is ye who
Have brought this upon us!"<sup>4215</sup>
Now evil is (this) place
To stay in!"

٦٠ قَالُوا بَلْ أَنْتُمْ لَا مَرْجَاؤَ لَكُمْ أَنْتُمْ
قَدْ مَتَّيْتُمْ لَنَا فَيْشَ الْقَرَارِ

61. They will say: "Our Lord!
Whoever brought this upon us,—
Add to him a double<sup>4216</sup>
Penalty in the Fire!"

٦١ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا مَنْ قَدَّمَ لَنَا هَذَا فِرْدَوْ
عَنَّا بِاضْعَافٍ فِي النَّارِ

62. And they will say:
"What has happened to us
That we see not men
Whom we used to number
Among the bad ones?"<sup>4217</sup>

٦٢ وَقَالُوا مَا لَنَا لَا نَرَى رِجَالًا كُنَّا
نَعُدُّهُمْ مِثْلَ شُرَارِ

63. "Did we treat them
(As such) in ridicule,
Or have (our) eyes
Failed to perceive them?"

٦٣ أَتَخَذْنَاهُمْ زُخْرِيًّا
أَمْ زَاغَتْ عَنْهُمْ الْأَبْصَارُ

64. Truly that is just and fitting,—<sup>4218</sup>
The mutual recriminations
Of the People of the Fire!

٦٤ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَنَحْوُ تَخَصُّمِ أَهْلِ النَّارِ

4214. The wonder is that so many people should embrace Evil, and in so much hurry and eagerness! Here they may be welcomed by the leaders of Evil, but in the final state it will be the opposite of welcome. They will be followed with reproaches and curses.

4215. It is the nature of Evil to shift the blame on to others. The followers will reproach the leaders, but none can escape personal responsibility for his own acts and deeds!

4216. Cf. vii. 38, and n. 1019. See also xi. 20. The evil ones now vent their spite on others. Here they ask for a double penalty for their misleaders, but they forget their own personal responsibility. In the next verse, they express their surprise that others have escaped the torments, which they themselves have earned!

4217. The bad ones: i.e., the ones whom they (evil ones) ridiculed as fools sure to come to an evil end, because they refused to join in with the evil ones in their plots. The values are now reversed. The good ones are among the Blessed, and are not to be seen in the "Bed of Misery." The ridicule is now against the evil ones.

4218. The mutual recriminations and spite are themselves a part of the Penalty, for such feelings increase their unhappiness.

52. And beside them will be
Chaste women restraining <sup>4209</sup>
Their glances, (companions)
Of equal age. <sup>4210</sup>

٥٢ * وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَوَّاصَاتٌ كَاطَرَاتٌ

53. Such is the Promise
Made to you
For the Day of Account !

٥٣ هَذَا مَا تَعَدُّونَ لِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ

54. Truly such will be
Our Bounty (to you) ;
It will never fail ;—

٥٤ إِنَّ هَذَا لَرِزْقُنَا مَا لَهُ مِنْ نَفَادٍ

55. Yea, such ! But—
For the wrong-doers
Will be an evil place <sup>4211</sup>
Of (final) Return !—

٥٥ هَذَا وَإِنَّ لِلظَّالِمِينَ لَشَرَّ مَآبٍ

56. Hell !—they will burn
Therein,—an evil bed
(Indeed, to lie on) !— <sup>4212</sup>

٥٦ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلَوْنَهَا فَنُفْسُ الْمِهَادِ

57. Yea, such !—Then
Shall they taste it,—
A boiling fluid, and a fluid <sup>4213</sup>
Dark, murky, intensely cold !—

٥٧ هَذَا فَلْيَذُوقُوهُ حَمِيمٌ وَغَسَّاقٌ

58. And other Penalties
Of a similar kind,
To match them !

٥٨ وَآخَرُ مِنْ شَكْلِهِ أَزْوَاجٌ

4209 Cf. xxxvii 48 and n. 4064, and xxxvi. 56, n. 4002. As we conceive happiness in this life, it is not complete if it is only solitary. How we hanker after some one who can share in our highest joy ! That feeling is also figured here.

4210. To make the metaphor of social happiness complete, we want companionship of equal age. Age and youth cannot be happy together. It is not suggested that in the timeless state figured here, there will be old age ; but if it is possible to conceive of temperamental differences then, the company will be so arranged that it will be congenial. Or we can accept the type of youth and freshness as common to all in that happy state.

4211. This is in parallel contrast to the state of the Blessed in xxxviii, 49 above.

4212. Cf. xiv. 29 This continues the parallel contrast to the state of the Blessed already described.

4213. Cf. x. 4, and n. 1390. The conjunction of the boiling fluid with the dark, murky, intensely cold fluid heightens the effect of the Penalty. In place of harmony, there is the discord of extreme opposites. And the discord is not confined to this : it runs through the whole idea of Hell. See the next verse.

46. Verily We did choose them
For a special (purpose)—
Proclaiming the Message
Of the Hereafter.

٤٦ إِنَّا أَخْلَصْنَاهُمْ بِخَالِصَةٍ
ذِكْرًا لِلْآخِرَةِ

47. They were, in Our sight,
Truly, of the company
Of the Elect and the Good.

٤٧ وَلَا تَهْزُبُهُمْ عَنْهَا
الْمُصْطَفَيْنَ الْأَخْيَارَ

48. And commemorate Isma'il,<sup>4205</sup>
Elisha, and Zul-Kifl;
Each of them was
Of the company of the Good.

٤٨ وَادْكُرْنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ
وَكُلٌّ مِنَ الْأَخْيَارِ

49. This is a Message
(Of admonition): and verily,
For the Righteous,<sup>4206</sup>
Is a beautiful place
Of (final) Return,—

٤٩ هَذَا ذِكْرٌ وَإِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ
لَحُسْنَ مَكَابِرَ

50. Gardens of Eternity,
Whose doors will (ever)
Be open to them;<sup>4207</sup>

٥٠ جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ مُمْتَصَّةً لَهُمْ
الْأَبْوَابُ

51. Therein will they
Recline (at ease);
Therein can they
Call (at pleasure)
For fruit in abundance,<sup>4208</sup>
And (delicious) drink;

٥١ مُتَّكِئِينَ فِيهَا يَدْعُونَ
فِيهَا مِنْ كَثِيرٍ وَشَرَابًا

4205. Isma'il, the Patriarch of the Arab race, was also mentioned (xxxvii. 101-107) as a pattern of self-sacrifice; now he is mentioned in the company of the Good, i.e., of those who were a blessing to their people. Here he is bracketed with Elisha (for whom see n. 906 to vi. 86), and Zul-Kifl (for whom see n. 2743 to xxi. 85). All these three were examples of constancy and patience under suffering.

4206. Some of the pre-eminent examples of the Elect and the Good having been mentioned, we have now a reference to the Righteous as a body (rank and file as well as leaders) and their future in the Hereafter as won by victory over Evil.

4207. The Final Bliss will not be a hole-and-corner thing, a pale reflection of some Palace or Retreat, where mystery reigns behind closed doors. Its doors will be open, and its inmates will be free to go in and out as they will, because their wills will be purified and brought into accord with the Universal Law.

4208. See n. 4003 to xxxvi. 57. The free Gardens are types of satisfaction in external surroundings; the comfortable reclining thrones, the fruit, and the drink are types of the soul's individual satisfaction; and the society of pure-minded companions, of equal ages, is the type of a soul's social satisfaction.

Behold he cried to his Lord :
" The Evil One has afflicted
Me with distress<sup>4199</sup> and suffering ! "

أَنِّي مَسَّنِيَ الشَّيْطَانُ بِنُصْبٍ وَعَذَابٍ

42. (The command was given : )
" Strike with thy foot : <sup>4200</sup>
Here is (water) wherein
To wash, cool and refreshing,
And (water) to drink."

④ أَرْكَضُ بِرَجْلِكَ
هَذَا مَغْتَسِلٌ بَارِدٌ وَشَرَابٌ

43. And We gave him (back)
His people, and doubled
Their number,—as a Grace <sup>4201</sup>
From Ourselves, and a thing
For commemoration, for all
Who have Understanding.

⑤ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ أَهْلَهُ وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ
رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَذِكْرًا لِأُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ

44. " And take in thy hand
A little grass, and strike <sup>4202</sup>
Therewith : and break not (Thy oath)." Truly We found
Him full of patience and constancy.
How excellent in Our service ! <sup>4203</sup>
Ever did he turn (to Us) !

⑥ وَخُذْ بِيَدِكَ ضِغْتًا فَاضْرِبْ بِهِ
وَلَا تُخَنِّتْ إِنَّهُ عَجَدَنَّهُ صَابِرًا نَعِيمٌ
الْعَبْدُ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ

45. And commemorate Our Servants
Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,
Possessors of Power and Vision. <sup>4204</sup>

⑦ وَاذْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْحَاقَ
وَيَعْقُوبَ أُولِي الْأَيْدِي وَالْأَبْصَارِ

4199. The distress was of many kinds, physical, mental, and spiritual. See n. 2739 to xxi, 83. He suffered from loathsome sores; he lost his home, his possessions, and his family; and almost his balance of mind. But he did not lose Faith but turned to God (see verse 44 below), and the recuperative process began.

4200. The recuperative process having begun, he was commanded to strike the earth or a rock with his foot, and a fountain or fountains gushed forth,—to give him a bath and clean his body; to refresh his spirits; and to give him drink and rest. This is a fresh touch, not mentioned in S. xxi. or in the Book of Job, but adding beautifully to our realization of the picture.

4201. Cf. xxi, 84, and notes 2739-2740.

4202. In his worst distress Job was patient and constant in faith, but apparently his wife was not. According to the Book of Job (ii. 9-10), "Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? Curse God, and die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips." He must have said in his haste to the woman that he would beat her: he is asked now to correct her with only a wisp of grass, to show that he was gentle and humble as well as patient and constant.

4203. Cf. xxxviii, 30 above, where similar words are spoken of Solomon. Patience and constancy are also a form of service, if our attitude is due to an active faith in God, and not mere passivity. So Milton in his Sonnet: "They also serve who only stand and wait."

4204. In the last Sūra (xxxvii, 83-113) Abraham and Isaac (and by implication Jacob) were mentioned as resisting Evil and winning through. Here they are mentioned as men with spiritual power and vision, Israelite patriarchs, who bore witness to the Gospel of the Hereafter, and were therefore a blessing to their people, for they taught the Truth.

A Kingdom which,
(It may be), suits not
Another after me :
For Thou art the Grantor <sup>4192</sup>
Of Bounties (without measure),

مَلِكًا لَا يَتَّبِعُنِي لِأَحَدٍ مِّنْ بَعْدِي إِنَّكَ
أَنْتَ الْوَقَّابُ

36. Then We subjected the Wind <sup>4193</sup>
To his power, to flow
Gently to his order,
Whithersoever he willed,—

فَقَضَّ نَالَهُ الرِّيحَ تَجَرِي بِأَمْرِ رُحَّاءِ
حَيْثُ شَاءَ

37. As also the evil ones, <sup>4194</sup>
(Including) every kind
Of builder and diver,—

وَالشَّيَاطِينِ كُلِّ بَنَّاوُغَوَّاصٍ

38. As also others bound <sup>4195</sup>
Together in fetters.

وَأَخْرَجَ مَقْتَرِينَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ

39. "Such are Our Bounties :
Whether thou bestow them <sup>4196</sup>
(On others) or withhold them,
No account will be asked."

هَذَا عَطَاؤُنَا فَامْنُنْ أَوْ أَمْسِكْ بِغَيْرِ
حِسَابٍ

40. And he enjoyed, indeed, <sup>4197</sup>
A Near Approach to Us,
And a beautiful Place
Of (final) Return.

وَإِنَّكَ لَمُعِنْدُنَا لُزُلْفَىٰ وَحُسْنِ مَّآبٍ

SECTION 4.

41. Commemorate Our Servant
Job. <sup>4198</sup>

وَإِذْ كُنَّا عَبْدًا لَّيُؤْتِي نَادِي رَبِّهِ

4192. Cf. xxxviii. 9 above.

4193. Cf. xxi. 81, and n. 2736.

4194. Cf. xxi. 82, and n. 2738. Cf. also xxxiv. 12-13 and notes there : in the latter passage the spirits mentioned are called Jinns. The divers were probably those employed in pearl-fisheries.

4195. Cf. xiv. 49, where the same expression "bound together in fetters" is applied to Sinners on the Day of Judgment.

4196. God bestowed such abundant powers and bounties on Solomon that they could not be counted or measured; and he was free to give away anything he liked or keep anything he liked. In this was great temptation for an ordinary man. Solomon as a prophet withstood it and asked to be forgiven for power and such a kingdom as others might not be able to use lawfully. His earthly kingdom went to pieces after his death. But his name and fame endure. And what is more, he obtained a place among the Nearest Ones to God. See next verse.

4197. The same words are used of David in xxxviii. 25 above, thus symmetrically closing the argument about the two greatest kings in Israel.

4198. For this passage, verses 41-44, cf. xxi. 83-84.

32. And he said, " Truly
Do I love the love <sup>4185</sup>
Of Good, with a view
To the glory of my Lord,"
Until (the sun) was hidden
In the veil (of Night) : <sup>4186</sup>

٣٢ فَقَالَ إِنِّي أَحْبَبْتُ حُبَّ
الْخَيْرِ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّي حَتَّى تَوَارَتْ بِالْحِجَابِ

33. " Bring them back to me."
Then began he to pass <sup>4187</sup>
His hand over (their) legs
And their necks.

٣٣ رُدُّوْهَا عَلَيَّ قَطِيفًا مَّشَامًا
بِالسُّوقِ وَالْأَعْنَاقِ

34. And We did try <sup>4188</sup>
Solomon : We placed
On his throne a body <sup>4189</sup>
(Without life) : but he did turn
(To Us in true devotion) :

٣٤ وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا سُلَيْمَانَ وَأَلْقَيْنَا عَلَى كُرْسِيِّهِ
جَسَدًا ثُمَّ أَنَابَ

35. He said, " O my Lord !
Forgive me, <sup>4190</sup> and grant me <sup>4191</sup>

٣٥ قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَهَبْ لِي

4185. The story is not found in the Old Testament. I interpret it to mean that, like his father David, Solomon was also most meticulous in not allowing the least motive of self to be mixed up with his spiritual virtues. He was fond of horses; he had great armies and wealth; but he used them all in God's service. Cf. xxvii. 19, n. 3259; xxvii. 40, n. 3276, etc. His battles were not fought for lust of blood, but as Jihāds in the cause of righteousness. His love of horses was not like that of a mere race-goer or of a warrior; there was a spiritual element in it. He loved by a kind of love which was spiritual,—the love of the highest Good.

4186. His review of his fine horses was interrupted by his evening devotions, but he resumed it after his devotions.

4187. Like all lovers of horses, he patted them on their necks and passed his hands over their fore-legs and was proud of having them—not as vanities but as a "lover of Good".

4188. What was the trial of Solomon? All the power, wealth, and glory, which were given to him were a spiritual trial to him. They might have turned another man's head, but he was staunch and true, and while he enjoyed and used all the power he had—over spirits, men, and the forces of nature, (see below), he kept his mind steady to the service of God. Cf. viii. 28, where "your possessions and your progeny" are declared to be "but a trial"

4189. "The body without life" on his throne has been variously interpreted. The interpretation that appeals to me most is that his earthly power, great as it was, was like a body without a soul, unless it was vivified by God's spirit. But Solomon did turn to God in true devotion, and his real power lay there. He did his best to root out idolatry, and he completed the Temple in Jerusalem for the worship of the One True God. Cf. his conversion of Bilqis the Queen of Sheba, xxvii. 40, n. 3276. See also vii. 148, where the same word Jasad is used in connection with the image of a calf which the Israelites had set up for worship in the absence of Moses. Men may worship worldly Power as they may worship an idol, and there is great temptation in such Power, though Solomon withstood such temptations.

I do not think that a reference to xxxiv. 14 (n. 3808) will fit the context here.

4190. The seeking of worldly Power, even if intended to be used for God's service, has a little of Self in it. It may be quite legitimate and even meritorious in ordinary men, but even the thought of it in a Prophet is to be apologised for. See a similar idea in the case of David explained in n. 4176 to xxxviii. 24 above.

4191. He asked for a Power that he would not misuse, though others might not be able to refrain from misusing it,—such as power over forces of nature or forces of violence (see the next three verses).

28. Shall We treat those Who believe and work deeds <sup>4180</sup>
Of righteousness, the same
As those who do mischief
On earth? Shall We treat
Those who guard against evil,
The same as those who
Turn aside from the right?

٢٨ أَمْ نَجْعَلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
كَالْمُفْسِدِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَمْ نَجْعَلُ
الْمُتَّقِينَ كَالْفُجَّارِ

29. (Here is) a Book which
We have sent down
Unto thee, full of blessings, <sup>4181</sup>
That they may meditate
On its Signs, and that
Men of understanding may
Receive admonition.

٢٩ كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ
وَلِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ

30. ~~And~~ To David We gave Solomon (for a son), <sup>4182</sup>
How excellent in Our service!
Ever did he turn (to Us)!

٣٠ وَهَبْنَا دَاوُدَ سُلَيْمَانَ نِعْمَ الْعَبْدُ
إِذْ تَوَّابٌ

31. Behold, there were brought <sup>4183</sup>
Before him, at eventide,
Coursers of the highest breeding, <sup>4184</sup>
And swift of foot;

٣١ إِذْ عُرِضَ عَلَيْهِ بِالْعَشِيِّ الصَّافِيَاتُ الْجُمَادُ

4180. The reference to the Hereafter at the end of verse 26 above is of a piece with the whole tenor of this Sûra, which deals with the superiority of the spiritual kingdom and the Hereafter. If there were no Hereafter, how could you reconcile the inequalities of this world? Would not the Unbelievers be right in acting as if all Creation and all life were futile? But there is a Hereafter and God will not treat the Good and Evil alike. He is just and will fully restore the balance disturbed in this life.

4181. Revelation is not a mere chance or haphazard thing. It is a real blessing—among the greatest that God has bestowed on man. By meditation on it in an earnest spirit man may learn of himself, and his relation to nature around him and to God the Author of all. Men of understanding may, by its help, resolve all genuine doubts that there may be in their minds, and learn the true lessons of spiritual life.

4182. The greatest in this life have yet need of this spiritual blessing: without it all worldly good is futile. Referring back to the story of David, we are now introduced to Solomon, who was a great king but greater still because he served God and turned to Him. The Qur-an, unlike the Old Testament, represents Solomon as a righteous king, not as an idolater, doing "evil in the sight of the Lord" (1 Kings, xl 6).

4183. The passages about David and Solomon have been variously interpreted by the Commentators. The versions which I have suggested have good authority behind them, though I have followed my own judgment in filling in the details.

4184. Ṣāfiyat: literally, horses that stand, when at ease, on three legs, firmly planted, with the hoof of the fourth leg resting lightly on the ground. This would imply breeding and a steady temper, to match with their quality of swiftness mentioned in the next clause.

26. O David! We did indeed
 Make thee a vicegerent <sup>4177</sup>
 On earth : so judge thou
 Between men in truth
 (and justice) :
 Nor follow thou the lusts
 (Of thy heart), for they will Mislead thee from the Path <sup>4178</sup>
 Of God : for those who
 Wander astray from the Path
 Of God, is a Penalty Grievous,
 For that they forget
 The Day of Account.

﴿يَا دَاوُدُ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاكَ خَلِيفَةً فِي الْأَرْضِ فَاحْكُم بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا تَتَّبِعِ الْهَوَىٰ فَيُضِلَّكَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَضِلُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ يَوْمَ الْحِسَابِ﴾

C. 201.—For just ends was the world created.
 (xxxviii. 27-64.) Solomon, in the midst of his worldly power
 And glory, never forgot God ; nor Job
 In the midst of afflictions ; nor other men
 Of Power and Vision, whose patience and constancy
 Brought them nearer to God. So should
 All the righteous strive to win
 The final Bliss, for truly grievous
 Are the woes of Evil in the Final Account.

SECTION 3.

27. Not without purpose did We <sup>4179</sup>
 Create heaven and earth
 And all between! That
 Were the thought of Unbelievers!
 But woe to the Unbelievers
 Because of the Fire (of Hell)!

﴿وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا بَاطِلًا ذَلِكَ ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنَ النَّارِ﴾

4177. Cf. ii. 30, and n. 47. David's kingly power, and the gifts of wisdom, justice, psalmody, and apostleship were bestowed on him as a trust. These great gifts were not to be a matter of self-glory.

4178. As stated in n. 4171 above, this vision and its moral are nowhere to be found in the Bible. Those who think they see a resemblance to the Parable of the prophet Nathan (2 Samuel, xii. 1-12) have nothing to go upon but the mention of the "one ewe" here and the "one little ewe-lamb" in Nathan's Parable. The whole story is here different, and the whole atmosphere is different. The Biblical title given to David, "a man after God's own heart" is refuted by the Bible itself in the scandalous tale of heinous crimes attributed to David in chapters xi. and xii. of 2 Samuel, viz. adultery, fraudulent dealing with one of his own servants, and the contriving of his murder. Further, in chapter xiii., we have the story of rapes, incest, and fratricide in David's own household! The fact is that passages like those are mere chroniques scandaleuses, i.e., narratives of scandalous crimes of the grossest character. The Muslim idea of David is that of a man just and upright, endowed with all the virtues, in whom even the least thought of self-elation has to be washed off by repentance and forgiveness. The spiritual lessons here taught soar into the highest regions of mysticism.

4179 Cf. iii. 191. Unbelief is the subjective negation of a belief in Order, Beauty, Purpose, and Eternal Life. Unbelief is to Faith as Chaos is to Cosmos, as the Fire of Misery is to the Garden of Bliss.

23. "This man is my brother :<sup>4173</sup>
He has nine and ninety
Ewes, and I have (but) one :
Yet he says, 'Commit her
To my care,' and is (moreover)
Harsh to me in speech."

٢٣ إِنَّ هَذَا أَخِي لَهُ تِسْعٌ وَتِسْعُونَ نَجَّةً
وَلِي نَجَّةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَقَالَ أَكْفِلْنِيهَا وَعَزَّنِي فِي الْخِطَابِ

24. (David) said : "He has Undoubtedly wronged thee"<sup>4174</sup>
In demanding thy (single) ewe
To be added to his (flock
Of) ewes : truly many
Are the Partners (in business)<sup>4175</sup>
Who wrong each other :
Not so do those who believe
And work deeds of righteousness,
And how few are they ? "...
And David gathered that we
Had tried him : he asked
Forgiveness of his Lord,<sup>4176</sup>
Fell down, bowing
(In prostration), and turned
(To God in repentance).

٢٤ قَالَ لَقَدْ ظَلَمَكَ بِسُؤَالِ نَجَّتِكَ إِلَى نِعَاجِهِ
فَأَنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْخُلَطَاءِ لَيَبْغِي بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى
بَعْضٍ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ وَلِلَّهِ أَصْحَابُ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ
وَأُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْأَرْشَادِ ۖ فَاسْتَغْفَرَ رَبَّهُ وَخَرَّ رَاكِعًا وَأَنَابَ ۖ

25. So We forgave him
This (lapse) : he enjoyed,
Indeed, a Near Approach to Us,
And a beautiful Place
Of (final) Return.

٢٥ فَغَفَرْنَا لَهُ ذَلِكَ وَلَٰكِن لَّعِندَنَا الزُّلُمُ
وَحَسَنُ ثَوَابٍ

4173. The brother who was most aggrieved said : " This my brother has a flock of ninety-nine sheep, and I have but one ; yet he wants me to give up my one sheep to his keeping ; and moreover he is not even fair-spoken. He talks like one meditating mischief, and he has not even the grace to ask as an equal, or one sharing in a business or an inheritance. What shall I do ? "

4174. The circumstances were mysterious ; the accusation was novel ; it was not clear why the unjust brother should also have come with the complainant, risking his life in climbing the wall to evade the guard, and he certainly said nothing. But David was so full of self-complacence and kingly pride that he took them literally, and began to preach about the falsehood and the fraud of men, who should be content with what they have, but who always covet more.

4175. Especially, said David, is it wrong for brothers or men in partnership to take advantage of each other ; but how few are the men who are righteous ! He had in his mind his own devotion and justice. But lo and behold ! the men disappeared as mysteriously as they had come. It was then that David realised that his vision had been a trial or temptation—a test of his moral or spiritual fibre ! Great though he was as a king, and just though he was as a judge, the moment that he thought of these things in self pride, his merit vanished. In himself he was as other men : it was God's grace that gave him wisdom and justice, and he should have been humble in the sight of God.

4176. Judged by ordinary standards, David had done no wrong : he was a good and just king. Judged by the highest standard of those nearest to God (Muqarrabin, lvi. 11), the thought of self-pride and self-righteousness had to be washed off from him by his own act of self-realisation and repentance. This was freely accepted by God, as the next verse shows.

18. It was We that made
The hills declare,<sup>4168</sup>
In unison with him,
Our Praises, at eventide
And at break of day,

١٨ إِنَّا سَخَّرْنَا الْجِبَالَ
مَعَهُ يُسَبِّحْنَ بِالْعِشِيِّ وَالْإِشْرَاقِ

19. And the birds gathered
(In assemblies): all with him
Did turn (to God).<sup>4169</sup>

١٩ وَالطَّيْرِ مَحْشُورَةً كُلٌّ لَهُ أَوَّابٌ

20. We strengthened his kingdom,
And gave him wisdom
And sound judgment<sup>4170</sup>
In speech and decision.

٢٠ وَشَدَدْنَا مُلْكَهُ وَأَتَيْنَاهُ الْحِكْمَةَ
وَفَضَّلْنَا الْخِطَابَ

21. ~~It~~ as the Story of
The Disputants reached thee ?<sup>4171</sup>
Behold, they climbed over
The wall of the private chamber ;

٢١ * وَهَلْ آتَاكَ نَبَأُ الْخَصْمِ إِذْ تَسَوَّرُوا
الْخُرَابَ

22. When they entered
The presence of David,<sup>4172</sup>
And he was terrified
Of them, they said :
" Fear not : we are two
Disputants, one of whom
Has wronged the other :
Decide now between us
With truth, and treat us not
With injustice, but guide us
To the even Path ..

٢٢ إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَى دَاوُدَ فَفَزِعَ مِنْهُمْ قَالُوا
لَا تَحْزَنْ خَظَمَانِ بَغَى بَعْضُنَا عَلَى بَعْضٍ
فَاخْكُم بَيْنَنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا تُشْطِطْ
وَاهْدِنَا إِلَى سَوَاءِ الصِّرَاطِ

4168. See n. 2733 to xxi. 79. All nature sings in unison and celebrates the praises of God. David was given the gift of music and psalmody, and therefore the hills and birds are expressed as singing God's praises in unison with him. The special hours when the hills and groves echo the songs of birds are in the evening and at dawn, when also the birds gather together, for those are respectively their roosting hours and the hours of their concerted flight for the day.

4169. Note the mutual echo between this verse and verse 17 above. The Arabic awwāb is common to both, and it furnishes the rhyme or rhythm of the greater part of the Sūra, thus echoing the main theme : ' Turn to God in Prayer and Praise, for that is more than any worldly power or wisdom.

4170. Cf. n. 2732 to xxi. 79. for David's sound judgment in decisions ; he could also express himself aptly, as his Psalms bear witness.

4171. This story or Parable is not found in the Bible, unless the vision here described be considered as equivalent to Nathan's parable in II Samuel, xi. and xii. Baidhāwī would seem to favour that view, but other Commentators reject it. David was a pious man, and he had a well-guarded private chamber (mihrab) for Prayer and Praise.

4172. David used to retire to his private chamber at stated times for his devotions. One day, suddenly, his privacy was invaded by two men, who had obtained access by climbing over a wall. David was frightened at the apparition. But they said : " We have come to seek thy justice as king : we are brothers, and we have a quarrel, which we wish thee to decide."

13. And Thamūd, and the People
Of Lūt, and the Companions<sup>4161</sup>
Of the Wood ;—such were
The Confederates.<sup>4162</sup>

١٣ وَثَمُودَ وَقَوْمَ لُوطٍ
وَأَصْحَابَ نَجْدٍ أُولَئِكَ الْأَخْرَابُ

14. Not one (of them) but
Rejected the apostles,
But My Punishment
Came justly and inevitably<sup>4163</sup>
(On them).

١٤ إِنْ كُلُّ إِلَّا كَذَّبَ الرُّسُلَ
فَإِنَّ عِقَابِي

SECTION 2.

15. ~~These~~ (to-day) only wait
For a single mighty Blast,<sup>4164</sup>
Which (when it comes)
Will brook no delay.<sup>4165</sup>

١٥ وَمَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً
مِّمَّا يَمْشُونَ

16. They say: " Our Lord !
Hasten to us our sentence<sup>4166</sup>
(Even) before the Day
Of Account ! "

١٦ وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا عَجِّلْ لَنَا قِطْعَةَ يَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ

17. Have patience at what they Say, and remember Our Servant
David, the man of strength :<sup>4167</sup>
For he ever turned (to God).

١٧ أَصْبِرْ عَلَى مَا يَقُولُونَ
وَأَذْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا دَاوُدَ إِذْ أَلَّيْنَا بِهِ الرُّسُلَ

4161. Companions of the Wood ; see xv. 78, and n. 2000.

4162. Cf. above, verse 11, and n. 4158.

4163. Cf. xv. 64, n. 1990 ; and xxii. 18,

4164. Cf. xxxvi. 29, and n. 3973.

4165. Fawāq : delay, the interval between one milking of a she-camel and another, either to give her a breathing space or to give her young time to suck,—or, perhaps the milker to adjust his fingers. Such interval will be quite short. The derived meaning is that when the inevitable just punishment for sin arrives, it will not tarry, but do its work without delay.

4166. Cf. xxvi. 204 and n. 3230. Those who do not believe in the Hereafter say ironically : " Let us have our punishment and sentence now ; why delay it ? " The last verse and the next verse supply the commentary. As to those who mock, they will find out the truth soon enough, when it is too late for repentance or mercy. As to the men of God, who are mocked, they must wait patiently for God to fulfil His Plan : even men who had worldly strength and power, like David, had to exercise infinite patience when mocked by their contemporaries.

4167 David was a man of exceptional strength, for even as a raw youth, he slew the Philistine giant Goliath. See ii. 249-252, and notes 286-87. Before that fight, he was mocked by his enemies and chidden even by his own elder brother. But he relied upon God, and won through, and afterwards became king.

(Of all persons) among us? "...
But they are in doubt
Concerning My (own) Message! <sup>4155</sup>
Nay, they have not yet
Tasted My Punishment!

مِنْ بَيْنِنَا
بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِنْ ذِكْرِي بَلْ لَمَّا يَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي

9. Or have they the Treasures
Of the Mercy of thy Lord, — <sup>4156</sup>
The Exalted in Power,
The Grantor of Bounties
Without measure?

⑨ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَحْمَةِ
رَبِّكَ الْغَيْرِيزِ الْوَهَّابِ

10. Or have they the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth
And all between? If so,
Let them mount up <sup>4157</sup>
With the ropes and means
(To reach that end)!

⑩ أَمْ لَهُمْ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا
فَلْيَرْقِعُوا فِي الْأَسْبَابِ

11. But there—will be <sup>4158</sup>
Put to flight even a host
Of confederates.

⑪ جُذُومًا هَٰئِلًا مَهْزُومًا مِنَ الْأَحْزَابِ

12. Before them (were many
Who) rejected apostles, — <sup>4159</sup>
The People of Noah,
And 'Ad, and Pharaoh
The Lord of Stakes, <sup>4160</sup>

⑫ كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَعَادٌ وَفِرْعَوْنُ
ذُو الْأَوْتَادِ

4155. They have no clear idea of how God's Message comes! It is not a worldly thing to be given to any one. It is a divine thing requiring spiritual preparation. If they close their eyes to it now, it will be brought home to them when they taste the consequences of their folly!

4156. If they set themselves to judge God, have they anything to show, comparable to God's Mercy and Power? He has both in infinite measure. Who are they to question the grant of His Mercy and Revelation to His own Chosen One?

4157. Weak and puny creatures though they are, they dare to raise their heads against the Omnipotent, as if they had dominion over Creation and not He! If they had any power, let them mount up to heaven and use all the means they have to that end, and see how they can frustrate God's Purpose!

4158. Of course they cannot frustrate God's Purpose. In that world—the spiritual world—they will be ignominiously routed, even if they form the strongest confederacy of the Powers of Evil that ever could combine. Cf. the last clause of verse 13 below.

4159. In their day, Noah's contemporaries, or the 'Ad and the Thamûd, so frequently mentioned, or Pharaoh the mighty king of Egypt, or the people to whom Lot was sent (cf. xxxvii. 75-82; vii. 65-73; vii. 103-137; vii. 80-84) were examples of arrogance and rebellion against God: they rejected the divine Message brought by their apostles, and they all came to an evil end. Will not their posterity learn their lesson?

4160. The title of Pharaoh, "Lord of the Stakes", denotes power and arrogance, in all or any of the following ways: (1) the stake makes a tent firm and stable, and is a symbol of firmness and stability; (2) many stakes mean a large camp and a numerous army to fight; (3) impaling with stakes was a cruel punishment resorted to by the Pharaohs in arrogant pride of power.

To them from among themselves !<sup>4150</sup>
And the Unbelievers say,
" This is a sorcerer
Telling lies !

يَنْهَهُ وَقَالَ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا سِحْرٌ كَذَّابٌ

5. " Has he made the gods<sup>4151</sup>
(All) into one God ?
Truly this is
A wonderful thing ! "

٥ أَجَعَلَ الْآلِهَتَ الْهَمَّةَ وَاحِدًا إِنَّ
هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عَجَابٌ

6. And the leaders among them
Go away (impatiently), (saying),<sup>4152</sup>
" Walk ye away, and remain
Constant to your gods !
For this is truly
A thing designed (against you) !

٦ وَأَنْطَلِقُوا لِمَا لَكُمْ مِنْهُ أَنْ تَأْمُرُوا وَتُصْبِرُوا
عَلَى الْهَيْكَلَاتِ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ يُرَادُ

7. " We never heard (the like)
Of this among the people
Of these latter days :<sup>4153</sup>
*This is nothing but
A made-up tale ! "

٧ مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا
فِي الْمِلَّةِ الْأُولَى إِنَّ هَذَا لَمِنْ أَمْرٍ

8. " What ! Has the Message
Been sent to him—<sup>4154</sup>

٨ أَمْ يُرِيدُ عَلَى الذِّكْرِ

4150. Their wonder is only stimulated. They are full of envy and spite against one of themselves who has been chosen by God to be His Messenger, and they vent their spite by making all sorts of false accusations. The man who was pre-eminent for truth and conscientious consideration, they call " a sorcerer and a liar." I

4151. And what is the offence of the Apostle of Unity? That he has made all their fantastic gods disappear; that in place of chaos he has brought harmony; that in place of conflict he brings peace! It is a wonderful thing, but not in the sarcastic sense in which the Unbelievers scoff at it!

4153. 'Whatever may have been the case in the past', they said, 'our own immediate ancestors worshipped these idols in Mecca, and why should we give them up?' Self-complacency was stronger with them than Truth; and so they call Truth " a made-up tale." I Some Commentators interpret millat al-Akhirat to refer to the last religion preached before Islam, viz. Christianity, which had itself departed from Monotheism to Trinity, but the Pagan Arabs had little love for Christianity and could not have used these terms for it.

4154. Here comes in envy. 'If a Message had to come, why should it come to him, the orphan son of 'Abdullāh, and not to one of our own great men?'

Sūra XXXVIII.

Ṣad (being one of the Abbreviated Letters).

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Ṣad: <sup>4146</sup>

By the Qur-ān,
Full of Admonition: <sup>4147</sup>
(This is the Truth).

2. But the Unbelievers
(Are steeped) in Self-glory <sup>4148</sup>
And Separatism.3. How many generations
Before them did We destroy?
In the end they cried <sup>4149</sup>
(For mercy)—when
There was no longer time
For being saved!4. So they wonder
That a Warner has come

① ص وَالْقُرْآنِ ذِي الذِّكْرِ

② بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي عِزِّهِمْ وَتَفَاقٍ

③ كَمَا أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ
فَنَادَوْا وَاتَّخِذْ حِينَ مَنَاصِرٍ

④ وَعَجَبُوا أَنْ جَاءَهُمْ مُنْذِرٌ

4146. Ṣad is a letter of the Arabic alphabet. It is used here as an Abbreviated Letter, for which see Appendix I (at the end of Sūra ii.). See also the second para. of n. 989 to vii, 1 for this particular letter. No dogmatism is permissible in trying to interpret Abbreviated Letters. But it is suggested that it may stand for Qisas ("Stories"), in which the dominant consonant is ṣ. For this Sūra is concerned mainly with the stories of David and Solomon as illustrative of the relative positions of spiritual and worldly power. Sale's note: "it may stand for Solomon"; is a real howler; for in Arabic the letter Ṣad does not occur at all in the name of Solomon.

4147. Full of admonition: the word ṣikr is far more comprehensive than any single word or phrase that I can think of in English: it implies (1) remembrance in a spirit of reverence; (2) recital, celebrating the praises of God; (3) teaching, admonition, warning; (4) Message, Revelation, as in Aḥ-luṣ-ṣikr, "those who possess the Message" (xvi. 43, and n. 2069). In Ṣūfī phraseology it implies mystical enlightenment, both the aspiration and the attainment, for in the highest spiritual atmosphere, the two are one. Devotional exercises are also called ṣikr, with reference to meaning (2) above.

4148. The great root of Evil and Unbelief is Self-glory or Arrogance, as is pointed out in several places with regard to Satan: c/. below, xxxviii. 74-76. This leads to Envy and Separatism, or a desire to start a peculiar doctrine or sect of one's own, instead of a desire to find common grounds of belief and life, which lead to the Religion of Unity in God. This teaching of Unity was what the Pagans objected to in the holy Prophet (verse 5 below)!

4149. Teaching, Warning, Signs have been given by God to all nations and at all times, and yet nations have rebelled and gone wrong and suffered destruction. If only later generations could learn that wrong-doing results in self-destruction! For the justice of God merely carries out the result of their own choice and actions. At any time during their probation they could repent and obtain mercy, but their "Self-glory and Separatism" stand in the way. Ultimately they do cry for a way of escape, but it is then too late.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXVIII (Sad).

For the place of this Sūra in the series of six, dealing with some of the mysteries of the spiritual world, see Introduction to S. xxxiv.

This Sūra, both in chronology and subject-matter, is cognate to S. xxxvii., and carries forward the same argument. But here the emphasis is laid on the working of earthly power when combined with spiritual power, and it is pointed out how much more significant (and real) spiritual power is. For this reason the illustrative stories are mainly those of David and Solomon who were kings as well as prophets, and a parallel is suggested with the unfolding public life of our holy Prophet.

Summary.—Worldly and evil men are surprised at the renewal of Truth and Righteousness; but righteousness has more power than worldly strength, as is seen in the story of kings like David, who had both (xxxviii. 1-26, and C. 200).

So also Solomon loved the Lord more than worldly power, which may be good but may be misused by evil men; so also Job and other men of power and insight, chose the path of final bliss rather than final misery (xxxviii. 27-64, and C. 201).

So also in the case of the final Messenger: his Gospel of Unity must triumph over all Jealousy and Arrogance in God's good time (xxxviii. 65-88, and C. 202).

C. 200.—Self-glory and Separatism, these
(xxxviii. 1-26.) Are among the roots of Evil, also Envy
And Suspicion. Not all the combinations
Of Evil can for a moment reverse
God's Purpose or His Justice. David,
Endowed with worldly Power and the Virtues,
Had yet to purge himself of the thought
Of Self-glory, which he did; and thus
He became one of those nearest to God.

178. So turn.thou away <sup>444</sup>
From them for a little while,

﴿٣٨﴾ وَتَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ

179. And watch (how they fare)
And they soon shall see
(How thou farest) !

﴿٣٩﴾ وَأَبْصِرْ فَسَوْفَ يُبْصِرُونَ

180. Glory to thy Lord, <sup>445</sup>
The Lord of Honour
And Power ! (He is free)
From what they ascribe
(To Him) !

﴿٤٠﴾ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّكَ رَبِّ الْعِزَّةِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ

181. And Peace on the apostles !

﴿٤١﴾ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَى الْمُرْسَلِينَ

182. And Praise to God,
The Lord and Cherisher
Of the Worlds.

﴿٤٢﴾ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

4144. This and the following verse repeat verses 174-75 (with a slight verbal alteration). The argument in verses 176-77 brought in a new point. When that is finished, the repetition carries us back to the main argument, and rounds off the whole Sūra.

4145. This and the following two verses recapitulate : (1) Glory, Honour, and Power belong to God ; (2) No one is equal to Him ; (3) He sends apostles and revelations, and His aid will overcome all obstacles ; for (4) He loves and cherishes all His Creation.

170. But (now that the Qur-an
Has come), they reject it :
But soon will they know! <sup>4138</sup>

﴿فَكُفِّرُوا بِلَيْدِهِمْ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ﴾

171. Already has Our Word
Been passed before (this)
To Our Servants sent (by Us),

﴿وَلَقَدْ سَبَقَتْ كَلِمَاتُنَا لِعِبَادِنَا الْمُتْرِكِينَ﴾

172. That they would certainly
Be assisted,

﴿إِنَّهُمْ لَمَّةٌ الْخُشُوعُونَ﴾

173. And that Our forces, — <sup>4139</sup>
They surely must conquer.

﴿وَأَن جُنْدَنَا لَمَّةٌ الْغَالِبُونَ﴾

174. So turn thou away <sup>4140</sup>
From them for a little while,

﴿فَنُؤَلِّ عَنْهُمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ﴾

175. And watch them (how <sup>4141</sup>
They fare), and they soon
Shall see (how thou farest) !

﴿وَأَبْصِرْهُمْ فَسَوْفَ يُبْصِرُونَ﴾

176. ~~Do~~ Do they wish (indeed) <sup>4142</sup>
To hurry on our Punishment ?

﴿أَفِعْسَانَا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ﴾

177. But when it descends
Into the open space <sup>4143</sup>
Before them, evil will be
The morning for those who
Were warned (and heeded not) !

﴿فَإِذَا نَزَلَ بِسَاحَتِهِمْ فَسَاءَ صَبَاحُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ﴾

4138. God's Truth will manifest itself against all odds, and the whole world will see.

4139. The victory will be the victory of God's Truth by the forces of God, but every soldier in the army of Truth, who has done his duty, will be entitled to claim a share in the victory.

4140. Addressed in the first instance to the holy Prophet, but good for all time. He was not to be discouraged by his initial failures. Soon came victory to him from God. So is it always in the struggles of truth and righteousness. The righteous can afford to ignore opposition, confident in the strength which comes from the Grace of God.

4141. Watch and wait, for the Right must come to its own.

4142 The last verse enjoined Patience under the attacks of Evil, in the knowledge that evil must be conquered at last. Evil may perhaps turn back scoffingly and say, 'If a punishment is to come, why not bring it on now?' Why indeed? The answer is: when it comes, it will come like a rush by night when the enemy is overpowered, when he least expects it: when the day dawns, it is a sorry plight in which the enemy finds himself. Cf. xxii. 47, and n. 2826; and xxvi. 204, n. 3230.

4143. See last note. The parable is that of an enemy camp in a plain, which is surprised and destroyed by a night attack from the hills. Evil is the plight of any survivors in the morning. Their regrets will be all the more poignant if they had had some sort of a warning beforehand and had paid no heed to it !

161. For, verily, neither ye
Nor those ye worship—

﴿١٦١﴾ فَإِنَّكُمْ وَمَا تَعْبُدُونَ

162. Can lead (any) <sup>4134</sup>
Into temptation
Concerning God,

﴿١٦٢﴾ مَا أَنَّهُ عَلَيْهِ بِفَتْنَيْنِ

163. Except such as are (Themselves) going to
The blazing Fire!

﴿١٦٣﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ هُوَ صَالٍ الْجَحِيمِ

164. (Those ranged in ranks say): <sup>4135</sup>
"Not one of us but has
A place appointed;

﴿١٦٤﴾ وَمَا مِنَّا إِلَّا لَهُ مَقَامٌ مَّعْلُومٌ

165. "And we are verily
Ranged in ranks (for service);

﴿١٦٥﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الصَّافُونَ

166. "And we are verily those
Who declare (God's) glory!"

﴿١٦٦﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الْمُسَبِّحُونَ

167. And there were those <sup>4136</sup>
Who said,

﴿١٦٧﴾ وَإِنْ كَانُوا لَيَقُولُونَ

168. "If only we had had
Before us a Message
From those of old,

﴿١٦٨﴾ لَوْ أَن عِندَنَا ذِكْرًا مِّنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ

169. "We should certainly have
Been Servants of God, <sup>4137</sup>
Sincere (and devoted)!"

﴿١٦٩﴾ لَكُنَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْخَاصِينَ

4134. Evil has no power over faith, truth, and sincerity. Such power as it has is over those who deliberately put themselves in the way of Destruction. It is their own will that leads them astray. If they were fortified against Evil by Faith, Patience, and Constancy, Evil would have no power to hurt them. God would protect them.

4135. To round off the argument of the Sûra we go back to the idea with which it began. Those who range themselves in ranks for the united service of God (see above, xxxvii. 1 and n. 4031)—whether angels or men of God—are content to keep their ranks and do whatever service is assigned to them. It is not for them to question God's Plan, because they know that it is good and that it will ultimately triumph. Any seeming delays or defeats do not worry them. Nor do they ever break their ranks.

4136. There were the sceptics or Unbelievers,—primarily the Pagan Arabs, but in a more extended sense, all who doubt God's providence or revelation.

4137. Such men take refuge in ancestral tradition. 'If our forefathers had had an inkling of Revelation or miracles, or had worshipped as we are now taught to worship, we should gladly have accepted. Or if they had had anything of the miracles which other nations of old are said to have received, we could then have accepted.' But now stronger and more convincing proofs have come to them in the Qur-ân in their own tongue, and they doubt and reject it.

152. "God has begotten children" ? <sup>4130</sup>
But they are liars!

﴿وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَلَئِنْ كَذَّبُوا﴾

153. Did He (then) choose <sup>4131</sup>
Daughters rather than sons ?

﴿أَمْ صَافًى ابْنَاتٍ عَلَى الْبَنِينَ﴾

154. What is the matter
With you ? How judge ye ?

﴿مَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ﴾

155. Will ye not then
Receive admonition ?

﴿أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ﴾

156. Or have ye
An authority manifest ?

﴿أَمْ لَكُمْ سُلْطَانٌ مُبِينٌ﴾

157. Then bring ye your Book
(Of authority) if ye be Truthful !

﴿فَأْتُوا بِكِتَابِكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ﴾

158. And they have invented
A blood-relationship <sup>4132</sup>
Between Him and the Jinns :
But the Jinns know
(Quite well) that they
Have indeed to appear
(Before His Judgment-seat) !

﴿وَجَعَلُوا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْجَنَّةِ نِجَابًا
وَلَقَدْ عَلِمَتْ الْجَنَّةُ إِنَّهُمْ لَحَاضِرُونَ﴾

159. Glory to God ! (He is free)
From the things they ascribe
(To Him) !

﴿سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُصِفُونَ﴾

160. Not (so do) the Servants
Of God, sincere and devoted. <sup>4133</sup>

﴿إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلِصِينَ﴾

4130. Any attribution to God of ideas derogatory to His Oneness and His supreme height above all creatures is likely to degrade our own conception of God's Universal plan, and is condemned in the strongest terms.

4131. There is the strongest irony in this passage.

4132. The angels are at least pure beings engaged in the service of God. But the Pagan superstitions not only connect them with God as daughters but even connect God by relationship with all kinds of spirits, good or evil ! In some mythologies the most evil powers are gods or goddesses as if they belonged to the family of God the Creator and had some semblance of equality with Him ! This, too, is repudiated in the strongest terms.

For Jinns see p. 929 to vi. 100.

4133. Those sincere in devotion to God never ascribe such degrading ideas to God.

145. But We cast him forth
On the naked shore
In a state of sickness,<sup>4126</sup>

①٤٥ • فَنَبَذْنَاهُ بِالْعَرَاءِ وَهُوَ سَقِيمٌ

146. And We caused to grow,
Over him, a spreading plant
Of the Gourd kind.

①٤٦ وَأَنْبَتْنَا عَلَيْهِ شَجَرَةً مِّنْ يَقْطُلِينَ

147. And We sent him
(On a mission)
To a hundred thousand<sup>4127</sup>
(Men) or more.

①٤٧ وَأَرْسَلْنَاهُ إِلَى مِائَةِ أَلْفٍ أَوْ يَزِيدُونَ

148. And they believed;
So We permitted them
To enjoy (their life)<sup>4128</sup>
For a while.

①٤٨ فَأَمْنُوا فَفَتَحْنَا لَهُمُ الْبَابَ

149. Now ask them their opinion :<sup>4129</sup>
Is it that thy Lord
Has (only) daughters, and they
Have sons?—

①٤٩ فَاسْأَلْنِيهِمُ الرَّبَّكِ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَهُمُ الْبَنُونَ

150. Or that We created
The angels female, and they
Are witnesses (thereto)?

①٥٠ أَمْ خَلَقْنَا الْمَلَائِكَةَ إِنَاثًا وَهُمْ شَاهِدُونَ

151. Is it not that they
Say, from their own invention,

①٥١ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ مِّنْ إِفْكِهِمْ لَيَقُولُونَ

4126. Cf. xxxvii. 89 above. His strange situation might well have caused him to be ill. He wanted fresh air and solitude. He got both in the open plain, and the abundantly shady Gourd Plant or some fruitful tree like it gave him both shade and sustenance. The Gourd is a creeper that can spread over any roof or ruined structure.

4127. The city of Nineveh was a very large city. The Old Testament says: "Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey" (Jonah, iii. 3); "wherein are more than six score thousand persons" (Jonah, iv. 11). In other words its circuit was about 45 miles, and its population was over a hundred and twenty thousand inhabitants.

4128. They repented and believed, and Nineveh got a new lease of life. For the dates to which Jonah may be referred, and the vicissitudes of the City's history as the seat of the Assyrian Empire, see notes 1478-79 to x. 98.

The lessons from Jonah's story are: (1) that no man should take upon himself to judge of God's wrath or God's mercy; (2) that nevertheless God forgives true repentance, whether in a righteous man, or in a wicked city; and (3) that God's Plan will always prevail, and can never be defeated.

4129. We begin a new argument here. The Pagan Arabs called angels daughters of God. They themselves were ashamed of having daughters, and preferred to have sons, to add to their power and dignity. See xvi. 57-59, and n. 2002. Yet they invented daughters for God!

SECTION 5.

139. So also was Jonah <sup>4119</sup>
Among those sent (by Us).

140. When he ran away
(Like a slave from captivity) <sup>4120</sup>
To the ship (fully) laden,

141. He (agreed to) cast lots, <sup>4121</sup>
And he was condemned:

142. Then the big Fish <sup>4122</sup>
Did swallow him,
And he had done <sup>4123</sup>
Acts worthy of blame.

143. Had it not been
That he (repented and) .
Glorified God, <sup>4124</sup>

144. He would certainly have Remained inside the Fish <sup>4125</sup>
Till the Day of Resurrection.

﴿وَإِنَّ يُونُسَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ﴾

﴿إِذَا بَقِيَ إِلَى الْفُلِ الْمَشْرُورِ﴾

﴿فَسَاهَمَ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْمُدْحَضِينَ﴾

﴿فَالْفِتْنَةُ كُتِبَتْ لَهُمْ وَلَهُ مِثْلُ الْعَمَلِ﴾

﴿فَلَوْلَا أَنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُسَبِّحِينَ﴾

﴿لَلَيْتَ فِي بَطْنِهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ﴾

4119. For illustrative passages, see xxi. 87-88, n. 2744, and lxviii. 48-50. Jonah's mission was to the city of Nineveh, then steeped in wickedness. He was rejected and he denounced God's wrath on them, but they repented and obtained God's forgiveness. But Jonah "departed in wrath" (xxi. 87), forgetting that God has Mercy as well as forgiveness. See the notes following. Cf. x. 98, n. 1478.

4120. Jonah ran away from Nineveh like a slave from captivity. He should have stuck to his post and merged his own will in God's Will. He was hasty, and went off to take a ship. As if he could escape from God's Plan!

4121. The ship was fully laden and met foul weather. The sailors, according to their superstition, wanted to find out who was responsible for the ill-luck: a fugitive slave would cause such ill-luck. The lot fell on Jonah, and he was cast off.

4122. The rivers of Mesopotamia have some huge fishes. The word used here is Hai, which may be a fish or perhaps a crocodile. If it were in an open northern sea, it might be a whale. The locality is not mentioned: in the Old Testament he is said to have taken ship in the port of Joppa (now Jaffa) in the Mediterranean (Jonah, i. 3), which would be not less than 600 miles from Nineveh. The Tigris river, mentioned by some of our Commentators, is more likely, and it contains some fishes of extraordinary size.

4123. See n. 4120.

4124. "But he cried through the depths of darkness, 'There is no god but Thee: glory to Thee! I was indeed wrong!'" (xxi. 87.)

4125. This is just the idiom. This was to be the burlal and the grave of Jonah. If he had not repented, he could not have got out of the body of the creature that had swallowed him, until the Day of Resurrection, when all the dead would be raised up.

131. Thus indeed do We reward
Those who do right.

﴿٣٦﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ

132. For he was one
Of Our believing Servants.

﴿٣٧﴾ إِنَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

133. So also was Lût<sup>4116</sup>
Among those sent (by Us).

﴿٣٨﴾ وَإِنَّ لُوطًا لِّنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

134. Behold, We delivered him
And his adherents, all

﴿٣٩﴾ إِذْ نَجَّيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ

135. Except an old woman
Who was among those
Who lagged behind :<sup>4117</sup>

﴿٤٠﴾ إِلَّا عَجُوزًا فِي الْغَابِرِينَ

136. Then We destroyed
The rest.

﴿٤١﴾ ثُمَّ دَمَرْنَا الْأُخَرِينَ

137. Verily, ye pass<sup>4118</sup>
By their (sites),
By day—

﴿٤٢﴾ وَإِنَّكُمْ لَتَمُرُّونَ عَلَيْهِمْ مُصْبِحِينَ

138. And by night :
Will ye not understand ?

﴿٤٣﴾ وَيَالَيْلٍ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ

C. 199.—So was it also with Jonah ; he had (xxxvii. 139-182.) His trials, but God had mercy on him,
And his mission was successful. How
Can men ascribe to God qualities
And relations derogatory to His nature ?
High is He above all creatures.
The ranks of angels and apostles stand firm
In His service. Evil is sure to be overcome.
So Praise and Glory to God, the Lord
Of Honour and Power, and Peace to His apostles !

4116. The best illustration of this passage about Lût will be found in vii. 80-84. He was an apostle sent to Sodom and Gomorrah, Cities of the Plain, by the Dead Sea. The inhabitants were given over to abominable crimes, against which he preached. They insulted him and threatened to expel him. But God in His mercy saved him and his family (with one exception, see the following note), and then destroyed the Cities.

4117. Cf. vii. 83, and n. 1051. Lot's wife had no faith : she lagged behind, and perished in the general ruin.

4118. Cf. xv. 76, and n. 1908. The tract where they lay is situated on the highway to Syria where the Arab caravans travelled regularly, "by day and by night". Could not future generations learn wisdom from the destruction of those who did wrong ?

123. So also was Elias<sup>4112</sup>
Among those sent (by Us).

124. Behold, he said
To his people,
"Will ye not fear (God)?"

125. "Will ye call upon Baal<sup>4113</sup>
And forsake the Best
Of Creators,—

126. "God, your Lord and Cherisher
And the Lord and Cherisher
Of your fathers of old?"

127. But they rejected him,<sup>4114</sup>
And they will certainly
Be called up (for punishment),—

128. Except the sincere and devoted Servants of God (among them).

129. And We left (this blessing)<sup>4115</sup>
For him among generations
(To come) in later times:

130. "Peace and salutation
To such as Elias!"<sup>4115-A</sup>

﴿وَأَنبَايَ الْيَاسِينَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ﴾

﴿إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَلَأَتَشْفُونَ﴾

﴿أَن تَدْعُونَ بَعْلًا وَتَذَرُونَ
أَحْسَنَ الْخَالِقِينَ﴾

﴿اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ وَرَبُّ آبَائِكُمُ
الْأَوَّلِينَ﴾

﴿فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَإِنَّهُمْ لَمُحْضَرُونَ﴾

﴿إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ﴾

﴿وَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِينَ﴾

﴿سَلَامٌ عَلَى الْيَاسِينَ﴾

4112. See n. 905 to vi. 85. Elias is the same as Elijah, whose story will be found in the Old Testament in 1 Kings xvii-xix, and 2 Kings i-ii. Elijah lived in the reign of Ahab (B.C. 896-874) and Ahaziah (B.C. 874-872), kings of the (northern) kingdom of Israel or Samaria. He was a prophet of the desert, like John the Baptist,—unlike our holy Prophet, who took part in, controlled, and guided all the affairs of his people. Both Ahab and Ahaziah were prone to lapse into the worship of Baal, the sun-god worshipped in Syria. That worship also included the worship of nature-powers and procreative powers, as in the Indian worship of the Lingam, and led to many abuses. King Ahab had married a princess of Sidon, Jezebel, a wicked woman who led her husband to forsake God and adopt Baal-worship. Elijah denounced all Ahab's sins as well as the sins of Ahaziah and had to flee for his life. Eventually, according to the Old Testament (2 Kings, ii-11) he was taken up in a whirlwind to heaven in a chariot of fire after he had left his mantle with Elisha the prophet.

4113. For Baal-worship see last note.

4114. They persecuted him and he had to flee for his life. Eventually he disappeared mysteriously; see n. 4112.

4115. See above, xxxvii. 78-81, and n. 4083.

4115-A. Ilyāsīn may be an alternative form of Ilyās: Cf. Salānā (xxiii. 20) and Sīnīn (xcv. 2). Or it may be the plural of Ilyās, meaning "such people as Ilyās"

On Moses and Aaron,<sup>4107</sup>

115. And We delivered them
And their people from (Their) Great Calamity;<sup>4108</sup>

116. And We helped them,
So they overcame
(their troubles);<sup>4109</sup>

117. And We gave them
The Book which helps<sup>4110</sup>
To make things clear;

118. And We guided them
To the Straight Way.

119. And We left (this blessing)<sup>4111</sup>
For them among generations
(To come) in later times;

120. "Peace and salutation
To Moses and Aaron!"

121. Thus indeed do We reward
Those who do right.

122. For they were two
Of Our believing Servants.

عَلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ

① وَنَجَّيْنَاهُمَا وَقَوْمَهُمَا مِنَ الْكُرْبِ الْعَظِيمِ

② وَنَصَرْنَاهُمْ فَكَانُوا هُمُ الْغَالِبِينَ

③ وَأَاتَيْنَاهُمَا الْكِتَابَ الْمُنِيرَ

④ وَهَدَيْنَاهُمَا الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ

⑤ وَتَرَكْنَاهُمَا فِي الْآخِرِينَ

⑥ سَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ

⑦ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْحَسَنِينَ

⑧ إِنَّهُمَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

4108. What could have been a greater calamity to them than that they should have been held in slavery by the Egyptians, that their male children should have been killed and their female children should have been saved alive for the Egyptians?

4109. The Israelites were delivered by three steps mentioned in verses 114, 115, and 116 respectively; but the consummation of God's favour on them was (verses 117-118) the Revelation given to them, which guided them on the Straight Way, so long as they preserved the Revelation intact and followed its precepts. The three steps were: (1) the divine commission to Moses and Aaron; (2) the deliverance from bondage; and (3) the triumphant crossing of the Red Sea and the destruction of Pharaoh's army.

4110. Musabbih has a slightly different force from Mubīn. I have translated the former by "which helps to make things clear", and the latter by "which makes things clear",—apt descriptions as applied to the Taurāt and the Qur-ān.

4111. See above, xxxvii. 78-81 and n. 4083.

107. And We ransomed him
With a momentous sacrifice : <sup>4103</sup>

⑬ وَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا بَذْبَحٍ عَظِيمٍ

108. And We left (this blessing) <sup>4104</sup>
For him among generations
(To come) in later times :

⑭ وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِينَ

109. " Peace and salutation
To Abraham ! "

⑮ سَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ

110. Thus indeed do We reward
Those who do right

⑯ كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ

111. For he was one
Of Our believing Servants.

⑰ إِنَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

112. And We gave him <sup>4105</sup>
The good news
Of Isaac—a prophet,—
One of the Righteous.

⑱ وَبَشَّرْنَاهُ بِإِسْحَاقَ نَبِيًّا مِّنَ الصَّالِحِينَ

113. We blessed him and Isaac :
But of their progeny
Are (some) that do right,
And (some) that obviously <sup>4106</sup>
Do wrong, to their own souls.

⑳ وَبَارَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰ إِسْحَاقَ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا مُحْسِنٌ وَظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهِ مُبِينٌ

SECTION 4.

114. ~~Again~~, (of old,)
We bestowed Our favour

㉑ وَلَقَدْ مَنَّا

<sup>4103</sup>, The adjective qualifying "sacrifice" here, 'aṣīm, (great, momentous) may be understood both in a literal and a figurative sense. In a literal sense it implies that a fine sheep or ram was substituted symbolically. The figurative sense is even more important. It was indeed a great and momentous occasion, when two men, with concerted will, "ranged themselves in the ranks" of those to whom self-sacrifice in the service of God was the supreme thing in life. This was a type of the service which Imām Husain performed, many ages later, in 60 A.H., as I have explained in a separate pamphlet. But note that the ransom, i.e., the commutation of sacrifice, was made not by the men, but by God. God wants our will and devotion, not necessarily our lives in a physical sense. He will find means, if we offer ourselves, to use us not for our destruction, but for our further advancement. In this sense, said Jesus, "he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it" (Matt. x. 39).

<sup>4105</sup> Isaac was Abraham's second son, born of Sarah, when Abraham was 100 years of age. See n. 4101 above. He was also blessed and became the ancestor of the Jewish people. See next note.

<sup>4106</sup>, So long as the Children of Israel upheld the righteous banner of God, they enjoyed God's blessing, and their history is a portion of sacred history. When they fell from grace, they did not stop God's Plan : they injured their own souls.

Thou will find me,
If God so wills one
Practising Patience and Constancy ! ”

تَجِدُنِي إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ مِنَ الصَّابِرِينَ

103. So when they had both<sup>4100</sup>
Submitted their wills (to God),
And he had laid him
Prostrate on his forehead
(For sacrifice),<sup>4101</sup>

﴿فَلَمَّا أَسْلَمَا وَتَلَّهُ لِلْجَبِينِ﴾

104. We called out to him,<sup>4102</sup>
“ O Abraham !

﴿وَنَادَيْنَاهُ أَنْ يَا أَبَرَاهِيمُ﴾

105. “ Thou hast already fulfilled
The vision ! ”—tnus indeed
Do We reward
Those who do right.

﴿قَدْ صَدَّقْنَا الرُّؤْيَا إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي
الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾

106. For this was obviously
A trial—

﴿إِن هَذَا هُوَ الْبَلَاءُ الْمُبِينُ﴾

4100 Note that the sacrifice was demanded of both Abraham and Ismā'il. It was a trial of the will of the father and the son. By way of trial the father had the command conveyed to him in a vision. To make sure that it was not an idle dream, and, if it was a real order, to make sure that his son consented, he consulted the son. The son readily consented, and offered to stand true to his promise if his self-sacrifice was really required. The whole thing is symbolical. God does not require the flesh and blood of animals (xxii. 37), much less of human beings. But he does require the giving of our whole being to God, the symbol of which is that we should give up something very dear to us, if Duty requires that sacrifice.

4101 Our version may be compared with the Jewish-Christian version of the present Old Testament. The Jewish tradition, in order to glorify the younger branch of the family, descended from Isaac, ancestor of the Jews, as against the elder branch, descended from Ismā'il, ancestor of the Arabs, refers this sacrifice to Isaac (Gen. xxi. 1-18). Now Isaac was born when Abraham was 100 years old (Gen. xxi. 5), while Ismā'il was born to Abraham when Abraham was 86 years old (Gen. xvi. 16). Ismā'il was therefore 14 years older than Isaac. During his first 14 years Ismā'il was the only son of Abraham; at no time was Isaac the only son of Abraham. Yet, in speaking of the sacrifice, the Old Testament says (Gen. xxii. 2): “ And He said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering...” This slip shows at any rate which was the older version, and how it was overlaid, like the present Jewish records, in the interests of a tribal religion. The “land of Moriah” is not clear: it was three days' journey from Abraham's place (Gen. xxii. 4). There is less warrant for identifying it with the hill of Moriah on which Jerusalem was afterwards built than with the hill of Marwa which is identified with the Arab tradition about Ismā'il.

4102. In the Biblical version Isaac's consent is not taken; in fact Isaac asks, ‘where is the lamb for sacrifice?’ and is told that ‘God would provide it’. It is a complete human sacrifice like those to Moloch. In our version it is as much a sacrifice by the will of Ismā'il as by that of Abraham. And in any case it is symbolic: “this was obviously a trial”; “thou hast already fulfilled thy vision”; etc.

But We made them the ones
Most humiliated !

99. ~~He~~ He said : " I will go
To my Lord ! He
Will surely guide me ! <sup>4095</sup>

100. " O my Lord ! grant me
A righteous (son) ! "

101. So We gave him
The good news <sup>4096</sup>
Of a boy ready
To suffer and forbear. <sup>4097</sup>

102. Then, when (the son)
Reached (the age of)
(Serious) work with him,
He said : " O my son !
I see in vision <sup>4098</sup>
That I offer thee in sacrifice : <sup>4099</sup>
Now see what is
Thy view ! " (The son) said :
" O my father ! Do
As thou art commanded :

فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ الْأَسْفَلِينَ

٩٩ وَقَالَ إِنِّي ذَاهِبٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي سَيَهْدِينِ

١٠٠ رَبِّ هَبْ لِي مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ

١٠١ فَبَشَّرْنَاهُ بِغُلَامٍ حَلِيمٍ

١٠٢ فَلَمَّا بَلَغَ مَعَهُ السَّعْيَ قَالَ يَبْنَؤُا إِنِّي
أَرَىٰ فِي الْمَنَامِ أَنِّي أَذْبَحُكَ فَانْظُرْ مَاذَا تَرَىٰ
قَالَ يَا أَبَتِ افْعَلْ مَا تُؤْمَرُ

4095. This was the Hijrat of Abraham. He left his people and his land, because the Truth was dearer to him than the ancestral falsehoods of his people. He trusted himself to God, and under God's guidance he laid the foundations of great peoples. See n. 2725 to xxi. 69.

4096. This was in the fertile land of Syria and Palestine. The boy thus born was, according to Muslim tradition, (which however is not unanimous on this point), the first-born son of Abraham, viz. Ismā'il. The name itself is from the root Samia, to hear, because God had heard Abraham's prayer (verse 100). Abraham's age when Ismā'il was born was 85 (Gen. xvi. 16).

4097. The boy's character was to be Halim, which I have translated "ready to suffer and forbear". This title is also applied to Abraham (in ix. 114 and xi. 75). It refers to the patient way in which both father and son cheerfully offered to suffer any self-sacrifice in order to obey the Command of God. See next verse.

4098. Where did this vision occur? The Muslim view is that it was in or near Mecca. Some would identify it with the valley of Minā, six miles north of Mecca, where a commemoration sacrifice is annually celebrated as a rite of the Hajj on the tenth of Zul-Hijja, the 'Id of Sacrifice, in memory of this Sacrifice of Abraham and Ismā'il (see n. 217 to ii. 197). Others say that the original place of sacrifice was near the hill of Marwa (the companion hill to Safā, ii. 158), which is associated with the infancy of Ismā'il.

4099. At what stage in Abraham's history did this occur? See n. 2725 to xxi. 69. It was obviously after his arrival in the land of Canaan and after Ismā'il had grown up to years of discretion. Was it before or after the building of the Ka'ba (ii. 127)? There are no data on which this question can be answered. But we may suppose it was before that event, and that event may itself have been commemorative.

90. So they turned away
From him, and departed.

﴿فَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ مُدْبِرِينَ﴾

91. When did he turn
To their gods and said,
"Will ye not eat
(Of the offerings before you) ? . . .

﴿فَرَاغَ إِلَىٰ آلِهِمْ فَقَالَ إِنَّا أَكُلُونَ﴾

92. "What is the matter
With you that ye
Speak not (intelligently) ? "

﴿مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَنْطِقُونَ﴾

93. Then did he turn
Upon them, striking (them)<sup>4090</sup>
With the right hand.<sup>4091</sup>

﴿فَرَاغَ عَلَيْهِمْ ضَرْبًا بِالْيَمِينِ﴾

94. Then came (the worshippers)
With hurried steps,
And faced (him).

﴿فَأَقْبَلُوا إِلَيْهِ يَزْفُونَ﴾

95. He said: "Worship ye
That which ye have
(Yourselves) carved ? <sup>4092</sup>

﴿قَالَ أَتَعْبُدُونَ مَا تَحْنُونَ﴾

96. "But God has created you
And your handiwork ! "

﴿وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ وَمَا تَعْمَلُونَ﴾

97. They said, "Build him
A furnace, and throw him <sup>4093</sup>
Into the blazing fire ! "

﴿قَالُوا ابْنُوا لَهُ بُنْيَانًا فَأَلْقُوهُ فِي الْجَحِيمِ﴾

98. (This failing), they then
Sought a stratagem against him, <sup>4094</sup>

﴿فَارَادُوا بِهِ كَيْدًا﴾

4090. See the reference in the last note.

4091. With the right hand: as the right hand is the hand of power, the phrase means that he struck them with might and main and broke them..

4092. His action was a challenge, and he drives home the challenge now with argument. 'Do you worship your own handiwork? Surely worship is due to Him Who made you and made possible your handiwork!'

4093. The argument of Abraham was so sound that it could not be met by argument. In such cases Evil resorts to violence, or secret plotting. Here there was both violence and secret plotting. The violence consisted in throwing him into a blazing Furnace. But by the mercy of God the fire did not harm him (xxi. 69), and so they resorted to plotting. But the plotting, as the next verse (xxxvii. 98) shows, was a boomerang that recoiled on their own heads.

4094. Cf. xxi. 71. Their plot against the righteous Abraham failed. Abraham migrated from the country (Chaldea, Babylon, and Assyria) and wandered in Syria and Palestine. It was his persecutors that suffered humiliation.

82. Then the rest We overwhelmed
In the Flood.

﴿٨٢﴾ ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا الْآخَرِينَ

83. Verily among those Who followed his Way
Was Abraham.<sup>4085</sup>

﴿٨٣﴾ وَكَانَ مِنْ شِيعَتِهِ لَإِبْرَاهِيمَ

84. Behold, he approached his Lord
With a sound heart.<sup>4086</sup>

﴿٨٤﴾ إِذْ جَاءَ رَبَّهُ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ

85. Behold, he said to his father
And to his people, "What
Is that which ye worship?"

﴿٨٥﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ مَاذَا تَعْبُدُونَ

86. "Is it a Falsehood—
Gods other than God—
That ye desire?"<sup>4087</sup>

﴿٨٦﴾ أَفَبَشَا أَلِهَةً دُونَ اللَّهِ تُرِيدُونَ

87. "Then what is your idea
About the Lord of the Worlds?"<sup>4088</sup>

﴿٨٧﴾ فَمَا ظَنُّكُمْ رَبَّنَا الْعَالَمِينَ

88. Then did he cast
A glance at the Stars,

﴿٨٨﴾ فَظَرَّ نَظْرَةً فِي النُّجُومِ

89. And he said, "I am
Indeed sick (at heart)"<sup>4089</sup>

﴿٨٩﴾ فَقَالَ إِنِّي سَقِيمٌ

4085. The main story will be found in xxi 51-73; but the episode about his readiness and that of his son to submit to the most extreme form of self-sacrifice under trial (in verses 102-107 below) is told here for the first time, as this Sūra deals with the theme, "Not my will, but Thine be done!" In "followed his way", the pronoun "his" refers to Noah, "he", of verse 81 above.

4086. A sound heart: qalb salīm: a heart that is pure, and unaffected by the diseases that afflict others. As the heart in Arabic is taken to be not only the seat of feelings and affections, but also of intelligence and resulting action, it implies the whole character. Cf. Abraham's title of Hanīf (the True): ii, 135 and n, 134. Cf. also xxvi, 89: "only he will prosper who brings to God a sound heart."

4087. False worship—worship of idols or stars or symbols, or Mammon or Self—is due either to false and degrading conceptions of God, or to a sort of make-believe, where practice is inconsistent with knowledge or ignores the inner promptings of Conscience. Abraham's challenge to his people is: 'Are you fools or hypocrites?'

4088. 'Do you not realise that the real Creator is One—above all the forms and superstitions that you associate with Him?'

4089. The grief was really preying on his mind and soul, that he should be associated with such falsehoods. His father himself was among the chief supporters of such falsehoods, and his people were given up wholly to them. He could not possibly share in their mummeries, and they left him in disgust. Then he made his practical protest in the manner narrated in xxi, 56-64.

The righteous, of Moses and Aaron, of Elias
And Lot : all men of Faith, who receive
The blessings of posterity and Peace
And Salutation from God Most Gracious.

SECTION 3.

75. (In the days of old),
Noah cried to Us,<sup>4080</sup>
And We are the Best
To hear prayer.

76. And We delivered him
And his people from
The Great Calamity,<sup>4081</sup>

77. And made his progeny
To endure (on this earth);<sup>4082</sup>

78. And We left (this blessing)
For him among generations<sup>4083</sup>
To come in later times:

79. "Peace and salutation to Noah
Among the nations!"<sup>4084</sup>

80. Thus indeed do We reward
Those who do right.

81. For he was one
Of Our believing Servants.

﴿٧٥﴾ وَلَقَدْ نَادَيْنَا نُوْحًا فَلْيَعْمَلْ الْجَبُوْنَ

﴿٧٦﴾ وَنَجِّنَا هٗ وَاهْلُوْهُ مِنَ الْكَرْبِ

الْعَظِيْمِ
﴿٧٧﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا ذُرِّيَّتَهُ هٗمُ الْبَاقِيْنَ

﴿٧٨﴾ وَتَرَكْنَاهُ فِي الْاٰخِرِيْنَ

﴿٧٩﴾ سَلَامٌ عَلٰى نُوْحٍ فِي الْعَالَمِيْنَ

﴿٨٠﴾ اِنَّا كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ

﴿٨١﴾ اِنَّهٗ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ

4080. Cf. xxi. 76-77. The story of Noah occurs in many places : here the point is that when men gird themselves against evil, God protects them, and Evil cannot triumph against God's Plan.

4081. The Deluge, the Flood of Noah. The main story will be found in xi. 25-48.

4082. Noah's posterity survived the Flood in the Ark, while the rest perished.

4083. His name is remembered for ever, commencing a new era in religious history. Note that the words in verses 78-81, with slight modifications, form a sort of refrain to the following paragraphs about Abraham, Moses, and Elias, but not about Lot and Jonah. Lot was a nephew of Abraham, and may be supposed to belong to the story of Abraham. Jonah's career nearly ended in a tragedy for himself, and his people got a further lease of power "for a time" (xxxvii. 148). And both Lot and Jonah belong to a limited local tradition.

4084. The story of the Flood is found in some form or other among all nations, and not only among those who follow the Mosaic tradition. In Greek tradition the hero of the Flood is Deukalion, with his wife Pyrrha : in Indian tradition (Shatapatha Brāhmaṇa and Mahābhārata) it is the sage Manu and the Fish. The Chinese tradition of a great Flood is recorded in Shu-King. Among American Indians the tradition was common to many tribes.

69. Truly they found their fathers
On the wrong Path ;

⑤ إِنَّهُمْ أَفْوَءُ آبَاءَهُمْ ضَالِّينَ

70. So they (too) were rushed <sup>4076</sup>
Down on their footsteps !

⑥ فَهُمْ عَلَىٰ أَثَرِهِمْ يُسْرِعُونَ

71. And truly before them,
Many of the ancients
Went astray ;—

⑦ وَلَقَدْ ضَلَّ قَبْلَهُمْ أَكْثَرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ

72. But We sent aforetime, <sup>4077</sup>
Among them, (apostles)
To admonish them ;—

⑧ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا فِيهِمْ مُنْذِرِينَ

73. Then see what was
The End of those who <sup>4078</sup>
Were admonished
(but heeded not),—

⑨ فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ

74. Except the sincere (and devoted) <sup>4079</sup>
Servants of God.

⑩ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْخَالِصِينَ

C. 198.—The Prophets of God formed a series
(xxxvii. 75-138.) That worked in God's service to instruct
Their fellow-men. In case of distress
God helped and delivered them. Men did flout
And persecute them, but they carried out
Their mission with constancy ; and God's Purpose
Always won, to the destruction of Evil.
So was it in the story of Noah and the Flood,
Of Abraham the True, of Isma'il
Ready for self-sacrifice, of Isaac

4076. A grim reproach. 'You found your fathers doing wrong ; and you must rush headlong in their footsteps to perdition !'

4077. It is human to err. The error is forgiven if there is repentance and amendment. The point is that God in His mercy at all times in history sent apostles and teachers to give His Message, and men deliberately rejected that Message.

4078. It is on the reception or rejection of God's teachings and guidance that judgment will come. In this world itself, see what is the teaching of history. Unrighteousness and wrong-doing never prosper in the long run.

4079. But there is always a band of sincere and devoted men who serve God, and the highest spiritual life is open to them.

Note that this verse occurs at xxxvii, 40 above, where the argument of the difference between the fates of the righteous and the unrighteous was begun. Here it is rounded off with the same phrase, and now we proceed to take illustrations from the early Prophets.

61. For the like of this
Let all strive,
Who wish to strive.

٦١ لِيُثْلَ حَظُّهُنَّ أَكْثَرُ الْعَمَلِ

62. Is that the better entertainment
Or the Tree of Zaqqum? <sup>4072</sup>

٦٢ أَوَلَيْسَ ذَلِكَ خَيْرًا لِّزُلَّةٍ أَمْ شَجَرَةُ الزَّقْقُمِ

63. For We have truly
Made it (as) a trial <sup>4073</sup>
For the wrong-doers.

٦٣ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهَا فِتْنَةً لِلظَّالِمِينَ

64. For it is a tree
That springs out
Of the bottom of Hell-fire :

٦٤ إِنَّهَا شَجَرَةٌ تَخْرُجُ فِي أَصْلِ الْحَرِّ

65. The shoots of its fruit-stalks
Are like the heads
Of devils :

٦٥ طَلْعُهَا كَأَنَّهُ رُءُوسُ الشَّيَاطِينِ

66. Truly they will eat thereof <sup>4074</sup>
And fill their bellies therewith.

٦٦ فَإِنَّهُمْ لَأَكَلُونَ مِنْهَا فَأَمَّا ثَمَرُهَا
الْبَطُورُ

67. Then on top of that
They will be given
A mixture made of Boiling water.

٦٧ ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ لَشَارِبُونَ مِنْ حَمِيمٍ

68. Then shall their return <sup>4075</sup>
Be to the (Blazing) Fire.

٦٨ ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ لَارْجِعُونَ إِلَى الْحَرِّ

4072. Cf. xvii. 60, n 2250. 'This bitter tree of Hell is a symbol of the contrast with the beautiful Garden of heaven with its delicious fruits.

4074. The parable of fruits and drinks in the contrasted fortunes of the Good and the Evil is further elaborated in xivii. 15, where the boiling water given to the evil ones cuts up their entrails.

4075. When they eat of the zaqqum in the lowest depths of hell, they are apparently brought up to drink of the mixture as a further punishment, after which they go back to repeat the round.

52. "Who used to say,
'What! art thou amongst those
Who bear witness to
The truth (of the Message) ?

٥٢ يَقُولُ لَكَ لِمِنَ الْمُصَدِّقِينَ

53. " 'When we die and become
Dust and bones, shall we
Indeed receive rewards
And punishments ? ' "

٥٣ أَوَلَا نَشَاوَعُنَّا أَكِبَارًا وَعِظَامًا أَتَأْتِلُوهَا أَتَأْتِلُوهَا

54. (A voice) said : " Would ye
Like to look down ? "

٥٤ قَالَ هَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُظْلِمُونَ

55. He looked down
And saw him
In the midst of the Fire.<sup>4068</sup>

٥٥ فَأَظْلَعَ فَرَسًا فِي سَوَاءٍ الْجَحِيمِ

56. He said : " By God !
Thou wast little short
Of bringing me to perdition !

٥٦ قَالَ تَاللَّهِ إِنْ كِدْتَ لَتُحْدِثِينَ

57. " Had it not been for
The Grace of my Lord,<sup>4069</sup>
I should certainly have been
Among those brought (there) !

٥٧ وَلَوْلَا نِعْمَةُ رَبِّي لَكُنْتُ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ

58. " Is it (the case) that
We shall not die,

٥٨ أَفَأَنْتُمْ بِمَبِيتٍ

59. " Except our first death,
And that ~~we~~<sup>4070</sup>
Shall not be punished ? "

٥٩ إِلَّا مَوْتَنَا الْأُولَى وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذَّبِينَ

60. Verily this is
The supreme achievement !<sup>4071</sup>

٦٠ إِنَّ هَذَا لَمَوْفُورٌ عَظِيمٌ

4068 He is allowed a peep into the state which he so narrowly escaped by the grace of God.

4069. And he gratefully acknowledges his shortcomings : " I should have been a sinner just like this, but for the grace of God ! " He sees that if he had erred it would have been no excuse to plead the other man's example. He had Faith and was saved, to walk in the path of righteousness.

4070. After he realises the great danger from which he narrowly escaped, his joy is so great that he can hardly believe it ! Is the danger altogether past now ? Are the portals of death closed for ever ? Is he safe now from the temptations which will bring him to ruin and punishment ?

4071. The answer is : Yes. " Beyond the flight of Time, Beyond the realm of Death. There surely is some blessed clime, Where Life is not a breath ! " In the words of Longfellow this was an aspiration on this earth. In the Hereafter it is a realisation !

Some interpret verses 60-62 as a continuation of the speech of the man in heaven. The meaning would in that case be the same.

44. Facing each other
On Thrones (of dignity) :

⑭ عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُّتَقَابِلِينَ

45. Round will be passed
To them a Cup
From a clear-flowing fountain,

⑮ يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِكَأْسٍ مِنْ مَعِينٍ

46. Crystal-white, of a taste
Delicious to those
Who drink (thereof),

⑯ بَيضَاءَ لَذَّةٍ لِلشَّارِبِينَ

47. Free from headiness ; <sup>4063</sup>
Nor will they suffer
Intoxication therefrom.

⑰ لَا فِيهَا غَوْلٌ وَلَا هُمْ عَنْهَا يُنْزَفُونَ

48. And besides them will be
Chaste women; restraining
Their glances, with big eyes <sup>4064</sup>
(Of wonder and beauty).

⑱ وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَصِيرَاتُ الْظُرْفِ عِينٌ

49. As if they were <sup>4065</sup>
(Delicate) eggs closely guarded.

⑲ كَأَنَّهُنَّ بَيْضٌ مَكْنُونٌ

50. When they will turn to
One another and question
One another. <sup>4066</sup>

⑳ فَاقْبَلْ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ تَسْأَلُونَ

51. One of them will start
The talk and say :
" I had an intimate
Companion (on the earth), <sup>4067</sup>

㉑ قَالَ قَابِلٌ مِنْهُمْ إِنِّي كَانَ لِي قَرِينٌ

4063. The passing round of the social cup, as in the case of other pleasures, is without any of the drawbacks and evil accompaniments of the pleasures of this world, which are taken as types. In drink there is no intoxication : in fruit there is no satiety. Cf. Dante : " the bread of Angels upon which One liveth here and grows not pated by it." (Paradiso, Canto II., Longfellow's translation)

4064. In the emblem used here, again, the pure type of chaste womanhood is figured. They are chaste, not bold with their glances : but their eyes are big with wonder and beauty, prefiguring grace, innocence, and a refined capacity of appreciation and admiration.

4065. This is usually understood to refer to the delicate complexion of a beautiful woman, which is compared to the transparent shell of eggs in the nest, closely guarded by the mother-bird ; the shell is warm and free from stain. In iv. 58 the phrase used is "like rubies and coral", referring to the red or pink of a beautiful complexion.

4066. Cf. above, xxxvii. 27, where the same phrase is used in the reverse conditions. In each case there is a going back to the earlier memories or experiences of this life.

4067. This companion was a sceptic, who laughed at Religion and a Hereafter. How the tables are now turned ! The devout man backed up his Faith with a good life and is now in Bliss : the other was a cynic and made a mess of his life, and is now burning in the Fire of Regrets !

36. And say : " What ! Shall we Give up our gods
For the sake of
A Poet possessed ? " <sup>4057</sup>

٣٦ وَيَقُولُونَ أَيُّنَا لَتَارِكُوا آلِهَتِنَا
لِشَاعِرٍ مَّجْنُونٍ

37. Nay ! he has come
With the (very) Truth,
And he confirms (the Message
Of) the apostles (before him). <sup>4058</sup>

٣٧ بَلْ جَاءَ بِالْحَقِّ وَصَدَّقَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

38. Ye shall indeed taste
Of the Grievous Penalty ;—

٣٨ إِنَّكُمْ لَذَائِقُوا الْعَذَابِ الْأَلِيمِ

39. But it will be no more
Than the retribution <sup>4059</sup>
Of (the Evil) that ye
Have wrought ;—

٣٩ وَمَا تُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

40. But the sincere (and devoted)
Servants of God,—

٤٠ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْخَاصِينَ

41. For them is a Sustenance <sup>4060</sup>
Determined, <sup>4061</sup>

٤١ أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ رِزْقٌ مَعْلُومٌ

42. Fruits (Delights) ; <sup>4062</sup> and they (Shall enjoy) honour and dignity,

٤٢ فَرَاكُهُمْ وَهُمْ تَكَرَّمُونَ

43. In Gardens of Felicity,

٤٣ فِي جَنَّاتٍ النَّعِيمِ

4057. Possessed of an evil spirit, or mad. Such was the charge which the Unbelievers sometimes levelled at the holy Prophet in the early stages of his preaching.

4058. The message of Islam, so far from being "mad" or in any way peculiar, is eminently conformable to reason and the true facts of nature as created by God. It is the Truth in the purest sense of the term, and confirms the Message of all true Messengers that ever lived.

4059. Justice demands that those who sow evil should reap the fruit, but the punishment is due to their own conduct and not to anything external to themselves.

4060. "Sustenance": metaphorical sense, correlated with the Fruits mentioned below: see next verse.

4061. "Determined": Ma'lām; the reward of the Blessed will not be a chance or a fleeting thing. It will follow a firm Decree of God, on principles that can be known and understood.

4062. "Fruits": Cf. xxxvi 57, and n. 4003. The spiritual Delights are figured forth from parallel experiences in our present life, and follow an ascending order: Food and Fruits; Gardens of Bliss, (with all their charm, design, greenery, birds' songs, fountains, etc.); the Home of Happiness and Dignity, with congenial company seated on Thrones; Delicious Drinks from crystal Springs, for social pleasure; and the society of Companions of the opposite sex, with beauty and charm but none of the grossness too often incidental to such companionship in this life.

29. They will reply : " Nay, ye
Yourselves had no Faith ! <sup>4053</sup>

30. " Nor had we any authority
Over you. Nay, it was
Ye who were a people
In obstinate rebellion !

31. " So now has been proved true, <sup>4054</sup>
Against us, the Word
Of our Lord that we Shall indeed (have to) taste
(The punishment of our sins).

32. " We led you astray : for truly <sup>4055</sup>
We were ourselves astray."

33. Truly, that Day, they will
(All) share in the Penalty.

34. Verily that is how We Shall deal with Sinners.

35. For they, when they were Told that there is
No god except God, would
Puff themselves up with Pride, <sup>4056</sup>

٢٩ قَالُوا بَلْ لَمْ تَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ

٣٠ وَمَا كَانَ لَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ بَلْ كُنْتُمْ
قَوْمًا طَٰغِينَ

٣١ فَحَقَّ عَلَيْنَا قَوْلُ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا لَذَائِقُونَ

٣٢ فَأَغْوَيْنَاكُمْ إِنَّا كُنَّا غَاوِينَ

٣٣ فَإِنَّهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُشْتَرِكُونَ

٣٤ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَفْعَلُ بِالْجَاثِمِينَ

٣٥ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا إِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ
يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ

4053. But the fact that others mislead, or that their evil example is before us, does not justify us in falling from right conduct. Faith should save us from the fall. But if we have ourselves no Faith—in righteousness, or a future life, or the reality of God's Law, how can we blame others? The misleaders can well say, "You will be judged according to your misdeeds!" The responsibility is personal, and cannot be shifted on to others. The others may get a double punishment,—for their own evil, and for misleading their weaker brethren. But the weaker brethren cannot go free from responsibility for their own deeds; for evil means a personal rebellion against God, if we believe in a personal God. Evil has no authority over us, except in so far as we deliberately choose it.

4054. God's decree of justice requires that every soul should taste the consequences of its own sins, and that decree must be fulfilled. No excuses can serve. It is only God's mercy that can save.

4055. Further, the misleaders can well urge against those who reproach them for misleading them: "How could you expect anything better from us? You were already warned by God's Message that we were astray."

4056. Selfish arrogance was the seed of sin and rebellion; ii. 34 (of Satan): xxviii. 39 (of Pharaoh); etc. It is that kind of arrogance which prevents man from mending his life and conduct. When he speaks of ancestral ways, or public opinion, or national honour, he is usually thinking of himself or of a small clique which thrives on injustice. The recognition of the true God, the one God, as the only standard of life and conduct, the only Reality, cuts out Self, and is therefore disagreeable to Sin. If false gods are imagined, who themselves would have weaknesses that fit in with sin, they give countenance to evils, and it becomes difficult to give them up, unless God's grace comes to our assistance.

.. Shall we (then) be Raised up (again) ?

17. " And also our fathers <sup>4043</sup>
Of old ? "

18. Say thou : " Yea, and ye shall
Then be humiliated
(On account of your evil). " <sup>4044</sup>

19. Then it will be a single (Compelling) cry ; <sup>4045</sup>
And behold, they will Begin to see ! <sup>4046</sup>

20. They will say, " Ah !
Woe to us ! this is
The Day of Judgment ! "

21. (A voice will say,)
" This is the Day <sup>4047</sup>
Of Sorting Out, whose Truth ye (once) denied ! "

SECTION 2.

22. " Bring ye up ",
It shall be said,

أَوَنَّا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ

١٧ أَوَآبَاءُنَا الْأَوَّلُونَ

١٨ قُلْ نَعَمْ وَأَنْتُمْ دَاخِرُونَ

١٩ فَإِنَّمَا هِيَ زَجْرَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَإِذَا هُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ

٢٠ وَقَالُوا يَوَيْلَنَا هَذَا يَوْمُ الدِّينِ

٢١ هَذَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تُكَذِّبُونَ

٢٢ أَأَحْشَرُوا الَّذِينَ

4043 Although the Hereafter, and the spiritual life of which it is a corollary, are the most solid facts in our intelligent existence, materialists deny them. They cannot believe that they could have any existence beyond the grave—still less their ancestors who died ages and ages ago: how could they ever come to life again?

4044. They are assured that the future life is a solid fact, but that it will be in very different conditions from those they know now. All their present arrogance will have been humbled in the dust. There will be another plane, in which souls will have experiences quite different from those in their probationary life here. In that life the virtues they lacked will count, and the arrogance they hugged will be brought low.

4045. Cf. xxxvi. 29, 49, and 53.

4046 Their spiritual blindness will then leave them. But they will be surprised at the suddenness of their disillusion.

4047. The Day of Judgment is the day of sorting out. Cf. xxxvi. 59. Good and evil will finally be separated, unlike the apparently inexplicable conditions in the present probationary life, when they seem to be mixed together.

- But be cast away
From every side,
9. Repulsed, for they are
Under a perpetual penalty,
10. Except such as snatch away
Something by stealth, and they
Are pursued by a flaming<sup>4039</sup>
Fire, of piercing brightness.
11. Just ask their<sup>4040</sup> opinion:
Are they the more difficult
To create, or the (other) beings
We have created?
Them have We created
Out of a sticky clay!<sup>4041</sup>
12. Truly dost thou marvel,<sup>4042</sup>
While they ridicule,
13. And, when they are
Admonished, pay no heed,—
14. And, when they see
A Sign, turn it
To mockery,
15. And say, "This is nothing
But evident sorcery!"
16. "What! when we die,
And become dust and bones,

- ⑧ أَوَدَامِنَّا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا

4039. See last note and C/. xv. 18 and notes 1953-54.

4040. "Their"; "they" are the doubters, the evil ones, the deniers of God's grace and mercy, who laugh at Revelation and disbelieve in a Hereafter. Are they more important or more difficult to create than the wonderful variety of beings in God's spacious Creation? Do they forget their own lowly state, as having been created from muddy clay?

4041. C/. vi. 2; vii. 12; xxxii. 7; etc.

4042. It is indeed strange that unregenerate man should forget, on the one hand, his lowly origin, and on the other hand, his high Destiny, as conferred upon him by the grace and mercy of God. The indictment of him here comprises four counts: (1) they ridicule the teaching of Truth; (2) instead of profiting by admonition, they pay no heed; (3) when God's Signs are brought home to them, they ridicule them as much as they ridiculed the teaching of Truth; and (4) when they have to acknowledge incontestable facts, they give them false names like "sorcery", which imply fraud or something which has no relation to their life. Although the facts touch the inner springs of their life

And all between them,

① إِنَّا زَيْنَّا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِزِينَةِ الْكَوَاكِبِ

7. (For beauty) and for guard <sup>4037</sup>

Rebellious evil spirits,

② وَحِفْظًا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ مَارِدٍ

8. (So) they should not strain
Their ears in the direction
Of the Exalted Assembly <sup>4038</sup>

③ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ إِلَى الْمَلَأِ الْأَعْلَى

4034 That Unity comprehends everything that exists—'the heavens and the earth, and all between them'. For He is their Lord. He is the Lord of the Mashāriq,—of every point at the rising of the sun. As the Commentators tell us, there are in the solar year only two equinoctial days, when the sun rises due east: on every other day the sun rises at a shifting point either north or south of due east. In vii, 137 we have mashāriq al ardhi wa magāribahā, where the plural of the words for East and West is negligible, as the conjunction of the two embraces all points. The same may be said of lxx. 40, where God is called "Lord of all points in the East and the West". If we are speaking of longitudes, they may embrace all latitudes. In iv, 17 God is called "Lord of the two Easts and the two Wests", referring to the extreme points in either case. A cursory reader may ask, why is only the East referred to here? The reply is that it is not so much the East as the rising of the sun, on which stress is laid. The Arabic mashriq or mashāriq is close enough to the root-word sharaqa, to suggest, not so much the East as the rising of the sun, especially when the plural form is used. The glorious sun rises from different points, as seen by us, but it illuminates the whole heaven and earth. It is an emblem of Unity. We can see things from different points of view, but the centre of all things is God, and He is One.

4035 That is lower than the highest heaven, the Empyrean, the sphere of fire (kurrat un nār), the seat, we may suppose, of the Exalted Assembly (of angels) mentioned in verse 8 below. In the poetic imagery of the East as of the West, (e.g., see Milton, Paradise Lost, III. 56, 481-3) there are the seven heavens of the planets of the solar system; above them is the sphere of the fixed stars; above them is the crystalline sphere balancing other motions; higher still is the primum mobile ('that first moved'), the source of heavenly motions; and above all, the Empyrean. The stars and planets thus come in the lower heavens. The same imagery will be found in Dante.

4037. Verses 7-11 seem to refer to shooting stars. Cf. xv, 17-18, and notes 1951-53. The heavens typify not only beauty but power. The Good in God's world is guarded and protected against every assault of Evil. The Evil is not part of the heavenly system: it is a thing in outlawry, merely a self-willed rebellion,—"cast away on every side, repulsed under a perpetual penalty" (verses 8-9).

4038 We can form a mental picture of the Court of the Most High, in the highest heaven, conforming to the highest idea we can form of goodness, beauty, purity, and grandeur. The Exalted Assembly of angels is given some knowledge of the Plan and Will of God. Evil is altogether foreign to such an atmosphere, but is actuated by feelings of jealousy and curiosity. It tries to approach by stealth and overhear something from the august Assembly. It is repulsed and pursued by a flaming fire, of which we can form some idea in our physical world by the piercing trail of a shooting star.

Sura XXXVII.

Saffat, or Those Ranged in Ranks.*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. By <sup>4030</sup> those who range
Themselves in ranks, <sup>4031</sup>2. And so are strong

The Message (of God) !4. Verily, verily, your God
Is One ! — <sup>4033</sup>5. Lord of the heavens
And of the earth,

① وَالصَّافَّاتِ صَفًّا

② فَالْزَّاجِرَاتِ زَجْرًا

③ فَالْقَائِمَاتِ ذِكْرًا

④ إِنَّ إِلَهَكُمْ لَوَاحِدٌ

⑤ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ

4031. Two questions arise: (1) are the doers of the three things noted in verses 1-3 the same persons, whose actions or qualities are differently described, or are they three distinct sets of persons? (2) in either case, who are they? As to (1) the most authoritative view is that the three clauses describe the same set of persons in different aspects. As to (2) some take them to refer to angels, and others understand by them the good men, the men of God, who strive and range themselves in God's service. The words are perfectly general, and I interpret them to refer to both classes. The feminine form is grammatically used in Arabic idiom for the indefinite plural. In xxxvii. 165 below, the word gā'fūn is used in the definite plural, and seems to be spoken by these beings, angels or men of God or both, according to how we interpret this verse.

4032. The three acts in verses 1-3 are consecutive, as shown by the particle fa. I understand them to mean that angels and good men (1) are ever ready to range themselves in ranks in the service of God and work in perfect discipline and accord at all times; (2) that they check and frustrate evil wherever they find it and they are strengthened in doing so by their discipline and their ranging themselves in ranks; and (3) that this service furthers the Kingdom of God and proclaims His Message and His glory to all creation.

4033. That divine Message is summed up in the gospel of Divine Unity, on which the greatest emphasis is laid: "verily, verily your God is One". It is a fact intimately connected with our own life and destiny. 'Your Lord is one Who cares for you and cherishes you; you are dear to Him. And He is One: it is only He that you have to look to, the source of all goodness, love, and power. You are not the sport of many contending forces or blind chances. There is complete harmony and unity in heaven and you have to put yourselves into unison with it—by discipline in ranks, by unity of plan and purpose in repelling evil, and by concerted action in promoting the Kingdom of God. Here is the mystery of the manifold variety of creation converging into the absolute Unity of

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXVII (Ṣāffāt)

As explained in the Introduction to S. xxxiv, this is the fourth of a series of Sūras in which the mysteries of the spiritual world are manifested in different ways, tending to the defeat and final extirpation of Evil. The defeat of Evil is throughout connected with Revelation, and here the ranged fight is illustrated by a reference to the angels in heaven and to the earlier Prophets in our earthly history, from Noah to Jonah. In chronology this Sūra belongs to the early middle Meccan period.

Summary.—Through all the mysteries of the heavens and the earth, there is a sorting out of the evil against the good : their final destinations contrasted (xxxvii. 1-74, and C. 197).

Peace and victory came to Noah, Abraham, Moses and Aaron, Ilyās and Lūṭ, in their conflict with Evil (xxxvii. 75-138, and C. 198).

So was it with Jonah when he glorified God. But men will ascribe to God what is unworthy of Him : God's apostles strive for His glory, and shall be victorious (xxxvii. 139-182, and C. 199).

C. 197.—God is One, the Source and Centre
(xxxvii. 1-74.) Of all affairs, and we must work
In discipline, harmony, and unity
To put down Evil. 'The Hereafter
Is sure, when personal responsibility
Will be enforced. For the true
And sincere servants of God,
There will be the highest Bliss,
Unmixed and everlasting :
For those who defy God's Law
There will be the deepest enduring
Misery. Which will men choose ?

A thing, His Command is,
"Be", and it is!

﴿إِنَّمَا أَمْرُهُ إِذَا أَرَادَ شَيْئًا أَن يَقُولَ لَهُ
كُنْ فَيَكُونُ﴾

83. So glory to Him
In Whose hands is
The dominion of all things:
And to Him will ye <sup>4029</sup>
Be all brought back.

﴿فَسُبْحَانَ الَّذِي
بِيَدِهِ مَلَكُوتُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ﴾

4025. God's creative artistry is evident in every phase of nature, and it works every minute or second. The more man understands himself and the things within his reach, the more he realises this. How foolish, then, for any one to set imaginary limits to God's powers? There are more ways of creation than are dreamt of in man's imagination!

4026. Even older and more primitive than the method of striking fire against steel and flint is the method of using twigs of trees for the purpose. In the E. B., 14th edition, ix. 262. will be found a picture of British Guiana boys making a fire by rotating a stick in a round hole in a piece of wood lying on the ground. The Arab method was to use a wooden instrument called the Zind. It consisted of two pieces to be rubbed together. The upper one was called the A/ār or Zand, and the lower the Marḥḥ. The marḥḥ is a twig from a kind of spreading tree, the Cynanchum viminalis, of which the branches are bare, without leaves or thorns. When they are tangled together, and a wind blows, they get ignited and strike fire (Lane's Arabic Lexicon). In modern Arabic Zand is by analogy applied to the flint piece used for striking fire with steel.

4027. Cf. lxxix. 27. Which is the more difficult to create,—man, or the heavens and the earth, with all creatures? God created the heavens and the earth, with all creatures, and He can create worlds and worlds like these in infinity. To him it is a small matter to raise you up for the Hereafter.

4028. And His creation is not dependent on time, or instruments or means, or any conditions whatsoever. Existence waits on His Will, or Plan, or Intention. The moment He wills a thing, it becomes His Word or Command, and the thing forthwith comes into existence. Cf. ii. 117; xvi. 40, n. 2066; etc.

4029. All things were created by God; are maintained by Him; and will go back to Him. But the point of special interest to man is that man will also be brought back to God and is answerable to Him, and to Him alone. This Message is the core of Revelation; it explains the meaning of the Hereafter; and it fitly closes a Sūra specially connected with the name (Yā-Sīn) of the Holy Prophet.

(Hoping) that they might
Be helped !

لَعَلَّهُمْ يُنصَرُونَ

75. They have not the power
To help them : but they
Will be brought up
(Before Our Judgment-seat)
As a troop (to be condemned).<sup>4021</sup>

لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ نَصْرَهُمْ وَهُمْ لَهُمْ جُذُ
مُخَضَّرُونَ

76. Let not their speech, then,<sup>4022</sup>
Grieve thee. Verily We know
What they hide as well as
What they disclose.

فَلَا يَحْزَنْكَ قَوْلُهُمْ إِنَّا نَعْلَمُ مَا يُسِرُّونَ
وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ

77. Doth not man see
That it is We Who
Created him from sperm ?<sup>4023</sup>
Yet behold ! he (stands forth)
As an open adversary !

أَوَلَيْسَ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنَا خَلَقْنَاهُ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ
فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُبِينٌ

78. And he makes comparisons<sup>4024</sup>
For Us, and forgets his own
(Origin and) Creation :
He says, "Who can give
Life to (dry) bones
And decomposed ones (at that) ?"

وَضَرَبَ لَنَا مَثَلًا وَنَسِيَ خَلْقَهُ قَالَ
مَنْ يُحْيِي الْعِظَامَ وَهِيَ رَمِيمٌ

4021. There is some difference of opinion among Commentators as to the exact meaning to be attached to this clause. As I understand it, the meaning seems to be this. Man is apt to forget or turn away from the true God, the source of all the good which he enjoys, and to go after imaginary powers in the shape of gods, heroes, men, or abstract things like Science or Nature or Philosophy, or superstitious things like Magic, or Good-Fortune or Ill-Fortune, or embodiments of his own selfish desires. He thinks that they might help him in this Life or in the Hereafter (if he believes in a Hereafter). But they cannot help him : on the contrary all things that are false will be brought up and condemned before God's judgment-seat, and the worshippers of the Falsehoods will also be treated as a troop favouring the Falsehoods and therefore worthy of condemnation. The Falsehoods, therefore, instead of helping them, will contribute to their condemnation.

4022. If men are so foolish as to reject God, let not the men of God grieve over it. They should do their duty, and leave the rest to God. God knows all the open and secret motives that sway the wicked, and His Plan must ultimately prevail, however much appearances may be against it at any given time.

4023. Man's disobedience and folly are all the more surprising, seeing that—apart from God's greatness and mercy—man is himself such a puny creature, created out of something that is less than a drop in the vast ocean of Existence. Yet man has the hardihood to stand out and dispute with his Maker, and institute idle comparisons as in the next verse !

4024. That is, man thinks that God is like His creatures, who at best have very limited powers, or man draws idle parallels like that mentioned at the end of this verse. 'Who can give life to dry bones, and decomposed ones at that ?' Man certainly cannot, and no power in nature can do that. But why compare the powers and capacities of God's creatures with the powers and capacities of the Creator ? The first creation—out of nothing—is far more difficult for us to imagine than a second or subsequent process for which there is already a basis. And God has power over all things.

A Message and a Qur-an
Making things clear :

70. That it may give admonition
To any (who are) alive,<sup>4016</sup>
And that the charge<sup>4017</sup>
May be proved against those Who reject (Truth).

71. See they not that it is
We Who have created
For them—among the things
Which our hands have fashioned—
Cattle, which are under<sup>4018</sup>
Their dominion ?—

72. And that We have
Subjected them to their (use) ?
Of them some do carry them
And some they eat :

73. And they have (other) profits<sup>4019</sup>
From them (besides), and they
Get (milk) to drink,
Will they not then
Be grateful ?<sup>4020</sup>

74. Yet they take (for worship)
Gods other than God,

ذِكْرُ الْقُرْآنِ مُبِينٌ

٧٠ لِيُنذِرَ مَنِ كَانَ حَيًّا وَيُحَقِّقَ الْقَوْلَ عَلَى
الْكَاذِبِينَ

٧١ أَوَلَيْسَ رَأً أَنَا خَلَقْنَا لَهُمْ مِمَّا عَمِلْنَا يُدْرِكُنَا
أَنْفُسُهُمْ فَمَا تَلَاحُظُونَ

٧٢ وَذَلَّلْنَاهَا لَهُمْ فَمِنْهَا رَكُوبُهُمْ وَمِنْهَا
يَأْكُلُونَ

٧٣ وَلَهُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ
وَمَشَارِبٌ فَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ

٧٤ وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً

4016. "Alive", both in English and Arabic, means not only "having physical life", but having all the active qualities which we associate with life. In religious language, those who are not responsive to the realities of the spiritual world are no better than those who are dead. The Message of God penetrates the hearts of those who are alive in the spiritual sense.

4017. Cf. xxviii, 63. If people reject Truth and Faith after they have been admonished and warned, the charge against them, of wilful rebellion, is proved. They cannot then plead either ignorance or inadvertence.

4018. If they are blind to other Signs of God, they can at least see the simple homely things of life in which they receive so many benefits from God's mercy. How is it that wild animals can be domesticated, and in domestication can be so useful to man? Man can use them for riding or for draught; he can use their flesh for food and drink their milk; he can use their hair or wool. Cf. xvi, 66, 80 and xxiii, 21-22.

4019. Such as skins for leather, furs for warmth, sheep's wool or camel's hair for blankets or textiles, musk for perfume, and so on.

4020. The whole argument turns on this. 'Our teaching is for your own benefit. We confer all these blessings on you, and yet ye turn away from the Giver of all, and run after your own vain imaginations.'

66. If it had been Our Will,<sup>4012</sup>
We could surely have
Blotted out their eyes;
Then should they have
Run about groping for the Path,
But how could they have seen?

٦٦ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَمَمَسْنَاهُمْ أَعْيُنُهُمْ
فَلْيَبْصُرُوا الْخُرَاطَ فَإِنَّهُمْ يَبْصُرُونَ

67. And if it had been
Our Will, We could
Have transformed them
(To remain) in their places;<sup>4013</sup>
Then should they have been Unable to move about,
Nor could they have returned
(After error).

٦٧ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَمَنَعْنَاهُمْ عَلَىٰ مَكَانَتِهِمْ فَمَا
أَسْطَافُوا مَضًى وَلَا يَرْجِعُونَ

SECTION 5.

68. If We grant long life
To any, We cause him
To be reversed in nature;<sup>4014</sup>
Will they not then understand?

٦٨ وَمَنْ نُعِمْ لَهُ أَجْلاً فَكَفَّيْنَاهُ فِي خَلْقِهِ أَفَلَا يَعْقِلُونَ

69. We have not instructed
The (Prophet) in Poetry,<sup>4015</sup>
Nor is it meet for him:
This is no less than

٦٩ وَمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ الشِّعْرَ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا

4013 If God's Plan had been to grant no limited freedom of choice or will to men, He could have created them quite different, or could have transformed them into stationary creatures, either in physical form as in the case of trees, or in moral or spiritual qualities, where there was no possibility either of progress or deterioration. Man would then have been unable to reach the heights of grandeur which are now open to him, or, if he goes wrong, to return through the door of repentance and mercy, and still pursue his path of ascent. But it was God's Plan to give man all these privileges, and man must shoulder all the responsibilities that go with them.

4014 This connects on with the last verse. Everything is possible with God. If you doubt how man can be transformed from his present nature, contemplate the transformations he already undergoes in his present nature at different ages. As a child his powers of mind and body are still undeveloped. As he grows, they grow, and certain moral qualities, such as courage, daring, the will to conquer, unfold themselves. In extreme old age these are again obscured, and a second childhood supervenes. The back of the man who walked proudly straight and erect is now bent. If these transformations take place even in his present nature and constitution, how much easier was it for God to cast him in an immobile mould? But God granted him instead the high possibilities and responsibilities referred to in the last note.

4015 Cf. xxvi. 224 and n. 3237. Here "Poetry" is used as connoting fairy tales, imaginary descriptions, things futile, false, or obscure, such as decadent literature is, whereas the Qur-ān is a practical guide, true and clear.

Of Adam, that ye
Should not worship Satan ;
For that he was to you
An enemy-avowed?—

61. " And that ye should <sup>4007</sup>
Worship Me, (for that) this
Was the Straight Way ?

62. " But he did lead astray
A great multitude of you.
Did ye not, then, understand ? <sup>4008</sup>

63. " This is the Hell <sup>4009</sup>
Of which ye were (Repeatedly) warned !

64. " Embrace ye the (Fire) <sup>4010</sup>
This Day, for that ye
(Persistently) rejected (Truth)."

65. " That Day shall We set
A seal on their mouths. <sup>4011</sup>
But their hands will speak
To Us, and their feet
Bear witness, to all
That they did.

أَدْرَأْنَ أَنْ لَا تَعْبُدُوا الشَّيْطَانَ إِنَّهُ
لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُبِينٌ

⑪ وَأَنَا عَبْدُ وَدِّيَ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ

⑫ وَلَقَدْ أَضَلَّ مِنْكُمْ جِبِلًّا كَثِيرًا أَفَلَمْ
تَكُونُوا تَعْقِلُونَ

⑬ هَذِهِ جَهَنَّمُ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ

⑭ أَصْلَوْهَا الْيَوْمَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ

⑮ الْيَوْمَ نَخْتِمُ عَلَى أَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَتُكَلِّمُنَا
أَيْدِيهِمْ وَتَشْهَدُ أَرْجُلُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

4008. Fourthly, it is pointed out that they were given Understanding ('aql), so that by their own faculties they could have judged their own best interests, and yet they betrayed or misused those faculties, and deliberately threw away their chances! And not only a few, but so many! They went gregariously to ruin in spite of the individual care which their Lord and Cherisher bestowed on them!

4009. Fifthly, the naked fact is now placed before them,—the Hell,—the state of damnation, which they could so easily have avoided!

4010. As they deliberately and persistently rejected all teaching, guidance, and warnings, they are now told to experience the Fire of Punishment, for it is but the consequence of their own acts.

4011. The ungodly will now be dumbfounded. They will be unable to speak or offer any defence. (The consequences of all acts, which follow according to God's Law, are, in Quranic language, attributed to God). But their silence will not matter. Their own hands and feet will speak against them. "Hands and feet" in this connection are symbolical of all the instruments for action which they were given in this life, including their faculties and opportunities. The same extended meaning is to be understood for "eyes" in the following verse. Cf. also xli. 20-21, where eyes, ears, and skins are all mentioned as bearing witness against such as misused them.

56. They and their associates <sup>4002</sup>
Will be in groves
Of (cool) shade, reclining
On Thrones (of dignity);

٥٦ هُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُمْ فِي ظِلِّ عَلَى الْأَرْشَادِ
مُسْكُونُونَ

57. (Every) fruit (enjoyment) <sup>4003</sup>
Will be there for them;
They shall have whatever
They call for;

٥٧ لَهُمْ فِيهَا فَاكِهَةٌ وَلَهُمْ مَا يَدْعُونَ

58. "Peace!"—a Word <sup>4004</sup>
(Of salutation) from a Lord
Most Merciful!

٥٨ سَلَامٌ قَوْلًا مِنْ رَبِّ رَحِيمٍ

59. "And O ye in sin!" <sup>4005</sup>
Get ye apart this Day!

٥٩ وَامْتَرُوا الْيَوْمَ أَيُّهَا الْجَاهِلُونَ

60. "Did I not enjoin" <sup>4006</sup>
On you, O ye children

٦٠ أَلَا أَعْهَدُ لَكُمْ يَبْنَى

4002. Secondly, the joy or happiness is figured to be, not solitary, but shared;—shared by associates like those we imagine in spiritual Love or Marriage; in whose fair faces "some ray divine reflected shines" (Jāmi); whose society is enjoyed in homes of happiness, situated in soothing shade, and furnished with thrones of dignity and peace.

4003. Thirdly, besides any external conditions of Bliss, the Bliss in the Hereafter has an inner quality, expressed by the word fākihātun. The root fākihā means 'to rejoice greatly,' 'to be full of merriment'. The ordinary meaning of 'fruit' attached to fākihāt is derived from the idea that the flavour of choice, ripe fruit, delights the heart of man. Just as akala (to eat) is used for 'enjoyment', (v. 69, n. 776 and xiii. 35, n. 1854), so fākihāt, 'fruit', stands here for that specially choice enjoyment, which goes with a fastidious and well-cultivated taste. In other words, it suggests that highest kind of joy which depends upon the inner faculty rather than any outward circumstance. This is further emphasised by the second clause, "they shall have whatever they call for". Again using the language of this life, the musician's heaven will be full of music; the mathematician's will be full of mathematical symmetry and perfection; the artist's will be full of beauty of form, and so on.

4004. Fourthly, we reach the highest grade of bliss, the mystic salutation "Peace!" from God Most Merciful. Cf. x. 10. That Word sums up the attainment of the final Goal. For it explains the nature of the Most High;—He is not only a Lord and Cherisher, but a Lord Whose supreme glory is Mercy, Peace, and Harmony!

4005. Notice how this finely balanced passage, after reaching the summit of sublimity in describing the state of the Blessed, in the word Salām, gradually takes us down to contemplate the state of the Sinners in a graduated descent.

In the first place, it refers to their negative state, their state of isolation. From this Day of Judgment, they will no longer have the chance of being with the Blessed and perhaps of profiting spiritually by that proximity. The first feature of the Day of Judgment is that it is a Day of Separation—of sorting out. Each soul now finds its own true level, as the period of probation is over.

4006. Secondly, there is a gentle reproach to the wrong-doers, more in sorrow than in anger. They are addressed as "children of Adam", to emphasise two facts, (1) that they have disgraced their ancestry, for Adam after his Fall repented and was forgiven, and the high Destiny of mankind has been the prize open to all his descendants, and (2) that God Most Merciful has throughout the ages continued to warn mankind against the snares laid by Satan, the avowed enemy of man, and that God's Grace was ever on the watch to help all to freedom from those snares.

52. They will say: " Ah !
Woe unto us ! Who
Hath raised us up
From our beds of repose ? " <sup>3998</sup>
(A voice will say :)
" This is what (God)
Most Gracious had promised,
And true was the word
Of the apostles ! "

٥٢ قَالُوا يَتَوَلَّىٰ بَنَاتُنَا مِن بَعَثْنَا مِن مَّرْقَدِنَا هَذَا
مَا وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَصَدَقَ الْمُرْسَلُونَ

53. It will be no more
Than a single Blast, <sup>3999</sup>
When lo ! they will all
Be brought up before Us !

٥٣ إِن كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ جَمِيعٌ
لَّدَيْنَا مُحْضَرُونَ

54. Then, on that Day,
Not a soul will be
Wronged in the least, <sup>4000</sup>
And ye shall but
Be repaid the meeds
Of your past Deeds.

٥٤ فَالْيَوْمَ لَا نُظَلِّمُ نَفْسًا شَيْئًا وَلَا نُنْجِزُونَ إِلَّا
مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

55. Verily the Companions <sup>4001</sup>
Of the Garden shall
That Day have joy
In all that they do ;

٥٥ إِنَّ أَصْحَابَ الْجَنَّةِ الْيَوْمَ فِي شُغْلٍ فَكِهُونَ

3998. The dead will rise as in a stupor, and they will be confused in the new conditions ! They will gradually regain their memory and their personality. They will be reminded that God in His grace and mercy had already announced the Hereafter in their probationary lives, and the word of God's apostles, which then seemed so strange and remote, was true and was now being fulfilled !

3999. Time and Space, as we know them here, will be no more. The whole gathering will be as in the twinkling of an eye. Cf. xxxvi. 49 above.

4000. The Judgment will be on the highest standard of Justice and Grace. Not the least merit will go unrewarded, though the reward will be for the righteous far more than their deserts. No penalty will be exacted but that which the doer himself by his past deeds brought on himself. Cf. xxviii. 84.

4001. We now have the symbolism for the indescribable Bliss of the Hereafter, in the four verses 55-58. Notice the subtle gradation in the description. First, in this verse, we have the nature of the mise en scène and the nature of the joy therein. It will be a Garden, i.e., everything agreeable to see and hear and feel and taste and smell ; our bodily senses will have been transformed, but we can imagine something corresponding to them in our spiritual being : delightfully green lawns and meadows, trees and shrubs ; the murmur of streams and the songs of birds ; the delicate texture of flowers and leaves and the shapes of beauty in clouds and mist ; the flavours of fruits ; and the perfumes of flowers and scents. The joy in the Garden will be an active joy, without fatigue : whatever we do in it, every employment in which we engage there, will be a source of joy without alloy.

Ye are in nothing
But manifest error."

48. Further, they say, " When
Will this promise (come to pass),<sup>3996</sup>
If what ye say is true ? "

49. They will not (have
To) wait for aught
But a single Blast :
It will seize them while
They are yet disputing
Among themselves !

50. No (chance) will they then
Have, by will, to dispose (Of their affairs), nor
To return to their own people !

إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ

④ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
صَادِقِينَ

⑤ مَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً
تَأْخُذُهُمْ وَهُمْ يَخِصِّمُونَ

⑥ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ تَوْصِيَةً وَلَا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ
يَرْجِعُونَ

C. 196.—When the Day comes, men will be taken
(xxxvi 51-83.) Aback. The judgment-seat will be established.
Blessed will be those who attain Salvation :
Their Joy, Satisfaction, and Peace will be crowned
With nearness to their Lord !
Alas for the Sinful, who deliberately
Followed Evil: their own nature
And actions will speak against them :
They will face the realities of Punishment !
Both Revelation and Nature are eloquent
In instructing man for his own good
In the Hereafter, which will come
As a certainty. Praise and Glory to God !

SECTION 4.

51. The trumpet shall be <sup>now</sup>
Sounded. when behold !
From the sepulchres (men)
Will rush forth
To their Lord !

⑦ وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ فَلَإِذَا هُمْ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ إِلَىٰ
رَبِّهِمْ يَنْسِلُونَ

3996 In addition to the arrogance and blasphemy referred to in the last note, they not only refuse Faith, but they taunt the men of Faith as if the men of Faith were dealing in falsehood : " If there is a Hereafter, tell us when it will be ! " The answer is : " It will come sooner than you expect : you will yet be disputing about things of Faith and neglecting your opportunities in Life, when the Hour will sound, and you will have no time even to make your dispositions in this life : you will be cut off from everyone whom you thought to be near and dear to you, or able to help you ! "

3997. Traditionally, the angel who will sound the Trumpet is Isrâfil, but the name does not occur in the Qur-An. The Trumpet is mentioned in many places : e.g., vi. 73 ; lxxviii. 18, etc.

44. Except by way of Mercy
From Us, and by way
Of (worldly) convenience
(To serve them) for a time.<sup>3991</sup>

45. When they are told,
"Fear ye that which is<sup>3992</sup>
Before you and that which
Will be after you, in order
That ye may receive Mercy."
(They turn back).

46. Not a Sign comes to them
From among the Signs<sup>3993</sup>
Of their Lord, but they
Turn away therefrom.

47. And when they are told,
"Spend ye of (the bounties)
With which God
Has provided you," the Unbelievers
Say to those who believe:
"Shall we then feed those
Whom, if God had so willed,<sup>3994</sup>
He would have fed, (Himself)?—

⑪ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَمَتَاعًا إِلَىٰ حِينٍ

⑫ وَلَٰذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّقُوا مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيكُمْ
وَمَا خَلْفَكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ

⑬ وَمَا أَنَا بِمُزَكِّيًا لَهُمْ أَلَّا يَتَّقُوا آيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ لَآ
كَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ

⑭ وَلَٰذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ انْفِقُوا إِنَّمَا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْظِمُ
مَنْ لَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ أَنْظِمَهُ

3991. Cf. xvi. 8) God has given man all these wonderful things in nature and utilities produced by the skill and intelligence which God has given to man. Had it not been for these gifts, man's life would have been precarious on sea or land or in the air. It is only God's Mercy that saves man from destruction for man's own follies, and that saving or the enjoyment of these utilities and conveniences he should not consider as eternal: they are only given for a time, in this life of probation.

3992. Man should consider and beware of the consequences of his past and guard against the consequences in his future. The present is only a fleeting moment poised between the past and the future, and gone even while it is being mentioned or thought about. Man should review his whole life and prepare for the Hereafter. If he does so, God is Merciful: He will forgive, and give strength for a better and higher life in the future. But this kind of teaching does not suit those steeped in this ephemeral life. They are bored, and turn away from it, to their own loss.

3993. The Signs of God are many, in His great world,—in nature, in the heart of man, and in the Revelation sent through His apostles. They turn away from all of them, as a man who has ruined his eyesight turns away from the light.

3994. To selfish men, the good may make an appeal, and say: "Look! God has given you wealth, or influence, or knowledge, or talent. Why not spend some of it in charity, i.e., for the good of your fellow-creatures?" But the selfish only think of themselves and laugh such teaching to scorn.

3995. They are too full of themselves to have a corner in their hearts for others. "If," they say, "God gave them nothing, why should we?" There is arrogance in this as well as blasphemy: arrogance in thinking that they are favoured because of their merits, and blasphemy in laying the blame of other people's misfortunes on God. They further try to turn the tables on the Believers by pretending that the Believers are entirely on a wrong track. They forget that all men are on probation and trial: they hold their gifts on trust: those apparently less favoured, in that they have fewer of this world's goods, may be really more fortunate, because they are learning patience, self-reliance, and the true value of things ephemeral which is apt to be very much exaggerated in men's eyes.

40. It is not permitted
To the Sun to catch up<sup>3986</sup>
The Moon, nor can
The Night outstrip the Day:
Each (just) swims along<sup>3987</sup>
In (its own) orbit
(According to Law).
41. And a Sign for them
Is that We bore<sup>3988</sup>
Their race (through the Flood)
In the loaded Ark;
42. And We have created
For them similar (vessels)<sup>3989</sup>
On which they ride.
43. If it were Our Will,<sup>3990</sup>
We could drown them:
Then would there be
No helper (to hear
Their cry), nor could
They be delivered,

① لَا الشَّمْسُ يَنْبَغِي لَهَا أَنْ تُدْرِكَ
الْقَمَرَ وَلَا اللَّيْلُ سَابِقُ النَّهَارِ وَكُلٌّ فِي
فَلَاقٍ يَسْجُونَ

② وَمَا يَكُونُ لَنَا أَنْ نَحْمِلَهُمْ فِي الْفُلِ
الْمَشْحُونِ

③ وَخَلَقْنَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مِثْلِهِ مَا يَرْكَبُونَ

④ وَإِنْ نَشَاءُ نُفِثْهُمْ فَلَا صَرِيحَ
لَهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنْقَذُونَ

3986. Though the sun and the moon both traverse the belt of the Zodiac, and their motions are different, they never catch up each other. When the sun and the moon are on the same side and on a line with the earth there is a solar eclipse, and when on opposite sides in a line, there is a lunar eclipse, but there is no clash. Their Laws are fixed by God, and form the subject of study in astronomy. Similarly Night and Day follow each other, but being opposites cannot coincide, a fit emblem of the opposition of Good and Evil, Truth and Falsehood: see also n. 3982 above.

3988. Besides the beauty of the Night, with the stars and the planets "swimming" in their rounded courses according to perfect Law, suggesting both symmetry and harmony, there are other Signs touching closely the life of man himself, projected through Time, in the past history of his race and in his own personal experience. The past history of his race takes us to the story of the Flood, which is symbolical of the deliverance of man from the forces of nature. Noah's Ark is the symbol of that deliverance. But the symbol still remains as a memorial; the Ark was a "Sign to all Peoples": xxix. 15. Man's own personal experience is appealed to in every ship afloat: see next note.

3989. The stately ships sailing through the seas, heavier than air, yet carrying man and his goods safely and smoothly across the waters, are another Sign for man. Ships are not mentioned, but (vessels) like the Ark: they would cover all kinds of sea-craft, but also the modern aircraft, which "swims" through air instead of through water.

3990. Were it not that God gives man the intelligence and ingenuity to construct and manage sea-craft and air-craft, the natural laws of gravity would lead to the destruction of any who attempted to pass through sea or air. It is the gift (mercy) of God that saves him.

36. Glory to God, Who created
In pairs all things that<sup>3981</sup>
The earth produces, as well as
Their own (human) kind
And (other) things of which
They have no knowledge.

٣٦ سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَزْوَاجَ كُلَّهَا
مِمَّا تُنبِئُ الْأَرْضُ وَمِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَمِمَّا لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

37. And a Sign for them
Is the Night: We withdraw<sup>3982</sup>
Therefrom the Day, and behold
They are plunged in darkness;

٣٧ وَآيَةٌ لَهُمُ اللَّيْلُ نَسْلَخُ مِنْهُ النَّهَارَ فَإِذَا
هُمْ مُظْلِمُونَ

38. And the Sun
Runs his course
For a period determined<sup>3983</sup>
For him: that is
The decree of (Him),
The Exalted in Might,
The All-Knowing.

٣٨ وَالشَّمْسُ تَجْرِي لِمُسْتَقَرٍّ لَهَا ذَلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ
الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ

39. And the Moon,—
We have measured for her<sup>3984</sup>
Mansions (to traverse)
Till she returns
Like the old (and withered)
Lower part of a date-stalk.<sup>3985</sup>

٣٩ وَالْقَمَرَ
قَدَرْنَاهُ مَنَازِلَ حَتَّىٰ عَادَ كَالْعُرْجُونِ الْقَدِيرِ

3981. The mystery of sex runs through all creation,—in man, in animal life, in vegetable life, and possibly in other things of which we have no knowledge. Then there are pairs of opposite forces in nature, e.g., positive and negative electricity, etc. The atom itself consists of a positively charged nucleus or proton, surrounded by negatively charged electrons. The constitution of matter itself is thus referred to pairs of opposite energies.

3982. "Withdrawing the Day from the Night" is a striking phrase and very apt. The Day or the Light is the positive thing. The Night or Darkness is merely negative. We cannot withdraw the negative. But if we withdraw the real thing, the positive, which filled the void, nothing is left but the void. The whole of this section deals with Signs or Symbols,—things in the physical world around us, from which we can learn the deepest spiritual truths if we earnestly apply ourselves to them.

3983. Mustaqarr may mean: (1) a limit of time, a period determined, as in vi, 67, or (2) a place of rest or quiescence; or (3) a dwelling place, as in ii, 36. I think the first meaning is best applicable here; but some Commentators take the second meaning. In that case the simile would be that of the sun running a race while he is visible to us, and taking a rest during the night to prepare himself to renew his race the following day. His stay with the antipodes appears to us as his period of rest.

3984. The lunar mansions are the 28 divisions of the Zodiac, which are supposed to mark the daily course of the moon in the heavens from the time of the new moon to the time when the moon fades away in her "inter-lunar swoon", an expressive phrase coined by the poet Shelley.

3985. Urjūn: a raceme of dates or of a date-palm; or the base or lower part of the raceme. When it becomes old, it becomes yellow, dry, and withered, and curves up like a sickle. Hence the comparison with the sickle-like appearance of the new moon. The moon runs through all her phases, increasing and decreasing, until she disappears, and then reappears as a little thin curve,

32. But each one of them
All--will be brought
Before Us (for judgment).

وَلَا يَكُلُّ لَنَا جَمِيعٌ لَدَيْنَا مُخْضَرُونَ

C. 195.—Are there not Signs enough around you
(xxxvi 33 50.) To bear witness to God, and His saving Grace?
The earth dies and revives: there are mysteries
Of Life and Sex, of Light and the Stars
And Planets in heaven, that follow
Their orbits by Law and in harmony!
There are the ships and the modes of transport
By which man can conquer the forces
Around him with God-given Gifts!
Learn the Law of Goodness from them
And believe in the Hereafter: it will come
When least expected. Be prepared for God!

SECTION 3.

33. ~~A~~ Sign for them
Is the earth that is dead: <sup>3977</sup>
We do give it life,
And produce grain therefrom,
Of which ye do eat.
34. And We produce therein
Orchards with date-palms <sup>3978</sup>
And vines, and We cause
Springs to gush forth therein:
35. That they may enjoy <sup>3979</sup>
The fruits of this (artistry):
It was not their hands <sup>3980</sup>
That made this:
Will they not then give thanks?

وَايَةٌ لَهُمُ الْأَرْضُ الْمَيِّتَةُ أَحْيَيْنَاهَا
وَأَخْرَجْنَا مِنْهَا حَبًّا فَمِنْهُ يَأْكُلُونَ

وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا جَنَّاتٍ مِنْ نَجِيلٍ وَأَعْنَابٍ
وَفَجَّرْنَا فِيهَا مِنَ الْعُيُونِ

لِيَأْكُلُوا مِنْ ثَمَرِهِ وَمَا عَمِلَتْهُ أَيْدِيهِمْ
أَفَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ

3977. Lest any one should say, 'if they are destroyed, how can they be brought before the Judgment-seat' a symbol is pointed to. The earth is to all intents and purposes dead in the winter, but God revives it in the spring C/. ii 164, xxx. 19, and many other passages to that effect.

3978. Date-palms and vines stand as symbols for fruit-trees of all kinds, these being the characteristic fruits of Arabia. Grain was mentioned in the last verse; fruit is mentioned now. All that is necessary for food and the satisfaction of the choicest palate is produced from what looks like inert soil, fertilised by rain and springs. Here is wonderful evidence of the artistry and providence of God.

3979. Literally, eat (akala). C/. vii 19, n. 1004 and v. 69, n. 77b. The same wide meaning of profit, satisfaction, and enjoyment may be attached to the word "eat," in verse 33 above.

3980. Man may till the soil and sow the seed, but the productive forces of nature were not made by man's hands. They are the handiwork and artistry of God, and are evidence of God's providence for His creatures. See n. 3978 above.

27. " For that my Lord <sup>3972</sup>
Has granted me Forgiveness
And has enrolled me
Among those held in honour ! "

٣٧ بِمَا غَفَرَ لِي رَبِّي وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمُكْرَمِينَ

28. And We sent not down
Against his People, after him,
Any hosts from heaven,
Nor was it needful
For Us so to do.

٣٨ وَمَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَى قَوْمِهِ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ مِنْ جُنْدٍ
مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا كُنَّا مُنْزِلِينَ

29. It was no more than
A single mighty Blast, <sup>3973</sup>
And behold ! they were (like ashes) <sup>3974</sup>
Quenched and silent.

٣٩ إِن كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ
خَامِدُونَ

30. Ah ! alas for (My) servants !
There comes not an apostle
To them but they mock him ! <sup>3975</sup>

٤٠ يَا حَسْرَةً عَلَى الْعِبَادِ مَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ رَسُولٍ إِلَّا
كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ

31. See they not how many
Generations before them
We destroyed ? Not to them <sup>3976</sup>
Will they return :

٤١ أَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ
مِنَ الْقُرُونِ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِمْ لَا يَرْجِعُونَ

3972. This man was just a simple honest soul, but he heard and obeyed the call of the apostles and obtained his spiritual desire for himself and did his best to obtain salvation for his people. For he loved his people and respected his ancestral traditions as far as they were good, but had no hesitation in accepting the new Light when it came to him. All his past was forgiven him and he was raised to dignity and honour in the Kingdom of Heaven.

3973. God's Justice or Punishment does not necessarily come with pomp and circumstance, nor have the forces of human evil or wickedness the power to require the exertion of mighty spiritual forces to subdue them. A single mighty Blast—either the rumbling of an earthquake, or a great and violent wind—was sufficient in this case (cf. xi 67 and n. 136) (which describes the fate of the Thamūd; also, n. 3463 to xxix. 40).

3974. Cf. xxi. 15. 'They had made a great deal of noise in their time, but they were reduced to silence, like spent ashes.'

3975. Cf. vi. 10 and many other passages of similar import. Ignorant men mock at God's apostles, or any one who takes Religion seriously. But they do not reflect that such levity reacts on themselves. Their own lives are ruined and they cease to count. If they study history, they will see that countless generations were destroyed before them because they did not take Truth seriously and undermined the very basis of their individual and collective existence.

My servants is here equivalent to "men" God regrets the folly of men, especially as He cherishes them as His own servants.

3976 Not to them will they return. What do the two pronouns them and they refer to? Commentators and translators have construed them differently, and some of them evade the question. To my mind the best construction seems to be: the generations which we have destroyed before the people addressed ('do they not see?') will not be restored to the people addressed: generations (qurūn) standing for the periods of prosperity and good fortune enjoyed by the ancestors. They have all been wiped out: they will never be restored, but all people will be brought before the Judgment-seat for giving an account of their deeds.

22. " It would not be reasonable
In me if I did not
Serve Him Who created me,<sup>3968</sup>
And to Whom ye shall
(All) be brought back.

﴿وَمَا لِيَ لَا أَعْبُدَ الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي وَإِلَيْهِ رُجْعُونَ﴾

23. " Shall I take (other) gods
Besides Him? If (God)
Most Gracious should
Intend some adversity for me,<sup>3969</sup>
Of no use whatever
Will be their intercession
For me, nor can they Deliver me.

﴿أَتَأْخُذُنِ دُونَهُ آلِهَةً
إِنْ يُرِيدَ الْإِزْمَارُ بَصِيرًا لَّا تُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ
شَيْئًا وَلَا يُنْقِذُونِ﴾

24. " I would indeed,
If I were to do so,
Be in manifest Error.

﴿إِنِّي لَإِنَّمَا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ﴾

25. " For me, I have faith
In the Lord of you (all):<sup>3970</sup>
Listen, then, to me!"

﴿إِنِّي آمَنْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ فَاسْمَعُونِ﴾

26. It was said: "Enter thou<sup>3971</sup>
The Garden." He said:
"Ah me! Would that
My People knew (what I know)!—

﴿قِيلَ ادْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ
قَالَ يَلَيْتَ قَوْمِي يَعْلَمُونَ﴾

3968. The argument throughout is that of intense personal conviction for the individual himself, coupled with an appeal to his people to follow that conviction and get the benefit of the spiritual satisfaction which he has himself achieved. He says in effect: 'how is it possible for me to do otherwise than to serve and adore my Maker? I shall return to Him, and so will you, and all this applies to you as much as to me.' Note how effective is the transition from the personal experience to the collective appeal.

3969. The next plea is that for exclusive service to God. 'Suppose it were proper to worship other gods—Mammon, Self, or imaginary deities set up as idols,—yet of what benefit would that be? All power is in God. In His universal Plan, He may think fit to give me some sorrow or punishment: would these subordinate deities be able to help me or intercede for me with Him? Not at all. What use would they be? In fact I should obviously be going astray,—wandering from the true Path.'

3970. Again a transition from the assured personal conviction to the appeal to all to profit by the speaker's experience. 'I have found the fullest satisfaction for my soul in God. He is my God, but He is your God also. My experience can be yours also. Will you not follow my advice, and prove for yourselves that the Lord is indeed good?

3971. This godly and righteous man entered into the Peace of God, typified by the Garden of Rest and Beauty. Perhaps it is implied that he suffered martyrdom. But even then his thoughts were always with his People. He regretted their obstinacy and want of understanding, and wished even then that they might repent and obtain salvation, but they were obdurate and suffered for their sins as we learn from verses 28-29 below.

From you : if ye desist not,
We will certainly stone you,
And a grievous punishment
Indeed will be inflicted
On you by us."

لَئِنْ لَّمْ تَنْتَهُوا لَنَرْجُمَنَّكُمْ
وَلَنَسَنَنَّكُمْ مِنَّا عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

19. They said : " Your evil omens
Are with yourselves :<sup>3964</sup>
(Deem ye this an evil omen).
If ye are admonished ?
Nay, but ye are a people
Transgressing all bounds !"<sup>3965</sup>

١٩ قَالُوا طَائِفُكُمْ مَعَكُمْ أَوْ إِن ذُكِّرْتُمْ
بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّسْرِفُونَ

20. Then there came running,
From the farthest part
Of the City, a man,<sup>3966</sup>
Saying, " O my People !
Obey the apostles :

٢٠ وَجَاءَ مِنْ أَقْصَا الْمَدِينَةِ رَجُلٌ يَسْعَى قَالِ
يَقَوْمِ اتَّبِعُوا الْمُرْسَلِينَ

21. " Obey those who ask
No reward of you
22 (For themselves), and who have
30 Themselves received Guidance."<sup>3967</sup>

٢١ اتَّبِعُوا مَنْ لَا يَسْئَلُكُمْ أَجْرًا وَهُمْ مُنْهَدُونَ

3964. 'What ye call omens arise from your own ill-deeds. Do you suppose that a man who comes to warn you and teach you the better way brings you ill-luck? Fie upon you!'

3965. To call Good evil and accuse of falsehood men of truth who come unselfishly to bring the message of the beneficent Mercy of God, is the very height of extravagance and transgression

3966. While the wealthy, influential, and fashionable men in the City were doubtful of God's providence and superstitiously believed in Chance and evil omens, the 'Truth was seen by a man in the outskirts of the City, a man held in low esteem by the arrogant. He had believed, and he wanted his City to believe. So, in Arabia, when the arrogant chiefs of the Quraish exiled the holy Prophet, it was men from Medina and from the outskirts, who welcomed him, believed in him, and supported his mission in every way.

3967. Prophets do not seek their own advantage. They serve God and humanity. Their hope lies in the good pleasure of God, to Whose service they are devoted. Cf. x. 72 ; xii. 104 ; etc

15. The (people) said : " Ye are Only men like ourselves ;<sup>3959</sup>
And (God) Most Gracious
Sends no sort of revelation :<sup>3960</sup>
Ye do nothing but lie."

﴿قَالُوا مَا أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا وَمَا
أَنْزَلَ الرَّحْمَنُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنْ أَنْتُمْ
إِلَّا تَكْذِبُونَ﴾

16. They said : " Our Lord doth
Know that we have been sent
On a mission to you :<sup>3961</sup>

﴿قَالُوا رَبَّنَا يَعْلَمُ إِنَّآ إِلَيْكُمْ لَمُرْسَلُونَ﴾

17. "And our duty is only
To proclaim the clear Message."<sup>3962</sup>

﴿وَمَا عَلَيْنَا إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ﴾

18. The (people) said : " For us,
We augur an evil omen"<sup>3963</sup>

﴿قَالُوا إِنَّا تَطَيَّرْنَا بِكُمْ﴾

3959. Cf. Acts, xiv, 15, where Paul and Barnabas say, in the city of Lystra near the modern Konia : " We also are men with like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities..."

3960. They not only reject the mission of the particular apostles, but they deny the possibility of God's sending such mission. Note how they convict themselves of inconsistency by using God's name " Most Gracious ", even though they may mean it ironically !

3961. Just as a Messenger whose credentials are doubted can refer to the authority granted by his Principal, as the highest proof of his mission, so these men of God invoke the authority of God in proof of their mission. In effect they say : " The knowledge of God is perfect, and He knows that our mission is from Him ; if you do not, it is your own misfortune."

3962. Then they proceed to explain what their mission is. It is not to force them but to convince them. It is to proclaim openly and clearly God's Law, which they were breaking,—to denounce their sins and to show them the better path. If they were obstinate, it was their own loss. If they were rebellious against God, the punishment rested with God.

3963. Tāir means a bird. Like the Roman augurs, the Arabs had a superstition about deriving omens from birds. Cf. the English word " auspicious ", from the Latin avis, a bird, and specio, I see. From Tāir (bird) came ta-taiyara, or iffaiyara, to draw evil omens. Because the men of God denounced evil, the evil-doers thought that they brought ill luck to them. As a matter of fact any evil that happened to them was the result of their own ill-deeds. Cf. vii, 131, where the Egyptians ascribed their calamities to the ill-luck brought by Moses : and xxvii, 47, where the Thamūd ascribed ill-luck to the preaching of Balīh.

In a clear Book <sup>3956</sup>
(Of evidence).

فِي لِمَامٍ مُبِينٍ

SECTION 2.

13. Set forth to them,
By way of a parable,
The (story of) the Companions <sup>3957</sup>
Of the City. Behold,
There came apostles to it.

⑬ وَأَضْرِبْ لَهُمْ مَثَلًا أَصْحَابَ
الْقَرْيَةِ إِذْ جَاءَهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ

14. When We (first) sent
To them two apostles,
They rejected them :
But We strengthened them <sup>3958</sup>
With a third : they said,
" Truly, we have been sent
On a mission to you."

⑭ إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمُ اثْنَيْنِ فَكَذَّبُوهُمَا
فَعَزَّزْنَا بِثَالِثٍ فَقَالُوا إِنَّا إِلَهُكُم مُّرْسَلُونَ

3956. C/. ii. 124 and n. 124. All our account will be exactly preserved as in a book of record.

3957. Many of the classical Commentators have supposed that the City referred to was Antioch. Now Antioch was one of the most important cities in North Syria in the first century of the Christian era. It was a Greek city founded by Seleucus Nicator, one of the successors of Alexander, about 300 B.C. in memory of his father Antiochus. It was close to the sea, and had its sea-port at Seleucia. Soon after Christ his disciples successfully preached there, and they "were called Christians first in Antioch": Acts, xi. 26. It afterwards became the seat of a most important Bishopric of the Christian Church. In the story told here "by way of a parable", the City rejected the Message, and the City was destroyed : xxxvi. 29. Following Ibn Kathir, I reject the identification with Antioch decisively. No name, or period, or place is mentioned in the text. The significance of the story is in the lessons to be derived from it as a parable, for which see the next note. That is independent of name, time, or place.

3958. God sends His apostles or teachers of Truth by ones and twos, and where the opposition is great and He considers it necessary, he supports them with others. Their mission is divine, but they do not claim to be more than men. This is used by the unjust and the ungodly as if it were a reproach, whereas it should commend them to men, for mankind is glorified by such commission and by God's Self-revelation. The Message is clearly expressed in human language, but because it exposes all evil, men think it unlucky, as it checks their selfishness. It is often the poorest and most despised of mankind, from the outskirts or "farthest parts of the City", that accept the Message and are willing to work and die for it. The stiff-necked resist and accomplish their own destruction.

11.. Thou canst but admonish <sup>3951</sup>

Such a one as follows

The Message and fears

The (Lord) Most Gracious,

unseen : <sup>3952</sup>

Give such a one, therefore, <sup>3953</sup>

Good tidings, of Forgiveness

And a Reward most generous.

⑪ إِنَّمَا نُنذِرُ مَنِ اتَّبَعَ الذِّكْرَ وَخَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنَ
الْغَيْبَ فَبَشِّرْهُ بِمَغْفِرَةٍ وَأَجْرٍ كَرِيمٍ

12. Verily We shall give life <sup>3954</sup>

To the dead, and We record

That which they send before

And that which they leave <sup>3955</sup>

Behind, and of all things

Have We taken account

⑫ إِنَّا نَحْنُ نُحْيِي الْمَوْتَى وَنَكْتُبُ مَا قَدَّمُوا
وَأَثَرَهُمْ وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ أَحْصَيْنَاهُ

3951. c'f xxxv 18. As far as those are concerned, who have obstinately delivered themselves to evil, the preaching of God's Message has no appeal, because their own will shuts them out. But there are others who are anxious to hear God's Message and receive God's grace. They love God and fear to offend against His holy Law, and their fear is not merely superficial but deep-seated: for while they do not yet see God nor do other people see them, they have the same sense of God's presence as if they saw Him and their religion is not a mere pose, "to be seen of men"

3952. See n 3952 to xxxv. 18. Unseen is here adverbial: their reverence for God is unaffected by the fact that they do not see him, or that other people do not observe them, because their attitude arises out of a genuine love for God.

3953. To such persons the Message of God comes as a gospel or good news: because it shows them the way of forgiveness for anything wrong in their past, and it gives them the promise of a full reward in the future, —generous beyond any deserts of their own, but arising out of God's unbounded Bounty

3954. All this is possible, because there is the assurance of a Hereafter, in which God will be all-in-all and evil will no longer bestride the world, as the term of its respite will have expired.

3955. Our deeds, good and bad, go to God's Judgment-seat before us. They will of course be brought to our account; but our account will also be swelled by the example we left behind us and the consequences of our deeds, that will come into play or continue to operate after our earthly life has ceased. Our moral and spiritual responsibility is therefore much wider than as affects our own person.

7. ~~The~~ Word is proved true<sup>3947</sup>
Against the greater part of them :
For they do not believe.

⑦ لَقَدْ حَقَّ الْقَوْلُ عَلَى أَكْثَرِهِمْ
لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ

8. We have put yokes<sup>3948</sup>
Round their necks
Right up to their chins,
So that their heads are Forced up (and they cannot see).

⑧ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا فِي أَعْنَاقِهِمْ أَغْلَالًا
فِيهِمْ تُفَخَّرُونَ

9. And We have put
A bar in front of them<sup>3949</sup>
And a bar behind them,
And further, We have Covered them up; so that
They cannot see.

⑨ وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ سَكًّا
وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ سَكًّا فَأَغْشَيْنَاهُمْ
فَهُمْ لَا يَبْصُرُونَ

10. The same is it to them<sup>3950</sup>
Whether thou admonish them
Or thou do not admonish
Them : they will not believe.

⑩ وَسَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ أُنذِرْتَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ تُنذِرْهُمْ
لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ

3947. Cf. vii. 30, and n. 1012; also xvii. 16, and n. 2193. If people deliberately and obstinately refuse "to believe", i.e. to receive guidance and admonition, the result must be that God's grace and mercy are withdrawn from them. Their own perversity inevitably blocks up all channels for their correction.

3948. Man's misdeeds inevitably call forth the operation of God's Law, and therefore the result is in Quranic language attributed to God. The result of man's wilful disobedience is now described in a series of metaphors. (1) Refusal of God's Light means less and less freedom of action for man: the yoke of sin is fastened round man's neck, and it gets more and more tightened, right up to the chin. (2) The head is forced up and kept in a stiff position, so that the mind becomes befogged. Moral obliquity taints the intellect. According to the Sanskrit proverb, "When destruction comes near, understanding is turned upside down." According to the Latin proverb, "Whom God wishes to destroy, He first makes demented." In other words, iniquity not only is folly, but leads deeper and deeper into folly, narrowness of vision, and blindness to the finer things of life. (3) This state of deprivation of Grace leads to such a decline in spiritual vitality that the victim can neither progress nor turn back, as explained in the next verse.

3949 Their retreat is cut off, and their progress is impossible. Further, the Light that should come from above is cut off, so that they become totally devoid of any hope, and the last gleam of any spiritual understanding is extinguished in them.

3950. When the stage just described is reached, Revelation or spiritual teaching ceases to have any value for them. Why then preach? The answer is given in the verses following.

Sūra XXXVI.

Yā-Sin (being Abbreviated Letters).*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Yā-Sin.<sup>3943</sup>
2. By the Qur-ān,<sup>3944</sup>
Full of Wisdom,—
3. Thou art indeed
One of the apostles,
4. On a Straight Way.
5. It is a Revelation<sup>3945</sup>
Sent down by (Him),
The Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful,
6. In order that thou mayest
Admonish a people,
Whose fathers had received<sup>3946</sup>
No admonition, and who
Therefore remain heedless
(Of the Signs of God).

① يٰس

② وَالْقُرْآنِ الْحَكِيمِ

③ إِنَّكَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

④ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

⑤ نَزِيلَ الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ

⑥ لِنُنْذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أُنْذِرَ آبَاؤُهُمْ
فَهُمْ غَافِلُونَ

3943 Some Commentators take Yā to be the vocative particle, and Sin to be the abbreviation of insān, Sin being the only "Firm Letter" in the word. In that case it would be an address to man, "O man!" But "man" in this connection is understood to mean the Leader of man, the noblest of mankind, Muhammad the Prophet of God. For this Sūra deals mainly with the holy Prophet and his Message. But no dogmatic assertion can be made about the Abbreviated Letters, for which see Appendix I, following S. II. Yā Sin is usually treated as a mystic title of the holy Prophet.

3944 The best credentials of the holy Prophet are: (1) the revelation which he brought ("the Qur-ān"), and the heroic unselfish life which he led ("on a Straight Way"). The appeal is therefore made on the testimony of these two facts.

3945 The Revelation again is characterised by two attributes which we find most helpful in contemplating the nature of God. It has force and power: for God is Exalted in Might and able to enforce His Will. And it brings a Message of hope and mercy: for God is Most Merciful. By its characteristics we know that the Qur-ān is from God.

3946. The Quraish had received no Prophet before, and therefore one of themselves was made the vehicle for the universal Message to the whole world. See C. 12-15.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXVI (Yā-Sīn).

See Introduction to S. xxxiv. This particular Sūra is devoted to the holy Prophet and the Revelation which he brought. The Abbreviated Letters Yā-Sīn are usually construed as a title of the holy Prophet: But it is not permissible to be dogmatic about the meaning of Abbreviated Letters. See Appendix I after S. ii. This Sūra is considered to be "the heart of the Qur-ān", as it concerns the central figure in the teaching of Islam and the central doctrine of Revelation and the Hereafter. As referring to the Hereafter, it is appropriately read in solemn ceremonies after death.

In chronology it belongs to the middle or early Meccan period.

In S. xxxvii. 130 (a cognate Sūra) occurs the word Il-yā-sīn: See n. 4115-A.

Summary.—The Qur-ān is full of wisdom, and those are unfortunate who cannot profit by it: Parable of the City that defied—all but one—the Messengers of Grace and Mercy (xxxvi. 1-32, and C. 194).

Various Signs of God in nature and Revelation (xxxvi. 33-50, and C. 195).

The Resurrection and the Hereafter (xxxvi. 51-83, and C. 195).

C. 194.—The wisdom of Revelation—the Qur-ān received
(xxxvi. 1-32.) Through the holy Prophet—is a guide
To the Straight Path, and a warning against
The terrible state in which the yokes
Of Sin enslave us. The righteous receive it
With joy, for they believe in the Hereafter.
Behold, there was once a City, to which
Came two righteous men with the Gospel of Truth,
But they were rejected and persecuted: they were joined
By a third. But the City refused to believe
Or to turn from iniquity. Only one man was found
In its outskirts, to bear witness to Truth,
Faith, and Righteousness, and he did suffer
Martyrdom. He attained Peace, but mourned
For his people, in that they shut the gates
Of Salvation and God's Mercy on themselves.
Alas for man's short-sighted folly in defying
The Grace that would shield and deliver him!

44. Do they not travel
Through the earth, and see<sup>3939</sup>
What was the End
Of those before them,—
Though they were superior
To them in strength?
Nor is God to be frustrated
By anything whatever
In the heavens
Or on earth: for He
Is All-Knowing, All-Powerful.

45. If God were to punish<sup>3940</sup>
Men according to what
They deserve, He would not
Leave on the back
Of the (earth) a single<sup>3941</sup>
Living creature: but He Gives them respite
For a stated Term:
When their Term expires,
Verily God has in His sight<sup>3942</sup>
All His servants.

﴿٤٤﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
وَكَانُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ
لِيُغْضِرَهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُ
كَانَ عَلِيمًا فَذِيرًا

﴿٤٥﴾ وَلَوْ يُؤَاخِذُ اللَّهُ النَّاسَ بِمَا كَسَبُوا مَا تَرَكَ عَلَى
ظَهْرِهَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَلَكِنْ يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ
مُتَّعٍ فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهُمْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
بِعِبَادِهِ بَصِيرًا

3939 (S. xxx. 9. If no other argument will convince men who follow evil, let them travel through space or time, and learn from the experience of others. Evil always came to an evil end. Let not any one individual or generation think that it could escape by some special trick or power. Far wiser and more powerful men were personally brought to account for their iniquities.

3940. (S. xvi. 61. There would be no salvation for any of us if we went merely on our deserts. It is God's mercy that saves us and helps us to a better and better life until we attain the goal of our existence.

3941. A single living creature. This may refer to man, the living crawling creature, with so many possibilities and yet so many weaknesses. But it may mean all creatures literally, as the life of this planet more or less centres round the life of man. He has been given dominion on this earth, and in his state of purity he is God's vicegerent.

3942. Has in His sight all creatures: i.e. to deal with, accordingly to His laws of Forbearance, Mercy, and Justice: see n. 3937 above. The respite does not mean that any one escapes His vigilant eye. All will be dealt with according to their deeds, with justice tempered with Mercy.

Verily He is Most Forbearing,<sup>3934</sup>
Oft-Forgiving.

إِنَّهُ كَانَ حَلِيمًا غَفُورًا

42. They swore their strongest oaths
By God that if a warner
Came to them, they would
Follow his guidance better<sup>3935</sup>
Than any (other) of the Peoples :
But when a warner came
To them, it has only
Increased their flight
(From righteousness),—

④ وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَمْعًا أَنَّهُمْ
نَذِيرَاتِي كُونُوا أَهْدَىٰ مِنْ أَهْدَىٰ
الْأُمَمِ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ مَّا زَادَهُمْ
إِلَّا تَفُورًا

43. On account of their arrogance
In the land and their
Plotting of Evil,<sup>3936</sup>
But the plotting of Evil
Will hem in only
The authors thereof. Now
Are they but looking for
The way the ancients<sup>3937</sup>
Were dealt with? But
No change wilt thou find
In God's way (of dealing) :<sup>3938</sup>
No turning off wilt thou
Find in God's way (of dealing).

⑤ أَسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَكْرُ
السَّيِّئِ لَا يَحْصِي الْمَكْرُ السَّيِّئِ
إِلَّا بِأَهْلِيهِ فَمَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا سُنَّتَ
الْأَوَّلِينَ فَلَن تَجِدَ لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا وَلَن
تَجِدَ لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَحْوِيلًا

3934. God's world goes on according to the laws and decrees established by Him. There are occasional lapses and deviations on the part of His creatures. But He does not punish every petty fault. One of His merciful qualities is that of repeated forbearance and forgiveness.

3935. Cf. vi. 157. In the first instance this referred to the Quraish. Their attitude to the People of the Book had been one of lofty superiority or of insincere excuses. They twitted the Jews and Christians with deviating from their own lights and their own revelations; and for themselves, they said they had received no direct revelation from God, or they would have shown themselves the most amenable to discipline, the most ready to follow God's Law. This was before the holy Prophet received his mission from God. When he received it and announced it, they turned away from it. They fled from it and put a greater and greater distance between it and themselves. But this is the way of all sinners. They find much to carp at in others, and much to excuse in themselves. But when all grounds for excuse are removed, they will be found, not nearer, but farther and farther away, from truth and righteousness.

3937. In all history, men who followed evil were dealt with in three stages by God: (1) He was forbearing and merciful, and gave them respite; (2) He sent them admonition through His Messengers, or His Signs, or His revelation; (3) He dealt out justice and punishment. At any given moment, those given to iniquity may well be asked: "Are you going to wait through all these stages or are you going at once to repent, obtain forgiveness, and walk in the ways of righteousness?"

3938. God's Laws are fixed, and His ways of dealing with those who follow iniquity are the same in all ages. Our human will may falter or turn away from its course, but God's Will ever follows its course and cannot be turned away by any cause whatever.

If, then, any do reject
(God), their rejection (works)
Against themselves : their rejection<sup>3931</sup>

But adds to the odium
For the Unbelievers
In the sight of their Lord ;
Their rejection but adds
To (their own) undoing.

40. Say : " Have ye seen<sup>3932</sup>
(These) ' Partners ' of yours
Whom ye call upon
Besides God ? Show me
What it is they have created
In the (wide) earth.
Or have they a share
In the heavens ? Or
Have We given them a Book
From which they (can derive)
Clear (evidence) ?—Nay,
The wrong-doers promise
Each other nothing but delusions.

41. It is God Who sustains
The heavens and the earth,<sup>3933</sup>
Lest they cease (to function) :
And if they should fail,
There is none—not one—
Can sustain them thereafter :

فَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ وَلَا يَزِيدُ
الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ إِلَّا بُهْجًا
وَلَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ إِلَّا خَسَارًا

④ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ شُرَكَاءَ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ
مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أُرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقُوا مِنَ
الْأَرْضِ أَمْ لَهُمْ شِرْكٌ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ أَمْ آتَيْنَهُمْ
كِتَابًا فَهُمْ عَلَى بَيِّنَةٍ مِنْهُ بَلْ إِنَّهُمْ
ظَالِمُونَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا إِلَّا غُرُورًا

⑤ إِنْ كَانَ اللَّهُ يُمِيتُكَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَنْ
تَزُولَا وَلَئِنْ زَالَتَا إِنْ أَمْسَكَهُمَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ
مِنْ عِلْمِهِ

3931. Their rejection and ingratitude only causes injury to themselves. They lose all honour and incur odium in the sight of God, and they complete their own undoing

3932. The people who enthrone in their hearts for worship anything besides God may well be asked a few questions. Some of such questions are indicated in the text with terse precision : (1) Have you seen these gods of yours? Do they exist? "Seeing" of course does not necessarily mean physical sight. We do not see the air, but no one doubts that it exists. And the air is a physical substance. There are forces that we know exist, but we do not see them. To us, who have Faith, God is a truer Reality than anything else that we know, including ourselves. Can the false worshippers say that of any of their false gods? (2) Have your gods created or originated anything on earth? You may worship power or wealth, but that is a scramble for things as between selfish men. Power or wealth does not create new men or new worlds. (3) Have they a share in the ordering of the heavens? "The heavens" may mean what you see in the physical universe of astronomy, or the still subtler inner life. Obviously your false gods fail there. (4) Or have these false gods a book or revelation from the Supreme God, with clear evidence, to give them authority to teach men? The Prophets or Messengers of God have such authority, and they bring evidence of the One True God. The fact is that falsehood is falsehood, however much one form of it may support another by delusions.

3933. The universe, as we know it, shows not only evidence of initial design, but also the working of an intelligent Providence, which constantly sustains it. That is God. If you could imagine that removed, what is there to keep it going? There would only be chaos.

For them, so they should die,
Nor shall its Penalty
Be lightened for them.
Thus do We reward
Every ungrateful one!

37. Therein will they cry
Aloud (for assistance):
"Our Lord! Bring us out: <sup>3926</sup>
We shall work righteousness, <sup>3927</sup>
Not the (deeds) we used
To do!"—"Did We not
Give you long enough life
So that he that would
Should receive admonition?
And (moreover) the warner
Came to you. So taste ye <sup>3928</sup>
(The fruits of your deeds):
For the Wrong-doers
There is no helper."

SECTION 5.

38. Verily God knows
(All) the hidden things
Of the heavens and the earth: <sup>3929</sup>
Verily He has full knowledge
Of all that is
In (men's) hearts.

39. He it is that has made
You inheritors in the earth: <sup>3930</sup>

عَلَيْهِمْ فَيَمُوتُوا وَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمْ مِنْ
عَذَابِنَا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي كُلَّ كَفُورٍ

③٧ وَهُمْ يَصْطَرِخُونَ فِيكَارْتَبْنَا
أَخْرَجْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا غَيْرَ الَّذِي
كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ أَوْ لَنُغَيِّرَنَّكُمْ مَا يَتَذَكَّرُ فِيهِ مِنْ
تَذَكَّرَ وَجَاءَكُمْ
النَّذِيرُ فَذُوقُوا فَمَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ نَصِيرٍ

③٨ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمُ غَيْبِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
لَهُ تَعْلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

③٩ مَوْلَا الَّذِي جَعَلَكُمْ خُلَافَةً فِي الْأَرْضِ

3926, Cf. xxiii, 107. Not only will their surroundings be the opposite of those in Heaven: their internal state will be one of humiliation, of piteous and fruitless appeals, of vain regrets for a past that cannot be recalled, and vain sighs for a future whose gates they have themselves barred. If they were sent back, they would relapse to their sins. Cf. vi, 28.

3927, Cf. vii, 53. Their hankering after another chance, after having deliberately rejected all chances, will have no basis of reason in it.

3928. They had a long enough respite for repentance and amendment. And moreover, besides all the other sources, in nature, history, and their own hearts, by which they could learn of the Right, they had the actual teaching and warning of an Apostle whose words spoke direct to them. In the circumstances the Penalty is only the fruit of their own conduct.

3929. Everything that exists is known to God: not only concrete things, but feelings, motives, plans, and acts of the will in the human breast.

3930. Inheritors: khalāif. In two senses: (1) as Vicegerents of God on earth, and (2) as successors to previous people who forfeited their rights by wrong-doing. The honour and dignity of (1) and the examples of the past in (2) should have kept them straight and made them truly grateful. See also vi, 163 and n. 989.

Souls; some who follow
A middle course; and some
Who are, by God's leave,
Foremost in good deeds;
That is the highest Grace.

33. Gardens of Eternity will they<sup>3921</sup>
Enter : therein will they
Be adorned with brace'ets<sup>3922</sup>
Of gold and pearls;
And their garments there
Will be of silk.

34. And they will say :
" Praise be to God.
Who has removed from us
(All) sorrow : for our Lord
Is indeed Oft-Forgiving
Ready to appreciate (service) :<sup>3923</sup>

35. " Who has, out of His Bounty,
Settled us in a Home
That will last : no toil
Nor sense of weariness<sup>3924</sup>
Shall touch us therein."

36. But those who reject (God)—
For them will be
The Fire of Hell :<sup>3925</sup>
No term shall be determined

وَمِنْهُمْ مُقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ
يَاذُنَ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ

③ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا يُجَلَّوْنَ
فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَلُؤْلُؤًا
وَلِبَاسُهُمْ فِيهَا حَرِيرٌ

④ وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَذْهَبَ
عَنَّا الْحَزْنَ إِنَّ رَبَّنَا لَغَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ

⑤ الَّذِي أَحَلَّنَا دَارَ الْمُقَامَةِ مِن فَضْلِهِ
لَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا نُصَبٌ وَلَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا
لُغُوبٌ

⑥ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ
لَا يُقْضَى

3921 "The Garden" signifies their environment : all they see about them will give them comfort, rest, and satisfaction, and a feeling of beauty and dignity. The jewels and clothes signify their personal external state : here, again, everything will give them a sense of beauty and dignity, comfort, rest, and satisfaction. And finally, most important of all, comes their internal state, where again they will have the same sense of beauty, dignity, comfort, rest, and satisfaction : this is indicated by their words of Praise (verses 34-35).

3922. Cf. xviii. 31 and xxii. 23.

3923 Cf. above, xxxv. 30. Note how beautifully the argument is rounded off. In verse 30 they were told that "God is Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready to appreciate service". Now they have reached the Goal, and they have found the Promise profoundly true. All their hopes are fulfilled, and their sorrows ended.

3924 In case it should be thought that perpetual happiness might cloy or be dull, as would be the case in this life, it is added—as the experience of those who attain that state—that it is not so on that plane of existence. Not only is there joy, but it remains fresh and leads to no weariness.

3925. The "Fire" is the opposite to the "Garden". Instead of there being comfort, rest, and satisfaction in their environment, there will be pain, suffering, and anguish. Instead of there being dignity there will be humiliation. And there will be no hope of its termination or abatement, not even a hope of annihilation.

30. For He will pay them
Their meed, nay, He will Give them (even) more
Out of His Bounty :
For He is Oft-Forgiving,<sup>3916</sup>
Most Ready to appreciate
(service).<sup>3917</sup>

لِيُؤْتِيَهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ وَبِزَيْدٍ لَهُمْ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
إِنَّهُ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ

31. That which We have revealed
To thee of the Book
Is the Truth,—confirming
What was (revealed) before it :
For God is assuredly—
With respect to His servants—
Well acquainted and<sup>3918</sup>
Fully Observant.

وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ
هُوَ الْحَقُّ مُصَدِّقًا لِمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
بِعِبَادِهِ لَخَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ

32. Then<sup>3919</sup> We have given
The Book for inheritance
To such of Our servants
As We have chosen :
But there are among them<sup>3920</sup>
Some who wrong their own

كُتِّمَ أَوْرَثْنَا الْكِتَابَ الَّذِينَ
أَصْطَفَيْنَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ

3916. No man is perfect. Everyone has his faults. But when a man tries his best in the service of God, his faults are blotted out, and he is treated as if he had committed no faults : "for God is Oft-Forgiving, and ready to appreciate service"

3917. Cf. xiv. 5, and n. 2877 for shakūr. God is ready to recognise, appreciate, and reward the smallest service, without regard to the defects in that service. His gracious acceptance is compared to "gratitude" among men.

3918. All Revelation is one. The Qur-ān therefore confirms the main and uncorrupted features of previous revelations. It must be so, because God is fully cognisant of the needs of every age and people ; and therefore His Message, while it meets those needs, must in essence be the same. His Messengers did not meet each other as men ; but their contact with God through inspiration unified their Message. And He cares for and watches over all men, and He knows fully what their needs are, even better than they know themselves.

3919. The force of "then" is that of finality. The Qur-ān is the last Book revealed. Or it may be here to point the contrast between "to thee" in the last verse, i.e. the holy Apostle, in contradistinction to the People of Islam, who inherited the Book after him.

3920. The custodians of the Qur-ān after the holy Apostle were the People of Islam. They were chosen for the Book, not in any narrow sense, but in the sense that the Book was given for their age and they were charged to obey it and preserve and propagate it, so that all mankind should receive the Message. But it does not follow that they are all true and faithful to their charge, as indeed we see too painfully around us to-day. Just as mankind was chosen collectively to be Viceregents for God, and yet some among mankind fell into evil,—even so, some in the house of Islam fail to follow the Light given to them, and thus "wrong their own souls". But some follow a middle course : in their case "the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak" : their intentions are good, but they have much to learn yet of the true Muslim life and Muslim virtues. Then there is a third class : they may not indeed be perfect, but both their intentions and their conduct are sound, and they form an example to other men : they are "foremost" in every good deed. They are so, not by their own merits, but by the Grace of God. And they have reached the highest Achievement,—the salvation, which is typified by the various metaphors that follow.

Are tracts white and red,<sup>3911</sup>
Of various shades of colour,
And black intense in hue.

28. And so amongst men
And crawling creatures and cattle,
Are they of various colours,<sup>3912</sup>
Those truly fear God,
Among His Servants,
Who have knowledge :<sup>3913</sup>
For God is Exalted in Might,
Oft-Forgiving.

29. Those who rehearse the Book
Of God, establish regular Prayer,
And spend (in Charity)<sup>3914</sup>
Out of what We have provided
For them, secretly and openly,
Hope for a Commerce<sup>3915</sup>
That will never fail :

وَمِنَ الْجِبَالِ جُدَدٌ بَيَضٌ وَحُمْرٌ مُّخْتَلِفٌ
أَلْوَانُهَا وَغَرَابِيبُ سُودٌ
۝ وَمِنَ النَّاسِ وَالْذَّوَابِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ مُخْتَلِفٌ
أَلْوَانُهُ كَذَلِكَ إِنَّمَا يَخْشَى اللَّهَ مِنْ
عِبَادِهِ الْعُلَمَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ غَفُورٌ
۝ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَتْلُونَ كِتَابَ اللَّهِ
وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنفَقُوا مِمَّا
رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً يَرْجُونَ
مِجْرَةً لَّن تَبُورَ

3911. These wonderful colours and shades of colours are to be found not only in vegetation but in rocks and mineral products. There are the white veins of marble and quartz or of chalk, the red laterite, the blue basaltic rocks, the ink-black flints, and all the variety, shade, and gradation of colours. Speaking of mountains, we think of their "azure hue" from a distance, due to atmospheric effects, and these atmospheric effects lead our thoughts to the glories of clouds, sunsets, the zodiacal light, the aurora borealis, and all kinds of Nature's gorgeous pageantry.

3912. In the physical shapes of human and animal life, also, we see variations in shades and gradations of colours of all kinds. But these variations and gradations, marvellous though they be, are as nothing compared with the variations and differences in the inner or spiritual world. See next note.

3913. In outer nature we can, through colours, understand and appreciate the finest shades and gradations. But in the spiritual world that variation or gradation is even more subtle and more comprehensive. Who can truly understand it? Only God's servants, who know, i.e., who have the inner knowledge which comes through their acquaintance with the spiritual world,—it is such people who truly appreciate the inner world, and it is they who know that the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. For such fear is akin to appreciation and love,—appreciation of all the marvellous beauties of God's outer and inner world ("God is Exalted in Might") and love because of His Grace and Kindness ("Oft-Forgiving"). But God's forgiveness extends to many who do not truly understand Him.

3914. The man of God takes God's Revelation ("the Book") to heart, ever seeks to get closer and closer to God ("regular Prayer"), and in doing so, is moved more and more to practical Charity for his fellow-creatures. He is not ashamed of his Charity ("openly"), but he does not do it to be seen of men ("secretly"); he just does what is necessary for his fellow-creatures, whether people talk about it or not.

3915. Here is a metaphor from commerce. The good man's Charity comes not merely out of superfluities, but out of "what God has provided" for him. He therefore recognises two things: (1) that his wealth (literal and metaphorical) is not his absolutely, but that it is given to him by God; and (2) that he must deny himself the use of some of it, as a merchant puts by some of his wealth to invest as capital. Only, the godly man's Commerce will never fail or fluctuate; because God guarantees him the return, and even adds something to the return out of His own Bounty. That is, God gives more than ever our merits deserve.

And there never was
A people, without a warner
Having lived among them
(In the past).

وَلَا تَنْفَعُ أُمَّةٌ إِلَّا خَلَا فِيهَا نَذِيرٌ

25. And if they reject thee,
So did their predecessors,
To whom came their apostles
With Clear Signs, Books<sup>3908</sup>
Of dark prophecies,
And the Book
Of Enlightenment.

⑩ وَلَوْ أَن يُكَذِّبُوكَ فَقَدْ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ
مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ بَاءً تَهْدُرُ سُلُوكُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
وَبِالْزُورِ وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُنِيرِ

26. In the end did I
Punish those who rejected
Faith: and how (terrible)<sup>3909</sup>
Was My rejection (of them)!

⑪ ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَكَيْفَ
كَانَ نَكِيرِ

C. 193.—Man can see by his own experience
xxxv. 27-45.) What infinite shades and grades of colour
There are in nature. So are there grades
In the spiritual world. The Good and the True
Understand God, Who knows and watches
Over all His creatures. The Good will reach
Eternal Bliss, while the Evil will find
No helper. Arrogance and plotting will be
The undoing of Evil: its doom
Is sure, if it fails to profit by the respite
Granted by the All-Merciful God.

SECTION 4.

27. Seest thou not that
God sends down rain
From the sky? With it
We then bring out produce
Of various colours,<sup>3910</sup>
And in the mountains

⑫ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
مَاءً فَأَخْرَجْنَا بِهِ ثَمَرَاتٍ
مُخْتَلِفًا أَلْوَانُهَا

3908. The three things here mentioned are also mentioned in iii. 184, where I have explained the meaning in n. 490. All spiritual teaching centres round the evidences of God in our lives, the mystic utterances of men of God, and the rules and laws which guide holy living.

3909. Cf. xxii. 44 and xxxiv. 45. The rejecters of God hardly realise the terrible consequences to them individually and collectively, if God's grace is withdrawn from them and they are left to perish in their own sins and wrong-doing.

3910. Everyone can see how God's artistry produces from rain the wonderful variety of crops and fruits—golden, green, red, yellow, and showing all the most beautiful tints we can think of. And each undergoes in nature the gradual shading off in its transformation from the raw stage to the stage of maturity.

Does so for the benefit
Of his own soul; and
The destination (of all)
Is to God.

19. ~~He~~ The blind and the seeing
Are not alike; <sup>3904</sup>

20. Nor are the depths
Of Darkness and the Light;

21. Nor are the (chilly) shade
And the (genial) heat of the sun:

22. Nor are alike those <sup>3905</sup>
That are living and those
That are dead. God can Make any that He wills
To hear; but thou
Canst not make those
To hear who are (Buried) in graves.

23. Thou art no other
Than a warner. <sup>3906</sup>

24. Verily We have sent thee
In truth, as a bearer
Of glad tidings, <sup>3907</sup>
And as a warner:

فَلْيَمَّا يَنْزَكُكَ لِنَفْسِكَ وَاللَّهُ الْمَصِيرُ

⑭ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَى وَالْبَصِيرُ

⑮ وَلَا الظُّلُمَاتُ وَلَا النُّورُ

⑯ وَلَا الظِّلُّ وَلَا الْحَرُورُ

⑰ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَحْيَاءُ وَلَا الْأَمْوَاتُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَسْمِعُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَمَا أَنْتَ
بِمُسْمِعٍ مَنْ فِي الْقُبُورِ

⑱ إِنْ أَنْتَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ

⑲ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا

3904. Now we are offered some contrasts between those who obey God's Law and are thus citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven and those who are rebels against God's Kingdom and are thus outlaws. How can they be considered alike? The godly are like those who see, as contrasted with those who are blind; and their motives and actions are like the purest and highest Light, contrasted with the depths of darkness; or, to take another metaphor, their lives are like the genial and warmth-giving heat of the sun, which benefits all who come within its influence, contrasted with the chilly shadows of gloom in which no vegetation flourishes.

3905. The final contrast is between the Living and the Dead; those whose future has in it the promise of growth and fulfilment, and those who are inert and on the road to perish. With God everything is possible: He can give Life to the Dead. But the human Teacher should not expect that people who are (spiritually) dead and buried will by any chance hear his call.

3906. The function of a Prophet is to preach God's Truth, to point out the right Way, to show men the need of repentance, and to warn them against the dangers which they incur by living a life of evil. He cannot compel them to accept the Truth or listen to the Message.

3907. It is God Who sends the Revelation. While there is warning in it for the heedless, there is good news (in Christian terms, the gospel) for those who listen and repent. The warning always came to all peoples before punishment.

Of God: but God is <sup>3898</sup>
The One Free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise.

16. If He so pleased, He Could blot you out
And bring in
A New Creation

17. Nor is that (at all)
Difficult for God. <sup>3899</sup>

18. Nor can a bearer <sup>3900</sup> of burdens
Bear another's burden.
If one heavily laden should
Call another to (bear) his load,
Not the least portion of it
Can be carried (by the other),
Even though he be nearly <sup>3901</sup>
Related. Thou canst but
Admonish such as fear
Their Lord unseen <sup>3902</sup>
And establish regular Prayer. <sup>3903</sup>
And whoever purifies himself

إِلَى اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ

⑪ إِنْ شَاءَ يَذْهَبْكُمْ وَأَيُّ بِخَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ

⑫ وَمَا ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِعَزِيزٍ

⑬ وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ وَأَنْ تَدْعُ
مُشْكِلَةٌ إِلَىٰ جَمِيلَةٍ لَا يَحْمِلُنَّهَا شَيْءٌ وَلَا
كَانَ ذَا قُرْبَىٰ إِنَّمَا تُنذِرُ الَّذِينَ
يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ
وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَمَنْ تَزَكَّىٰ

3898. What is man that God should care for him, instruct him, and send him special messengers to warn him of danger and harm? It is man that depends on God and has need of Him every moment of his life. God has no need of him, but He bestows His Grace on him as on all His creatures, out of His unbounded Mercy and loving-kindness. If it were God's Will, He could blot out man for his rebellion and create an entirely new world.

3899. There is no limit to God's creative power, nor is His creative energy anything rare or unusual. This is the force of the word 'Asf' here. God's creative energy is exercised every moment, and it is the normal condition in the universe.

3900. Bearer: hāmilatun: feminine in Arabic, as referring to the soul (na/s), as in vi. 164.

3901. Natural relationship may be considered as a reasonable cause or opportunity for bearing each other's burdens. For example, a mother or a father might offer to die for her or his child, and vice versa. But this does not apply to spiritual matters. There the responsibility is strictly personal and cannot be transferred to another. In xxix. 13 we are told that the misleaders "will bear other burdens along with their own"; but the context shows that the "other" burdens are the burdens of deluding others with their falsehoods. Both sins are their own, viz., their original sin, and the sin of deluding the others. But the responsibility will be doubled.

3902. Bil-ghaybi: unseen in the adverbial sense. The man, who, though he does not see God, so realises God's Presence in himself as if he saw Him, is the man of genuine Faith, and for him God's Revelation comes through many channels and is always fruitful.

3903. Prayer is one of the means of purifying ourselves of lower motives in life, for in prayer we seek the Presence of God. But the purity which we seek is for our own souls: we confer no favour on God or on any Power in the spiritual world, as some imagine who make "gifts" to God. In any case the destination of all is to God.

Into Night, and He has
 Subjected the sun and
 The moon (to His Law): <sup>3892</sup>
 Each one runs its course
 For a term appointed.
 Such is God your Lord: <sup>3893</sup>
 To Him belongs all Dominion,
 And those whom ye invoke
 Besides Him have not
 The least power. <sup>3894</sup>

فَالْيَلِ وَسُفَرَ الشَّمْسِ وَالْقَمَرِ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي
 لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ
 لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَالَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ
 مَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْ قِطْعٍ

14. If ye invoke them,
 They will not listen
 To your call, and if <sup>3895</sup>
 They were to listen,
 They cannot answer
 Your (prayer). On the Day
 Of Judgment they will reject <sup>3896</sup>
 Your "Partnership". And none,
 (O man!) can tell thee <sup>3897</sup>
 (The Truth) like the One
 Who is acquainted with all things.

⑭ إِنْ تَدْعُوهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُوا دَعَاءَكُمْ وَوَ
 سِعُوا مَا اسْتَجَابُوا إِلَيْكُمْ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ
 يَكْفُرُونَ بِشِرْكِكُمْ وَلَا يُنَبِّئُكَ
 مِثْلُ خَبِيرٍ

SECTION 3.

15. <sup>⑮</sup> ye men! It is
 Ye that have need

⑮ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ أَنْتُمُ الْمُفْرَقُونَ

3892. Cf. xlii. 2. The sun and the moon mark phases of light, and serve man during the periods of the day and the night. The sun marks the seasons, and is the source of heat and energy and physical life for the whole solar system. The sun and the moon run according to fixed laws, and they will continue to do so, not for ever, but for the period appointed for their duration by God.

3893. God's might and majesty, and God's goodness and wisdom, having been shown by a few examples, it follows that it is folly to seek or worship any other power but God. It only throws off man into false paths, and takes him farther and farther away from the Truth.

3894. Qismir: the thin, white skin that covers the date-stone. It has neither strength nor texture, and has no value whatever. Any one relying on any power other than that of God relies on nothing whatever. The Qismir is worse than the proverbial "broken reed". Cf. iv. 53 and iv. 124, where the word naqir, 'the groove in a date-stone', is used similarly for a thing of no value or significance.

3895. False or imaginary objects of worship serve no purpose whatever. They cannot hear; if they could hear, they could not grant prayers or petitions. In fact, if they are real creatures, such as angels or deified human beings, they will very rightly repudiate any such worship as brings them into competition or "partnership" with God. See next note.

3896. Cf. x. 28 and n. 1418; also xxxiv. 40-41. No false ideas or false impressions will remain when true values are restored. Why not then accept the Truth now in this life, and get on to the true path of Grace?

3897. None can tell you the Truth better than He Who is All-Wise and All-Knowing. Why not accept His Message and receive His guidance?

Long-lived granted length
Of days, nor is a part
Cut off from his life,
But is in a Decree<sup>3886</sup>
(Ordnained). All this Is easy to God.<sup>3887</sup>

يَعْتَرِ مِنْ مُعْتَرٍ وَلَا يَنْقُصُ مِنْ عُمُرِهِ إِلَّا
فِي كِتَابٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ

12. Nor are the two bodies<sup>3888</sup>
Of flowing water alike,—
The one palatable, sweet,
And pleasant to drink,
And the other, salt
And bitter. Yet from each
(Kind of water) do ye
Eat flesh fresh and tender,<sup>3889</sup>
And ye extract ornaments<sup>3890</sup>
To wear; and thou seest
The ships therein that plough
The waves, that ye may
Seek (thus) of the Bounty
Of God that ye
May be grateful.

وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْبَحْرَانِ هَذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ
سَائِغٌ شَرَابُهُ وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ وَمِنْ كُلِّ
تَأْكُلُونَ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا وَتَسْتَخْرِجُونَ حِلْيَةً
تَلْبَسُونَهَا وَتَرَى الْفُلَ فِيهِ مَوَاحِرَ
لِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ
تَشْكُرُونَ

13. He merges Night into Day,<sup>3891</sup>
And He merges Day

يُوجِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُوجِجُ النَّهَارَ

3886. Things that appear most secret and mysterious to man are all known and ordained by God. They are all subject to God's Laws and Decrees. The mystery of human birth (see n. 3625 to xxxi, 34), the mystery of sex, the mystery of Life and Death and many other things, seem to man inexplicable. But they are all ordained by God, and their reasons are fully known to Him.

3887. Man's knowledge may be acquired laboriously and may be a burden to him. God's knowledge is different; it is no task or burden to Him. C/. xxxiii. 19 and 30.

3888. See xxv. 53 and notes 3111 and 3112. The great salt Ocean with its seas and gulfs is all one; and the great masses of sweet water in rivers, lakes, ponds, and underground springs are also one; and each is connected with the other by the constant circulation going on, which sucks up vapours, carries them about in clouds or atmospheric moisture, and again brings them condensed into water or snow or hail to mingle with rivers and streams and get back into the Ocean.

3889. For this whole passage see xvi. 14 and notes 2034 and 2035. Both from the sea and from rivers and lakes we get fish, of which some kinds have a flesh particularly fresh and tender, and of a most delicate flavour.

3890 Such as pearls and coral from the sea, and such delicately tinted stones as the 'Aqīq (carnelian), the agate, the goldstone, or other varieties of quartz pebbles found in river-beds, and considered as gems. Many such are found in the Ken river in Banda District (Bundelkhand). Some river sands also yield minute quantities of gold. In large navigable rivers and big Lakes like those of North America, as well as in the sea, there are highways for shipping and commerce.

3891. C/. xxii. 61. The phases of Light in nature may have other uses. But for man they mark periods of rest and activity, and have great influence on his physical, moral, and spiritual life.

They raise up the Clouds,<sup>3881</sup>
And We drive them
To a land that is dead,
And revive the earth therewith
After its death: even so
(Will be) the Resurrection!

10. If any do seek
For glory and power,—<sup>3882</sup>
To God belong
All glory and power.
To Him mount up
(All) Words of Purity:
It is He Who exalts
Each Deed of Righteousness.
Those that lay Plots<sup>3883</sup>
Of Evil,—for them
Is a Penalty terrible;
And the plotting of such
Will be void (of result).

11. And God did create<sup>3884</sup>
You from dust;
Then<sup>3885</sup> from a sperm-drop;
Then He made you
In pairs. And no female
Conceives, or lays down
(Her load), but with His Knowledge. Nor is a man

فَنُفِثَ سَحَابًا فَنَفَثَتْهُ إِلَى بَلَدٍ مَيِّتٍ
فَأَحْيَيْنَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا كَذَلِكَ
النُّشُورُ

⑩ مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعِزَّةَ فَلِلَّهِ الْعِزَّةُ
جَمِيعًا إِلَيْهِ يَصْعَدُ الْكَلِمُ الطَّيِّبُ
وَالْعَمَلُ الصَّالِحُ يَرْفَعُهُ وَالَّذِينَ
يَمْكُرُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ
شَدِيدٌ وَمَكْرُؤُهُمْ هُوَ يَبُورُ

⑪ وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ
ثُمَّ جَعَلَكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ
أَنْثَى وَلَا تَضَعُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِ وَمَا

3881. The allegory here is double. (1) Dry, unpromising soil may seem to all intents and purposes dead; there is no source of water near; moisture is sucked up by the sun's heat in a far-off ocean, and clouds are formed; winds arise; it seems as if the wind "bloweth as it listeth", but it is really God's Providence that drives it to the dead land; the rain falls, and behold! there is life and motion and beauty everywhere! So in the spiritual world, God's Revelation is His Mercy and His Rain; there may be the individual resurrection (Nushūr) or unfolding of a soul. (2) So again, may be the general Resurrection (Nushūr), the unfolding of a new World in the Hereafter, out of an old World that is folded up and dead (Takwīn, S. lxxxv).

3882. Good and Evil are to be distinguished sharply. No good is ever lost: it goes up to the Throne of God. The humblest Good, in word or deed, is exalted to high rank. If man seeks for mere glory and power, there is no such thing apart from God. But seeking God, we attain to the highest glory and power.

3883. It is the nature of Evil to work underground, to hide from the Light, to plot against Righteousness; but Evil inevitably carries its own punishment. Its plots must fail miserably. And eventually Evil itself is to be blotted out.

3884. Cf. xviii. 37 and n. 2379; xxi. 5 and n. 2773; and xxx. 20, and n. 3524. Here the argument is that man's physical origin is lowly: his physical body is but dust; his life-sperm issues from a part of his body which he hides and considers as a place of shame; and the mystery of sex shows that no one individual among mankind is sufficient in himself. Glory and power and knowledge are not in him, but in God, from Whom alone he derives any glory, or power, or knowledge that he possesses.

3885. "Then" in this and the following clause refers, not to stages of time, but to stages in the argument. It is almost equivalent to "further", "also", "and in addition".

Nor let the Chief Deceiver
Deceive you about God.

6. Verily Satan is an enemy
To you : so treat him <sup>3878</sup>
As an enemy. He only
Invites his adherents,
That they may become
Companions of the Blazing Fire.

7. For those who reject God, <sup>3879</sup>
Is a terrible Penalty : but
For those who believe
And work righteous deeds,
Is Forgiveness, and
A magnificent Reward,

SECTION 2.

8. Is he, then, to whom
The evil of his conduct
Is made alluring, so
That he looks upon it <sup>3880</sup>
As good, (equal to one
Who is rightly guided) ?
For God leaves to stray
Whom He wills, and guides
Whom He wills. So
Let not thy soul go out
In (vainly) sighing after them :
For God knows well
All that they do !

9. It is God Who sends
Forth the Winds, so that

وَلَا يَغْتِرْ بَكُمُ بِاللَّهِ الْغَرُورُ

⑥ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ لَكُمْ
عَدُوٌّ فَاتَّخِذُوهُ عَدُوًّا إِنَّمَا يَدْعُوا حِزْبَهُ
لِيَكُونُوا مِنْ أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ

⑦ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ
شَدِيدٌ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ

⑧ أَفَمَنْ زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ فَرَآهُ حَسَنًا
فَلَنْ يَضِلَّ اللَّهُ يُضِلَّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ
يَشَاءُ فَلَا تَذْهَبُ نَفْسُكَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةً
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ

⑨ وَاللَّهُ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ

3878. Evil is our enemy and should be treated as such. It is really foreign to our nature, however much it may disguise itself to deceive us as our friend, or a part of our own nature. Personifying the Spirit of Evil, we may say that he wants us to share in his own damnation. Shall we allow ourselves to fall into his snare?

3879. To reject God is to reject all the good which He has implanted in our nature. Are we going to be false to the true Pattern according to which He created us, and suffer the consequences? Or are we going to be true to that Pattern and achieve the high and noble Destiny intended for us?

3880. Cf. n. 3877 above. When a stage is reached at which a man accepts Evil as his Good, his case is hopeless. Can such a man profit by preaching or guidance? He has himself deliberately rejected all guidance. Such a man is best left to stray. Perhaps, even in the paths in which he is straying, some sudden flash of light may come to him! That may be as God wills in His holy and wise Purpose and Plan. But the man of God is not to worry or feel disheartened by such men's attitude. He must go on tilling the soil that is open to him. For God's Plan may work in all sorts of unexpected ways, as in the allegory in the next verse.

There is none can grant,<sup>3873</sup>
 Apart from Him :
 And He is the Exalted
 In Power, Full of Wisdom.

فَلَا مَرْسِلَ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ ۚ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ
 الْحَكِيمُ

3. ﴿٣﴾ men I call to mind
 The grace of God unto you !
 Is there a Creator, other<sup>3874</sup>
 Than God, to give you
 Sustenance from heaven
 Or earth ? There is
 No god but He : how
 Then are ye deluded
 Away from the Truth ?

﴿٣﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اذْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ
 عَلَيْكُمْ هَلْ مِنْ خَلْقٍ غَيْرِ اللَّهِ يَرْزُقُكُمْ
 مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَاتَى
 تَوَفَّكُونَ

4. And if they reject thee,
 So were apostles rejected.<sup>3875</sup>
 Before thee : to God
 Go back for decision
 All affairs.

﴿٤﴾ وَإِنْ يَكْذِبُوا فَعَذَابُكَ
 رَسُولُ مَنْ قَبْلِكَ ۖ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ

5. O men I certainly
 The promise of God<sup>3876</sup>
 Is true. Let not then
 This present life deceive you,<sup>3877</sup>

﴿٥﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِن وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ
 فَلَا تَغُرَّنَّكُمُ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا

3873. As God is the Creator and Sustainer of all beings and things, so does His kindness extend to all Creatures. No one can intercept God's mercies and gifts. Whatever is His Will and Plan and Purpose He can and does carry out. And if from any creature He withholds any particular gifts, there is no other person or power that can give those gifts. But such withholding is not arbitrary. He is full of wisdom and goodness, and every act of His, whether He withholds or gives, is full of kindness and mercy to His creatures.

3874. As the primal Cause of all things is God, an appeal is made to man to turn to God instead of running after false fancies. God is not only the source, but the centre of all life and activity, and all affairs return to Him. The world is sustained, and human life is sustained, by God's grace and providence. "Sustenance" is to be taken, in Quranic language, for all that helps to maintain and develop every aspect of life, physical and spiritual. It would be the height of folly, then, for man to ignore God's gracious Message, as explained in His Revelation.

3875. And yet there will be human perversity, which will reject the True and accept the False. The man of God is not discouraged by this, as everything ultimately returns to God, and we must trust to His Wisdom in His Universal Plan.

3876. In verse 3 above the appeal was on the basis of the Past and the Present : now the appeal is on the basis of the Future. Our origin is from God ; we live, move, and have our being now in God ; but remember also that there is a Future, in which we have to render an account of ourselves to God. God's grace has promised us the Garden of Bliss ; His justice has promised us the Fire of Suffering. Both promises are certain to be fulfilled. On which side shall we range ourselves ?

3877. Cf. xxxi. 33 and n. 3624. The deception of Evil takes two forms. (1) The seductive temptations of this world may deceive us into forgetting the Hereafter. (2) The Arch-Enemy himself may so blind our spiritual vision that we may say with him, "Evil! he thou my good!" We may be misled by easy stages. Are we on our guard?

Sūra XXXV.

Faṭir, or The Originator of Creation;
or Malaika, or The Angels.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Praise be to God,<sup>3869</sup>
Who created (out of nothing)<sup>3870</sup>
The heavens and the earth,
Who made the angels<sup>3871</sup>
Messengers with wings,—
Two, or three, or four (Pairs):
He adds to Creation<sup>3872</sup>
As He pleases: for God
Has power over all things.

2. What God out of His Mercy
Doth bestow on mankind
There is none can withhold:
What He doth withhold,

① الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ فَاطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ جَاعِلِ
الْمَلَائِكَةَ رُسُلًا أُولِي أَجْنَحَةٍ تَشْتَرِي وَتُكَلِّفُ
وَرُبْعٌ يَزِيدُ فِي الْخَلْقِ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ
شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

② مَا يَفْتَحِ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ رَحْمَةٍ فَلَا
مُمْسِكَ لَهَا وَمَا يُمْسِكُ

3869. See n. 3785 to xxxiv. 1. When we praise God, it means that we understand and bring to mind that His glory and power are exercised for the good of His Creation, and this is the subject-matter of the Sūra.

3870. As man's knowledge of the processes of nature advances, he sees how complex is the evolution of matter itself, leaving out the question of the origin of life and the spiritual forces, which are beyond the ken of experimental science. But this knowledge itself becomes a sort of "veil of light" (see Appendix VIII, p. 923); man becomes so conscious of the proximate causes, that he is apt, in his pride, to forget the primal Cause, the Cause of Causes, the ultimate hand of God in Creation. And then, Creation is such a complex process: see some of the ideas involved explained by different words in n. 120 to n. 117. The word faṭara here used means the creation of primeval matter, to which further creative processes have to be added by the hand of God, for God "adds to His Creation as He pleases", not only in quantity, but in qualities, functions, relations, and variations in infinite ways.

3871. The grosser ideas which men have of angels must be dismissed from our minds. They are beings expressive of qualities or powers, which may be typified by "wings". We need not suppose that angelic "wings" have muscles and leathers, like the wings of birds. If they had, how could there be three, or any odd number? We may suppose "two, three, or four" to refer to pairs of wings. But we must not suppose "two, three, or four" to express precise numbers, for in sacred literature we find mention of angels with six hundred wings. And we can imagine angels with just one pair of wings. They are Messengers or Instruments of God's Will, and may have a few or numerous Errands entrusted to them. Cf. the description of the Spirit of Inspiration in xxvi. 193, and of the spirits or angels for executing the Commands of God in lxxix. 15.

3872. See n. 3870 above, where the complexities of the creative processes is referred to. God's creation did not stop at some past time: it continues, for He has all power, and His mercies are ever poured forth without stint.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXV (Fāṭir).

See Introduction to the last Sūra.

This Sūra deals with the mystery of Creation and its maintenance, with various forces typified by the wings of Angels. Whether we look to outer nature or to man, God's Grace proclaims His Glory, and protects His votaries from Evil.

It is an early Meccan Sūra, but its chronology has no significance.

Summary.—The forces which maintain Creation, as typified by angels, were themselves created by God, to Whom alone all praise is due: all else is naught (xxxv. 1-26, and C. 192).

All good is from God: who then will choose Evil, and reach the doom that goes with Evil? (xxxv. 27-45, and C. 193).

C. 192.—God is the source of all things: all Power,
(xxxv. 1-26.) Wisdom, Beauty, and Truth flow from Him.
It is Evil that deceives and plots in the dark.
All knowledge is with God. The things
That are good and pure and true are not
As the things that are evil, deceitful, and false.
God is free of all needs: it is we
That need Him: let us seek His love and live.
His Message will save us from wrong, while dark
Is the fate of those who reject Him.
Praise and glory to Him, the Cherisher of all!

52. And they will say,
"We do believe (now)
In the (Truth)"; but how<sup>3864</sup>
Could they receive (Faith)
From a position (so) far off,—

﴿وَقَالُوا ءَامَنَّا بِهِ ءَا نَا لَهُ النّٰوْشُ
مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيْدٍ﴾

53. Seeing that they did reject
Faith (entirely) before, and
That they (continually) cast<sup>3865</sup>
(Slanders) on the Unseen
From a position far off?

﴿وَقَدْ كَفَرُوْا بِهٖ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَيَقْذِفُوْنَ
بِالْغَيْبِ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيْدٍ﴾

54. And between them
And their desires,
Is placed a barrier,<sup>3866</sup>
As was done in the past
With their partisans :<sup>3867</sup>
For they were indeed
In suspicious (disquieting) doubt.<sup>3868</sup>

﴿وَحِيْلَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَبَيْنَ مَا يَشْتَهُوْنَ كَمَا
فُعِلَ بِاَشْيَاعِهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا فِيْ شَكٍ
مُّرِيْبٍ﴾

3864. They will now profess their faith in Truth, but of what value will such profession be? Faith is a belief in things unseen: how everything is plain and open before them. The position in which they could have received Faith is left far off behind them, when Truth was struggling and asked for help or asylum, and they cruelly, arrogantly, insultingly repudiated Truth.

3865. Not only did they reject the Truth of the Unseen (the true Reality), but they spread all sorts of false and malicious insinuations at the preachers of Truth, calling them dishonest men, liars, hypocrites, and so on. They did it like a coward taking up a sneaking position far from the fight and speeding arrows at a distant target.

3866. What they desire is to suppress Truth and to indulge in the satisfaction of their own evil, selfish motives. They will be baulked in both, and that itself will be their anguish and punishment. That has always been the law in the eternal struggle between Right and Wrong. C/. Shakespeare, (Troilus and Cressida, i. 3.116), "Right and wrong, Between whose endless jar justice resides." All partisans of such narrow cliques have always suffered the same fate.

3867. Note that verses 51-54 are a powerful description of the conflict between right and wrong, and may be understood in many meanings. (1) The description applies to the position in the final Hereafter, as compared with the position in this life. (2) It applies to the position of triumphant Islam in Medina and later, as compared with the position of persecuted Islam in its early days in Mecca. (3) It applies to the reversal of the position of right and wrong at various phases of the world's history, or of (4) individual history.

3868. C/. xiv. 9, and see n. 1884.

Of) Truth (over His servants),—<sup>3860</sup>
He that has full knowledge
Of (all) that is hidden."

بِالْحَقِّ عَلَّمَ الْغُيُوبِ

49. Say: "The Truth has arrived,
And Falsehood neither creates<sup>3861</sup>
Anything new, nor restores Anything."

٤٩ قُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَمَا يُبْدِئُ الْبَاطِلُ
وَمَا يُعِيدُ

50. Say: "If I am astray,
I only stray to the loss
Of my own soul; but if
I receive guidance, it is<sup>3862</sup>
Because of the inspiration
Of my Lord to me:
It is He Who hears
All things, and is (ever) near."

٥٠ قُلْ إِن ضَلَّكُمُ فَإِنَّمَا أَضِلُّ عَلَى نَفْسِي وَإِنِ
أَهْدَيْتُ فَبِمَا
يُوحَىٰ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ سَمِيعٌ قَرِيبٌ

51. If thou couldst but see
When they will quake
With terror; but then
There will be no escape<sup>3863</sup>
(For them), and they will be Seized from a position
(Quite) near.

٥١ وَلَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذْ فُتِحُوا أَفْلاَقُونَ
وَأُخِذُوا مِنْ مَّكَانٍ قَرِيبٍ

3860. God's Truth is so vast that no man in this life can compass the whole of it. But God in His mercy selects His servants on whom it is cast like a mantle. They see enough to be able to teach their fellow men. It is through that mantle—that mission received from God—that an apostle can speak with authority to men. He cannot explain the exact mystery of inspiration, but he knows it is from God, and this is his third argument.

3861. The fourth argument is that the Truth is final: it does not come and go: it creates new situations and new developments, and if by any chance it seems to be defeated for a time, it comes back and restores the true balance;—unlike Falsehood, which by its very nature is doomed to perish: xvii. 81. The Prophet's credentials are known by the test of Time. This was already becoming apparent to discerning eyes when this Sūra was revealed in Mecca, but it became clear to the whole world with the story of Islām's progress in Medina.

3862. If it could possibly be supposed that the Prophet was a self-deceived visionary, it would affect him only, and could not fail to appear in his personality. But in fact he was steady in his constancy and Faith, and he not only went from strength to strength, but won the enduring and whole-hearted love and devotion of his nearest and dearest and of those who most came into contact with him. How was this possible, unless he had the Truth and the inspiration of God behind him? This is the fifth and last argument in this passage.

3863. After the arguments for the reality and triumph of Truth, we are asked to contemplate the position of the opposers of Truth when Truth is established. They will be struck with terror; for Truth is all-compelling. They will wish they could get away from that position, but that would be impossible. They will not be able to move far; they will be held fast to the consequences of their own earlier conduct. They will be caught quite close to the point of their departure from Truth.

45. And their predecessors rejected
(The Truth); these have
Not received a tenth
Of what We had granted <sup>3856</sup>
To those: yet when they rejected
My apostles, how (terrible)
Was My rejection (of them)!

SECTION 6.

46. Say: "I do admonish you
On one point: that ye
Do stand up before God,—
(It may be) in pairs, <sup>3857</sup>
Or (it may be) singly,—
And reflect (within yourselves):
Your Companion is not <sup>3858</sup>
Possessed: he is no less
Than a Warner to you,
In face of a terrible
Penalty."

47. Say: "No reward do I
Ask of you: it is (all)
In your interest: my reward <sup>3859</sup>
Is only due from God:
And He is Witness
To all things."

48. Say: "Verily my Lord
Doth cast the (mantle

﴿٤٥﴾ وَكَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَمَا بَلَغُوا

رُسُلِي فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ

﴿٤٦﴾ * قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَعِظُكُمْ بِوَاحِدٍ أَنْ تَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ

بِذُنِّي عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ

﴿٤٧﴾ قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ مِنْ أَجْرٍ فَهُوَ لَكُمْ إِنْ أَجْرِي

﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ إِنْ رَبِّي يَخَذِفُ

3856. Passing to Peoples before the immediate ancestors, the People of the Book, or the People of Sabā and the 'Ad and Thamūd, had received favours and gifts, power and wealth, ten times more than were enjoyed by the Pagan Quraish. Yet when they turned away from God's Truth, God turned away from them, and what terrible consequences descended on them when they lost God's Grace! This should make everyone humble, not least the posterity of Muhammad the Apostle if they forsake God's Truths! For they have received a higher Teaching!

3857. A crowd mentality is not the best for the perception of the final spiritual truths. For these, it is necessary that each soul should commune within itself with earnest sincerity as before God: if it requires a Teacher, let it seek out one, or it may be that it wants the strengthening of the inner convictions that dawn on it, by the support of a sympathiser or friend. But careful and heart-felt reflection is necessary to appraise the higher Truths.

3858. Note that in verses 46, 47, 48, 49, and 50, arguments are suggested to the Prophet, by which he can convince any right-thinking man of his sincerity and truth. Here the argument is that he is not possessed or out of his mind. If he is different from ordinary men, it is because he has to give a warning of a terrible spiritual danger to the men whom he loves but who will not understand his Message.

3859. Cf. x. 72. The second argument is that he has nothing to gain from them. His message is for their own good. He is willing to suffer persecution and insult, because he has to fulfil his mission from God.

The Jinns: <sup>3852</sup> most of them
Believed in them."

الْجِنُّ أَكْثَرُهُمْ يَوْمَ مُؤْمِنُونَ

42. So on that Day
No power shall they have
Over each other, for profit
Or harm: and We shall
Say to the wrong-doers,
"Taste ye the Penalty <sup>3853</sup>
Of the Fire,—the which
Ye were wont to deny!"

٤٢ فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يَمْلِكُ بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ نَفْعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا
وَنَقُولُ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ النَّارِ
الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ بِهَا تُكَذِّبُونَ

43. ~~When~~ Our Clear Signs
Are rehearsed to them,
They say, "This is only
A man who wishes
To hinder you from the (worship) <sup>3854</sup>
Which your fathers practised."
And they say, "This is Only a falsehood invented!"
And the Unbelievers say
Of the Truth when it comes
To them, "This is nothing
But evident magic!"

٤٣ وَإِذَا نُفِّلَ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالُوا مَا هَذَا
إِلَّا رَجُلٌ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَصُدَّكُمْ عَنْ مَا كَانُوا
يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤَكُمْ وَقَالُوا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا إِفْكٌ
مُفْتَرًى وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الْحَقُّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ
إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ

44. But We had not given
Them Books which they could
Study, nor sent apostles <sup>3855</sup>
To them before thee
As Warners.

٤٤ وَمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ مِنْ كُتُبٍ يَدْرُسُونَهَا وَمَا
أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمْ قَبْلَكَ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ

3852. Jinns: see vi. 100 and n. 929. The false worshippers pretended to worship the bright and radiant angels of good, but in reality worshipped the dark and hidden forces of evil,—the devils hidden within themselves or in the life around them. They trusted and believed in such forces of evil, although such forces of evil had really no power.

3853. The supposed "rivals" of God—the false things whereon men set their hopes and fears—will have no power whatever when true values are restored; and the Fire—the Penalty—which they doubted or denied, will become the dominating real thing in their experience.

3854. Apart from the worship of Evil in the guise of the Powers of Light, there is another form of false worship, which depends on ancestral tradition. "Why" it is said "should we not do as our fathers did?" They reject a new apostle of Truth simply because his teaching does not agree with the ways of their ancestors. The answer to this is given in verse 44 below. But meanwhile the rejecters' objection to new Truth is stated in three forms: (1) our ancestors knew nothing of this; (2) the story of inspiration is false: it is merely an invention; we do not believe in inspiration; (3) when in some particular points, the new Truth does work wonders in men's hearts, they account for it by saying it is magic. The third objection is merely traditional. What is magic? If it was merely deception, surely the Truth has proved itself to be above deception. The second objection is answered by the fact that the Apostle who comes with new spiritual Truth is acknowledged to be truthful in other relations of life: why should he be false where his preaching brings him no gain but much sorrow and persecution? For the ancestral objection see next note.

3855. The ancestors (as in the case of the Arabs of the Times of Ignorance) had received no revelation of the clear kind which an apostle and a Book bring them. This is a reason for welcoming, not for rejecting, new Truth.

For their deeds, while
Secure they (reside)
In the dwellings on high! <sup>3846</sup>

38. Those who strive against
Our Signs, to frustrate them, <sup>3847</sup>
Will be given over
Into Punishment.

39. Say: "Verily my Lord enlarges
And restricts the Sustenance <sup>3848</sup>
To such of His servants
As He pleases: and nothing
Do ye spend in the least
(In His Cause) but He Replaces it: for He is <sup>3849</sup>
The Best of those who
Grant Sustenance.

40. <sup>3850</sup>One Day He will Gather them all together,
And say to the angels,
"Was it you that these Men used to worship?"

41. They will say, "Glory to Thee!
Our (tie) is with Thee—
As Protector <sup>3851</sup>—not with them.
Nay, but they worshipped

٤١ قَالُوا سُبْحَانَكَ أَنْتَ وَلِيِّنَا مِنْ دُونِهِمْ
بَلْ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ

3846. Their happiness will not only be great in quantity ("multiplied"), but it will be of a specially sublime quality ("dwellings on high"), and it will endure without any chance of its loss or diminution ("secure they reside").

3847. Cf. xxxiv. 5, where the argument was urged that human efforts to defeat God's Plan will only bring humiliation to those who indulge in them. Here the argument is rounded off by the statement that such efforts, besides their failure, will land them in an abyss of punishment contrasted with the "dwellings on high" of the blessed ones.

3848. Cf. xxxiv. 36 above, and n. 3843.

3849. Even in the seeming inequality of distribution of the good things of life, God has a wise and merciful purpose; for nothing arises by chance. He is the best to give us, now and evermore, just those things which subserve our real needs and advance our inner development.

3850. Here we have the case of the worship of angels or supposed Powers of God, or supposed beneficent spirits that men turn to instead of worshipping the true God. In fact these are mere names to the false worshippers. It is not the Good that they worship but the Evil, which leads them astray.

3851. Walī in Arabic may mean Friend either in the sense of Protector and Benefactor or in the sense of the Beloved. The tie of benevolence, confidence, and friendship is implied, either active or passive. The angels first proclaim their dependence on God and their need of His protection, and then disclaim any idea of their having protected or encouraged the false worshippers to worship beings other than God. They go further, and suggest that when men pretended to worship angels, they worshipped, not angels, but Jinns. See next note.

On the necks of the Unbelievers:
It would only be a requital
For their (ill) Deeds.

34. Never did We send
A Warner to a population,
But the wealthy ones among
them<sup>3841</sup>
Said: "We believe not
In the (Message) with which Ye have been sent."

35. They said: "We have more
In wealth and in sons,<sup>3842</sup>
And we cannot be punished."

36. Say: "Verily my Lord enlarges
And restricts the Provision<sup>3843</sup>
To whom He pleases, but Most men understand not."

SECTION 5.

37. It is not your wealth
Nor your sons, that will
Bring you nearer to Us<sup>3844</sup>
In degree: but only
Those who believe and work
Righteousness—these are
The ones for whom there is
A multiplied Reward<sup>3845</sup>

⑤ وَقَالُوا نَحْنُ أَكْثَرُ أَمْوَالًا وَأَوْلَدًا

وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ جَزَاءُ الضَّعِيفِ

3841. Whenever the Message of God comes, the vested interests range themselves against it. Worldly power has made them arrogant; worldly pleasures have deadened their sensibility to Truth. They reject the Message because it attacks their false position.

3842. Their arrogance is openly based on their worldly power and position, their family influence, and the strength of their man-power. Turn back again to the contrast drawn between the arrogant ones and those whom they despised, in verses 31-33.

3843. Provision (or Sustenance): good things of all kinds in this life, material goods as well as power, opportunities, influence, mental gifts, etc. These do not necessarily all go to the good, nor is their denial to be interpreted to mean that it is a withdrawal of God's favour. Very often the contrary is the case. Their distribution is in accordance with the Universal Plan and Purpose, which is all-wise and all-good. But ignorant people cannot understand this.

3844. The true test of progress in spiritual life is to be measured by other things than material wealth and influence. What we have to ask ourselves is: are we the least bit nearer to God?

3845. Cf. xxx 39. All worldly good is but a shadow that will pass away. Its intrinsic and eternal value is small. But those who work righteousness in Faith are on the true path of self-development. The reward they will get will be infinitely more than their merits entitle them to. For they will partake of the boundless Bounties of God.

On one another! Those who
Had been despised will say
To the arrogant ones: <sup>3836</sup>
"Had it not been for you,
We should certainly
Have been believers!"

32. The arrogant ones will say
To those who had been despised:
"Was it we who kept you
Back from Guidance after
It reached you? Nay, rather,
It was ye who transgressed." <sup>3837</sup>

33. Those who had been despised
Will say to the arrogant ones:
"Nay! it was a plot
(Of yours) by day and by night: <sup>3838</sup>
Behold! ye (constantly) ordered us
To be ungrateful to God
And to attribute equals to
Him!" <sup>3839</sup>
They will declare (their) repentance <sup>3840</sup>
When they see the Penalty:
We shall put yokes

بَعْضُهُمْ إِلَى بَعْضٍ الْقَوْلَ يَقُولُ الَّذِينَ
أَسْضَعُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا أَتَوَلَّوْنَا أَنفُسَهُ
لَكُنَّا مُؤْمِنِينَ

٣٢ قَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْضَعَوْا
أَنَحْنُ صَدَدْنَاكُمْ عَنِ الْهُدَىٰ بَعْدَ إِذْ جَاءَكُمْ بَلْ
كُنْتُمْ تَجْرِمِينَ

٣٣ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْضَعَوْا لِلَّذِينَ
اسْتَكْبَرُوا بَلْ مَكَرُ الْبَلِ وَالنَّهَارِ إِذْ تَأْمُرُونَنَا
أَن نَّكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ وَنَجْعَلَ لَهُ أَنْدَادًا وَأَسْرُوا الثَّمَامَةَ
لَمَّا رَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ وَجَعَلْنَا الْأَغْلَالَ

3836. The Pagans will naturally say to the people of the Book: "You misled us; you had previous Revelations, and you should have known how God sent His Messengers; had it not been for your bad example, we should have received God's Revelation and become Believers." Or the humble followers will say this to their leaders, or those less gifted will say to those by whom they were misled and exploited. The dichotomy is between such as pretentiously held their heads high in the world and such as they profited by but held in contempt.

3837. In the mutual reproaches between the misleaders and the misled ones, there will be a grain of truth on both sides, and yet both were guilty in not realising their own personal responsibility.

3838. The more intelligent ones who exploit the weaker ones are constantly plotting night and day to keep the latter ignorant and under their thumb. They show them the ways of Evil, because by that means they are more in their power.

3839. If all men worshipped the true God, and none but Him, they could not on the one hand be trampled upon, and on the other hand they could not be unjust. It is in the worship of false ideals or false gods that alluring structures of fraud and injustice are built up.

3840. Cf. x. 54, and n. 1443. All these mutual recriminations would be swallowed up in the general realisation of the Truth by both sides in the Hereafter. They would be prepared openly to declare their repentance, but it would be too late. The yoke of slavery to Evil will be on their necks. God's justice put it there, but what else could it do? Their own sins will cry out against them and hold them under their yokes.

To men, giving them
Glad tidings, and warning them
(Against sin), but most men
Understand not.

29. They say: " When will this
Promise (come to pass)
If ye are telling the truth? "

30. Say: " The appointment to you
Is for a Day, which ye
Cannot put back for an hour<sup>3833</sup>
Nor put forward."

لِلنَّاسِ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ
النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

② وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن
كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

③ قُلْ لَكُمْ مِيعَادُ يَوْمٍ لَا تَسْتَفْزِحُونَ عَنْهُ
سَاعَةً وَلَا تَسْتَأْذِنُونَ

C. 191.—Unfaith has no stable foundations to rest on:
(xxxiv 31-54) Misleaders and misled will all be responsible
For their deeds. True values are not to be judged
By the seeming good of this Life : true Good
Will come to its own in the End, however
Derided and scorned in the period of Trial.
Revelation and the Mission of the men of God
Will stand every test. God's Truth will endure,
While Falsehood will perish, and its votaries find
The door of Repentance closed in the End.

SECTION 4.

31. ~~The~~ The Unbelievers say :
" We shall neither believe
In this scripture nor in (any)
That (came) before it."<sup>3834</sup>
Couldst thou but see when
The wrong-doers will be made
To stand before their Lord,
Throwing back the word
(of blame)<sup>3835</sup>

④ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَنْ نُؤْمِنَ بِهَذَا
الْقُرْآنِ وَلَا بِالَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَلَوْ تَرَى
إِلَّا الظَّالِمُونَ مَوْقُوفُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ يُرْجَعُونَ

3833. When that Day actually arrives, your period of probation will have passed. It will be too late. Now is the time for action and spiritual profit.

3834 To the Pagans all scriptures are taboo, whether it be the Qur-ān or any Revelation that came before it. The people of the Book despised the Pagans, but in their arrogant assumption of superiority, prevented them, by their example, from accepting the latest and most universal Scripture when it came in the form of the Qur-ān. This relative position, of men who fancy themselves on their knowledge, and men whom they despise but exploit and mislead, always exists on this earth. I have mentioned the people of the Book and the Pagan Arabs merely by way of illustration.

3835. One disbelief is as bad as another. There is little to choose between them. But when the final account will be taken, there will be mutual recriminations between the one and the other.

And the earth?" Say:
"It is God; and certain it is
That either we or ye<sup>3828</sup>
Are on right guidance
Or in manifest error!"

25. Say: "Ye shall not be Questioned as to our sins,<sup>3829</sup>
Nor shall we be questioned
As to what ye do."

26. Say: "Our Lord will gather us
Together and will in the end
Decide the matter between us
(And you) in truth and justice:<sup>3830</sup>
And He is the One to decide,
The One Who knows all."

27. Say: "Show me those whom
Ye have joined with Him
As partners: by no means
(Can ye). Nay, He is God,<sup>3831</sup>
The Exalted in Power,
The Wise."

28. We have not sent thee
But as a universal (Messenger)<sup>3832</sup>

وَالْأَرْضِ قُلِ اللَّهُ وَنَا أَوْ إِنَّا كُنَّا لَعَلَّاهُ
أَوْ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ

٢٥ قُلْ لَا تَسْأَلُونَنَا أَن جُزْمَنَا وَلَا تَسْأَلُونَنَا
عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ

٢٦ قُلْ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا رَبُّنَا ثُمَّ يَفْتَحُ بَيْنَنَا
بِالْحَقِّ وَهُوَ الْفَتَّاحُ الْعَلِيمُ

٢٧ قُلْ أَرُونِي الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ شُرَكَّاؤُكُمْ
كَلَّا بَلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

٢٨ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا كَفَّةً

3828. Right and Wrong. Good and Evil, are incompatible, one with another. In this matter we can make no compromise. It is true that in men there may be various degrees of good or evil mixed together, and we have to tolerate men as our fellow-creatures, with all their faults and shortcomings. But this does not mean that we can worship God and Mammon together. Wrong is the negation of Right as light is of darkness. Though there may be apparently varying depths of darkness, this is only due to the imperfection of our vision: it is varying strengths of light as perceived by our relative powers of sight. So we may perceive the Light of God in varying degrees according to our spiritual vision. But in simple questions of Right or Wrong, we are faced by the Categorical Imperative.

3829. Therefore do not persecute us, or bring personal animus to bear on us. We must do our duty in declaring the universal Message, which is for you as much as for us.

3830. Human controversies are vain and inconclusive. If you put your trust in God and we put our trust in God, we belong to one Brotherhood, and we shall see the perfect Truth finally when the Time comes.

3831. Wisdom and Power only belong to God. If you put your trust in other things, they will fail you, because they do not exist—as objects of worship. All else that you set your hearts upon will and must fail you, because they cannot in any wise be brought into rivalry with God.

3832. God's Revelation, through the holy Prophet, was not meant for one family or tribe, one race or set of people. It was meant for all mankind, to whom, if they turn to God, it is a Message of the glad tidings of His Mercy, and if they do not turn to him, it is a warning against sin and the inevitable Punishment. That the Punishment does not come immediately (as far as they perceive) is no reason for doubting it. It has been declared in clear and unequivocal terms, and nothing can be more certain. Why delay? Why ask carping questions? Why not profit by the Message, turn to God in repentance, and bring forth the fruits of righteousness?

SECTION 3.

22. Say : "Call upon other (gods) <sup>3822</sup>
Whom ye fancy, besides God :
They have no power,—
Not the weight of an atom,—
In the heavens or on earth : <sup>3823</sup>
No (sort of) share have they
Therein, nor is any of them
A helper to God.

٢٢ قُلِ ادْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
لَا يَمْلِكُونَ شَيْئًا ذَرَفُوا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي
الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِيهَا مِنْ شِرْكٍ وَمَا لَهُ مِنْهُمْ
مِنْ ظَهِيرٍ

23. "No intercession can avail
In His Presence, except for <sup>3824</sup> those
For whom He has granted
Permission. So far (is this
The case) that, when terror
Is removed from their hearts <sup>3825</sup>
(At the Day of Judgment, then)
Will they say, 'What is it
That your Lord commanded?' <sup>3826</sup>
They will say, 'That which is True and just; and He is
The Most High, Most Great'."

٢٣ وَلَا تَنْفَعُ الشَّفَاعَةُ عِنْدَهُ إِلَّا لِمَنْ أَذِنَ
لَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ تَخْرُجَ عَنْ قُلُوبِهِمْ قَالُوا مَاذَا قَالَ
رَبُّكُم قَالُوا الْحَقُّ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ

24. Say : "Who gives you <sup>3827</sup>
Sustenance, from the heavens

٢٤ * قُلْ مَنْ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَوَاتِ

3822 Other objects of worship, such as Self, or Money, or Power, or things we imagine will bring us luck or prosperity, though they can do nothing of the kind.

3823 The false gods have no power whatever either in heaven or on earth, either in influencing our spiritual life or our ordinary worldly life. To suppose that they have some share, or that they can give some help to God, even though God is Supreme, is both false and blasphemous. God is One and Supreme, without sharer, helper, or equal.

3824. Cf. xx 109, n 2034, where I have explained the two possible modes of interpretation. Each soul is individually and personally responsible. And if there is any intercession, it can only be by God's gracious permission. For the Day of Judgment will be a terrible Day, or Day of Wrath (Dies Irae) according to the Latin hymn, when the purest souls will be stupefied at the manifestation of God's Power. See next note.

3825. "Then hearts" : the pronoun "then" is referred to the angels nearest to God. On the Day of Judgment there will be such an irresistible manifestation of Power that even they will be silent for a while, and will scarcely realise what is happening. They will question each other, and only thus will they regain their bearings. Or "their" may refer to those who seek intercession.

3826 In their mutual questionings they will realise that God's Judgment, as always, is right and just. Does this mean that no sort of intercession is required?

3827. There are six propositions introduced here with the word "Say", at verses 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 30. They clearly explain the doctrine of Unity (verse 22), the Mercy of God (verse 24), man's Personal Responsibility (verse 25), the Final Justice of God (verse 26), God's Power and Wisdom (verse 27), and the Inevitability of the Judgment, by which true values will be restored (verse 30).

Between our journey-stages<sup>3818</sup> :
But they wronged themselves
(therein).

At length We made them
As a tale (that is told),<sup>3819</sup>
And We dispersed them
All in scattered fragments.
Verily in this are Signs
For every (soul that is)
Patiently constant and grateful.

20. And on them did Satan
Prove true his idea,<sup>3820</sup>
And they followed him, all
But a Party that believed.

21. But he had no authority
Over them,—except that We Might test the man who<sup>3821</sup>
Believes in the Hereafter
From him who is in doubt
Concerning it : and thy Lord
Doth watch over all things.

أَسْفَارِنَا وَظَلَمُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ فَعَلَّاهُمْ
أَحَادِيثَ وَمَتَّقْنَاهُمْ كُلَّ مَسْرُوفٍ إِنَّ فِي
ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ

⑤ وَلَقَدْ صَدَقَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِبْلِيسُ ظَنَّهُ
فَاتَّبَعُوهُ إِلَّا فَرِيقًا مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

⑥ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا لِنَعْلَمَ
مَنْ يَأْتِيَنَّ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ هَؤُلَاءِ مَنْ هُوَ فِي شَكٍّ
وَرَبُّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَفِيفٌ

3818. The covetous Sabā people, in order to get more profit from travellers' supplies by concentrating them on a few stations which they could monopolise, tended to choke off traffic and ruin the big trade. Selfishness often runs counter to true self-interest. It is a historical fact that the great Yemen-Syria route in Arabia declined with the decline of Yemen. There were no doubt physical causes, but supreme above all were the moral causes, the grasping nature of the people, and their departure from the highest standards of righteousness.

3819. The people of Sabā were given every chance. They had prosperity, skill, trade and commerce, and a healthy and beautiful country. They also had, apparently, great virtues, and as long as they remained true to their virtues, i.e., to the Law of God, they remained happy and contented. But when they became covetous and selfish, and became jealous of other people's prosperity instead of rejoicing in it, they fell from grace and declined. It may be that the climate changed, the rainfall became scantier, perhaps on account of the cutting down of hill forests; trade routes changed, on account of the people falling off in the virtues that make men popular; behind all the physical causes was the root-cause, that they began to worship mammon, self, greed, or materialism. They fell into the snare of Satan. They gradually passed out of history, and became only a name in a story. Moral: it is only God's Mercy that can give true happiness or prosperity, and happiness or prosperity is only a snare unless used for the highest service of God and man.

3820. Cf. xvii. 62. Satan out of arrogance had said, when he asked for respite from the Most High: "I will bring (Adam's) descendants under my sway, all but a few." This was now proved true on the Sabā people. He had no power to force them. It was their own will that went wrong and put them into his power.

3821. Might test: the word in the original is might know. It is not that God does not know all. Why does He want to test? It is in order to help us subjectively, to train our will, to put us definitely the question, "Will you obey God or other than God?" Cf. n. 467 to iii. 154.

And We converted their two
Garden (rows) into "gardens"
Producing bitter fruit,
And tamarisks, and some few
(Stunted) Lote-trees.<sup>3814</sup>

17. That was the Requital
We gave them because
They ungratefully rejected
Faith : <sup>3815</sup>

And never do We give (Such) requital except to such
As are ungrateful rejecters.

18. Between them and the Cities <sup>3816</sup>
On which We had poured
Our blessings, We had placed
Cities in prominent positions,
And between them We had Appointed stages of journey
In due proportion : "Travel
therein,
Secure, by night and by day."

19. But they said : <sup>3817</sup> " Our Lord !
Place longer distances

وَبَدَّلْنَاهُمْ بِجَنَّتَيْهِمْ جَنَّتَيْنِ ذَوَاتِ أُكُلٍ
خَمْطٍ وَأَنْثَى شَعٍ مِنْ سِدْرٍ قَلِيلٍ

إِلَّا الْكَافِرُونَ

١٨ وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ وَبَيْنَ الْقُرَى الَّتِي

سَيْرُوا فِيهَا الْيَلَىٰ وَإِنَّا لَمَّا لَمِينٌ

١٩ فَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا بَاعِدْ بَيْنَ

3814. The flourishing "Garden of Arabia" was converted into a waste. The luscious fruit trees became wild, or gave place to wild plants with bitter fruit. The feathery leaved tamarisk, which is only good for twigs and wattle-work, replaced the fragrant plants and flowers. Wild and stunted kinds of thorny bushes, like the wild Lote-tree, which were good for neither fruit nor shade, grew in place of the pomegranates, the date-palms, and the grape-vines. The lote-tree belongs to the family Rhamnaceæ, Zizyphus Spina Christi, of which (it is supposed) Christ's crown of thorns was made, allied to the Zizyphus Jujuba, or ber tree of India. Wild, it is shrubby, thorny and useless. In cultivation it bears good fruit, and some shade, and can be thornless, thus becoming a symbol of heavenly bliss : lvi. 28

3815. Kafār : intensive form : "those who deliberately and continuously reject God and are ungrateful for His Mercies, as shown by their constant wrong-doing."

3816. An instance is now given of the sort of covetousness on the part of the people of Sabā, which ruined their prosperity and trade and cut their own throats. The old Frankincense route was the great Highway (imām mubīn xv. 79; sabīl muqīm, xv. 76) between Arabia and Syria. Through Syria it connected with the great and flourishing Kingdoms of the Euphrates and Tigris valleys on the one hand and Egypt on the other, and with the great Roman Empire round the Mediterranean. At the other end, through the Yemen Coast, the road connected, by sea transport, with India, Malaya, and China. The Yemen-Syria road was much frequented, and Madāin Ṣāliḥ was one of the stations on that route, and afterwards on the Pilgrim route : see Appendix IX to S. xxvi, p. 973. Syria was the land on which God "had poured His blessings", being a rich fertile country, where Abraham had lived : it includes the Holy Land of Palestine. The route was studded in the days of its prosperity with many stations (cities) close to each other, on which merchants could travel with ease and safety, "by night and by day". The close proximity of stations prevented the inroads of highwaymen.

3817. Said : in this and other places in the Qur-ān, "language" is used for thought or deed. The Commentators call it the "language of actual facts" (ṣabān ḥāl) as opposed to the "language of words" (ṣabān qāḥ).

Kept (slowly) gnawing away

In the humiliating Penalty
(Of their Task).

15. ~~There~~ There was, for Saba, <sup>3810</sup>
Aforetime, a Sign in their Home-land—two Gardens
To the right and to the left.
"Eat of the Sustenance (provided)
By your Lord, and be grateful
To Him: a territory fair and happy,
And a Lord Oft-Forgiving!" <sup>3811</sup>

لَقَدْ كَانَ لِسَبَآ فِي سَنِكَيمٍ آيَةً
جَنَّاتٍ عَنْ يَمِينٍ وَشِمَالٍ كُلُّوا مِنْ رِزْقِ
رَبِّكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِلَّهِ بَلَدٌ طَيِّبٌ وَرَبُّ
غَفُورٌ

16. But they turned away
(From God), and We sent Against them the flood <sup>3812</sup>
(Released) from the Dams, <sup>3813</sup>

فَاَعْرِضُوا فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ سَيْلَ الْعَرِمِ

3809. The Jinns looked upon their work as a Penalty, and so it became to them. The people who worked at the Temple of Solomon as the People of David worked and gloried in their work as a thanksgiving to God, and their work became sanctified. The Jinns knew nothing of hidden secrets; they only saw the obvious, and had not even the significance of the little worm that slowly gnawed away Solomon's staff.

3810. This is the same city and territory in Yemen as is mentioned in xxvii. 22: see note there as to its location. There the period was the time of Solomon and Queen Bilqis. Here it is some centuries later. It was still a happy and prosperous country, amply irrigated from the Ma'rib dam. Its roads or perhaps its canals, were skirted by gardens on both sides, right and left: at any given point you always saw two gardens. It produced fruit, spices, and frankincense, and got the name of Araby the Blest for that part of the country.

3811. The land was fair to look upon; the people happy and prosperous: and they enjoyed the blessings of God, Who is Gracious and does not punish small human faults or weaknesses.

3812. Into that happy Garden of Eden in Arabia Felix (Araby the Blest) came the insidious snake of Unfaith and Wrongdoing. Perhaps the people became arrogant of their prosperity, or of their science, or of their skill in irrigation engineering, in respect of the wonderful works of the Dam which their ancestors had constructed. Perhaps they got broken up into rich and poor, privileged and unprivileged, high-caste and low-caste, disregarding the gifts and closing the opportunities given by God to all His creatures. Perhaps they broke the laws of the very Nature which fed and sustained them. The Nemesis came. It may have come suddenly, or it may have come slowly. The pent-up waters of the eastern side of the Yemen highlands were collected in a high lake confined by the Dam of Ma'rib. A mighty flood came; the dam burst; and it has never been repaired since. This was a spectacular crisis: it may have been preceded and followed by slow desiccation of the country.

3813. "Arim" (=Dams or Embankments) may have been a proper noun, or may simply mean the great earth-works lined with stone, which formed the Ma'rib dam, of which traces still exist. The French traveller T. J. Arnaud saw the town and ruins of the Dam of Ma'rib in 1813, and described its gigantic works and its inscriptions: See Journal Asiatique for January 1874: the account is in French. For a secondary account in English, see W. B. Harris, Journey Through Yemen, Edinburgh, 1893. The dam as measured by Arnaud was two miles long and 120 ft. high. The date of its destruction was somewhere about 120 A.D., though some authorities put it much later.

For him; and there were
Jinns that worked in front <sup>3805</sup>
Of him, by the leave
Of his Lord, and if any
Of them turned aside
From Our command, We
Made him taste
Of the Penalty
Of the Blazing Fire.

وَمِنَ الْجِنِّ مَن يَعْمَلُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ
بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِ ۖ وَمَن يَزِغْ مِنْهُم عَنْ أَمْرِنَا نَذِقْهُ
مِنْ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ

13. They worked for him
As he desired, (making) Arches, <sup>3806</sup>
Images, Basons
As large as Reservoirs,
And (cooking) Cauldrons fixed
(In their places): "Work ye, <sup>3807</sup>
Sons of David, with thanks!
But few of My servants
Are grateful!"

۞ يَعْمَلُونَ لَهُ مَا يَشَاءُ مِنْ مَحْرِبٍ وَتَمَثِيلٍ
وَجِفَانٍ كَالْجُرَابِ وَقُدُورٍ
رَّاسِيكَ أَغْلُظُوا ۖ آل دَاوُدَ شُكْرًا وَقَلِيلٌ
مِّنْ عِبَادِيَ الشَّاكِرُونَ

14. When, when We decreed
(Solomon's) death, nothing showed <sup>3808</sup> them
His death except a little
Worm of the earth, which

۞ فَلَمَّا قَضَيْنَا عَلَيْهِ الْمَوْتَ مَا دَلَّهُمْ عَلَىٰ
مَوْتِهِ إِلَّا دَابَّةُ الْأَرْضِ

3805 See xxvii 17, and n 3257. The workers who are called Jinns were only rough workers, working "in front of Solomon", i.e., under his eyes and the supervision of his men. They should be distinguished from the skilled workers who worked heart and soul for the Temple, and who are addressed as the "Sons of David" in the next verse.

3806 Mikrāb (Plural Makārib), translated "arch", may be applied to any fine, elevated, spacious architectural structure. As the reference here is to the Temple of Solomon, the word "arches" is I think most appropriate. "Arches" would be structural Ornaments in the Temple. Images would be like the images of oxen and Cherubim mentioned in II. Chronicles, iv. 3 and iii. 14; the Basons (II. Chronicles iv. 22) were perhaps huge dishes round which many men could sit together and eat, according to ancient Eastern custom, while the cooking Cauldrons or Pots (II. Chronicles, iv. 16), were fixed in one place, being so large in capacity that they could not be moved about. Indian readers will get some idea of them from the huge cooking Degs, which they use in the 'Urs at Ajmir Sharif.

3807. The building of the Temple was a great event in Israelite history. The motto here given is "Work!"; for only that would justify the maintenance of the Kingdom of David, which reached its zenith under Solomon. Without work, both literally, and figuratively for "righteous deeds", all that glory and power would be out of place, and it fell away in a few generations, with the decline of the moral spirit which was at its back.

3808 This allegory illustrates three points: (1) however great and glorious human power and grandeur may be, it is only for a time, and it may fade away even before people know of its decline; (2) the most remarkable events may be brought to light, not by a flourish of trumpets, but by a humble individual, unknown and unseen, who works imperceptibly and undermines even so strong a thing as staff, on which a great man may lean; (3) work done by men merely on the basis of brute strength or fear, as in the case of the Jinns, will not endure. This is brought up in strong contrast against the Power and Majesty of God, which will endure, which cannot be sapped, and which can only be fully appreciated by a training of the will and heart. In the same way, in David's story above, his mighty strength as a warrior (see ii. 251) and his skill in making armour are only to be valued when used, as it was used, in the service of God, in righteous works (xxxiv. 11).

SECTION 2.

10. We bestowed Grace aforetime
On David from Ourselves: <sup>3799</sup>
"O ye Mountains! sing ye
Back the Praises of God
With him! and ye birds
(Also)! And We made
The iron soft for him;—<sup>3800</sup>

⑩ * وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ مِنْكَ فَضْلًا يَجِبَالُ
أَقْبِي مَعَهُ وَالطَّيْرُ وَالنَّالَهُ الْحَدِيدَ

11. (Commanding), "Make thou
Coats of mail, balancing well <sup>3801</sup>
The rings of chain armour,
And work ye righteousness; <sup>3802</sup>
For be sure I see
(Clearly) all that ye do."

⑪ أَنْ أَعْمَلُ سَيْغَتِي وَقَدَّرُ فِي الشَّرِّ
وَأَعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ

12. And to Solomon (We Made) the Wind (obedient): <sup>3803</sup>
Its early morning (stride)
Was a month's (journey),
And its evening (stride)
Was a month's (journey);
And We made a Font <sup>3804</sup>
Of molten brass to flow

⑫ وَلِسُلَيْمَانَ الرِّيحَ غَدُوًّا شَرُّ وِرْوَا حَهَا
شَهْرًا وَأَسَلْنَاهُ عَيْنَ الْقَطْرِ

3799. Cf. xxi. 79-80, and notes 2733-34. David had the gift of song and sacred music, and this is shown in his Psalms. All nature—hills and birds—sing and echo back the Praises of God.

3800. Iron or steel is hard stuff: but in the hands of a craftsman it becomes soft and pliable, and with it can be made instruments for the defence of righteousness. These, in the literal sense, are coats of mail, and defensive armour, and the manufacture of them is traditionally attributed to David. But, for warfare in the moral and spiritual world also, armour is required, and this can be made of some of the toughest and hardest facts of life.

3801. Coats of chain armour have to be made with cunning art, if the chains are to fit into each other and the whole garment is to be worn in comfort in fierce warfare.

3802. Note the transition from the singular, "make them coats of mail", to the plural, "and work ye righteousness". The first is addressed to David, who was the artificer of defensive armour; and the second is addressed to him and his whole people. He made the armour, but it was to be worn not only by him but all his warriors. But he and all his people were to be careful to see that they did not deviate from the paths of righteousness. Fighting is a dangerous weapon and may well degenerate (as it so often does) into mere violence. They were to see that this should not happen, and they were told that God was watching over them all with the personal solicitude implied in the singular pronoun "I".

3803. Cf. xxi. 81-82, n. 2736, and xxxviii. 36-38. See also xxvii. 38-39. The winds are swift and can cover in a short morning's or evening's flight the distance which it takes a whole month to cover on foot or by bullock cart. In our own day, with air speeds of 400 miles and more per hour, this seems a moderate statement.

3804. In the Old Testament, II. Chronicles, Chapters iii., and iv., are described the various costly materials with which Solomon's Temple was built, and it was furnished with vessels, candle-sticks, lamps, censers, etc. "Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out" (II. Chronicles, iv. 18). "Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about" (II. Chronicles, iv. 2). The receptacle or "sea" or Font was made of molten brass; presumably it contained flowing water for washing with.

To the Path of the Exalted
(In Might), Worthy
Of all praise.

7. The Unbelievers say
(In ridicule): "Shall we Point out to you a man<sup>3794</sup>
That will tell you,
When ye are all scattered
To pieces in disintegration,
That ye shall (then be Raised) in a New Creation?

- 8 "Has he invented a falsehood
Against God, or has
A spirit (seized) him?"—<sup>3795</sup>
Nay, it is those who Believe not in the Hereafter,
That are in (real) Penalty,
And in farthest Error.

9. See they not what is
Before them and behind them,
Of the sky and the earth?<sup>3796</sup>
If We wished, We could
Cause the earth to swallow<sup>3797</sup>
Them up, or cause a piece
Of the sky to fall upon them.<sup>3798</sup>
Verily in this is a Sign
For every devotee that
Turns to God (in repentance).

إِلَى صِرَاطِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هَلْ نَذِيرٌ لَّكُم مِّنْ رَّجُلٍ
يُنَبِّئُكُمْ إِذَا مُزِقْتُمْ كُلٌّ مِّمَّزِقٍ إِنَّكُمْ لَخِلَافُ
جَدِيدٍ

أَفَذَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أَمْ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ بَلِ الَّذِينَ
لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ
فِي الْعَذَابِ وَالضَّلَالِ الْبَعِيدِ

أَفَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا
خَلْفَهُمْ مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّ شَأْنَهُمْ خَفِيفٌ
بِهِمُ الْأَرْضُ أَوْ سُقِطَ عَلَيْهِمْ كِسْفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ
إِن فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةٌ لِّكُلِّ عَبْدٍ مُّنِيبٍ

3794 This is a taunt against the holy Prophet, and it is applicable to all who preach the doctrine of a Future Life. How is it possible, say the Unbelievers, that when a man's body is reduced to dust and scattered about, the man should rise again and become a new Creation? They add that such a preacher is inventing a deliberate falsehood or is demented.

3795. The answer is: the Future Life is the truest of all Truths; so far is the man who teaches it from being demented, that it is those who deny it, that lack knowledge and are in real jeopardy for their souls; for they persecute Truth and must not only suffer defeat, but go farther and farther from Realities and thus suffer the worst hallucination about the spiritual world.

3796. The men who walk in spiritual darkness and laugh at a Hereafter, have but to observe the Power of God in the nature around them. He Who created the heavens and the earth and sustains them can surely make a new Creation! And the cosmic Laws which are so just and inevitable should surely give them an idea of the inexorable Justice that must redress all balance.

3797. Cf. xvi. 45, and n 2071. Who are these puny creatures—sceptics that question the might and majesty of God?

3798. Cf. xxvi. 187. This was actually a challenge hurled at Shu'aib and a shower of ashes and cinders came from above and overwhelmed the challengers!

The Hour": say, "Nay!
But most surely,
By my Lord,<sup>3789</sup> it will come
Upon you;—by Him
Who knows the unseen,—
From Whom is not hidden
The least little atom
In the Heavens or on earth:
Nor is there anything less
Than that, or greater, but
Is in the Record Perspicuous:<sup>3790</sup>

4. That He may reward
Those who believe and work
Deeds of righteousness: for such
Is Forgiveness and a Sustenance<sup>3791</sup>
Most Generous."

5. But those who strive
Against Our Signs, to frustrate<sup>3792</sup>
Them,—for such will be
A Penalty,—a Punishment
Most humiliating.

6. And those to whom<sup>3793</sup>
Knowledge has come see
That the (Revelation) sent down
To thee from thy Lord—
That is the Truth,
And that it guides

السَّاعَةُ قُلْ بَلَىٰ وَرَبِّي لَتَأْتِيَنَّكُمْ
عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ لَا يَغْرِبُ عَنْهُ وَثْقَالُ ذَرَّةٍ فِي
السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا أَصْغَرُ مِنْ
ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْبَرُ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُّبِينٍ

① لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ
كَرِيمٌ

② وَالَّذِينَ سَعَوْا عَلٰى آيَاتِنَا مُعْجِزِينَ أُولَٰئِكَ
لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مِنْ رِجْزٍ أَلِيمٌ

③ وَرَبِّي الَّذِينَ أَوْثَرُوا الْعِلْمَ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَ
لَكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَهُدًى

3789. The strongest emphasis and the most perfect assurance of certainty are indicated by reference to the authority of God Himself, the Ruler of the Day of Judgment.

3790. In the symbolical language of our own human experience, a record is more enduring than memory: in fact (if properly preserved) it is perpetual. If, further, it is expressed in clear language, without any obscurity, it can always be read with perfect precision and without any doubt whatever. Apply these qualities, free from human defects, to God's laws and decrees. They are unerring and enduring. Everything, great or small, will receive due recognition—a Reward for Good and a Punishment for Evil.

3791. "Sustenance": Spiritual in things spiritual, and physical in things physical. It implies not only the satisfaction of desire, but the provision of means for sustaining the ground won and for winning more ground in the march of progress.

3792. Cf. xxii. 51. God's Plan cannot be frustrated. It is those who work against it, who will be eliminated and destroyed.

3793. Against the doubts and vain imaginings of the Ignorant is the certainty of knowledge of the Enlightened: that God reveals Himself, and that His Revelation is true, and leads to the Path of true Guidance. That Path is the Path of God, Who, in His infinite Love and Mercy, is Worthy of all Praise.

It is possible to connect this with the "Record Perspicuous" in verse 3 above: 'it is perspicuous..., for the Enlightened do see...'

Sura XXXIV.

Saba, or the City of Saba

(see verse 15).

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Praise be to God,<sup>3785</sup>
To Whom belong all things
In the heavens and on earth :
To Him be Praise
In the Hereafter :
And He is Full of Wisdom,
Acquainted with all things.

2. He knows all that goes<sup>3786</sup>
Into the earth, and all that Comes out thereof ; all that
Comes down from the sky<sup>3787</sup>
And all that ascends thereto .
And He is the Most Merciful,
The Oft-Forgiving.

3. The Unbelievers say,<sup>3788</sup>
" Never to us will come .

① اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِي لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا
فِي الْاَرْضِ وَلَهُ الْحُسْنٰى فِي
الْاٰخِرَةِ وَهُوَ الْحَكِيْمُ الْخَبِيْرُ

② يَعْلَمُ مَا يَلِجُ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَمَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا
وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا يَعْرُجُ فِيهَا
وَهُوَ الرَّحِيْمُ الْغَفُوْرُ

③ وَقَالَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا لَا تَأْتِيْنَا

3785. The declaration of God's Praise has much mystic meaning. All Creation declares His Praises, i.e., manifests His Mercy and Power, Goodness and Truth—all the sublime attributes summed up in His Most Beautiful Names (vii. 180 and xvii. 110 and notes). For man, to contemplate these is in itself a Revelation. This sentiment opens five Sūras of the Qur-ān evenly distributed, viz. i., vi., xviii., xxxiv., and xxxv. Here the point most emphasised is that His wisdom and mercy comprehend all things, extended in space or in time—here and everywhere, now and evermore.

3786. An ignorant man may think that water absorbed in the soil or seed sown beneath the sod is lost, but it replenishes numerous rills and streams, and feeds and sustains numerous roots and forms of life, and throws up all kinds of vegetable life. So with things that come out of the earth : who can count the myriad forms of herbs and trees that grow and perish, and yet sustain a continuous life for ages and ages ? Yet these are symbolical of other things or entities beyond time or space, and beyond physical form. We see the birth and death of the animal part of man : when he is buried beneath the soil, the ignorant man thinks there is an end of him. But what countless stages still lie before him for his inner and spiritual life ? And so with the Platonic Forms of Things : Goodness, Virtue, Mercy, and the various functions of the soul. They are never lost, but go up to God.

3787. The vapours that rise from the earth and ascend to the sky descend again as rain and snow and as symbols of God's Mercy. So are the prayers of the devout and the call of those in agony for help and light, answered by the descent of mercy and guidance, help and light from the Throne of Majesty. The imagery indicated in the last note can be worked out to moral and spiritual forces, and they all centre in God. Do not forget that, just as there is the element of Mercy, so there is an element of Justice and Punishment—in the physical forces as well as in the moral and spiritual forces, all centring in God.

3788. The last two verses prepared us to realise the position of Unbelievers in God's great Universe. They are the discord in the universal harmony of Prayer and Praise. Their existence is due to the grant of a limited free-will, the Trust which the Unbelievers have betrayed (see xxxiii. 72 and notes). But they must and will be eliminated : see verse 5 below. For there is nothing more certain in the world, physical, moral, and spiritual, than that every cause, great or small, must have its corresponding consequences.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXIV (Sabā).

Now we begin a series of six Sūras, S. xxxiv. to S. xxxix, which recapitulate some of the features of the spiritual world. This Sūra leads off with emphasis on God's Mercy and Power and Truth. Then (in S. xxxv.) we are told how angels manifest the Power of God, and how different is Good from Evil and Truth from Falsehood. S. xxxvi. is devoted to the holy Prophet and the Qur-ān that came through him. In S. xxxvii. the emphasis is on the snares of the Evil One; in S. xxxviii., on the conquest of evil by wisdom and power as in the case of David and Solomon, and by Patience and Constancy as in the case of Job; and in S. xxxix, on the Final Judgment, which will sort out Faith from Unfaith and give to each its due.

The chronology has here no significance. This Sūra belongs to the early Meccan period.

Summary.—No Good or Truth is ever lost: Human Power and Prosperity are fleeting; but God's Power and Justice endure, and will enforce personal responsibility on man on the Last Day (xxxiv. 1-30, and C. 190).

Faith and Unfaith will eventually find their true places and true values; Falsehood has no power: Truth is with God (xxxiv. 31-54, and C. 191).

C. 190.—God's Mercy and Power endure for ever:
 (xxxiv. 1-30.) Man should understand and not resist
     God's Revelation. Human wisdom and Power,
     As given to David, were only for establishing Righteousness. Human glory, like Solomon's,
     Rested on slender foundations. Sabā
     But enjoyed her fair and prosperous state
     As long as she obeyed the Law
     Of God, but perished for unrighteousness.
     Learn, then, that the Mercy and Power, Wisdom
     And Justice, of God are beyond all comparison.
     Do right and prepare for the Final Day.

73. (With the result (that
 God has to punish <sup>3783</sup>
 The Hypocrites, men and women,
 And the Unbelievers, men
 And women, and God turns
 In Mercy to the Believers, <sup>3784</sup>
 Men and women : for God
 is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

لَيُعَذِّبَ اللَّهُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ
 وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ وَالْمُشْرِكَاتِ وَيَتُوبُ اللَّهُ عَلَى
 الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
 وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

3783. Man's generic Covenant, which flowed from his exercising the option given him, choosing Will, Forbearance, Love, and Mercy, made it necessary that breach of it should carry its own punishment. Breach of it is here classed under two heads : those who betray their Trust act either as Hypocrites or as Unbelievers. Hypocrites are those who profess Faith but bring not forth the fruits of Faith. Unbelievers are those who openly defy Faith, and from whom therefore no fruits of Faith are to be expected.

3784. Those who remain firm to their Faith and their Covenant (see notes 3781-82) will receive the aid of God's Grace ; their faults and weaknesses will be cured ; and they will be made worthy of their exalted Destiny. For God is Oft-Returning and Most Merciful.

So ends a Sûra which deals with the greatest complications and misunderstandings in our throbbing life here below, and points upwards to the Great Achievement, the highest Salvation.

And the Earth
 And the Mountains ; 3778
 But they refused 3779
 To undertake it, 3780
 Being afraid thereof :
 But man undertook it ;— 3781
 He was indeed unjust 3782
 And foolish ;—

وَالْأَرْضِ وَالْجِبَالِ فَأَبَيْنَ أَنْ يَحْمِلْنَهَا
 وَأَشْفَقْنَ مِنْهَا وَحَمَلَهَا الْإِنْسَانُ
 إِنَّهُ كَانَ ظَلُومًا جَهُولًا

3778. What is the meaning of the offer of the Trust to the Heavens, the Earth, and the Mountains? Cf. lix. 21, where the hypothetical sending down of the Qur-an to the Mountains is mentioned, and it is mentioned that such Parables are put forth in order to aid men to reflection. We may therefore take the Mountains, the Earth, and the Heavens as symbolical. The mountains stand for firmness and stability; they have been created for this quality, and they are always true to that quality. An earthquake or a volcano has to do with movements within the earth's crust: it has nothing to do with the Mountain's will. In fact it has no free-will of any kind: there is no question of any Trust here. If we take the Earth as a whole, as a part of the solar system or a compendium of the terrestrial Nature we see around us, it obeys the fixed laws of God, and there is no Will or Trust. If we take the Heavens either as celestial space, or as symbolical of the Angels, they absolutely obey God's Will and law: they have no will of their own.

3779. The Heavens, the Earth, and the Mountains, i.e., other creatures of God, besides man, refused to undertake a Trust or a responsibility, and may be imagined as happy without a choice of good or evil being given through their will. In saying that they refused, we imply a will, but we limit it by the statement that they did not undertake to be given a choice between good and evil. They preferred to submit their will entirely to God's Will, which is All-Wise and Perfect, and which would give them far more happiness than a faculty of choice, with their imperfect knowledge. Man was too audacious and ignorant to realise this, and the result has been that man as a race has been disrupted: the evil ones have betrayed the Trust and brought Punishment on themselves, though the good have been able to rise far above other Creation, to be the muqarrabîn, the nearest ones to God: lvi. 11 and lvi. 88. What can be higher than this for any creature?

It follows incidentally from this that the Heavens and the Earth were created before man was created, and this is in accordance with what we know of the physical world in science: man came on the scene at a comparatively late stage.

3780. Hamala: to undertake, bear, carry (the Trust or responsibility), to be equal to it. This is the ordinary meaning, and the majority of Commentators construe so. But some understand it to mean: "to carry away, run away with, to embezzle (the thing entrusted); hence to be false to the Trust, to betray the Trust." In that case the sense of verses 72-73 would be: "God offered the Trust to other creatures, but they refused, lest they should betray it, being afraid from that point of view: but man was less fair to himself: in his ignorance he accepted and betrayed the Trust, with the result that some of his race became Hypocrites and Unbelievers and were punished, though others were faithful to the Trust and received God's Mercy." The resulting conclusion is the same under both interpretations.

3781. See ii. 30-34 and notes. God intended a very high destiny for man, and placed him in his uncorrupted state even above the angels, but in his corruption he made himself even lower than the beasts. What was it that made man so high and noble? The differentiating quality which God gave man was that God breathed something of His own spirit into man (xxxii. 9; xv. 29 and n. 1968; and other passages). This meant that man was given a limited choice of good and evil, and that he was made capable of Forbearance, Love, and Mercy. And in himself man summed up God's great world: man is in himself a microcosm.

3782. That man should undertake the God-like attributes (in however small a degree) of Will, Forbearance, Love, and Mercy, brought him nearer to God than was possible for any other creature of God. This was part of God's Will and Plan, but little did man realise then what a tremendous task he was undertaking or question himself whether he would be equal to it. Zalam (translated "unjust") and Jahûl (ignorant) are both in the Arabic intensive form; as much as to say, 'man signally failed to measure his own powers or his own knowledge'. But God's Grace came to his assistance. Where man did his best, he won through by God's Grace, even though man's Best was but a poor Good.

How did man generically undertake this great Responsibility, which made him Vicegerent of God (ii. 30)? Here comes in the mystic doctrine of a Covenant, express or implied, between God and Humanity. See vii. 172-73 and notes 1146-48, also v. 1 and n. 682. A Covenant (Mithaq) necessarily implies Trust, and its breach necessarily implies Punishment.

SECTION 9.

69. ﴿۹﴾ ye who believe !
 Be ye not like those
 Who vexed and insulted Moses,<sup>3774</sup>
 But God cleared him
 Of the (calumnies) they
 Had uttered : and he
 Was honourable in God's sight.

﴿۹﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ
 آذَوْا مُوسَىٰ فَبَرَّاهُ اللَّهُ مَا قَالُوا
 وَكَانَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَجِيهًا

70. O ye who believe !
 Fear God, and (always) say
 A word directed to the Right : <sup>3775</sup>

﴿۱۰﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ
 وَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا

71. That He may make
 Your conduct whole and sound
 And forgive you your sins :
 He that obeys God
 And His Apostle, has already Attained the highest
 Achievement. <sup>3776</sup>

﴿۱۱﴾ يُصْلِحْ لَكُمْ أَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ
 ذُنُوبَكُمْ ۗ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ
 اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا

72. ﴿۱۲﴾ We did indeed offer
 The Trust <sup>3777</sup> to the Heavens

﴿۱۲﴾ إِنَّا عَرَضْنَا الْأَمَانَةَ عَلَى السَّمَوَاتِ

3774. The people of Moses often vexed him and rebelled against him and against God's Law. Here the reference seems to be to Num. xii. 1-13. It is there said that Moses's own sister Miriam and his brother Aaron spoke against Moses because Moses had married an Ethiopian woman. God cleared Moses of the charge of having done anything wrong: "My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house" Miriam was afflicted with leprosy for seven days as a punishment, after which she was forgiven, as also was Aaron. This is the Old Testament story. The holy Prophet was also attacked because of his marriage with Zainab bint Jahsh, but not by his own circle; his motives were of the highest and were completely vindicated as we have seen above.

3775. We must not only speak the truth as far as we know it, but we must always try to hit the right point; i.e., we must not speak unseasonably, and when we do speak, we must not beat about the bush, but go straight to that which is right, in deed as well as in word. Then God will make our conduct right and cure any defects that there may be in our knowledge and character. With our endeavour directed straight to the goal, we shall be forgiven our errors, shortcomings, faults, and sins of the past.

3776. This is salvation, the attainment of our real spiritual desire or ambition, as we are on the highway to nearness to God.

3777. The Trust is something given to a person, over which he has a power of disposition; he is expected to use it as directed or expected, but he has the power to use it otherwise. There is no trust if the trustee has no power, and the trust implies that the giver of the trust believes and expects that the trustee would use it according to the wish of the creator of the trust, and not otherwise.

63. When ask thee concerning
The Hour: say, "The
... knowledge<sup>3771</sup>

Thereof is with God (alone)";
And what will make thee
Understand?—perchance
The Hour is nigh!

64. Verily God has cursed
The Unbelievers and prepared
For them a Blazing Fire,—

65. To dwell therein for ever:
No protector will they find,
Nor helper.

66. The Day that their faces
Will be turned upside down<sup>3772</sup>
In the Fire, they will say:
"Woe to us! would that
We had obeyed God
And obeyed the Apostle!"

67. And they would say:
"Our Lord! We obeyed
Our chiefs and our great ones,
And they misled us
As to the (right) path.

68. "Our Lord! Give them
Double Penalty<sup>3773</sup>
And curse them
With a very great Curse!"

﴿يَسْأَلُكَ النَّاسُ عَنِ السَّاعَةِ قُلْ إِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا
عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَمَا يُدْرِيكَ لَعَلَّ
السَّاعَةَ تَكُونُ قَرِيبًا

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَنَ الْكُفْرِينَ وَآمَدَّ
لَهُمْ سَعِيرًا

﴿خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا لَا يَجِدُونَ
وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا

﴿يَوْمَ تُقَلَّبُ وُجُوهُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ يَقُولُونَ
يَا لَيْتَنَا أَطَعْنَا اللَّهَ وَأَطَعْنَا الرَّسُولَ

﴿وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّا أَطَعْنَا سَادَتَنَا
وَكُفَرَاءَنَا فَاصْلُوْنَا السَّبِيلَ

﴿رَبَّنَا آتِنَا مِنْ عَذَابٍ وَاعْتَنَهُ
لَنَا كَبِيرًا

3771. Cf. vii. 187 and n. 1159, where the idea is further explained. The knowledge of the Final Hour is with God alone. The fact of its coming is certain; the exact time when it will come has not been revealed. If it were, it would disturb our thoughts and life. "Heavy were its burden through the heavens and the earth." But at any given moment it cannot be far distant. In theological language, each individual's death is a Final Hour, a Qiyāmat Ṣuġrā (Lesser Day of Judgment). In that sense it is not the same for all individuals, and is certainly always near. "In the midst of life we are in death", as the Anglican Prayer-Book says in its Burial Service.

3772. The face is the expression of their Personality, their Self; and turning upside down is a sign of degradation and ignominy. When the Retribution comes, the evil ones will be humiliated, and they will wish that they had followed right guidance when they had the chance. They will then fall to accusing their leaders who misled them. But they forget their own personal responsibility.

3773. Cf. xxv. 69 and n. 3129, and xi. 20 and n. 1515. The double Penalty invoked will be because (1) they went wrong themselves and (2) they misled others.

O ye that believe !
Send ye blessings on him,
And salute him
With all respect.

57. Those who annoy<sup>3762</sup>
God and His Apostle—
God has cursed them
In this world and
In the Hereafter,
And has prepared for them
A humiliating Punishment

58. And those who annoy
Believing men and women
Undeservedly, bear
(on themselves)<sup>3763</sup>
A calumny and a glaring sin.

SECTION 8.

59. ⑥ Prophet! Tell
Thy wives and daughters,
And the believing women,<sup>3764</sup>
That they should cast
Their outer garments over<sup>3765</sup>
Their persons (when abroad):
That is most convenient,
That they should be known<sup>3766</sup>

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا

⑤ إِنْ مِنَ الَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ اللَّهَ
وَرَسُولَهُ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ
وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا

⑥ وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ بَغْيًا ظَالِمًا كَتَبْنَا
فَقْدًا أَهْمَلُوا بِهِنَّ وَأَوْلَمْنَا بِهِنَّ

⑥ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ وَبَنَاتِكَ
وَنِسَاءِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ يُدْنِينَ عَلَيْهِنَّ
مِنْ جَلْبَابِهِنَّ ذَلِكَ أَدْنَى أَنْ يُعْرَفْنَ

3762. Cf. n. 3758 above.

3763. Cf. iv. 112. In that passage we were told that any one who was himself guilty but accused an innocent man of his guilt, was obviously placing himself in double jeopardy; first, for his own original guilt, and secondly for the guilt of a false accusation. Here we take two classes of men instead of two individuals. The men and women of faith (if they deserve the name) and doing all they can to serve God and humanity. If they are insulted, hurt, or annoyed by those whose sins they denounce, the latter suffer the penalties of a double guilt, viz., their sins to start with, and the insults or injuries they offer to those who correct them. Instead of resenting the preaching of Truth, they should welcome it and profit by it.

3764. This is for all Muslim women, those of the Prophet's household, as well as the others. The times were those of insecurity (see next verse) and they were asked to cover themselves with outer garments when walking abroad. It was never contemplated that they should be confined to their houses like prisoners.

3765. Jilbāb, plural jalābīb: an outer garment; a long gown covering the whole body, or a cloak covering the neck and bosom.

3766. The object was not to restrict the liberty of women, but to protect them from harm and molestation under the conditions then existing in Medina. In the East and in the West a distinctive public dress of some sort or another has always been a badge of honour or distinction, both among men and women. This can be traced back to the earliest civilisations. Assyrian Law in its palmiest days (say, 7th century B.C.), enjoined the veiling of married women and forbade the veiling of slaves and women of ill fame: see Cambridge Ancient History, III. 107.

That ye should annoy<sup>3758</sup>
God's Apostle, or that
Ye should marry his widows
After him at any time,
Truly such a thing is
In God's sight an enormity.

أَنْ تُؤْذُوا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَلَا أَنْ تَنْكِحُوا أَزْوَاجَهُ
مِنْ بَعْدِهِ أَبَدًا إِنَّ ذَلِكَ كَانَ عِنْدَ
اللَّهِ عَظِيمًا

54. Whether ye reveal anything<sup>3759</sup>
Or conceal it, verily
God has full knowledge
Of all things.

⑤ إِنْ تَبَدُّوا شَيْئًا أَوْ خَفَوْهُ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا

55. There is no blame
(On these ladies if they Appear) before their fathers<sup>3760</sup>
Or their sons, their brothers,
Or their brothers' sons,
Or their sisters' sons,
Or their women,
Or the (slaves) whom
Their right hands possess.
And, (ladies), fear God;
For God is Witness
To all things.

⑥ لَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِنَّ فِي إِهْوَ آبَائِهِنَّ وَلَا
أَبْنَائِهِنَّ وَلَا إِخْوَانِهِنَّ وَلَا أَبْنَاءِ
إِخْوَانِهِنَّ وَلَا أَبْنَاءِ أَخَوَاتِهِنَّ وَلَا نِسَائِهِنَّ
وَلَا مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُنَّ وَآتَقِينَ
اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدًا

56. God and His Angels
Send blessings on the Prophet;<sup>3761</sup>

⑦ إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ

3758 "Annoy": Āḥā (IV) may equally mean: to vex, to cause hurt or injury, to insult, to ill-treat by slander or unseemly conduct, or hurt the feelings of (some one). The Prophet came with a divine mission to teach and reclaim the world, and he is entitled to the respect of all, even of those who do not consciously acknowledge his mission, for his mission works constantly like the forces of nature. In a minor degree the "Mothers of the Believers" are also entitled to respect.

3759. Respect or opposition may be shown overtly or in devious hidden ways. All good and evil are open before God, and He will take due account of everything.

3760. This refers back to the Hijāb (screen) portion of verse 53 above. The list of those before whom the Prophet's wives could appear informally without a screen is their fathers, sons, brothers, brothers' or sisters' sons, serving women, and household slaves or servants. Commentators include uncles (paternal and maternal) under the heading "fathers". "Their women" is held to mean all women who belonged to the Muslim community: other women were in the position of strangers, whom they received not so intimately, but with the formality of a screen as in the case of men. Compare with this list and the wording here the list and the wording in xxiv. 31, which applies to all Muslim women. In the list here, husbands and husbands' relatives are not necessary to be mentioned, as we are speaking of a single household, that of the central figure in Islam; nor men-servants nor children, as there were none. In the wording, note that for Muslim women generally, no screen or Hijāb (Parda) is mentioned, but only a veil to cover the bosom, and modesty in dress. The screen was a special feature of honour for the Prophet's household, introduced about five or six years before his death.

3761. God and His angels honour and bless the holy Prophet as the greatest of men. We are asked to honour and bless him all the more because he took upon himself to suffer the sorrows and afflictions of this life in order to guide us to God's Mercy and the highest inner Life.

Fear God, and always speak the word
That leads to Right. Arduous is the Quest
Of Mankind's high and noble Destiny,—
Beyond the reach of other creatures:
Let man but strive in Faith, and fulfil
God's Trust,—by the grace and mercy of God.

SECTION 7.

53. O ye who believe!
Enter not the Prophet's houses,—
Until leave is given you,—<sup>3755</sup>
For a meal, (and then)
Not (so early as) to wait
For its preparation: but when
Ye are invited, enter;
And when ye have taken
Your meal, disperse,
Without seeking familiar talk.
Such-(behaviour) annoys
The Prophet: he is ashamed
To dismiss you, but
God is not ashamed
(To tell you) the truth.

And when ye
Ask (his ladies) <sup>3756</sup>
For anything ye want,
Ask them from before
A screen: that makes
For greater purity for
Your hearts and for theirs.

Nor is it right for you <sup>3757</sup>

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتَ النَّبِيِّ إِلَّا
أَنْ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ غَيْرَ نَظِيرٍ لِإِنَّهُ
وَلَكِنْ إِذَا دُعِيتُمْ فَادْخُلُوا فَإِذَا طَعِمْتُمْ
فَانْثَرُوا وَلَا مَسْتَنْسِينَ خَدِثُوا إِنْ ذَلِكُمْ
كَانَ يُؤْذِي النَّبِيَّ فَيَسْتَحْيَ مِنْكُمْ وَاللَّهُ
لَا يَسْتَحْيَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ وَإِذَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُنَّ مَتَاعًا
فَسْأَلُوهُنَّ مِنْ وَرَاءِ حِجَابٍ ذَلِكُمْ أَطْهَرُ
لِقُلُوبِكُمْ وَقُلُوبِهِنَّ وَمَا كَانَ لَكُمْ

3755. The rules of refined social ethics it is as necessary to teach to-day as it was with the rude Arabs whom the holy Prophet had to teach in his day; Those mentioned in this verse may be briefly recapitulated thus: (1) Enter not a friend's house without permission; (2) if invited to dine, don't go too early; you are asked to dine, not to wait for the preparation of the food; (3) be there at the time appointed, so that you enter when you are expected and invited; (4) after the meal, don't get familiar with your host, especially if there is a great distance between him and you; (5) don't waste time in tittle-tattle, causing inconvenience and perhaps annoyance to your host; (6) understand what is proper behaviour for you; he may be too polite to ask you to depart. All this has a spiritual as well as a social bearing: respect and delicate consideration for others are among the highest virtues.

3756. The actual manner of showing respect to ladies may be different in different circumstances. But it is an essential principle of good society to show the greatest deference to them. To the "Mothers of the Believers" this respect was due in an exceptional degree.

3757. Considering his position, the holy Prophet deserved to be respected before all other men and nothing should be done to cause him the least harm and annoyance. This applied not only during his life-time, but it applies now, because his teaching and personality are alive to us. It was not fitting that his widows, both for their own position and for the position of the Prophet, should be married by other men after him. And this mark of respect was duly observed in history.

Thou hadst set aside.
 This were nigher to
 The cooling of their eyes,<sup>3751</sup>
 The prevention of their grief,
 And their satisfaction—
 That of all of them—
 With that which thou
 Hast to give them:<sup>3754</sup>
 And God knows (all)
 That is in your hearts:<sup>3753</sup>
 And God is All-Knowing,
 Most Forbearing.

52. It is not lawful for thee
 (To marry more) women<sup>3751</sup>
 After this, nor to change
 Them for (other) wives,
 Even though their beauty
 Attract thee, except any
 Thy right hand should Possess (as handmaidens):
 And God doth watch
 Over all things.

ذَلِكَ أَذِّنَا أَنْ نَقْرَأَ عَيْنَهُنَّ وَلَا نَخْزَنَ وَرَضَيْنَ بِمَا
 آتَيْنَهُنَّ كُلُّهُنَّ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ
 مَا فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَلِيمًا

⑤ لَا يَحِلُّ لَكَ النِّسَاءُ مِنْ بَعْدُ وَلَا أَنْ تَبَدِّلَ بَيْنَ
 مِنْ أَزْوَاجٍ وَلَوْ أَجَبَكَ حَسَنُهنَّ إِنْ أَمَّا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ
 وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رَقِيبًا

C. 189.—Believers should cultivate refined respect
 (xxxiii. 53-73.) In social and spiritual life. As the Mothers
 Of the Faithful have to uphold their dignity,
 So should all women protect their honour
 And uphold their dignity. The Hour
 Will come when all Evil will be punished.

3751. Cooling the eyes: an Arabic idiom for cheering and comforting eyes which yearn to see those they love. A verse of Zeb-un-nisāa, daughter of the Muḡal Emperor Aurangzeb, may be rendered thus:

"My heart is glad whenever lover-wise
 I dwell upon thy beauties and thy grace!
 But how can I content my hungry eyes,
 That ask continually to see thy face?"

3752. There was not much in the way of worldly goods or satisfaction that the Prophet could give them: see xxxiii. 28 above. But he was kind, just, and true,—the best of men to his family, and they all clung to him.

3753. Our human hearts, however good on the whole, may yet, in their motives, have possibly some baser admixture. The feminine hearts are not more immune in this respect than the masculine. But everything is known and understood by God, Who will in His mercy make all allowance for our human weaknesses. His title of "Most Forbearing" (Hafīm) also gives His devoted worshippers the cue: why should we not also forbear with the faults and weaknesses of our neighbours and fellow-creatures?

3754. This was revealed in A.H. 7. After that the Prophet did not marry again, except the handmaiden Mary the Copt, who was sent as a present by the Christian Nuqauqas of Egypt. She became the mother of Ibrāhīm, who died in his infancy.

To the Prophet if the Prophet<sup>3745</sup>
Wishes to wed her;—this
Only for thee, and not
For the Believers (at large);
We know what We have
Appointed for them as to<sup>3746</sup>
Their wives and the captives
Whom their right hands
Possess;—in order that<sup>3747</sup>
There should be no difficulty
For thee. And God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.<sup>3748</sup>

51. Thou mayest defer (the turn<sup>3749</sup>
Of) any of them that thou
Pleasest, and thou mayest receive
Any thou pleasest: and there
Is no blame on thee if
Thou invite one whose (turn)<sup>3750</sup>

لِلنَّبِيِّ إِنْ أَرَادَ النَّبِيُّ أَنْ يَسْتَنْكِحَهَا خَالِصَةً لَكَ مِنْ
دَوْلِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَلَا تَدْعُنَا مَا فَرَضْنَا عَلَيْكُمْ فِي
أَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَمَا مَلَكَكُمْ أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ لِكَيْلَا
يَكُونَ عَلَيْكَ حَرَجٌ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

⑤ * تُرْجَى مِنْ نِسَاءِ مَنْ هُنَّ وَتُؤْتَى إِلَيْكَ مِنْ
نِسَاءٍ وَمَنْ ابْتَغَيْتَ مِنْ عَزَلْتَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكَ

3745. Head 4. A believing woman who dedicates her soul to the Prophet: obviously this case, like the last, is only applicable to the Prophet, and it is hedged round with the limitation that the Prophet considers it a suitable and proper case of true service to the community and not merely a sentimental woman's freak. Some Commentators think there was no such case. But others, with whom I agree, think that this applies to Zainab bint Khuzaima, who had dedicated herself to the poor and was called the Mother of the Poor (Umm-ul-masākīn). Similarly the last head might possibly refer to Zainab bint Jahsh, who was a daughter of the Prophet's paternal aunt, herself a daughter of 'Abd-ul-Muttalib.

3746. The ordinary law of Muslim marriage will be found chiefly in ii. 221-235, iv. 3-4, iv. 19-25, iv. 34-35, and v. 6.

3747. The words "this only for thee...right hands possess" are parenthetical, and the words "in order that..." connect on with the previous clauses beginning with "O Prophet, We have made lawful...wishes to wed her".

3748. Marriage is an important relationship not only in our physical life, but in our moral and spiritual life, and its effects extend not only to the parties themselves but to children and future generations. A number of special problems arise according to special circumstances. Every man and woman must seriously consider all sides of the question and must do the best in his or her power to temper instincts and inclinations with wisdom and guidance from God. God wishes to make every one's path easy, for He is indeed "Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful".

3749. In iv. 3 it is laid down that more than one wife is not permissible "if ye fear that ye shall not be able to deal justly with them". In a Muslim household there is no room for a "favourite wife". In the special circumstances of the Prophet there were more than one, and he usually observed the rule of equality with them, in other things as well as in the rotation of conjugal rights. But considering that his marriages after he was invested with the Prophetic office were mainly dictated by other than conjugal or personal considerations (see n. 3706, xxxiii. 28), the rotation could not always be observed, though he observed it as much as possible. This verse absolves him from absolute adherence to a fixed rotation. There are other interpretations, but I agree with most of the Commentators in the view I have explained.

3750. Where the rotation was for some reason interfered with, it was permissible, by another interference with the usual rotation, to bring satisfaction to one who had been previously set aside. This was not only permitted, but commended, as tending to remove dissatisfaction and cheer and comfort the eyes and hearts of those who were disappointed in their turn.

No period of 'Iddat <sup>3738</sup>
 Have ye to count
 In respect of them :
 So give them a present, <sup>3739</sup>
 And set them free
 In a handsome manner, <sup>3740</sup>

فَمَا لَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ عَدُوٍّ تَعْتَدُوْنَهَا فَمَتَّعُوْهُنَّ
 وَسَرَّحُوْهُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَمِيْلًا

50. ﴿٥٠﴾ Prophet! We have Made lawful to thee <sup>3741</sup>
 Thy wives to whom thou
 Hast paid their dowers ; <sup>3742</sup>
 And those whom thy
 Right hand possesses out of
 The prisoners of war whom <sup>3743</sup>
 God has assigned to thee ;
 And daughters of thy paternal
 Uncles and aunts, and daughters
 Of thy maternal uncles
 And aunts, who migrated <sup>3744</sup>
 (From Mecca) with thee ;
 And any believing woman
 Who dedicates her soul

﴿٥٠﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَحْلَلْنَا لَكَ أَزْوَاجَكَ الَّتِي
 ءَاتَيْتَ أَجُورَهُنَّ وَمَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ مِنْ نِّسَاءِ أَهْلِ
 عَمَلِكَ وَبَنَاتِ عَمِّكَ وَبَنَاتِ عَمَّتِكَ وَبَنَاتِ
 خَالَكِ وَبَنَاتِ خَالَتِكَ الَّتِي هَاجَرْنَ مَعَكَ
 وَامْرَأَةً مُؤْمِنَةً إِنْ وَهَبَتْ نَفْسَهَا

3738. See n. 254 to ii. 228. The 'Iddat counts for three monthly courses, or if there are no courses, for three months : see lxx. 4.

3739. This present is held, by some, to be in addition to the half dower due to them under ii. 237. If the dower had not yet been fixed, the gift would presumably be larger, and it would absorb the gift prescribed in ii. 236.

3740. The gift should be given with good grace, and the freedom of the woman should not be interfered with in any way. If she chooses to marry again immediately, no obstacle should be placed in her path. On no pretext should she be allowed to remain doubtful about her freedom.

3741. This introduces no new exemption or privilege. Verses 50-52 merely declare the points in which, on account of the special circumstances (see n. 3706 above), the Prophet's marriages differed from those of ordinary Muslims. This is considered under four heads, which we shall examine in the four notes following.

3742. Head 1. Marriage with dower (iv. 4) : this is the universal Muslim marriage. The difference in the Prophet's case was that there was no limitation to the number of four (iv. 3), and women of the People of the Book (v. 6) were not among his wives, but only Believers. These points are not expressly mentioned here, but are inferred by his actual practice. Obviously women who are expected to instruct other women in Islam must be Muslims.

3743. Head 2. Women Prisoners of War : the same remark as in the last note. The point does not now arise, as the whole conditions and incidents of war have been altered and slavery has been abolished by international agreement.

3744. Head 3. These are first cousins, and not within the Prohibited Degrees of Marriage (see iv. 23-24). These are specially mentioned here by way of limitation. None of them could marry the Prophet unless she had performed the Hijrat with him. If she had not so performed it in spite of her close relationship, she could not be credited with any great fervour for Islam, or be considered suitable for instructing other women in Islam.

A Witness, a Bearer<sup>3734</sup>
Of Glad Tidings,
And a Warner,—

شَهِيدًا وَمُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا

46. And as one who invites
To God's (Grace) by His leave,<sup>3735</sup>
And as a Lamp
Spreading Light.

⑬ وَدَاعِيًا إِلَى اللَّهِ بِإِذْنِهِ وَسِرَاجًا مُنِيرًا

47. Then give the glad tidings
To the Believers, that
They shall have from God
A very great Bounty.<sup>3736</sup>

⑭ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَنَّ لَهُمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ فَضْلًا كَبِيرًا

48. And obey not (the behests)
Of the Unbelievers
And the Hypocrites,
And heed not their annoyances,<sup>3737</sup>
But put thy trust in God.
For enough is God
As a Disposer of affairs.

⑮ وَلَا تَطِيعِ الْكَافِرِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ وَدَعِ
أَذْنَهُمْ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ وَكِيلًا

49. ① ye who believe!
When ye marry believing women,
And then divorce them
Before ye have touched them,

⑯ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا تَزَوَّجْتُمُ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
وَلَمْ تَمَسُّوهُنَّ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ تَمْسُوهُنَّ

3734. The Prophet was sent by God in five capacities. Three are mentioned in this verse, and the other two in the verse following. (1) He comes as a Witness to all men about the spiritual truths which had been obscured by ignorance or superstition, or by the dust of sectarian controversy. He did not come to establish a new religion or sect. He came to teach Religion. He is also a witness to God about men's doings and how they receive God's Message: see iv. 41 and n. 560. (2) He comes as a bearer of the Glad Tidings of the Mercy of God. No matter how far men may have transgressed, they have hope if they believe, repent, and live a good life. (3) He also comes as a Warner to those who are heedless. This life will not last. There is a Future Life, and that is all-important. See next note.

3735. See last note. The two other capacities in which the Prophet was sent are here specified. (4) He comes as one who has a right to invite all men to repentance and the forgiveness of sins; but he does this, not of his own authority, but by the permission and authority given to him by God. This is said lest people may deify the Prophet as they did with other Prophets before him. The personal responsibility of each individual remains, but the Prophet can lead him on to the Right and help him. (5) The Prophet also comes as a Light or a Lamp (Sirāj) to illuminate the whole world. In lxxi. 16 and elsewhere the same word (Sirāj) is used for the sun. The comparison is apt. When the sun appears, all the lesser lights pale before his light. And the Message of Islam, i.e., of the Universal Religion, is to diffuse Light everywhere.

3736. The light of Islam is the Biggest Bounty possible and if they truly understand it, they should glory in it.

3737. Men of little or no Faith will often lay down the law and tell better men than themselves what to do. In case of refusal they shower insults and injuries. No attention is to be paid to them. It is their way. All will be right under the government of God.

And enough is God
To call (men) to account.<sup>3730</sup>

40. Muhammad is not
The father of any
Of your men, but (he is)
The Apostle of God,
And the Seal of the Prophets :<sup>3731</sup>
And God has full knowledge
Of all things.

SECTION 6.

41. ﴿﴾ ye who believe!
Celebrate the praises of God,
And do this often ;

42. And glorify Him
Morning and evening.

43. He it is Who sends<sup>3732</sup>
Blessings on you, as do
His angels, that He may
Bring you out from the depths
Of Darkness into Light ;
And He is Full of Mercy
To the Believers.<sup>3733</sup>

44. Their salutation on the Day
They meet Him will be
"Peace!" ; and He has
Prepared for them
A generous Reward.

45. ﴿﴾ Prophet! Truly We
Have sent thee as

وَكُنِيَ بِاللهِ حَسِيبًا

⑤ مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِنْ رِجَالِكُمْ وَلَٰكِنْ
رَّسُولُ اللَّهِ وَخَاتَمُ النَّبِيِّينَ ۚ وَكَانَ
اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا

⑥ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا كَثِيرًا

⑦ وَسَبِّحُوهُ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا

⑧ هُوَ الَّذِي يُصَلِّىْ عَلَيْكُمْ وَمَلَائِكَتُهُ لِيُخْرِجَكُم
مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ ۚ وَكَانَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَحِيمًا

⑨ تَحِيَّاتُهُمْ يَوْمَ يَلْقَوْنَهُ
سَلَامٌ ۚ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا كَرِيمًا

⑩ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ

3730. Our responsibility is to God, not to men. Men's opinions may have a bearing on our own interpretation of duty, but when that duty is clear, our only course is to obey God rather than men.

3731. When a document is sealed, it is complete, and there can be no further addition. The holy Prophet Muhammad closed the long line of Apostles. God's teaching is and will always be continuous, but there has been and will be no Prophet after Muhammad. The later ages will want thinkers and reformers, not Prophets. This is not an arbitrary matter. It is a decree full of knowledge and wisdom : "for God has full knowledge of all things."

3732. Blessings : good wishes and mercies. God wishes well to all His creatures, and His angels carry out His work, for their will is in all things His Will. His chief and everlasting blessing is that He gives us a knowledge of the spiritual world, and helps us towards its attainment. For the symbolic meaning of Light and Darkness, see xxiv. 35-40 and notes.

3733. His Mercies are for all His creatures, but for those who believe and trust in Him, there are special mercies, "a generous Reward" as in the next verse.

More fitting that thou shouldst<sup>3724</sup>
 Fear God. Then when Zaid
 Had dissolved (his marriage)
 With her, with the necessary<sup>3725</sup>
 (Formality), We joined her
 In marriage to thee:
 In order that (in future)
 There may be no difficulty
 To the Believers in (the matter
 Of) marriage with the wives<sup>3726</sup>
 Of their adopted sons, when
 The latter have dissolved
 With the necessary (formality)
 (Their marriage) with them.
 And God's command must
 Be fulfilled.

38. There can be no difficulty
 To the Prophet in what
 God has indicated to him<sup>3727</sup>
 As a duty. It was
 The practice (approved) of God
 Amongst those of old
 That have passed away.<sup>3728</sup>
 And the command of God
 Is a decree determined.<sup>3729</sup>

39. (It is the practice of those)
 Who preach the Messages
 Of God, and fear Him,
 And fear none but God.

وَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَخْشَاهُ فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ زَيْدٌ مِنْهَا وَطَرًا
 زَوَّجْنَاكَهَا لِكَيْ لَا يَكُونَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ حَرَجٌ
 فِي زَوْجِ أَدْعِيَائِهِمْ إِذَا قَضَوْا مِنْهُنَّ وَطَرًا
 وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ مَفْعُولًا

① مَا كَانَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ مِنْ حَرَجٍ فِيمَا فَرَضَ
 اللَّهُ لَهُ وَسُنَّةَ اللَّهِ فِي الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا
 مِنْ قَبْلُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ قَدَرًا مَقْدُورًا

② الَّذِينَ يُبَلِّغُونَ رِسَالَاتِ اللَّهِ
 وَيَخْشَوْنَهُ وَلَا يَخْشَوْنَ أَحَدًا إِلَّا اللَّهَ

3724. All actual facts are referred to God. When the marriage is unhappy, Islam permits and expects the bond to be dissolved, provided that all interests concerned are safeguarded. Apparently there was no issue here to be considered. Zainab had to be considered, and she obtained the dearest wish of her heart in being raised to be a Mother of the Believers, with all the dignity and responsibility of that position. See n. 3706 to xxxiii. 28 above.

3725. The 'Iddat or period of waiting after divorce (ii. 228, and n. 254) was duly completed.

3726. The Pagan superstition and taboo about adopted sons had to be destroyed. See xxxiii. 4-5 and notes 3671-3672 above.

3727. See n. 3724 above.

3728. The next clause is parenthetical. These words then connect on with verse 39. Among the people of the Book there was no taboo about adopted sons, as there was in Pagan Arabia.

3729. God's ordering of the world is always full of wisdom. Even our unhappiness and misery may actually have a great meaning for ourselves or others or both. If our first Plan seems to fail, we must not murmur and repine, but retrieve the position by adopting a course which appears to be the best possible in the light of our duties as indicated by God. For God's Plan is framed on universal principles that cannot be altered by human action.

Engage much in God's praise,—<sup>3720</sup>
For them has God prepared
Forgiveness and great reward.

أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةً وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا

36. It is not fitting
For a Believer, man or woman,
When a matter has been decided
By God and His Apostle,
To have any option
About their decision : <sup>3721</sup>
If any one disobeys God
And His Apostle, he is indeed
On a clearly wrong Path.

۞ وَمَا كَانَ لِمُؤْمِنٍ وَلَا مَوْمِنَةٍ إِذَا
قَضَى اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَمْرًا أَنْ يَكُونَ
لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِمْ وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ
وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلَالًا مُبِينًا

37. Behold! thou didst say
To one who had received
The grace of God <sup>3722</sup>
And thy favour: "Retain thou
(In wedlock) thy wife,
And fear God." But thou
Didst hide in thy heart <sup>3723</sup>
That which God was about
To make manifest: thou didst
Fear the people, but it is

۞ وَإِذْ نَقُولُ لِلَّذِي أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَأَنْعَمْتَ
عَلَيْهِ أَمْسِكْ عَلَيْكَ زَوْجَكَ وَاتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَتُخْفِي فِي
نَفْسِكَ مَا اللَّهُ مُبْدِيهِ وَتَخْشَى النَّاسَ

3720. The virtues referred to are: (1) Faith, hope, and trust in God, and in His benevolent government of the world; (2) devotion and service in practical life; (3) love and practice of truth, in thought and intention, word and deed; (4) patience and constancy, in suffering and in right endeavour; (5) humility, the avoidance of an attitude of arrogance and superiority; (6) charity, i.e., help to the poor and unfortunate ones in life, a special virtue arising out of the general duty of service (No. 2); (7) self-denial, typically in food, but generally in all appetites; (8) chastity, purity in sex life, purity in motive, thought, word, and deed; and (9) constant attention to God's Message, and cultivation of the desire to get nearer to God

3721. We must not put our own wisdom in competition with God's wisdom. God's decree is often known to us by the logic of facts. We must accept it loyally, and do the best we can to help in our own way to carry it out. We must make our will consonant to the Universal Will.

3722. This was Zaid son of Ḥāritha, one of the first to accept the faith of Islam. He was a freed-man of the holy Prophet, who loved him as a son and gave him in marriage his own cousin Zainab. The marriage however turned out to be unhappy. See next note.

3723. Zaid's marriage with the Prophet's cousin Zainab daughter of Jahsh was celebrated in Mecca eight years before the Hijrah, but it did not turn out happy. Zainab the high-born looked down upon Zaid the freedman who had been a slave. And he was not comely to look at. Both were good people in their own way, and both loved the Prophet, but there was mutual incompatibility and this is fatal to married life. Zaid wished to divorce her, but the Prophet asked him to hold his hand, and he obeyed. She was closely related to the Prophet; he had given a handsome marriage gift on her marriage to Zaid; and people would certainly talk if such a marriage was broken off, and poor Zainab's reputation would be ruined. This was the fear in the mind of the Prophet. But marriages are made on earth, not in heaven, and it is no part of God's Plan to torture people in a bond which should be a source of happiness but actually is a source of misery. Zaid's wish—indeed the mutual wish of the couple—was for the time being put away, but it became eventually an established fact, and everybody came to know of it.

From you, ye Members<sup>3715</sup>
Of the Family, and to make
You pure and spotless.

أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا

34. And recite<sup>3716</sup> what is Rehearsed to you in your Homes, of the Signs of God
And His Wisdom:
For God understands
The finest mysteries and
Is well-acquainted (with them).<sup>3717</sup>

وَأَذْكُرَ مَا يَنْشَأُ فِي بُيُوتِكُمْ
مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَالْحِكْمَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
لَطِيفًا خَبِيرًا

SECTION 5.

35. For Muslim men and women,<sup>3718</sup>
For believing men and women,
For devout men and women,
For true men and women,
For men and women who are
Patient and constant, for men
And women who humble themselves,
For men and women who give<sup>3719</sup>
In charity, for men and women
Who fast (and deny themselves),
For men and women who
Guard their chastity, and
For men and women who

إِنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ
وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
وَالْقَانِتِينَ وَالْقَانِتَاتِ
وَالصَّادِقِينَ وَالصَّادِقَاتِ
وَالصَّابِرِينَ وَالصَّابِرَاتِ
وَالْخَاشِعِينَ وَالْخَاشِعَاتِ
وَالْمُتَصَدِّقِينَ وَالْمُتَصَدِّقَاتِ
وَالصَّائِمِينَ وَالصَّائِمَاتِ
وَالْحَافِظِينَ فُرُوجَهُمْ وَالْحَافِظَاتِ
وَالذَّاكِرِينَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَالذَّاكِرَاتِ

3715. Notice the transition in this clause to the masculine gender, while before this the verbs and pronouns were in the feminine gender as referring to the consorts. The statement in this clause is now more general, including (besides the Consorts) the whole family, namely, Ĥadhrat Fāṭima the daughter, Ĥadhrat 'Alī the son-in-law, and their sons Ĥasan and Ĥusain, the beloved grandsons of the Prophet. The masculine gender is used generally, in speaking of a mixed assembly of men and women.

3716. The verb is uzkurna, feminine gender, as referring to the Azwāj again. It means not only "remember", but "recite", "teach", "make known", "publish", the Message which ye learn at home from the holy Prophet, the fountain of spiritual knowledge. The "Signs of God" refer specially to the verses of the Qur-ān, and Wisdom to the resulting Instruction derived therefrom.

3717. Cf. xxii, 63, and n. 2844. God's understanding is perfect in every detail, however minute. Therefore use His Revelation for every phase of life.

3718. Islam, or submitting our will to God's Will, includes all the virtues, as particularly specified in this verse. See n. 3720.

3719. A number of Muslim virtues are specified here, but the chief stress is laid on the fact that these virtues are as necessary to women as to men. Both sexes have spiritual as well as human rights and duties in an equal degree, and the future "reward" of the Hereafter, viz., Spiritual Bliss, is provided for the one as for the other.

31. But an if you that is
Devout in the service of
God and His Apostle,
And works righteousness,—
To her shall We grant
Her reward twice<sup>3710</sup>: and We
Have prepared for her
A generous Sustenance.<sup>3711</sup>

③ وَمَنْ يَقْنُتْ مِنْكُمْ لِلَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ
وَتَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا نُؤْتِيَهَا أَجْرَهَا
مَرَّتَيْنِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهَا رِزْقًا كَرِيمًا

32. O Consorts of the Prophet!
Ye are not like any
Of the (other) women:<sup>3712</sup>
If ye do fear (God),
Be not too complaisant
Of speech, lest one
In whose heart is
A disease should be moved
With desire: but speak ye
A speech (that is) just.<sup>3713</sup>

④ يٰٓأَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لَسْتِ كَآخَرِ
مِنَ النِّسَاءِ إِنْ أَتَقْنَتِ فَلَا
تَخْضَعْنَ بِالْقَوْلِ فَيَطْمَعَ الَّذِي فِي
قَلْبِهِ مَرَضٌ وَقُلْنَ قَوْلًا مَعْرُوفًا

33. And stay quietly in
Your houses, and make not
A dazzling display, like
That of the former Times
Of Ignorance; and establish
Regular Prayer, and give
Regular Charity; and obey<sup>3714</sup>
God and His Apostle.
And God only wishes
To remove all abomination

⑤ وَقَرْنَ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ
وَلَا تَبَرَّجْنَ تَبَرُّجَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ الْأُولَى
وَأَقِمْنَ الصَّلَاةَ وَآتِينَ الزَّكَاةَ
وَاطِعْنَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَإِنَّمَا
يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ

3710 Twice, i.e. once as a righteous woman, and again as a Mother of the Believers, serving the believing women and thus showing her devotion to God and His Apostle.

3711. Sustenance: in the spiritual sense; all that is necessary to sustain her in happiness in her future life.

3712. This is the core of the whole passage. The Prophet's Consorts were not like ordinary women, nor was their marriage an ordinary marriage, in which only personal or social considerations enter. They had a special position and special responsibilities, in the matter of guiding and instructing women who came into the fold of Islam. Islam is a Way of Life, and the Muslims are a family: women have as much place in Islam as men, and their intimate instruction must obviously be through women.

3713. While they were to be kind and gentle to all, they were to be guarded on account of their special position, lest gross people might misunderstand or take advantage of their kindness. They were to make no vulgar worldly displays as in the times of Paganism.

3714. Obedience to God's Law sums up all duties. Regular Prayer (seeking nearness to God) and Regular Charity (doing good to fellow-creatures) are mentioned as specially symbolical of our Religion.

Enjoyment and set you free
In a handsome manner.

وَأَسْرَحَكُمْ سَرَاحًا جَمِيلًا

29. But if ye seek God
And His Apostle, and
The Home of the Hereafter,
Verily God has prepared
For the well-doers amongst you <sup>3707</sup>
A great reward.

④ وَإِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُرِيدُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَالذَّارَ
الْآخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ أَعَدَّ لِلْحَسَنَاتِ
مِنْكُمْ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا

30. O Consorts of the Prophet
If any of you were guilty
Of evident unseemly conduct, <sup>3708</sup>
The Punishment would be Doubled to her, and that
 $\frac{21}{30}$  Is easy for God. <sup>3709</sup>

⑤ يٰۤاَيُّهَا نِسَاءَ النَّبِيِّ مَنِ يَاكُ مِنْكُنَّ يُفَاحِشْ
مُبَيِّنَةً يَضْعَفُ لَهَا الْعَذَابُ ضِعْفَيْنِ
وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرًا

3707. They were all well-doers. But being in their exalted position, they had extra responsibility, and they had to be specially careful to discharge it. In the same way their reward would be "great", for higher services bring higher spiritual satisfaction, though they were asked to deny themselves some of the ordinary indulgences of this life.

3708. "Evident unseemly conduct": i.e., proved misconduct, as opposed to false slanders from enemies. Such slanders were of no account, but if any of them had behaved in an unseemly manner, it would have been a worse offence than in the case of ordinary women, on account of their special position. Of course none of them were in the least guilty.

3709. Cf. xxxiii. 19 and n. 3692. The punishment in this life for a married woman's unchastity is very severe: for adultery, public flogging with a hundred stripes, under xxiv. 2; or for lewdness (see iv. 15) imprisonment; or stoning to death for adultery, according to certain precedents established in Canon Law. But here the question is not about this kind of punishment or this kind of offence. Even minor indiscretions, in the case of women who were patterns of decorum, would have been reprehensible; and the punishment in the Hereafter is on a higher plane, which we can scarcely understand. But God can appreciate every shade of motive in us. More or less is possible there, which might not be possible in the rough and ready law which we administer here.

Ye had not frequented
(Before). And God has
Power over all things.

تَطَوُّهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرًا

C. 188 — The Prophet's household is not for worldly
(xxxiii 28:52) Ends : his consorts have a place
And dignity beyond ordinary women
They must recite and proclaim the Signs
Of God. For women have spiritual virtues
And duties like unto men. God decrees
No unhappy wedlock : fear not
To dissolve such and provide what is right
And fitting for the service of God. High

SECTION 4.

28. ﴿٢٨﴾ Prophet! say
To thy Consorts :
" If it be that ye desire
The life of this world,
And its glitter, — then come ! <sup>3706</sup>
I will provide for your

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ إِن كُنْتُمْ
تُرِيدُونَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِينَتَهَا فَتَعَالَيْنَ
أُمْتِعْكُمْ

3706 We now come to the subject of the position of the Consorts of Purity (azwāj muṣahḥatāt), the wives of the holy Prophet. Their position was not like that of ordinary women or ordinary wives. They had special duties and responsibilities. The only youthful marriage of the holy Prophet was his first marriage — that with Ḥaḍhrat Khadija, the best of women and the best of wives. He married her fifteen years before he received his call to Apostleship ; their married life lasted for twenty-five years, and their mutual devotion was of the noblest, judged by spiritual as well as social standards. During her life he had no other wife, which was unusual for a man of his standing among his people. When she died, his age was 50, and but for two considerations, he would probably never have married again as he was most abstemious in his physical life. The two considerations which governed his later marriages were : (1) compassion and clemency, as when he wanted to provide for suffering widows, who could not be provided for in any other way in that stage of society ; some of them, like Sauda, had issue by their former marriage, requiring protection ; (2) help in his duties of leadership, with women, who had to be instructed and kept together in the large Muslim family, where women and men had similar social rights. Ḥaḍhrat 'Aisha, daughter of Ḥaḍhrat Abū Bakr, was clever and learned, and in Ḥadīth she is an important authority on the life of the Prophet. Ḥaḍhrat Zainab, daughter of Khuzaima, was specially devoted to the poor ; she was called the " Mother of the Poor " . The other Zainab, daughter of Jahsh, also worked for the poor, for whom she provided from the proceeds of her manual work, as she was skilful in leather work. But all the Consorts in their high position had to work and assist as Mothers of the Ummat. Theirs were not idle lives, like those of Odalisques, either for their own pleasure or the pleasure of their husband. They are told here that they had no place in the sacred Household if they merely wished for ease or worldly glitter. If such were the case, they could be divorced and amply provided for.

And cast terror into
Their hearts. (so that) <sup>3703</sup>
Some ye slew, and some <sup>3704</sup>
Ye made prisoners.

وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ فَرِيقًا تَقْتُلُونَ
وَلَا أُسْرُونَ فَرِيقًا

27. And He made you heirs
Of their lands, their houses,
And their goods,
And of a land which <sup>3705</sup>

وَأَوْزَعَكُمْ أَرْضَهُمْ
وَبَيْتَهُمْ وَأَمْوَالَهُمْ وَأَرْضًا لَّآ

3703. Sa'd applied to them the Jewish Law of the Old Testament, not as strictly as the case warranted. In Deut. xx. 10-18, the treatment of a city "which is very far off from thee" is prescribed to be comparatively more lenient than the treatment of a city "of those people, which the Lord thy God does give thee for an inheritance," i.e., which is near enough to corrupt the religion of the Jewish people. The punishment for these is total annihilation: "thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth" (Deut. xx. 16). The more lenient treatment for far-off cities is described in the next note. According to the Jewish standard, then, the Quraiza deserved total extermination—of men, women, and children. They were in the territory of Medina itself, and further they had broken their engagements and helped the enemy.

3704. Sa'd adjudged them the milder treatment of the "far-off" cities which is thus described in the Jewish Law: "Thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword; but the women and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath given thee" (Deut. xx. 13-14). The men of the Quraiza were slain; the women were sold as captives of war; and their lands and properties were divided among the Muhajirs.

3705. If this part of the Sūra was revealed after the autumn of the Hijra year 7, it refers to the result of the Khaibar expedition of that autumn. Khaibar is a Hararat or volcanic tract, well-watered with many springs issuing from its basaltic rocks. It has a good irrigation system and produces good harvests of grain and dates in its wet valleys, while the outcrop of rocks in the high ground affords sites for numerous fortresses. At present it is inhabited chiefly by men of the race of Bilal (the Abyssinian) who played a prominent part in the expedition. It is a sort of island in the deserts on the outskirts of Najd. In the holy Prophet's time there were Jewish colonies settled here, but they were a source of constant trouble, especially after the Siege of Medina. It became a nest of all the hostile Jewish elements expelled for their treachery from elsewhere. Its capital, Khaibar, is about 90 miles due north of Medina. Its inhabitants offered some resistance, and Hadrat 'Alī, though he had just risen from a bed of illness, performed prodigies of valour. After its surrender, a land settlement was made, which retained the cultivators of the soil on the land, but brought them under control, so that no further focus of active hostility should remain near Medina. The terms of the settlement will be found in Wāqidi.

His Will, or turn to them
In Mercy : for God is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

شَاءَ أَوْ تَوْبَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِنْ كَانَ
غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

25. And God turned back
The Unbelievers for (all)
Their fury : no advantage<sup>3699</sup>
Did they gain ; and enough
Is God for the Believers *
In their fight. And God
Is full of Strength, Able
To enforce His Will.<sup>3700</sup>

وَرَدَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِغَيْظِهِمْ لَمْ
يَنَالُوا خَيْرًا وَكَفَى اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الْقِتَالَ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ قَوِيًّا عَزِيزًا

26. And those of the people<sup>3701</sup>
Of the Book who aided
Them—God did take them
Down from their strongholds<sup>3702</sup>

وَأَنْزَلَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ
الْكِتَابِ مِنْ صَيَاصِيهِمْ

3699. In spite of the mighty preparations and the great forces which the Meccans, in concert with the Central Arabian Bedouins, the discontented Jews, and the treacherous Hypocrites, brought to the siege of Medina, all their plans were frustrated. Their fury availed them nothing. They departed in hot haste. This was their last and dying effort. The initiative thereafter lay with the forces of Islam.

3700. For the meaning of 'Aziz, see n. 2818 to xxii. 40.

3701. The reference is to the Jewish tribe of the Banū Quraiza. They counted among the citizens of Medina and were bound by solemn engagements to help in the defence of the City. But on the occasion of the Confederate siege by the Quraish and their allies they intrigued with the enemies and treacherously aided them. Immediately after the siege was raised and the Confederates had fled in hot haste, the Prophet turned his attention to these treacherous "friends" who had betrayed his City in the hour of danger.

3702. The Banū Quraiza (see last note) were filled with terror and dismay when Medina was free from the Quraish danger. They shut themselves up in their castles about three or four miles to the east (or north east) of Medina, and sustained a siege of 25 days, after which they surrendered, stipulating that they would abide by the decision of their fate at the hands of Sa'd ibn Mu'az, chief of the Aus tribe, with which they had been in alliance.

22. When the Believers saw
The Confederate forces,
They said: "This is
What God and His Apostle <sup>3696</sup>
Had promised us, and God
And His Apostle told us
What was true." And it
Only added to their faith,
And their zeal in obedience.

﴿وَلَمَّا سَأَرَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ قَالُوا هَذَا مَا وَعَدَنَا اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَصَدَقَ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَمَا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا إِيمَانًا وَتَسْلِيمًا

23. Among the Believers are men
Who have been true to
Their Covenant with God:
Of them some have completed <sup>3697</sup>
Their vow (to the extreme),
And some (still) wait:
But they have never changed
(Their determination) in the least:

﴿مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ فَمِنْهُمْ مَن قَضَىٰ نَجْبَهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَن يَنْتَظِرُ وَمَا بَدَّلُوا تَبْدِيلًا

24. That God may reward
The men of Truth for
Their Truth, and punish
The Hypocrites if that be <sup>3698</sup>

﴿لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ الصَّادِقِينَ بِصِدْقِهِمْ وَيُعَذِّبَ الْمُنَافِقِينَ إِن

3696. This is in contrast to what the Hypocrites said in verse 12 above. The divine promise of help and success is contingent upon our striving and faith. Nothing comes to the poltroon and the sceptical idler. Dangers and difficulties, and conflict with Evil, are foretold us, and we must meet them with fortitude and courage.

3697. In the fight for Truth were (and are) many who sacrificed their all—resources, knowledge, influence, life itself—in the Cause, and never wavered. If they won the crown of martyrdom, they were blessed. Such a one was Sa'd ibn Mu'az, the chief of the Aus tribe, the intrepid standard-bearer of Islam, who died of a wound he had received in the Battle of the Trench. Other heroes fought valiantly and lived, always ready to lay down their lives. Both classes were staunch: they never changed or wavered.

3698. Before the Throne of God's Mercy there is always room for repentance and forgiveness, even after treason and crime: but the forgiveness will be according to God's Will and Plan, which will judge the penitent's sincerity and capacity for good to the nicest degree in his favour. Cf. also xxxiii. 17 above.

20. They think that the Confederates
Have not withdrawn; and if
The Confederates should come (again),
They would wish they were
In the deserts (wandering)
Among the Bedouins, and <sup>3693</sup>
Seeking news about you
(From a safe distance);
And if they were
In your midst, they
Would fight but little.

يَحْسَبُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ لَمْ يَذْهَبُوا وَإِنْ
يَأْتِ الْأَحْزَابُ يَوَدُّوا لَأْتَانَهُمْ بِدُورٍ
فِي الْأَعْرَابِ يَسْأَلُونَ عَنْ أَنْبَاءِكُمْ
وَلَوْ كَانُوا فِيكُمْ مَا قَاتَلُوا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

SECTION 3.

21. We have indeed
In the Apostle of God
A beautiful pattern (of conduct)
For any one whose hope is <sup>3694</sup>
In God and the Final Day,
And who engages much <sup>3695</sup>
In the praise of God.

لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ
أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ لِّمَن كَانَ
يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ
وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَذَكَرَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا

3693. This completes the picture of the psychology of the Hypocrites, begun at verse 12. Let us analyse it. (1) When they first saw the enemy they were already in a defeatist mood, and thought all was over (verse 12). (2) Not content with disloyalty themselves, they tried to infect others, who made paltry excuses to withdraw from the fight (verse 13). (3) They were ready to betray the City to the enemy if once the enemy had gained entrance (verse 14). (4) They forgot all the promises of fidelity which they had previously sworn (verse 15). (5) In their paltry calculations they forgot that cowardice in war does not pay (verses 16-17). (6) Without taking much part in the actual defence, they were ready to talk glibly and claim a lion's share in the fruits of the victory (verses 18-19). (7) Even when the enemy had withdrawn, their cowardly minds were still afraid that the enemy would return, and were already meditating what they would do in that case; perhaps they would dwell in the deserts and spy on Medina from a safe distance; and if caught in Medina they would fight little and intrigue much.

It was a miracle that with such men in their midst, the holy Prophet and his band won through.

3694. We now have the psychology of the Believers,—God-fearing men, led by that pattern of men and of leaders, Muḥammad Muṣṭafā.

3695. Cf. xxvi. 227: see especially the last clause of that verse in a Meccan Sūra, which was amply fulfilled in Medina.

17. Say : " Who is it that can Screen you from God
If it be His wish
To give you Punishment
Or to give you Mercy ? " <sup>3688</sup>
Nor will they find for themselves,
Besides God, any protector
Or helper.

18. Verily God knows those
Among you who keep back
(Men) and those who say
To their brethren, " Come along
To us ", but come not
To the fight except
For just a little while,

19. Covetous over you. <sup>3689</sup>
Then when fear comes,
Thou wilt see them looking
To thee, their eyes revolving,
Like (those of) one over whom
Hovers death : but when
The fear is past,
They will smite you
With sharp tongues, covetous <sup>3690</sup>
Of goods. Such men have
No faith, and so God
Has made their deeds <sup>3691</sup>
Of none effect : and that
Is easy for God. <sup>3692</sup>

۱۷ قُلْ مَنْ ذَا الَّذِي يَعْصِمُكُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ إِنْ أَرَادَ
بِكُمْ سُوءًا أَوْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ رَحْمَةً وَلَا
يَجِدُونَ لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا

۱۸ * قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الْمُعَوِّقِينَ مِنْكُمْ
وَالْقَائِلِينَ لِإِخْوَانِهِمْ هَلُمَّ إِلَيْنَا
وَلَا يَأْتُونَ الْبَأْسَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

۱۹ أَشِيقَةً عَلَيْكُمْ فَإِذَا جَاءَ الْخَوْفُ رَأَيْتَهُمْ
يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَيْكَ تَدُورُ أَعْيُنُهُمْ كَالَّذِي
يُغْشَى عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ فَإِذَا ذَهَبَ الْخَوْفُ
سَلَفُواكُمْ بِاللَّيْسَةِ جِدَادٍ أَشِيقَةً عَلَى الْخَيْرِ
أُولَئِكَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ فَأَخْبَطَ اللَّهُ
أَعْمَالَهُمْ وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرًا

3688. It is still worse if the cowardice or desertion is shown in a Cause, which, because of the high issues of truth and justice, may be called the Cause of God. How can any one escape God's Punishment? And in the same way, how can any one prevent another from obtaining God's Mercy by repentance and amendment? The better path, therefore, is to stand firm in God's Way, and if you fail through human weakness, to repent and seek God's Mercy. C/ xxxiii. 24, and n. 3698 below.

3689. Ashshiqatan : covetous, grasping, niggardly. Here the meaning is twofold : (1) they spare themselves in the fight as compared with you ; they are niggardly with themselves as against you ; they contribute little either in personal effort or with their money and resources ; and (2) they covet any gains made or booty won, on the part of the real fighters.

3690. In times of danger, they would look to the holy Prophet for protection, and keep themselves snugly from the fight. When the danger is past, they will come and brag and wrangle and show their covetousness or greed for gain though they gave of themselves but sparingly.

3691. Even any good they may have done becomes vain because of their motives of envy, greed and covetousness, and their cowardice.

3692. It is not surprising that men's deeds fall as it were dead because there is no pure motive behind them. For men it may be difficult to probe motives, but it is easy for God, Whom hypocrisy or false show can never deceive.

Saying, " Truly our houses<sup>3684</sup>
Are bare and exposed," though
They were not exposed :
They intended nothing but
To run away.

14. And if an entry had
Been effected to them<sup>3685</sup>
From the sides of the (City),
And they had been
Incited to sedition,
They would certainly have Brought it to pass, with
None but a brief delay!

15. And yet they had already
Covenanted with God not to turn
Their backs, and a covenant<sup>3686</sup>
With God must (surely)
Be answered for.

16. Say: " Running away will not
Profit you if ye are Running away from death<sup>3687</sup>
Or slaughter; and even if (Ye do escape), no more
Than a brief (respite)
Will ye be allowed to enjoy! "

يَقُولُونَ لَنْ يَكُونَنَا عَوْرَةً وَمَا هِيَ بِعَوْرَةٍ
لَنْ يُرِيدُوا إِلَّا الْفِرَارَ

۱۴ وَلَوْ دُخِلَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ أَقْطَارِهَا ثُمَّ
سُئِلُوا الْفِتْنَةَ لَأَتَوْهَا وَمَا تَلَبَّسُوا
بِهَا إِلَّا يَسِيرًا

۱۵ وَلَقَدْ كَانُوا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ مِنْ قَبْلُ
لَا يُولُونَ الْآذِينَ وَكَانَ عَهْدُ اللَّهِ
مَسْئُولًا

۱۶ قُلْ لَنْ يَنْفَعَكُمْ الْفِرَارُ إِنْ
فَرَرْتُمْ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ أَوِ الْقَتْلِ وَإِذًا لَا تَمْتَعُونَ
إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

3684. All the fighting men of Medina had come out of the City and camped in the open space between the City and the Trench that had been dug all round. The disaffected Hypocrites sowed defeatist rumours and pretended to withdraw for the defence of their homes, though their homes were not exposed, and were fully covered by the vigilant defensive force inside the Trench.

3685. The brunt of the fighting was on the north side, but the whole Trench was guarded. At one or two points enemy warriors did break in within the circuit of the Trench, but they were soon disposed of. Hadhrat 'Ali particularly distinguished himself in many fights, wearing the Prophet's own sword and armour. If any of the enemy had been able to penetrate into the City, the disaffected element, which was only sitting on the fence, would have risen against the Muslims at once—with no delay except what might have been necessary to put on their armour and arms.

3686. Apparently, after the battle of Uhud, certain men who had then shown cowardice were forgiven on undertaking that they would behave better next time. A solemn promise made to the Apostle of God is a promise to God, and it cannot be broken with impunity.

3687. The coward in a fight does not usually save himself from death. He is subject, after desertion, to the fury both of the enemy and of his own side for cowardice and desertion. Assuming that he did escape with his life, where could he go to? The brand of cowardice will be on him, and he will be subject to the vengeance of his own people. In any case, his life would be in ignominy and would be brief, and he would have lost irretrievably the means of honour.

Below you, and behold,
The eyes became dim
And the hearts gaped <sup>3682</sup>
Up to the throats,
And ye imagined various

Were the Believers tried :
They were shaken as by

And those in whose hearts

And His Apostle promised us
Nothing but delusions ! " <sup>3683</sup>

13. Behold ! A party among them

Ye cannot stand (the attack) !
Therefore go back ! "
And a band of them

3681. God sees everything. Therefore we may conclude that the discipline and moral fervour of the Muslims, as well as the enemy's insincerities, intrigues, and reliance on brute force, were all contributory causes to his repulse, under God's dispensation. There were many hidden causes which neither party saw clearly.

3682. The psychology of the combatants is described with matchless vigour in the holy Text. The onrush of the enemy was really tremendous. The Trench round Medina was between the defenders and the huge attacking force, which had some high ground behind them "above you": when any of them came through the valley or over the Trench, they seemed to come from below. The showers of arrows and stones on both sides must also have seemed to come from the air.

3683. Before this year's mass attack on Medina, the Muslims had successfully reached the Syrian border on the north, and there were hopes of reaching Yemen in the south. The holy Prophet had seen clear signs of expansion and victory for the Muslims. Now that they were shut in within the Trench on the defensive, the Hypocrites taunted them with having indulged in delusive hopes. But the event showed that the hopes were not delusive. They were realised beyond expectations in a few years.

C. 187.—When the formidable forces of a whole Confederacy
(xxxiii. 9-27.) Bent on destroying Islam burst
Upon Medina, it was God's grace that saved
The Muslims. The enemies and the Hypocrites
Did their best to defeat the purpose of God,
But they were foiled. In the Apostle was found
The ideal Leader for the men of God,
Who became heirs to the heritage misused
By enemies to Faith and the Laws of God.

SECTION 2.

9. ① ye who believe!
Remember the Grace of God,
(Bestowed) on you, when
There came down on you
Hosts (to overwhelm you): <sup>3679</sup>
But We sent against them <sup>3680</sup>

① يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ اللّٰهِ
عَلَيْكُمْ اِذْ جَاءَتْكُمْ جُنُودٌ فَاَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ

3678. The men to whom God's Truth has been committed for promulgation will be asked in the Hereafter as to how the Truth fared in the world—how it was received, who opposed it, and who assisted it. Like all trustees, they will have to give a full account of their trust. God knows all, and it will not add to His information. But it will be evidence for and against those to whom it was preached, so that the responsibility of those who dishonoured it may be duly enforced. The primary custodians of spiritual Truth are the Prophets, but in descending degrees all men to whom God's Message comes are included.

3679. In this verse is summed up the beginning and the end of the fateful struggle of the Siege of Medina in A H. 5. The composition of the unhallowed Confederacy that came to destroy Islam is referred to in the Introduction. They came with a force of ten to twelve thousand fighting men, an unprecedented army for that time and country. The battle is known as the Battle of the Trench

3680. After a close investment of two to four weeks, during which the enemy were disheartened by their ill success, there was a piercing blast of the cold east wind. It was a severe winter, and February can be a very cold month in Medina, which is about 3,000 ft. above the sea-level. The enemy's tents were torn up, their fires were extinguished, the sand and rain beat in their faces, and they were terrified by the portents against them. They had already wellnigh fallen out amongst themselves, and beating a hasty retreat, they melted away. The Medina fighting strength was no more than 3,000, and the Jewish tribe of the Banu Quraiza who were in their midst was a source of weakness as they were treacherously intriguing with the enemy. And further there were the Hypocrites: see n. 3666 above. But there were hidden forces that helped the Muslims. Besides the forces of nature there were moral forces,—mutual distrust and bickering in the enemy camp, and on the other side, perfect discipline among the real Muslims, and the spiritual leadership of the Holy Prophet.

6. The Prophet is closer
To the Believers than
Their own selves,<sup>3674</sup>
And his wives are<sup>3675</sup>
Their mothers. Blood-relations
Among each other have
Closer personal ties,
In the Decree of God,
Than (the Brotherhood of)
Believers and Muhājirs :<sup>3676</sup>
Nevertheless do ye
What is just to your
Closest friends : such is
The writing in the Decree
(Of God).

7. ~~And~~ remember We took
From the Prophets their
Covenant :<sup>3677</sup>
As (We did) from thee :
From Noah, Abraham, Moses,
And Jesus the son of Mary :
We took from them
A solemn Covenant :

٦ النَّبِيُّ أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنفُسِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُ
أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ وَأُولَئِذَا أَتَا الْأَرْحَامَ بِعَظْمَةٍ
أُولَىٰ بِبَعْضٍ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ إِلَّا أَنْ تَفْعَلُوا إِلَىٰ أَوْلِيَائِكُمْ
مَعْرُوفًا كَانَ ذَٰلِكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَسْطُورًا

٧ وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ
وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَىٰ وَعِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ
وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُم مِّيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا

3674. In spiritual relationship the Prophet is entitled to more respect and consideration than blood-relations. The Believers should follow him rather than their fathers or mothers or brothers, where there is conflict of duties. He is even nearer—closer to our real interests—than our own selves. In some Qirāats, like that of Ubai ibn Ka'b, occur also the words "and he is a father to them", which imply his spiritual relationship and connect on with the words "and his wives are their mothers". Thus his spiritual fatherhood would be contrasted pointedly with the repudiation of the vulgar superstition of calling any one like Zaid ibn Ḥāritha by the appellation Zaid ibn Muḥammad (xxxiii. 40); such an appellation is really disrespectful to the Prophet.

3675. See last note. This Sūra establishes the dignity and position of the Holy Prophet's wives, who had a special mission and responsibility as Mothers of the Believers. They were not to be like ordinary women; they had to instruct women in spiritual matters visit and minister to those who were ill or in distress, and do other kindly offices in aid of the Prophet's mission.

3676. No man should deprive his blood-relations of such rights of maintenance and property as they might have. The community of Believers, inhabitants of Medina and those who had migrated to Medina from Mecca, also had their mutual rights, but they were not to be put forward as an excuse to defeat the prior rights of natural relationship. In the early Medina days, Anṣār were allowed to inherit from Muhājirs whose natural relations had not emigrated, but this practice was discontinued when normal relations were re-established between Mecca and Medina.

3677. Cf. iii. 81. There is an implied covenant on all created things to follow God's Law, which is the law of their being; see v. 1. But there is a special implied covenant with all Prophets, strict and solemn, that they shall carry out their mission, proclaim God's Truth without fear or favour, and be ever ready in His service in all circumstances. That gives them their position and dignity as explained in the last verse, and their tremendous responsibility in respect of the people whom they come to instruct and lead to the right Path.

In his (one) body : nor has
He made your wives whom
Ye divorce by Zihar <sup>3670</sup>
Your mothers : nor has He
Made your adopted sons <sup>3671</sup>
Your sons. Such is (only)
Your (manner of) speech
By your mouths. But God
Tells (you) the Truth, and He Shows the (right) Way.

5. Call them by (the names
Of) their fathers : that is
Juster in the sight of God.
But if ye know not <sup>3672</sup>
Their father's (names, call
Them) your Brothers in faith,
Or your Maulas.
But there is no blame
On you if ye make <sup>3673</sup>
A mistake therein :
(What counts is)
The intention of your hearts :
And God is Oft-Returning,
Most Merciful.

فِي جَوْفِهِ وَمَا جَعَلَ أَزْوَاجَكُمْ الَّتِي تَظَاهَرُونَ
مِنْهُنَّ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ وَمَا جَعَلَ أَدْعِيَاءَكُمْ
أَبْنَاءَكُمْ ذَلِكَ قَوْلُكُمْ بِأَفْوَاهِكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ يَقُولُ الْحَقَّ وَهُوَ يَهْدِي السَّبِيلَ

① أَدْعُوهُمْ لِأَبَائِهِمْ هُوَ أَقْسَطُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ
فَإِنْ لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا آبَاءَهُمْ فَإِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ
وَمَوَالِيكُمْ وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا أَخْطَأْتُمْ
بِهِ وَلَكِنْ مَا تَعَمَّدَتْ قُلُوبُكُمْ وَكَانَ
اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

3670. This was an evil Arab custom, by which the husband selfishly deprived his wife of her conjugal rights and yet kept her tied to himself like a slave without her being free to remarry. He pronounced words importing that she was like his mother. After that she could not demand conjugal rights but was not free from his control and could not contract another marriage. See also lviii, 1-5, where this is condemned in the strongest terms and punishment is provided for it. A man sometimes said such words in a fit of anger : they did not affect him, but they degraded her position.

3671. If a man called another's son "his son", it might create complications with natural and normal relationships if taken too literally. It is pointed out that it is only a façon de parler in men's mouths, and should not be taken literally. The truth is the truth and cannot be altered by men's adopting "sons". "Adoption" in the technical sense is not allowed in Muslim Law. Those who have been "wives of your sons proceeding from your loins" are within the Prohibited Degrees of marriage ; iv. 23 : but this does not apply to "adopted" sons.

3672. Freedmen were often called after their master's name as the "son of so and so". When they were slaves, perhaps their fathers' names were lost altogether. It is more correct to speak of them as the Maula of so and so. But Maula in Arabic might also imply a close relationship of friendship ; in that case, too, it is better to use the right term instead of the term "son". "Brother" is not objectionable, because "Brotherhood" is used in a wider sense than "fatherhood" and is not likely to be misunderstood.

3673. What is aimed at is to destroy the superstition of erecting false relationships to the detriment or loss of true blood relations. It is not intended to penalise an unintentional slip in the matter, and indeed, even if a man deliberately calls another his son or father, who is not his son or father, out of politeness or affection, "God is Oft-Returning, Most Merciful". It is the action of mischievous parties which is chiefly reprehended, if they intend false insinuations. A mere mistake on their part does not matter.

Sura XXXIII

*Ahzab, or The Confederates.In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ☪ Prophet! Fear God,
And hearken not
To the Unbelievers<sup>3666</sup>
And the Hypocrites:
Verily God is full
Of knowledge and wisdom.
2. But follow that which Comes to thee by inspiration
From thy Lord: for God
Is well acquainted<sup>3667</sup>
With (all) that ye do.
3. And put thy trust
In God, and enough is God<sup>3668</sup>
As a Disposer of affairs.
4. ☪ God has not made
For any man two hearts<sup>3669</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

① يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ اتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَلَا تُطِيعِ الْكَافِرِينَ
وَالنَّافِقِينَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا

② وَاتَّبِعْ مَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِمَا
تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا

③ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ وَكِيلًا

④ مَا جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِرَجُلٍ مِنْ قَلْبَيْنِ

3666. The fifth year A.H. was a critical year in the external history of early Islam, and this Sura must be read in the light of the events that then took place. As explained in the Introduction, the Grand Confederacy against Islam came and invested Medina and failed utterly. It consisted of the Meccan Unbelievers, the desert Arabs of Central Arabia, the Jews previously expelled for treachery from Medina, the Jews remaining in Medina, and the Hypocrites led by 'Abdullah ibn Ubai, who have already been described in ix. 43-110. Their bond of union was the common hatred of Islam, and it snapped under the reverses they met with. It is important to note three points. (1) The Jews as a body now lost their last chance of bearing the standard of Islam: the best of them had already accepted the renewal of God's Message. (2) A definite status was given to the Prophet's household, after the slanders on Hadrat 'Aisha had been stilled (xxiv. 11-26, and the true position of the Mothers of the Believers had been cleared. (3) A further exposition of the purity of sex relation was given, based on the story of Hadrat Zainab, the "Mother of the Poor". These points will be referred to in later notes.

3667. In the most adverse circumstances, in the midst of the assaults of Evil, the plots of treason and hypocrisy, the darts of slander and false charges, and stupid superstitions and taboos, the man of God should steer his course steadily according to God's Law and not fear human evil, in whatever form it appears. Men may misjudge, but God knows all. Men may try to overthrow Good, but Wisdom is with God.

3668. We must wholly trust God; He is the true and efficient Guardian of all interests. Cf. iv. 81, and n. 600.

3669. "Two hearts in his (one) breast": two inconsistent attitudes: such as serving God and Mammon; or subscribing to both Truth and Superstition; or hypocritically pretending one thing and intending another. Such a thing is against God's Law and Will. Apart from the condemnation of general hypocrisy, two pagan customs of the Times of Ignorance are mentioned, and their iniquity pointed out. See the notes 3670 and 3671. Nor can a man love two women with equal love: hence the injustice of marrying more than one wife; see the second clause in iv. 3.

wounds at the Siege of Medina by the Confederates (A.H. 5); and in the Khaibar expedition (A.H. 7) Muslim women went out from Medina for nursing service.

A portion of this Sūra sums up the lessons of the Battle of the Trench and must have been revealed some time after that Battle (Shauwāl A.H. 5). The marriage with Zainab referred to in verse 37 also took place in the same year. Some portions (e.g., verse 27, see n. 3705) were probably revealed in A.H. 7 after the Khaibar settlement.

Summary.—The pagan customs in human relationships should be abandoned, and men and women should be held in honour according to natural relationships and spiritual position (xxxiii. 1-8, and C. 186).

The Battle of the Trench and its lessons : hypocrites and their fears : Truth and noble examples to be followed (xxxiii. 9-27, and C. 187).

High position and seemly conduct for the Apostle's wives : unhappy marriages (like Zainab's) not to be perpetuated on false scruples : Prophet's wives to be treated kindly and gently (xxxiii. 28-52, and C. 188).

Respect due to Apostle and his family : slander to be avoided and punished guard your words and your responsibilities (xxxiii. 53-73, and C. 189).

C. 186.—The issue of all things depends
(xxxiii. 1-8) On God alone : we must put our trust
On Him as the Guardian of all affairs.
He loves truth in all things, both great
And small : call things by their right names.
If false relationships by custom or superstition
Do harm to men or women, shun them.
The spiritual Guide is more than Father :
The ladies of his household are Mothers
To the Believers—in rank, dignity, and duty.
The Guide will have to give an account,
In the Hereafter, of how the Truth was received
Which he was charged to proclaim to men.

INTRODUCTION TO SURA XXXIII (Aḥzāb).

The series of mystic Sūras beginning with S. xxvi. having been closed with the last Sūra, we now come back to the hard facts of this life. Two questions are mainly considered here, viz., (1) the attempt by violence and brute force to crush the truth, and (2) the attempt, by slander or unseemly conduct, to poison the relations of women with men.

As regards the first, the story of the Aḥzāb or Confederates, who tried to surround and annihilate the Muslim community in Medina, is full of underhand intrigues on the part of such diverse enemies as the Pagan Quraish, the Jews (Banū Nadhīr) who had been already expelled from Medina for their treachery, the Qaṭafān tribe of Bedouin Arabs from the interior, and the Jewish tribe of Banū Quraiza in Medina. This was the unholy Confederacy against Islam. But though they caused a great deal of anxiety and suffering to the beleaguered Muslims, Islam came triumphantly out of the trial and got more firmly established than ever.

The Quraish in Mecca had tried all sorts of persecution, boycott, insult, and bodily injuries to the Muslims, leading to their partial hijrat to Abyssinia and their Hijrat as a body to Medina. The first armed conflict between them and the Muslims took place at Badr in Ramadhān A.H. 2, when the Quraish were signally defeated. (See n. 352 to iii. 13). Next year (Shauwāl A.H. 3) they came to take revenge on Medina. The battle was fought at Uḥud, and though the Muslims suffered severely, Medina was saved and the Meccans had to return to Mecca with their object frustrated. Then they began to make a network of intrigues and alliances, and besieged Medina with a force of 10,000 men in Shauwāl and Ḍul-qa'd A.H. 5. This is the siege of the Confederates referred to in xxxiii. 9-27, which lasted over two weeks: some accounts give 27 days. It caused much suffering, from hunger, cold, an unceasing shower of arrows, and constant general or concentrated assaults. But it ended in the discomfiture of the Confederates, and established Islam firmer than ever. It was a well-organised and formidable attack, but the Muslims had made preparations to meet it. One of the preparations, which took the enemy by surprise, was the Trench (Khandaq) dug round Medina by the Prophet's order and under the supervision of Salḥān the Persian. The siege and battle are therefore known as the Battle of the Trench or the Battle of the Confederates.

As regards the position and dignity of the ladies of the Prophet's Household and the Muslim women generally, salutary principles are laid down to safeguard their honour and protect them from slander and insult. The ladies of the Household interested themselves in social work and work of instruction for the Muslim women, and Muslim women were being trained more and more in community service. Two of them (the two Zainabs) devoted themselves to the poor. The nursing of the wounded on or by the battlefield was specially necessary in those days of warfare. The Prophet's daughter Faṭīma, then aged about 19 to 20, lovingly nursed her father's wounds at Uḥud (A.H. 3); Rufaida nursed Sa'd ibn Mu'āz's

27. And do they not see
That We do drive Rain <sup>3662</sup>
To parched soil (bare
Of herbage), and produce therewith
Crops, providing food
For their cattle and themselves?
Have they not the vision? <sup>3663</sup>

٧ اَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا اَنَّا سَوَّيْنَا الْمَاءَ إِلَى الْاَرْضِ الْجُرُزِ
فَنُخْرِجُ مِنْهَا زَرْعًا كُلُّ مِمِّنْهُ
أَنْفُسُهُمْ وَأَنْفُسُهُمْ أَفَلَا يُبْصِرُونَ

28. They say: "When will
This Decision be, if ye <sup>3664</sup>
Are telling the truth?"

٨ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْفَتْحُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

29. Say: "On the Day
Of Decision, no profit
Will it be to Unbelievers
If they (then) believe!
Nor will they be granted
A respite."

٩ قُلْ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ لَا يَنْفَعُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
إِيمَانُهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنظَرُونَ

30. So turn away from them,
And wait: they too <sup>3665</sup>
Are waiting.

١٠ فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَانْتَظِرْ إِنَّهُمْ
مُنْتَظَرُونَ

3662. Again, as in the last verse, there is an easy transition from the physical to the spiritual. In physical nature there may be parched soil, which is to all intents and purposes dead. God sends rain, and the dead soil is converted into living land producing rich crops of fodder and corn, nuts and fruits, to satisfy the hunger of man and beast. So in the spiritual world. The dead man is revived by God's grace and mercy, through His Revelation. He becomes not only an asset to himself but to his dependents and those around him.

3663. The verse begins with "do they not see?" (a'wa lam yara'u), a physical act. It ends with "have they not the vision?" (a/a la yubṣirūn), a matter of spiritual insight. This is parallel to the two kinds of "hearing" or "listening", explained in n. 3661 above.

3664. The Unbelievers may say: "If all this which you say is true, tell us when this final restoration of Realities, Life, and true Values will come about." The answer is: "If you mean that you will postpone your repentance and reform till then, it will be no use; it will be too late for repentance, and no respite will be granted then: this is the Respite, and this is your chance."

3665. Read vi. 158 and n. 984 as a commentary on this. There it is said to the Unbelievers: "Wait ye: we too are waiting." Here the Righteous one is told: "Wait (thou): they too are waiting." The reversal of the order is appropriate; in each case the person (or persons) addressed is mentioned first. Cf. also vii. 71.

Be not then in doubt
Of its reaching (thee) : <sup>3657</sup>
And We made it
A guide to the Children
Of Israel.

فَلَا تَكُنْ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِنْ لِقَائِهِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ
هُدًى لِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ

24. And We appointed, from among Them, Leaders, giving guidance <sup>3658</sup>
Under Our command, so long
As they persevered with patience
And continued to have faith
In Our Signs.

وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْهُمْ أَئِمَّةً يَهْدُونَ بِأَمْرِنَا لَمَّا
صَبَرُوا وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يُوقِنُونَ

25. Verily thy Lord will judge
Between them on the Day
Of Judgment, in the matters
Wherein they differ
(among themselves) <sup>3659</sup>

إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ

26. Does it not teach them
A lesson, how many generations
We destroyed before them,
In whose dwellings they
(Now) go to and fro ? <sup>3660</sup>
Verily in that are Signs :
Do they not then listen ? <sup>3661</sup>

أَوَلَمْ يَهْدِ لَهُمْ كُرْهُهُمْ فَلْيَنْصَرُوا إِلَىٰ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنْ
الْقُرُونِ يَمْشُونَ فِي مَسَاكِينِهِمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ
لَآيَاتٍ أَفَلَا يَسْمَعُونَ

3657. "Its reaching (thee)" : liqā-i-hi. Commentators differ as to the construction of the pronoun hi, which may be translated either "its" or "his" I construe it to refer to "the Book", as that gives the most natural meaning, as explained in the last note.

3658 The series of Judges, Prophets, and Kings in Israel continued to give good guidance, in accordance with God's Law, as long as the people continued in Faith and Constancy (persevering patience). When that condition ceased, God's grace was withdrawn, and the people broke up into wrangling sects and practically suffered national annihilation.

3659. These wrangles and disputes among them will continue until the Day of Judgment, but meantime a new Ummat (that of Islam) will arise and take its place, with a universal and unified Message for mankind.

3660. If a nation gone astray could only learn from the history of earlier nations that were destroyed for their evil! They could see vestiges of them in their daily goings to and fro: the Jews could see vestiges of the Philistines, Amalekites, etc., in Palestine, and the pagan Arabs, of the 'Ad and Thamūd in Arabia.

3661. "Listen" : i.e., listen to the warnings conveyed in God's Signs. Notice how naturally the transition is effected from the physical to the spiritual,—from the ruined physical vestiges of ungodly nations on this earth to the more intangible Signs conveyed by History and Revelation. Here the sense of Hearing is mentioned, both in its physical and its metaphysical or spiritual aspect. In the next verse the sense of Sight is mentioned in both aspects.

20. As to those who are
Rebellious and wicked, their abode
Will be the Fire: every time<sup>٣٦٥٣</sup>
They wish to get away
Therefrom, they will be forced
Thereinto, and it will be said
To them: "Taste ye
The Penalty of the Fire,
The which ye were wont
To reject as false."

٢٠ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ فَسَقُوا فَمَأْوَاهُمُ النَّارُ
كُلَّمَا أَرَادُوا أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا مِنْهَا أُعِيدُوا فِيهَا
وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ النَّارِ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهِ
تَكْذِبُونَ

21. And indeed We will make
Them taste of the Penalty
Of this (life) prior to<sup>٣٦٥٤</sup>
The supreme Penalty, in order
That they may (repent and) return.

٢١ وَلَنَذِيقَنَّ هُم مِّنَ الْعَذَابِ الَّذِي دُونَ
الْعَذَابِ الْأَكْبَرِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ

22. And who does more wrong
Than one to whom are recited
The Signs of his Lord,
And who then turns away<sup>٣٦٥٥</sup>
Therefrom? Verily from those
Who transgress We shall exact
(Due) Retribution.

٢٢ وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّى عَنْهَا
إِنَّا مِنَ الْجَاهِلِينَ مُنْقِمُونَ

SECTION 3.

23. ~~We~~ We did indeed aforetime
Give the Book to Moses: <sup>٣٦٥٦</sup>

٢٣ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ

3653. Cf. xxii. 22. Just as the garden is the type of Bliss, so is the Fire the type of Penalty and suffering. There will be no getting away from it. What will be the thoughts of those who had earned it? "We used to reject the idea of the Consequences as a mere chimera; and now we find it to be true!" What will be their feelings then? How will they like it?

3654. The final Penalty is to come in the Hereafter. There is no doubt about it. But before it comes, a minor Penalty comes in this very life. It may be in some kind of misfortune, or it may be in the pangs of a tortured conscience or secret sorrow. But this minor Penalty may be really a mercy, as it gives them a chance of repentance and amendment.

3655. The worst and most hardened sinner is the man to whom God's Signs are actually brought home and who yet prefers Evil and turns away from the Light of God. The Signs may be in the words and guidance of a great Teacher or in some minor sorrow or warning, which he disregards with contumely. Or it may be in a catastrophic blow to his conscience, which should open his eyes, but from which he deliberately refuses to profit. The penalty—the Nemesis—must necessarily come eventually.

3656. "The Book" is not here co-extensive with Revelation. Moses had, revealed to him, a Law, a shari'at, which was to guide his people in all the practical affairs of their life. Jesus, after him, was also inspired by God: but his Injil or Gospel contained only general principles and not a Code or shari'at. The holy Prophet was the next one to have a shari'at or "Book" in that sense: for the Qur-An contains both a Code and general principles. This Sūra is a Meccan Sūra. The Code came later in Medina. But he is given the assurance that he will also have a Code, to supersede the earlier Law, and complete the Revelation of God.

They are recited to them,
Fall down in adoration,<sup>3647</sup>
And celebrate the praises
Of their Lord, nor are they (Ever) puffed up with pride.

16. Their limbs do forsake<sup>3648</sup>
Their beds of sleep, the while
They call on their Lord,
In Fear and Hope :<sup>3649</sup>
And they spend (in charity)
Out of the sustenance which
We have bestowed on them.

17. Now no person knows
What delights of the eye<sup>3650</sup>
Are kept hidden (in reserve)
For them—as a reward
For their (good) Deeds.

18. As then the man
Who believes no better
Than the man who is
Rebellious and wicked ?<sup>3651</sup>
Not equal are they.

19. For those who believe
And do righteous deeds,
Are Gardens as hospitable<sup>3652</sup>
Homes, for their (good) deeds.

ذُكِّرُوا بِهَا خَرُّوا سُجَّدًا وَسَبَّحُوا بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ

١٦ تَجَاوَزُوا جُحُودَهُمْ عَنِ الْمُضَاجِعِ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ

١٧ فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مِمَّا أُتِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرْوِ الْأَعْيُنِ جَزَاءُ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

١٨ أَفَمَنْ كَانَ مُؤْمِنًا كَمَنْ كَانَ فَاسِقًا لَا يَسْتَوِينَ

١٩ أَمْ آتَيْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَلَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ الْمَأْوَى نُزُلًا يَمَّا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

3647. "In adoration" : Sujjadan, or in a posture of prostration, expressive of deep humility and faith. This is the key-word of the Sûra, which bears the title of Sajda. All the Signs of God lead our thoughts upwards towards Him, and when they are expounded, our attitude should be one of humble gratitude to God. At this passage it is usual to bow in adoration.

3648. Junûb : sides, on which men sleep and turn in sleep : I have translated "limbs" for shortness. Holy men and women "breathless with adoration" shun soft, comfortable beds, and luxurious sleep. Their limbs are better exercised in offices of devotion and prayer, especially by night. Commentators specially refer this to Prayers called Tahajjud, which are offered after midnight in the small hours of the morning, in twelve Rak'ats.

3649. In Fear and Hope : in spiritual fear lest their dedication to God should not be sufficiently worthy to be accepted, and a spiritual longing or hope that their shortcomings will be overlooked by the Mercy of God. And their adoration is not shown only in Prayer, but also in practical Service and Charity, out of whatever gifts they may have received from God.

3650. Delights of the eye : an idiom for that which pleases most and gives most satisfaction. In our present state we can scarcely imagine the real Bliss that will come to us in the Future.

3651. The Future of the two classes—the Blessed and the Wicked—is described in verses 19-22.

3652. A home brings before our minds a picture of peace and happiness. When to it are added honour and hospitality, it adds further to the idea of happiness.

SECTION 2.

12. If only thou couldst see
When the guilty ones
Will bend low their heads
Before their Lord, (saying :)
"Our Lord! We have seen
And we have heard :<sup>3643</sup>
Now then send us back
(To the world) : we will Work righteousness : for we
Do indeed (now) believe."

١٢ وَلَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذِ الْمُجْرِمُونَ نَاكِسُوا
رُءُوسِهِمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ رَبَّنَا أَبْصَرْنَا وَسَمِعْنَا
فَارْجِعْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا إِنَّا مُوقِنُونَ

13. If We had so willed,<sup>3644</sup>
We could certainly have brought
Every soul its true guidance :
But the Word from Me<sup>3645</sup>
Will come true, "I will Fill Hell with Jinns
And men all together."

١٣ وَلَوْ شِئْنَا لَآتَيْنَا كُلَّ نَفْسٍ هُدًى وَلَٰكِن
حَقَّ الْقَوْلُ مِنِّي لَأَمْلَأَنَّ جَهَنَّمَ مِنَ الْجِنَّةِ
وَالنَّاسِ أَجْمَعِينَ

14. "Taste ye then—for ye
Forgot the Meeting<sup>3646</sup>
Of this Day of yours,
And We too will
Forget you—taste ye
The Penalty of Eternity
For your (evil) deeds!"

١٤ فَذُوقُوا إِنَّمَا نَسِيتُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَٰذَا
لِإِنَّا نَسِينَاكُمْ وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْخُلْدِ
بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

15. Only those believe
In Our Signs, who, when

١٥ إِنَّمَا يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا الَّذِينَ إِذَا

3643. In life on the new plane, there will be no room for deception or self-deception. The most hardened sinner will see the truth and the justice of the Day of Account. He will wish he could be sent back, but it will be too late. The world as we know it will have already passed away.

3644. Could evil have been avoided? Certainly everything is in God's power. If it had been His Will and Plan, He could have created a world in which there would have been no choice or will in any of His creatures. But that was not His Will and Plan. In the world as we see it, man has a certain amount of choice and free-will. That being so, He has provided Signs and means of instruction for man, in order that man's will may be straight and pure. A necessary corollary will be Punishment for the infraction of His Law. That Punishment must come to pass, for God's Word is true and must be fulfilled.

3645. Cf. xi. 119, n. 1623, and vii. 18, and see last note. Jinns are the evil spirits that tempt men, and the men who will suffer punishment will be those who have succumbed to their temptations.

3646. "Forgot": Cf. n. 1029 to vii. 51. "Forget" is here in the sense of "to ignore deliberately, to reject with scorn". In the sense of mistake or defect of knowledge it is inapplicable to the All-Perfect Being, for we are expressly told: "My Lord never errs, nor forgets": xx. 52.

8. And made his progeny
From a quintessence
Of the nature of
A fluid despised : <sup>3638</sup>

9. But He fashioned him
In due proportion, and breathed
Into him something of <sup>3639</sup>
His spirit. And He gave
You (the faculties of) hearing
And sight and feeling <sup>3640</sup>
(And understanding):
Little thanks do ye give!

10. And they say: "What!
When we lie, hidden
And lost, in the earth,
Shall we indeed be
In a Creation renewed? <sup>3641</sup>
Nay, they deny the Meeting
With their Lord!"

11. Say: "The Angel of Death,
Put in charge of you,
Will (duly) take your souls: <sup>3642</sup>
Then shall ye be brought Back to your Lord."

٨ ثُمَّ جَعَلْ نَسْلَهُ مِنْ سُئْلَةٍ مِنْ مَاءٍ مَهِينٍ

٩ ثُمَّ نَسَوْنَهُ وَنَفَخَ فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِنَا وَجَعَلْ لَكَ
السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ فَلْيَا
مَاتَشْكُرُونَ

١٠ وَقَالُوا أَإِذَا ضَلَلْنَا فِي الْأَرْضِ أَإِنَّا لَفِي
خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ بَلْ هُمْ بِلِقَاءِ رَبِّهِمْ كَفِرُونَ

١١ * قُلْ يَتُوفَّاكُم مَلَكُ الْمَوْتِ الَّذِي وُكِّلَ بِكُمْ ثُمَّ
إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ تُرْجَعُونَ

3638. Then comes life and the reproduction of life. We are still looking at the purely physical aspect, but it is now a stage higher; it is an animal. Its reproduction is through the sperm or semen, which is a quintessence of every part of the body of man. Yet it issues from the same part of his body as the urine, and is therefore despicable in man's sight. It is a living cell or cells, summing up so much ancestral life-history. Cf. xxiii. 12, and n 2872.

3639. The third stage is indicated by "fashioned him in due proportion". Cf. xv. 29. After fertilisation of ovum by the sperm, an individual life comes into existence, and it is gradually fashioned into shape; its limbs are formed; its animal life begins to function; all the beautiful adaptations come into play. The fourth stage here mentioned is that of distinctive Man, into whom God's spirit is breathed. Then he rises higher than animals.

3640. As a complete man he gets the higher faculties. The five animal senses I understand to be included in the third stage. But in the fourth stage he rises higher, and is addressed in the second person, "you," instead of the third person "him". He has now the spiritual counterpart of hearing (i.e., the capacity of hearing God's Message) and seeing (i.e., the inner vision), and feeling the nobler heights of love and understanding the bearings of the inner life (both typified by the Heart). Yet with all these gifts, what thanks does unregenerate or corrupted man give to God?

3641. Cf. xiii. 5. It has been the cry of Materialists and Sceptics through the ages not only to bound their horizon with this brief life, but to deny dogmatically that there can be a future life. Though this is against the professed principles of Sceptics, in practice they take up that attitude. Here "they" refers to those "who give little thanks" to God, mentioned in the last verse. The argument used against them is: if God can produce such a wonderful creation the first time, why can He not make it again? That points to the possibility: our own general inner hope and expectation of a future life, coupled with Faith in God's work, is the ground of our certainty.

3642. If death is certain, as it is, and this life by itself in no way satisfies our instincts and expectations, we may be sure that the agency which separates our soul from our body will bring us into the new world. If we believe in a soul at all—the very foundation of Religion—we must believe in a Future, without which the soul has no meaning.

And is firmly established
On the Throne (of authority) : <sup>3633</sup>
Ye have none, besides Him,
To protect or intercede (for you):
Will ye not then
Receive admonition ?

ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ
مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا شَفِيعٍ أَفَلَا تَتَذَكَّرُونَ

5. He rules (all) affairs
From the heavens
To the earth : in the end
Will (all affairs) go up <sup>3634</sup>
To Him, on a Day,
The space whereof will be
(As) a thousand years
Of your reckoning.

⑤ يُدِيرُ الْأُمُورَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ
يَعْرِجُ إِلَيْهِ فِي يَوْمٍ كَانَ مِقْدَارُهُ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ
فَمَا تَعْدُونَ

6. Such is He, the Knower
Of all things, hidden
And open, the Exalted
(In power), the Merciful; — <sup>3635</sup>

⑥ ذَلِكَ عَلَيْهِ الْغَيْبُ وَالشَّهَادَةُ الْغَيْبُ الرَّحِيمُ

7. He Who has made
Everything which He has created <sup>3636</sup>
Most Good : He began
The creation of man
With (nothing more than) clay, <sup>3637</sup>

⑦ الَّذِي أَحْسَنَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقَهُ وَبَدَأَ
خَلْقَ الْإِنْسَانِ مِنْ طِينٍ

3633. Cf. x. 3. n. 1386. God created the World as we see it in six great Stages. But after the initial creation, He is still in authority and directs and controls all affairs. He has not delegated His powers to others, and Himself retired. Also see vii. 54.

3634. How could the immense mystery of Time behind our ideas of it be enforced on our minds better? Our Day may be a thousand or fifty thousand years, and our years in proportion. In the immense Past was God's act of creation: it still continues, for He guides, rules, and controls all affairs: and in the immense Future all affairs will go up to Him, for He will be the Judge, and His restoration of all values will be as in a Day or an Hour or the Twinkling of an eye; and yet to our ideas it will be as a thousand years!

3635. God's attributes, then, may be summed up with reference to Knowledge, Power, and Mercy. Where our knowledge is partial and uncertain, His is complete and certain. Where our power often falls short of the carrying out of our will, or needs the help of Time, His is complete and conterminous with His Will. Where our mercy seems to be bounded by or opposed to justice, His is absolute and unconditioned.

3636. God's creation in itself is good: it is beautiful, in proper proportions, and adapted for the functions it has to perform. There is no evil or disorder in it. Such evil or disorder as creeps in is due to man's will (as far as the world of man is concerned), and spiritual Teaching is directed to train and cure that will and bring it into conformity with the Universal Order and Plan.

3637. Man is asked to contemplate his own humble beginning. His material body (apart from life) is a piece of earth or clay, which is another term for primeval matter. Matter is therefore the first stage, but even matter was not self-created. It was created by God.

Sura XXXII

Sajda, or Adoration.

*In the name of God, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. A. E. M. <sup>3628</sup>

2. (This is) the revelation
Of the Book in which
There is no doubt, — <sup>3629</sup>
From the Lord of the Worlds.

3. Or <sup>3630</sup> do they say,
"He has forged it" ?
Nay, it is the Truth
From thy Lord, that thou
Mayest admonish a people
To whom no warner
Has come before thee :
In order that they
May receive guidance. <sup>3631</sup>

4. It is God Who has Created the heavens
And the earth, and all
Between them, in six Days, <sup>3632</sup>

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١ آ

٢ نَزِيلًا لِّتُكَيِّبَ لَّا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

٣ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ بَلْ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ
رَبِّكَ لِنُذِرْ قَوْمًا مَّا أَتَّهُمْ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ مِّنْ
قَبْلِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ

٤ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا
بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ

3628. See n. 25 to ii. 1, and Introduction to S. xxx.

3629. By the time of the holy Prophet the earlier Books of Revelation had been corrupted, by human ignorance or selfishness or fraud, or misinterpreted, or lost altogether. There were sects violently disputing with each other as to their true meaning. Such doubts had to be set at rest, and they were set at rest by the revelation of the Qur-an. The Quranic inspiration came direct from God, the Lord of the Worlds, and did not consist merely of human conjectures or a reconstructed philosophy, in which there is always room for doubt or dispute. Cf. also ii. 2.

3630. The force of "or" (am in Arabic) is that the only alternative to the acceptance of the Book as a divine revelation is the supposition that it was a forgery by the holy Prophet. But the supposition is absurd on the face of it: because (1) the Quraish, his critics, knew him to be an honest and truthful man; (2) he was unlettered, and such a Book would have been beyond his powers as a simple unlettered Arab, unless God inspired it; and (3) there was a definite reason for its coming as it did, because the Arabs had received no Messenger before him, and God has sent Messengers to every nation.

3631. The Arabs very much needed guidance for themselves, and the advent of a World Prophet through them was what might have been expected in view of the past course of God's Revelations.

3632. Six Days; See n. 1031 to vii. 54. The "Day" does not mean a day as we reckon it, viz. one apparent course of the sun round the earth, for it refers to conditions which began before the earth and the sun were created. In verse 5 below, a Day is compared to a thousand years of our reckoning, and in lxx. 4 to 50,000 years. These figures "as we reckon" have no relation to "timeless Time", and must be taken to mean very long Periods, or Ages, or Æons. See further xli. 9-12, and notes.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXII (Sajda).

This short Sūra closes the series of the four A. L. M. Sūras, which began with the 29th. Its theme is the mystery of Creation, the mystery of Time and the mystery of the Ha'ād (the Final End) as viewed through the light of God's revelation. The contemplation of these mysteries should lead to Faith and the adoration of God. In chronology it belongs to the middle Meccan period and is therefore a little earlier than the last, but its chronology has no significance.

Summary.—The mystery of Creation, the mystery of Time, and the mystery of the End of Things are but known by external symbols to man ; Revelation brings faith and humble adoration, and is a blessing like Rain, which brings life to dead soil (xxxii. 1-30, and C. 185).

C. 185.—How can Unbelievers realise the Mystery
(xxxii. 1-30.) Of Revelation? They do not even
See the marvel and Mystery of Time
And God's Creation, and how they were themselves
Created! If they could but see how the End
Will shape itself,—how the Good will be sorted out
From Evil! The two are not equal in Goal.
Clear are the Signs and the Revelation of God—
In nature, history, and the Message of His living
Prophets. If they learn not now, alas!
It will be too late when Time's wings are furled.

Nor does any one know
 What it is that he will
 Earn on the morrow: <sup>3626</sup>
 Nor does any one know
 In what land he is
 To die. Verily with God
 Is full knowledge and He
 Is acquainted (with all things). <sup>3627</sup>

وَمَا تَذَرِي نَفْسٌ مَّاذَا تَكْسِبُ غَدًا
 وَمَا تَذَرِي نَفْسٌ
 بِأَيِّ أَرْضٍ تَمُوتُ يَوْمَئِذٍ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ خَبِيرٌ

3626. "Earn" here, as elsewhere, means not only "earn one's livelihood" in a physical sense, but also to reap the consequences (good or ill) of one's conduct generally. The whole sentence practically means: "no man knows what the morrow may bring forth."

3627. See the five Mysteries summed up in n. 3625 above. The Argument is about the mystery of Time and Knowledge. We are supposed to know things in ordinary life. But what does that knowledge amount to in reality? Only a superficial acquaintance with things. And Time is even more uncertain. In the case of rain, which causes vegetable life to spring up, or in the case of new animal life, can we answer with precision questions as to When or How or Wherefore? So about questions of our life from day to day or of our death. These are great Mysteries, and full knowledge is with God only. How much more so in the case of the Ma'ād, the Final Hour, when all true values will be restored and the balance redressed? It is certain, but the When and the How are known to God alone.

But when He has delivered them
Safely to land, there are
Among them those that halt <sup>3622</sup>
Between (right and wrong).
But none reject Our Signs
Except only a perfidious
(Ungrateful) (wretch)!

فَلَمَّا نَجَّيْنَاهُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ فَمِنْهُمْ مُّقْتَصِدٌ وَمَا
يُبْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا كُلُّ خَتَّارٍ كَفُورٍ

33. O mankind! do your duty
To your Lord, and fear
(The coming of) a Day
When no father can avail
Aught for his son, nor
A son avail aught
For his father. <sup>3623</sup>
Verily, the promise of God
Is true: let not then
This present life deceive you,
Nor let the Chief Deceiver <sup>3624</sup>
Deceive you about God.

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمُ وَأَخْشَوْا
يَوْمًا لَا يَجْزِي وَالِدٌ عَنْ وَلَدِهِ وَلَا مَوْلُودٌ
هُوَ جَارٍ عَنْ وَالِدِهِ شَيْئًا إِنَّ
وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ فَلَا تَغُرَّنَّكُمُ الْحَيَاةُ
الدُّنْيَا وَلَا يَغُرَّنَّكُم بِاللَّهِ الْغُرُورُ

34. Verily the knowledge
Of the Hour is
With God (alone).
It is He Who sends down
Rain, and He Who knows
What is in the wombs. <sup>3625</sup>

إِنَّ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَيُنَزِّلُ
الْغَيْثَ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا فِي الْأَرْحَامِ

3622. They halt between two opinions. They are not against good, but they will not eschew evil. They are a contrast to those who "constantly persevere and give thanks". But such an attitude amounts really to "perfidious ingratitude".

3623. On the Day of Reckoning no one can help another. The most loving father cannot help his son or be a substitute for him, and vice versa. Each will have his own personal responsibilities.

3624 The Chief Deceiver is the Power of Evil. It may make us forget that Time is fleeting and delude us by suggesting that the Reckoning may not come, whereas it is certain to come, because God's promise is true. We must not play with Time nor be deceived by appearances. The Day may come to-day or to-morrow or when we least expect it.

3625. The question of Knowledge or Mystery governs both clauses here, viz.: Rain and Wombs. In fact it governs all the five things mentioned in this verse: viz. (1) the Hour; (2) Rain; (3) the Birth of a new Life (Wombs); (4) our Physical Life from day to day; (5) our Death. See n. 3627 below. As regards Rain we are asked to contemplate how and when it is sent down. The moisture may be sucked up by the sun's heat in the Arabian Sea or the Red Sea or the Indian Ocean near East Africa, or in the Lake Region in Central Africa. The winds drive it hither and thither across thousands of miles, or it may be, only short distances. "The wind bloweth where it listeth." No doubt it obeys certain physical Laws established by God, but how these Laws are interlocked, one with another! Meteorology, gravity, hydrostatics and dynamics, climatology, hygrometry, and a dozen other sciences are involved, and no man can completely master all of them, and yet this relates to only one of the millions of facts in physical nature, which are governed by God's Knowledge and Law. The whole vegetable kingdom is primarily affected by Rain. The mention of Wombs brings in the mystery of animal Life, Embryology, Sex, and a thousand other things. Who can tell—to take man alone—whether the child conceived is male or female, how long it will remain in the womb, whether it will be born alive, what sort of a new individual it will be,—a blessing or a curse to its parents, or to Society?

29. Seest thou not that God merges Night into Day<sup>3618</sup>
And He merges Day into Night;
That He has subjected the sun
And the moon (to His Law),
Each running its course
For a term appointed; and
That God is well acquainted
With all that ye do?

30. That is because God is
The (only) Reality, and because
Whatever else they invoke<sup>3619</sup>
Besides Him is Falsehood;
And because God,—He is
The Most High, Most Great.

SECTION 4.

31. Seest thou not that
The ships sail through
The Ocean by the grace
Of God?—that He may
Show you of His Signs?
Verily in this are Signs
For all who constantly persevere<sup>3620</sup>
And give thanks.

32. When a wave covers them
Like the canopy (of clouds),
They call to God,
Offering Him sincere devotion.<sup>3621</sup>

﴿٢٩﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُوْجِئُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ
وَيُوْجِئُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ
وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ
مُّسَمًّى وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ

﴿٣٠﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنَّ مَا يَدْعُونَ
مِنْ دُونِهِ الْبَاطِلُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ
الْكَبِيرُ

﴿٣١﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ الْفُلْكَ تَجْرِي فِي
الْبَحْرِ بِنِعْمَتِ اللَّهِ لِيُرِيَكُمْ مِنْ آيَاتِهِ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ
شَكُورٍ
﴿٣٢﴾ وَإِذَا غَشِيَهُمْ مَوْجٌ كَالظُّلَلِ دَعَوْا اللَّهَ
مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ

3618 Cf. xxii. 61 and n. 2841. Even when we can form a conception of God's infinitude by His dealings with each individual in His Creation as in verse 28 above, it is still inadequate. What is an individual himself? What is his relation to the universal Laws of God? In outer nature we can see that there is no clear-cut line between night and day: each merges into the other. Yet the sun and moon obey definite laws. Though they seem to go on for ever, yet their existence and duration themselves are but an atom in God's great universe. How much more "merging" and imperceptible gradation there is in the inner and spiritual world? Our actions themselves cannot be classified and ticketed and labelled when examined in relation to motives and circumstances. Yet they are like an open book before God.

3619. Cf. xxii. 62 and notes 2842 and 2843. All the wonderful complexities, gradations, and nuances, that we find in Creation, are yet blended in one harmonious whole, that obeys Law and exemplifies Order. They therefore point to the One True God. He is the only Reality. All other things are but shadows, and if any of them is put up in competition or equality with Him, it can be only Falsehood. For He is higher and greater than anything we can imagine.

3620. Even the things that man makes are, as using the forces of Nature, evidence of the grace of God, Who has subdued these wonderful forces to the use of man. But this gift of mastery can only be understood and appreciated by constant perseverance, combined with a recognition of the divine gifts ("giving thanks"). ṣabbār is an intensive form from ṣabr and I have indicated it by the adverb "constantly".

3621. Cf. vii. 29. Unlike the people mentioned in the last verse, who constantly seek God's help and give thanks for His mercies by using them aright and doing their duty, there is a class of men whose worship is merely inspired by terror. When they are in physical danger—the only kind of danger they appreciate,—e.g., in a storm at sea, they genuinely think of God. But once the danger is past, they become indifferent or wish to appear good while dallying with evil. See next verse.

"God". Say: "Praise be to God!" <sup>3614</sup>

But most of them
Understand not.

26. To God belong all things
In heaven and earth: verily
God is He (that is)
Free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise. <sup>3615</sup>

27. And if all the trees
On earth were pens
And the Ocean (were ink),
With seven Oceans behind it
To add to its (supply),
Yet would not the Words <sup>3616</sup>
Of God be exhausted
(In the writing): for God
Is Exalted in power,
Full of Wisdom.

28. And your creation
Or your resurrection
Is in no wise but
As an individual soul: <sup>3617</sup>
For God is He Who
Hears and sees (all things).

اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

٢٦ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ
الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ

٢٧ وَلَوْ أَنَّ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَجَرٍ أَقْلَمٌ وَالْبَحْرُ
يَمْدُهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ سَبْعَةُ أَبْحُرٍ مَا نَفِدَتْ
كَلِمَاتُ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ

٢٨ مَا خَلَقَكُمْ وَلَا يَبْعَثُكُمْ
إِلَّا كَنَفِيسٌ وَاحِدٌ إِنْ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ

3614. This ejaculation expresses our satisfaction that at least this is recognised,—that the Creator of the whole world is God. It is a pity that they do not go further and recognise other facts and duties (see the last note).

3615. Cf. above, xxxi 12. There was begun the argument about showing gratitude to God, introducing Luqman's teaching and philosophy. Such gratitude is shown by our understanding His love and doing our duty to Him by serving our fellow-men. For God Himself is Free from all wants and is in no way dependent on our service. That argument has been illustrated in various ways. But now we are told that it can never be completed, for no human tongue or human resources can be adequate either to praise him or to expound His Word.

3616. "Words of God": His wonderful Signs and Commandments are infinite and cannot be expressed if all the trees were made into pens, and all the wide Ocean, multiplied seven times, were made into ink. Any Book of His Revelation would deal with matters which man can understand and use in his life: there are mysteries beyond mysteries that man can never fathom. Nor would any praise that we could write with infinite resources be adequate to describe His power, glory, and wisdom.

3617. God's greatness and infinitude are such that He can create and cherish not only a whole mass, but each individual soul, and He can follow its history and doings until the final Judgment. This shows not only God's glory and omniscience and omnipotence: it also shows the value of each individual soul in His eyes, and lifts individual responsibility right up into relations with Him.

3609. Cf. ii. 256 and n. 301.

3610. Cf. xxii. 41. Everything goes back to God. He is our final Goal, as He is the final Goal of all things.

3611. The man of God should not grieve because people reject Faith. He should do his duty and leave the rest to God. Every soul must return to God for his reckoning. God knows everything, and His Universal Plan is full of wisdom.

3612. Cf. ii. 126. The respite in this life is of short duration. The ultimate Penalty of Evil is such as cannot be quenched. Cf. xiv. 17. It will be too late then to repent.

3613. Cf. xxii. 84-89, and xxix. 61 and n. 3493. Men will acknowledge that God created the heavens and the earth, and yet fail to understand the love and goodness of God in continuing to cherish and maintain them with His gifts. Even if they allow this, they sometimes yet fall short of the corollary, that He is the only One to be worshipped, and run after their own false gods in the shapes of their fancies and lusts. They do not do the duties which, if they rightly understood their own nature and position, they should take a delight in doing.

C. 184.—True Wisdom sees God's boundless Bounties
(xxx. 20-34.) To man, and how all nature is made
To serve man's ends. It is due from us
To know our place, discern the limits
Of our knowledge, and see how far above us
Is God's Wisdom, and His Law. Let us not Deceive ourselves. The end of all things
Will come, but the When and the How are known
To God alone, to Whom be all Praise!

SECTION 3.

20. Do ye not see
That God has subjected <sup>3605</sup>
To your (use) all things
In the heavens and on earth.
And has made His bounties
Flow to you in exceeding Measure, (both) seen and
unseen? <sup>3606</sup>
Yet there are among men
Those who dispute about God,
Without knowledge and without
Guidance, and without a Book <sup>3607</sup>
To enlighten them!

۞ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مِمَّا فِي
السَّمَوَاتِ وَمِمَّا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَأَسْبَغَ عَلَيْكُمْ
نِعَمَهُ ظَاهِرَةً وَبَاطِنَةً وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ
فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَلَا هُدًى وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُّنِيرٍ

21. When they are told to follow
The (Revelation) that God
Has sent down, they say:
"Nay, we shall follow
The ways that we found
Our fathers (following)." <sup>3608</sup>

۞ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّبِعُوا مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ
قَالُوا بَلْ نَتَّبِعُ مَا وَجَدْنَا عَلَيْنَا آبَاءَنَا

3606. God's grace and bounties work for us at all times. Sometimes we see them, and sometimes we do not. In things which we can apprehend with our senses, we can see God's grace, but even in them, sometimes it works beyond the sphere of our knowledge. In the inner or spiritual world, sometimes, when our vision is clear, we can see it working, and often we are not conscious of it. But it works all the same.

3607. Such men lack knowledge, as they make no use of their intellects but are swayed by their passions; they lack guidance, as they are impatient of control; and the fruits of revelation, or spiritual insight, do not reach them, as they reject Faith and Revelation.

3608. They do not realise that in the spiritual world, as in the physical world, there is constant progress for the live ones: they are spiritually dead, as they are content to stand on ancestral ways, many of them evil, and leading to perdition.

16. " O my son ! " (said Luqmān),<sup>3600</sup>
 " If there be (but) the weight
 Of a mustard-seed and
 It were (hidden) in a rock,<sup>3601</sup>
 Or (anywhere) in the heavens or
 On earth, God will bring it
 Forth : for God understands<sup>3602</sup>
 The finest mysteries, (and)
 Is well-acquainted (with them).

١٦) يَبْنِيْ اِنَّهَا اِنْ لَكَ مِثْقَالَ حَبَّةٍ مِنْ خَرْدَلٍ
 فَتَكُنْ فِيْ صَخْرَةٍ اَوْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ اَوْ فِي
 الْاَرْضِ يَأْتِ بِهَا اللّٰهُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ
 لَطِيْفٌ خَبِيْرٌ

17. " O my son ! establish
 Regular prayer, enjoin what is
 Just, and forbid what is wrong :
 And bear with patient constancy
 Whate'er betide thee ; for this
 Is firmness (of purpose)
 In (the conduct of) affairs.

١٧) يَبْنِيْ اَقِمِ الصَّلٰوةَ وَاْمُرْ بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ وَانْهَ
 عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَاَصْبِرْ عَلٰى مَا اَصَابَكَ اِنَّ
 ذٰلِكَ مِنْ عَزْمِ الْاُمُوْرِ

18. " And swell not thy cheek<sup>3603</sup>
 (For pride) at men,
 Nor walk in insolence
 Through the earth ;
 For God loveth not
 Any arrogant boaster.

١٨) وَلَا تُصَغِّرْ خَدَكَ لِلنَّاسِ وَلَا
 تَمْشِ فِي الْاَرْضِ مَرَحًا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُحِبُّ
 كُلَّ مُخْتَالٍ فَخُوْرٍ

19. " And be moderate
 In thy pace, and lower<sup>3604</sup>

١٩) وَاَقْصِدْ فِي مَشْيِكَ وَاَغْضُضْ مِنْ

3600. Verses 14-15 are not the direct speech of Luqmān but flow by way of commentary on his teaching. He was speaking as a father to his son, and he could not very well urge respect for himself and draw the son's attention to the limitations of filial obedience. These verses may be supposed to be general directions flowing from Luqman's teaching to men, and not directed to his son ; though in either case, as Luqmān got wisdom from God, it is divine principles that are enunciated.

3601. The mustard-seed is proverbially a small, minute thing, that people may ordinarily pass by. Not so God. Further emphasis is laid by supposing the mustard-seed to be hidden beneath a rock or in the cleft of a rock, or to be lost in the spacious expanse of the earth or of the heavens. To God everything is known, and He will bring it forth, i.e., take account of it.

3602. For Laṭīf as a title applied to God, see n. 2844 to xxii. 63.

3603. The word " cheek " in English, too, means arrogance or effrontery, with a slightly different shade added, viz : effrontery from one in an inferior position to one in a superior position. The Arabic usage is wider, and includes smug self-satisfaction and a sense of lofty superiority.

3604. The " Golden Mean " is the pivot of the philosophy of Luqmān as it is of the philosophy of Aristotle and indeed of Islam. And it flows naturally from a true understanding of our relation to God and His universe and to our fellow-creatures, especially man. In all things be moderate. Do not go the pace, and do not be stationary or slow. Do not be talkative and do not be silent. Do not be loud and do not be timid or half-hearted. Do not be too confident, and do not be cowed down. If you have patience, it is to give you constancy and determination, that you may bravely carry on the struggle of life. If you have humility, it is to save you from unseemly swagger, not to curb your right spirit and your reasoned determination.

Instruction: "O my son!
Join not in worship
(Others) with God: for False worship is indeed
The highest wrong-doing."

يَعِظُهُ رَبِّي لَا تَشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّ الشِّرْكَ
لَظُلْمٌ عَظِيمٌ

14. And We have enjoined on man
(To be good) to his parents:
In travail upon travail
Did his mother bear him,
And in years twain<sup>3596</sup>
Was his weaning: (hear
The command), "Show gratitude
To Me and to thy parents:
To Me is (thy final) Goal.

⑭ وَوَضَعْنَا لِلْإِنْسَانِ بِيَوَالِدَيْهِ حَمَلَهُ
أُمُّهُ وَهَنًا عَلَى وَهْنٍ وَفَصْلَهُ فِي عَامَيْنِ أَنْ
أَشْكُرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيْكَ إِلَيَّ الْمَصِيرُ

15. "But if they strive"<sup>3597</sup>
To make thee join
In worship with Me
Things of which thou hast
No knowledge, obey them not;
Yet bear them company
In this life with justice
(And consideration), and follow
The way of those who
Turn to Me (in love):<sup>3598</sup>
In the End the return
Of you all is to Me,
And I will tell you
The truth (and meaning)<sup>3599</sup>
Of all that ye did."

⑮ وَإِنْ جَاهِدَاكَ عَلَى أَنْ تُشْرِكَ بِي
مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا
وَصَاحِبُهُمَا فِي الدُّنْيَا مَعْرُوفًا وَأَتَّبِعْ سَبِيلَ
مَنْ أَنَابَ إِلَيَّ ثُمَّ إِلَيَّ مَرْجِعُكُمْ
فَأُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ

3596, The set of milk teeth in a human child is completed at the age of two years, which is therefore the natural extreme limit for breast-feeding. In our artificial life the duration is much less.

3597, Where the duty to man conflicts with the duty to God, it means that there is something wrong with the human will, and we should obey God rather than man. But even here, it does not mean that we should be arrogant or insolent. To parents and those in authority, we must be kind, considerate, and courteous, even where they command things which we should not do and therefore disobedience becomes our highest duty.

The worship of things other than God is the worship of false things, things which are alien to our true knowledge, things that go against our own pure nature as created by God.

3598, In any apparent conflict of duties our standard should be God's Will, as declared to us by His command. That is the way of those who love God: and their motive in disobedience to parents or human authority where disobedience is necessary by God's Law, is not self-willed rebellion or defiance, but love of God, which means the true love of man in the highest sense of the word. And the reason we should give is: "Both you and I have to return to God; therefore not only must I follow God's Will, but you must command nothing against God's Will."

3599, These conflicts may appear to us strange and puzzling in this life. But in God's Presence we shall see their real meaning and significance. It may be that that was one way in which our true mettle could be tested: for it is not easy to disobey and love man at the same time.

On the earth every kind

Now show Me<sup>3592</sup> what is there
That others besides Him
Have created : nay, but
The Transgressors are
In manifest error.

SECTION 2.

12. ~~We~~ We bestowed (in the past)
Wisdom on Luqmān :<sup>3593</sup>
"Show (thy) gratitude to God."
Any who is (so) grateful
Does so to the profit
Of his own soul ; but if
Any is ungrateful, verily<sup>3594</sup>
God is free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise.

13. Behold, Luqmān said<sup>3595</sup>
To his son by way of

فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ ذَوْجٍ كَرِيمٍ

⑪ هَذَا خَلْقُ اللَّهِ فَأَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقَ
الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ بَلِ الظَّالِمُونَ
فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ

⑫ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا لُقْمَانَ الْحِكْمَةَ أَنْ
اشْكُرْ لِلَّهِ وَمَنْ يَشْكُرْ فَإِنَّمَا
يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ
غَنِيٌّ جَمِيدٌ

⑬ وَإِذْ قَالَ لُقْمَانُ لِابْنِهِ وَهُوَ

3591. I think that sex life in plants is referred to, as in xiii. 3, where see n. 1804, though the pairs here may refer to animals also. "Noble" (karīm) may refer to the more beneficent plants and trees (and animals), which God has created for man's use.

3592. The transition from "We" in the last verse to "Me" in this verse means a still more personal relation to God : (see n. 56 to ii. 38) : as we are now asked about the true worship of God, as against the false worship of others besides God.

3593. The sage Luqmān, after whom this Sūra is called, belongs to Arab tradition. Very little is known of his life. He is usually associated with a long life, and his title is Mu'ammār (the long-lived). He is referred by some to the age of the 'Ad people, for whom see n. 1040 to vii. 65. He is the type of perfect wisdom. It is said that he belonged to a humble station in life, being a slave or a carpenter, and that he refused worldly power and a kingdom. Many instructive apologues are credited to him, similar to Aesop's Fables in Greek tradition. The identification of Luqmān and Aesop has no historical foundation, though it is true that the traditions about them have influenced each other.

3594. Cf. xiv. 8. The basis of the moral Law is man's own good, and not any benefit to God, for God is above all needs, and "worthy of all praise" ; i.e. even in praising Him, we do not advance His glory. When we obey His Will, we bring our position into conformity with our own nature as made by Him.

3595. Luqmān is held up as a pattern of wisdom, because he realised the best in a wise life in this world, as based upon the highest Hope in the inner life. To him, as in Islam, true human wisdom is also divine wisdom : the two cannot be separated. The beginning of all wisdom, therefore, is conformity with the Will of God (xxx. 12). That means that we must understand our relations to Him and worship Him aright (xxx. 13). Then we must be good to mankind, beginning with our own parents (xxx. 14). For the two duties are not diverse, but one. Where they appear to conflict, there is something wrong with the human will (see n. 3597).

Without knowledge (or meaning),
To mislead (men) from the Path
Of God and throw ridicule
(On the Path): for such
There will be a humiliating
Penalty.

7. When Our Signs are rehearsed
To such a one, he turns <sup>3585</sup>
Away in arrogance, as if
He heard them not, as if
There were deafness in both
His ears: announce to him
A grievous Penalty.

8. For those who believe
And work righteous deeds,
There will be Gardens
Of Bliss,—

9. To dwell therein. The promise
Of God is true: and He
Is Exalted in power, <sup>3586</sup> Wise.

10. ~~He~~ He created the heavens
Without any pillars that ye <sup>3587</sup>
Can see; He set
On the earth mountains <sup>3588</sup>
Standing firm, lest it
Should shake with you;
And He scattered through it
Beasts of all kinds. <sup>3589</sup>
We send down rain <sup>3590</sup>
From the sky, and produce

لِيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَيَتَّخِذَهَا
هُزُوءًا أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ

⑦ وَإِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا وَلَّى مُسْتَكْبِرًا
كَأَن لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا كَأَن فِي أُذُنَيْهِ
وَقَرَأَ فَبِشْرَهٗ بَعْدَ آيَاتِهِ

⑧ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ النَّعِيمِ

⑨ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقًّا وَهُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ
⑩ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا وَالْأَرْضَ فِي
الْأَرْضِ رَوَاسِيَ أَنْ تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ وَبَثَّ فِيهَا
مِنْ كُلِّ دَابَّةٍ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً
فَأَنْبَتْنَا

3585 Such men behave as if they had heard nothing of serious import, or laugh at serious teaching. The loss will be their own. They will miss the higher things of life and be left out of God's blessings. Ignorance and arrogance are in most cases the causes of their fall.

3586 He is Exalted in power, and can carry out His Will, and nothing can stop the carrying out of His promise. He is also infinitely Wise: His promise is therefore full of meaning: it is not merely without purpose: it has a place in the Universal Plan.

3587. Cf. xiii. 2 and n. 1800.

3588. Cf. xvi. 15 and n. 2038.

3589. Cf. ii. 164 and n. 166.

3590. Note the change of the pronoun at this stage in the verse. Before this, God was spoken of in the third person, "He", and the acts of Creation referred to were acts that in the main were completed when the universe as we see it came into being, though its slow age-long evolution continues. After this, God speaks in the first person "We"—the plural of honour, as explained before (see n. 56 to ii. 38); and the processes spoken of are those that go on continually before us, as in the case of rain and the growth of the vegetable kingdom. In some way the creation of the heavens and the earth and animal life on it may be considered impersonal to man, while the processes of rain and vegetation may be considered in special personal relationship to him.

3579. See n. 25 to ii. 1 and Introduction to S. xxx.

3580. This Sūra relates to Wisdom, and the Qur-ān is appropriately called the Wise Book, or the Book of Wisdom. In verse 12 below there is a reference to Luqman the Wise. "Wise" in this sense (ḥakīm) means not only a man versed in knowledge human and divine, but one carrying out in practical conduct (ʿamal) the right course in life to the utmost of his power. His knowledge is correct and practical, but not necessarily complete: for no man is perfect. Such an ideal involves the conception of a man of heroic action as well as of deep and workman-like knowledge of nature and human nature,—not merely dreams or speculation. That ideal was fulfilled in a most remarkable degree in the holy Apostle, and in the sacred Book which was revealed through him. "The Wise Book" (Kitāb-ul-ḥakīm) is one of the titles of the Qur-ān.

3581. A guide to all, and, to those who accept its guidance, a source of mercy as leading them to Salvation.

3582. The righteous are distinguished here by three marks, which are summed up in the phrase "doers of good", viz.: (1) they yearn towards God in duty, love, and prayer, (2) they love and serve their fellow-men in charity, (3) they win peace and rest for themselves in the assured hope of the Future.

3583. They get these blessings because they submit their will to God's Will and receive His guidance. They will do well in this life (from the highest standpoint) and they will reach their true Goal in the Future.

3584. Life is taken seriously by men who realise the issues that hang upon it. But there are men of a frivolous turn of mind who prefer idle tales to true Realities and they are justly rebuked here. In the time of the holy Prophet there was a pagan Nadhr ibn al-Ḥārith who preferred Persian romances to the Message of God, and turned away ignorant men from the preaching of God's Word.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRA XXXI (Luqmān).

The argument of the Final End of Things is here continued from another point of view. What is Wisdom? Where shall she be found? Will she solve the mysteries of Time and Nature, and that world higher than physical Nature, which brings us nearer to God? "Yes," is the answer; "if, as in the advice of Luqmān the Wise, human wisdom looks to God in true worship, ennobles every act of life with true kindness, but avoids the false indulgence that infringes the divine law,—and in short follows the golden mean of virtue." And this is indicated by every Sign in nature.

The chronology of this Sūra has no significance. In the main, it belongs to the late Meccan period.

Summary.—The earnest seekers after righteousness receive guidance, unlike the seekers after vanity, who perish: all Creation bears witness to this: Wisdom, as expounded by Luqmān the Wise, is true service to God, and consists in moderation (xxx. 1-19, and C. 183).

True Wisdom is firm and enduring, and discerns God's Law in the working of His Creation: it looks to the Final End of Things, whose mystery is only known to God (xxx. 20-34, and C. 184).

C. 183.—What is the Book of Wisdom? It is
 (xxx. 1-19.) A Guide and a Mercy to men, and teaches
 Them how to attain Bliss. God's Mercies
 Are infinite: how can men deny them?
 Luqmān the Wise taught grateful worship
 Of the One True God, and the service of men,
 Beginning with Parents: every good deed
 Is known to God and is brought to account.
 So walk in the Golden Mean, and serve
 Him with constancy and firmness of purpose.

Rabi' I, A.H. 9. On a review of all the authorities I feel inclined to accept the date for the eclipse and the death of Ibrāhīm as 28th or 29th of Rabi' I, A.H. 10 = 4th or 5th July 631. But this cannot be asserted with certainty. The French work of reference, L'art de vérifier les dates, Paris 1818 (Vol. I, p. 310), gives the date of the solar eclipse as the 3rd of August 631, 2-30 P.M., and according to the system adopted in that book, the corresponding Hijra date would be the 28th Rabi' II, A.H. 10.

Even if this particular date was certain and exact, a certain amount of uncertainty remains in counting dates backwards. Most authorities assume a purely lunar year of 354 days for working backwards. Probably the Muslims in Medina counted in this way even before the lunar year was fixed exactly in A.H. 10. But the mass of Pagan Arabs in Mecca and elsewhere probably were all the time intercalating a month roughly once in three years, as has been stated before, until their power was utterly destroyed by the conquest of Mecca; and therefore precise exactitude in pre-Conquest dates or in the counting of people's ages in years before 8-10 A.H. is unattainable. See a note on this subject in Margoliouth's Life of the Prophet (p. xix. of the 3rd edition) and in Muir's Life (p. x. of the 1923 edition).

The date of the actual Hijrat as given in Caetani may be accepted as Sept.-Oct. 622, being in the month of Rabi' I. If the ninth of that month be accepted as the date of departure from the cave of Thaur, the best synchronised date would be 22nd September 622 C. But as the first month of the Arab year was (and is) Muharram, the Hijri year I is counted as beginning on the 15th or 16th July 622 (= 1 Muharram A.H. 1). The formal adoption of the Hijri era in official documents dates from the Khilāfat of Ḥaḍhrat 'Umar,—from the year 17-18 H. according to Ṭabarī.

Sir Wolseley Haig's Comparative Tables of Muhammadan and Christian Dates (London, Luzac, 1932), gives in a handy form three comparative Tables which enable the synchronisation of Hijri years from A.H. 1 to A.H. 1421. The main Table for these years was printed earlier at the end of S. Haīm's New English-Persian Dictionary, Teheran, 1931. The exact title of Wüstenfeld's German Tables is: Wüstenfeld-Mahler, Vergleichungs-Tabellen, Leipzig, 1926 (2nd edition).

APPENDIX XI.

COMPARATIVE CHRONOLOGY OF THE EARLY YEARS OF ISLAM

(See paras. 11 and 8 of Appendix X.)

The dates after the Hijrat, when given according to the Arabian Calendar, can usually be calculated exactly according to other Calendars, but it is not possible to synchronise exactly the earliest dates of the Arabian Calendar with the dates of the Christian Calendar, and for two reasons. In the first place, there seems to have been some discrepancy between the Calendars in Medina and in Mecca. In the second place, the Arabian Calendar was roughly luni-solar, before the years of the Farewell Pilgrimage (Zul-Hajj, 10 H.=March 632). The Pagan Arabs were in the habit of counting months by the appearance of the moon, but irregularly intercalating a month once in about three years to bring the calendar up into conformity with the seasons. They did not do it on any astronomical calculations or on any system, but just as it suited their own selfish purposes, thus often upsetting all the old-established conventions about the months of peace and security from war and thus getting an unfair advantage for the clique in power in Mecca over their enemies (see my n. 1295 to ix. 36). Unless exact mathematical calculations are applied and reduced to a well-established system, there is apt to be confusion, and this can well be taken advantage of by arbitrary cliques in power. After the holy Prophet's adoption of the purely lunar calendar for ecclesiastical purposes, there is no confusion. Every date after A.H. 10 is exactly convertible into a corresponding date in any other accurate calendar. Wüstenfeld's and other Comparative Tables of Muslim and Christian dates may therefore be relied upon for dates after A.H. 10, but much caution is necessary in synchronisation for earlier dates.

Maulāna Shibli, in his Sirat-un-Nabi, Vol. I, p. 124 (edition of 1336 H., 1918 C.), adopts for the Prophet's Birthday the date 20th April 571, following Maḥmūd Pāshā. They go on the basis of an astronomical event, the total eclipse of the sun that was visible in Medina on the day that the Prophet's son Ibrāhīm was taken to the mercy of God. But there is no agreement among the authorities as to the exact date either by the Christian or the Arabian Calendar. Shibli, following Maḥmūd Pāshā, takes the date of the eclipse to be the 7th November 632. Muir (Life, ed. 1923, p. 429), assumes some date in June or July 631. L. Caetani (Chronographia Islamica, A.H. 10) gives the date of the eclipse as 4th or 5th July 631, which he synchronises with the 28th or 29th of Rabi' I, A.H. 10, but he quotes authorities for the death of Ibrāhīm as on the 16th June 631, synchronising it with the 10th of Rabi' I, A.H. 10. There is something wrong here, as the death and the eclipse occurred on the same day. Waqidī gives the month as Rabi' I, A.H. 10, and gives Ibrāhīm a life of 15 months. But if Abū Dā-ūd and Baihaqī are correct, Ibrāhīm lived only 2 months and 10 days, and as his date of birth is given in Zul-Hajj A.H. 8, the date of death according to these authorities would be in

A note on the Persian capitals may be interesting. So long as Persia was under the influence of the Semitic Elamites, the chief residence of the rulers was at Sūsa, near the modern Dizful, about 50 miles north-east of Shustar. In the Medic or Median period (say B. C. 700 to 550) the capital was, as we should expect, in the highlands of Media, in Ecbatana, the site of the modern city of Hamadān, 180 miles west of modern Tīhrān. Ecbatana remained even in Sāsānian times the summer capital of Persia. With the Achæmenians (B.C. 550 to 330) we come to a period of full national and imperial life. Sūsa was the chief Achæmenian capital from the time of Darius I onwards, though Persepolis (Istakhr) in the mountain region near modern Shirāz, and about 40 miles north-east of Shirāz, was used as the city of royal burial. Alexander himself, as Ruler in Persia, died in Babylon. Later, when the centre of gravity moved north and north-east, other sites were selected. The Arsacids (Ashkāniān) or Parthians were a tribal power, fitly called in Arabic the mulūk-ur-jawāif, and had probably no fixed or centralised capital. The Sāsānians took over a site where there were a number of cities, among which were Ctesiphon and Seleucia on opposite banks of the river Tigris. This site is about 45 miles north of the old site of Babylon and 25 miles below the later city of Baghdād. Ctesiphon and Seleucia were Greek cities founded by one of Alexander's successors, Seleucia being named after Seleucus. This complex of seven cities was afterwards called by the Arabic name of Madāin ("the Cities"). The Takht-i-Kisrā (or Arch of Ctesiphon) still stands in a ruinous condition on this site. This seems to have been the chief capital of the Sāsānians at the Arab conquest, which may be dated either from the battle of Qādisiyya or that of Madāin (both fought in 637 A.D.), after which Persia which then included 'Irāq came into the Muslim Empire. The 'Abbāsi Empire built Baghdād for its capital under Manṣūr in 762 A.D. When that Empire was broken up in 1258 A.D. there was some confusion for two centuries. Then a national Persian Empire, the Ṣafawī (1499-1736) arose, and Shāh Salīm established his capital in the north-west corner in Ṭabriz. Shāh 'Abbās the Great (1587-1628) had his capital at the more central city of Ispahān (or Isfahān). After the Ṣafawī dynasty confusion reigned again for about four decades, when the Afghans were in the ascendant. When the Qāchār (or Qājār) dynasty (1795-1925) was firmly established under Aḡa Muḥammad Khān, Tīhrān (Teheran), near the Caspian, where his family originated, became the capital, and it still remains the capital under the modern Pehlevi Dynasty.

was extinguished by the Muslim victory at the battle of Madāin in 637. The great and glorious Persian monarchy, full of pride and ambition, came to an ignominious end, and a new chapter opened for Persia under the banner of Islam.

20. The Roman Empire itself began to shrink gradually, losing its territory, not to Persia, but to the new Muslim Power which absorbed both the ancient Empires. This Power arose in its vigour to proclaim a new and purified creed to the whole world. Already in the last seven years of Heraclius's reign (635-642) several of the provinces nearest to Arabia had been annexed to the Muslim Empire. The Muslim Empire continued to spread on, in Asia Minor to the north and Egypt to the south. The Eastern Roman Empire became a mere shadow with a small bit of territory round its capital. Constantinople eventually surrendered to the Muslim arms in 1453.

21. That was the real end of the Roman Empire. But in the wonderful century in which the Prophet lived, another momentous Revolution was taking place. The Roman Pontificate of Gregory the Great (590-604) was creating a new Christianity as the old Christianity of the East was slowly dying out. The Patriarch of Constantinople had claimed to be the Universal Bishop, with jurisdiction over all the other bishops of Christendom. This had been silently but gradually questioned by the Popes of Rome. They had been building up a liturgy, a church organisation and a body of discipline for the clergy, different from those of the Holy Orthodox Church. They had been extending their spiritual authority in the Barbarian provinces of Gaul and Spain. They had been amassing estates and endowments. They had been accumulating secular authority in their own hands. Pope Gregory the Great converted the Anglo-Saxon invaders of Great Britain to his form of Christianity. He protected Italy from the ravages of the Franks and Lombards and raised the See of Rome to the position of a Power which exercised ample jurisdiction over the Western world. He was preparing the way for the time when one of his successors would crown under his authority the Frankish Charlemagne as Emperor of Rome and of the West (A.D. 800), and another of his successors would finally break away from the Orthodox Church of Constantinople in 1054 by the Pope's excommunication of the Patriarch of Constantinople and the Greeks. (See the last paragraph in Appendix V.)

References: - Among Western writers, the chief authority is Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire; mainly chapters 40-42, and 45-46; I have given references to other chapters in the body of this Appendix; his delineation of the characters of Heraclius and Chosroes II is brief but masterly. L. Drapeyron's French monograph, L'Empereur Héraclius (Paris, 1869) throws further light on an interesting personality. A J. Buller's Arab Conquest of Egypt (Oxford, 1902) gives a good account of Heraclius. The famous French dramatist Corneille has left a Play on Heraclius, but it turns more on an intricate and imaginary plot in the early life of Heraclius than on the character of Heraclius as Emperor. Niẓāmī, in his Khusrau-o-Shīrīn (571 H. = 1175-66 A.D.) makes a reference at the end of his Romance to the holy Prophet's letter to the Persian King, and does attempt in the course of the Romance a picture of the King's character. He is a sort of wild Prince Hal before he comes to the throne. Shīrīn is an Armenian princess in love with Khusrau: she marries Khusrau after the death of his first wife Māryam, daughter of the Roman Emperor, and mother of the undutiful son who killed Khusrau and seized his throne. Among the other Eastern writers, we find a detailed description of the interview of Abū Sufyān in Bukhārī's Ṣaḥīḥ (Book on the beginning of Inspiration): the notes in the excellent English translation of Muḥammad Asad (Leopold Weiss) are helpful. Ṭabarī's History is as usual valuable. Mirkhond's (Khāwind-Shāh's) Rauḍhat-uṣ-Ṣaʿāda (translated by Rehatsek) will give English readers a summary (at second hand) of the various Arabic authorities. Maulāna Shiblī's otherwise excellent Sīrat-un-Nabī is in this respect disappointing. Maulāna Zafar 'Alī's Qalaba-i-Rūm (Urdu, Lahore, 1926) is interesting for its comments.

battle, however, he had taken care to get the alliance of the Turks and with their help to relieve Constantinople in 626 against the Persians and the treacherous Avars who had then joined the Persians.

17. Heraclius celebrated his triumph in Constantinople in March 628. Peace was then made between the two Empires on the basis of the status quo ante. Heraclius, in pursuance of a vow he had made, went south in the autumn to Emessa (Hims) and from there marched on foot to Jerusalem to celebrate his victories, and restore to its place the holy Cross which had been carried away by the Persians and was returned to the Emperor as a condition of peace. Heraclius's route was strewn with costly carpets, and he thought that the final deliverance had come for his people and his empire. Either on the way, or in Jerusalem, he met a messenger from the holy Prophet, carrying a letter inviting him to the True Faith as renewed in the living Apostle of the age. He apparently received the messenger with courtesy. But he did not realise the full import of the new World which was being shaped according to God's plans, and the future that was opening out through the new Revelation. Perhaps in his heart he felt impressed by the story which he heard from the Arabs about the holy Prophet, but the apparent grandeur of his empire and the pride of his people prevented him from openly accepting the renewed Message of God. He caused a search to be made for any Arab who was sufficiently acquainted with the Prophet to tell him something about him. Abū Sufyān was then trading in a caravan in Syria. He was a cousin of the Prophet, and belonged to the Umayya branch of the family. He was sent for to Jerusalem (Ælia Capitolina).

18. When Abū Sufyān was called to the presence of Heraclius, the Emperor questioned him closely about this new Prophet. Abū Sufyān himself was at that time outside Islam and really an enemy of the Prophet and of his Message. Yet the story he told—of the truth and the sincerity of the holy Apostle, of the way in which the poor and the lowly flocked to him, of the wonderful increase of his power and spiritual influence, and the way in which people who had once received the Light never got disillusioned or went back to their life of ignorance, and above all the integrity with which he kept all his covenants—made a favourable impression on the mind of Heraclius. That story is told in dramatic detail by Bukhārī and other Arabian writers.

19. The relations of the Persian Monarch with Islam were different. He—either Khusrau Parwīz or his successor—received the holy Apostle's messenger with contumely and tore up his letter. "So will his kingdom be torn up," said the holy Apostle when the news reached him. The Persian Monarch ordered his Governor in Yemen to go and arrest the man who had so far forgotten himself as to address the grandson of Anaushīrwān on equal terms. When the Persian Governor tried to carry out his Monarch's command, the result was quite different from what the great Persian King of Kings had expected. His agent accepted the truth of Islam, and Yemen was lost as a province to the Persian Empire and became a portion of the new Muslim State. Khusrau Parwīz died in February 628. He had been deposed and imprisoned by his own cruel and undutiful son, who reigned only for a year and a half. There were nine candidates for the Persian throne in the remaining four years. Anarchy reigned supreme in the Sāsānian Empire, until the dynasty itself insulted, and many relics, including the "true Cross" on which the Christians believed that Christ had been crucified, were carried away to Persia. The priests of the Persian religion celebrated an exultant triumph over the priests of Christ. In this pillage and massacre the Persians were assisted by crowds of Jews, who were discontented with the Christian domination, and the Pagan Arabs to whom any opportunity of plunder and destruction was in itself welcome. It is probably this striking event—this victory of the Persians over the Roman Empire—which is referred to in Sūra XXX (Rūm) of the Qur-ān. The Pagan Arabs naturally sided with the Persians in their destructive zeal, and thought that the destruction of the Christian power of Rome would also mean a setback to the Message of the Prophet, the true successor of Jesus. For our holy Prophet had already begun his mission and the promulgation of God's Revelation in A.D. 610. While the whole world believed that the Roman Empire was being killed by Persia, it was revealed to him that the Persian victory was short-lived and that within a period of a few years the Romans would conquer again and deal a deadly blow at the Persians. The Pagan Arabs, who were then persecuting the holy Prophet in Mecca, hoped that their persecution would destroy the holy Prophet's new Revelation. In fact both their persecution and the deadly blows aimed by the Persians and the Romans at each other were instruments in God's hands for producing those conditions which made Islam thrive and increase until it became the predominant power in the world.

15. The Persian flood of conquest did not stop with the conquest of Jerusalem. It went on to Egypt, which was also conquered and annexed to the Persian Empire in 616. The Persian occupation reached as far as Tripoli in North Africa. At the same time another Persian army ravaged Asia Minor and reached right up to the gates of Constantinople. Not only the Jews and Pagan Arabs, but the various Christian sects which had been persecuted as heretics by the Romans, joined in the fray and helped the Persians. The condition of Heraclius became indeed pitiable. With all these calamities, he had to deal with the Avars who were attacking from the other side of Constantinople, which was practically in a state of siege. Famine and pestilence added to the horrors of the situation.

16. In these desperate circumstances Heraclius conceived a brilliant plan. He knew that the Persians were weak in sea power. He used his sea power to attack them in the rear. In 622 (the year of the Hijra) he transported his army by sea through the Ægean Sea to the bay just south of the Taurus Mountains. He fought a decisive battle with the Persians at Issus, in the same plain in which Alexander the Great had defeated the Persians of his day in his famous march to Syria and Egypt. The Persians were taken by surprise and routed. But they had still a large force in Asia Minor, which they could have brought into play against the Romans if Heraclius had not made another and equally unexpected dash by sea from the north. He returned to Constantinople by sea, made a treaty with the Avars, and with their help kept the Persians at bay round the capital. Then he led three campaigns, in 623, 624 and 625, along the southern shore of the Black Sea and took the Persians again in the rear in the region round Trebizond and Kars. Through Armenia he penetrated into Persia and got into Mesopotamia. He was now in a position to strike at the very heart of the Persian Empire. A decisive battle was fought on the Tigris near the city of Mosul in December 627. Before this and the Vandals were pressing further and further into the Roman Empire. From Asia the Avars and the Turks were pressing both on the Romans and the Persians, and sometimes playing off the one against the other. The simpler and less sophisticated nations, with their ruder but more genuine virtues, were gaining ground. Into all that welter came the Message of Islam, to show up, as by galvanic action, the false from the true, the empty from the eternal, the decrepit and corrupt from the vigorous and pure. The ground of History was being prepared for the New Birth in Religion.

11. Anaushīrwān was succeeded on the Persian throne by an unworthy son Hurmuz (579-590). Had it not been for the talents of his able General Bahram, his Empire would have been ruined by the invasions of the Turks on one side and of the Romans on the other. Eventually Bahram rebelled, and Hurmuz was deposed and killed. His son Khusrau Parwīz (Chosroes II) took refuge with the Byzantine Emperor Maurice, who practically adopted him as a son and restored him to the Persian throne with Roman arms. Khusrau reigned over Persia from 590 to 628. It was to him that the holy Prophet addressed one of his letters, inviting him to Islam towards the end of his life. It is not certain whether the letter was actually delivered to him or to his successor, as it is not easy to calculate precisely synchronous dates of the Christian era with those of the earliest years of the Hijrī era.

12. In Arabic and Persian records the term Kisrā refers usually to Khusrau Parwīz (Chosroes II) and sometimes to Khusrau Anaushīrwān (Chosroes I), while the term Khusrau is usually treated as generic,—as the title of the Kings of Persia generally. But this is by no means always the case. "Kisrā" is an Arabic form of "Khusrau". The name of Anaushīrwān has been shortened from the time of Firdausī onwards to Nūshīrwān. The Pehlevi form is Anoshek-ruwān, "of immortal soul"

13. The Roman Emperor Maurice (582-602) had a mutiny in his army, and his capital revolted against him. The army chose a simple centurion called Phocas as Emperor and executed Maurice himself. The usurper Phocas ruled from 602 to 610, but his tyranny soon disgusted the Empire. Heraclius, the governor (exarch) of a distant province in Africa, raised the standard of rebellion, and his young son, also called Heraclius, was sent to Constantinople to depose Phocas and assume the reins of power. It was this younger Heraclius, who ascended the throne of Constantinople in 610 and ruled till 642, who figures in Muslim history as Hiraql.

14. Khusrau Parwīz called himself the son of the Emperor Maurice. During his refuge at Constantinople he had married a Byzantine wife. In Nizāmī's Romance she is known as Maryam. According to some historians she was a daughter of the Emperor Maurice, but Gibbon throws doubt on that relationship. In any case he used the resources of the Persian Empire to fight the usurper Phocas. He invaded the Byzantine Empire in 603. The war between the Persians and the Romans became a national war and continued after the fall of Phocas in 610. The Persians had sweeping victories, and conquered Aleppo, Antioch, and the chief Syrian cities, including Damascus, in 611. Jerusalem fell to their arms in 614-15, just 8 to 7 years before the sacred Hijrat. The city was burnt and pillaged, the Christians were massacred, the churches were burnt, the burial-place of Christ was world. The year usually given for the Prophet's birth is 570 A.D., though the date must be taken as only approximate, being the middle figure between 569 and 571, the extreme possible limits. The Abyssinians having been overthrown, the Persians were established in Yemen, and their power lasted there until about the 7th year of the Hijra (approximately 628 A.D.), when Yemen accepted Islam.

9. The outstanding event in Byzantine history in the 6th century was the reign of Justinian (527-565) and in Persian history the reign of Anaushirwān (531-579). Justinian is well-known for his great victories in Africa and for the great Digest he made of Roman Law and Jurisprudence. In spite of the scandalous life of his queen Theodora, he occupies an honourable place in the history of the Roman Empire. Anaushirwān is known in Persian history as the "Just King". They were contemporary rulers for a period of 34 years. In their time the Roman and the Persian Empires were in close contact both in peace and war. Anaushirwān just missed being adopted by the Roman Emperor. If the adoption had come off, he would have become one of the claimants to the Byzantine throne. He invaded Syria and destroyed the important Christian city of Antioch in 540-541. It was only the able defence of Belisarius, the Roman general, which saved the Roman Empire from further disasters in the east. On the other hand the Turanian Avars, driven in front of the Turks, had begun the invasion of Constantinople from the western side. Justinian also made an alliance with the Abyssinians as a Christian nation, and the Abyssinians and the Persians came into conflict in Yemen. Thus world conditions were hemming in Arabia on all sides. It was Islam that not only saved Arabia but enabled it to expand and to play a prominent part in world history after the annihilation of the Persian Empire and the partial destruction of the Byzantine Empire.

10. The sixth century of the Christian era and the first half of the seventh century were indeed a marvellous period in the world's history. Great events and transformations were taking place throughout the then known world. We have referred to the Roman Empire and the Persian Empire which dominated the civilised portions of Europe, Africa and Western Asia. The only two other countries of note in history in those days were India and China. In India there was the glorious period of Harsha Vardhana (606-647 A.D.), in which art, science, and literature flourished, political power was on a healthy basis, and religious enquiry was bringing India and China into close relationship. The famous Chinese Buddhist traveller Yuang-Chwang (or Yuang-Tsang or Hsüan-Tsang) performed his pious pilgrimage to India in 629-45. In China the glorious T'ang Dynasty was established in 618. The Chinese art of that Dynasty led the world. In political power Chinese extended from the Pacific in the east to the Persian Gulf on the west. There was unity and peace, and China—hitherto more or less isolated—received ambassadors from Persia, Constantinople, Magadha, and Nepal, in 643. But all this pomp and glitter had in it the seeds of decay. Persia and Byzantium collapsed in the next generation. India was in chaos after Harsha's death. The Chinese Empire could not long remain free from the "Barbarians": the Great Wall, begun in the third century B.C., was soon to be out of date. By about 683 the Khitans from the north-west and the Tibetans from the south were molesting China. The Germans, the Goths a great part of the Byzantine Empire, and annexed Egypt, Palestine, Syria, and gradually Asia Minor, finally extinguishing the whole of the Byzantine Empire.

5. Another stage in Persian history was reached when the Arsacids were overthrown and the Sāsānians came into power under Ardashir I, A.D. 225. The Sāsānian Empire was in a sense a continuation of the Achæmenian Empire, and was a reaction against the corruptions of the Zoroastrian religion which had crept in under the Parthian Dynasty of the Arsacids. But the religious reforms were only partial. There was some interaction between Christianity and the Zoroastrian religion. For example, the great mystic Mānī, who was a painter as well as a religious leader, founded the sect of Manichæism. He flourished in the reign of Shāpūr I (A.D. 241-272) and seems to have preached a form of Gnostic faith, in which Alexandrian philosophy was mixed with Christian doctrine and the old Persian belief in the dual principle of Good and Evil. The Sāsānians failed to purify religion and only adhered to fire-worship as the chief feature of their cult. In manners and morals they succumbed to the vices of arrogance, luxury, sensuality, and monopoly of power and privilege, which it is the office of Religion to denounce and root out. That office was performed by Islam.

6. When the seat of the Roman Empire was transferred to Constantinople (Byzantium) in the time of Constantine (A.D. 330), the conflict between Rome and Persia became more and more frequent. The true Peninsula of Arabia was never conquered either by Rome or by Persia, although its outlying parts were absorbed in either the one or the other at various times. It is interesting to notice that the Roman Emperor Philip (A.D. 244-249) was a born Arab and that the architecture of the Nabatæans in the city of Petra and in Hijr shows a mixture of Roman, Greek, Egyptian, and indigenous Arab cultures.

7. Arabia received the cultural influences of Persia and the Byzantine Empire, but was a silent spectator of their conflicts until Islam was brought into the main currents of world politics.

8. The Yemen coast of Arabia, which was easily accessible by sea to Persia, was the battle-ground between the Persian Empire and the Abyssinian Empire just across the Red Sea. Abyssinia and Arabia had had cultural and political relations for many centuries. Amharic, the ruling language of Abyssinia, is closely allied to Arabic, and the Amharic people went as colonists and conquerors from Arabia through Yemen. Shortly before the birth of holy Prophet, Abyssinia had been in occupation of Yemen for some time, having displaced a Jewish dynasty. The Abyssinians professed the Christian religion, and although their Church was doctrinally separate from the Byzantine Church, there was a great deal of sympathy between the Byzantines and the Abyssinians on account of their common Christian religion. One of the Abyssinian viceroys in Yemen was Abraha, who conceived the design of destroying the Temple at Mecca. He led an expedition, in which elephants formed a conspicuous feature, to invade Mecca and destroy the Ka'ba. He met a disastrous repulse, which is referred to in the Qur-ān (Sūra cv.). This event was in the year of the Prophet's birth, and marks the beginning of the great conflict which enabled Arabia eventually to obtain a leading place among the nations of the

FIRST CONTACT OF ISLAM WITH WORLD MOVEMENTS.

The contemporary Roman and Persian Empires (see xxx, 2-7 and notes).

The conflict between the Byzantine Emperor Heraclius and the Persian King Khusrau Parwiz (Chosroes II) is referred to in Sūra xxx. (Rūm). It will therefore be convenient now to review very briefly the relations of these two great empires and the way in which they gradually decayed before the rising sun of Islam. The story has not only a political significance, but a deep spiritual significance in world history.

2. If we take the Byzantine Empire as a continuation of the Empire that grew out of the Roman Republic, the first conflict took place in B.C. 53, when the Consul Crassus (famous for his riches) was defeated in his fight with the Parthians. If we go back further, to the time of the Greek City States, we can refer back to the invasion of Greece by Xerxes in B.C. 480-479 and the effective repulse of that invasion by sea and land by the united co-operation of the Greek States. The Persian Empire in those days extended to the western (Mediterranean) coast of Asia Minor. But as it included the Greek cities of Asia Minor, there was constant intercourse in war and peace between Persia and the Hellenic (Greek) world. The cities in Greece proper had their own rivalries and jealousies, and Greek cities or parties often invoked the aid of the Great King (Shahinshah of Persia) against their opponents. By the Peace of Antalcidas, B.C. 387, Persia became practically the suzerain power of Greece. This was under the Achæmenian Dynasty of Persia.

3. Then came the rise of Macedonia and Alexander's conquest of the Persian Empire (B.C. 330). This spread the Hellenic influence as far east as Central Asia, and as far south as Syria (including Palestine), Egypt, and Northern Africa generally. Rome in its expansion westwards reached the Atlantic, and in its expansion eastwards absorbed the territories of Alexander's successors, and became the mistress of all countries with a Mediterranean sea-coast. The nations of the Roman Empire "insensibly melted away into the Roman name and people" (Gibbon, chap. ii).

4. Meanwhile there were native forces in Persia which asserted themselves and established (A.D. 10) the Dynasty of the Arsacids (Ashkāniān). This was mainly the outcome of a revolt against Hellenism, and its spear-point was in Parthia. The Arsacids won back Persia proper, and established the western boundary of Persia in a line drawn roughly from the eastern end of the Black Sea southwards to the Euphrates at a point north-east of Palmyra. This would include the region of the Caucasus (excluding the Black Sea coast) and Armenia and Lower Mesopotamia, in the Persian Empire. And this was the normal boundary between Persia and the Roman Empire until the Islamic Empire wiped out the old Monarchy of Persia and

58. Verily We have propounded
For men, in this Qur-ān.
Every kind of Parable :
But if thou bring to them
Any Sign, the Unbelievers <sup>3576</sup>
Are sure to say, "Ye
Do nothing but talk vanities."
59. Thus does God seal up <sup>3577</sup>
The hearts of those
Who understand not.
60. So patiently persevere : for
Verily the promise of God
Is true : nor let those <sup>3578</sup>
Shake thy firmness, who have (Themselves) no certainty of faith.

﴿٣٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِن
كُلِّ مَثَلٍ وَلَٰكِن جِثَّهُمْ بَيِّنَةٌ لِّقَوْلِكَ الَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا إِنَّا أَنشَدُوا إِلَّا مَبْطُلُونَ

﴿٣١﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

﴿٣٢﴾ فَأَصْبِرْ إِنَّا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ حَقًّا
وَلَا يَسْتَعْجِلُكَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُوقِنُونَ

3576. Things of the highest moment have been explained in the Qur-ān from various points of view, as in this Sūra itself, by means of parables and similitudes drawn from nature and from our ordinary daily life. But whatever the explanation, however convincing it may be to men who earnestly seek after Truth, those who deliberately turn their backs to Truth can find nothing convincing. In their eyes the explanations are mere "vain talk" or false arguments.

3577. When an attitude of obstinate resistance to Truth is adopted, the natural consequence (by God's Law) is that the heart and mind get more and more hardened with every act of deliberate rejection. It becomes more and more impervious to the reception of Truth, just as a sealed envelope is unable to receive any further letter or message after it is sealed. C/. also ii. 7 and n. 31.

3578. The man of God does not slacken in his efforts or feel discouraged because the Unbelievers laugh at him or persecute him or even seem to succeed in blocking his Message. He has firm faith, and he knows that God will finally establish His Truth. He goes on in his divinely entrusted task, with patience and perseverance, which must win against the levity of his opponents, who have no faith or certainty at all to sustain them.

Then, after strength, gave (you)
Weakness and a hoary head : <sup>3572</sup>
He creates as He wills,
And it is He Who has
All knowledge and power.

ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ ضَعْفًا وَشَيْبَةً يَخْلُقُ
مَا يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْقَدِيرُ

55. On the Day that
The Hour (of reckoning)
Will be established, <sup>3573</sup>
The transgressors will swear
That they tarried not
But an hour : thus were
They used to being deluded !

۞ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُقْسِمُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ
مَا لَبِثُوا غَيْرَ سَاعَةٍ
كَذَلِكَ كَانُوا يُؤْفَكُونَ

56. But those endued with knowledge
And faith will say :
" Indeed ye did tarry,
Within God's Decree,
To the Day of Resurrection,
And this is the Day <sup>3574</sup>
Of Resurrection : but ye—
Ye were not aware !"

۞ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَالْإِيمَانَ لَقَدْ
لَبِثْتُمْ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْبَعْثِ فَهَذَا يَوْمُ
الْبَعْثِ وَلَكِنَّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ

57. So on that Day no excuse
Of theirs will
Avail the Transgressors, <sup>3575</sup>
Nor will they be invited (then)
To seek grace (by repentance)

۞ فَيَوْمَذِي لَا يَنْفَعُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَعْذِرَتُهُمْ
وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ

3572. What was said before about the people who make God's teaching "of none effect" does not mean that Evil will defeat Good. On the contrary we are asked to contemplate the mysteries of God's wisdom with another Parable. In our physical life we see how strength is evolved out of weakness and weakness out of strength. The helpless babe becomes a lusty man in the pride of his manhood, and then sinks to a feeble old age ; and yet there is wisdom in all these stages in the Universal Plan. So God carries out His Plan in the spiritual world "as He wills", i.e. according to His Will and Plan, and none can gainsay it. And His Plan is wise and can never be frustrated.

3573. Whatever the seeming inequalities may be now—when the good appear to be weak and the strong seem to oppress—will be removed when the balance will be finally redressed. That will happen in good time,—indeed so quickly that the Transgressors will be taken by surprise. They were deluded by the fact that what they took to be their triumph or their freedom to do what they liked was only a reprieve, a "Term Appointed", in which they could repent and amend and get God's Mercy. Failing this, they will then be up against the Penalties which they thought they had evaded or defied.

3574. The men of knowledge and faith knew all along of the true values—of the things of this ephemeral life and the things that will endure and face them at the End,—unlike the wrong-doers who were content with falsehoods and were taken by surprise, like ignorant men, when they faced the Realities.

3575. It will be no use for those who deliberately rejected the clearest warnings in God's Message to say : "Oh, we did not realise this!" The excuse will be false, and it would be unreasonable to suppose that they would then be asked to seek Grace by repentance. It will then be too late.

Who are dead : for He
Has power over all things.

51. And if We (but) send
A Wind from which <sup>3569</sup>
They see (their tilth)
Turn yellow,—behold,
They become, thereafter,
Ungrateful (Unbelievers)!

52. So verily thou canst not Make the dead to hear, <sup>3570</sup>
Nor canst thou make
The deaf to hear
The call, when they show
Their backs and turn away.

53. Nor canst thou lead back
The blind from their straying : <sup>3571</sup>
Only those wilt thou make
To hear, who believe
In Our Signs and submit
(Their wills in Islam).

SECTION 6.

54. It is God Who
Created you in a state
Of (helpless) weakness, then
Gave (you) strength after weakness,

الْمَوْتِ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

٥١ وَلَئِنْ أَرْسَلْنَا رِيحًا فَرَأَوْهُ مُصْفَرًّا لَّظَلُّوا مِنْ
بَعْدِهِ يَكْفُرُونَ

٥٢ فَإِنَّكَ لَا تَسْمِعُ الْمَوْتَىٰ وَلَا تَسْمِعُ الْقُمْ
الَّذِينَ إِذَا دُعُوا أَصْرَبُوا

٥٣ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادٍ الْعُمْيَ عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ إِنْ
تَسْمِعُ إِلَّا مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ مُسْمِعُونَ

٥٤ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ ضَعْفٍ ثُمَّ
جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَعْفٍ قُوَّةً

3569. Another Parable from the forces of nature. We saw how the Winds gladdened, vivified, and enriched those who utilised them in the right spirit. But a wind might be destructive to tilth in certain circumstances: so the blessings of God may—by the wrong-doers resisting and blaspheming—bring punishment to the wrong-doers. Instead of taking the punishment in the right spirit—in the spirit in which Believers of God take their misfortunes,—the Unbelievers curse and deepen their sin!

3570. The marvels of God's creation can be realised in a general way by every one who has a disposition to allow such knowledge to penetrate his mind. But if men, out of perversity, kill the very faculties which God has given them, how can they then understand? Besides the men who deaden their spiritual sense, there are men who may be likened to the deaf, who lack one faculty but to whom an appeal can be made through other faculties, such as the sense of sight; but if they turn their backs and refuse to be instructed at all, how can the Truth reach them?

3571. See last note. Then there is the case of men about whom the saying holds true, that none are so blind as those who will not see. They prefer to stray in paths of wrong and of sense-pleasures. How can they be guided in any way? The only persons who gain by spiritual teaching are those who bring a mind to it—who believe and submit their wills to God's Will. This is the central doctrine of Islam.

Of His Bounty : in order
That ye may be grateful.

47. We did indeed send,
Before thee, apostles
To their (respective) peoples,
And they came to them
With Clear Signs : then,
To those who transgressed,
We meted out Retribution :
And it was due from us
To aid those who believed.

48. It is God Who sends
The Winds, and they raise<sup>3566</sup>
The Clouds : then does He Spread them in the sky
As He wills, and break them
Into fragments, until thou seest
Rain-drops issue from the midst
Thereof : then when He has Made them reach such<sup>3567</sup>
Of His servants as He wills,
Behold, they do rejoice! —

49. Even though, before they received
(The rain) — just before this —
They were dumb with despair!

50. Then contemplate (O man!)
The memorials of God's Mercy! —
How He gives life<sup>3568</sup>
To the earth after
Its death : verily the Same
Will give life to the men

مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ

٤٧ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ رُسُلًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ فَجَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَأَنكَرْنَا مِنْ الَّذِينَ أَجْرَمُوا وَكَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

٤٨ اللَّهُ الَّذِي يُرْسِلُ الرِّيحَ فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا فَيَبْسُطُهُ فِي السَّمَاءِ كَيْفَ يَشَاءُ وَيَنْجِيهِ كَيْفَ أَفْتَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرِجُ مِنْ خَلِيلِهِ فَإِذَا أَصَابَ بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ

٤٩ وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ أَنْ يَنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَمُبْلِسِينَ

٥٠ فَانْظُرْ إِلَىٰ آثَارِ رَحْمَةِ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ يُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَمُحْيٍ

3566. Again the Parable of the Winds is presented from another aspect, both physical and spiritual. In the physical world, see their play with the Clouds : how they suck up the moisture from terrestrial water, carry it about in dark clouds as needed, and break it up with rain as needed. So God's wonderful Grace draws up men's spiritual aspirations from the most unlikely places and suspends them as dark mysteries, according to His holy Will and Plan : and when His Message reaches the hearts of men even in the smallest fragments, how its recipients rejoice, even though before it, they were in utter despair!

3567. See last note.

3568. After the two Parables about the purifying action of the Winds and their fertilising action, we now have the Parable of the earth that dies in winter or drought and lives again in spring or rain, by God's Grace : so in the spiritual sphere, man may be dead and may live again by the Breath of God and His Mercy if he will only place himself in God's hands.

No chance of averting :
On that Day shall men
Be divided (in two).<sup>3560</sup>

مِنَ اللَّهِ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدَعُونَ

44. Those who reject Faith
Will suffer from that rejection :
And those who work righteousness
Will spread their couch
(Of repose) for themselves
(In heaven) :

④ مَن كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ وَمَنْ عَمِلَ
صَالِحًا فَلَا نَفْسٍ بِهِ يَمْدُونَ

45. That He may reward those
Who believe and work righteous
Deeds, out of His Bounty.<sup>3561</sup>
For He loves not those
Who reject Faith.<sup>3562</sup>

⑤ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنْ
فَضْلِهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الْكَافِرِينَ

46. Among His Signs is this,<sup>3563</sup>
That He sends the Winds,
As heralds of Glad Tidings,
Giving you a taste
Of His (Grace and) Mercy,—<sup>3564</sup>
That the ships may sail
(Majestically) by His Command
And that ye may seek<sup>3565</sup>

⑥ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ يُرْسِلَ الرِّيحَ بُشِّرَاتٍ
وَلِيَذِيقَكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَلِيُخْرِجَ الْفُلُكُ
بِأَمْرِهِ وَلِيَبْتَغُوا

3560. The sharp division will then have been accomplished between the unfortunate ones who rejected Truth and Faith and will suffer for their rejection, and the righteous who will attain Peace and Salvation : see next verse. Note that the state of the Blessed will not be merely a passive state. They will actively earn and contribute to their own happiness : "they will spread their couch of repose for themselves."

3561. Though the repose and bliss will have been won by the righteous by their own efforts, it must not be supposed that their own merits were equal to the reward they will earn. What they will get will be due to the infinite Grace and Bounty of God.

3562. In form this clause is (here as elsewhere) negative, but it has a positive meaning : God loves those who have faith and trust in Him, and will, out of His Grace and Bounty, reward them in abundant measure.

3563. The theme of God's artistry in the physical and the spiritual world was placed before us above in xxx. 20-27. Then, in verses 28-40, we were shown how man and nature were pure as they came out of the hand of God, and how we must restore this purity in order to fulfil the Will and Plan of God. Now we are told how the restorative and purifying agencies are sent by God Himself,—in both the physical and the spiritual world.

3564. C/. vii 57 and n. 1036 and xxv. 48 and n. 3104.

3565. In the physical world, the winds not only cool and purify the air, and bring the blessings of rain, which fertilises the soil, but they help international commerce and intercourse among men through sea-ways and now by air-ways. Those who know how to take advantage of these blessings of God prosper and rejoice, while those who ignore or fail to understand these Signs perish in storms. So in the spiritual world : heralds of glad tidings were sent by God in the shape of apostles : those who profited by their Message prospered in spiritual gain, and those who ignored or opposed the Clear Signs perished spiritually : see next verse.

C. 182.—The result of Evil is Evil. So
 'xxx 41-60) Mischief spreads, but God will restore
 The balance in the End. He did create
 All things pure, and will purge and purify,
 As He does the physical world with Winds.
 Destruction awaits those that break
 His Harmony and Law: it will come when least
 Expected. Let the righteous wait and endure
 With constancy, for Evil is shaky,
 With no faith in itself and no roots,
 And is doomed to perish utterly.

SECTION 5.

41. (Mischief has appeared
 On land and sea because
 Of (the meed) that the hands
 Of men have earned,<sup>3556</sup>
 That (God) may give them
 A taste of some of their
 Deeds: in order that they<sup>3557</sup>
 May turn back (from Evil).

① ظَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ
 أَيْدِي النَّاسِ لِيُذِيقَهُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا
 لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ

42. Say: "Travel through the earth
 And see what was the End
 Of those before (you):
 Most of them worshipped<sup>3558</sup>
 Others besides God."

② قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ
 كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلُ كَانَ
 أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُشْرِكِينَ

43. But set thou thy face
 To the right Religion,
 Before there come from God
 The Day which there is<sup>3559</sup>

③ فَأَوِّجْهُمُ لِلَّذِينَ الْقِيَمِ مِن قَبْلِ
 يَأْتِي يَوْمٌ لَا مَرَدَ لَهُ

3556. God's Creation was pure and good in itself. All the mischief or corruption was introduced by Evil, viz., arrogance, selfishness, etc. See n. 3541 to xxx. 30 above. As soon as the mischief has come in, God's mercy and goodness step in to stop it. The consequences of Evil must be evil, and this should be shown in such partial punishment as "the hands of men have earned," so that it may be a warning for the future and an invitation to enter the door of repentance.

3557. The ultimate object of God's justice and punishment is to reclaim man from Evil, and to restore him to the pristine purity and innocence in which he was created. The Evil introduced by his possession of a limited free-will should be eliminated by the education and purification of man's own will. For, with his will and motives purified, he is capable of much greater heights than a creature not endowed with any free-will.

3558. If you contemplate history and past experience (including spiritual experience), you will find that evil and corruption tended to destroy themselves, because they had false idols for worship, false standards of conduct, and false goals of desire.

3559. We should recover the balance that has been upset by Evil and Falsehood before it is too late. For a Day will surely come when true values will be restored and all falsehood and evil will be destroyed. Nothing but repentance and amendment can avert the consequences of Evil. When the Day actually comes, repentance will be too late: for the impassable barrier between Evil and Good will have been fixed, and the chance of return to God's pattern will have been lost.

Who seek the Countenance,<sup>3550</sup>
Of God, and it is they
Who will prosper.<sup>3551</sup>

39. That which ye lay out
For increase through the property
Of (other) people, will have<sup>3552</sup>
No increase with God :
But that which ye lay out
For charity, seeking
The Countenance of God,<sup>3553</sup>
(Will increase) : it is
These who will get
A recompense multiplied.

40. It is God Who has Created you : further, He has Provided for your sustenance ;
Then He will cause you
To die ; and again He will Give you life. Are there
Any of your (false) " Partners " <sup>3554</sup>
Who can do any single
One of these things ?
Glory to Him ! and High
Is He above the partners <sup>3555</sup>
They attribute (to Him) !

يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ

﴿٣٩﴾ وَمَا آتَايْتُمْ مِنْ رِبَا لِيَرْبُوَ فِي أَمْوَالِ
النَّاسِ فَلَا يَرْبُوا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَمَا آتَيْتُمْ
مِنْ زَكَاةٍ يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ
الْمُضْعِفُونَ

﴿٤٠﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ رَزَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ
